any rebel gunboats or shipping, to take the town and then to scour the country to the south of the lake, a district not yet explored by the Americans. The tactics will be those of the old time frontier fighting, and it is probable that the command will be divided into squads of twelve, under non-commissioned officers. In Gen. Lawton's absence the Second division is temporarily commanded by Gen. Ovenshine, whose lines extend from the beach near Malate, south of Manila, to the shore of Laguna de Bay, beyond Pasig, a distance of about seven miles. The withdrawal of the eighteen companies, constituting the expeditionary force, made a gap in the line from the beach to Culleuli, just south of San Pedro Macati, which was subsequently filled by the Fourth regular infantry. The rebels on the extreme right had evidently been informed of the withdrawal of the troops and they attempted to sneak through after nightfall, but they met with a warm reception and fell back in disorder on discovering that the line was still intact.

PROBABLE ARSON.

The Burning of the Andrews House an Act of Revenge.

New York, April 11—Despite reticence upon the part of the police facts became public which makes it apparent that the fire which destroyed thirteen persons was of incendiary origin. It transpires that a few hours before the flames were seen, a policeman was sent for from the Andrews house and mysteriously dismissed by a servant, who said he was not wanted. Letters threatening the lives of the Andrews family and the children of Mrs. St. John were found. It is believed that the motive of incendiarism was revenge and that the affair arose out of a quarrel among the servants. Foley, the butler in the Andrews family, is under surveillance, and the police are hard at work investigating the clues, which chiefly rest upon the anonymous letters.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

Fifty Passengers Narrowly Escaped Death Owing to a Washout.

Green Bay, Wis., April 11.—Fifty passengers on the east-bound train on the Green Bay & Western railroad had a miraculous escape from death and injury two miles east of Royalton owing to an unnoticed washout. The road bed collapsed under the weight of the train which was running forty miles an hour. Fireman Coppling jumped safely, but Engineer Wigman was pinned in by debris of the engine, which rolled down the embankment. He will recover. The baggage car and coach were torn off the tracks and thrown forward. Not a passenger was injured.

Thawed Out Dynamite.

Reedsburg, Ind., April 11.—The wife and daughter of John Carrington, a farmer living about eight miles east of here, were killed by a dynamite explosion which wrecked their house. Dynamite was being thawed out.

Shafter in Washington.

Washington, April 11. — Maj. Gen. William R. Shafter, accompanied by his aide, arrived here yesterday afternoon from California to testify before the army court of inquiry into the beef charges.

THE LEGISLATURE

Business Transacted by Minnesota Solons.

St. Paul, April 4. — The senate got down to business yesterday, and, although an afternoon session only was held, more real hard work was done and more was accomplished than during any two days of last week. Routine work was cut off with the reports of committees and the senate resolved itself into committee of the whole for the consideration of bills on general orders. Fifty-nine bills were recommended for passage, nearly half this number being house bills, while four were killed, making a total of sixty-three on which definite action was taken. Several others were partly discussed and laid over for further consideration.

The House.

The legislation that is desired for the St. Paul-Stillwater interurban line occupied a considerable portion of the time of the house yesterday. The two bills giving the county commissioners of Washington county, or any other county for that matter, the right to allow street railway lines to be built on the public highways, and legalizing whatever has been done in that regard already, was advanced to the calendar last week and both of them passed yesterday.

The house spent considerable time in committee of the whole. The Elwelt "good roads" bill occupied much of the time and was referred back to the committee on roads and bridges.

St. Paul, April 5.—The careful work of senate committees in the consideration of bills submitted to them was never more appreciated than during the past two days while the senate has been working in committee of the whole on bills on general orders. In but three instances during the two days has the action of committees been reversed and more than one hundred bills have been acted on. Moreover, the work of the committees has greatly facilitated that of the parent body. Thus the senate has been enabled to practically clean up its general orders in two days. The senate yesterday repeated its splendid record of Monday and advanced fifty-three bills to the calendar, besides killing one. The measure laid away in the senate cemetery was the Horton bill to appropriate $1,500 for the purchase and distribution of annotations of the General Statutes of 1894.

The House.

Just before the adjournment of the house Mr. Riley moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the committee report indefinitely postponing H. F. No. 645 was adopted. This is the Dunn bill providing for a revision of the statutes. After considerable discussion the house declined to reopen the matter.

Judge Abbott succeeded in getting a reconsideration of the vote by which his bill requiring that the name of a notary public should be placed on his seal was lost. He himself moved the previous question, so there was no further discussion of the subject, and under a call of the house, the bill was passed—63 to 31.

The house bills on the calendar were all passed during the day, none of them occasioning any discussion except Mr. Hillary's street railway franchise bill. A number of bills were acted on in committee of the whole.

St. Paul, April 6.—The senate yesterday passed, by unanimous vote, the Underleak anti-trust bill. The measure was so amended as to meet legal objections that had been raised to the original bill, and it now rests with the house to pass this measure and thus enact a law that will free the people of Minnesota from the demoralizing effect of combinations of capital in restraint of trade within the state's borders. The senate put in another busy day, passing twenty-five bills that were on the calendar and killing several. One of the bills killed was the McGowan measure to authorize secret societies to drill with rifles, the same as the national guard and other military organizations.

Among the bills passed was the McCarthy bill providing for the establishment of a state pine land preserve, comprising a part of the Leech Lake Indian reservation, to be known as Leech Lake Park, and the McCarthy bill appropriating $1,471.67 to reimburse citizens of Cass county for expenses incurred during the uprising of Leech Lake Indians last fall.

The Wilson bill to place the state oil inspector on a salary of $2,500 a year, instead of allowing him fees that net about $12,000 a year, was killed yesterday on the calendar by a vote of 22 to 35.

Other bills of general interest passed were:

To amend an act entitled an act to secure payment of state tax on premiums paid to unauthorized fireinsurance companies. — To amend an act relating to taxation of railroads. — To provide for detention hospitals for the alleged insane to be located in cities of 50,000 or more inhabitants. — Relating to the practice of veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry in the State of Minnesota.

The House.

The proceedings of the house yesterday were entirely uneventful. The insurance committee did its best to clear up the records by reporting for indefinite postponement five bills, four of which were the Arctander series relative to employers' mutual liability insurance. The house then went to work on its calendar. The Myran bill authorizing townships to issue town bonds for the construction of hard roads was killed.

The following bills were passed:

Requiring the education of children and providing for truant officers. — Directing the labor commissioner to make an investigation of Sunday labor. — Providing for a custodian of public documents in the office of the secretary of state at a salary of $1,200. — Authorizing boards of education of special school districts to levy certain taxes to pay bonded indebtedness. — Increasing the salary of the warden of the state prison to $4,000. — Amending the law relative to commitments to the state training school. — Relating to the issue of school bonds in cities of less than 10,000 inhabitants. —Providing that public cartways shall be not less than one rod and not more than two rods wide. — Providing for the leasing of mineral lands owned by minors. — Giving to street railway companies the right to acquire right of way outside of cities by condemnation.

St. Paul, April 7.—The house devoted an hour and a half to the discussion of the Daugherty peddlers' license bill, upon the report of the committee on general legislation yesterday morning, and disposed of the bill, temporarily at least, by the adoption of the majority report of the committee, indefinitely postponing the bill.

Mr. O'Neill succeeded in having his bill proposing a modification of the Torrens system of land transfers made a special order for to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Foss had the Myron hard roads bill, which was lost on the calendar on Wednesday, reconsidered and referred to the committee of the whole.

The only bill on the house calendar was the game and fish bill, perfected in committee of the whole on Wednesday. It was passed with but one negative vote.

In committee of the whole Mr. Laybourn in the chair, the house cleaned up a considerable number of bills. Many of them were senate bills.

The Senate.

The senate stuck to the calendar nearly all day yesterday, and, as a result, passed forty-three bills, eighteen of which were house measures, and are, therefore, lacking only the governor's signature to become laws.

The following were among the more important bills passed:

Relating to the pay of county commissioners for supervising the construction of county drains. — To regulate the practice of dentistry in the State of Minnesota. — To prevent the desecration, mutilation and improper use of the flag of the United States or of this state. — Providing that veterans of the Spanish-American war may be admitted to the soldiers' home the same as veterans of the Civil War. — To require railroad companies to furnish free transportation to shippers for each car of stock and providing a remedy in case of failure or refusal on the part of the railroad company to comply with the provisions of this act. — To prevent relatives of adopted children from inheriting property of their foster parents. — To provide that all baking powders containing alum be so plainly labeled in type the size of great primer. — Giving preference in appointment and employment in political office to honorably discharged Union soldiers and sailors; makes it mandatory on heads of departments to appoint old soldiers when they apply for positions. — To appropriate money for the salary of the second assistant attorney general, and to repeal conflicting legislation. — To protect the public health by regulating the use of diseased, decaying and unwholesome animal matter. — To punish witnesses for failure to obey subpoenas issued out of courts of record.

St. Paul, April 8.—Gov. Lind notified the house that he was unable to agree with the conclusions of the legislature with respect to the future policy of the state in the care of the insane, and returned without his approval the Staples bill providing for the construction of a district state hospital for the insane at Anoka and the purchase of a site at Hastings for another district state hospital. Immediately when the reading of the message was concluded Mr. Staples moved that the bill and veto message lie upon the table and the house went on with its routine business.

The governor, in his message, says that what is required is accommodations for the chronic insane. This the present bill does not provide. He reiterates the arguments contained in his inaugural message advocating the retention of the acute and chronic insane in separate institutions. He says: "If the bill had been so drawn that it would be possible for the board of hospital trustees to establish asylums for the care of the chronic insane under its provisions if it became a law, then I should have signed it, notwithstanding my convictions as expressed in my message, but it is in such form that the board will be compelled to build and maintain hospitals—one at Anoka, to be erected forthwith, and, later, an additional one at Hastings."

The following bills were passed:

To require superintendents to visit schools in certain counties, and providing for salary for the same. — Relating to the dairy and food department. — Authorizing township supervisors to issue bonds for the construction of hard roads in certain cases. Authorizing national water courses to be utilized in the construction of county drains. — Requiring that grain and produce commission men shall furnish bonds. — Relating to liens for labor on logs and lumber. — Relating to duties of judges of probate. — Relating to the appointment of court reporters. — Relating to the discharge of mortgages of record.

The Senate.

The senate yesterday spent most of its time in consideration of the several game and fish bills that had been made a special order for the afternoon, and in advancing bills from general orders to the calendar. Sixteen more bills were advanced to the calendar, three game and fish bills and one affecting Hennepin county, were passed, along with a couple of other measures. The general game and fish bill is the game warden conference bill, agreed on as the style of laws to be enacted in the Northwestern states, where the game and fish are of the same kind and the reasons are about the same. The senate stuck to the original text of the bill, prohibiting spring shooting, and it will be sent back to the house for concurrence, that body having amended the bill so as to provide for spring shooting. The Dwinnell house bill to prevent the catching of fish in lakes within incorporated cities, was passed by a vote of 40 to 0. H. F. No. 556 was passed by a vote of 36 to 0. This bill provides that none but male domesticated deer may be killed and sold as venison. H. F. No. 507, to regulate the use of pound nets in international waters so as to raise the license fee from $10 to $25, was passed by a vote of 32 to 1.

St. Paul, April 10.—Gov. Lind sent in three messages to the legislature on Saturday. In one message the governor recommends a larger plant for the binding twine industry at the state prison. He calls attention to the fact that orders from farmers for binding twine are returned every day as the entire product has already been disposed of to the farmers. He recommends extending the plant so as to increase its capacity 50 per cent. The second refers to interest on state deposits and the third refers to the collection of delinquent personal taxes.

The house worked through its entire order of business, leaving a general orders of only thirty-five bills and a calendar even shorter with which to begin the last week of the session. The O'Neill bill, providing for a modification of the Torrens system of land transfers, was a special order for 10:30. The bill is a formidable document of some thirty printed pages, and the forenoon session was given up to reading it by sections for amendment. A dozen changes of a purely verbal character were adopted. In the afternoon, instead of asking for a vote, Mr. O'Neill said that inasmuch as the printed bill had only been before the house twenty-four hours he would not ask immediate action. He moved that the bill go to the calendar, which was ordered. The Wilson parole bill had been set as a special order also, but was postponed until this afternoon. The Daugherty peddler license bill was revived in the afternoon long enough to be killed a second time.

The Senate.

The senate spent most of the day in debate on the Peterson bill to reduce the rate of interest and extend the time for payment of the unpaid principle on all state lands heretofore or to be hereafter sold by the state land commissioner. The lands in question are the school lands of the state. The interest rate is now 5 per cent per annum, and the principal must be paid in forty years from the time of purchase. The proposed new law will reduce the interest to 4 per cent and extend the period of payment to fifty years. After being discussed at length, the friends of the bill, fearing the loss of the measure on account of the small attendance of senators, had it advanced from general orders to the calendar without making an effort to secure its passage, and it will be taken up for final action at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, the friends of the measure securing the adoption of a motion to that effect on a rising vote of 23 to 21.

ADMIRAL DEWEY'S POLITICS

Under No Consideration Would He Be a Candidate for President.

New York, April 11.—Admiral Dewey has given to the Manila correspondent of the Associated Press this week an interview regarding the suggestion that the admiral be made a candidate for presidential honors. The admiral said as to his politics:

"I am a sailor. A sailor has no politics. The administration is his party, and Republican or Democratic. It makes no difference. Then, again, I come from Vermont, and you would know what that means. To be anything but a Republican in Vermont is to be a man without a party. My flag lieutenant comes from Georgia. He tells me that to be anything but a Democrat in the South is to be a nobody. If I lived South I would probably be a Democrat."

"Have you ever voted?" the correspondent asked.

"Yes, years ago, but my vote was usually influenced by personal preference or local conditions. I am not a politician, and never held political office, and am totally ignorant of party intricacies and affiliations."

Admiral Dewey said that neither by vocation, disposition, education or training was he capacitated to fill the presidency. He said that he was too well along in life to consider such a possibility. His health would not admit it. All his life's work was in different lines of effort, and that, while the kindness and enthusiasm of his friends were grateful to him and the generous tributes of the American people were dear to him, he could not and would not be a candidate for the presidency of the United States under any conditions.

BOYS IN A PITCHED BATTLE.

Candidates for Admission to West Point Get Into a Fight With Village Boys.

West Point, N. Y., April 11.—A fierce battle occurred at Highland Falls at a late hour last night between candidates for admission to West Point as cadets on the one side and boys of the village on the other. The candidates are attending the preparatory schools at Highland Falls prior to being examined at West Point next June for admission to the academy. There were about thirty of them in the fight, but they were outnumbered three to one by the boys of the town. The trouble began with a hand-to-hand encounter and the crowd soon increased to such an extent that stone-throwing took the place of fists. Several of the candidates were more or less injured, the most serious being U. S. Grant III., appointed at large by the president. Many of the town boys were also badly used up. The services of all the doctors in town were required to dress the wounds of the injured. Hostilities continued for nearly an hour.

TIRED OF THE FRENCH.

How a Newfoundland Settler Would Clean Them Out.

St. John's, N. F., April 11. — Graham Tyler, a settler from Bonne Bay, on the west coast of Newfoundland, has confessed that he set fire to the French lobster factory on St. James Island, intending to provoke a crisis in the shore treaty question. He has been arrested on a charge of arson. When under examination Tyler declared that it was time the Frenchmen were cleared off the coast. He gloried in his deed and boasted that no Newfoundland jury would ever convict him. The affair has created a sensation here and serious trouble is expected with France as a result of the act of incendiarism.

Strike Declared Off.

Marquette, Mich., April 11.—The executive committee of the Ishpeming mine workers' union has reversed the decision of the union to continue the strike and declared it off. The mines will start up immediately.

Bank of St. Hilaire.

HANNAY & CO., Bankers.

Real Estate Loans.

Chattel Loans.

Foreign & Domestic Xchange

INSURANCE.

Collections a Specialty.

A General Banking Business Transacted.

St. Hilaire, Minn.

Livery and Feed Stable!

DAN PATERSON, Prop.

Dray in Connection.

The finest equipped turnouts in the northwest. Safe drivers and furnished at a moments notice at reasonable rates. Don't forget the place

BIG - RED - BARN

Located on the east side of Broadway nearly opposite Ramp & Post's Store

ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Says a modest exchange: There is a little matter which some of our Subscribers have seemingly forgotten—Some of them made us promises, but have not kept them. With us it is a very important matter—it's necessary in our business. We are very modest and don't like to speak about it.

DAY F. STACY, C. E.

DEPUTY

County Surveyor.

RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

Drainage and Farm Surveys a Specialty

FIRE INSURANCE

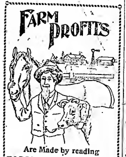
DO YOU NEED SOME?

The Best is the Cheapest.

I have nine of the best companies doing business in the State

Call for rates.

H. E. IVES.



Are Made by reading

FARM, STOCK & HOME,

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

Every Number Filled with Practical, Helpful Suggestions for the FARMER, STOCKMAN,

DAIRYMAN,
GARDENER,
POULTRYMAN,
APIARIST,
FRUITIST,
AND HOUSEWIFE.

Issued Semi-monthly 24 Papers a Year

ONLY 50 CENTS A YEAR.

Six months, 30 cents.

3 Months, on trial, 10 cts.

By special arrangement with the publishers we are enable to give FARM, STOCK AND HOME one year and the ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR for $1.25.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York

Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

The Spectator.

IVES & SOLL, Publishers.
JOHN J. SOLL, Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at St. Hilaire, Minn. as second-class mail matter.

Published every Wednesday at St. Hilaire, Red Lake County, Minn.

TERMS:—$1.50 Per Year in Advance.

Subscribers should notify the publisher on or before expiration of subscription if discontinuance is desired. Otherwise paper will be continued.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 1899.

PUNISHING AN EDITOR.

The Curious Method Adopted In a South American Country.

Curious methods of punishing indiscreet editors are in vogue in some countries. In "South American Sketches" Mr. Crawford describes the interesting experience of an editor who had been unfortunate enough to give offense to the ruling powers by the freedom of his criticisms.

The editor was arrested and confined in a narrow passage between the cages of two jaguars, notorious for their bad tempers and their intense dislike for human society.

The intervening space was so regulated that neither of the ferocious animals could get its paws quite to the middle line between the cages, so that a spare, active person, if very careful to follow the classical advice about the advantages of steering a middle course, might manage to pass without special injury, though the achievement would be both exciting and dangerous.

Our editorial friend happened to be stout, and therefore was the more easily reached by the occupants of the cages. As if to add insult to injury, he was given a chair on which to sit and at the same time was furnished with a copy of his own paper, the issue which had brought him into trouble, in order that he might meditate upon its contents.

He tried to sit motionless and bolt upright, feeling those sleepy, cruel eyes fixed upon him. At the slightest movement or the rustle of the paper uneasy mutterings arose from the cages, and a paw would stretch stealthily toward him. Leaning quickly to the other side, he was sure to be met by the ugly claws of the second jaguar. It was a case of Scylla and Charybdis.

Every few minutes the jaguars became wildly excited and clawed fiercely at the shrinking editor, who, do his best, could not escape those rending toe nails. His clothing was torn to shreds, but except for a few scratches he was not really injured.

AN ENCHANTED PITCHER.

The Relic of a Fatality. It Is Preserved by Superstition.

About five miles from Aiken, S. C., on the Charleston dirt road and in sight of the railway, is a little place that was first christened Polecat, but afterward changed to Montmorenci, the French for that odorous little animal. Many years ago a young woman came with her pitcher to draw a bucket of water from a well at Montmorenci and set the vessel in the hollowed top of a stone post that some of the railroad men had moved there. While drawing the water a flash of lightning came that struck the chain to which the well bucket was attached, and the woman was killed in her tracks. Her remains were removed, but the pitcher was left just where the dead girl had set it. To this day the pitcher remains in the same place, and, so far from being removed, it is said that no living hand has ever touched it save its owner's, although near the side of the public road.

But the most wonderful thing is the superstition attached to the pitcher. There is an indescribable influence surrounding it that prevents its touch. Hundreds of people have gone with the firm determination of lifting the pitcher, but when they approach it a strange repugnance comes over them, and they hurriedly depart without carrying out the object of their visit.

One night a bully in the neighborhood, while under the influence of whisky, made a bet with some friends that he would go and bring back the pitcher. He left to do so, but soon returned as pale as a sheet and empty handed. "Boys," he remarked, "no person alive can lay hands on that pitcher, and I wouldn't attempt it again for the whole of Aiken county."

He refused to tell his experience and said he would not talk about it. Other parties have gone to see it, but met with the same repulsive feelings.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Clean Coal Mines.

The Chilean coal mines, opened in 1855, seem to be nice places to work in. The seam of coal runs from the shore under the waters of the Pacific ocean, and the tunnels are so clean that you could walk through them in a dress suit without making yourself dirty. They are lighted by electricity, and you can have a ride for a mile under the ocean on an electric car at a speed of 20 miles an hour. The mines form quite a catacomb of well lighted passages under the water. The output of coal is now 1,000 tons a day, and 750 miners are employed in them.

Cycling and Alcohol.

"Remember," says an experienced New York physician, "that alcohol stimulates the heart and circulation in much the same way as exercise does and that if you use it in any form while wheeling the reaction is speedy and farreaching."

In the same way a long ride should never be undertaken immediately after a plentiful meal, this also tending to interfere with the heart's action and respiration.

A Foreign Writer's Burden.

"I find your political terms very puzzling," remarked the foreigner who was trying to gather material for a book on American institutions. "For example, to rotate means to move in a circle. A ring also means a circle. Now I am told that when a ring controls your offices they don't rotate any more."—Chicago Tribune.

A European statistician has discovered that only 55 per cent of the blonds marry, while 79 per cent of their brunette sisters engage in matrimony.

Forty tons of rust have been taken out of the Menai iron tubular bridge at one cleaning.

IN A FIRE AT NIGHT.

A DRUMMER'S EXPERIENCE IN A BLAZING HOTEL.

What He Had Planned to Do In Just Such a Contingency and What He Really Did When the Opportunity Offered Itself.

"It's queer—not to say a source of chagrin—the difference between our intentions and our performances, isn't it?" said a commercial traveler at one of the hotels the other night. "I was in the Hotel Baldwin fire in San Francisco and lost everything I had along with me, including a thousand and odd dollars' worth of jewelry and all of my sample cases but one, and I was glad to get out with my life at that. It was the first hotel fire in which I had figured. I had often mentally calculated upon what I should do in case a hotel in which I was a guest should begin to conflagrate. I was going to be the coolest headed man within a radius of many miles. If the fire should break out in the middle of the night while I was in bed, I intended to get up very coolly upon being awakened, deliberately slip on enough clothing to keep me out of the hands of the police upon making my appearance, get my money and then pick up my most valuable sample case and the valise in which I had packed articles of clothing in current use and walk out, leaving the rest of my gear to take its chance upon the fire being squelched. On my way through the corridors, in case I met up with any beautiful, supplicating maidens or any aged, incapable women, I had it all pictured how I would drop my two grips and take them down the seething staircase, one on each arm, presenting a heroic and inspiring spectacle as I emerged from the caldron of flame.

"Well, what happened? Luckily for me, I had a third story front room in the Baldwin. The fire broke out in the basement along toward 3 o'clock in the morning. I snored luxuriously until about a dozen engines were throwing streams on the lower portion of the structure. When I was in the middle of a dream that I was standing in front of a lot of big stores on a great business thoroughfare, throwing croquet balls through huge plate glass windows—it was the smashing glass down below that got me into that strain of dreaming—I woke up. The glare in my room was something luminous. Did I slowly stretch, say to myself, 'Here's that long waited for fire, and it's up to me to be the man of the hour and the real thing?'

"Not much did I! I just hopped up like a man who finds a family of centipeds in his bed. I grabbed a pair of rubbers that were lying alongside my bed and put them on the wrong feet, giving all the time during the performance a realistic exhibition of a man undergoing a swamp chill. Then I snatched a mackintosh that I had thrown over my trunk on coming in the night before and folded it after considerable difficulty, owing to my chill tremblings, over my pyjamas. Then I reached for a hat, and of course it was about my luck to get the worst hat I owned out of half a dozen scattered over the room. Then I made for the door. I want you to understand that I made for the door in a hurry too.

"On my way to the door I stumbled over one of my sample cases and kicked it over in front of the door. I had to pick it up in order to open the door, and so I hung on to it and took it along with me. I afterward found it to be the least consequential sample case I had, one that I could very easily have dispensed with compared with those that I lost. Jewelry? Money? Duds? I wasn't thinking any more of them when I frantically unlocked and unbarred that door of mine than I was of taking a balloon before breakfast in the morning and starting for the north pole. I just wanted to get out, that's all. The halls were filled with smoke, I found, but after ten years of stopping annually at the Baldwin, generally in the same room, I knew the stairways and the route down to the lobby pretty well, and I just put my free hand over my mouth and nose and made the rush.

"D'ye suppose that if I had met 40 of the most beautiful maidens on the globe—supplicating, imploring maidens—standing there confused in that third floor hallway I'd have picked 'em up one in each arm and, permitting them to gently nestle up against my mackintosh, have carried them triumphantly down the stairs and out into the street and under the broad arch of heaven and all that? No. I wouldn't have. It's grievous and gruesome to have to confess it, but I'd just have yelled at them to follow my route and then have kept on getting over territory myself. I fell down the first flight of stairs, from top to bottom, then picked myself up with the one idea of getting out, scampered to the head of the second flight of stairs and fell down these. I lit on the flagging of the lobby, and in two more seconds I was in the street. When, a few minutes later, I reflected upon my loss and the general hamlike character of my conduct, did I want to go back and get my things and do the whole thing over again right and in accordance with my preconceived intentions in case of a hotel fire? Nope. I was content to stand there in the street and figure how I'd perform the next time I got similarly caught."—Washington Star.

An Undertaking.

"Isabel, does your husband get angry when he tells you to wake him early and you don't do it?"

"No, dear. He knows that I know he doesn't mean it."—Chicago Record.

Action repeated becomes habit. Habit long continued becomes second nature. We are today what we were accustomed to do yesterday and the day before.—Lyman Abbott.

There are in the German empire about 490,000 persons belonging to other countries.

The Army and Navy.

Have covered themselves with glory during the war. The Army and Navy vest pocket memorandum book published by the Northern Pacific is a compact digest of information relative to the navies and armies of Spain and the United States at the beginning of the war. It has a map of Cuba, illustrations of naval ships, glossary of navy and army terms, translation of Spanish words, etc. Send ten cents to Chas. S. Fee, general passenger agent, N. P. R., St. Paul, Minn., for a copy.

Dangers of Filters.

Filters for purifying water are of many kinds in their mechanical structure, but, according to the report of the Maryland state board of health, it would appear that such filters may steadily lose efficiency until they become first class culture beds for bacteria. In evidence of this position an example cited is that of a man in Baltimore who sends the whole water supply of his house through a large filter and subsequently puts his drinking water through one of the small domestic filters common in the market.

A test of this arrangement showed that on a day when the city taps were running 510 bacteria to the cubic centimeter the large filter was delivering some 9,000 bacteria in the same water. When the large filter was repacked, only 9 bacteria per centimeter got through it, though this same water when passed through the small filter came out with 71 bacteria per centimeter.

This aspect of the matter is still further strengthened by another example, a case where a filter supposed to be the best in the market was in use. The effectiveness of this filter was so short lived that the precaution was observed of boiling the water after it was filtered.

What He Didn't Know.

"They say that ex-Mayor Latrobe went to some sort of a celebration given by the Ebenezer colored church down on Montgomery street," said a man about town. "He was asked to speak and of course complied in his usual style. 'You have named this church after a great man,' he said, 'and I hope you will try to emulate his example. He was a man who couldn't be led astray by any one and believed his first duty was to God and then to his fellow man. He was a'— Well, I don't know what all he didn't say about that fellow Ebenezer, but anyhow he noticed for some reason or other his address wasn't as tumultuously received as usual, and as he drove away after the meeting behind Old Laz he was humming the old hymn 'Here I Raise My Ebenezer' and trying to figure the matter out. When he got home, he asked a good Christian lady, who happened to be there on a visit, who Ebenezer was.

"'Why, you goose,' said she, 'Ebenezer wasn't a man. Ebenezer means a stone. Didn't you know that?'

"Now when General Latrobe addresses a church audience he carries a pocket Bible dictionary with him."—Baltimore News.

Fun For the Shah.

During the winter months the little colony of 60 or 70 English people at Teheran organize concerts for one another's amusement. There is a dance now and then at the legation, and when the weather is cold of course there is skating. Skating is the greatest marvel of all to the Persians. Some years ago the late shah, Nasr-i-Din, saw 20 skaters twirling and curling and spinning gracefully on the ice. He was amused. He thought it wonderful. The next day he sent to the legation and borrowed a dozen pairs of the skates. These he made his ministers put on and attempt to skate on the lake in the palace grounds. The poor ministers were terribly discomfited, but it was twice as much as their heads were worth to refuse. His majesty was more amused than ever, and he nearly had an apoplectic fit from laughing.

Human Heaters.

In considering the problem of heating the large department stores which are now to be found in nearly every big city it is very well worth taking into account the animal heat distributed by the many customers who come into such establishments. That this is considerable is evidenced by the experience of at least one engineer, who, in one such case, found that after 9:30 a. m. on a day in midwinter, with the thermometer at the freezing point, no other heat was needed to keep the place warm. This fact, however, emphasizes as well the great need of a good system of ventilation in such buildings, as without it the air would soon become vitiated much beyond any reasonably permissible degree.—Cassier's Magazine.

Icehouse Fires.

Curiously, an icehouse is the most likely place in the world for a fire. Insurance rates are so high on ice sheds as to be almost prohibitive of any policies being taken out. Spontaneous combustion is responsible for the fires in ice sheds, according to some authorities. When a layer of ice is melted around the top and sides in summer, an immense amount of heat is set free. When conditions are exactly favorable, spontaneous combustion takes place. Others believe that a zone of warmth and moisture is created by the melting ice and that this attracts lightning. In any case an icehouse is a beautiful place for a fire.

Rather Close.

"The stingiest man I ever knew was a fellow who in going up stairs always skipped a step in order to save his shoe leather."

"That's nothing! I once knew a man who was so stingy that he wouldn't trim his finger nails except when he could borrow a jackknife, because he didn't want to wear out his own."—Chicago News.

Nothing Liberal About It.

Wilkins—I understand you are giving your son a liberal education.

Hobbs—Liberal? Not a bit of it. They don't give anything away at the college where he is. I have to pay for every plaguy thing he gets.—Boston Transcript.

That plants when injured suffer from fever is a new discovery by a British botanist. Plants suffer in a similar manner to animals under like conditions. The rate of respiration increases and the temperature rises, reaching a maximum within 24 hours.

Say?

If your wheel needs enameling, cleaning, new tires or any other repairing give us a trial. All work done promptly and satisfactory. Prices reasonable.

F. I. TOUSLEY & CO.

35 RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

Subscribe for the Spectator.

It may not be generally known but St. Paul and Minneapolis had "skyscrapers" before Chicago, and Chicago before New York or any other eastern city. While it is true the so-called "sky-scrapers" of the twin cities would sink into insignificance compared to the latest type of high buildings in the metropolis, yet these cities took the initiative in erecting tall buildings. It is always the case. For daring enterprise the west leads the world.—Jasper (Ind) Herald.

List of Town Clerks.

Names	Township	Postoffice
Olof Larson	Nomedal	Viking
C. E. Purde	North	Thief River Falls
John E. Peterson	Bray	Bray
N. K. Anderson	Sanders	St. Hilaire
F. T. Sabre	Rocksbury	T. R. Falls
G. T. Romsos	Polk Centre	Wylie
P. A. Eckstrom	Black River	Wylie
A. S. Anderson	River Falls	St. Hilaire
Ole J. Johnson	Wyandotte	"
A. D. Berry	Louisville	Huot
[illegible] Barll	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
Chas. E. Ase	Emardville	Lost
Edward Havik	Equality	Grit
Moses Durharee	Lake Pleasant	R. L. F.
Adonor Perusse	Terrebonne	Terrebonne
F. H. Herbert	Poplar River	Brooks
Louis Duquet	Lambert	Lambert
J. L. Johnson	St. Hilaire	St. Hilaire
Lars Backe	Thief River	T. R. F.
A. P. Tompin	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
H. D. Barryson	Nordin	T. R. Falls
Olof Trede	Garnes	Garnes

"Money to patent good ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, The Patent Record, Baltimore, Md." 37

For a plain, practical and instructive paper, made largely by farmers and wholly for farmers, Farm, Stock and Home of Minneapolis, Minn., has no equal among agricultural journals. We can furnish it in connection with the SPECTATOR one year for only $1.25.

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

Whereas, default has been made in the condition of a certain mortgage, made, executed and delivered by Kate Wilmes and Michael Wilmes, her husband, mortgagors, to Anna Eriksson, mortgagee, dated the 17th day of October 18[illegible] and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Polk County, Minnesota on the 31st day of October 18[illegible], at four o'clock p. m. in Book 78 of Mortgages, on page [illegible] thereof conveying and mortgaging lands and premises therein described as follows: All those tracts or parcels of land lying and being in the county of Polk and State of Minnesota, described as follows, to-wit; lots numbered 24 and 25, Block 7, in Champagne and Dow's addition to the village, now city of Red Lake Falls, according to the plat thereof on file and of record in the office of the register of Deeds in and for the county of Polk and State of Minnesota; and

Whereas, that part of said Polk county in which said land and premises were at the time said mortgage was executed and recorded as aforesaid has since been duly set off, organized and created [illegible] Red Lake county in the State of Minnesota, and the aforesaid record of said mortgage has been duly transcribed to and recorded in book 28 of Mortgages, on page [illegible] thereof in said Red Lake county, Minnesota and said lands and premises above described are now situated in said Red Lake county; and

Whereas, said mortgagors covenanted in and by said mortgage deed to pay all taxes which were then or might be thereafter assessed upon the said premises and in case of their failure to do so that said mortgagee might pay the same and that said taxes so paid would become a part of the debt secured by said mortgage. Said mortgagors further covenanted that in case of default in any of the conditions of said mortgage therein contained said mortgagee was duly authorized and empowered to consider the whole sum secured by said mortgage as immediately due and payable.

That default has been made in the condition of said mortgage in this—that the mortgagors have neglected and refused to pay the taxes on said above described premises for the years 18[illegible], 1897 and 1898 and that there is now $[illegible] delinquent taxes against said above described premises. That said mortgagee has elected and does hereby declare and consider the whole sum secured by said mortgage as now due and payable, being the sum of one thousand one hundred and twenty-nine dollars and ninety-five cents ($1,129.95), the amount due and claimed to be due upon said mortgage at this date. And no action or proceeding at law or in equity has been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained and thereunto recorded and pursuant to the statutes in such case made and provided said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the above described mortgaged premises by the Sheriff of said Red Lake county at public auction, at the front door of the Court house in the city of Red Lake Falls, in the county of Red Lake and State of Minnesota, on Saturday the [illegible] day of April, A. D. 1899, at [illegible] o'clock, in the forenoon [illegible] the amount which will then be due on said mortgage and the debt secured thereby, together with the costs and charges of said foreclosure, including the sum of Fifty dollars [illegible] Attorney's fees as stipulated in said mortgage.

Dated this [illegible] day of March A. D. 1899.

ANNA ERIKSSON, Mortgagee.

F. A. GREEN,
Attorney for Mortgagee,
Red Lake Falls, Minn. 35-41

—To cure a cough or cold in one day take the Imperial Cough Syrup.

Hamm's St. Paul Beer

There's Honest Blood, Bone and Sinew in this Strengthening brew!

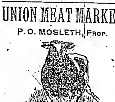
Agents everywhere

Theo. Hamm Brewing Company. Tel. 972 St. Paul, Minn.

—Every farmer who writes a letter occasionally should get envelopes with his name and address printed in the corner. We will furnish 100 of the best quality printed in any style for the small sum of 75 cts. Send in your order

UNION MEAT MARKET

P. O. MOSLETH, PROP.



Choicest line of Fresh and Salted meats in the city.

Highest market price paid for Stock, Poultry and Hides.

WANTED-BRAINS

Can you think of something to patent? Protect your ideas; they may bring you wealth. Before applying for patent, get our liberal offers. Inventor's Assistant and handsome views of Washington sent Free on request. Be sure to write to-day COPP & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C.

Spring Suits.

STYLISH SPRING SUITS FOR MEN AND BOYS.

The Greatwestren own magnificent display of men's spring suits, and boys' choicest clothing is now ready, at a eaving of fully 25 per cent.

Greatwestern Clothing House.

SOME OF OUR CLUB RATES WITH THE

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR

OUR TERMS ARE STRICTLY CASH IN ADVANCE

OFFICIAL PAPER OF ST. HILAIRE AND RED LAKE COUNTY.

Cosmopolitan and Spectator.

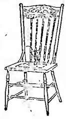
To secure for you the best and most interesting of the great illustrated magazines at the lowest possible price has been the aim of the editor of this journal. That we have succeeded we will leave our readers to judge. A special contract recently entered into with The Cosmopolitan, which seeks to become better known in this neighborhood, has enabled us to offer you a year's subscription to the greatest of the illustrated magazines together with a year's subscription to this journal, both together one year for only $[illegible].

Farm, Stock & Home.

50 cents per year. Read by a greater number of Northern farmers than any [illegible] Are you [illegible] Who [illegible] [illegible] Stock [illegible] [illegible] subscription [illegible] this [illegible] Together one year for only $1.25.

Cosmopolitan, New York World and The Spectator.

You can keep in touch with metropolitan life through the medium of a great daily. The Thrice-a-Week World of New York is the equivalent of a daily [illegible] Each issue contains six to eight pages of [illegible] [illegible] reading matter a year. In former days this would have cost [illegible] [illegible] a year for itself. Now you can [illegible] it while in connection with your home paper and the Cosmopolitan Magazine. Three together one year for only $[illegible].



IF YOU INTEND TO Buy Furniture

Come and look our assortment over. We carry everything in the Furniture line including picture frames and musical instruments. Prices reasonable.

Holmes Furniture Co.

M. O. SORTEDAHL. E. G. STORAASLI.

RED LAKE COUNTY ABSTRACT OFFICE.

The only complete set of Abstract Records in Red Lake County

SORTEDAHL & STORAASLI,

ABSTRACTERS OF TITLE.

REAL ESTATE, LOANS & INSURANCE.

Steamship Tickets Sold

RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

K. O. GIGSTAD,

DEALER IN

REAL ESTATE.

Collections a Specialty.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.

NOTARY PUBLIC

ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.

GET YOUR PICTURE TAKEN BY

D. COLLINS THE Photograper.

ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

CUSTOM WORK.

JUST LOOK AT THESE PRICES

Roll Carding—per pound 5 cts
Spinning Single Yarn—per pound 15 c
Stocking Yarn—2 or 3 ply, per pound 20 c

LITCHFIELD WOOLEN MILLS.

LITCHFIELD, MINN.

ELECTROCURE

FREE BOOK,

The Latest Discoveries up to Date.

EXPLAINS

THE NEW HOME ELECTRICAL TREATMENT,

For the Physical Weaknesses of Men and Women.

THE ONLY CURE FOR

WEAK MEN,

SUFFERING FROM

Lame Back, Lost Manhood, Varicocele, and all forms of sexual debility, and also diseases due to a lack of nerve force, such as neuralgia, rheumatism, sleeplessness, indigestion, female troubles, etc.

WE ARE CURING THOUSANDS.

AMERICAN ELECTROCURE CO.,

DEPARTMENT No. 2, VINELAND, N. J.

Cigars.

BRINK BROTHERS

DEALERS IN

Wines & Liquors

Minneapolis Beer.

Corner Broadway and 3rd St. St. Hilaire, Minnesota

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR SUPPLEMENT.

VOLUME XVIII. ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 1899. NUMBER 37

Proceedings of the Board of County Commissioners.

OFFICIAL.

Red Lake Falls, Minn., March 27th, 1899, 2 o'clock, p. m.

Pursuant to call dated Feby. 28th, 1899, board of county commissioners met in extra session this day.

Meeting called to order by the chairman.

All members present.

Petition of Joseph Prudhomme asking to be set off from school district No. 216 to district No. 45 was presented.

Motion made by Hansen seconded by Johnson that the same be laid on the table until next meeting.

Motion carried unanimously.

Hearing was then had on petition of Pierre Emard asking to be set off from School district No. 40 to district No. 112.

Motion made by Hebert seconded by Hansen and carried unanimously the same was granted and the following order was made:

Order Setting off Legal Voter from one School District to another.

Whereas, The petition of Pierre Emard, a legal voter, freeholder and resident of School district No. 49 in this county, with the approval of the County Superintendent endorsed thereon, representing that he is the owner of the lands hereinafter described, which are situate in said school district, and adjoin School district No. 112 and asking that he with his said lands may be set off from said school district No. 49 to said adjoining school district No. 112 for the following reasons:

The school house in district No. 112 is one mile nearer to my residence than the school house in district No. 49, there is a good road to the school house in Dist. No. 112 while there is no road to the school in District No. 49 and the Clearwater river runs between the school house in No. 49 and my farm, making it impossible for children to attend school there.

Was presented to the Board of county commissioners of this county, at a session of said board held on the 30th day of January, A. D. 1899. for the action of said board thereon; and

Whereas, it was thereupon ordered by said board that a hearing should be had on said petition at a session of said board, commencing on the 27th day of March, A. D. 1899, at the county auditor's office in Red Lake Falls in said county; and

Whereas, it was further ordered in and by said order that notice of the time and place of such hearing be given by posting a copy of said order in one public place in each of the school districts to be affected by said petition, and by handing to and leaving with the clerk of each of said school districts, personally, a copy of said order, at least ten days before the time appointed for such hearing; and

Whereas, at the said session of the said board of county commissioners commencing on said 27th day of March, A. D. 1899, due proof of the posting and service of said order of hearing as therein directed and required, more than ten days prior to said last named date, having been made and filed, said petition was publicly read and considered by the board, with everything which was said by said interested parties for or against granting the prayer of petitioner and said board being of opinion that petition should be granted, it is hereby ordered and determined, that the said petition and the following described lands owned by him, to-wit:

s e ¼ sec. 24, Town 151 range 44

be and the same are hereby set off from said School District No. 49 to said adjoining School District No. 112 and said lands are hereby made a part of said last named School District for all purposes whatever.

By order of the Board of County Commissioners.

Dated the 27th day of March A. D. 1899.

Wm. C. L. Demann.
Chairman,
of the Board of County Commissioners of Red Lake County, Minn.

Attest:
Adam Zeh,
County Auditor and ex-officio clerk of board.

Hearing was then had on petition of Eli Emard asking to be set off from school district No. 40 to district No. 112.

On motion made by Sutor and seconded by Hebert and carried unanimously the same was granted and the following order was made:

Order Setting off Legal Voter from one School District to another.

Whereas, The petition of Eli Emard, a legal voter, freeholder and resident of School District No. 49 in this county, with the approval of the County Superintendent endorsed thereon, representing that he is the owner of the lands hereinafter described, which are situate in said school district, and adjoin School District No. 112 and asking that he with his lands may be set off from said school district No. 49 to said adjoining school district No. 112 for the following reasons:

There is no road to the school house in district No. 49, and the Clearwater river must be crossed and it is three fourths of a mile farther than the school house in district No. 112 to which there is a good road.

Was presented to the board of County Commissioners of this county, at a session of said board held on the 30th day of January. A. D. 1899. for the action of said board thereon; and.

Whereas, it was thereupon ordered by said board that a hearing should be had on said petition at a session of said board, commencing on the 27th day of March, A. D. 1899, at the county auditor's office in Red Lake Falls in said county; and

Whereas, it was further order in and by said order that notice of the time and place of such hearing be given by posting a copy of said order in one public place in each of the school districts to be affected by said petition, and by handing to and leaving with the clerks of each of said school districts, personally, a copy of said order, at least ten days before the time appointed for such hearing; and

Whereas, at the said session of the said board of county commissioners commencing on said 27th day of March, A. D. 1899, due proof of the posting and service of said order of hearing as therein directed and required, more than ten days prior to said last named date, having been made and filed, said petition was publicly read and considered by the board, with everything which was said by said interested parties for or against granting the prayer of the petitioner and said board being of the opinion that said petition should be granted, it is hereby ordered and determined, that the said petition and the following described lands owned by him, to-wit:

The e ½ of the s w ¼, sec 24, twp 151, range 44.

be and the same are hereby set off from said School district No. 49 to said adjoining School District No. 112 and said lands are hereby made a part of said last named School district for all purposes whatever.

By order of the Board of County Commissioners.

Dated the 27th day of March, A. D 1899.

Wm. C. L. Demaan.
Chairman
of the board of county commissioners of Red Lake County, Minn.

Attest:
Adam Zeh,
County Auditor and ex-officio clerk of board.

Hearing was then had on petition of Pierre Emard Jr. asking to be set off from school district No. 49 to district No. 112.

On motion made by Hansen seconded by Sutor and carried unanimously the same was granted and the following order was made:

Order setting off Legal Voter from one school district to another.

Whereas, The petition of Pierre Emard Jr., a legal voter, freeholder and resident of School district No. 40 in this county, with the approval of the county superintendent endorsed thereon, representing that he is the owner of the lands hereinafter described, which are situate in said school district and adjoin school district No. 112 and asking that he with his lands may be set off from said district No. 49 to said adjoining school district No. 112 for the following reasons:

Owing to the fact that the Clearwater river must be crossed in going to the school house in district No. 49 and there being no bridge nearer than Red Lake Falls it is impossible for children to attend school there. The school house in district No. 112 is nearer and there is a good road leading to it, was presented to the board of county commissioners of this county, at a session of said board held on the 30th day of January, A. D. 1899, for the action of said board thereon; and

Whereas, it was thereupon ordered by said board that a hearing should be had on said petition at a session of said board, commencing on the 27th day of March, A. D. 1899, at the county auditor's office in Red Lake Falls in said county; and

Whereas it was further ordered in and by said order that notice of the time and place of such hearing be given by posting a copy of said order in one public place in each of the school districts to be affected by said petition, and by handing to and leaving with the clerk of each of said school districts, personally, a copy of said order, at least ten days before the time appointed for such hearing; and

Whereas, at a session of the said board of county commissioners commencing on the 27th day of March, A. D. 1899, due proof of the posting and service of said order of hearing as therein directed and required, more than ten days prior to said last named date, having been made and filed, said petition was publicly read and considered by the board, with everything which was said by said interested parties for or against granting the prayer of the petitioner and said board being of opinion that said petition should be granted, it is hereby ordered and determined, that the said petition and the following described lands owned by him, to-wit:

w ½ of s w ¼, sec 24, twp 151 range 44

be and the same are hereby set off from said school district No. 49 to said adjoining school district No. 112 and said lands are hereby made a part of said last named School District for all purposes whatever.

By order of the board of county Commissioners.

Dated the 27th day of March, A. D. 1899.

Wm. C. L. Demann.
Chairman,
of board of County Commissioner of Red Lake County, Minn.

Attest:
Adam Zeh,
County auditor and ex-officio clerk of board.

Petition of P. S. Medchill and others asking for the formation of a new school district composed of the following described territory:

s w ¼ s e ¼, w ½ s w ¼, sec 2 also n w ¼ n e ¼, s e ¼, e ½ s w ¼, sec 3. also n e ¼ e ½ and s w ¼ of n w ¼, s e ¼, s½ s w ¼, sec 9 also all of sections 10, 11, 15, 16, e ½ sec 17 also n e ¼ and e ½ s e ¼ sec 20 and all of sections 21 and 22 in the township of Emardville.

Motion made by Hansen seconded by Sutor that we set the 22nd day of May as a day of hearing of said petition.

Motion carried unanimously.

Hearing was then had on petition of Gusten Jorengson and others for the formation of a new school district composed of the following territory:

Sections No. 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27. 34, 35, 36. township 151, range 40.

On motion made by Hebert and seconded by Hansen and carried unanimously the same was granted and the following order was made:

In the matter of the formation of School District No. 13, Red Lake county.

Whereas, The board of County Commissioners of Red Lake county, state of Minnesota, was duly petitioned by a majority of the freeholders residing within the territory hereinafter described to form and erect the same into a new school district; and

Whereas, a hearing upon said petition was duly ordered by said board of county commissioners, and had upon due and proper notice.

Now, Therefore, It appearing to said board of county commissioners that the prayer of said petitioners should be granted, it is hereby ordered and directed that the following named territory be and the same is hereby formed into a new school district numbered thirteen, to wit:

All of sections numbered twenty-two, (22), twenty-three (23), twenty four (24), twenty-five (25), twenty-six (26), twenty-seven (27), thirty-four (34), thirty-five (35) and thirty-six (36) township one hundred and fifty-one (151), north of range forty (40) west.

Wm. C. L. Demann,
Chairman
Board of county commissioners,
Red Lake county, Minn.

Attest:
Adam Zeh,
County auditor, and ex officio clerk of board.

Petitons of Euclide Peopell and Frank Laplante were on motion referred back for correction.

Application of Francis Corbril for correction of assessment and abatement of personal property taxes was on motion carried unanimously rejected.

Petition of John Sundahl and others, asking for an appropriation from county for road purposes on town line between tp 153, range 42 and the town of Wyandotte was on motion laid on table until next meeting.

On motion duly carried a recess was taken until 8 o'clock, p. m.

---

8 o'clock p. m.

Board reconvened.

Meeting called to order by the chairman.

All members present.

Motion made by Hebert seconded by Sutor that the bill of St. Hilaire Spectator of $1074.00 for publishing delinquent tax list for 1897 be allowed.

On motion carried unanimously a recess was taken until 9 o'clock, a. m.

---

9 o'clock a. m. March 28, 1899.

Board reconvened.

Meeting called to order by the chairman.

All members present.

Board then proceeded to audit bills.

On motion duly carried a recess was taken until 1 o'clock p. m.

---

1 o'clock p. m.

Board reconvened.

Meeting called to order by the chairman.

All members present.

Commissioner Hansen offered the following resolution and moved its adoption,

> Resolved, that the county auditor be instructed to draw his warrant on the incidental expense fund in the sum of $42.85 in favor of O. T. Tandberg for postage, express, etc.

Which resolution was seconded by Hebert and on motion carried unanimously was adopted.

Board then proceeded to audit bills.

On motion duly carried a recess was taken until 9 o'clock a. m.

---

9 o'clock a. m. March 29, 1899.

Board reconvened.

Meeting called to order by the chairman.

All members present.

Motion made by Hansen seconded by Hebert that petition of E. Scheldrup and others be laid on the table.

Motion carried unanimously.

Motion made by Hanson seconded by Hebert that petition of E. O. Anderson and others for aid from county for road through town of Emardville be laid on the table to next meeting.

Johnson, Hansen, Hebert and Demann voting in the affirmative, Sutor voting in the negative.

Motion carried.

On motion carried unanimously recess was taken to 1 o'clock p. m.

---

1 o'clock p. m.

Board reconvened.

Meeting called to order by the chairman.

All members present.

On motion carried unanimously bills were allowed as follows:

County Poor Fund.
Theo. LaBissoniere, merchandise for Mrs. Breult for months of Jan. and Feb.	$ 10 00
Theo. LaBissoniere, merchandise for Mrs. Broulette for months of Jan. and Feb.	20 00
Riverside hospital, balance due for services in case of Gerhard Hedrickson	30 00
Dr. J. G. Millspaugh, to operation and subsequent treatment for Moses Jolie and to attendance on Anton Juneau	[illegible] 00
Edward E. Havik, merchandise to M. P. Bornas for care of T. G. Quale	15 00
Ernest Buse, to house rent for Mrs. Marchildon from Dec. 5th to March 5th, 1899	12 00
Hansen & Barzen, flour to Mrs. Andrew Hanson	2 10
Hanson & Barzen, flour to Mrs. Andrew Hanson	4 20
John Beaudry, to boarding Esah Morrissette from Jan. 1st to March 1st 1899	16 00
Ed Garceau, three months board of Joseph Doyea to April 1st, 1899, by Octave Lacoursiere	30 00
C. E. Purdy, to hay delivered to Mrs. Andrew Hanson	5 55
Louis McMahon, to one cord slab wood to Mrs. Andrew Hanson	1 25
Frank Tilton, digging grave for David Lillemoen	4 00
Thos Rogney, 1 load of wood for Mrs. H. Iverson	2 25
John Alben, for board and care of John Ortenquist, for months of Jan., Feb. and March	10 20
Dr. I. Lemieux, medical services and drugs for Mrs. Broulett's daughter	2 50
Dr. I. Lemieux, medical services and drugs for Mrs. Breult	2 75
Dr. I. Lemieux, sewing and dressing scalp wounds of Young Charpentier	5 50
St. Gabriel's hospital three months board and care of Mary Demers to March 25th, 1899	15 00
Karl M. Hansen, transferring Hjalmer Lillemoen to St. Paul Hospital for treatment. Ticket for patient, expenses and services rendered	31 31
M V Evenson, merchandise to family of M Lillemoen and S Helgren	8 50
H Langseth & Co., merchandise for Mrs H Iverson from Nov. 1st, 1898 to March 25th, 1899	20 00
H Langseth & Co., merchandise to Mrs Andrew Hanson from Nov. 1st, 1898 to March 25, 1899	25 00
County Road and Bridge Fund.
Henry Norland, six days work building bridge in town of Wyandotte	18 00
O J Johnson, 2½ days work and expense on bridge in town of Wyandotte	7 50
A Rose, to 4½ days work on Clearwater bridge, town of Wyandotte	5 63
A O Skavhaug, 3½ days work on Clearwater bridge town of Wyandotte	4 40
E Peterson, to 1⅓ days work on Clearwater bridge in town of Wyandotte	1 65
E D Johnson, to 5½ days work on Clearwater bridge in town of Wyandotte	6 65
County Revenue Fund.
St. Hilaire Spectator, to publishing commissioners' proceedings	121 50
St. Hilaire Spectator, to publishing financial statement	455 30
St. Hilaire Spectator, to publishing auditor's and treasurer's statement	4 50
St. Hilaire Spectator, to publishing teachers' examination notice	2 15
St. Hilaire Spectator, to publishing school district notice	3 30
Phil A Kaufer, publishing notice for bids for wood and county printing	4 50
Courier Publishing Co., court calendars, tax statements for auditor, treasurer and register of deeds and letterheads and envelopes for county officers	52 45
Pioneer Press Co., blanks for register of deeds	62 50
Pioneer Press Co., blanks for Co. auditor	70
Pioneer Press Co., blanks for register of deeds	1 40
Pioneer Press Co., blank books for treasurer and register of deeds	62 50
Pioneer Press Co., blanks for clerk of court and register of deeds	4 10
Pioneer Press Co., midget dates and line stamp for auditor	1 00
Geo. D. Barnard & Co., blanks for judge of probate	16
Geo D Barnard & Co., blanks for judge of probate	5 95
Free Press Printing Co., tax receipts, county orders, warrants and teacher's notice books	68 00
Polk county, boarding John Doyle, month of Jan.	22 01
Polk County, boarding John Doyle month of Feb.	18 46
Samuel Gibeau, recording town treasurer's bonds, rubber stamp, ink, chair and desk for register of deed's office	31 09
Ernest Buse, 47 cords of wood	75 20
Chas. E. Boughton, insurance on court house, furniture	41 29
Joseph Perrault, clerk of courts fees Feb term of court as per bill and filing town officers' bonds and oaths of officers	81 20
Chas Sampson, sheriff's fees, summoning jurors, subpoening witnesses, taking care of prisoners and conveying prisoners to and from Crookston and attending court February term	106 17
Martin O'Brien, to services to Feb. 20th, 1899, as special county attorney	50 00
Geo A Ralph, to part payment on contract for township plats	125 00
W A Schreiter to oil and ink for court house	10 15
Jas Brady to fixing shelving in safe in auditor's office, doors in court house, and shelving in clerk of court's office	2 00
Ovide Emard, legal cap paper for coroner	50
L A Kaufer, leather belt and shackles for sheriff	3 50
G E Hart, to examination questions for Supt of schools	2 25
Joseph Belair, boarding John Doyle 4 days Feb term of court	3 50
Peter R. Olson, state vs Romeo Ducharme	1 12
George Brunelle, witness fees State vs Romeo Ducharme	1 12
Mrs Levi Broulette, witness fees State vs. Eli	1 12
Eugene Robillard witness fees State vs. Eli	1 12
A J Lachapelle, fixing railing and platform in court room	2 75
Karl M Hansen, to committee work on court house, two days attending court, three days services as county commissioner and mileage	30 00
Wm C L Demann three days county commissioner and one day committee work	13 40
George Dupont, services as fire warden	3 00
C P Swanson, services as fire warden	3 00
Andrew Johnson, services as fire warden	1 00
J. B. Hebert 2 days committee work and mileage, 3 days county commissioner and mileage	23 00
James Sutor 2 days committee work and mileage, 3 days service county commissioner	19 00
Ole J. Johnson 1 day committee work, 3 days service county com'r	16 00
Pioneer Press Co, one estray record A and blanks for county auditor $10.60, allowed at	7 10

Motion made by Hansen seconded by Sutor that the following bills be rejected.

Dr D Tafte, for treatment of Torkel Olson's child	50 00
L M Roland, boarding of Nels Lysaker	8 00
Andrew Berg, room and bed for Nels Lysaker	2 50

Motion carried unanimously.

Commissioner Hansen offered the following resolution and moved its adoption.

> Resolved that the chairman of this board appoint a committee of four or five citizens to represent the county in securing the passage of laws effecting Red Lake county now pending before the Legislature.

Which resolution was seconded by Sutor and on motion carried unanimously, was adopted.

On motion carried meeting adjourned.

Wm. C. L. Demann,
Chairman.

Attest:
Adam Zeh,
County Auditor.

Irving Didn't Read.

Sir Henry Irving appeared at the Theater Royal, Edinburgh, in 1857, and two years later he went to Linlithgow to give a reading there. He was delighted to see his name in big letters on the posters on arriving in the town. He went to the hall, but there was no crowd there—in fact, the caretaker had not arrived, having forgotten all about the reading. Irving went in search of him, and things were got ready; 8:30 o'clock arrived, but no one came to the hall—not even a small boy. In recalling the incident Sir Henry was wont to say, "I never slept better than I did that night."

Its Natural Effect.

"How many of these sheep got out of here?" asked the angry farmer.

"I don't know," replied the new hired man, rubbing his eyes. "After I'd watched five or six of 'em jump over the fence I seemed to lose the count. That always puts me to sleep."—Chicago Tribune.

Of No Avail.

"Prisoner," said the court, "have you anything to say for yourself?"

"What's the use?" replied the culprit; "you guys wouldn't believe me."—Philadelphia North American.

In 1666 the great fire in London burned over 436 acres, destroying at least $35,000,000 worth of property. In 1872 the Boston fire burned over 60 acres, at a loss of $1,000,000 an acre. If the same fire occurred today, it would cost, at the very lowest estimate, $100,000,000. In 1898 the loss on the 2½ acres burned over was over $350,000,000.

POPULAR PROVERBS.

SOME THAT ARE FAIRLY BRIMFUL OF ABSURDITY.

Maxims Often Quoted and at Times Advanced as Argument Which Have Neither Wit Nor Wisdom to Commend Them—Contradictory Sayings.

There is a mistaken notion abroad, says a writer in London Tit-Bits, that proverbs are epitomes of wisdom, the concentrated experience of generations, and that to quote one of them in a discussion is to advance an unanswerable argument. And yet what is there to recommend many of them beyond their jingle? Take our familiar friend:

Early to Bed and Early to Rise, Makes a Man Healthy, Wealthy and Wise.—Obviously, the main idea was to find a word to rhyme with "rise," and "wise" was the unfortunate word chosen. And now, trustful little boys are persuaded to go to bed at unreasonably early hours in the hope of becoming a sort of Sandow-Rothschild-Solomon, though we all know milkmen and market gardeners who get up at 5 a. m. and are neither rich nor clever, and members of parliament who go to bed late and are, if not clever, at least not poor and infirm. Since the invention of gas and electric light this ridiculous old proverb has outlived its original modicum of truth, and proves we must not venerate proverbs on account of their hoary antiquity.

The Early Bird Catches the Worm.—The mistake made here is that it assumes we are all birds. But some of us are worms. If we were not, what would become of the birds? And, therefore, while the birds do well to be early, let the worms be late—the later the better.

The Pitcher That Goes Oft to the Well Is Broken at Last.—Note, it does not say "is broken first," but "is broken at last." Of course, every pitcher, whether it goes to the well or stays on the shelf, is broken at last, and the only result of this absurd proverb is to encourage lazy folk to do as little work as possible and unnecessarily keep out of harm's way.

If You Want a Thing Well Done, Do It Yourself.—There's shocking bad advice with which to start a youth on life's journey. If he wants a button well sewed on, he's to do it himself; if he wants his hair well cut, he's to cut it himself. He must mend his own chairs, shoe his own nag, darn his own socks. In short, from buying a horse to blacking his boots, he must do it himself. Poor fellow!

A Contented Mind Is a Continual Feast.—Can any one say what that means? Does it mean that the owner continually feasts on his contented mind or that the contented mind is continually feasting? Probably the latter, as we sometimes hear that "a hungry man's an angry man," and we all know that a satisfied appetite is the source of contentment. Hence it is not the contented mind which makes the feast, as the silly proverb implies, but the continual feast which produces the contented mind.

There's No Rule Without an Exception.—This is not only a proverb; it is also a rule. But obviously there is no exception to this rule, because if there were a rule with an exception this proverb would be untrue. But the proverb is a rule which has no exception, which, as Mr. Euclid would say, is absurd. Which was to be shown.

Where Ignorance Is Bliss, 'Tis Folly to Be Wise.—For oracular stupidity this proverb may be classed with the one about the pitcher. Granting it true, the difficulty is to know where ignorance is bliss and of course the proverb gives no assistance where it is most needed. Most people quote it as "ignorance is bliss," in their blissful ignorance, but if a proverb gives rise to error it is not only absurd; it is also dangerous. When people say—

A Little Learning Is a Dangerous Thing—They make that a reason not for learning more, but for learning less.

Love Me, Love My Dog.—If I go a-courting, and my ladylove bids me love her scented, dyspeptic poodle, which is not necessary to her health and comfort, must I not much more love her glass eye and false teeth and hair, which are? Yet common sense revolts at the notion, and I therefore assume that a proverb which, logically treated, makes such unreasonable demands on my affections is wrong and absurd.

Seeing Is Believing.—How can any reflecting person repeat these words? For very often we believe we see what really we do not. If a conjurer were to take this proverb as his motto, every one would see its absurdity. A straight stick half submerged in water looks crooked. Fortunately, another proverb says, "Trust not to appearances." And this bring us to the exquisite absurdity of popular proverbs which run in contradictory pairs and support both sides of an argument. Thus one proverb says, "Look before you leap;" another, "Who hesitates is lost." Sometimes we hear that "Second thoughts are best;" at other times that "Delays are dangerous." The desperate man relies on "Nothing venture, nothing have;" the cautious man on "Never venture out of your depth till you can swim." The impatient matrimonial candidate believes that "Happy's the wooing that's not long a-doing;" the tardy one that one may "Marry in haste and repent at leisure." And so on ad infinitum. "Absence makes the heart grow fonder"—"Out of sight, out of mind." "It's never too late to mend"—"A fool at 40 will never be wise." "Too many cooks spoil the broth"—"There's safety in numbers" and "Two heads are better than one."

Therefore, let us examine our proverbial coinage before we pass it into the moral currency.

Change Wanted.

What some people need more than anything else is change—they have dollars, and they need sense.—Jewish Comment.

PEOPLE WHO GAMBLE.

Chinese and Italians Especially Addicted to Games of Chance.

Of all the nations of the earth who gamble—and they all do it more or less—the Chinese come in an easy first. Superstition and the gambling mania go in double harness, and while the mandarins fly kites to decide what should be done about Wei-Hai-Wei and Talien-Wan the humbler Celestials gamble for dear life to pass the time away. "The Chinese play night and day," says a traveler, "till they have lost all they are worth, and then they usually go and hang themselves," from which it would appear that the yellow danger is not so formidable after all.

The Chinese laborers in the United States squander their earnings in a game called "white pigeon's ticket." White, by the way, is the unlucky color for the gamer and the lucky one for the keeper of the gaming house. These gentry keep orange peel in a box, believing that it will bring them luck.

The Italians are no less superstitious, and they gamble persistently, the poor people especially, in the government lotteries. Everything has a number; a cat, a dog, a gondola, and the "Libro dei Sogni"—the lotto player's oracle—will tell you what the number is and the rules for interpreting the appearances in dreams. Visitors to Venice, which has always been a stronghold of gambling, may have seen the declaration of the winning figures from the Campanile of St. Mark's—the silent, eager crowd gathered in the square and the group of officials gathered round the boy with the bandaged eyes who draws the numbers from the cage.

There is a story told in Venice of a madman who hailed a gondolier from the window of the madhouse on the island to tell him the numbers he had dreamed. The man put his money on them and won, and from that day to this the gondoliers go near the window as they pass in the hope that the madman will call again. The story is true.—London Chronicle.

VORACIOUS LITTLE ROBINS.

Each Required Fourteen Yards of Angleworms Every Day.

A would be philanthropist relates his experiences trying to play mother to a nest of little robins, which had by some accident been deprived of their rightful mother's care. He diligently set to work digging angleworms, and supposed that he was fulfilling his whole duty, when one of the poor little songsters died. Upon examination of the body, which was reduced to skin and bone, the foster parent came to the conclusion that it must have died of starvation.

Deeply grieved at his shortcoming, he redoubled his efforts, determined to at least save the other two. It was not long, however, before a second one died, evidently of the same malady. The good man then resolved that, whatever the third one died of, it should not be starvation, and took off his coat and went to work in earnest. He kept on with the angleworm diet until he found that his one little bird was consuming from 14 to 18 yards of angleworms a day. This was too much for his patience, and he proceeded to substitute the more easily managed diet of bread and milk and other delicacies, which were, however, not nearly so much to Miss Robin's taste.

Wanting to discover whether he had been catering to a family of abnormal appetites, our friend took to watching the methods of a real mother bird and found that she fed her young every two minutes. He then consulted the learned books upon birds and discovered that 14 yards of worms a day, with meals every two minutes, is the average rate of feeding fledgelings. He has therefore decided that he does not care to take up raising birds by hand as a business.—Boston Transcript.

He Got the Ad.

"You're not on that horrid paper, are you," cried the girl who speaks her mind, "though I did once meet a reporter from it who was rather nice? He came to see about getting an advertisement— What! Not a reporter? Why, I thought he was. Well, anyway I had lost a dog, and he said he had heard of it and wanted to know if I didn't want to advertise in his paper for it. I told him I didn't believe I liked his old paper, and he said he didn't think much of it himself, but he thought it was pretty apt to reach the class of people who stole dogs. And so (since he was so polite about it I thought I might as well advertise in it. But I didn't get the dog."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Show Your Best Qualities.

Honesty does not require us to hang our oil paintings faced to the wall in order that our friends may see that they are made on coarse canvas. It is right to appear always at our best. Give the world your brightest thoughts, your most courteous speech, the outcome of your kindest impulses and purest motives, no matter if you are conscious that these things are above your ordinary level. God made the flowers show their colors, not their dull, fibrous matter; to load the air with their odors, not with the rankness of their sap.—Homiletic Review.

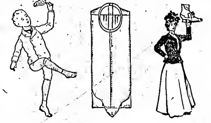
Romance Versus Reality.

The romanticist speaks: A realist is a man who takes his own vision of the world as true and the visions of all other persons as false.

The realist speaks: The romanticist is a man who has forgotten the origin and meaning of the nursery tales with which his head is filled.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

The first public bath in England for hot bathing purposes was opened in 1679.

Opium is considered three times as deadly as alcohol.



Be Ready
For Spring
When it Comes

A full line of spring merchandise just arrived. We invite inspection of these goods. A splendid line of Skirts and Waists, both in ready-made and patterns at prices which are right. I shall not attempt to describe the line; only urge you most cordially to see the goods before you buy.

E. M. HOFF.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

I. O. O. F. St. Hilaire Lodge No. 115.—Meets at their hall every Thursday evening, eight o'clock. Visiting members are cordially invited to attend.
E. M. Hoff, N. G.
J. H. Johnson, Secretary.

M. W. A. CAMP 3550.—Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every second and fourth Tuesday of every month. Visiting neighbors are cordially invited to attend.
Leonard Holmes, V. C.
Jas. M. Hall, Clerk.

R. N. A.—WILD ROSE CAMP.—No. 831 Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every Friday evening. Visiting members of the order are cordially invited to attend.
Mrs. L. N. Nolan, Oracle.
Miss T. Heggins, Recorder.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Auditor	Adam Zeh
Treasurer	O. T. Tandberg
Register of Deeds	Samuel Gilbeau
Sheriff	Chas. Sampson
Attorney	Van R. Brown
Judge of Probate	J. T. Knight
Clerk of Court	Joe Perrault
Supt. of Schools	Frank Jeffers
Coroner	Joe Belaire
Court Commissioner	J. C. Mathews
Surveyor	P. O. Hagglund
Commissioner 1st Dist.	J. Soter
Commissioner 2nd Dist.	W. L. C. Demann
Commissioner 3rd Dist.	O. J. Johnsen
Commissioner 4th Dist.	Karl M. Hanson
Commissioner 5th Dist.	J. B. Herbert

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

E. J. Holmes	President
J. L. Johnson	Recorder
D. Patterson	Councilmen
J. C. Dahl	Councilmen
W. A. Sorsoleil	Councilmen
L. Holmes	Treasurer

Barber Shop
—AND—
BATH ROOMS.
—0—
Haircutting, Shaving, Shampooing.
Razors honed and put in first-class order.
J. H. PENNO, Prop.
ST. HILAIRE - - MINNESOTA

Henry Francis, M. D, C. M.
Member College Physicians and Surgeons, Ontario.
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.
☞ Office and residence one block east of Rapp & Post's store.

"THE IDEAL" Lunch Room.
In the Paradis Building is noted for its Convenience.
FIRST-CLASS MEALS.
PROMPT SERVICE.
☞ OPEN UNTIL ONE O'CLOCK A. M.
A. F. LANG, Prop.

DR. BLOMBURGH.
SCANDINAVIAN
Physician & Surgeon.
☞ Calls attended day or night. ☜
Teeth Extracted.
Office and residence opposite American Hotel. St. Hilaire, Minn.

2nd ☞ STORE
(Second Hand Store.)
Everything in this line now on hand. Special bargains given. If you have anything to dispose of give me a call. Repairing of harness also done.
C. A. SKEIE.
St. Hilaire, - - Minnesota

Blacksmith!
Horse-shoeing, repairing of all kinds of Farm Implements, Machinery, etc. All work promptly attended to and done in a satisfactory manner.
J. C. DAHL.
St. Hilaire, Minnesota

PATENTS
Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained and all Patent business conducted for Moderate Fees.
Our Office is opposite U. S. Patent Office and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.
Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.
A Pamphlet, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,
C. A. SNOW & CO.
Opp. Patent Office, Washington, D. C.

Market Report.—To-Day.

Wheat No. 1	.59	Oats	.20
Wheat No. 2	.58	Barley	.30
Wheat No. 3	.47	Flax	106
Eggs (per doz.)	12½	Butter (per lb)	10

LOCAL NEWS.

For pure maple syrup go to E. M. Hoff's.

—If you wont a fancy drink go to Paradis.

Wall paper and calcimine at the New Drug store.

The first rain of the season came down Monday.

Seeding will begin this week, especially on the ridges.

Mike Rosenberg was an over Sunday visitor at Crookston.

Ye editor will leave to-day on a ten days trip to Cass Lake.

Ed. Shevlin of the Crookston Lumber Company is here to day.

Try a lunch, a meal or a weeks board at the Ideal Lunch Room.

Miss Mary Quanle went to Thief River Falls to-day on a visit.

W. H. Bell returned yesterday from a business trip to Crookston.

B. E. Burkee returned Saturday from a business trip to Crookston.

Storm doors and windows are being taken off and awning put up.

5 cents will buy two packages of garden seeds at M. A. Hall's.

The street commissioner is about the busiest man in town these days.

For Rent:—A five room house to rent. Apply to Mrs. F. Eikhoff.

The strong south wind of yesterday dried up the streets considerably.

Born:—To Mr. and Mrs. Dan Keenan Wednesday April 12, 1899, a son.

Mike Fricker has been making several improvements in his feed mill.

Patronize home industry by buying your wall paper at the New Drug store.

Dr. Francis of Thief River Falls was here on professional business yesterday.

Mrs. W. Peterson and son left Monday on a visit with relatives at Crookston.

Several flocks of wild geese have been seen on their northward flight this week.

Chas. Alexander returned Saturday from a six months absence in Beltrami county.

O. F. Post was at Red Lake Falls Monday attending to some probate matters.

Born:—To Mr. and Mrs. K. O. Gigstad Wednesday April 12th, 1899 a daughter.

Martin Hoff of Thief River Falls was here visiting parents the latter part of last week.

Jake Dobaicier, the East Grand Forks brewery man was here yesterday looking up trade.

The Odd Fellows will celebrate the 80th anniversary of the order at their hall April 26th.

J. G. Brady, the Wylie flour and feed store merchant was here Saturday transacting business.

Bernard Kortgaard the new laundry man arrived Monday with the machinery for his steam laundry.

Max Ericcson of the California Wine House, Crookston was here yesterday interviewing the trade.

The band boys were complimented on their playing in open air last Sunday. It was their first offense.

Editor Jeffers and J. A. Mende of Red Lake Falls returned Saturday from a weeks stay at the state capitol.

Supt. Mersen of the St. Hilaire Lumber Company returned to-day from a weeks absence in the twin cities.

John Burkee of Thief River Falls was here a short time Saturday shaking hands with his old time friends.

J. Q. Adams the jeweler and optician of Red Lake Falls has been here on professional business since Monday.

W. A. Case returned Monday from a six weeks absense, organizing Woodmen lodges along the Fosston-Duluth line.

Harry Swenson returned yesterday from a five weeks stay at Red Lake Falls being relived by station agent Thomas.

Mrs. Bailey, deputy organizer of the Ladies of the Maccabees was here yesterday enroute to Red Lake Falls where she goes to institute a tent.

L. N. Nolan went to Thief River Falls to-day to work for the new lumber company.

Will Peterson went to Crookston yesterday for the purpose of disposing of his property at that place which he has been offered a good price for.

The band boys will give their first dance April 21st. Show your appreciation by buying a ticket and have a real good time. Tickets one dollar.

M. Moylan and A. Golly returned Saturday from the woods where they have been all winter. They will hold down their old positions at the mill this season.

One of the foremost American generals said recently: "We will see a hundred thousand soldiers in the Philipines before the Americans control the Islands."

To take the tariff off all articles controlled by trusts and combines is the way the Pioneer Press would fix these monopolies and we think this would be a good idea.

One of the real estate transfers of Red Lake county last week reads "Lester F. Thurber as assignee, to Otto W. Brink, s½ of ne¼ and lots 1 and 2, sec. 1, Black River $1,300.00."

The St. Hilaire cornet band will play a few pieces of waltz and polka music at their dance which will be held on Friday evening April 21st. Be sure and get a ticket and enjoy yourself.

Old hands that have been working for the St. Hilaire Lumber Company the past two seasons are now returning daily to accept their former positions. The mill expects to start up about the 20th.

Will Eikhoff closed a deal Monday with a party from Iowa selling his 400 acre farm for $8,000. Mr. Eikhoff will run the farm this season and in all probabilities will move back to New York next fall.

Mrs. C. A. Brummond and children, wife and children of our popular station agent arrived Saturday and will make this their future home. At present they are living in apartments in the depot, but only temporarily.

The Great Northern has issued orders to all station agents to move out of the depots and not use them for dwelling houses after May 1st. This is practically a cut of from $10 to $15 per month to agents having families.

Orders for prison twine are rushing in so fast that Warden Wolfer says farmers will take the entire output and there will not be a pound for dealers. All the manilla twine in stock has been manufactured and from now on only minalla and sisal mixed twine will be made.

The Thief River News published a three column article last week from W. B. Fuller, a former Thief River boy, but at present with the 13th Minn., in the Phillipines. It is very interesting and well written, but he has no time for the "Googos" commonly called Filipinos.

A. C. Adams appeared on the street Monday morning with his whiskers cut a la Weyler. If such a thing had happened a year ago, in all probabilities Mr. Adams' life would be in danger as it would take all his time convincing the people "I am not Weyler, or any relative of his."

Some people will walk a mile or more to borrow his neighbors paper and then pass it on to the next who in turn walk over a quarter section or more. Such a thing is very neighborly alright, but don't do it—sole leather is too high and newspapers too low—and to economize on less than two cents a week is poor business and has a tendency to make a person look guilty.

Oscar Thomas, station agent at Red Lake Falls, and wife returned Monday enroute home from a five weeks absence in the east. Mr. Thomas has been acting as immigration agent for the Great Northern in the state of Indiana and was successful to the extent of securing homes for several hundred Dunkards who have taken up lands in the western part of North Dakota.

An unorganized boycott is on at Grand Forks and no orders for canned meats at the grocery stores. The war investigating committee the cause. No matter what the outcome of the investigation is, it will probably be a long time before the trouble blows over and the meat finds its old prominence on the market. To a certain extent this boycott is general throughout the United States.

—For cuts and sores there is nothing better than the Imperial Carbolic salve.

Seven ministers of the gospel have taken a three days fall out of the secret societies in this village the past three days. Monday they tackled the Independent Order of Good Templars, Tuesday the Woodmen and to-day the Odd Fellows. It is safe to say they made converts to all of these good and fraternal orders. We are informed that a lady wished to speak in defense of one of these orders but was refused the floor—referred to the bible, saying a "Woman shall remain silent in the house of the Lord."

Now is the proper time to pay the printer. Please remember this as we have use of money once in a while too—and this is supposed to be harvest time with us. Up to date our crop has almost been a total failure.

—Go to the New Drug Store for your Stationery and School supplies.

Consumption Cured.

—Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth, cures a cold in one day if taken in time. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

A Modern Patriot.

William R. Day, who was two years ago and obscure lawyer in a small Ohio town is to receive $100,000 for 59 days work on the peace commission.

This is equal to the president's salary for two years. It is equal to a mechanic's wages for 250 years. It is equal to what a barber would receive for shaving 1,000,000 men.

Many American citizens are working for $5 a week, but this William R. Day, this matchless encyclopedic miracle of statesmanship, this noble being from a higher sphere, condescends to serve his country in her hour of need for $11,000 a week.

John Milton, an inferior man to William R. Day, only received about $100 for his great work, "Paradis Lost."

Goldsmith, also one of the unfit to survive, only got $30 for his book, "The Vicar of Wakefield."

Our forefathers, who met together 125 years ago and drew up the Declaration of Independence, actually were such business failures as to do the job for nothing.

But William R. Day is a man of the nineteenth century. He is a patriot of the new American school. He does not, like the foolish heroes in olden times, sacrifice himself to his country. He has learned better paying tricks than that—he sacrifices his country for himself.

How grand to think that, at last, in our young republic, virtue receives its reward! How inspiring to feel that genius is appreciated and paid for, not in mere fame and honor and affection, but in cold cash! How patriotism will henceforth bloom and blossom as the rose!

"My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of the I see—
Land where Mark Hanna reigns,
Land where I grabbed my gains,
Land that rewards my brains—
Gold is its king!"

—[H. N. C. in George's Weekly.]

To cure a cough in one day take the Imperial cough syrup. Guaranteed to cure. For sale at the new Drug Store.

A Summer School will by Provided Polk County Teachers by the Crookston College.

Crookston will have a summer training school for teachers, whether or not the state makes an appropriation for that purpose. Messrs. Malm & Sather of the Crookston College have decided to conduct a summer term of that institution with the idea of furnishing teachers as well as others with the opportunity for improvement in certain branches that are usually taught in these institutions.

The services of Prof. Thos. Casey of Fisher who during the past four years has had charge of the common English braches in the state training schools, have been secured. Mr. Casey's ability in this direction is well known, and the added opportunities offered teachers by the regular faculty of the institution will render it possible for the teachers to secure all they will lose by the failure of the legislature to provide a summer school.

A letter received in the city this week from Senator Myran states that the chances of getting any aid from the state for roads or bridges is hopeless. Thus our noble legislators demonstrate to the farmers who voted for the good roads plank that he can stay at home when the roads are bad and cross the river on the ice. The sledding may not be the best two years hence and some of those fellows who helped to defeat the measure may join the "stay at home class."—Red Lake Falls Courier.

L. T. Bergh returned Friday from a three months stay at Glenwood where he has been looking after collections for the Deering Harvester Company. Mr. Bergh has been transferred to this point and will have this territory to look after for the next year.

It is said that Robert Burnes' famous song "Comin' Through the Rye," did not have reference to a rye field, says one of our exchanges, but to a small river Rye, in Ayrshire, which could be forded. In wading through, however, the lassies had to hold up their petticoats, and it was a favorite pastime of Robbie Burns and mischievous companions to lie in wait for the lassies coming through the Rye. When they got to midstream the laddies would wade out and snatch a kiss from the lassies, who were unable to resist without dropping their skirts in the water.

J. F. Tonsley & Co., the bicycle men have something to say in this issue.

Tax Judgment Sale.

Pursuant to a Real Estate Tax Judgment of the District Court, in the county of Red Lake and State of Minnesota, entered the twenty-first (21) day of March, A. D. 1899, in proceedings for enforcing payment of taxes and penalties upon Real Estate in the county of Red Lake, State of Minnesota, remaining delinquent on the first Monday of January, 1899, and of the statutes in such case made and provided. I shall on the first Monday, being the 1st Day of May, A. D. 1899,

at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at my offices in the Court House in the city of Red Lake Falls, Minnesota, sell the lands which are charged with taxes, penalties and cost in said judgment, and on which taxes, penalties and cost shall not have been previously paid.

[seal] ADAM ZEH,
Auditor Red Lake County, Minn.
Dated at Red Lake Falls this 10th day of April, A. D. 1899. 37-38

The Best Cough Remedy on Earth.

Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, Consumption Cure, cures a cold in 24 hours if taken in time and does not stop a cough in One Minute by paralyzing the throat, but it cures the disease and leaves the throat and lungs healthy and strong. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

—La Grippe is again epidemic and every precaution should be taken to avoid it. When everything else fails, try a bottle of the Imperial Sarsaparille it will cure Grippe in all its forms. Free samples at the New Drug Store.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Regular Correspondent.

No more glaring proof of the all-around military incompetency of Algerism has been shown than the fact that of the 364 bodies brought from Cuba and Porto Rico and buried in Arlington Cemetery, yesterday after an impressive military funeral, 91 were unindentified. What sort of management must there have been when 25 per cent of the men who died or were killed over there were buried without being marked in some way for future identification? It must have been every bit as loose as that which had to do with feeding the living. It was all right and proper that these men should be honored by a military funeral and the closing for half a day of the government buildings in Washington, but this honor will not make the parents and friends of those 91 soldiers whose graves will be marked "unknown" forgive those in authority who neglected a plain duty in failing to look after their proper identification.

Things have reached an acute stage in the beef inquiry. The court has done several things this week calculated to make the public suspect its fairness, and believe that it had a preference as to the kind of testimony it wished to hear. It started by ignoring a courteous request from ex Representative J. Hamilton Lewis that he be allowed to appear as counsel for Dr. Daly, when he gave his testimony, and it aggravated matters by trying to dodge a specifiec request of Gen. Miles that 131 witnesses whose names he furnished should be summoned. This brought out a sharp letter from Gen. Miles, from which the following is an extract: "It is my belief that at least 25,000 men, and undoubtedly a much greater number, would confirm the testimony that has already been given that a portion of the food supplied the army was unwholesome and unsuitable for use." Gen. Miles knows that the people are with him in this case and he has no idea of being bluffed off.

Representative Meyer of La., said of the proposition that we should exchange the Philippine Islands for the British West Indias, which originated in the Leeward Islands and which has been much discussed in Washington this week: "As long as we are in the business of buying and selling and trading in sovereignty, I should prefer, other things being equal, to hold possessions near the U. S. rather than at a distance. Rep. Livingston, of Ga., who would prefer that this government should pay somebody to take the Philippines off its hands, rather than keep them, think the suggestion is feasible, and that if properly approached England would agree to take them, although Germany would probably make a strong protest against their being transferred to England. Mr. Livingston says that all we need in the Philippines is a coal and naval station, and believes that we shall regret it if we keep more than that.

—If you are troubled with rheumatism take the Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure. It will positively cure all diseases arising from impure blood, and is sold under an absolute guarantee to benefit or money refunded. Call for free sample at the New Drug Store.

Josh Billings on Hens.

The best time to sett a hen iz when the hen iz ready. I kan't tell you what the best breed iz, but the Shanghigh iz the meanest. It kosts az much to boerd one az it duz a stage hoss and you might az well undertake to fat a fanning mill, running oats thru it. There ain't no profit in keeping a hen for his eggs, if he laze less than one a day. Hens are long-lived if they don't kontract the throat disease; there iz a great menny goes to pot every year by this mellonkolly disease. I kant tell eggsaetly how to pick out a good hen, but az a general thing the long-eared ones, I kno, are the least apt to skretch up the garden. Eggs packed in equal parts of lime water, with the other end down, will keep from 30 to 40 years, if they are not disturbed. Fresh beef-stake iz good for hens; I suppose 4 or 5 pounds a day would be awl a hen would need, at fust along. I should be happe to advise with at any time on the hen question and take pay for my advice in eggs.

—It is better than ready money because it cures rheumatism, constipation sick headache, indigestion. Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure.

Farmers Please Take Notice.

The State Treasurer having apportioned fifty pounds of beet sugar seed for free distribution in Red Lake county; you are hereby notified that the County Auditor will receive applications for said seed until the 20th day of April 1899. Said applications will be filed and seed distributed as equally as possible.

Dated at Red Lake Falls this 5th day of April, 1899. ADAM ZEH,
36-37 County Auditor.

—The Spectator is the official paper of the village and county. Now is the time to subscribe. $1.00 per year if paid in advance—otherwise $1.50.

Watches Clocks and Jewelery.

I will carry a full line of wathes, clocks and jewlery hereafter at Johnson's drug store. Anything you want that we do not carry in stock we will order for you at ten per cent above the wholesale prices and by doing this you will save money by dealing at home. Watches left for repairs will be sent down on first train and returned the next day. I shall continue to be at Johnson's drug store the 10th 11th and 12th of each month. Eyes examined free.

PROF. J. Q. ADAMS.
Red Lake Falls.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

50%
DISCOUNT ON Dress Goods
Ginghams
and Prints.

The Ladies of St. Hilaire and vicinity are cordially invited to call and inspect these goods as we will close out these goods regardless of cost in order to make room for our large stock of new Spring and Summer Goods. Remember this is a grand opportunity of securing a good bargain. A large cut has been made in our Dry Goods Department also. Call and be convinced.

Yours very truly,
RAPP & POST.
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.

The Cheap Cash Store.
GROCERIES NOTIONS FRUIT CANDIES TOYS TOBACCOS CIGARS AND GENTS FURNISHING GOODS.
ALL AT HARD TIMES PRICES. M. A. HALL.

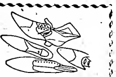
A. H. WEAGANT
Having bought the business of Fred Eikhoff, I am now prepared to sell you anything in line of
HARDWARE AND TINWARE
CUTLERY, PAINTS & OILS,
Everything at Rock Bottom Prices. Come and see for yourself. Opposite Hotel Markham

LEONARD HOLMES,
—DEALER IN—
Agricultural Implements
WHEAT, FLAX OATS AND BARLEY.
Flour and Feed always on Hand.

Lumber! Lumber!
OF ALL KINDS.
We have a large and well assorted stock of Dry Lumber and are prepared to fill all orders on short notice. We also carry a complete assortment
—of—
Sash, Doors, Paper
AND ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL
Which we buy in large quantities and are thereby enabled to sell at lowest market prices.
ST. HILAIRE LUMBER CO.

NEW MEAT MARKET.
L. M. ROLAND, Proprietor.
Fresh and Salted Meats.
Highest Market Price Paid for Hides.

L. K. KOLSTAD
DEALER IN
Boots and Shoes!
Repairing a Specialty.
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.



THE WHOLE SYSTEM

May Become Invaded by Catarrh—General Lewis' Case.

Pe-ru-na Drug Mfg. Co., Columbus, O.:

"Gentlemen—I have used Pe-ru-na for a short time and can cheerfully recommend it as being all you represent and wish every man who is suffering with catarrh could know of its great value. Should I at any future time have occasion to recommend a treatment of your kind, rest assured that yours will be the one.

Hon. James Lewis, Surveyor General of Louisiana.

"Gratefully yours,

"JAMES LEWIS."

Wherever the catarrh is, there is sure to be a waste of mucus. The mucus is as precious as blood. It is blood, in fact. It is blood plasma—blood with the corpuscles removed. To stop this waste, you must stop this catarrh. A course of treatment with Pe-ru-na never fails to do this.

Send for free catarrh book. Address The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Co., Columbus, Ohio.

An Early Start.

"Mammy," said Pickaninny Jim, "was George Washington first in war?"

"Yassindeed."

"Well, I doesn't wanter 'sinuate dat anybody is in the same class wif George Washington. But I wants ter call 'tention to de fak dat Dewey was on de ground befo' de wah happened, waitin' fur it."—Washington Star.

WINNIPEGOSIS LETTER.

From Dennis Twohey Who Went From Austin, Minn., March, 1898.

Winnipegosis, Man., Jan. 23, 1899.

Benjamin Davies, Esq., Canadian Government Agent, St. Paul, Minn.; Dear Sir:—I have great pleasure in writing you these few lines to let you know how I like my new location and how I have been getting along since I left Southern Minnesota. I like this country well, the climate agrees with me and my family at all seasons, and taken all around it is away ahead of Minnesota. I may say that we have not had one storm yet this winter. As regards the productives of the soil, I consider it beats Southern Minnesota. I am a practical farmer, but have never seen such vegetables in my life as I have seen raised here. As regards grain of all kinds, I have seen splendid yields, in fact any man who cannot get along here and make a good living cannot do it anywhere.

We have abundance of wood for fuel, timber for building, and lots of hay. I have got good water on my place about 24 feet. I have a good class of neighbors around me, and have been well used by everybody. I have been able to get lots of work for myself and team at fair wages, whenever I wanted it, and I think any one else can do the same. I would not care to return to Minnesota. I am, sir, yours very truly,

(Signed) DENNIS TWOHEY.

The government has agents in several of the states, any of whom will be pleased to give you information, as to free homestead lands to those desiring it.

Balky.

"You are fined $10 for contempt of court," said the judge.

"That wouldn't even pay the expressage on it," answered the culprit.—Philadelphia North American.

IN VINO VERITAS.

Or the Naughty Boys and the Man With a "Jag."

He was very drunk, and he seemed to be trying to find something on the road. To him the solid earth rolled and pitched like the sea in a storm. So he grasped a picket in a fence with his left hand, and carefully, very carefully, he felt the ground about him with his right. Several boys gathered. They asked him what he was looking for.

"Lost somethin'," he replied; "maybe five cent, maybe five dol-lie-lar gold piece—I don't know which."

The boys aided in the search. The ground was steadier to them, and they soon became satisfied that the man had lost nothing in that spot. They held a whispered conference. Then two ran away. The others yelled suddenly to the man: "Say, boss, those fellows found your money and they're running away!"

The man straightened up with a jerk. He became almost dignified. "You're all liars!" he yelled back; "they didn't find nothin', 'cause I ain't lost nothin'." He staggered down the street chuckling.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

In South America.

"So you have your labor troubles here, also?" said the North American, who was temporarily a visitor in one of the South American republics.

"Labor troubles!" replied the native, drawing himself up proudly and speaking with every evidence of excitement. "We have no labor troubles. Where did you get that idea? Who told you that we had any troubles about labor?"

"Oh, no one," replied the visitor. "I drew my own conclusions. I saw some rioting and supposed—"

"Rioting!" exclaimed the native. "Rioting!" Sir, I would have you understand that this is a revolution!"

"Oh!" said the man from the North. It was really all that he could say without giving offense. There is such a difference in localities.—Chicago Evening Post.

He Told All He Knew.

Counsel—I insist on an answer to my question. You have not told me all the conversation. I want to know everything that passed between you and Mr. Jones on the occasion to which you refer.

Reluctant Witness—I've told you everything of any consequence.

"You have told me that you said to him, 'Jones, this case will get into court some day.' Now, I want to know what he said in reply."

"Well, he said, 'Brown, there isn't anything in this business that I'm ashamed of, and if any snoopin', little, yee-hawkin', four-by-six, gimblet-eyed lawyer, with half a pound of brains and sixteen pounds of jaw, ever wants to know what I've been talking about, you can tell him the whole story.'"

Appearances Are Deceitful.

"Give me a room with a bath, and send up a box of soap."

It was in a small city in Ohio, and the stranger, who had come in on the last train, as he spoke, threw down the pen where he had been inscribing his name on the hotel register.

The clerk gazed at his black face and his begrimed clothes, and smiled a haughty smile.

"We do not serve coal miners in this house," he said, sternly.

"Young man," replied the total stranger, "I am not a coal miner, a minstrel, a chimneysweep or a charcoal burner. I am a millionaire in distress, and I have just passed through a snowstorm in Chicago."—Life.

How He Caught On.

A "society reporter" was sent to a "function" the other day, to describe the women's gowns. "Make it artistic," said his editor. "Don't give the stereotyped 'Mrs. Jones wore blue' and 'Mrs. Smith wore green.' Try to give it a woman's touch!" The reporter said he would try. Just as the paper was going to press the city editor caught this gleaming line of type:

"Mrs. John Willing Van Huysen looked adorably distinguished in violet silk trimmed with pale pink. Good lit."

Whoever pays you more court than he is accustomed to pay, either intends to deceive you or finds you necessary to him.—Courtenay.

PEARL HUNTING IN AMERICA.

In the year 1857 a pearl of fine luster, weighing ninety-three grains, was found at Notch Brook, near Paterson, New Jersey. The Empress Eugenie bought it for twenty-five hundred dollars, a quarter of its present value. It was the discovery of this pearl that called attention to the fresh-water, pearl-bearing mollusks of North America and led to other "finds," which are described at length in a bulletin prepared for the Fish Commission by Mr. George F. Kunz.

Mr. Kunz reminds us that the very oldest inhabitants were pearl-hunters. The mound-builders possessed pearls literally bushels of them. At a mound in the Little Miami Valley, Professor Putnam and Doctor Metz unearthed more than sixty thousand—all, of course, decayed or altered so as to be of no commercial value. The Indians, succeeding the mound-builders, likewise sought and treasured them.

The Spanish explorers proved as partial to pearls as they were to all other forms of portable property. The historian of the expedition says that by rifling the sepulchers in one Indian town in Florida, De Soto and his band obtained more than three hundred and fifty pounds. Probably many of these pearls were, in a way, artificial, manufactured from the shell. But there is no doubt that pearls were much more numerous in the explorers' time than they were when rediscovered, so to speak, in 1857—just as they were more numerous in 1857 than they are now.

The pearl-hunting of the last forty years has been carried on at intervals all the way from Nova Scotia to Wisconsin, and then south as far as Florida. The "fever" seems to break out about once in ten years. In the 1897 epidemic Arkansas was first and chiefly affected. In certain parts of that state pearls had been found frequently and used as children's playthings and as "luck-stones," with no idea of their value.

A young St. Louis man, spending his vacation on a fishing trip, picked up a few on the shore of Murphy Lake,—the negro guide laughed at him,—and sent them to city jewelers. The check that came back inspired a company to lease the whole lake and work it, with good results. Discoveries in other places fostered the excitement.

A pink pearl of thirty-one grains, found on Black river, Arkansas, netted the finder thirty-five dollars and the purchaser five hundred. From the Little Red river, in a short time, a man took fifteen hundred dollars' worth of pearls. A Kansas man found eleven lavender-colored pearls, which he sold for six hundred dollars. At one "drive" with his drag-shovel across a little stream, a Missouri farmer collected more than two hundred pearls, some as large as peas.

Unfortunately, these gatherers, with few exceptions, did their work wastefully. European pearl-hunters have instruments with which they open the shell without injuring the animal, and if they find no pearl they return the shell to the water. Our pearl-seekers throw away the shell and the edible meat, and foolishly open the very smallest mussels, which seldom contain pearls.

Then, too, certain factories in the west are beginning to use great quantities of shells in the manufacture of pearl buttons. Supplies for these factories are accumulated by means of steam dredges, which sweep the deeper waters where the ordinary hunter could not venture. And so between the button-maker and the careless pearl-hunter, the fresh-water mussels of the United States seem destined to extinction.

The crop is worth preserving. There is always a chance of a "find" like that blue pearl from Caney Fork, Tennessee, which fetched thirty-three hundred dollars in London a few years ago. But the haphazard methods that now prevail are equally destructive and dangerous. Pearl-collecting is an industry in which stupidity commands no premium. Mr. Kunz tells us that what would doubtless have been the finest pearl of modern times was ruined by the ignorant finder, who boiled it to open the shell.

North Dakota Divorces.

The people who wish to get divorces speedily, quietly and usually without adequate cause, will learn with sorrow that the North Dakota Legislature has passed a bill, which the governor undoubtedly will approve, making it necessary to have lived a year in the state before beginning suit for divorce. For a time South Dakota was the Mecca of couples that yearned for an immediate release from marital ties. Later on North Dakota and Oklahoma took its place. Oklahoma alone remains now, and territorial divorces are not held in as high esteem as state divorces.—Chicago Tribune.

A Detective Umbrella.

Customer—Look here! The first time I used this cheap umbrella I bought of you the black dye all soaked out and dripped all over me. Dealer—Mein friendt, dat vos von new patent detective umbrel. You see it luh von self-detector. If anyvons dake him you can dell him by his clodings.—Ohio State Journal.

The Modern Method.

"It's an awful thing not to know where one's next meal is coming from." "Yes, but a good many of us married men are experiencing it since the grocery stores got advertising bargain sales."—Indianapolis Journal.

The Princess of Wales.

Although the princess of Wales is always spoken of as Danish, she spent most of her early life in Germany, near Frankfort, and German, not Danish, was her mother tongue.

Played Insane, Went Insane.

An English burglar who shammed insanity in order to escape trial, after keeping up the pretense for six months, has become really mad.

A Fair Warning.

"I say a bonnet to-day, George, that was a dream."

"Well, don't forget, my dear, that your poor old George doesn't believe in dreams."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

America and Germany.

So soon as America showed her firmness the German cruiser left Manila Bay, and we now protect their interests. In a like manner, all stomach ills fly before the wonderful power of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It strikes the root of all diseases, and cures indigestion, constipation, biliousness, liver and kidney troubles.

One of Them Resents It.

"A New York doctor says American girls is the worst cooks in the worruld, does he?" indignantly exclaimed Bridget. "If he' diver say it to me, I'd shlap his face f'r him!"—Chicago Tribune.

"Let Him Who Wins It Bear the Palm."

Praise unstinted is accorded to all honorable victors, whether in the din of war or in the quiet paths of peace. Hood's Sarsaparilla has won thousands of victories over all sorts of troubles of the blood, and it is America's Greatest Medicine, the best that money can buy.

It possesses the exact combination which purifies the blood and brings the color of health to every cheek. It never disappoints.

Scrofula—"When three months old our baby Roy was covered with itching and burning scrofula sores. The best physicians failed to relieve. Hood's Sarsaparilla saved his life as it made a permanent cure." MRS. LILLIE M. FISH, East Springport, Mich.

Erysipelas—"A scrofulous condition of my blood caused me to suffer from erysipelas for 15 years. Physicians did not even help, but Hood's Sarsaparilla permanently cured this disease." A. E. SMITH, 208 Court Ave., Jeffersonville, Ind.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

Hood's Pills cure liver ills; the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

PATENTS.

List of Patents Issued Last Week to Northwestern Inventors.

John F. Brock, Sparta, Wis., garment stretcher; Aren Carlson, Pierre, S. D., windmill; James H. Dean, St. Paul, Minn., voting machine; Sidney L. Long, Magnolia, Minn., trop; Johnston Mealey, Howard Lake, Minn., truce fastening; Emil Newquist, Carlton, Minn., scissors-grinding attachment for sewing machines; Tighten A. Robinson, Minneapolis, Minn., coal pocket; also, swiveled spout for elevators; John Stynesberg, Biwabik, Minn., monkey wrench; William L. Williams, Winona, Minn., furnace implement; Edwin A Young and I. T. Drake, Medallam, Minn., variable speed gear for bicycles.

Merwin, Lothrop & Johnson, Patent Attorneys, 910 Pioneer Press Bldg., St. Paul.

The Real Patient.

The convalescent author consented to receive the reporter.

"I am progressing very nicely," he replied, in answer to the usual query. "But how is the public?"

"The public?" asked the reporter.

"Yes; have they rallied fully from the poetry of my illness?"—Philadelphia North American.

STATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, } ss.
LUCAS COUNTY.

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure.

FRANK J. CHENEY.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1886.

(SEAL.) A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

A good Arabian horse can canter in the desert for twenty-four hours in summer and forty-eight hours in winter without drinking.

What "Kalsomines" Are.

"Kalsomines" are cheap temporary preparations manufactured from chalks, clays, whiting, etc., and are stuck on the wall with decaying animal glue. They bear no comparison with Alabastine, which is a cement that goes through a process of setting, and hardens with age. Consumers, in buying Alabastine, should see that the goods are in packages and properly labeled. Nothing else is "just as good" as Alabastine. The claims of new imitations are absurd on their face. They cannot offer the test of time for durability.

The Indian population of the United States is 325,464, a decrease in fifty years of only 62,765.

Dewey Let Us Have the Fibre.

When Admiral Dewey destroyed the Spanish Navy in Manila Harbor there were lying in the harbor six big ships laden with Manila fiber for the Deering Harvester Co. of Chicago. By a special order from the Navy Department Dewey was permitted to release these ships. Their cargoes reached the Deering Twine Works in Chicago in due course, and that twine will be used to bind the sheaves of this season's harvest all over the world.

It's a poor contortionist that can't make both ends meet.

Health and Beauty.

No beauty with pimply skin, dull eyes, bad breath. Clean your system and keep it clean with fragrant Cascarets Candy Cathartic. All druggists. 10c, 25c, 50c.

It were better to be of no church than to be bitter for any.—Penn.

TOWER'S FISH BRAND
POMMEL SLICKER
The Best Saddle Coat.
Keeps both rider and saddle perfectly dry in the hardest storms. Substitutes will disappoint. Ask for 1897 Fish Brand Pommel Slicker—it is entirely new. If not for sale in your town, write for catalogue to A. J. TOWER, Boston, Mass.

OUR BUDGET OF FUN.

SOME GOOD JOKES, ORIGINAL AND SELECTED.

A Variety of Jokes—Gibes and Ironies Original and Selected—Flotsam and Jetsam from the Tide of Humor—Witty Sayings.

Up-to-Date.

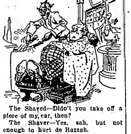
Take up the white man's burden,
And blow in your hard-earned tin
For codfish and canned tomatoes
To fatten your wife's lean kin;
Her aunts and her wicked uncles
Are coming to drive you wild;
These half-starved sullen people,
Half devil and half child.

Take up the white man's burden,
And fill up your house with bunks,
That kinfolks may sleep in comfort;
They're coming with bags and trunks;
They're coming to stay all summer,
To die in your yard next fall—
These half-shot, sullen people,
Half stomach and half gall.

Take up the white man's burden,
And sit on the porch and swear,
For kinfolks will use the sofa,
And loaf in your easy chair.
They'll eat all the pies and doughnuts,
And you must subsist on prunes—
These fine-haired silken kinfolks,
Half pelicans and half loons.

Throw down the white man's burden,
And get a breech-loading dog
To mangle the first relation
(Half crocodile and half hog)
Who comes with his ten valises
And seventeen tourist trunks,
To eat up your canned provisions,
And sleep in your ill-spared bunks.
—Atchison Globe.

Not Worth Mentioning.



The Shaved—Didn't you take off a piece of my ear, then?

The Shaver—Yes, sah, but not enough to hurt de Razzah.

Away Behind.

"What's the matter? I hear that you are going to withdraw from our club."

"Yes, I can't afford to run the risk of being ostracized by society for remaining a member of an organization that has never had a cake walk."—Chicago Daily News.

The Practical Side of It.

Uncle Hiram—So yew study Latin an' Greek at college, dew ye?

Nephew—Yes, sir. Don't you approve of those studies?

Uncle Hiram—Wal, the Latin might come in handy if ye ever work in a drug store, but I don't see what the Greek is good fer.

It Made Him Angry.

"Fosdick received a valentine that made him very angry."

"One of those outrageous comic things, I suppose?"

"No; it is a pretty valentine, but it was sent by express, charges to be collected."—New York World.

A Perfectly Natural Query.

The Lady—So you are a hero of the late war, eh?

The Tramp—Yes, ma'am.

The Lady—Well, what have you done with the money you received for your magazine articles?—Puck.

Rough on Auntie.

Tommy—"That church is over 200 years old."

Cissy—"My aunt says it's only 100."

Tommy—"Oh, well, I suppose that's as far back as she can remember."—Stray Stories.

A Last Resource.

King's Daughter—Mercy! Do you allow that half-grown girl to read Zola and Ouida?

The Mother—I must do something to keep her away from the newspapers.—Life.

Force of Habit.

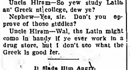
"Have you no mercy!" she shrieked.

"No," hissed the villainous drug clerk, "but," murmured absent-mindedly, "we have something just as good."

Bryant Revised.

The melancholy days are come,
The saddest ever yet,
When we put our overcoats in hock
Our summer suits to get.

Hardest Luck of All.



Beggar (pathetically)—Ah, mister, wot kin be worse than havin' no home ter go ter?

Citizen (unsteadily)—Nuzzin, my friend—nuzzin'—cept havin' a home that you've got to go to.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Quite the Contrary.

Biggs—Is your wife's mother still visiting you?

Riggs—She is visiting us, but she is no still.

A Certainty.

Jones—In a root garden show? Impossible!

Johnson—Well, I'll bet she's not above it.

No old-time doctor discards the medicine which can show an unbroken record of Fifty Years of Cures.

To those doctors, who went up and down the country in every kind of wind and weather, faithful, patient, and true, Ayer's Sarsaparilla owes its first success. Today any doctor of repute who prescribes any Sarsaparilla prescribes Ayer's. We have thousands of testimonials from doctors all over this land that it is the one safe Sarsaparilla, and the doctors know what it is, because we have been giving the formula of it to them for over half a century.

This is why

AYER'S

is "the leader of them all," not because of much advertising nor because of what we put around the bottle, but because of what is in the bottle.

It is the one safe spring medicine for you.

There are three Bonapartes left—Prince Roland, a widower, with one daughter, and the Princes Victor and Louis.

Do Your Feet Ache and Burn?
Shake into your shoes, Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It makes tight or New Shoes feel Easy. Cures Corns, Bunions, Swollen, Hot and Sweating Feet. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

The new books published last year averaged thirteen a day.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

China has begun the manufacture of smokeless powder.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N. Y.
For sale by all Druggists.—Price 50c. per bottle.

A Natural Black is Produced by
Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers.
50 cts. of druggists or R. P. Hall & Co., Nashua, N. H.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE AND DIABETES CAN BE CURED

Is not this statement worth investigating if you have a friend suffering from any kidney disease? Not a patent medicine, neither is patient obliged to come to New York for treatment. Exam and test of urine free of charge. Send 4 oz. exp. paid. Name paper. Tompkins-Corbin Co., 1300 Broadway, New York City.

FOR 14 CENTS

We wish to gain this year 200,000 new customers, and hence offer

1 Pkg.	13 Day Radish,	10c
1 Pkg.	Early Ripe Cabbage,	10c
1 "	Earliest Red Beet,	10c
1 "	Long Lightning Cucumber	10c
1 "	Salzer's Best Lettuce,	15c
1 "	California Fig Tomato,	20c
1 "	Early Dinner Onion,	10c
3 "	Brilliant Flower Seeds,	15c
	Worth $1.00, for 14 cents,	$1.00

Above 10 pkgs. worth $1.00, we will mail you free, together with our great Plant and Seed Catalogue upon receipt of this notice & 14c postage. We invite your trade and know when you once try Salzer's seeds you will never get along without them. Onion Seed 60c. and up a lb. Potatoes at $1.20 a Bbl. Catalog alone 5c. No. w
JOHN A. SALZER SEED CO., LA CROSSE, WIS.

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE
FREE HOMES

In the great Grain and Grazing Belts of Western Canada and information as to how to secure them can be had on application to the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, Canada, or to Ben Davies, 151 East Third St., St. Paul, or T. O. Currie, Stevens Point, Wis.

8000 BICYCLES
Overstock must be closed out. STANDARD '98 MODELS, guaranteed, $9.75 to $16. Shopworn & second hand wheels, good as new, $3 to $10. Great factory clearing sale. We ship to anyone on approval and trial without a cent in advance.
EARN a BICYCLE
by helping us advertise our superb line of '99 models. We give one Rider Agent in each town FREE USE of sample wheel to introduce them. Write at once for our special offer.
K. B. MEAD CYCLE COMPANY, Chicago, Ills.

CURE YOURSELF!
Use Big G for unnatural discharges, inflammations, irritations or ulcerations of mucous membranes. Painless, and not astringent or poisonous.
Sold by Druggists, or sent in plain wrapper, by express, prepaid, for $1.00, or 3 bottles, $2.75. Circular sent on request.
CURES in 1 to 5 days. Guaranteed not to stricture. Prevents contagion. THE EVANS CHEMICAL CO. CINCINNATI, O. U. S. A.

United States Map.
15c.
A copy of our handsome map, 48x34 inches, printed in four colors and mounted on a roller, will be sent to any address on receipt of 15 cents in coin, postal or express money order. We cannot well use postage stamps. GEO. F. LYMAN, General Passenger Agent C., B. & N. R. R., St. Paul, Minn.

PENSION JOHN W. MORRIS, Washington, D.C.
Successfully Prosecutes Claims.
Late Principal Examiner U.S. Pension Bureau. 3 yrs in last war, 15 adjudicating claims, atty since.

DROPSY NEW DISCOVERY; gives quick relief and cures worst cases. Book of testimonials and 10 days' treatment Free. Dr. H. H. GREEN'S SONS, Box E, Atlanta, Ga.

WANTED—Case of bad health that R-I-P-A-N-S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1000 testimonials.

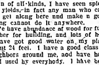
If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water.

W. N. U. —No. 15.— 1899.

PISO'S CURE FOR
CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS.
Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists.
CONSUMPTION

Spalding's Official Base Ball Guide
EDITED BY HENRY CHADWICK.
PRICE 10 CENTS, POSTPAID.
Official American and National League schedules, batting, fielding, pitching and base running records; pictures of 500 players.
PLAY BALL
New Playing Rules
Send for Catalogue of Base Ball and Athletic Goods.
A. G. SPALDING & BROS.
New York Chicago Denver

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
REGULATE THE LIVER



Any Girl Can Tell

A physician who makes the test and is honest about it can tell you that, in many cases, the number of red corpuscles in the blood is doubled after a course of treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

That this means good blood may not be entirely clear from the doctor's statement, but any girl who has tried the pills can tell you that it means red lips, bright eyes, good appetite, absence of headache, and that it transforms the pale and sallow girl into a maiden who glows with the beauty which perfect health alone can give.

Mothers whose daughters grow debilitated as they pass from girlhood into womanhood should not neglect the pill best adapted for this particular ill.

Frank B. Trout, of 103 Griswold Ave., Detroit, Mich., says: "At the age of fourteen we had to take our daughter from school on account of ill health. She weighed only 90 pounds, was pale and sallow and the doctors said she had anæmia. Finally we gave her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. When she had taken two boxes she was strong enough to leave her bed, and in less than six months was something like herself. To-day she is entirely cured, and is a big, strong, healthy girl, weighing 130 pounds, and has never had a sick day since."—Detroit Evening News.

The genuine Dr Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold only in packages, the wrapper always bearing the full name. At all druggists, or direct from the Dr Williams Medicine Co. Schenectady, N.Y. 50c per box.

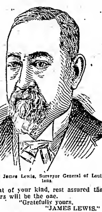
FARM LANDS FOR SALE
DO YOU WANT A HOME?
60,000 ACRES OF GOOD FARMING LANDS IN WASHBURN AND BARRON COUNTIES, WISCONSIN, to be sold in small or large tracts, divided and sold at $3.00 TO $6.00 PER ACRE.
Long time and easy payments to actual settlers. Come and see us or address:
W. R. BOURNE, Mgr., SHELL LAKE LUMBER CO., SHELL LAKE, WIS.

THE WHOLE SYSTEM

May Become Invaded by Catarrh—General Lewis' Case.

Pe-ru-na Drug Mfg. Co., Columbus, O.:

"Gentlemen—I have used Pe-ru-na for a short time and can cheerfully recommend it as being all you represent and wish every man who is suffering with catarrh could know of its great value. Should I at any future time have occasion to recommend a treatment of your kind, rest assured that yours will be the one.



Hon. James Lewis, Surveyor General of Louisiana.

"Gratefully yours,

"JAMES LEWIS."

Wherever the catarrh is, there is sure to be a waste of mucus. The mucus is as precious as blood. It is blood, in fact. It is blood plasma—blood with the corpuscles removed. To stop this waste, you must stop this catarrh. A course of treatment with Pe-ru-na never fails to do this.

Send for free catarrh book. Address The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Co., Columbus, Ohio.

An Early Start.

"Mammy," said Pickaninny Jim, "was George Washington first in war?"

"Yassindeed."

"Well, I doesn't wanter 'sinuate dat anybody is in the same class wif George Washington. But I wants ter call 'tention to de fak dat Dewey was on de ground befo' de wah happened, waitin' fur it."—Washington Star.

WINNIPEGOSIS LETTER.

From Dennis Twohey Who Went From Austin, Minn., March, 1898.

Winnipegosis, Man., Jan. 23, 1899.

Benjamin Davies, Esq., Canadian Government Agent, St. Paul, Minn., Dear Sir:—I have great pleasure in writing you these few lines to let you know how I like my new location and how I have been getting along since I left Southern Minnesota. I like this country well, the climate agrees with me and my family at all seasons, and taken all around it is away ahead of Minnesota. I may say that we have not had one storm yet this winter. As regards the productiveness of the soil, I consider it beats Southern Minnesota. I am a practical farmer, but have never seen such vegetables in my life as I have seen raised here. As regards grain of all kinds, I have seen splendid yields, in fact any man who cannot get along here and make a good living cannot do it anywhere.

We have abundance of wood for fuel, timber for building, and lots of hay. I have got good water on my place about 24 feet. I have a good class of neighbors around me, and have been well used by everybody. I have been able to get lots of work for myself and team at fair wages, whenever I wanted it, and I think any one else can do the same. I would not care to return to Minnesota. I am, sir, yours very truly,

(Signed) DENNIS TWOHEY.

The government has agents in several of the states, any of whom will be pleased to give you information, as to free homestead lands to those desiring it.

Bulky.

"You are fined $10 for contempt of court," said the judge.

"That wouldn't even pay the expressage on it," answered the culprit.—Philadelphia North American.

IN VINO VERITAS.

Or the Naughty Boys and the Man With a "Jag."

He was very drunk, and he seemed to be trying to find something on the road. To him the solid earth rolled and pitched like the sea in a storm. So he grasped a picket in a fence with his left hand, and carefully, very carefully, he felt the ground about him with his right. Several boys gathered. They asked him what he was looking for.

"Lost somethin'," he replied; "maybe five cent, maybe five dol-lie-lar gold piece—I don't know which."

The boys aided in the search. The ground was steadier to them, and they soon became satisfied that the man had lost nothing in that spot. They held a whispered conference. Then two ran away. The others yelled suddenly to the man: "Say, boss, those fellows found your money and they're running away!"

The man straightened up with a jerk. He became almost dignified. "You're all liars!" he yelled back; "they didn't find nothin', 'cause I ain't lost nothin'." He staggered down the street chuckling.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

In South America.

"So you have your labor troubles here, also?" said the North American, who was temporarily a visitor in one of the South American republics.

"Labor troubles!" repeated the native, drawing himself up proudly and speaking with every evidence of excitement. "We have no labor troubles. Where did you get that idea? Who told you that we had any troubles about labor?"

"Oh, no one," replied the visitor. "I drew my own conclusions. I saw some rioting and supposed—"

"Rioting!" exclaimed the native. "Rioting!" Sir, I would have you understand that this is a revolution!"

"Oh!" said the man from the North. It was really all that he could say without giving offense. There is such a difference in localities.—Chicago Evening Post.

He Told All He Knew.

Counsel—I insist on an answer to my question. You have not told me all the conversation. I want to know everything that passed between you and Mr. Jones on the occasion to which you refer.

Reluctant Witness—I've told you everything of any consequence.

"You have told me that you said to him, 'Jones, this case will get into court some day.' Now, I want to know what he said in reply."

"Well, he said, 'Brown, there isn't anything in this business that I'm ashamed of, and if any snoopin', little, yee-bawlin', four-by-six, gimblet-eyed lawyer, with half a pound of brains and sixteen pounds of jaw, ever wants to know what I've been talking about, you can tell him the whole story.'"

Appearances Are Deceitful.

"Give me a room with a bath, and send up a box of soap."

It was in a small city in Ohio, and the stranger, who had come in on the last train, as he spoke, threw down the pen where he had been inscribing his name on the hotel register.

The clerk gazed at his black face and his begrimed clothes, and smiled a haughty smile.

"We do not serve coal miners in this house," he said, sternly.

"Young man," replied the total stranger, "I am not a coal miner, a minstrel, a chimneysweep or a charcoal burner. I am a millionaire in distress, and I have just passed through a snowstorm in Chicago."—Life.

How He Caught On.

A "society reporter" was sent to a "function" the other day, to describe the women's gowns. "Make it artistic," said his editor. "Don't give the stereotyped 'Mrs. Jones wore blue' and 'Mrs. Smith wore green.' Try to give it a woman's touch." The reporter said he would try. Just as the paper was going to press the city editor caught this gleaming line of type:

"Mrs. John Willing Van Huysen looked adorably distinguished in violet silk trimmed with pale pink. Good ill."

Whoever pays you more court than he is accustomed to pay, either intends to deceive you or finds you necessary to him.—Courteuay.

Any Girl Can Tell

A physician who makes the test and is honest about it can tell you that, in many cases, the number of red corpuscles in the blood is doubled after a course of treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

That this means good blood may not be entirely clear from the doctor's statement, but any girl who has tried the pills can tell you that it means red lips, bright eyes, good appetite, absence of headache, and that it transforms the pale and sallow girl into a maiden who glows with the beauty which perfect health alone can give.

Mothers whose daughters grow debilitated as they pass from girlhood into womanhood should not neglect the pill best adapted for this particular ill.

Frank B. Trout, of 103 Griswold Ave., Detroit, Mich., says: "At the age of fourteen we had to take our daughter from school on account of ill health. She weighed only 90 pounds, was pale and sallow and the doctors said she had anæmia. Finally we gave her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. When she had taken two boxes she was strong enough to leave her bed, and in less than six months was something like herself. To-day she is entirely cured, and is a big, strong, healthy girl, weighing 130 pounds, and has never had a sick day since."—Detroit Evening News.

The genuine Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold only in packages, the wrapper always bearing the full name. At all druggists, or direct from the Dr Williams Medicine Co. Schenectady, N.Y. 50¢ per box.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE

DO YOU WANT A HOME?

60,000 ACRES OF GOOD FARMING LANDS IN WASHBURN AND BARRON COUNTIES, WISCONSIN, to be divided and sold at $3.00 to $6.00 PER ACRE.

Long time and easy payments to actual settlers.
Come and see us or address,

W. R. BOURNE, Mgr., SHELL LAKE LUMBER CO., SHELL LAKE, WIS.

PEARL HUNTING IN AMERICA.

In the year 1857 a pearl of fine luster, weighing ninety-three grains, was found at Notch Brook, near Paterson, New Jersey. The Empress Eugenie bought it for twenty-five hundred dollars, a quarter of its present value. It was the discovery of this pearl that called attention to the fresh-water, pearl-bearing mollusks of North America and led to other "finds," which are described at length in a bulletin prepared for the Fish Commission by Mr. George F. Kunz.

Mr. Kunz reminds us that the very oldest inhabitants were pearl-hunters. The mound-builders possessed pearls literally bushels of them. At a mound in the Little Miami Valley, Professor Putnam and Doctor Metz unearthed more than sixty thousand—all, of course, decayed or altered so as to be of no commercial value. The Indians, succeeding the mound-builders, likewise sought and treasured them.

The Spanish explorers proved as partial to pearls as they were to all other forms of portable property. The historian of the expedition says that by rifling the sepulchers in one Indian town in Florida, De Soto and his band obtained more than three hundred and fifty pounds. Probably many of these pearls were, in a way, artificial, manufactured from the shell. But there is no doubt that pearls were much more numerous in the explorers' time than they were when rediscovered, so to speak, in 1857—just as they were more numerous in 1857 than they are now.

The pearl-hunting of the last forty years has been carried on at intervals all the way from Nova Scotia to Wisconsin, and then south as far as Florida. The "fever" seems to break out about once in ten years. In the 1897 epidemic Arkansas was first and chiefly affected. In certain parts of that state pearls had been found frequently and used as children's playthings and as "luck-stones," with no idea of their value.

A young St. Louis man, spending his vacation on a fishing trip, picked up a few on the shore of Murphy Lake,—the negro guide laughed at him,—and sent them to city jewelers. The check that came back inspired a company to lease the whole lake and work it, with good results. Discoveries in other places fostered the excitement.

A pink pearl of thirty-one grains, found on Black river, Arkansas, netted the finder thirty-five dollars and the purchaser five hundred. From the Little Red river, in a short time, a man took fifteen hundred dollars' worth of pearls. A Kansas man found eleven lavender-colored pearls, which he sold for six hundred dollars. At one "drive" with his drag-shovel across a little stream, a Missouri farmer collected more than two hundred pearls, some as large as peas.

Unfortunately, these gatherers, with few exceptions, did their work wastefully. European pearl-hunters have instruments with which they open the shell without injuring the animal, and if they find no pearl they return the shell to the water. Our pearl-seekers throw away the shell and the edible meat, and foolishly open the very smallest mussels, which seldom contain pearls.

Then, too, certain factories in the west are beginning to use great quantities of shells in the manufacture of pearl buttons. Supplies for these factories are accumulated by means of steam dredges, which sweep the deeper waters where the ordinary hunter could not venture. And so between the button-maker and the careless pearl-hunter, the fresh-water mussels of the United States seem destined to extinction.

The crop is worth preserving. There is always a chance of a "find" like that blue pearl from Caney Fork, Tennessee, which fetched thirty-three hundred dollars in London a few years ago. But the haphazard methods that now prevail are equally destructive and dangerous. Pearl-collecting is an industry in which stupidity commands no premium. Mr. Kunz tells us that what would doubtless have been the finest pearl of modern times was ruined by the ignorant finder, who boiled it to open the shell.

North Dakota Divorces.

The people who wish to get divorces speedily, quietly and usually without adequate cause, will learn with sorrow that the North Dakota Legislature has passed a bill, which the governor undoubtedly will approve, making it necessary to have lived a year in the state before beginning suit for divorce. For a time South Dakota was the Mecca of couples that yearned for an immediate release from marital ties. Later on North Dakota and Oklahoma took its place. Oklahoma alone remains now, and territorial divorces are not held in as high esteem as state divorces.—Chicago Tribune.

A Detective Umbrella.

Customer—Look here! The first time I used this cheap umbrella I bought of you the black dye all soaked out and dripped all over me. Dealer—Mein friendt, dat vos von new batent detective umprel. You see it isb von zelf-dedector. If anyvons dake him you can dell him py his clodings.—Ohio State Journal.

The Modern Method.

"It's an awful thing not to know where one's next meal is coming from." "Yes, but a good many of us married men are experiencing it since the grocery stores got advertising bargain sales."—Indianapolis Journal.

The Princess of Wales.

Although the princess of Wales is always spoken of as Danish, she spent most of her early life in Germany, near Frankfort, and German, not Danish, was her mother tongue.

Played Insane, Went Insane.

An English burglar who shammed insanity in order to escape trial, after keeping up the pretense for six months, has become really mad.

A Fair Warning.

"I saw a bonnet to-day, George, that was a dream."

"Well, don't forget, my dear, that your poor old George doesn't believe in dreams."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

America and Germany.

So soon as America showed her firmness the German cruiser left Manila Bay, and we now protect their interests. In a like manner, all stomach ills fly before the wonderful power of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It strikes the root of all diseases, and cures indigestion, constipation, biliousness, liver and kidney troubles.

One of Them Resents It.

"A New York doctthor says American girls is the worst cooks in the worruld, does he?" indignantly exclaimed Bridget. "If he' diver say it to me, I'd shlap his face f'r him!"—Chicago Tribune.

"Let Him Who Wins It Bear the Palm."

Praise unstinted is accorded to all honorable victors, whether in the din of war or in the quiet paths of peace. Hood's Sarsaparilla has won thousands of victories over all sorts of troubles of the blood, and it is America's Greatest Medicine, the best that money can buy.

It possesses the exact combination which purifies the blood and brings the color of health to every cheek. It never disappoints.

Scrofula—"When three months old our baby Roy was covered with itching and burning scrofula sores. The best physicians failed to relieve. Hood's Sarsaparilla saved his life as it made a permanent cure." MRS. LILLIE M. FISH, East Springport, Mich.

Erysipelas—"A scrofulous condition of my blood caused me to suffer from erysipelas for 15 years. Physicians did not even help, but Hood's Sarsaparilla permanently cured this disease." A. E. SMITH, 208 Court Ave., Jeffersonville, Ind.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

PATENTS.

List of Patents Issued Last Week to Northwestern Inventors.

John F. Brock, Sparta, Wis., garment stretcher; Aren Carlson, Pierre, S. D., windmill; James H. Dean, St. Paul, Minn., voting machine; Sidney L. Long, Magnolia, Minn., trap; Johnston Menley, Howard Lake, Minn., trace fastening; Emil Newquist, Carlton, Minn., scissors-grinding attachment for sewing machines; Tighten A. Robinson, Minneapolis, Minn., coal pocket; also, swiveled spout for elevators; John Stynesberg, Biwabik, Minn., monkey wrench; William L. Williams, Winona, Minn., furnace implement; Edwin A. Young and I. T. Drake, Medaliam, Minn., variable speed gear for bicycles.

Merwin, Lothrop & Johnson, Patent Attorneys, 910 Pioneer Press Bldg., St. Paul.

The Real Patient.

The convalescent author consented to receive the reporter.

"I am progressing very nicely," he replied, in answer to the usual query. "But how is the public?"

"The public?" asked the reporter.

"Yes; have they rallied fully from the poetry of my illness?"—Philadelphia North American.

STATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, } ss.
LUCAS COUNTY. }

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure.

FRANK J. CHENEY.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1886.

(SEAL.) A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

A good Arabian horse can canter in the desert for twenty-four hours in summer and forty-eight hours in winter without drinking.

What "Kalsomines" Are.

"Kalsomines" are cheap temporary preparations manufactured from chalks, clays, whiting, etc., and are stuck on the wall with decaying animal glue. They bear no comparison with Alabastine, which is a cement that goes through a process of setting, and hardens with age. Consumers, in buying Alabastine, should see that the goods are in packages and properly labeled. Nothing else is "just as good" as Alabastine. The claims of new imitations are absurd on their face. They cannot offer the test of time for durability.

The Indian population of the United States is 323,464, a decrease in fifty years of only 62,765.

Dewey Let Us Have the Fibre.

When Admiral Dewey destroyed the Spanish Navy in Manila Harbor there were lying in the harbor six big ships laden with Manila fiber for the Deering Harvester Co. of Chicago. By a special order from the Navy Department Dewey was permitted to release these ships. Their cargoes reached the Deering Twine Works in Chicago in due course, and that twine will be used to bind the sheaves of this season's harvest all over the world.

It's a poor contortionist that can't make both ends meet.

Health and Beauty.

No beauty with pimply skin, dull eyes, bad breath. Clean your system and keep it clean with fragrant Cascarets Candy Cathartic. All druggists, 10c, 25c, 50c.

It were better to be of no church than to be bitter for any.—Penn.

TOWER'S FISH BRAND TRADE MARK

POMMEL SLICKER

The Best Saddle Coat.

Keeps both rider and saddle perfectly dry in the hardest storms. Substitutes will disappoint. Ask for 1897 Fish Brand Pommel Slicker—it is entirely new. If not for sale in your town, write for catalogue to A. J. TOWER, Boston, Mass.

OUR BUDGET OF FUN.

SOME GOOD JOKES, ORIGINAL AND SELECTED.

A Variety of Jokes—Gibes and Ironies Original and Selected—Flotsam and Jetsam from the Tide of Humor—Witty Sayings.

Up-to-Date.

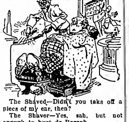
Take up the white man's burden,
And blow in your hard-earned tin,
For codfish and canned tomatoes
To fatten your wife's lean kin;
Her aunts and her wicked uncles
Are coming to drive you wild;
These half-starved sullen people,
Half devil and half child.

Take up the white man's burden,
And fill up your house with bunks,
That kinfolks may sleep in comfort;
They're coming with bags and trunks;
They're coming to stay all summer,
To die in your yard next fall—
These half-shot, sullen people,
Half stomach and half gall.

Take up the white man's burden,
And sit on the porch and swear,
For kinfolks will use the sofa,
And loaf in your easy chair.
They'll eat all the pies and doughnuts,
And you must subsist on prunes—
These fine-haired silken kinfolks,
Half pelicans and half loons.

Throw down the white man's burden,
And get a breech-loading dog
To mangle the first relation
(Half crocodile and half hog)
Who comes with his ten valises
And seventeen tourist trunks,
To eat up your canned provisions,
And sleep in your ill-spared bunks.
—Atchison Globe.

Not Worth Mentioning.



The Shaved—Didn't you take off a piece of my ear, then?

The Shaver—Yes, sah, but not enough to hurt de Razzah.

Away Behind.

"What's the matter? I hear that you are going to withdraw from our club."

"Yes, I can't afford to run the risk of being ostracized by society for remaining a member of an organization that has never had a cake walk."—Chicago Daily News.

The Practical Side of It.

Uncle Hiram—So yew study Latin an' Greek at college, dew ye?

Nephew—Yes, sir. Don't you approve of those studies?

Uncle Hiram—Wal, the Latin might come in handy if ye ever work in a drug store, but I don't see what the Greek is good fer.

It Made Him Angry.

"Fosdick received a valentine that made him very angry."

"One of those outrageous comic things, I suppose?"

"No; it is a pretty valentine, but it was sent by express, charges to be collected!"—New York World.

A Perfectly Natural Query.

The Lady—So you are a hero of the late war, eh?

The Tramp—Yes, ma'am.

The Lady—Well, what have you done with the money you received for your magazine articles?—Puck.

Rough on Auntie.

Tommy—"That church is over 200 years old."

Cissy—"My aunt says it's only 100."

Tommy—"Oh, well, I suppose that's as far back as she can remember."—Stray Stories.

A Last Resource.

King's Daughter—Mercy! Do you allow that half-grown girl to read Zola and Ouida?

The Mother—I must do something to keep her away from the newspapers.—Life.

Force of Habit.

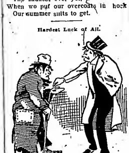
"Have you no mercy!" she shrieked.

"No," hissed the villainous drug clerk, "but," murmured absent-mindedly, "we have something just as good."

Bryant Revised.

The melancholy days are come,
The saddest ever yet,
When we put our overcoats in hock
Our summer suits to get.

Hardest Luck of All.



Beggar (pathetically)—Ah, mister, wot kin be worse than havin' no home ter go ter?

Citizen (unsteadily)—Nuzzin, my friend—nuzzin'—'cept havin' a home that you've got to go to.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Quite the Contrary.

Biggs—Is your wife's mother still visiting you?

Riggs—She is visiting us, but she is not still.

A Certainty.

Jones—In a roof garden show? Impossible!

Johnson—Well, I'll bet she's not above it.

No old-time doctor discards the medicine which can show an unbroken record of Fifty Years of Cures.

To those doctors, who went up and down the country in every kind of wind and weather, faithful, patient, and true, Ayer's Sarsaparilla owes its first success. Today any doctor of repute who prescribes any Sarsaparilla prescribes Ayer's. We have thousands of testimonials from doctors all over this land that it is the one safe Sarsaparilla, and the doctors know what it is, because we have been giving the formula of it to them for over half a century. This is why is "the leader of them all," not because of much advertising nor because of what we put around the bottle, but because of what is in the bottle.

AYER'S

It is the one safe spring medicine for you.

There are three Bonapartes left—Prince Roland, a widower, with one daughter, and the Princes Victor and Louis.

Do Your Feet Ache and Burn?

Shake into your shoes, Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It makes tight or New Shoes feel Easy. Cures Corns, Bunions, Swollen, Hot and Sweating Feet. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

The new books published last year averaged thirteen a day.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

China has begun the manufacture of smokeless powder.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N. Y.
For sale by all Druggists.—Price 50c. per bottle.

Spalding's Official Base Ball Guide
EDITED BY HENRY CHADWICK.
PRICE 10 CENTS, POSTPAID.

Official Averages, National and minor leagues and coll'ge clubs; pictures of 500 players.

PLAY BALL

Scientific batting, fielding, pitching and base running; how to find the players' averages, etc.

New Playing Rules
Send for Catalogue of Base Ball and Athletic Goods.
A. G. SPALDING & BROS.
New York Chicago Denver

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
REGULATE THE LIVER

A Natural Black is Produced by Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers.
50 cts. of druggists or R. P. Hall & Co., Nashua, N. H.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE AND DIABETES CAN BE CURED

Is not this statement worth investigating if you have a friend suffering from any kidney disease? Not a patent medicine, neither is patient obliged to come to New York for treatment. Exam. and test of urine free of charge. Send 4 oz., exp. paid. Name paper. Tompkins-Corbin Co., 1300 Broadway, New York City.

FOR 14 CENTS

We wish to gain this year 200,000 new customers, and hence offer

1 Pkg. 13 Day Radish, 10c
1 Pkg. Early Ripe Cabbage, 10c
1 " Earliest Red Beet, 10c
1 " Long Lightning Cucumber 10c
1 " Salzer's Best Lettuce, 15c
1 " California Fig Tomato, 20c
1 " Early Dinner Onion, 10c
3 " Brilliant Flower Seeds, 15c
Worth $1.00, for 14 cents, $1.00

Above 10 pkgs. worth $1.00, we will mail you free, together with our great Plant and Seed Catalogue upon receipt of this notice & 14c postage. We invite your trade and know when you once try Salzer's seeds you will never get along without them. Onion Seed 60c. and up a lb. Potatoes at $1.20 a Bbl. Catalog alone 5c.

JOHN A. SALZER SEED CO., LA CROSSE, WIS.

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

FREE HOMES

In the great Grain and Grazing Belts of Western Canada and information as to how to secure them can be had on application to the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, Canada, or to Ben Davies, 154 East Third St., St. Paul or T. O. Currie, Stevens Point, Wis.

8000 BICYCLES

Overstock. Must be closed out. STANDARD '98 MODELS, guaranteed, $9.75 to $16. Shopworn & second hand wheels, good as new, $3 to $10. Great factory clearing sale.

EARN a BICYCLE by helping us advertise. We give one Rider Agent in each town FREE USE of sample wheel to introduce them.

K. B. READ CYCLE COMPANY, Chicago, Ills.

CURES in 1 to 5 days. Guaranteed not to stricture. Prevents contagion. THE EVANS CHEMICAL CO. CINCINNATI, O. U.S.A.

CURE YOURSELF!

Use Big G for unnatural discharges, inflammations, irritations or ulcerations of mucous membranes. Painless, and not astringent or poisonous. Sold by Druggists, or sent in plain wrapper, by express, prepaid, for $1.00, or 3 bottles, $2.75. Circular sent on request.

United States Map.

15c. A copy of our handsome map, 48x34 inches, printed in four colors and mounted on a roller, will be sent to any address on receipt of 15 cents in coin, postal or express money order. We cannot well use postage stamps. GEO. F. LYMAN, General Passenger Agent C., B. & N. R. R., St. Paul, Minn.

PENSION JOHN W. MORRIS, Washington, D. C. Successfully Prosecutes Claims. Late Principal Examiner U.S. Pension Bureau. 3 yrs in civil war, 15 adjudicating claims, atty since.

DROPSY NEW DISCOVERY; gives quick relief and cures worst cases. Book of testimonials and 10 days' treatment Free. Dr. H. H. GREEN'S SONS, Box D, Atlanta, Ga.

WANTED—Case of bad health that R-I-P-A-N-S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimonials.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water.

PISO'S CURE FOR CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS. Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists. CONSUMPTION

MISSING ISSUE

Date: Apr 19, 1899

Minnesota Historical Society

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR.

VOLUME XVIII. ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY APRIL 26, 1899. NUMBER 39

ISSUES MADE UP

AND THUS EARLY THE REFORM FORCES ARE READY TO GO TO THE PEOPLE!

Utter Failure of the Republican Legislature to Meet Requirements—The Gross Earnings Bill the Straw to Break the Camel's Back—Almost Unanimous Voice of the State Press—The Grip of the Corporations Must Be Taken From the State's 'Throat—No Compromise. Already Is Next Year's Campaign On. Last Gasps of the Thoroughly Discredited Legislature—The Anti-Trust Bill and Other Tricks Exposed—Satisfactory Adjustment of the Insane Hospital Differences — Discriminations Against Dairy and Food and Other Departments—Note, and Comment of the Week.

Reform Press Bureau.
ST. PAUL, April 17, 1899.

The last few days of the legislature have been a record breaker for the making up of issues, and of estimates of what has been done by the state's representatives, first for the general public good, and next for the general credit of the parties in power, respectively, the Republican majority, house and senate, and the Reform administration represented by Governor John Lind. It had not required the closing days to make up the general verdict that the aforetime inscription "Mene Mene Tekel Upharsin" was the only one to fit the case; but that all of a sudden, in the closing hours, events should at once make up the issues for next year, a full year in advance, was a complete surprise. To almost the last moment eminent Republicans expected that in some manner "this cup might pass," and the defeat of the gross earnings bill be prevented for party's sake. But it came, and under circumstances to overshadow all other legislation bearing in any manner on partisan success next year.

In former times when there has been more open throttling of the legislatures by the corporations, and when open disgraces were practiced, such as doling out to members and senators envelopes containing the pittances of cash each was to receive, and such as the deposit of money in the beds of legislators, as was practiced on the Duluth and Winnipeg land grant bill, it seemed that a storm would result the following year; still there was then some really important legislation accomplished, which in the end overshadowed the disgraces, and the result was that members and senators came back again as if nothing had happened. But then there was a Republican administration and machine to break the popular indignation. In the following party conventions the shortcomings were covered up with loud professions, and the advocates of true reforms, despairing at the mountain of Republican majority, in the main laid down and did nothing. Now, with a different administration, and the machine broken, the people take heart, and thus are ready to seize on the issues which the record presents.

At this time, while the final score is being made up, the gross earnings bill is the all engrossing topic, and never in the history of the state has there been such unanimous condemnation of the defeat of a state measure demanded by the people. This is shown by the state press. In attempting to collect these for presentation, the Bureau has simply been swamped. Our reform press without exception condemn the legislature, while a large per cent of the Republican press does likewise.

Foremost of the latter has been the Minneapolis Journal, in both its editorial and political news columns. When the bill was first placed in the hole in the senate, by a vote of more than a majority of the Republican senators, The Journal said editorially:

"We believe the bill to be fair and reasonable, and that even under an increase from 3 to 4 per cent, the railroads would still be favored regarding taxation as compared with other kinds of property, and we wonder what explanation the Republican majority in the senate is going to make the people of Minnesota for the position they have taken."

Previously, in its political news columns, the Journal has made the importance of passage of the legislation as emphatic as possible. When the final effort on the bill was about to be made, the Journal devoted a column to it editorially, saying in introduction:

"The reasonableness of the measure cannot be questioned, and is not. That many Republican members of the senate are conscious of the dangers which threaten the Republican party from the defeat of this bill is shown by the effort to enact in place of it a so called anti-trust bill, which is relied upon to make political capital sufficient to counteract the manifest loss of public confidence through the defeat of the gross earnings bill."

Further, of the anti-trust bill trick, The Journal said:

"In the judgment of lawyers and business men, regardless of politics, the trust measure is a political bait thrown out to divert attention from the unaccountable failure on the part of the Republican senate to provide a reasonable railroad tax law, which in operation will bring into the state treasury in the neighborhood of $400,000 a year more than is now received from the railroad companies."

And The Journal said in conclusion:

"The Journal is thoroughly in sympathy with any proposition which will effectually protect the public from the ravages of monopoly, but it does not propose to stand idly by and see such a measure as the gross earnings bill covered up and concealed from the public view by what it believes to be such an inoperative and ineffective piece of buncombe as this so-called anti-trust bill."

To preserve the record, the following are the Republican senators responsible for the death of the bill:

Barker, Brower, Buckman, Chilton, Dickey, Dougherty, Greer, Hawkins, Horton, Hospes, Jepson, Jones, E. J., Jones, J. D., McArthur, McCarthy, McKusick, Potter, Reeves, Roverud, Ryder, Sheehan, Shell, Sivright, Smith, E. E., Smith, J. H., Stockton, Underleak, Young.

Of these the following comprised the majority of the senate judiciary committee making the original report against the bill: Senators Young, Sheehan, Somerville, Shellbach, E. E. Smith, Greer, Horton, Benedict, J. D. Jones and Reeves.

Upon another day the Journal said, having referred to the application of the referendum, which principle the legislature had just slaughtered in a general bill:

"The Jacobson bill provided that the 4 per cent rate, before becoming operative, should be approved by the people at the 1900 general election. This is what the people want. They are willing to act, and then have the courts come in and decide the constitutional point raised by the opponents of the bill.

"The conclusion cannot be escaped that the senate, in defeating the Jacobson bill, has committed a very serious political blunder, and that the Republican party next year, as far as state matters are concerned, will find the way rough and steep as a result."

And thus, at the hands of the Journal, as well as by a large number of the Republican press of the state, is the issue made up. Never in the history of the state has a like situation been presented. And here it is well and fitting, for the present, to leave our friend, the enemy, alone with its dead.

Take up the Railroads' Burden,
For the peoples' cause is dead,
Who receive as an act of justice,
A stone when they ask for bread!
"From victory unto victory"
The Railroad song shall be,
Pile on the poor man's taxes
And let the Roads go free.

One of the further issues is the marked discrimination against agricultural interests. Special venom has been directed against the dairy and food department. The legislation asked for to enable it to in some degree keep up to the growth of the interests in its care called for some $3,500. The report of the retiring Republican commissioner called for $10,000 a year. It was also asked that the compensation of the head of the department, now on the basis of the deputies and assistants of other departments, be reasonably raised. The appropriations committee knocked out both, in the grab bag play of extending normal school outlays. The legislature, however, creates a third assistant for the Republican attorney general's office, with pay $200 more than that of the dairy and food commissioner. The dairy and food department has to do with more people than that of any other department under the appointment of the governor. Administration of the law comes high, hayseeds to do the drudgery come cheap. This will greatly gratify brother farmers and dairymen. The department inspects every grocery store in the state, and all dairy herds, or is required to by the law, and no money given it with which to do it. It has not a cent to employ counsel in enforcing the law, and none for adequate chemical work required by law. The issue is made very clear, and the responsibility for the future of poor results, wants to be understood. It is clear that the department is the victim of the pin-headed Republican politicians who fear that it will make too good a record for comparison with the former Republican administration.

The committee on appropriations, with whom this responsibility is to be placed, consisted of seventeen Republicans and two Democrats. The house chairman was Jacobson of Swift, but he was side-tracked by the influences which destroyed him during the session. Staples of Dakota became "it," as chairman of the joint house and senate committee. Mr. Staples had a brother in the employ of the dairy department, and took the pains to call on Commissioner Bowler and tender any assistance needed, volubly interested in the department. The brother retired, and since then "It" has been gruff and unconcerned. No brother, no appropriation.

Senator Knatvold of Freeborn has doubtless pleased his large dairy constituency by his course of discrimination against the department.

And East Grand Forks will probably bustle out the band, on the return of Senator "Jack" Ryder, they will be so proud of the record made by the successor of Hon. P. M. Ringdahl. Senator Jack has evoluted very rapidly since he was secretary of the Democratic state convention of 1896, and suffered defeat as labor champion in the hustings of Ramsey.

Let not the farmers in either community despair. When election time comes just stay at the threshing, as last year in the Red River valley, while the other fellows vote and send their man chosen for the corporation "threshings."

On all sides it is conceded that the best thing was done in the Hastings-Anoka matter. The state gets needed asylums, within reach of the Twin Cities, at far less outlay. This much from Governor Lind's veto.

And now we have it. It was railroads that the Republicans meant by Good Roads.

Hooray for the Sugar Bounty, Railroad Legislature of 1899. It will be noted, says the New Ulm News, for "having done many things that should not have been done, and left undone many things that should have been done."

The gross earnings proposition strikes the Kenyon Leader as being very deep. Not as "deep" as the railroad pocket.

And while Minnesota is so shaping up on issues, the national forces are getting right in line. And say, out here "Bryan and Harrison" pleases many for the ticket.

Will you please tell the friends that the exploiting of Van Wyck is useless in Minnesota? His name's Bryan.

G. S. C.

KILLED IN BATTLE

AMERICANS SUFFER SEVERE LOSS AT QUINGUA.

Col. Stotzenberg and Lieut. Sisson of the Nebraska Regiment and Five Enlisted Men Killed—Forty-four Wounded—Disastrous Though Successful Fight—Enemy Driven From Strong Entrenchments—Filipinos' Loss Comparatively Small on Account of Their Safe Shelter—Nebraskans' Loss Is the Greatest Sustained by Any Regiment—Popularity of Col. Stotzenberg.

Manila, April 25. — In an encounter with the Filipinos yesterday near Quingua, about four miles northeast of Malolos, seven Americans were killed and forty-four wounded. The following were killed: Col. John M. Stotzenberg, First Nebraska, formerly of the Sixth cavalry; Lieut. Sisson (perhaps Lieut. August C. Nisson) of the same regiment; two privates of the Nebraska regiment and three privates of the Fourth cavalry. Most of the wounded belong to the First Nebraska regiment. The Filipinos retreated with small loss.

The engagement developed into a disastrous, though successful fight. The insurgents had a horseshoe trench about a mile long, encircling a rice field on the edge of a wood. Capt. Bell, with forty cavalrymen, encountered a strong outpost. One of his men was killed and five wounded by a volley. The Americans retired, carrying their wounded under fire with great difficulty, being closely pursued, a fog enabling the enemy to creep close up to them. Two men who were carrying a comrade were shot in the arms, but they continued with their burden. Capt. Bell sent for reinforcements to rescue the bodies of the killed cavalrymen and a battalion of the Nebraska regiment, under Maj. Ford, arrived and advanced until from the intrenchments. The Americans were 800 yards from the trenches behind rice furrows for two hours. Seven men were struck, one dying from his wounds while waiting for the artillery to come up. Finally the second battalion arrived, then Col. Stotzenberg, who had spent the night with his family at Manila, came upon the field. The men immediately recognized him and raised a cheer. Col. Stotzenberg, deciding to charge as the best way out of the difficulty, led the attack at the head of his regiment. He fell, with a bullet in his breast, dying instantly, about 200 yards from the breastworks. Lieut. Sisson fell with a bullet in his heart, the bullet striking him near the picture of a girl suspended by a ribbon from his neck. In the meantime the artillery had arrived and began shelling the trenches. The Filipinos stood until the Nebraska troops were right on the trenches and then they bolted to the second line of intrenchments, a mile back. The Nebraska lost two privates killed and including two lieutenants. The Iowa regiment had several wounded. The Utah regiment had one officer and three men wounded. Thirteen dead Filipinos were found in the trenches. Their loss was comparatively small on account of their safe shelter. The Americans carried the second trench with small loss and are now holding the town.

Checked by a Volley

Many Wounded,

Col. Stotzenberg has won a reputation as one of the bravest fighters in the army. He always led his regiment and had achieved remarkable popularity with his men since the war began, although, during his first colonelcy, the volunteers, who were not used to the rigid discipline of the regular troops, thought him a hard officer. The loss of the Nebraska regiment in the campaign is the greatest sustained by any regiment, and this disaster has greatly saddened officers and men, who promise to take fierce vengeance in the next fight.

Reported by Gen. Otis.

Washington, April 25—The following from Gen. Otis regarding the fight at Quengua has been received by the war department:

"A reconnoissance on Quengua, six miles northeast of Malolos, made by Maj. Bell and troop of cavalry this morning resulted in contact and battle in which four battalions of infantry and four pieces of artillery became engaged. Enemy driven from strong intrenchments at Quengua with considerable loss; our casualties are quite severe. Col. Stotzenberg and Lieut. Sisson, First Nebraska, killed, also several enlisted men. Considerable number wounded, not yet reported."

FILIPINOS WELL SUPPLIED.

So Says a Spanish Prisoner Recently Released.

London, April 25—The Madrid correspondent of the Daily Mail says:

"A Spanish prisoner recently released by the Filipinos says that the insurgents have 50,000 rifles, plenty of ammunition and 200 pieces of artillery, some of them the latest pattern of quick-firing guns.

According to his description of the situation they have established two large cartridge factories, and as it is impossible for the Americans to blockade such a coast as that of Luzon, the Filipinos can easily procure from abroad everything they require.

The informant asserts that Chinese, European, and even American merchants doing business in China are helping the Filipinos in this way.

Cars Are Scarce.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 25.—Railway officials report that the present car famine is the most serious ever experienced. The situation seems to be growing worse each day. The Lake Shore company cannot supply 50 per cent of the cars called for, and other lines are practically in the same position.

With a Heavy Deficit.

Rome, April 25. — A dispatch from Palermo says the Kaiser-Hausmann bank has suspended payment with a deficit of 2,000,000 lire.

BAD FOR COUGHLAN.

Captain of the Raleigh Talked Too Much.

Washington, April 25. — As a result of his speech at a banquet in New York in which he referred bitterly to what he termed the outrageous nagging to which Admiral Dewey was subjected by the German fleet under Admiral von Diedrichs, Capt. Joseph B. Coghlan will, in all probability be relieved of his command of the Raleigh. Secretary Long has written Capt. Coghlan a letter requesting him to furnish the department with a correct version of his speech. The communication indicates the department's displeasure that the captain should make statements prejudicial to friendly nations between the United States and a foreign government. There is no intention in official circles of courtmartialing Capt. Coghlan. The utmost that will be done, if the present temper of the department continues, will be to relieve him of his command, write him a letter of censure, and note his conduct upon his record. The department is very much concerned over the effect of Capt. Coghlan's remarks upon Germany. The German embassy naturally feels keenly the revival of stories regarding the attitude of the German fleet at Manila, the circulation of which were intended, the embassy officials say, to interrupt the friendly relations between the Berlin and Washington governments. It is again pointed out that when the German government learned the full extent of his irritating conduct Vice Admiral von Dietrichs was succeeded in command of the Asiatic squadron by Prince Henry. It has been the aim of Ambassador von Holleban to remove the impression that his government was unfriendly, and he sincerely regrets that Capt. Coghlan should have revived the reports of unfriendliness between the German and American fleet commanders. Administration officials are deeply annoyed at Capt. Coghlan's statements, and his reciting "Hoch, Der Kaiser," is another cause for their determination to take prompt action. It cannot be stated definitely whether Ambassador von Halleban, in view of the publication of this doggerel credited to Capt. Coghlan and the speech made by that officer, will make any representations, but in view of the action of the navy department, it is probable that he will leave the matter to the administration. There is no doubt that as soon as Capt. Coghlan's answer is received and action has been taken on it, the steps taken by the department will be communicated to the German ambassador, with a proper expression of regret for the occurrence. As the United States was content with the action of Germany in relieving Vice Admiral von Diedrichs of the command of the Asiatic station, it is presumed by the officials that Germany will be satisfied with the relieving of Capt. Coghlan.

INSTRUCTIONS TO FIRE WARDENS.

C. C. Andrews, Chief Fire Warden. R. C. Dunn (State Auditor), Forest Commissioner.

STATE OF MINNESOTA,
OFFICE OF CHIEF FIRE WARDEN.
St. Paul, Minn., April 22, 1899.
Circular No. 13.

To Fire Wardens:

We are entering upon the fifth year of the Fire Warden Law, and each year should show improvement in its administration. "Warning placards" will not be sent to Fire Wardens this year, unless actually needed and called for, in which case they will be furnished. The great object of the Fire Warden Law is to prevent the careless setting of forest and prairie fires. The law assumes that town supervisors are in position best to attend to this. They pass through their towns on public business, they know who is most likely to be careless, and they have the authority, influence and opportunity for warning careless persons better than almost anyone else. It was because of this that they are constituted fire wardens. They must anticipate dangerous weather and by timely efforts guard against any fires that might prove unmanageable. It is impossible by human agency to extinguish a great forest fire, but such fires can be prevented. Take a pride in making a good record for yourself and your town in preventing dangerous fires.

Under the Fire Warden Law of April 18, 1895,

Supervisors of towns are Fire Wardens.

Mayors of cities are Fire Wardens.

Presidents of village councils are Fire Wardens.

Fire Wardens shall post, or cause to be posted, warning placards.

Fire Wardens shall take precautions to prevent the setting of forest and prairie fires.

Fire Wardens shall enforce the provisions of the law.

This means that, among other things, they shall make complaint against parties who violate the law, and endeavor to have them punished. Circumstantial evidence is sometimes sufficient to convict. A person who in very dangerous weather causes a fire which endangers the property of another is liable under the first part of section 9.

Chairmen shall inquire into the cause of each forest or prairie fire within their districts and shall report the same, etc.

This means that they shall make a prompt and thorough inquiry, and prompt report to the Chief Fire Warden.

The Chief Fire Warden has general charge of the Fire Warden force of the state, consequently his reasonable orders and instructions are to be obeyed with promptitude.

Any Fire Warden who refuses or neglects to perform his duties shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not more than $100 or imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed three months.

District courts as well as justices of the peace have jurisdiction of offenses under the Fire Warden Law.

In case a Fire Warden is to be absent even for only a half day, he should arrange to have some one act in his place.

Each chairman will furnish one of the printed copies herewith of this circular to each of the other supervisors of his town.

Fire Wardens will please read and preserve this and other printed instructions which they may receive, and turn the same over to their successors.

Respectfully,
C. C. ANDREWS,
Chief Fire Warden.

Cuban Sugar and Tobacco.

Havana, April 25.—The sugar crop of 1899 is officially estimated at 307,903 English tons, against a total for 1898 of 232,032 tons. The tobacco crop is said to be of good quality and more abundant than for two years past. The planters are cheerful at the outlook.

Fight With Negroes.

Hammond, La., April 25.—At Maxwell a crowd of white men made an attack upon the negro quarter Friday night, killing one negro and wounding two others. The balance of the negroes were notified to leave.

Thinks Quay Will Be Seated.

Washington, April 25.—Senator McMillan of Michigan said that, while the precedents are against seating Senator Quay, he is inclined to think the precedents will not be observed and that Senator Quay will be seated.

THE LEGISLATURE

Business Transacted by Minnesota Solons.

St. Paul, April 18.— The senate will adjourn sine die at noon to-day. Yesterday was the last day for the passing of bills. The senate met at 9 o'clock in the forenoon and worked steadily all day and until late this morning. Senate files were acted on first, so as to give the house an opportunity to pass them. Seldom in the history of the state has the senate come so near cleaning up all its business as in the present session, nor has such careful consideration been given measures even up to the last moment.

The house bill, by Mr. Roberts, to limit the appropriation for beet sugar bounties to $40,000 a year, not more than $20,000 to go to one congressional district in one year, was lost by a vote of 31 to 28, reconsidered and finally passed by a vote of 34 to 23.

Senator Benedict called up H. F. No. 687, fixing the tax levy rate per cent, and secured its passage under suspension of the rules. The rate is fixed at 1.5 mills on each dollar of taxable property, and is the same as that of two years ago.

Senator Stockton called up from general orders and secured the passage of H. F. No. 292, providing for the consolidation of adjoining town election districts where there are less than 400 voters in each.

The conference committee report on the Underleak anti-trust bill, adopting the house amendment, was adopted and the bill repassed by the senate.

The senate adopted the conference committee report on the express gross earnings tax bill. The bill, as amended and passed by both houses, fixes the rate at 4 1-4 per cent.

The House

Considerable time in the house yesterday was taken up with filibustering tactics, initiated for the double purpose of forcing the majority of the house, against its will, to take up the Batz bill repealing the sugar bounty law, and incidentally of beating the drainage bill, which was so far down the calendar that every moment wasted lessened its chances of being reached in regular order. The house resented the effort to force it into submission, and before the evening recess was taken, the senate yielded and passed the Roberts sugar bounty bill, which was the alternative proposition. In the meantime, however, so much time was wasted that a calendar of about thirty senate bills was crowded over to the evening session.

The house was still in session early this morning, passing bills. Among the more important bills passed were the following:

Fixing the tax levy for the fiscal year of 1900 and 1901. — To restrain and license peddlers. — To abolish bills of discovery and provide for the examination of persons before trial. — Relating to retrial of actions for the recovery of real property. — Relating to docketing of judgments and liens on real estate. — Relative to the adulteration of food jellies. — Relating to the incorporation of societies to loan money to the indigent. — Relating to the organization of drainage districts. — Amending the game law so as to make the trout season April 15 to Oct. 1, instead of May 1 to Sept. 1. — Reducing the interest on state deposits from 3 to 2 per cent in certain cases. — Providing for a state board of examiners to license electricians in the cities of St. Paul and Minneapolis. — To authorize cities of less than 10,000 inhabitants to issue bonds to purchase sites for state institutions. — To authorize cities of 10,000 inhabitants or less which now levy school taxes to levy a tax large enough to cover deficiencies not to exceed 15 mills.

St. Paul, April 19—The thirty-first session of the senate is at an end. The upper house adjourned at 12:46 o'clock yesterday afternoon and most of the senators took afternoon trains for their homes.

The final session of the senate was enlivened considerably by the report of the committee on military affairs on the message of the governor and the resolution of Senator McGovern of Waseca, requesting the legislature to ask the president or war department for specific information as to when the Thirteenth Minnesota is to be mustered out of service and why such action has not been taken. The committee reported that they deemed it inadvisable under the existing conditions in the Philippines to importune the president for the return of the Thirteenth, having full confidence that when the exigencies of the situation would permit that the president would release the volunteers. The report of the committee was adopted after a lively discussion.

The usual resolutions of thanks to the president and other officers of the senate were adopted.

The House.

The members of the house were in a playful mood yesterday morning after the protracted session of the night before. The time while waiting for the last formalities in connection with the enrolled bills to be concluded was given over to humorous resolutions and witty sallies at the expense of prominent members.

Speaker Dare was fairly overwhelmed with the tokens, verbal and otherwise, of the esteem in which he is held by the members of the house. Mr. Stivers began it with a proposition that the thanks of the house be extended to the speaker for the uniform courtesy, good judgment and ability with which he had filled the chair. This was carried by a unanimous rising vote. Resolutions were also adopted thanking the other officers of the house for the ability with which they performed their respective duties.

Boys' School Destroyed.

San Francisco, April 25.—The Sherburne school, a boarding institution for boys located at San Raefel, was burned yesterday. Charles Armstrong, the six-year-old son of an army officer now in Manila, rushed into the burning building and was lost.

Insurance Man Bankrupt.

Chicago, April 25.—Liabilities aggregating over $100,000 and no assets were scheduled in a petition in bankruptcy filed by John C. Anderson, an insurance agent.

MOB'S AWFUL WORK.

Negro Ravisher Is Burned at the Stake.

Newnan, Ga., April 25.—In the presence of nearly 2,000 people who sent aloft yells of defiance and shouts of joy, Sam Hose, a negro, who committed two of the basest acts known to crime, was burned to the stake in a spot one and one-half miles from here yesterday afternoon. Before the torch was touched to the pyre the negro was deprived of his ears, fingers and other portions of his anatomy. The negro pleaded pitifully for his life while the mutilation was going on, but stood the ordeal of fire with surprising fortitude. Before the body was cool it was cut to pieces, the bones were crushed into small pieces, and even the tree upon which the wretch met his fate was torn up and disposed of as souvenirs. The mob was composed of citizens of Newnan, Griffin, Palmetto and other little towns in the country roundabout Newnan and all the farmers who had received word that the burning was to take place.

Hon. W. Y. Atkinson, former governor of Georgia, met the mob as he was returning from church, and he appealed to them to let the law take its course. A member of the mob was seen to draw a revolver and level it at Gov. Atkinson, but his arm was seized and the pistol taken from him. The mob was frantic at delays and would hear to nothing but burning at the stake. Before being put to death the negro said that he had been paid $12 by Lige Strickland, a negro preacher at Palmetto, to kill Cranford. A mob of citizens is scouring the country for Strickland, who has left home, and will lynch him if caught.

Sam Hose killed Alfred Cranford, a white farmer near Palmetto, and outraged his wife ten days ago. Since that time business in that part of the state has been suspended, the entire population turning out in an effort to capture Hose. Gov. Chandler has been asked to send troops here to preserve order for a day or two, as it is feared the negroes will wreak vengeance, many threats to that effect having been made.

The Other Negro Captured.

Palmetto, April 25. -- Elijah Strickland, the negro preacher who is accused by Sam Hose of paying him $12 to murder Alfred Cranford, was captured by a mob of people from this vicinity three miles out of town. He was brought here and placed on trial for his life by a court composed of those who had arrested him. Speeches for and against his character were made and the trial is still in progress.

THE MARKETS.

Latest Quotations From Grain and Live Stock Centers.

St. Paul, April 25. — Wheat — No. 1 Northern, 72 1-4@73 1-2c; No. 2 Northern, 70@71 1-4c. Corn—No. 3 yellow, 31 3-4@32c; No. 2, 31 1-2@31 3-4c. Oats—No. 3 white, 28@28 1-2c; No. 3, 27 1-2@28c. Barley and Rye—Sample barley, 30@40c; No. 2 rye, 53c; No. 3 rye, 52c.

Duluth, April 25. — Wheat — Cash, No. 1 hard, 74 3-4c; No. 1 Northern, 72 3-4c; No. 2 Northern, 69 1-2c; No. 3 spring, 64 1-2c; April, No. 1 hard, 74 3-4c; No. 1 Northern, 71 1-2c; May, No. 1 hard, 75 3-4c; No. 1 Northern, 72 1-2c; July, No. 1 hard, 75 7-8c; No. 1 Northern, 73 7-8c; September, No. 1 Northern, 72 1-4c. Oats, 27 1-4@27 3-4c; rye, 55 3-4c; barley, 35@40c; flax, to arrive $1.18 1-4; May, $1.18 3-4.

Minneapolis, April 25. — Wheat — April closed at 72 1-4c; May opened at 71 7-8c and closed at 71 3-8c; July opened at 73 1-4c and closed at 72 5-8c. On track—No. 1 hard, 73 1-4c; No. 1 Northern, 72 1-4c; No. 2 Northern, 70 3-4c.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 25.—Flour is steady. Wheat dull; No. 1 Northern, 74@75c; No. 2 Northern, 72@73c. Oats firm at 28@30 1-2c. Rye higher; No. 1, 58 1-4@58 1-2c. Barley lower; No. 2, 46 1-2@47c; sample, 40@46c.

Chicago, April 25. — Wheat — No. 2 red, 75 3-4@77c; No. 3, 71@74c; No. 2 hard winter, 70@71c; No. 3, 68c; No. 1 Northern spring, 75 3-4c; No. 2, 74c; No. 3, 70@73c. Corn—No. 2, 35c; No. 3, 34 3-4c. Oats—No. 3, 27 1-2c.

Chicago, April 25. — Hogs — Light, $3.65@3.90; mixed, $3.65@3.85; heavy, $3.80@4.00; rough, $3.55@3.65. Cattle—Beeves, $4@5.75; cows and heifers, $1.75@4.90; Texas steers, $4@4.80; stockers and feeders, $3.50@5. Sheep—Natives, $3@4.90; lambs, $4.25@5.80.

Sioux City, Iowa, April 25.—Hogs—$3.65@3.75. Cattle—Beeves, $4@5.10; cows, bulls and mixed, $2@4.50; stockers and feeders, $3.50@4.70; calves and yearlings, $3.75@5.15.

South St. Paul, April 25. — Hogs — $3.77 1-2@3.85. Cattle—Stockers, $4@ $3.45@3.97 1-2. Cattle—Cows, $3.25@3.65; steers, $4@4.35; stockers, $3.80@4; calves, $4.50; bulls, $2.80; steers, $1.20. Sheep, $3.50@5.

CHINA LOOKING FOR TROUBLE.

Reactionary Policy Toward Foreigners Cannot Be Prolonged.

Peking, April 25. — The reactionary policy of the Chinese government towards foreigners is creating for them an intolerable situation which cannot be prolonged.

Promises made by the tsung li yamen (Chinese foreign office) are of no value unless approved by the grand council, a majority of whose members are bitterly hostile to foreigners and foreign influences. Unless some change takes place soon it is believed the powers will demonstrate directly to the empress dowager.

As an illustration of the intolerance of the grand council, that body has given enthusiastic approval to a new invention by the general commanding the troops in the province of Pe-chi-li, Gen. Kangsu, of a sharp, shovel-shaped instrument capable of decapitating an enemy at a single blow.

There seems little likelihood that Li Hung Chang will return to power.

Tubbs Is Guilty.

Sioux Falls, S. D., April 25. — The jury in the case of R. A. Tubbs, mayor of Alcester, indicted for sending obscene literature through the mails, returned a verdict of guilty on seven of the eight counts in the indictment.

At the Cost of Her Own Life.

Sioux Falls, S. D., April 25.—As a result of attempting to light a fire in her kitchen stove with gasoline, Mrs. Frank Boyer was perhaps fatally burned. She saved her two small children.

MINNESOTA ITEMS

Two young men were killed at Dalton, Minn., by drinking ginger ale containing lemon extract.

Frank H. Kethan's house at Moorhead, together with its contents, was burned. Loss, $1,800; partially covered by insurance.

A man was arrested at Iron River on suspicion of the murder of Frank Neagle whose body was found near Grand Rapids.

The Peerless flour mill at Austin has an order from Glasgow and Leith, Scotland, for nearly 300 tons of fancy flour.

The American Steel and Wire company will open an office in Duluth, with Capt. Joseph Sellwood, late of the Minnesota Iron company, in charge.

At a meeting of the citizens of Red Wing it was decided to hold a third annual street fair some time in September.

Byron Sanders, an attorney, who was arrested at Winona for jumping his board bill at the Savoy House, was sentenced to ten days in the county jail.

Albert Lea is now receiving 17,000 pounds of milk six days in the week, Emerald creamery, 10,000 pounds and Glenville 10,000 pounds.

A fifteen-year-old son of Hugh Campbell of Park Rapids, was at Ellerstick's camp north of town and is lost in the woods or injured, for he has not appeared at camp for two days.

Mrs. Ignatius Donnelly was awarded the silver medal at the Matrons' Recitation contest at the Methodist church at Hastings. There were sixteen contestants.

Mrs. Edward S. Kempton, wife of the treasurer of the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railway, dropped dead on the street at Duluth, while [illegible] coming with her husband and son.

Marine men at Duluth claim that the ice in Duluth harbor that has disappeared has not blown out or jammed up against other fields, but has sunk to the bottom of the lake.

The dwelling house of Sherman Stacy of Montrose was destroyed by fire, supposed to have originated from a defective flue. The loss on building and furniture is $1,800; insurance, $100.

Mrs. Ellen Quinn died at her home in Hastings after a brief illness aged seventy years. She was an early resident of Hastings, and lived for a number of years in Douglas. She leaves a son, William Quinn.

Plans have been completed for the erection of an elegant Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul depot at Lake City. The city will also have a new two story city hall this summer, opposite the park on Center street.

The general merchandise store of John Berens & Co., of Shakopee was damaged by fire and smoke to the extent of $1,000. The fire started from the explosion of a lamp. The goods were fully insured.

Sheriff Christer of Eau Claire, Wis., arrested J. F. Miller at Stillwater, and took him to Eau Claire, where he is wanted for obtaining money under false pretenses. Miller travels around the country getting up telephone directories, and recently worked Eau Claire.

The United States Indian agent at White Earth is in receipt of a telegram from the Indian department to stop all settlements for dead and down timber cut on the reservation the past winter, until further notice.

W. F. Blackman, as administrator of the estate of Anthony Bolder, who was killed on Jan. 17 by being struck by a freight train on the Milwaukee & St. Paul road, has brought suit at Winona against the railroad company for $5,000 damages.

Work has been commenced at Fairmont on the grading of the Northwestern branch which passes through that place. A small force of men is at work at Madelia and they expect to meet midway. It is hoped, and inducements have been held out, that the line will be running in July.

Fire at Duluth caused a loss of $4,000 in a two-story brick building on Second avenue West, occupied by I. H. Edwards' wall paper and paint shop below and Mrs. Dan McKusick above. Mice carrying matches are said to have caused the fire.

At a special meeting of the board of county commissioners the citizens of Morgan offered to donate forty acres of land one mile from town on which to erect a hospital for the poor and invalids. The offer was accepted, and the construction of a handsome building on the tract will soon be commenced.

Alben Myone, a well-to-do farmer living five miles east of Minnesota Lake, committed suicide by shooting himself with a revolver. He went out to the barn and shortly after his children, hearing the shot, went to the barn and found him dead. His wife died four months ago, leaving nine children.

The bids on the building of the new court house in Lac qui Parle county were opened at Madison. O. Seastrom, being the lowest bidder, it was awarded to him at $24,785. The contract for the heating plant was let to Pond & Hasey for $2,573. Ground will soon be broken and Lac qui Parle will have one of the finest court houses in the state.

George Schmidt, lately connected with the Empire mill at New Ulm, has purchased the flouring mill at Young America, and will go there to take charge of its management. Albert Koch of New Ulm goes with him, to take charge of the office work in connection with the mill.

W. Williams was found in a dying condition in an outhouse, at the Minnesota hospital at Sleepy Eye, and taken to the anteroom of Keystone lodge, A. F. and A. M., where he died at 1:30 p. m. Deceased was a charter member of the lodge, and had been active in lodge circles for twenty-eight years.

A wail against confidence men is heard from Buffalo county. The bunco man appears in the guise of an advertising agent, and seeks permission to place small signs on barns and fences. When he concludes his work the farmer is asked to sign a small blank, supposed to contain a statement that the signs were so placed. Several of these blanks have turned up in the form of notes, ranging from $200 to $300, to the grief of the farmers.

Mrs. C. S. Cox, wife the well known merchant at Hubbard, died of bronchial consumption, aged forty-four.

Bank of St. Hilaire.

HANNAY & CO., Bankers.

Real Estate Loans.

Chattel Loans.

Foreign & Domestic Xchange

INSURANCE.

Collections a Specialty.

A General Banking Business Transacted.

St. Hilaire, Minn.

Livery and Feed Stable!

DAN PATERSON, Prop.

Dray in Connection.

The finest equipped turnouts in the northwest. Safe drivers and furnished at a moments notice at reasonable rates. Don't forget the place

BIG - RED - BARN

Located on the east side of Broadway nearly opposite Rapp & Paul's Store

ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Says a modest exchange: There is a little matter which some of our Subscribers have seemingly forgotten—Some of them made us promises, but have not kept them. With us it is a very important matter—it's necessary in our business. We are very modest and don't like to speak about it.

DAY F. STACY, C. E.

DEPUTY

County Surveyor.

RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

Drainage and Farm Surveys a Specialty

FIRE INSURANCE

DO YOU NEED SOME?

The Best is the Cheapest.

* * *

I have nine of the best companies doing business in the State

Call for rates.

H. E. IVES.

FARM PROFITS

Are Made by reading

FARM, STOCK & HOME,

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

Every Number Filled with Practical, Helpful Suggestions for the FARMER,

STOCKMAN,
DAIRYMAN,
GARDENER,
POULTRYMAN,
APIARIST,
FRUITIST,
AND HOUSEWIFE.

Issued Semi-monthly 24 Papers a Year

ONLY 50 CENTS A YEAR.
Six months, 30 cents.
3 Months, on trial, 10 cts.

By special arrangement with the publishers we are enable to give FARM, STOCK AND HOME one year and the ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR for $1.25.

---

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

The Spectator.

IVES & SOLL, Publishers.
JOHN J. SOLL, Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at St. Hilaire, Minn., as second-class mail matter.

Published every Wednesday at St. Hilaire, Red Lake County, Minn.

TERMS:—$1.50 Per Year in Advance.

Subscribers should notify the publisher on or before expiration of subscription if discontinuance is desired. Otherwise paper will be continued.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26, 1899.

A BROKEN PANE OF GLASS.

One That Once Cost Citizen George Francis Train $60,000.

A broken window pane once cost George Francis Train more than $60,000. It was this way: Citizen Train, "with the brains of 20 men in his head, all pulling different ways," went to Omaha in the spring of 1864. At that time he was the most talked of man in America. He had not a thing but money. He bought 5,000 city lots, and altogether spent several hundred thousand dollars. He boarded at the Herndon House, the best hotel in sight. The quixotic Train was regular in only one thing—his habits. He always occupied the same seat at the table. One morning a pane of glass was broken out of a window directly behind his chair. He protested and was advised to change his seat. He would not. Instead he paid a servant 10 cents a minute to stand between him and the draft. After breakfast he expostulated with the landlord, but received no satisfaction.

"Never mind," said Train. "In 60 days I will build a hotel that will ruin your business."

And he did. The contract was let that day. Scores of men were put to work. The site selected was Ninth and Harney streets, near the Missouri river. Citizen Train went to New York and engaged Colonel Cozzens, a noted caterer of that city, as manager for his hotel.

The building alone cost $40,000. The furnishings cost $20,000 more. In the basement was a gas plant—the only one west of St. Louis. The work was done on time, and, true to his word, 60 days after he threatened the manager of the Herndon House George Francis Train, citizen of the earth, opened his hotel, which he called the Cozzens House. The grand opening ball was attended by the governor of Nebraska and his staff, the mayor of Omaha and many notables from other states. The house was a blaze of glory and a scene of almost oriental magnificence. Just when the big reception was well on there was a sudden flash, a strange noise, and then—total darkness! The gas plant had collapsed.

The Cozzens House did a flourishing business for a year or two and the Herndon House was badly crippled. Finally Train fell out with his manager and the place was closed.

After the business part of Omaha moved back from the river the Herndon House declined and finally relapsed into a state of innocuous desuetude. A few years later it became the property of the Union Pacific railroad and is still used as the headquarters of that company in Omaha.

Dr. H. H. Hibbard, a St. Louis dentist, was the first clerk of the Cozzens House.

A JACK OF ALL TRADES.

The Versatility of a Frenchman of the Eighteenth Century.

In times long gone by active men combined many vocations. The barber in those days was also the dentist and often performed other duties. A sign discovered in southern France recently shows how versatile it was possible for a man to become. The sign dates back to the last century and reads:

> Isaac Macaire, barber, wigmaker, healer, sacristan, schoolteacher, blacksmith and obstetrician; shaving, 1 sou; hair cutting, 2 sous; powdering and pomading very cheap for pretty, well bred young women; lamps lighted by the year or quarter; teaches the mother tongue in the best methods; instructs in singing and shoes horses with a master hand; makes and repairs boots and shoes; teaches the young to play the oboe and Jewsharp; cuts out corns and applies blisters, plasters or cups at lowest prices; supplies purging medicine at 1 sou; visits houses to teach the cotillion and other dances; sells sachet powders of all kinds at wholesale and retail; also all kinds of millinery, shoe polish, salted herrings, spiced bread, bristle brushes, mousetraps of wire and other material, heart strengthening roots, potatoes, sausages and other kinds of vegetables.

One would naturally think that all those talents and occupations would be enough for one man. But not so in the case of M. Macaire. A postscript on the sign reads:

> I teach geography and foreign commerce every Wednesday and Friday. With God's help, I am ISAAC MACAIRE.

Effect and Cause.

The rattling of the musketry increased.

The pirate chief leaped to the mizzen halyards.

He waved his broken sword.

"Scuttle the ship!" he shrieked.

There was a moment's agonized silence.

Then a quavering voice arose above the guns.

"Master," it screeched, "somebody has stolen the scuttle!"

At this the rattling broke forth afresh and the man awoke.

His wife was shaking down the kitchen range.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Magic Whirlpool.

Fill a glass tumbler with water, throw upon its surface a few fragments or thin shavings of camphor, and they will instantly begin to move and acquire a motion both progressive and rotary, which will continue for a considerable time. If the water be touched by any greasy substance, the floating particles will dart back and, as if by a stroke of magic, be instantly deprived of their motion and vivacity.

One of a Large Class.

Novice—Say, friend, can you tell me whether Slugger, the pugilist, is a heavyweight or a lightweight?

Old Sport—Neither. He's a paperweight.

Novice—Paperweight?

Old Sport—Yes; does all his scrapping in the papers.—Philadelphia Record.

How Pigs Are Fed.

Old Farmer—That's a fine lot of pigs over there. What do you feed them?

Amateur—Why, corn, of course.

Old Farmer—In the ear?

Amateur—Certainly not; in the mouth.—Chicago News.

NEWS IN OLDEN DAYS.

CUSTOMS IN VOGUE BEFORE THE ERA OF NEWSPAPERS.

The Latter Trace Their Origin to Rome Long Before the Christian Era—The Paper That Was Published by Queen Elizabeth.

The germ of newspapers is found in ancient Rome. The government some two centuries previous to the Christian era is known to have promulgated its edicts by means of written papers affixed to pillars. Nor was there much difference between the style of these acta diurnia, as they were termed, and that which now prevails further than that the former were more brief and simple and deficient in introductory phrases and the editorial "we." They generally gave the news or occurrence in simply indicative sentences without introduction or comment of any kind.

Most of these acta which have been preserved are found to mention but one or two events. They are headed with the date in Roman fashion and the name of the then consul and paragraphs such as the following formed the staple: "It thundered, and an oak was struck with lightning on that part of Mount Palatine called Summa Vevia, early in the afternoon." "Murena, the consul, sacrificed early in the morning in the Temple of Castor and Pollux, and afterward assembled the senate in Pompey's senate house." "C. Cæsar set out for his government in farther Spain, having long been detained by his creditors."

It is hardly possible for us now, with all the lights of science around and the shoals of newspapers with which we are supplied, to form a proper notion of the darkness which, for want of these, involved the masses of the people for many centuries after the fall of the Roman empire. We are told that the crusaders were so ignorant of geography that at every town they approached in central Europe they inquired if it was Jerusalem. When they at length reached their destination, their exploits would have remained unknown for years to their relatives and friends at home had not at times some few straggling pilgrims found their way back to the west. Even bad news in those days could not, contrary to the proverb, travel fast. Every little community must then have lived much within itself.

It was not until the sixteenth century that anything at all approaching even to the scanty Roman acta diurnia can be found to have revived in the modern world. The war which the Venetian republic waged against the Turks gave rise in 1563 to the custom of communicating the military and commercial information in Venice by written sheets, notizie scritte, to be read in a particular place to those desirous of hearing the news, who paid for this privilege with a coin no longer in use, called gazzetta, a name which came in time to be applied to the news sheet itself both in Italy and France and subsequently in England, when this mode of imparting news came into use.

The Venetian government eventually gave these announcements in a regular manner once a month, but they were too jealous to allow them to be printed. Only a few written copies were transmitted to such as subscribed and paid for them. Thirty volumes of these valuable manuscript newspapers exist in the Maglin Bechian library at Florence. About the same time advertising wants commenced, the father of Montaigne, the celebrated essayist, being credited with the suggestion for making the wants of individuals known to the public in France. These were received at offices established for the purpose and were first posted on the walls of public places, receiving the names of affiches. In time this led to a systematic and periodic publication in sheets. These were termed affiches in consequence of their contents being originally fixed up as placards, though the word itself is French for advertisement.

It is to England as represented by Queen Elizabeth that the honor of commencing printed sheets of public intelligence is to be ascribed. When the Spanish armada threatened an invasion of this country, that sage queen, remarking the disadvantage of the vague and alarming rumors which circulated everywhere, resolved to inform her people truly of the impending dangers. She began to publish from time to time a sheet bearing the following title "The English Mercurie, published by authoritie, for the contradiction of false reports." Of this publication three copies are preserved in the British museum, the earliest, No. 50, bearing date July 23, 1588. The first article, dated from Whitehall, contains advices from Sir Francis Walsingham that the armada was seen in the channel, making for the entrance, with a favorable gale. An account is then given of her majesty's fleet, which consisted of 80 sail, divided into four squadrons, commanded by the lord high admiral, in the Ark Royal, Sir Francis Drake and Admirals Hawkins and Frobisher. Under the head, "London," there is an account of an interview which the mayor and corporation had on the previous day with her majesty, for the purpose of assuring her of the resolution to stand by her with their lives and fortunes to the last. Under the same head appears the following paragraph: "Yesterday the Scotch ambassador had a private audience of her majestie, and delivered a letter containing the most cordial assurances of adhering to her majestie's interests, and to those of the Protestant religion, and the yonnge king, James VIth, said to her majestie's minister at his court that all the favour he expected of the Spaniards was the courtesie of Polyphemus to Ulysses, that he should be devoured to the last." We wonder what would be thought of embassadors in these days if they interlarded their oral communications with such classical references!

The Army and Navy.

Have covered themselves with glory during the war. The Army and Navy vest pocket memorandum book published by the Northern Pacific is a compact digest of information relative to the navies and armies of Spain and the United States at the beginning of the war. It has a map of Cuba, illustrations of naval ships, glossary of navy and army terms, translation of Spanish words, etc. Send ten cents to Chas. S. Fee, general passenger agent, N. P. R., St. Paul, Minn., for a copy.

Curiosities of Journalism.

A paper in India recently published the following explanation: "This is only the beginning of our paper. We were not sure how much matter was required to fill it up, and, thinking we had sufficient, we did not exert ourselves much to get any more. We therefore beg that our readers will excuse us this time for the space left blank, and we promise to do better and get more in the future."

Still more curious was the announcement of a paper which came out for the first time with two columns blank, the editor making the bold announcement that "a large quantity of exceedingly interesting matter has been left out for want of space."

When the native editor wants a holiday, he suspends publication until it is convenient to resume, and, taking his readers into his confidence, informs them plainly why the paper was not issued on the expected dates. "With the consent of our readers, we now propose to take our annual holiday. We are sure none of them will begrudge us our relaxation."

Twenty Lashes For Six Hairs.

A singular theft was tried by Mr. Beale, first class magistrate. Superstitious Burmans pull out the hairs of an elephant's tail for talismans, making rings out of them and other charms. One Nge Tun Lin went into an elephant's shed at Ahlone and pulled six hairs out of a bull elephant's tail, secreting them in his umbrella. The mahout challenged him, and he promptly shook the hairs out of the umbrella. They fell on some straw, were picked up and put forward in evidence of theft. The man was convicted and sentenced to receive 20 lashes.—Times of Burmah.

Mutual Dislike.

Brahms and Tschaikowsky, the famous musicians, met but twice. On the last occasion Brahms was sufficiently interested in Tschaikowsky's "Fifth Symphony" to travel expressly to Hamburg in order to make its acquaintance. After the performance the distinguished composers dined together, and the conscientious Brahms frankly admitted that he did not like the work at all; whereupon the usually meek Russian plucked up sufficient courage to inform his host that the dislike of each other's music was mutual. They parted on excellent terms nevertheless.

Wanted Warmth.

"I think it would be well," said the decorator, "to have your dining room bordered by a frieze."

"No, no," remonstrated the man who had only recently struck it. "I want that room, above all others, to have a warm, cozy appearance."—Philadelphia North American.

A Woman's Bank.

The Fifth Avenue National bank of New York has 5,000 women depositors. It is situated at the corner of Forty-fifth street and Fifth avenue, in the midst of the residences of wealthy classes, and is almost exclusively patronized by rich women, who keep their household accounts and pin money there. The receiving tellers are very busy during the first few days of every month, when the patrons of the bank bring in the allowances they have received from their husbands or fathers, but the rest of the time they have comparatively few depositors to take care of, and have plenty of time to assist the paying tellers in cashing checks that have been drawn to meet grocery or dressmakers' bills.

A Bunch of Hair.

Chickens are sold by the piece in Buenos Ayres. They are dressed before being offered for sale, the only feathers left upon them being those of the tail.

The same custom prevails in China as to dogs, where a bit of the dog's hair is always left on the end of the tail, even when the animal is cooked. But this is because the Chinese consider the flesh of black dogs the best and most certain to put a brave spirit into the body of the eater.

Say?

If your wheel needs enameling, cleaning, new tires or any other repairing give us a trial. All work done promptly and satisfactory. Prices reasonable.

F. I. TOUSLEY & CO.

35 RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

—To cure a cough or cold in one day take the Imperial Cough Syrup.

Subscribe for the Spectator.

—Every farmer who writes a letter occasionally should get envelopes with his name and address printed in the corner. We will furnish 100 of the best quality printed in any style for the small sum of 75 cts. Send in your order

"Money to patent good ideas may be secured by our aid, address, The Patent Record Baltimore, Md." 27.

Hamm's
ST. PAUL
BEER
THEO. HAMM BREWING CO.
ST. PAUL MINN.
Buy a case of nearest agent or write to the brewery.

To cure a cough in one day take the Imperial cough syrup. Guaranteed to cure. For sale at the new Drug Store.

List of Town Clerks.

Names	Township	Postoffice
Olof Larson	Numedal	Viking
C. E. Purdy	North	Thief River Falls
John E. Peterson	Bray	Bray
N. K. Anderson	Sanders	St. Hilaire
P. T. Satre	Rocksbury	T. R. Falls
O. T. Bomsos	Polk Centre	Wylie
F. A. Eckstrom	Black River	Wylie
A. S. Anderson	River Falls	St. Hilaire
Ole J. Johnson	Wyandotte	"
A. D. Berry	Louisville	Huot
Hidalge Baril	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
Chas. E. Asp	Emardville	Lost
Edward Havik	Equality	Gril
Moses Ducharme	Lake Pleasant	R. L. F.
Edonor Perusse	Terrebonne	Terrebonne
J. B. Herbert	Poplar River	Brooks
Louis Doucet	Lambert	Lambert
J. L. Johnson	St. Hilaire	St. Hilaire
Lars Backe	Thief River F	T. R. F.
A. P. Toupin	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
H. D. Baaryson	Norden	T. R. Falls
Olof Tande	Garnes	Garnes

U. S. LAND OFFICE.

Crookston, Minn., April 14, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of her claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 1st 1899, viz:

Anna Sundahl, widow of Karl Sundahl, deceased, H. E. 14373, for the se¼, sec. 8, twp. 152 N. of range 42 W.

She names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—Aasine Olson, John P. Sandberg, Anton Peterson and Simon E. Ahlberg, all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

33-43 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

U. S. LAND OFFICE.

Crookston, Minn., April 14, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of her claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 1st 1899, viz:

Aasine Olson, H. E. No. 14971, for the nw¼, sec. 9, twp. 152 N. of range 42 W.

She names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—Anna Sundahl, John P. Sandberg, Anton Peterson and Simon E. Ahlberg, all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

33-43 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

U. S. LAND OFFICE.

Crookston, Minn., April 11, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 1st 1899, viz:

John P. Sandberg, H. E. 15018, for the ne¼ sw¼, sec. 12, twp. 152 N. of range 43 W.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—Anna Sundahl, Aasine Olson, Anton Peterson and Simon E Ahlberg all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

33-43 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

U. S. LAND OFFICE.

Crookston, Minn., April 21, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 20th 1899, viz:

Joseph Anderson, H. E. 14351, for the ne¼ sec. 31, twp. 152 N. of range 42 W.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—H. A. Johnson, John Albin, E. P. Stroberg and Charles Erickson, all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

39-44 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

Whereas, default has been made in the condition of a certain mortgage, made, executed and delivered by Kate Wilmes and Michael Wilmes, her husband, mortgagors, to Anna Ericsson, mortgagee, dated the 17th day of October 1896 and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Polk County, Minnesota on the 31st day of October 1896, at four o'clock p.m. in Book 76 of Mortgages, on page 153, thereof conveying and mortgaging lands and premises therein described as follows: All those tracts or parcels of land lying and being in the county of Polk and State of Minnesota, described as follows: to-wit: Lots numbered 23 and 24; Block 7, in Champagne and Dow's addition to the village, now city of Red Lake Falls, according to the plat thereof on file and of record in the office of the register of Deeds in and for the county of Polk and State of Minnesota; and

Whereas, that part of said Polk county in which said land and premises were at the time said mortgage was executed and recorded as aforesaid, has since been duly set off, organized and created as Red Lake county in the State of Minnesota, and the aforesaid record of said mortgage has been duly transcribed to and recorded in book 28 of Mortgages, on page 91 thereof in said Red Lake county, Minnesota and said lands and premises above described are now situated in said Red Lake county; and

Whereas, said mortgagors, covenanted in and by said mortgage deed to pay all taxes which were then or might be thereafter assessed upon the said premises and in case of their failure to do so that said mortgagee might pay the same and that said taxes so paid would become a part of the debt secured by said mortgage. Said mortgagors further covenanted that in case of default in any of the conditions of said mortgage therein contained said mortgagee was duly authorized and empowered to consider the whole sum secured by said mortgage as immediately due and payable.

That default has been made in the condition of said mortgage in this—that the mortgagors have neglected and refused to pay the taxes on said above described premises for the years 1896, 1897 and 1898 and that there is now $179.95 delinquent taxes against said above described premises. That said mortgagee has elected to and does hereby declare and consider the whole sum secured by said mortgage as now due and payable, being the sum of one thousand one hundred and twenty-nine dollars and ninety-five cents ($1,129.95), the amount due and claimed to be due upon said mortgage at this date. And no action or proceeding at law or in equity has been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virture of the power of sale in said mortgage contained and therewith recorded and pursuant to the statutes in such cases made and provided said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale of the above described mortgaged premises by the Sheriff of said Red Lake county at public auction, at the front door of the Court House in the city of Red Lake Falls, in the county of Red Lake and State of Minnesota, on Saturday the 29th day of April, A. D. 1899, at ten o'clock in the forenoon to satisfy the amount which will then be due on said mortgage and the debt secured thereby, together with the cost and charges of said foreclosure, including the sum of Fifty dollars ($50.00) Attorney's fees as stipulated in said mortgage.

Dated this 13th day of March A. D. 1899.

ANNA ERICSSON, Mortgagee.

F. A. GRADY,
Attorney for Mortgagee,
Red Lake Falls, Minn.

35-41

FARMS
LOANS
ABSTRACTS

97 Farms for sale or rent in Red Lake County.

SWANSON & GRADY'

Official Abstractors.

RED LAKE FALLS, - - MINN.

UNION MEAT MARKET

P. O. MOSLETH, PROP.

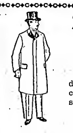
Choicest line of Fresh and Salted meats in the city.

Highest market price paid for Stock, Poultry and Hides.

WANTED-BRAINS

Can you think of something to patent? Protect your ideas: they may bring you wealth. Before applying for patent, get our liberal offers. Inventor's Assistant and handsome views of Washington sent Free on request. Be sure to write to-day

COPP & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C.



Spring Suits.

STYLISH SPRING SUITS FOR MEN AND BOYS.

The Greatwestren own magnificent display of men's spring suits, and boys' choicest clothing is now ready, at a saving of fully 25 per cent.

Greatwestern Clothing House.

SOME OF OUR CLUB RATES WITH THE

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR

OUR TERMS ARE STRICTLY CASH IN ADVANCE

OFFICIAL PAPER OF ST. HILAIRE AND RED LAKE COUNTY.

Cosmopolitan and Spectator.

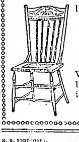
To secure for you the best and most interesting of the great illustrated magazines at the lowest possible price has been the aim of the editor of this journal. That we have succeeded we will leave our readers to judge. A special contract recently entered into with The Cosmopolitan, which seeks to become better known in this neighborhood, has enabled us to offer you a year's subscription to the greatest of the illustrated magazines together with a year's subscription to this journal, both together one year for only $1.80.

Farm, Stock & Home.

50 cents per year. Read by a greater number of Northwestern farmers than any other agricultural paper published. Are you among the number? If not, Why not? Every department in the hands of a specialist. Short talks department. A department where all kinds of questions are answered for the benefit of subscribers is a leading feature of the paper. No northwestern farmers list of papers is complete without it. This paper and Spectator one year for $1.25.

Cosmopolitan, New York World and The Spectator.

You wish to keep in touch with metropolitan life, through the medium of a great daily. The Thrice-a-Week World of New York is the equivalent of a daily and is a marvellous fund of knowledge concerning the happenings of the day. Each issue contains six to eight pages of eight columns each or over eight thousand columns of reading matter a year. In former days this would have cost you probably as much as $5.00 a year, by itself. Now you can have it, if you wish, in connection with your home paper and The Cosmopolitan Magazine. Three together one year for only $2.25.



IF YOU INTEND TO

Buy Furniture

Come and look our assortment over. We carry everything in the Furniture line including picture frames and musical instruments. Prices reasonable.

Holmes Furniture Co.

M. O. SORTEDAHL. E. G. STORAASLI.

RED LAKE COUNTY ABSTRACT OFFICE.

The only complete set of Abstract Records in Red Lake County

SORTEDAHL & STORAASLI,

ABSTRACTERS OF TITLE.

REAL ESTATE, LOANS & INSURANCE.

Steamship Tickets Sold

RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

K. O. GIGSTAD,

DEALER IN

REAL ESTATE.

Collections a Specialty.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.

NOTARY PUBLIC.

ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.

GET YOUR PICTURE TAKEN BY

D. COLLINS

THE

Photograper.

ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

CUSTOM WORK.

JUST LOOK AT THESE PRICES

Roll Carding—per pound	5 cts
Spinning Single Yarn—per pound	15 c
Stocking Yarn—2 or 3 ply, per pound	20 c

LITCHFIELD WOOLEN MILLS.

LITCHFIELD, MINN.

ELECTROCURE

FREE BOOK,

The Latest Discoveries up to Date.

EXPLAINS

THE NEW HOME ELECTRICAL TREATMENT,

For the Physical Weaknesses of Men and Women.

THE ONLY CURE FOR

WEAK MEN,

SUFFERING FROM

Lame Back, Lost Manhood, Varicocele, and all forms of sexual debility, and also diseases due to a lack of nerve force, such as neuralgia, rheumatism, sleeplessness, indigestion, female troubles, etc.

WE ARE CURING THOUSANDS.

AMERICAN ELECTROCURE CO.,

DEPARTMENT No. 2, VINELAND, N. J.

Cigars.

BRINK BROTHERS

DEALERS IN

Wines & Liquors

Minneapolis Beer.

Corner Broadway and 3rd St. St. Hilaire, Minnesota

Be Ready
For Spring
When it Comes

A full line of spring merchandise just arrived. We invite inspection of these goods. A splendid line of Skirts and Waists, both in ready-made and patterns at prices which are right. I shall not attempt to describe the line; only urge you most cordially to see the goods before you buy.

E. M. HOFF.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

I. O. O. F. St. Hilaire Lodge No. 147.—Meets at their hall every Thursday evening, eight o'clock. Visiting members are cordially invited to attend.
E. M. Hoff, N. G.
J. H. Johnson, Secretary.

M. W. A. CAMP 3650.—Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every second and fourth Tuesday of every month. Visiting neighbors are cordially invited to attend.
Leonard Holmes, V. C.
Jas. M. Hall, Clerk.

R. N. A.—WILD ROSE CAMP.—No. 831 Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every Friday evening. Visiting members of the order are cordially invited to attend.
Mrs. L. N. Nolan, Oracle.
Miss T. Hughes, Recorder.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Auditor	Adam Zeh
Treasurer	O. T. Tandberg
Register of Deeds	Samuel Gibeau
Sheriff	Chas. Sampson
Attorney	Van R. Brown
Judge of Probate	J. T. Knight
Clerk of Court	Joe Perrault
Supt. of Schools	Frank Jeffers
Coroner	Joe Belaire
Court Commissioner	J. C. Mathews
Surveyor	P. O. Hagglund
Commissioner 1st Dist.	J. Suter
Commissioner 2nd Dist.	W. L. C. Demann
Commissioner 3rd Dist.	O. J. Johnsen
Commissioner 4th Dist.	Karl M. Hanson
Commissioner 5th Dist.	J. B. Herbert

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

E. J. Holmes	President
J. L. Johnson	Recorder
D. Patterson	Councilmen
J. C. Dahl
W. A. Sorsoleil
L. Holmes	Treasurer

Barber Shop
—AND—
BATH ROOMS.
—o—
Haircutting, Shaving, Shampooing.
Razors honed and put in first-class order.
J. H. PENNO, Prop.
ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Henry Francis, M. D., C. M.
Member College Physicians and Surgeons, Ontario : : :
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.
Office and residence one block east of Rapp & Post's store.

"THE IDEAL" Lunch Room.
In the Paradis Building is noted for its Convenience.
FIRST-CLASS MEALS.
PROMPT SERVICE.
Open until one o'clock a. m.
A. F. LANG, Prop.

DR. BLOMBURGH.
SCANDINAVIAN
Physician & Surgeon.
Calls attended day or night.
Teeth Extracted.
Office and residence opposite American Hotel. St. Hilaire, Minn.

2nd STORE
(Second Hand Store.)
Everything in this line now on hand. Special bargains given. If you have anything to dispose of give me a call. Repairing of harness also done.
C. A. SKEIE.
St. Hilaire, - - - Minnesota

Blacksmith!
Horse-shoeing, repairing of all kinds of Farm Implements, Machinery, etc. All work promptly attended to and done in a satisfactory manner.
J. C. DAHL.
St. Hilaire, Minnesota

PATENTS
Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES. OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U.S. PATENT OFFICE and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.
Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.
A PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U.S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,
C.A.SNOW & CO.
OPP. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

Market Report.—To-Day.

Wheat No. 1	.61	Oats	.20
Wheat No. 2	.57	Barley	.30
Wheat No. 3	.51	Flax	.105
Eggs (per doz.)	.12½	Butter (per lb)	.10

LOCAL NEWS.

—Ask your dealer for Pure Cabinet Rye.

For pure maple syrup go to E. M. Hoff's.

L. A. Rouse returned to Bemidji last Friday.

—If you want a fancy drink go to Paradis.

L. J. Stranahan spent Sunday at Crookston.

Wall paper and calcimine at the New Drug store.

Joseph Smith of Crookston is a visitor here to-day.

W. C. Stranahan was visiting at home last Monday.

The new laundry opened for business last Monday.

J. H. Penno is giving his barber shop a coat of paint.

Did you hear that whistle this morning at 8 o'clock.

The bad weather last week put a stop to all farm work.

C. G. Rapp made a short trip to Crookston last Friday.

John Olson is building a new residence on Water street.

Try a lunch, a meal or a weeks board at the Ideal Lunch Room.

Henry Williams returned to-day from his claim in Beltrami county.

Mrs. H. J. Freeman and children left left for Wisconsin yesterday.

5 cents will buy two packages of garden seeds at M. A. Hall's.

Joe. Strawbridge spent last Sunday at Crookston visiting friends.

Mayor Dubner of Thief River Falls was in town on business to day.

For Rent:—A five room house to rent. Apply to Mrs. F. Eikhoff.

M. O. Sortedahl the Red Lake Falls abstractor was in town yesterday.

J. F. Tousley & Co., the bicycle men have something to say in this issue.

—Cabinet Rye is something new. The best ever. For sale at Paradis.

Joe Smith, the insurance man of Crookston is here on business to-day.

Supt. Peterson of the Crookston Electric company was here yesterday.

Patronize home industry by buying your wall paper at the New Drug store.

Contractor Johnson, wife and daughter of Red Lake Falls were here yesterday.

The best of imported wines and brandies for medical use at Paradis' Cafe.

Levi Stranahan was down from Thief River Falls yesterday visiting his mother.

H. J. Freeman returned from Wisconsin last Friday and will remain a few days.

Alex Van Plaag the well known I. O. O. F. grand lodge officer was here yesterday.

E. C. Shovlin of the Crookston Lumber Company is looking things over here to-day.

Mike Fricker has just received a carload of corn which he will grind into all kinds of feed.

Messrs. O'Day and Winton of Thief River Falls Lumber Co., were visitors here yesterday.

We are having the best kind of weather this week so far and our streets are drying up fast.

J. G. Ballard was up from Crookston Monday to see if there was any lumber left in the yards.

Preaching on Sunday at 11 a. m. in the M. E. church. Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. on Thursday.

Mrs. Wm. Miller and children arrived last Thursday and the big engine will run smoother now.

J. Q. Adams the Red Lake Falls jeweler will be at Johnson's drug store on April 26th and 27th.

Governor Lind has designated Monday May 1st as Arbor Day. It would be a good time to plant some trees.

FOR SALE.

Two lots and house on South Broadway for sale at a bargain. For particulars address,

Box 20. Mrs. C. Gerbig, Akeley, Minn.

A man who would kick on the kind of weather we have had this week would kick if he was playing foot-ball.

—Dr. Thomas is an up-to-date in all the different branches in his profession. Remember the dates, May 8th and 9th.

Mr. and Mrs. John Halverson and son Ernest, left last week for a visit with relatives and friends at Bessemer Michigan.

A basket party will be given at the American Hotel dining room Saturday April 29th at 8 o'clock. Everybody invited to attend.

J. W. Ford with a crew of fourteen drivers started up river yesterday to bring down the five million foot drive now in the river.

A. H. Vaver and family arrived last Thursday and will live here this summer. Mr. Vaver will be one of the scalers in the mill.

Supt. Mereen was called to Minneapolis last Monday by the illness of his wife. Foreman Burco will have charge during his absence.

Right of way agent Davis of the Northern Telephone company was here last Friday. He says the line will be completed in June.

John J. Soll returned to-day from Cass Lake where he assisted in starting the Cass Lake Times. He reports Cass Lake a lively town.

The boys are complaining that M. R. Rosenberg is not acting exactly as he should. This should be sufficient Mike's two is too many.

The Great western clothing house is closing out their entire stock of ladies children and Misses shoes at cost price to make room for more spring goods.

The river is now entirly clear of ice the last to go being in the pond here which hung on until Monday. It stayed about a week longer than usual this spring.

W. T. Mullarkey, Dan Patterson and Frank Hunt have been appointed a board of commissioners to appraise the damage for land used by the Northern Telephone Co.

Judge Watts has appointed C. A. Robbeck, C. J. Knox and W. A. Sorsoleil appraisers to determin the value of the land upon which the G. N. depot at Thief River Falls now stands.

The band dance last Friday night was one of the most enjoyable of the season. The boys played several selections well and all who attended enjoyed the evenings entertainment.

The big mill started up this morning but only the band will be run for a few days as there is now only about one-half a million feet in the boom. There will however be plenty of logs here in a few days.

DON'T BE ASHAMED—
To tell us if you have company.
If a child is born.
If you are going to get married.
If any relative or friend has died.
If your wife has gone away on a visit.
If anything happens worth printing.

At a special meeting of the school board last Saturday evening the board re-elected Prof. O'Brien and his able corps of assistants. Miss Harriet J. Makinson, Miss Laura J. Betts and Miss Mary Kyle. They have all given the best of satisfaction the past year and congratulations are due both to the district and the teachers that they are engaged for another year.

Last evening those interested in base ball assembled at the Great Northern depot and organized a team for the coming season composed of some of the best players in the city. Dr. N. M. Watson was elected manager and Ed. Coenen captain of the team. Judging from the past showing of our boys Red Lake Falls will have one of the strongest amateur teams in the valley.—Red Lake Falls Courier.

The wolf bountry law passed by the late session of the legislature, provides a bounty of $7 during the first five months of each year for each full grown wolf; $5 at other seasons; $3 for each cub wolf; one-third to be paid by the county, two-thirds by the state; that the town clerk shall see and certify to the wolf carcass and destroy it, after which the person claiming the reward shall make oath before the county auditor as to the fact of the killing, and also that the claimant did not spare the life of any wolf within his power to kill.

—Go to the New Drug Store for your Stationery and School supplies.

The new game law passed by the legislature prohibits the sail of quail; prohibits spring shooting; requires all hunters to obtain license, with a fee of $25 for non-residents and 25 cents for residents; allows spearing of suckers redhorse and buffalo in all Minnesota waters, instead of only the St. Croix and Mississippi; change the open season for deer from between October 25th and November 25th to November 1st to November 20th, and prohibits the selling of game during the first five days of the season. The elimination of spring shooting is said to be at the demand of sportsmen generally, but is an injustice to the northern part of the state.

—For cuts and sores there is nothing better than the Imperial Carbolic salve.

Now is the proper time to pay the printer. Please remember this as we have use of money once in a while too —and this is supposed to be harvest time with us. Up to date our crop has almost been a total failure.

Consumption Cured.

—Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth, cures a cold in one day if taken in time. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

Lots of Money used.

The session of 1899 will go down into state history—whether justly or not cannot be said, for this is merely a statement of fact, as one of the "richest" the state ever has known, says the Minneapolis Journal. It is the popular belief that certain of the more thrifty members were able to lay by many a dollar for a rainy day in addition to the $5 per diem allowed by the constitution. This is a delicate topic, for various reasons which need not be explained, and nothing beyond this very general statement can be made; but if a good deal of money was not expended by certain interests to bring about the defeat of certain proposed legislation, then many of the knowing ones are at fault.

The nearest thing to evidence came out in connection with a bill affecting the interests of a lumberman. It proposed to increase the tax they were paying. After the bill had been lodged in committee, a messenger from the legislative "combine" was sent post haste to Minneapolis with the word that for a paltry $2,000 the matter would be droped. A meeting of certain of the leading lumberman was called and the proposition submitted. There was a great difference of opinion, some thinking that the sum should be paid without prospect, others objecting vigorously to the proposed "hold up." Finally one of the veteran lumberman got up and said:

"If I were driving through the forest in the winter, with a carcass of beef on my sleigh and were pursued by wolves, I am certain that I should throw off one or two quarters, if by so doing I could save the rest and myself. I favor paying the money."

This statement struck the assembly in the end as being about the right view to take, and so it was arranged that the money should be paid.

Then came the killing of the bill. The work of execution, of course, could not be performed with undue haste for fear suspicion should be excited in the minds of members not in the "combine," and so the bill was amended in committe, the proposed tax decreased there, and arrangements made for reporting the bill out. Word was passed around meanwhile that the bill was found, after investigation, not to possess as much merit as its author and friends had orignally supposed, and that perhaps the best thing was to put it on general orders, where its weak points might be brought out thoroughly. This had the desired result. The bill never saw the light of day.

To enumerate all of the bills which were said to have called for the use of money would be a thankless task. This much has been said in order that the general public may know that the late session has succeeded in getting a reputation of which nobody in the state will be proud. That the reputation may not accord with the facts does not alter the situations.—Crookston Times.

Dentist.

—Dr. J. H. Thomas, the Crookston dentist will be at Hotel Markham, St. Hilaire, May 8th and 9th prepared to do all kinds of up to date dental work in all branches. All work warranted. Remember the dates 8th and 9th.

Council Proceedings.

Special meeting of the village council Monday April 17th 1899.

All members present.

Meeting called to order by president Holmes.

On motion the village recorder was instructed to sign the trial order contract of the Austin Western Company Limited for one of their Reversible Road Graders to be delivered in the village of St. Hilaire on or before the 25th day of April 1899. Said machine to be tried and found satisfactory before purchasing the same.

On motion meeting adjourned.

Attest:— E. J. Holmes,
J. L. Johnson, President.
Recorder.

The I. O. O. F. lodge will celebrate the 80th anniversary of the founding of the order in American this evening by giving a dancing party. The Red Lake Falls orchestra will furnish the music.

For a plain, practicial and instructive paper, made largely by farmers and wholly for farmers, Farm, Stock and Home of Minneapolis, Minn., has no equal among agricultural journals. We can furnish it in connection with the SPECTATOR one year for only $1.25.

DONT let whiskey get the best of you, when you can get the best of whiskey at P. G. Paradis' Cafe.

A Remedy for Small-Pox.

This remedy is as unfailing as fate and conquers in every instance, and is harmless when taken by a well person. It is said to cure scarlet fever. It is as follows: Sulphate of Zinc, one grain; fox glove (digitalist) one grain; half a tablespoonful of water. When thoroughly mixed, add four ounces of water Take a spoonful every hour. Either diseases will disappear in twelve hours. For a child, smaller doses according to age. If countries would compel their physicians to use this, there would be no need for pest houses.

The above was given to the public by a correspondent of the Stockton (Col.) Herald.

The Best Cough Remedy on Earth.

Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, Consumption Cure, cures a cold in 24 hours if taken in time and does not stop a cough in ONE MINUTE by paralyzing the throat, but it cures the disease and leaves the throat and lungs healthy and strong. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

—La Grippe is again epidemic and every precaution should be taken to avoid it. When everything else fails, try a bottle of the Imperial Sarsaparilla it will cure Grippe in all its forms. Free samples at the New Drug Store.

Communication.

Now, you Odd Fellows, Woodmen and Good Templars you better quit and break up your organization because seven preachers under the leadership of Mr. Aastad from Thief River Falls has for three days discussed and proven to their own satisfaction that Odd Fellows, Modern Woodmen and in general and Good Templars especially are carrying on a business which is not proper for a christian. A man simply gives offense to his christian fellow men by joining a Woodmen lodge on account of the religious ceremonies in the order. Woodmen should be like Abraham in his conduct towards Loth. But, I say; could not that Norwegian Synod preacher for the sake of once act like Abraham himself, say like this;" Let us have peace, why should we quarrel, if you want to join or remain in the Odd Fellows, Woodmen or Good Templers do so I will continue my work in the Synod church. Why could not that preacher up in the upper Falls before throwing dirt on and ridicule such noble organizations as the above named look a little bit to himself, look into his own organization and it would look a little more christian like.

Below you will find some remarks or samples of what flowed from the lips of those sages and it shows in what genius of christianity their organization took place.

Refering to the Woodmen said that it was the purest Egotism which had brought this society together and that Woodmen for the fun of the thing are ridiculing the christian religion that they are throwing filth at those sacred things and are doing it with pleasure. Said further that it was simply a theft neither more or less than fraud of a widow of a deceased Woodmen to receive the 2,000 dollars or what the amount may be because she received more than her husband had paid in. Said further that the M. W. organization was instituted only for the benefit of a few persons down at the head office who lived in abundance and luxury and the poor Woodmen had all they could do to scratch and pay their dues that those men may live high.

Were further informed that a Woodmen was bound to attend every meeting pay dues and so forth and being bound to always partake if it requires now and then a dollar or a dollar and a quarter and it soon counts up but! add Mr. Aastad in a contemptuous expression. Then in return the Modern Woodmen organization guarantee their members eternal happiness. Said that a christian ought to hesitate before he partook in a funeral after a deceased Woodmen who was buried according to Woodmen Ritual.

Something which attracted my attention more than anything else was that the preachers bestowed their attention more upon the Good Templars than the other secret societies and this fact makes a man open for suspicion. If I was told by somebody that those preachers were hired by the Retail Liquor Dealers Association to attack and if possible scatter for all winds those few Good Templars who have got together for a noble purpose, I would not hesitate long before believing it. It looks a little conspicuous anyway. When I take those preachers attacks upon the secret societies into consideration and look around for a comparison I remember the ass which tried to give the lion a kick but the lion in his pride and Majesty only sent the foolish stupid and arogant ass some contemplible glances.

Secret society members as well as organizations of religious character as Methodists and Babtists which is subject to the same persecution may follow the lions example.

—If you are troubled with rheumatism take the Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure. It will positively cure all diseases arising from impure blood, and is sold under an absolute guarantee to benefit or money refunded. Call for free sample at the New Drug Store.

The band boys will give their first dance April 21st. Show your appreciation by buying a ticket and have a real good time. Tickets one dollar.

Notice.

All Red Lake county warrants and orders registered on or before March 4th 1899 are payable.

Warrants:—399, 397, 399, 416, 417, 430, 436, 447, 460, 462, 468, 474, 484, 498, 520, 542, 541, 547, 353 and 275.

Orders:—172, 179, 227, 192, 190, 189 145, 184, 292, 294, 295, 307, 306, 300, 299, 298, 297, 296, 305, 304, 303, 302, 301, 293, 291, 275, 265, 258, 256, 274, 289, 200, 335, 353, 286, 359, 347, 21 and 22.

County Poor:—821, 816, 812, 813, 814, 815, 825, 823, 817, 822, 811, 819, 827, 820, 805, 808 and 802.

O. T. Tandberg,
County treasurer.

—It is better than ready money because it cures rheumatism, constipation sick headache, indigestion. Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure.

—The SPECTATOR is the official paper of the village and county. Now is the time to subscribe. $1.00 per year if paid in advance—otherwise $1.50.

Watches Clocks and Jewelery.

I will carry a full line of watches, clocks and jewlery hereafter at Johnson's drug store. Anything you want that we do not carry in stock we will order for you at ten per cent above the wholesale prices and by doing this you will save money by dealing at home. Watches left for repairs will be sent down on first train and returned the next day. I shall continue to be at Johnson's drug store the 10th 11th and 12th of each month. Eyes examined free.

Prof. J. Q. Adams.
Red Lake Falls.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

50% DISCOUNT ON Dress Goods
Ginghams
and Prints.

The Ladies of St. Hilaire and vicinity are cordially invited to call and inspect these goods as we will close out these goods regardless of cost in order to make room for our large stock of new Spring and Summer Goods. Remember this is a grand opportunity of securing a good bargain. A large cut has been made in our Dry Goods Department also. Call and be convinced.

Yours very truly,
RAPP & POST.
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.

The Cheap Cash Store.
GROCERIES NOTIONS FRUIT CANDIES TOYS TOBACCOS CIGARS AND GENTS FURNISHING GOODS.
ALL AT HARD TIMES PRICES. M. A. HALL.

A. H. WEAGANT
Having bought the business of Fred Eikhoff, I am now prepared to sell you anything in line of
HARDWARE AND TINWARE
CUTLERY, PAINTS & OILS,
Everything at Rock Bottom Prices. Come and see for yourself. Opposite Hotel Markham

LEONARD HOLMES,
—DEALER IN—
Agricultural Implements
WHEAT, FLAX OATS AND BARLEY.
Flour and Feed always on Hand.

Lumber! Lumber!
OF ALL KINDS.
We have a large and well assorted stock of Dry Lumber and are prepared to fill all orders on short notice. We also carry a complete assortment
—OF—
Sash, Doors, Paper
AND ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL
Which we buy in large quantities and are thereby enabled to sell at lowest market prices.
ST. HILAIRE LUMBER CO.

NEW MEAT MARKET.
L. M. ROLAND, Proprietor.
Fresh and Salted Meats.
Highest Market Price Paid for Hides.

L. K. KOLSTAD
DEALER IN
Boots and Shoes!
Repairing a Specialty.
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.

Mere Lip Service.

Tom—After all, what are kisses good for?"

Kitty (demurely)—Their face value.—Brooklyn Eagle.

A Strong Man's Secret.

The strongest man on earth says the secret of his wonderful power is perfect digestion. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters make digestion easy, and cures all complaints arising from a weak stomach, such as indigestion, biliousness, liver and kidney ailments. As a tonic it is marvelous. Everybody needs it at this time of the year.

Live only for to-day and you ruin to-morrow.—Simmons.

Ignorance is the night of the mind.

Are You Using Allen's Foot-Ease?

It is the only cure for Swollen, Smarting, Burning, Sweating Feet, Corns and Bunions. Ask for Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder to be shaken into the shoes. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores; 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

The higher the character or rank the less the pretense, because there is less to pretend to.—Bulwer.

Salzer's Seed Corn.

Does your seed corn test, Bro. Farmer? Salzer's does—it's northern grown, early and good for 80 to 150 bu. per acre! Send this notice and 10c for 8 corn samples and low prices to John A. Salzer Seed Co., La Crosse, Wis. (w. n.)

Self-trust is the essence of heroism.

PAINFUL PERIODS NO MORE

MRS. GEORGE OSMUN, of Belvidere, Warren Co., N. J., writes: "Suffering as I had from weakness, irregularities and backache for several years, a release from this suffering was a blessing. Oh! how I wish more suffering women would accept your kind offer and be relieved. There is no need for women to suffer. Mrs. Pinkham's advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will relieve them."

MRS. IDA PETERS, Milan, Tenn., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—When I wrote to you the first time asking your advice I was a great sufferer. Menstruations were irregular, sometimes a week too soon and then a week or two late, and when they appeared were very profuse; great pain and tenderness in the bowels, pain in back and limbs, leucorrhœa all the time. I was weak and nervous and had no appetite. Burning and choking sensation in my throat. I received your reply and followed all your instructions and now I am cured. I owe my recovery all to Mrs. Pinkham's advice and her wonderful remedies."

ELLA E. BRENNER, East Rochester, Ohio, writes:

"I have been thankful a thousand times since I wrote to you for what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. I followed your advice carefully and now I feel like a different person. My troubles were backache, headache, nervous tired feeling, painful menstruation and leucorrhœa. I took four bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, one box of Pills, one package of Sanative Wash and am now well."

MRS. MAGGIE P. STINE, New Berlin, Pa., writes:

"I have suffered with terrible backache in the small of my back for about seven years, and could never get anything to help me. I tried several physicians, but found no help. I have now taken three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and feel like a different woman."

MRS. H. A., 124 S. Cedar Street, Owosso, Mich., writes:

"Nearly three years ago I wrote to you asking advice in regard to my health. I was so miserable; suffered from painful menstruation and backache, was nervous, dizzy and faint. I received such a kind letter from you, telling me just what to do. I followed your advice and I now am recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I thank God for this pain destroyer."

Sold Only to Riders

The Best and Most Complete Bicycle.... Ever Built

"The Fowler"

ONE PRICE TO ALL.
Wheels from $10.00 to $41.50.
Write TO-DAY for our up-to-date Cat'g.
CASH OR TIME.
Immediate Delivery.

Fowler Cycle Works
137 W. Washington St., Chicago.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE
DO YOU WANT A HOME?
60,000 ACRES OF GOOD FARMING LANDS IN WASHBURN AND BARRON COUNTIES, WISCONSIN, to be divided and sold at $3.00 to $6.00 PER ACRE.
Long time and easy payments to actual settlers.
Come and see us or address,
W. R. BOURNE, Mgr., SHELL LAKE LUMBER CO., SHELL LAKE, WIS.

"A HAND SAW IS A GOOD THING, BUT NOT TO SHAVE WITH."
SAPOLIO
IS THE PROPER THING FOR HOUSE-CLEANING.

STOCK RAISERS

Will find it greatly to their advantage, if before purchasing a farm, they will look at the country along the line of the

Saint Paul & Duluth Railroad.

DAIRY FARMERS

Who desire the best Clover and Timothy land, in a district which can boast of a fine climate, good pure water, rich soil, fine meadows, and near to the markets of St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth and Superior should apply immediately by letter or in person to

WM. P. TROWBRIDGE,
Asst. Land Commissioner,
St. Paul & Duluth R. R.
Box U—003 Globe Bldg., St. Paul, Minn.

Whiskers Dyed
A Natural Black by
Buckingham's Dye.
Price 50 cents of all druggists or R. P. Hall & Co., Nashua, N. H.

CURE YOURSELF!
Use Big G for unnatural discharges, inflammations, irritations or ulcerations of mucous membranes. Painless, and not astringent or poisonous.
Sold by Druggists, or sent in plain wrapper, by express, prepaid, for $1.00, or 3 bottles, $2.75. Circular sent on request.
Big G. CURES in 1 to 5 days. Guaranteed not to stricture. Prevents contagion. THE EVANS CHEMICAL CO. CINCINNATI, O. U. S. A.

PENSION JOHN W. MORRIS, Washington, D.C.
Successfully Prosecutes Claims.
Late Principal Examiner U.S. Pension Bureau.
3 yrs in civil war, 15 adjudicating claims, atty since.

When Answering Advertisements Kindly Mention This Paper.

TOWER'S FISH BRAND
POMMEL SLICKER
The Best Saddle Coat.
Keeps both rider and saddle perfectly dry in the hardest storms. Substitutes will disappoint. Ask for 1897 Fish Brand Pommel Slicker—it is entirely new. If not for sale in your town, write for catalogue to A. J. TOWER, Boston, Mass.

DEALERS
should carry a complete line of Spalding's Trade Mark Athletic Supplies
Base Ball
Foot Ball
Golf
Tennis
Cricket
Croquet
Boxing
Athletics
Uniforms
Sweaters
Always a demand for them.
Write for our catalogue.
A. G. SPALDING & BROS.
New York Chicago Denver

WANTED—Case of bad health that R-I-P-A-N-S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimonials.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water.

PISO'S CURE FOR
CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS.
Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists.
CONSUMPTION

OUR BUDGET OF FUN.

SOME GOOD JOKES, ORIGINAL AND SELECTED.

A Variety of Jokes—Gibes and Ironies, Original and Selected—Flotsam and Jetsam from the Tide of Humor—Witty Sayings.

Different.

When once I sat with Clara,
I longed for her alone:
But she would always manage
To have a chaperone.

Now when I sit with Clara—
My wife—she acts possessed
If I but hint remotely
I wish we had a guest.
—Detroit Free Press.

Pretty Small.

Teacher—What is the smallest state?

Little Francie—The state of a person's feelin's when your ma tries to have you go free by tellin' the conductor that you ain't 6 years old yit.

As to the Latest Fad.

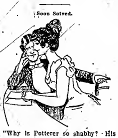
"These horseless carriages are great things."

"Yes, indeed. I had one once."

"What did you do with it?"

'Outgrew it."—Jewish Comment.

Soon Solved.



"Why is Potterer so shabby? His wife is beautifully dressed.

"That is the reason why his wife is so beautifully dressed—Potterer goes so shabby."—Ally Sloper.

Works Both Ways.

"That was a good old motto," said the statesman, who was considering the Philippine question: 'Be sure you are right and then go ahead.'"

"Yes," replied the friend; "It's a safe guide for every occasion."

"I don't agree with you there. There are circumstances where it must be revised to make it fit. When you find yourself in a position where you can't be absolutely sure my motto is: 'Be sure you're wrong before you back out.'"—Washington Star.

Earmarks of Fame.

Chicago Record: "I've struck some encouragement at last."

"What is it?"

"This prominent man used to be a farm hand at $10 a month."

"What is encouraging about that?"

"I used to be a farm hand at $10 a month myself."

Both Thought So.

"I guess," said the anti-expansionist, "that Uncle Sam's finding he'll have his hands full gettin' ahead of the Filipinos."

"Yes," said the sensible citizen, "they are pretty good runners."—Cleveland Leader.

Advise to Birdie.

Come, birdie, come and sing to me—
Come, charm me with your pretty note;
But let me warn you, birdie, ere
You come that you had better wear
A strip of flannel round your throat.

Prompt for Once.

"Queer about Clara's wedding with that plumber."

"What was queer?"

"Why he came to get married at the very day and hour he said he would."—Detroit Free Press.

Frightful.

"He has cultivated an extremely mobile face."

"Well, he ought to."

"Ought to be what?"

"Automobile!" — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

In the Gallery.

Jimmy—Say! wasn't dat great where he holds de mob at bay?

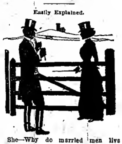
Tommy—Wot'a great about it. Don't dem supes know if dey did anyt'ing to him dey'd git de grand bounce?—Puck.

A Maiden's Philosophy.

"Millicent spent half the night making paper flowers. Why is she in such a hurry to finish them?"

"Oh, she thought if she hurried hard she could get all the paper cut before her shears got dull."

Easily Explained.



She—Why do married men live longer than single ones?

He—They don't; it only seems longer!—Judy.

A Mystery Solved.

He—For some time past I have been thinking——

She—Oh! I wondered what was the cause of the strange look upon your features. I had never seen it before.

Discussion Postponed.

She—I'm very sure you could get work if you wanted it.

He—Mebbe so, ma'am. I make it a rule never to argy before breakfast."—New York World.

"Courage and Strength in Times of Danger."

Read the warning between the lines. What is that warning? It is of the danger from accumulation of badness in the blood, caused by the usual heavy living of the Winter months. Spring is the clearing, cleansing time of the year; the forerunner of the brightness and beauty of glorious Summer.

Follow the principle that Nature lays down. Start in at once and purify your blood with that great specific, Hood's Sarsaparilla. It never disappoints.

Poor Blood—"The doctor said there were not seven drops of good blood in my body. Hood's Sarsaparilla built me up and made me strong and well." SUSIE E. BROWN, 16 Astor Hill, Lynn, Mass.

Female Troubles—"I am happy to say that I was entirely cured of female troubles by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It helped my husband's catarrh greatly." MRS. J. E. WRIGGINS, 703 S. 6th Street, Camden, N. J.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills; the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

No Doubt About It.

"There is no doubt," said the smart East End boy, "that one of the candidates for mayor will feel like the earth the morning after election."

"How it that?" quoth his father, "so puffed up?"

"No," said the boy; "so flattened at the poles."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

PATENTS.

List of Patents Issued Last Week to Northwestern Inventors

Seward A. Dean, Minneapolis, Minn., time recorder; Joseph H. Dietz, Owatonna, Minn., windmill power equalizer; William C. Humphrey, Jamestown, N. D., belt fastener; William Kurth, Casselton, N. D., lace holder and winder; Johnston Mealey, Howard Lake, Minn., thill coupling; Martin C. Sather, Minneapolis, Minn., lawn mower; Theodore H. Sorlien, Granite Falls, Minn., marking stamp; Henry Stenz, Faribault, Minn., electric light radiator; August Stutzman, St. Paul, Minn., traction engine.

Merwin, Lothrop & Johnson, Patent Attorneys, 910 Pioneer Press Bldg., St. Paul.

She Observed It.

Maid—Madame, is the master ill?

Madame—The doctor says he has enlargement of the heart.

Maid—I've noticed it for quite a while.—Meggendorfer Blaetter.

How's This!

We offer One Hundred Dollars reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by their firm.

West & Truax, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.; Walding, Kinnan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, Ohio.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75c per bottle. Sold by all druggists.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Friendly Badinage.

Mike, Well, anyway, I kin flatter mesilf that I was nivver so droonk that I didn't know what I was doin'.

Pat—An' be the the same token, ye war niver so sober that ye did.—Richmond Dispatch.

Do Your Feet Ache and Burn?

Shake into your shoes, Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It makes tight or New Shoes feel Easy. Cures Corns, Bunions, Swollen, Hot and Sweating Feet. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Chicago Great Western Increase.

The earnings of the Chicago Great Western Ry., "Maple Leaf Route," for the second week of April, 1899, show an increase of $16,393.29. Total increase since beginning of fiscal year July 1st) to date $378,355.43.

Envious Inference.

"What a happy, good-natured, jolly girl Maud is. She's always smiling and laughing."

"Yes; she has pretty teeth and dimples."—Colorado Springs Gazette.

GARFIE—Why do you not write to your parents; or, better come home. We have waited so long!

but a night without moon or star.—Confucius.

KIDNEY DISEASE,

Caused by Internal Catarrh, Promptly Cured by Pe-ru-na.

Hon. J. H. Caldwell, a prominent member of the Louisiana State Legislature, says the following in regard to Pe-ru-na for catarrh:

"I have used Pe-ru-na for a number of years with the very best results for catarrhal diseases. I shall never be without it. I never fail to recommend it when an opportunity presents itself."—J. H. Caldwell, Robeline, La.

Hon. J. H. Caldwell.

Gilbert Hofer, Grays, Ky., says in a letter dated March 7th, 1894: "I have used four bottles of Pe-ru-na and I am well of my catarrh, and it cured my Bright's disease. I had been troubled for two years. I weigh twenty pounds more than I did before I was taken sick. I shall never be without Pe-ru-na."

Send for free catarrh book. Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O.

TO SAVE YOUR LIFE.

SHOULD YOU BE CAUGHT IN A BURNING HOTEL.

Question Which Many a Man Has Asked Himself—Answered Simply Enough—Nerve Will Save You, Terror Means Death.

The burning of the Windsor Hotel has set people all over the country to thinking of what they would do in a similar case. In consequence of which the fire chiefs of the various large cities have been deluged with letters of inquiry for rules for escape, says the Cincinnati Enquirer. The average person seems to think, says a local veteran, that you can lay general rules for contingencies which are not once in a century of like circumstances. The fact of the matter is that no one can predirect escape from such a fire as that of the Windsor. The only thing which can possibly save any one is just what most people under those condition have not—steady nerve.

Every fireman who goes into such a place is in as much danger as the guests, with the possible difference that his respirator protects him from poisonous fumes. But, as for knowing which way to turn, he knows even less than the transient roomer. He relies on his native good sense, which discipline has preconserved for him. In other words, he keeps his head about him.

When a fire alarm is given in an hotel, the first impulse of the guests, especially if it be at night, is to rush out into the hall. Halls being the best of flues they are always filled with smoke, if not with flame, long before the room is impregnated. The guests, who did not notice in calmer moments which way to turn to the stair, invariably run in that direction which seems to be most free from fire. This is, of course, away from the stair. Finding the way blind, or an unknown passage stretching away before him, he returns straightway, that is if he can, to his room, although he does not know exactly why. He has a dim idea that it is to consider. But under such circumstances consideration is impossible. So he rushes out again, only to find, in all probability, that the flames have now reached the door of his room. If there be not a fire escape leading from his window he is lost. He had let his golden opportunity slip by.

No fireman ever stops to think. If his instinct cannot guide him aright, he is unworthy of the place. Discussion of the various kinds of fire escapes is now engaging the attention of the New York hotel keepers. In keeping with the requirements of the law there are rope fire escapes in all hotels where there are no balcony and iron ladder fire escapes, but every large fire demonstrates that the rope is not a trustworthy means of escape. In most instances these ropes are just as they come from the original coil, and to descend by means of one of them, hand over hand, from a high point, requires considerable acrobatic skill and not a little endurance, both of which count for nothing among panic-stricken people.

In a few hotels the ropes are knotted at intervals of about two feet, which makes the task of descending a little less hazardous. Some houses are supplied with ladders made by connecting two ropes with wooden rungs, but as these ladders when swung from a window hang flat against the wall they offer a poor foothold, and another ladder similar to this, but with offsets which keep it away from the wall, has found some sale. But the rope ladders as well as the smooth or the knotted ropes are not practicable for hysterical women, children, invalids or injured persons, because to be of service the people who make use of them must possess qualities which should be looked for only in calm and healthy adults.

MEXICO'S SIGN LANGUAGE.

Mexico is a land of many tongues; but above the Indian dialects and Spanish, there is one universal language, the language of signs. It is the most expressive of all; the Mexican eye and hand are eloquent members. It is capable of infinite variation; its shadings and suggestions are beyond all translation. But there are certain gestures that have a fixed meaning, a signification well understood by every nation and every tribe from Guatemala to Texas, says Modern Mexico.

A general upward movement of the body, shoulders shrugged, eyebrows raised, lips pouted and palms outspread, varies in meaning from "I don't know and I don't care," to a most respectful, "Really, sir, I do not understand you."

The index finger moved rapidly from right to left, generally before the face, means, "No more," or simply "No." To move the right hand palm outward from the body toward another person means "Just wait; I'll be even with you yet."

Peanuts as Soberers.

A well-known prowler, who thinks he can stand as many drinks as most other men in the course of an evening, invariably patronizes a peanut stand before he jumps on a car for home, rides on the back platform until he has finished eating. "I have found from long experience," he said, "that peanuts, the hotter the better, have a strong faculty for absorbing alcohol and preventing it from destroying the nerves. If a man takes six or seven drinks of whisky and then eats a pint or so of peanuts, he will find the exhilarating effects of the liquor almost entirely gone. It is a better remedy than raw onions, and not nearly so obnoxious to people you may have to talk to on the way home."

Making the Pyramids Up to Date.

An English sergeant of police, a regular London "bobby," is now stationed at the pyramids to keep the beggars in order, and an electric street car line running from Cairo to the pyramids is in contemplation. If Barnum were only alive!

Heavy Sea Losses.

Marine underwriters paid $12,000,000 in losses on sea last year.

Too many men salt away money in the brine of other people's tears.

Public opinion is never far wrong

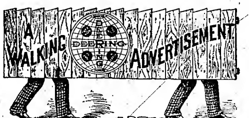
You can cheat it for a time, but only for a time. The average life of a patent medicine is less than two years. They are pretty well advertised, some of them, but it isn't what is said of them, but what they are able to do which carries them through the years.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

(which made Sarsaparilla famous)

has never recommended itself to do what it knew of itself it could not do. It has never been known as a cure-all in order to catch all. For half a century it has been the one true, safe blood purifier, made in the best way out of the best ingredients. Thousands of families are using it where their fathers and grandfathers used it before, and its record is equaled by no other medicine.

Is the best any too good for you?



Hundreds of thousands of farmers—United States farmers, European farmers, South American farmers, Australian farmers—men who farm for profit—representing the intelligence of the agricultural industry, are walking advertisements for Deering grain and grass harvesting machinery.

Deering machines are profit producers. The harvest season is brief. Very often the weather conditions are such that unless a crop can be saved just "in the nick of time" a goodly percentage of it is spoiled, damaged, lost.

It is just here that Deering machines go in and win the day. Imminent disaster is changed to victory—seeming loss to actual profit.

Deering machines are the dependable kind. They stand the test of dire emergency. That's why the farmers of the world like them, buy them, use them, praise them.

Deering Ideal Binders, Reapers, Mowers, Corn Binders, Hay Rakes and Binder Twine are winners for '99.

DEERING HARVESTER COMPANY, Chicago.

Minnesota Historical Society

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR.

VOLUME XVIII. ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY MAY 3, 1899. NUMBER 40

REFORM RECORD.

PRESENTED IN REVIEW OF THE LATE UNLAMENTED REPUBLICAN LEGISLATURE.

Sins of Commission and Sins of Omission. The Record Laid Bare—Governor Lind's Pre-Election Pledges, and His Administrative Recommendations and How They Were Specifically Ignored—More Concerning the Gross Earnings Bill, and the Railroad and Sugar Bounty Lobbies—Make-Shift Anti-Trust Law. Justification of Farmers' Charges Against State Inspection—Reform Press Note and Comment of the Week.

Reform Press Bureau.
St. Paul, April 24, 1899.

The late and unlamented legislature having departed, it is fitting to pass in review and see how the record stands as to what was pledged by the reform administration of the state, and what if any assistance has been rendered, in the main, by the Republican majorities in house and senate.

The pledges of Governor Lind and the reform forces were thus expressed in Governor Lind's speech at exposition building, Minneapolis, Oct. 10, last:

"The task that we have set for us in this state, by the platform adopted by our forces, is to so reform the administration of the laws and conduct of the affairs of the public as to secure to the producers of the state a more just proportion of the products of their toil; to save to the public what is left of the public riches of the state, to see to it that taxation shall be as just and equal as possible, and that every penny collected from the people shall be honestly expended and devoted to public and not to personal or partisan purposes; to give the people an efficient and economical administration of our state institutions, and to confer upon the citizens a direct voice in legislation."

When Governor Lind, in discharge of his constitutional duty, laid before the assembled legislature the suggestions necessary to meet these pledges, and to care for needs of the people ascertained by painstaking investigation, he formulated them into more than twenty specific recommendations. The principal of them, and the result at the hands of the Republican majority, may thus be condensed:

Reduction of the tax levy of at least 3-10 mills—left at former rate of 1.5 mills.

Result on five recommendations for increase of state revenues:

To reach, by tax a commission or otherwise, all the taxable property of the state—no action.

Taxation of franchises and of foreign Incorporations—no action on former; latter adopted.

Taxation of Express, Telegraph, Telephone and Sleeping car companies—action on one only.

Increase of gross earnings tax of Railroad Companies—killed by Railroad Lobby in the senate.

Increase of 2 per cent tax on Great Western railroad, to equal other companies—defeated.

Detailed reforms in administration of present, ample Normal Schools—response an additional institution at Duluth.

Free Text books, as means for checking School Book Trust—defeated.

Increase of Binder Twine facilities—accepted and law passed.

Specific reforms in management of insane hospitals, shown to be ample—response creation of additional hospitals at Anoka and Hastings. The veto saved extension of present system, and creates needed asylums instead of hospitals.

Encouragement of Agricultural colleges and Experimental station—no action.

Liberal treatment of the Dairy and Food department—not a cent appropriated for enforcement of the laws, and the department specially snubbed.

Forestry protection and extension—defeated.

Abolition of fee system—defeated.

Telephone Companies to be placed under state supervision—defeated.

To legalize records of Railway Commission's hearings, as to the record on appeals—no action.

Protection of timber and mineral lands—no effective action.

Action touching state swamp land interests—nothing effective.

Abolition of passes for public officials—derisively defeated.

Suppression of the Lobby—the lobby ruled supreme.

Direct legislation—offensively and derisively defeated.

Expeditious completion of the state capitol—adopted.

In the several hundred bills that passed, the search is vain to discover a single offset for this shortcoming. The reduction of the rate of interest; the constitutional amendment to authorize loaning of the state funds on county and municipal bonds; a board of grain appeals; traveling libraries; to prevent railroads from raising rates without consent of the Railway Commission, and for the election of the commissioners; restoring the Soldiers' Home relief fund appropriation of $20,000; providing for a bird or arbor day, and for the payment of volunteer arrearages, comprise the chief of the new laws made that are more than ordinary or local interest.

The anti-trust law is absolutely all that the legislature relies on for redemption from its shortcomings. But it will not be even sufficient to throw dust in the people's eyes, but will go to join the previous anti-combine laws which have been passed, either not to be enforced, or, knowing that they could not be. No one will be fooled.

Having ignored Governor Lind's recommendations for retrenchment and for increase of revenue, the appropriations could not be cut down any more than the tax levy.

Thanks to the courage of Chairman Jacobson of the grain and binder twine investigation, the seal of condemnation was set on the Republican administration of the grain inspection department. The finding of the committee justified every charge that was made against the department by the reform forces and by Governor Lind on the stump. Inasmuch as the charges, originally from Clay county, have brought this condemnation of the regime of Inspector Clausen it will be well to recall what the Clay county committee declared of the department and system as it has been conducted, lo, these many years, under Republican administration. Said that committee:

"First—It gives to one man autocratic power to say how much we shall receive for our property.

"Second—It degrades and humiliates us by placing us in the position of wards of an unscrupulous ring.

"Third—It makes millionaires at the terminal points at the expense of the producers

"Fourth—It depreciates the value of our real estate.

"Fifth—It crushes the poor man who is laboring to make a home for himself and family.

"Sixth—It legalizes robbery."

The unanimous voice which then declared for the abolition of the system, will at least rejoice when Governor Lind, upon the finding of this Republican Committee, proceeds to reorganize the Department.

Those pushing the Farmers' Co-operative Grain Growers association, find in the Jacobson investigation great encouragement for their enterprise. The recommendation to establish elevators and warehouses of their own is right in line. But as to cleaning their wheat to escape dockage, they say that it is all nonsense, that the dockage will go on all the same, under the present system, as Eric Olson says, that "dockage will be abolished when 60 pounds of wheat are sold for a bushel."

And Mr. Olson throws light on inspection, when, alluding to Inspector Clausen's statement that experts are used to inspect grain into the elevators, but the "learners" can inspect out, he says: "It is one thing to inspect in for the farmers, and quite another to inspect out for export. The mixers are not in the business for their health," well says Mr. O.

The latest suggestion for amends to the shortcomings of the late Republican legislature, is to have the next Republican state convention pass resolutions covering the matters of remissness. Yes, for instance on the gross earnings bill. Imagine the Republican convention, assembled on the usual number of railroad passes for delegates, passing resolutions condemning the senate for defeating that bill. It would make a horse laugh.

It now appears that the attorney general's office has been left without sufficient appropriations for prosecuting the state's business in imperative cases, which responsibility is laid at the door of Senator Young of Swift. Well, the crippling of the dairy and food department is laid at the doors of both house and senate. The responsibility is on the Republicans in both cases.

A scheme of the railroad lobby which came to naught through Governor Lind, was to make a test case of the Chicago Great Western railroad by raising its gross earnings tax from 2 to 3 per cent, hoping for adverse decision in the courts, and thus reach a finality on the state's power to raise the gross earnings tax. The scheme was credited to the wise Republican quintet of the senate judiciary committee, and went along swimmingly until Governor Lind wrote his letter to Senator Halverson, in which he showed that none of the roads, except the Great Western, had ever paid any tax under the supposed binding territorial "contract." In such case the Great Western would have been no test, and the quintet knew it, and the scheme thus died a bornin'.

The sugar bounty lobby missed a cog. The scheme was not to have any legislation passed, but whip-saw the houses by the Batz bill for the repeal of all bounty, and the Roberts bill limiting and ultimately repealing. At a dangerous hour the chief lobbyist went from the scene, and while gone the Roberts bill was whisked through the senate. The lobbyist returned out of breath, but it was too late. Of course the game will be to have the next Republican legislature handled with more care, and the last measure repealed.

The trust controlled Associated Press chronicled that Governor Lind and Governor Lee of South Dakota were much criticised at Washington for their demands for the return of our volunteers from Manila. But the same Associated Press now concedes that it was due to the efforts made by those reform governors that the administration is to send the volunteers home.

The vigilance of Public Examiner Pope has resulted in the closing of two more banks, one at Merriam Park and one at Nicollet. Had there been a safe and proper administration of that department for the past five or six years of Kenyonian rule, the people would have been saved hundreds of thousands of dollars.

The public must not be misled as to the legislative treatment of the Public Examiner's department. It is not true that the legislature, as stated in substance by the Minneapolis Journal; left the appropriations the same as had been given Kenyon. It gave General Pope just $3,500 a year the worst of it.

Rumor has it that General C. McC. Reeve retired when he did from the Manila campaign because he was not in sympathy with the war on the Filipinos that he saw was inevitable under the Davis-McKinley policy. The homecoming of the Thirteenth regiment must be made an occasion long to be remembered.

G. S. C.

IT WAS FRUITLESS

CONFERENCE WITH FILIPINOS COMES TO NAUGHT.

Emissaries Are Expected to Return With Revised Proposals From Gen. Luna—Filipinos Were Given Terms Upon Which Americans Would Consent to Negotiate—They Admit Their Defeat—Gen. Otis Not Allowing Peace Prospects to Interfere With His Preparations for Pushing the War—Gen. Lawton Has a Brush With Natives.

Manila, May 2.—The conference Saturday between Gen. Otis and Col. Manuel Argueleses and Lieut. Jose Bernal, who came from Gen. Luna under a flag of truce to ask for a cessation of hostilities, was fruitless. It is understood that the Filipino commissioners were given the terms upon which the Americans will consent to negotiate. The Filipinos admit that they have been defeated, and it is expected that they will return fresh proposals from Gen. Luna. The envoys were very hospitably treated by Gen. Otis. The conference at the palace lasted three hours. Jacob G. Schurman, of the United States Philippine commission, attended, and Admiral Dewey dropped in for an hour. The discussion was mostly between Gen. Otis and Col. Argueleses, who had been selected for the mission because he had known Gen. Otis.

Fresh Proposals Expected.

While it is the general expectation among Americans that the Filipino emissaries will return with revised proposals from Gen. Luna, Maj. Gen. Otis is not letting this prospect interfere with the preparations for pushing the war. He has ordered Maj. Gen. Lawton to return to Angat, a few miles northwest of Norzagaray, and not to advance aggressively while the negotiations are pending. MacArthur is apparently acting on the same policy but he is repairing bridges and strengthening the lines of his force, which is stretched out with a four-mile front and within a quarter of a mile of the enemy. The possibilities of peace are gratifying to a great majority of the army, who have regarded the war an unpleasant duty that must be performed according to American traditions. The so-called Filipino congress will meet at San Fernando today.

When Dean C. Worcester, of the United States Philippines commission, who accompanied the Filipino emissaries from Calumpit, said to Col. Manuel Argueles, that the Americans were to refrain from fighting, the Filipino officer replied:

Under No Obligations

"Would you fight while we are negotiating terms of peace?"

Mr. Worcester responded with the suggestion that an armistice would give the Filipino leaders time to escape.

"My God, where would we escape to?" the Filipino exclaimed, referring in this to the menacing hostile tribes behind the Filipino lines.

Col. Argueleses told the correspondent that he was much disappointed in the results of his mission. He said also that Aguinaldo expected Calumpit to be the cemetery of the American army. Lieut. Col. Wallace, of the First Montana regiment; Maj. Adams and Maj. Shields, who slept on Friday night in Gen. Luna's camp, where they went to inform the Filipinos that their envoys would return in safety, found the Filipino commander cordial. The Filipino troops removing their hats as the Americans passed. Gen. Luna said he regretted being obliged

To Kill Americans,

but that was his business. Gen Wheaton entertained Col. Argueles and Lieut. Bernal, and provided them with horses to return to their camp.

In the course of the conference Jacob C Schurman, chairman of the United States Philippines commission, told Col. Argueles that if the insurgents would lay down their arms, he and his colleagues of the commission would consult them regarding the plan of government to be submitted by President McKinley. He said that he could not promise that all their suggestions would be adopted, but he could assure them that there would be a presumption in favor of their suggestions, adding that the commissioners would be especially desirous of satisfying the legitimate aspirations of the Filipinos.

Saturday before Gen. Otis had issued the order directing Gen. Lawton to return to Angat the troops of the command encountered the rebels in a circle of hills outside of San Raefel, about five miles northwest of Angat, dislodging them after an hour's fighting. The Americans had three wounded. A thousand armed Filipinos fell back as the Americans advanced. The villagers met Gen. Lawton, offering him provisions. They dare not flee into the mountain country on the east because of the robber tribes, and on the west are the troops of Gen. MacArthur.

Get It for the Asking.

Washington, May 2. — Senator McBride of Oregon has received a letter from the adjutant general saying that Gen. Otis has been instructed to discharge every volunteer soldier who makes application for discharge, and that it will hereafter be useless to make application to the department for the discharge of individual volunteers, as the entire matter has been turned over to Gen. Otis.

$100,000 Blaze.

Boston, May 2. — A five-story brick building on Dover street occupied by a number of manufacturing firms and on the ground floor by the Boston fire department for storage of extra apparatus, was destroyed by fire. Loss, $100,000.

Bishop Whipple Preached.

London, May 2.—Rt. Rev. Henry B. Whipple, bishop of Minnesota, preached Sunday morning at St. Margaret's, Westminster, London, before a large and fashionable congregation.

THE MARKETS.

Latest Quotations From Grain and Live Stock Centers.

St. Paul, May 2. — Wheat — No. 1 Northern, 70 3-4@71 1-2c; No. 2 Northern, 69 @ 70c. Corn — No. 3 yellow, 31 3-4@32c; No. 2, 31 1-2@31 3-4c. Oats—No. 3 white, 28@28 1-2c; No. 3, 27 1-2 @28c. Barley and Rye—Sample barley, 36@40c; No. 2 rye, 53c; No. 2 rye, 52c.

Duluth, May 2. — Wheat — Cash, No 1 hard, 74 3-4c; No. 1 Northern, 71 1-4c; No. 2 Northern, 66 1-4c; No. 3 spring, 64 1-4c; to arrive, No. 1 hard, 75c; No. 1 Northern, 71 1-2c; April, No. 1 hard, 74 3-4c; No. 1 Northern, 71 1-4c; May, No. 1 hard, 75 1-4c; No. 1 Northern, 71 3-4c; July, No. 1 hard, 74 5-8c; No. 1 Northern, 72 5-8c; September, No. 1 Northern, 71 1-8c. Oats, 27 1-2@28c; rye, 57c; barley, 38@40c.

Minneapolis, May 2. — Wheat — April closed at 70 1-8c. May opened at 69c and closed at 69 5-8c; July opened at 70 7-8c and closed at 71 3-8c. On track—No. 1 hard, 71 1-8c; No. 1 Northern, 70 1-8c; No. 2 Northern, 68 5-8c.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 2. — Flour is steady. Wheat firmer; No. 1 Northern, 73@73 1-2c; No. 2 Northern, 72c. Oats lower at 27@30 1-2c. Rye lower; No. 1, 59c. Barley lower; No. 2, 45c; sample, 41@45c.

Chicago, May 2. — Wheat — No. 2 red, 75@76 1-2c; No. 3, 72@74 1-2c; No. 2 hard winter, 69c; No. 3, 67@68c; No. 1 Northern spring, 67 1-2@72c. Corn—No. 2, 34 1-2; No. 3, 33 1-2c. Oats—No. 2, 27 1-4c; No. 3, 27c.

Chicago, May 2. — Hogs — Light, $3.70@3.95; mixed, $3.75@4.00; heavy, $3.50@4.00; rough $3.65@3.80. Cattle—Beeves, $4.25@5.35; cows and heifers, $2@4.90; Texas steers, $4.50@4.90; stockers and feeders, $3.50@5.10. Sheep — Natives, $3.55@5.15; lambs, $4.50@6.10.

Sioux City, Iowa, May 2. — Hogs — $3.65@3.75. Cattle—Beeves, $4 @ 5; cows and bulls, mixed, $2@4.50; stockers and feeders, $3.50@4.50; calves and yearlings, $3.75@5.10.

South St. Paul, May 1. — Hogs — $3.72 1-2@3.80. Cattle—Stockers, $3.85 @5; [illegible], $2.80@4; steers, $4.25 @ 4.60; bulls, $3.05@4.15; calves, $4.50; cows, $2.30@3; oxen, $3.40.

GOES AGAINST MILES.

Board of Inquiry Finds His Charges Not Sustained.

Washington, May 2. — The Wade court of inquiry concluded its work in Gen. Miles concerning the beef supplied to the army during the war with Spain. The report was signed by every member of the board and is now in the hands of the president. The report is of about thirty thousand words and goes fully into the questions which have been raised in connection with the army beef. The text has not been made public and will not be until after the president shall have read it.

The verdict, however, is known to be that the charge which Gen. Miles made before the war investigation commission is not sustained as regards the refrigerated beef, although his contention that the canned roast beef was not a suitable continuous ration is admitted. There is direct criticism of Gen. Miles for failing to promptly bring to the attention of the war department the reports made to him concerning bad beef, and several individuals are censured for failing to observe the proprieties of their position as commanding officers in this and other respects.

DEATH OF LEWIS BAKER.

Had Been Prominent in Journalism and Politics for Years.

Washington, May 2. — Hon. Lewis Baker, widely known and prominent in journalism and politics for more than a third of a century, died at his home in this city yesterday at noon. During the past seven weeks he had suffered from an attack of pernicious anaemia, which steadily grew worse. Besides his widow, Mrs. Ruth Baker, a sister of Col. S. W. Fordyce of St. Louis, receiver of the Kansas City, Pittsburg & Gulf railway, nine children survive him. They are John F. Baker, Mrs. C. H. Warren and Mrs. J. E. Stubbert of New York city; Lewis Baker of Philadelphia; Mrs. C. W. Stiles, Miss S. C. Baker and Miss Ruth Baker of Washington; W. F. Baker of Melrose, Minn., and S. G. Baker of Elkins, W. Va. All but one of his immediate family were present when he died. Funeral services will be held on Tuesday morning and the remains will be interred in Rock Creek cemetery, this city.

WILL LECTURE.

Mrs. George Intends to Take the Platform for Woman's Rights.

Canton, Ohio, May 2.—Mrs. George said, as to her future plans: "I will lecture on woman's rights. I believe in woman's rights. I believe women ought to vote and that a jury ought to be half women. I think a woman has just as much right to make something of herself as a man." Mrs. George has several propositions from theatrical managers, but has not considered them seriously. Several offers of marriage have been sent her, but they were all ignored.

THREE WERE KILLED.

Result of a Wreck on the Rochester & Lake Ontario Railroad.

Rochester, N. Y., May 2.—Three persons were killed, more than a dozen seriously injured and fifty less seriously hurt as the result of a wreck on the Rochester & Lake Ontario railroad, better known as the Bay railroad, at Rosenbauer's Corners, about one mile north of this city, when ten cars filled with excursion passengers, left the track while rounding a curve at full speed and were completely wrecked.

Altgeld Seriously Ill.

Chicago, May 2.—Ex-Gov. Altgeld is reported to be seriously ill from the effects of an operation to relieve a complication of locomotor ataxia, an ailment with which he is said to have been threatened for some time.

Considering Monetary Legislation.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 2.—It is announced, that the plans for monetary legislation upon which the Republican caucus committee has been engaged for the past fortnight will be completed in a day or two.

MINERS ARE RIOTOUS

MASKED MOB DESTROYS VALUABLE IDAHO PROPERTY.

One Man Was Killed and Another Seriously Wounded—Mill of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan Mine Destroyed by Giant Powder and Fire—Railway Trains Seized and Wires Cut by the Mob—Loss Is Estimated at Between $250,000 and $300,000—Employment of Non-Union Miners Causes the Trouble.

Wardner, Idaho, May 2.—Wardner, during the past twenty-four hours, has been the scene of the worst riots since the deadly labor war of 1892. One man is dead, another is thought to be mortally wounded and property valued at $250,000 has been destroyed by giant powder and fire. The damage was done by union miners and sympathizers of Canyon Creek, about twenty miles from here. Saturday morning a mob of from 800 to 1,000 men, all of them armed and many of them masked, seized a train at Burke, the head of Canyon creek. The visitors brought with them 300 pounds of giant powder. After a parly of two hours 140 masked men from Burke and Wardner, armed with Winchester rifles, started with yells for the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mills and other buildings a third of a mile away.

They sent pickets ahead and one of them fired a shot as a signal that the mill was abandoned. This was misunderstood by the main body of the mob, who imagined that non-union miners in the hills had opened fire on them and they began to fire upon their own pickets. About 1,000 shots were thus exchanged between the rioters and their pickets, and Jack Smith, one of the pickets, formerly of British Columbia, and a noted figure in drill contests, was shot dead.

The Fatal Error

was discovered after a few seconds' firing and Smith's body brought down from the hillside. By this time the strikers had taken possession of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mill, which they found deserted, the manager having directed the employes not to risk their lives by battling with the mob. Powder was called for and sixty fifty-pound boxes were carried from the depot to the mill. The heaviest charge was placed under the brick office building. Other charges were placed around the mill. Then the boarding house, a frame structure, was burned. Fuses leading to the charges were lighted and the strikers, carrying the dead body of the picket, retired to a safe distance. At 2:36 p. m. the first blast went off. It shook the ground for miles, and buildings in Wardner, two miles away, trembled. At intervals of about sixty seconds four other charges went off, the fifth being the largest and completely demolished the mill. The loss to the Bunker Hill and Sullivan company is estimated from $250,000 to $300,000. In a few minutes the strikers went back to the station, the whistle was blown for stragglers, the mob climbed aboard and at 3 o'clock, just three hours after its arrival, the train started for Canyon Creek.

May Be Sent to Wardner.

St. Paul, May 2.—There was a call to arms at Fort Snelling yesterday and it is possible that before another day has passed the regular soldiers left behind to garrison that post will be flying over the Western prairies on their way to quell the riot at Wardner, Idaho, in the Coeur d'Alene mining district. Orders were received at Fort Snelling yesterday to hold the men there in readiness for departure at any moment. The orders were obeyed and last night the men slept on their arms.

MINERS ARE INDIGNANT.

Reports of Trouble With Mounted Policemen Unfounded.

Vancouver, B. C., May 2.—From the Porcupine district comes the news that at a recent meeting of United States miners much indignation was expressed at rumors spread about of friction between themselves and the Canadian police, and a committee was appointed to write to the press to inform the people that the "utmost harmony prevails in this district between the miners and the Northwest mounted police, notwithstanding malicious reports to the contrary."

BATTLE WITH ROBBERS.

Sheriff's Posse Has a Lively Time With Desperadoes.

Salt Lake City, Utah, May 2.—Two desperadoes held up several men near Brigham City. The sheriff of Box Elder county and posse pursued the robbers and came up with them early yesterday morning, eight miles from Ogden. The robbers fired on the posse and several shots were exchanged. The robbers then escaped to the hills. Capt. Brown, of the Ogden police force, went to the assistance of the Box Elder county sheriff and the robbers were again located in the hills and another battle took place, in which Capt. Brown and one of the robbers were killed. The other ment prevails.

California Mineral Output.

San Francisco, May 2. — The total mineral production of California for 1898 is valued at $27,289,079. In 1897 it was $25,142,441; in 1896, $24,281,333, and in 1895, $22,844,664. The gold product is placed at $15,906,678, a slight increase over 1897.

Denver Gets It.

Atlanta, Ga., May 2.—The international Sunday school convention yesterday decided to hold its next meeting at Denver in 1902. There was a spirited contest between Toronto, Indianapolis and the Colorado capital.

Five Men Killed.

Wilmington, Del., May 2.—Five men were killed and one fatally injured, by the explosion of a powder press at the Dupont smokeless powder works at Carney's Point, N. J., nearly opposite here

LUTHER LEAGUE FOR STATE.

Young People of Lutheran Churches Extend Their Association on State Lines.

The Minnesota State Luther League organization was completed during the first annual convention of the league, held at Memorial English Evangelical Lutheran church, on Sixth street, St. Paul, in connection with the convention of the Twin City Central Luther league. The constitution was adopted, as prepared by a committee, consisting of Rev. A. Ramsey and G. H. Trabert, and the following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing year: President, Rev. A. Lohre, pastor of the Norwegian Lutheran church of Minneapolis; recording secretary, Miss L. Lagerstrom, of Salem English Lutheran church, Minneapolis; corresponding secretary, George W. Merrill, of Memorial Evangelical church, St. Paul; treasurer, William Lundgren, of Memorial Evangelical church, St. Paul.

The objects of the organization of the league are set forth in Article 3 of the constitution, adopted yesterday, and are as follows:

To encourage the formation of young people's societies in all the Lutheran congregations of this state, and to organize such societies into central or district associations wherever practicable.

To stimulate the various young people's societies to greater activity in their respective churches; to assist in keeping the young people confirmed in the church true to their confirmation vows; to secure the active co-operation and assistance of the young people to their pastors in maintaining and advancing the local church work.

To create a strong bond of friendship among the members of the various societies.

To facilitate the introduction into any society of a member coming into its bounds from another.

To protect and guard our young people against dangerous and vicious influences of various unchurchly and unbelieving associations surrounding them.

AWARD TO VOLUNTEERS.

Gen. Lambert Prepares to Distribute the Appropriation.

Adjt. Gen. Lambert is sending out a circular announcing to the veteran volunteers the terms under which they may have their share of the appropriation of $30,000 for arrears of pay. It was granted by the legislature to give the men the difference between the government pay of $15 per month and the state pay of $1.50 per day for the time they were at Camp Ramsey on duty before being mustered into the service of the United States. It applies to members of the First, Second and Third, who became members of the Twelfth, Thirteenth and Fourteenth volunteers.

Rolls will be prepared in the adjutant general's office as soon as possible and sent to the company commanders, who are to return them with the receipts of the men. Payment through the company officers will follow on return of the receipts. That will probably be finished by June 1.

After June 1 the adjutant general will receive individual applications from men who do not now live at the company station. Applications will be furnished from his office on application. They will give the name, rank and company, and the postmaster's address at the present residence. The blank must be receipted in triplicate in the postmaster's presence, and a check will be returned.

In case of death, the payment will be made to the widow or the father or mother, or the next of kin, in that order of preference, requiring the same information as when the payment is made in person and additional affidavits as to relation. Gen. Lambert hopes to have the whole business concluded by July 1.

No claims are admissible unless filed in writing within a year.

GETTING IN THE SEED.

Wheat Already Sprouting in Southern Minnesota.

The weekly crop bulletin says:

"In the southern and middle counties the farmers generally report favorable weather during the week, and owing to the lateness of the season, they have made the fullest use of the time. Only light showers have occurred, and the soil has continued in excellent condition. Spring wheat seeding has been completed in many localities, and in the southern counties the first sown has sprouted and shows a good stand. South of Wilkin county rain and warmer weather will soon be needed for the successful germination of the seed. Plowing for corn is in full progress, and some garden truck and early potatoes have been planted. The weather has continued too cold and dry for grass, which is unusually late. In the Red River valley the farmers have not been so fortunate. On the 17th snow fell in Marshall and Polk counties to the depth of three inches, and on the 20th and 21st heavy rains swept over the valley, and but little seeding could be done until Monday. The low lands are still too wet to be worked. With favorable weather, the farmers in this section hope to have their wheat all sown by May 1."

President Is Invited.

At the instance and request of many of the citizens of the city Mayor Kiefer, as chief executive, has sent to President McKinley an invitation to become a guest of St. Paul. It has been reported that the president contemplates a trip to the Yellowstone National Park this summer. Mayor Kiefer hastens to extend the hospitality of St. Paul, should the president come this way, by sending the following letter.

"His Excellency, William McKinley, President of the United States, Washington, D. C.—Sir: Giving credence to newspaper reports that you are shortly to make a Western trip, visiting our national park, I am directed by our people to most respectfully but urgently extend to you an invitation to be a guest of our citizens, should you, in making arrangements for the journey, select your route via our city.

"St. Paul desires to honor you, and I take this early opportunity to make this request, which its people hope you may grant.

"I am, sir, most sincerely, your obedient servant,

"A. R. Kiefer, Mayor."

MINNESOTA NEWS

SCHOOL GRANT SKIPS A YEAR.

State Aid Not Provided for Current Twelve Month.

After all the care in drafting the Argetsinger bill and the thorough discussion and scrutiny of his friends, it seems to have left out state aid for the schools for one year entirely.

Auditor Dunn says there are no two ways about it. The appropriation available last August was duly distributed. The appropriation that, ordinarily, would have been available next August, is cut off by this measure. The appropriation authorized by the Argetsinger bill will first become available Aug. 1, 1900.

Supt. Lewis studied it until he had a headache, but he couldn't find any help for it. As a last resort, he will appeal to the governor and attorney general to see if there is not some way in which the intent of the legislature can, somehow, be carried out.

The former appropriations were carried under a long string of laws—chapter 141 of the General Laws of 1881, as amended by Chapter 101 of the General Laws of 1883; Chapter 61 of the Extra Session of 1881, as amended by Chapter 40 of the General Laws of 1883; Chapter 181 of the General Laws of 1885; Chapter 258, General Laws of 1895, as amended, and so on. They are all repealed by the passage of this act.

The new law, "an act to encourage a better condition of the public schools," grants and so on, makes new and larger grants in place of these appropriations. The comparative schedule is as follows:

	Old Law.	New Law
High schools	$25,000	[illegible]
Graded schools	10,000	[illegible]
Rural schools	20,000	[illegible]
Semi-Graded	[illegible]	[illegible]

Under the old law high schools were to receive $400 apiece; the new law grants $800. Graded schools got $200; the allowance is raised to $500. Rural schools got $50; hereafter, $75. The new class of semi-graded schools is to be entitled to $100 per year beginning in 1900.

All this, it should be understood, is from the revenue fund of the state. It has nothing to do with the apportionment of the state school fund derived from the 1-mill tax and the revenues of the permanent school fund. That is not affected.

DELEGATES TO THE CONGRESS.

Minnesota Representatives of the Sons of the American Revolution.

The president of the Minnesota Society, Sons of the American Revolution, has appointed the following delegates and alternates to the tenth annual national congress of the society, which will open Monday, May 1, at Detroit Mich.:

Delegates: President, Hon. Eli Torrance Minneapolis; senior vice president, Hon. Walter H. Sanborn; delegate-at-large, Daniel R. Noyes; delegates, Edwin S. Chittenden, Hon. Andrew H. Robbins, Minneapolis, Capt. H. A. Castle and Hon. W. D. Cornish.

Alternate for the president, Hon. H. F. Stevens; for senior vice president, Hon. H. R. Spencer, Duluth; for delegate-at-large, Hon. Edward C. Stringer; for delegates, Col. James O. Pierce, Minneapolis; Capt. Charles H. McGill and Lawrence G. Washington.

It is expected that this gathering will be an exceptional one in size and interest. President McKinley, who is a member of the Ohio society, has promised to be present unless prevented by imperative public business, and a large attendance of delegates is assured. The exercises preliminary to the congress are to begin with a sermon by the chaplain-general, Rev. R. W. Clark, on Sunday evening, at the Congregational church in Detroit, before members of the society and of other patriotic organizations. The business meetings will take place Monday and Tuesday, May 1 and 2, and will conclude with a banquet at the Russell house Tuesday evening for which more elaborate preparations have been made than for any other similar event in Detroit. At the banquet, Senator Chauncey M. Depew, late president of the New York society, and other prominent and eminent members of the organization, will make addresses. The Michigan society endeavored to secure the attendance of Senator Cushman K. Davis, a member of the Minnesota society, but, owing to his business engagements, he was unable to accept the pressing invitation extended to him.

TAX ON UNUSED LAND.

The Anderson Law Invoked Before Judge Quinn.

The Anderson law came up before Judge Quinn at Jackson, recently. The lands of the Sioux City & St. Paul Railway company were placed on the tax duplicates for 1897, and in January, 1899, the company answered, claiming the lands were exempt from taxation in the ordinary method, and only by the percentage system. This company is the successor of one of the territorial land grant companies, the Red River Valley & Southern Minnesota Railway company, afterwards the Minnesota Valley and St. Paul & Sioux City. The state claimed the right to tax the lands in the ordinary method, in addition to the percentage method, under the Anderson law. Judge Quinn took the case under advisement, and will doubtless certify it to the supreme court for final disposition. Attorney General Douglas and County Attorney Smith represented the state, and Daniel Rohrer of Worthington appeared for the railway company.

Grain Buyer Fails.

H. A. Waldron, independent grain buyer at Sargent, eight miles south of Hayfield, failed. Liabilities reported at $15,000; assets light. Waldron had been buying for the past year on contract to handle grain for farmers at 1 cent per bushel; but commission men advanced money to pay cash down, and he bought at Chicago prices. A meeting of farmers will be held, when they hope to relieve him.

Bank of St. Hilaire.

HANNAY & CO., Bankers.

Real Estate Loans.
Chattel Loans.
Foreign & Domestic Xchange
INSURANCE.
Collections a Specialty.

A General Banking Businese Transacted.

St. Hilaire, Minn.

Livery and Feed Stable!

DAN PATERSON, Prop.

Dray in Connection.

The finest equipped turnouts in the northwest. Safe drivers and furnished at a moments notice at reasonable rates. Don't forget the place

BIG - RED - BARN

Located on the east side of Broadway nearly opposite Bapp & Post's Store

ST. HILAIRE - - MINNESOTA

Says a modest exchange: There is a little matter which Some of our Subscribers have seemingly forgotten—Some of them made us promises, but have not kept them. With us it is a very important matter—it's necessary in our business. We are very modest and don't like to Speak about it.

GET YOUR PICTURE
TAKEN BY
D. COLLINS
THE
Photograper.
ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

K. O. GIGSTAD,
DEALER IN
REAL ESTATE.
Collections
a Specialty.
JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.
NOTARY PUBLIC.
ST. HILAIRE,
MINNESOTA.

DAY F. STACY, C. E.
DEPUTY
County Surveyor.
RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.
Drainage and Farm Surveys a Specialty

FIRE
INSURANCE
DO
YOU
NEED
SOME?

The Best is the Cheapest.

I have nine of the best companies doing business in the State

Call for rates.

H. E. IVES.

M. O. SORTEDAHL. E. B. STORAASLI

RED LAKE COUNTY
ABSTRACT OFFICE.

The only complete set of Abstract Records in Red Lake County

SORTEDAHL & STORAASLI,
ABSTRACTERS OF TITLE.
REAL ESTATE, LOANS & INSURANCE.
Steamship Tickets Sold
44 RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

The Spectator.

IVES & SOLL, Publishers.
JOHN J. SOLL, Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at St. Hilaire, Minn., as second-class mail matter.

Published every Wednesday at St. Hilaire, Red Lake County, Minn.

TERMS:—$1.50 Per Year in Advance.

Subscribers should notify the publisher on or before expiration of subscription if discontinuance is desired. Otherwise paper will be continued.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, 1899.

He Caught O'Connell.

Daniel O'Connell, the famous orator, when taking a ride in the neighborhood of his house, had occasion to ask an urchin to open a gate for him. The little fellow complied with much alacrity and looked up with such an honest pleasure at rendering the slight service that O'Connell, by way of saying something—anything—asked:

"What's your name, my boy?"

"Daniel O'Connell, sir," replied he stoutly.

"And who's your father?" demanded the astonished liberator.

"Daniel O'Connell, sir."

O'Connell muttered a word or two below his breath and then added aloud:

"When I see you again, I'll give you sixpence."

Riding briskly on, he soon forgot the incident and fell to thinking of graver matters, when, after traveling some miles, he found his path obstructed by some fallen timber, which a boy was stoutly endeavoring to remove. On looking more closely he discovered it to be the same boy he had met in the morning.

"What!" cried he. "How do you come to be here now?"

"You said, sir, the next time you seen me you'd give me sixpence," said the little fellow, wiping the perspiration from his brow.

Somebody's Mother.

A ragged woman was crossing the corner of a public park in a large city where the children of the poor are accustomed to play, many of them barefooted. A burly policeman stationed at the corner watched the woman suspiciously. Half way across she stopped and picked up something which she hid in her apron. In an instant the policeman was by her side. With a gruff voice and threatening manner he demanded:

"What are you carrying off in your apron?"

The woman seemed embarrassed and refused to answer. Thereupon the officer of the law, thinking that she had doubtless picked up a pocketbook which she was trying to make away with, threatened to arrest her unless she told him at once what she had in her apron.

At this the woman reluctantly unfolded her apron and disclosed a handful of broken glass.

In stupid wonder the policeman asked:

"What do you want with that stuff?"

A flush passed over the woman's face; then she answered simply:

"If you please, sir, I just thought I'd take it out of the way of the children's feet."—Detroit Free Press.

Too Much For Belief.

One of the brethren went to Knoxville last August and fell by the wayside—he got drunk down there. After several months the news of his fall reached his rural home, and he was brought up before the church.

"Brethren," he said, "I admit I got drunk in Knoxville last August, but I didn't mean to do it. How I have suffered in my conscience and in my pride God alone knows, and I trust he has forgiven me. Brethren, I want you to forgive me. I didn't go to get drunk. I took a glass or two of light wine with a friend, and later took a bottle of beer on ice, and then"—

"Brethren," interrupted a good old brother in the amen corner, "I would be willing to forgive the brother for his fall if he would make a clean breast of it and tell the truth. But I move we turn him out for lying. He has lied to us. Whoever heard of ice in August?"

And they turned him out because he dared to say that he had seen ice in August.—Sweetwater (Tenn.) Telephone.

Her Age at Monte Carlo.

A curious story comes from Monte Carlo the heroine of which has lost a large sum through excusable female vanity. She entered the gaming saloon while a former friend of hers was winning in a sweeping style that seemed destined to break the bank.

"I am so glad to see you here, prince, and in such luck, too!" she exclaimed. "Do tell me a lucky number. It is sure to win, for you are now in the vein."

The prince generously placed a pile of gold louis before the vivacious lady, whose beauty had successfully defied the effects of 36 winters, and said:

"Put it all on the number of your years and reap a golden harvest."

The lady reflected, hesitated and then placed the pile on 27.

An instant later the croupier sang out:

"Thirty-six red wins!"

"Heavens!" muttered the lady as she fainted. "Thirty-six is exactly my age!"

Burning Heretics.

The following items, copied from the municipal records of Canterbury by The Windsor Magazine, show that the burning of heretics in 1535 (the time of the genial King Henry VIII) was an inexpensive amusement:

To bringing a heretic from London.....	14s 8d
For wood to burn him.....	2s 0d
For gunpowder.....	1d
A stake and staple.....	8d
Total.....	17s 5d

They Have No Nerves.

A German tourist declares that what principally distinguishes Chinamen from us is their utter freedom from nervousness. No matter how much they exert themselves, they always remain phlegmatic, and they can sleep anywhere, in any position and in any amount of noise.

A Person to Be Avoided.

"Palanquin is certainly a man to avoid. People have told me stories about him which are not edifying."

"Really? You do well to tell me, for I need not now give him back the money he loaned me."—Figaro.

The best watchmakers' oil comes from the jaw of the shark. About half a pint is found in each shark.

A Verbal Melee.

Going up on a Cedar avenue car the other night the passengers were much entertained by a verbal spat between a small citizen of German parentage and a tall native. The trouble all originated from the fact that the car was very much crowded, so crowded that the two disputants were brought face to face in such close proximity that they couldn't make a gesture.

"Push up a little, can't you?" inquired the tall man in an irritable tone. Several people were pushing him, and his irritability was quite excusable.

"Vell, no, I can't," replied the little man, "and, vat is more, I don't hef to."

"You're not much of a gentleman," said the tall man.

"Oh, I ton't know!" said the little man airily. "Ven I vant an opinion on chentlemen, I go to some fellow vat has got a leetle knowledge of der subjee'."

"You're a very funny boy," said the tall man in a tone of deep sarcasm.

"Vell," said the little man, "I may haf some senses of humor, but I'm not so hart hearted as to laugh at der foolishness of one idiot."

"Do you call me an idiot?" gasped the tall man.

"As long as I ton't know your name," said the little man, "I couldn't make der identification any more gomplete."

Pretty soon the car stopped to let off half a dozen passengers, and when things finally settled down the tall one and the short one were separated by a dozen seats.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Immortality Cranks.

Immortality of fame is something desired by many, but attained by few, says Dr. John Fiske in The Atlantic. Physical immortality is something which has hitherto been supposed to be inexorably denied to human beings. The phrase "All men are mortal" figures in textbooks of logic as the truest of truisms. But we have lately been assured that this is a mistake. It is only an induction based upon simple enumeration, and the first man who escapes death will disprove it.

So at least I was told by a very downright person who called on me some years ago with a huge parcel of manuscript, for which he wanted me to find him a publisher. He had been cruelly snubbed and ill used, but truth would surely prevail over bigotry, as in Galilei's case. I took his address and let him leave his manuscript. Its recipe for physical immortality, diluted through 600 pages, was simply to learn how to go without food!

Usually such a regimen will kill you by the fifth day, but if at that critical moment, while at the point of death, you make a heroic effort, and stay alive, why, then you will have overcome the king of terrors once for all. I returned the gentleman's manuscript with a polite note, regretting that his line of research was so remote from those to which I was accustomed that I could not give him intelligent aid.

A Curious Ashanti Custom.

When children are born in Ashanti, they are at once rubbed all over with a mixture of oil and red ocher, this being repeated every two days. Their mouths are washed with a fiery concoction in which red pepper is the main ingredient, and a crier goes through the town proclaiming the new arrival and claiming for it a name and a place among the living. Some one else in a distant part of the village acknowledges the fact and promises, on the part of the people, that the newborn babe shall be received into the community. The townspeople then assemble in the streets, and the baby is brought out and exposed to view.

A basin of water is provided, and the headman, or chief of the town, sprinkles water upon it, leaving it a name and invoking a blessing upon it, such as, for instance, that it may have health, grow up to manhood or womanhood, have a numerous progeny and possess riches. Most of those present follow the example of the headman, and the poor child is thoroughly drenched before the ceremony is ended. Every one who participates in the ceremony pledges himself to be a friend to the child.

Rice as a Detecter of Thieves.

Not being able to trace anything in connection with the loss of the 2,000 rupees from the cash safe of the Surati Bazaar company, the directors have resorted to astrology and finally sorcery. Every employee of the bazaar was given a mouthful of rice to eat which had been previously put through some magic preparation, the belief being that if the person who had taken the money ate the rice some very great misfortune would befall him. It is not recorded that any of the employees have yet met with a disaster.—Rangun Gazette.

A Slanderous Tale.

"Briggs is awfully hoarse this morning."

"Yes. You know how damp it was last night? Well, Briggs and his wife stood on the corner waiting for a street car, and Briggs' wife started in to say something, and Briggs stood there for fully a half hour with his mouth open trying to get in a word edgewise. That's where he got his hoarseness."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Congenial.

"Mike," said Plodding Pete, "did yer hear 'bout Alaska?"

"Lots. Are yer t'inkin of de trip?"

"I dunno. I'm told dat daylight lasts 24 hours at a stretch. Ef I could git a job in dat locality as night watchman, I dunno but I'd be willin to work."—Washington Star.

Children's Sense of Pity.

One of my granddaughters, said the Duke of Westminster, when about 5 or 6 years old, burst into tears on passing a blacksmith's shop, and on her mother inquiring the cause said, "Oh, mummy, they are nailing the donkey's boots on!"

The Army and Navy.

Have covered themselves with glory during the war. The Army and Navy vest pocket memorandum book published by the Northern Pacific is a compact digest of information relative to the navies and armies of Spain and the United States at the beginning of the war. It has a map of Cuba, illustrations of naval ships, glossary of navy and army terms, translation of Spanish words, etc. Send ten cents to Chas. S. Fee, general passenger agent, N. P. R., St. Paul, Minn., for a copy.

From Farm, Stock and Home.

"Between times" plant at least one tree.

Sorghum is an excellent pasturage for swine.

Now sugar beet diseases are developing thriftily and rapidly.

Happy is the man who killed this spring's weeds last fall!

Fifty dollars is paid to a fake while 50 cents is denied to a paper that would have protected from the fake! Verily, there is as much difference in folks as in anybody.

A tinner dropped dead at his bench; investigation found that he was told that the tin churn he was getting sixty cents for making was selling in the country for eight dollars!

Deep plowing may be all right, but it may mean the burying of surface fertility so deep that plant life can draw no sustenance from it. Condition of soil must decide the depth to plow.

Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, is a very busy man now-a-days; at Harrisburg he is trying to break into the U. S. Senate again, and in Philadelphia is resisting an attempt to send him to states prison.

In the school of experience it is going to be learned that beet sugar production in the United States will be in regions where the growing, harvesting and manufacturing season is long, and where irrigation is possible.

Scared Into Appendicitis.

"I had appendicitis the other day," said a St. Charles street business man; "that is to say, I had it to all intents and purposes. This is the way I contracted it: About a week ago I borrowed a medical work from a friend to look up a point about which I was curious. It was a work on diagnosis, and among other things it gave a minute description of the symptoms of appendicitis. I have always been much afraid of the malady, and that chapter had a hideous fascination for me. I read it and reread it, and as I did so it seemed to me that some of the premonitory signs coincided exactly with certain aches and pains I had felt for several days. I got alarmed at once, and that night was panic stricken by a severe cramp a little northeast of my right hip bone. That I knew to be the fatal spot, and, needless to say, I didn't sleep a wink.

"By morning I had all the symptoms of a typical case and could scarcely get around to see the doctor. I began to tell him my story when he stopped me. 'How do you come to know so much about the disease?' he asked.

"I replied proudly that I had been reading up on it.

"'The dickens you have!' he replied. 'Well, you get right out of this office, confound you, and don't waste any more of my time!'

"Then he explained that every medical student always has all the diseases on record, in regular order, just as he studies 'em, and I began to feel better. I went home, returned the blasted book, and am now entirely out of danger, thank you. It was the quickest recovery on record."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

A Queer Examination.

Difficulties of the civil service examinations are multiplied tenfold in the requirements set down by law of applicants for positions in the mail service of China.

In the first place an applicant must have strength and courage. To acquire these he goes through a very queer method of training. He wanders through mountains and valleys, forests and caves. The exact time to be occupied in a trip is fixed by law, and a heavy fine imposed for unnecessary delay. He must repeat these trips at night, and if he listens to the bad spirits and thereby fails to appear at the required time at a certain place he is sure to lose his rights to a position.

This is not all. He is obliged to carry an enormous weight for many miles and return with it within a given time. No allowance is made for his inability to defend himself against thieves and highwaymen, his road usually leading through a district thick with bandits.

In training the candidate eats very little—though he is used to this—and he tries every straining exercise. Then comes his real examination under the direction of government officials. He is taken into a long room, where, suspended from a high beam with strong ropes, are very heavy sacks filled with rocks.

The candidate must give a swinging motion to all these sacks and then run to and fro between them, carefully guarding against a blow by one of the weights.

By special arrangement with the publishers we are enable to give FARM, STOCK AND HOME one year and the ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR for $1.25.

Call for and get
HAMM'S
Celebrated
St. Paul
BEER
Order of Nearest agent.
Theo. Hamm Brewing Co.
St. Paul.

WANTED-BRAINS

Can you think of something to patent? Protect your ideas; they may bring you wealth. Write before applying for patent, get our liberal offers. Inventor's Assistant and handsome views of Washington sent Free on request. Be sure to write to-day

COPP & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C.

List of Town Clerks.

Names	Township	Postoffice
Olof Larson	Numedal	Viking
C. E. Purdy	North	Thief River Falls
John E. Peterson	Bray	Bray
N. K. Anderson	Sanders	St. Hilaire
P. T. Satre	Rocksbury	T. R. Falls
O. T. Romsos	Polk Centre	Wylie
P. A. Eckstrom	Black River	Wylie
A. S. Anderson	River Falls	St. Hilaire
Ole J. Johnson	Wyandotte
A. D. Derry	Louisville	Huot
Hidaige Baril	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
Chas. E. Asp	Emardville	Lost
Edward Havik	Equality	Orlt
Moses Ducharme	Lake Pleasant	R. L. F.
Ednor Perusse	Terrebonne	Terrebonne
J. B. Herbert	Poplar River	Brooks
Louis Doucet	Lambert	Lambert
J. L. Johnson	St. Hilaire	St. Hilaire
Lars Baeke	Thief River F	T. R. F.
A. P. Toupin	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
H. D. Baaryson	Norden	T. R. Falls
Olof Tande	Garnes	Garnes

U. S. LAND OFFICE.

Crookston, Minn., April 14, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of her claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 1st 1899, viz:

Anna Sundahl, widow of Karl Sundahl, deceased. H. E. 14373, for the se¼, sec. 6, twp. 152 N. of range 42 W.

She names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—Aasine Olson, John P. Sandberg, Anton Peterson and Simon E. Ahlberg, all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

38-43 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

U. S. LAND OFFICE.

Crookston, Minn., April 14, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of her claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 1st 1899, viz:

Aasine Olson. H. E. No. 14971, for the nw¼, sec. 9, twp. 152 N. of range 42 W.

She names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—Anna Sundahl, John P. Sandberg, Anton Peterson and Simon E. Ahlberg, all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

38-43 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

U. S. LAND OFFICE.

Crookston, Minn., April 14, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 1st 1899, viz:

John P Sandberg. H. E. 15048, for the ne¼ sw¼, sec. 12, twp. 152 N. of range 43 W.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—Anna Sundahl, Aasine Olson, Anton Peterson and Simon E Ahlberg all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

38-43 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

U. S. LAND OFFICE.

Crookston, Minn., April 21, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 20th 1899, viz:

Joseph Anderson. H. E. 14951, for the ne¼ sec. 31, twp. 152 N. of range 42 W.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—H. A. Johnson, John Albin, E. P. Stroberg and Charles Erickson, all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

39-44 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

Say?

If your wheel needs enameling, cleaning, new tire or any other repairing give us a trial. All work done promptly and satisfactory. Prices reasonable.

F. J. TOUSLEY & CO.
35 RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

Whereas, default has been made in the condition of a certain mortgage, made, executed and delivered by Kate Wilmes and Michael Wilmes, her husband, mortgagors, to Anna Ericsson, mortgagee, dated the 17th day of October 1896 and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Polk County, Minnesota on the 31st day of October 1896, at four o'clock p. m. in Book 77 of Mortgages, on page 153, thereof conveying and mortgaging lands and premises therein described as follows: All those tracts or parcels of land lying and being in the county of Polk and State of Minnesota, described as follows: to-wit; Lots numbered 23 and 21, Block 7, in Champagne and Dow's addition to the village, now city of Red Lake Falls, according to the plat thereof on file and of record in the office of the register of Deeds in and for the county of Polk and State of Minnesota; and

Whereas, that part of said Polk county in which said land and premises were at the time said mortgage was executed and recorded as aforesaid, has since been duly set off, organized and created as Red Lake county in the State of Minnesota, and the aforesaid record of said mortgage has been duly transcribed to and recorded in book 23 of Mortgages, on page 91 thereof in said Red Lake county, Minnesota and said lands and premises above described are now situated in said Red Lake county; and

Whereas, said mortgagors, covenanted in and by said mortgage deed to pay all taxes which were then or might be thereafter assessed upon the said premises and in case of their failure to do so that said mortgagee might pay the same and that said taxes so paid would become a part of the debt secured by said mortgage. Said mortgagors further covenanted that in case of default in any of the conditions of said mortgage therein contained said mortgagee was duly authorized and empowered to consider the whole sum secured by said mortgage as immediately due and payable.

That default has been made in the condition of said mortgage in this—that the mortgagors have neglected and refused to pay the taxes on said above described premises for the years 1896, 1897 and 1898 and that there is now $179.93 delinquent taxes against said above described premises. That said mortgagee has elected to and does hereby declare and consider the whole sum secured by said mortgage as now due and payable, being the sum of one thousand one hundred and twenty-nine dollars and ninety-five cents ($1,129.95), the amount due and claimed to be due upon said mortgage at this date. And no action or proceeding at law or in equity has been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained and therewith recorded and pursuant to the statutes in such cases made and provided said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale of the above described mortgaged premises by the Sheriff of said Red Lake county at public auction, at the front door of the Court House, in the city of Red Lake Falls, in the county of Red Lake and State of Minnesota, on Saturday the 29th day of April, A. D. 1899, at ten o'clock in the Forenoon to satisfy the amount which will then be due on said mortgage and the debt secured thereby, together with the cost and charges of said foreclosure, including the sum of Fifty dollars ($50.00) Attorney's fees as stipulated in said mortgage.

Dated this 13th day of March A. D. 1899.

ANNA ERICSSON, Mortgagee.

F. A. GRADY,
Attorney for Mortgagee,
Red Lake Falls, Minn. 35-41

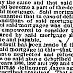
At the request of the Mortgagee the foregoing sale is adjourned to May 13th, A. D. 1899, at ten o'clock a. m. and will be made at the place specified in the foregoing notice.

Dated April 29th, 1899.

CHARLES SAMPSON,
Sheriff in and for Red Lake Co., Minn.

UNION MEAT MARKET

P. O. MOSLETH, Prop.



Choicest line of Fresh and Salted meats in the city.

Highest market price paid for Stock, Poultry and Hides.

—The SPECTATOR is the official paper of the village and county. Now is the time to subscribe. $1.00 per year if paid in advance—otherwise $1.50.

Spring Suits.

STYLISH SPRING SUITS
FOR MEN AND BOYS.

The Greatwestren own magnificent display of men's spring suits, and boys' choicest clothing is now ready, at a saving of fully 25 per cent.

Greatwestern Clothing House.

Cosmopolitan
and Spectator.

To secure for you the best and most interesting of the great illustrated magazines at the lowest possible price has been the aim of the editor of this journal. That we have succeeded we will leave our readers to judge. A special contract recently entered into with The Cosmopolitan, which seeks to become better known in this neighborhood, has enabled us to offer you a year's subscription to the greatest of the illustrated magazines together with a year's subscription to this journal, both together one year for only $1.50.

SOME
OF OUR CLUB RATES
WITH
THE
ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR

Farm, Stock & Home.

50 cents per year. Read by a greater number of Northwestern farmers than any other agricultural paper published. Are you among the number? If not, Why not? Every department in the hands of a specialist. Short talks department. A department where all kinds of questions are answered for the benefit of subscribers, is a leading feature of the paper. No northwestern farmers list of papers is complete without it. This paper and Spectator one year for $1.25.

Cosmopolitan,
New York World
and
The Spectator.

You wish to keep in touch with metropolitan life, through the medium of a great daily. The Thrice-a-Week World of New York is the equivalent of a daily and is a marvellous fund of knowledge concerning the happenings of the day. Each issue contains six to eight pages of eight columns each or over eight thousand columns of reading matter a year. In former days this would have cost you probably as much as $6.00 a year, by itself. Now you can have it, if you wish, in connection with your home paper and The Cosmopolitan Magazine. Three together one year for only $2.35.

OFFICIAL PAPER
OF
ST. HILAIRE
AND RED LAKE COUNTY.

OUR TERMS
ARE STRICTLY CASH
IN ADVANCE

IF YOU INTEND TO Buy
Furniture

Come and look our assortment over. We carry everything in the Furniture line including picture frames and musical instruments. Prices reasonable.

Holmes Furniture Co.

FARMS
LOANS
ABSTRACTS

97 Farms for sale or rent in Red Lake County.

SWANSON & GRADY
Official Abstractors.

RED LAKE FALLS, - - MINN.

"Money to patent good ideas may be secured by our aid, address, The Patent Record Baltimore, Md." 37

CUSTOM WORK.

JUST LOOK AT THESE PRICES:

Roll Carding—per pound	5 cts
Spinning Single Yarn—per pound	15 c
Stocking Yarn—2 or 3 ply, per pound	20 c

LITCHFIELD WOOLEN MILLS.
LITCHFIELD, MINN.

—Every farmer who writes a letter occasionally should get envelopes with his name and address printed in the corner. We will furnish 100 of the best quality printed in any style for the small sum of 75 cts. Send in your order

Bryan's New Book

REPUBLIC OR EMPIRE?
THE PHILIPPINE QUESTION
BY
HON. WILLIAM J. BRYAN

With Supplementary Chapters from
Hon. Andrew Carnegie, Senators Hoar, Vest, Allen, White, Gorman, Bacon, Mason, Daniel, Chilton, Butler, McLaurin, Tillman, Money, Turner, Teller,

HON. W. J. BRYAN.

HON. ANDREW CARNEGIE.

Edmunds, Clay, Hon. H. H. Johnson, Hon. Chas. A. Towne, Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson Ex-Secretary Parlslo, Rev. Dr. Van Dyke, Hon. Chas. Francis Adams, Prof. David Starr Jordan, Gen'l Weaver, Hon. Carl Schurz, Sam'l Gompers, Prest. Am. Fed. of Labor and others.

THE SENSATION OF THE CENTURY. IMPERIALISM AND ABSOLUTISM DENOUNCED.

Territorial Expansion denounced, "THE POOR MAN'S LOAD" and opposed to the Constitution of the United States, the Declaration of Independence, and all the most sacred doctrines of our Republic as handed down to us by our Fathers.

THE GOSPEL OF A HIGHER CIVILIZATION AND BROADER LIBERTY.
THE ONLY BOOK ON THE SUBJECT.

AGENTS WANTED.

It is profusely illustrated, giving beautiful half tone portraits of Mr. Bryan and the other contributors, also scenes of thrilling interest, showing the exact conditions and customs in the Philippines. Nothing like it before attempted in book publishing. A very bonanza for agents. It cannot be bought at book-stores, it cannot be furnished by any other house. We are the sole Official Publishers.

The first Edition, 100,000 copies. A large octavo book, beautiful new type.

WE PAY FREIGHT on each order amounting to 10 books at one time, when cash accompanies order.

THE OUTFIT IS FREE. We make no charge for the elegant, complete Prospectus Outfit, with blanks, etc., but as each Outfit costs us a lot of money, in order to protect ourselves against many who would impose upon us by sending for Outfit with no intention of working but merely out of idle curiosity, we require the applicant, as a guarantee of good faith on his part, to send us 25c to cover postage and wrapping, this amount to be refunded to agent upon our receipt of first order for 10 books.

Best Cloth Binding	$1.50
Best Half Russia Binding, with marbled edges	2.25
Best Full Russia Binding, with gold edges	3.00

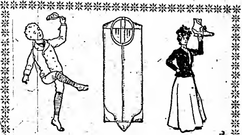
Write for our Unparalleled Terms to Agents. Address—

THE INDEPENDENCE COMPANY, Publishers,
FRANKLIN BUILDING, CHICAGO.

Cigars.

BRINK BROTHERS
DEALERS IN
Wines & Liquors
Minneapolis Beer.

Corner Broadway and 3rd St. St. Hilaire, Minnesota



Be Ready For Spring When it Comes

A full line of spring merchandise just arrived. We invite inspection of these goods. A splendid line of Skirts and Waists, both in ready-made and patterns at prices which are right. I shall not attempt to describe the line; only urge you most cordially to see the goods before you buy.

E. M. HOFF.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

I. O. O. F. St. Hilaire Lodge No 117.—Meets at their hall every Thursday evening, eight o'clock. Visiting members are cordially invited to attend.
E. M. Hoff, N. G.
J. H. Johnson, Secretary.

M. W. A. CAMP 3650.—Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every second and fourth Tuesday of every month. Visiting neighbors are cordially invited to attend.
Leonard Holmes, V. C.
Jas. M. Hall, Clerk.

R. N. G.—WILD ROSE CAMP.—No. 631 Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every Friday evening. Visiting members of the order are cordially invited to attend.
Mrs. L. N. Nolan, Oracle.
Miss T. Hughes, Recorder.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Auditor	Adam Zeh
Treasurer	O. T. Tandberg
Register of Deeds	Samuel Gibeau
Sheriff	Chas. Sampson
Attorney	Van R. Brown
Judge of Probate	J. T. Knight
Clerk of Court	Joe Perrault
Supt. of Schools	Frank Jeffers
Coroner	Joe Belaire
Court Commissioner	J. C. Mathews
Surveyor	P. O. Hagglund
Commissioner, 1st Dist	J. Suter
Commissioner 2nd Dist.	W. L. C. Demann
Commissioner 3rd Dist.	O. J. Johnsen
Commissioner 4th Dist.	Karl M. Hanson
Commissioner 5th Dist.	J. B. Herbert

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

E. J. Holmes	President
J. L. Johnson	Recorder
D. Patterson	Councilmen
J. C. Dahl
W. A. Sorsoleil
L. Holmes	Treasurer

Barber Shop
—AND—
BATH ROOMS.
—0—
Haircutting, Shaving, Shampooing.
Razors honed and put in first-class order.
J. H. PENNO, Prop.
ST. HILAIRE . . . MINNESOTA

Henry Francis, M. D, C. M.
Member College Physicians and Surgeons, Ontario. : : :
Thief River Falls, Minnesota.

"THE IDEAL" Lunch Room.
In the Paradis Building is noted for its Convenience.
FIRST-CLASS MEALS.
PROMPT SERVICE.
☞ OPEN UNTIL ONE O'CLOCK A. M.
A. F. LANG, Prop.

DR. BLOMBURGH.
SCANDINAVIAN
Physician & Surgeon.
☞ Calls attended day or night. ☜
Teeth Extracted.
Office and residence opposite American Hotel. St. Hilaire, Minn.

2nd ☞ STORE
(Second Hand Store.)
Everything in this line now on hand. Special bargains given. If you have anything to dispose of give me a call. Repairing of harness also done.
C. A. SKEIE.
St. Hilaire, . . Minnesota

Blacksmith!
Horse-shoeing, repairing of all kinds of Farm Implements, Machinery, etc. All work promptly attended to and done in a satisfactory manner.
J. C. DAHL.
St. Hilaire, Minnesota

PATENTS
Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained and all Patent business conducted for Moderate Fees. Our Office is Opposite U. S. Patent Office and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.
Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.
A Pamphlet, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,
C. A. SNOW & CO.
Opp. Patent Office, Washington, D. C.

Market Report.—To-Day.

Wheat No. 1	.61	Oats	.20
Wheat No. 2	.59	Barley	.30
Wheat No. 3	.57	Flax	.105
Eggs (per doz).	12½	Butter (per lb)	10

LOCAL NEWS.

Club dance Saturday evening.

Monday was a disagreeable day.

Look over our advertisements—new changes.

So much rain now that everybody can rest.

Wall paper and calcimine at the New Drug store.

Don't be in a hurry about taking down your stoves.

W. C. Peters made a business trip to the county seat Saturday.

So far this year it comes pretty near being a repitition of 1896.

Try a lunch, a meal or a weeks board at the Ideal Lunch Room.

Dewey Day (May 1st) was celebrated all over the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Post have gone to housekeeping since Monday.

There will be preaching in the M. E. church on Sunday at 11 a. m.

Fred D. Shaw of Crookston is the game warden of this district.

5 cents will buy two packages of garden seeds at M. A. Hall's.

—Go to the New Drug Store for your Stationery and School supplies.

J. E. and B. E. Burkee were at Crookston this week on legal business.

Patronize home industry by buying your wall paper at the New Drug store.

Geo. Strawbridge returned Monday after spending a few days at Cass Lake.

—For cuts and sores there is nothing better than the Imperial Carbolic salve.

Dr. Francis of Thief River Falls was here on professional business last Saturday.

L. N. Nolan and J. Sargent of Thief River Falls were down last Thursday evening.

Monday was Arbor and Bird Day. Quite a few trees were planted by our residents.

J. H. Peterson and wife of Crookston came up Monday on a visit with relatives.

Mike Fricker, the feed mill man, made a trip to Red Lake Falls last Saturday.

Mike Fricker has just received a car-load of corn which he will grind into all kinds of feed.

The 80th anniversary ball of the Odd Fellows given last Wednesday evening was a grand success.

Frank Hunt, the hardware merchant of the county seat is here today enroute to Thief River Falls.

Martin Lilleman, the boat caulker of the upper Falls has been spending a few days in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Oidne have had more than their share of sickness in the family the past two years.

The society girls in the east wear regular men's suspenders with their shirt waists and golf skirts.

H. E. Ives left Monday on a business trip to the twin cities. He will visit Cass Lake before returning.

J. B. Armstrong, the cigar manufacturer of Red Lake Falls was here yesterday interviewing the trade.

P. G. Oyen has rented the upstairs of the Mrs. Eikhoff building and moved his family into the same last week.

To cure a cough in one day take the Imperial cough syrup. Guaranteed to cure. For sale at the new Drug Store.

A year ago to-day the Spanish suspect was roughly handled by a citizen of St. Hilaire who left the town forthwith.

First club dance of the second series will be held Saturday evening May 6th at the dining room of the Hotel St. Hilaire.

President Shevlin and Vice president Hixon of the St. Hilaire Lumber Co., were here last Thursday looking over their interests.

W. A. Case deputy organizor for the Modern Woodmen of America handed us a communication which will appear in our next issue.

There will be work in the initiatory and second degree at the I. O. O. F. lodge Thursday evening.

—To cure a cough or cold in one day take the Imperial Cough Syrup.

The head of a three million feet drive of logs for the St. Hilaire Lumber Company reached here Monday.

Died last Sunday morning the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Johnson, age two months and was buried yesterday.

A. R. Muttes has fitted up two elegant rooms over the Weagant hardware store and expects to occupy the same soon.

The farmers are beginning to look blue over their prospects of having a good crop. Very few have any seeding done.

You can figure the legal rate of interest now at six per cent instead of seven. The late legislature reduced it one cent.

Nothing on the weather program the past three days but a cold drizzling rain which will retard seeding at least a week or more.

Elling Molstad, Swan Johnson and Martin Lilleman of Thief River Falls was in town yesterday renewing old time acquaintences.

John Christie returned Saturday from a six months absence at Grand Rapids. He will hold down his old position at the mill this summer.

With this issue the SPECTATOR sends out law supplements. Read them over carefully and keep posted on the new laws, then preserve them for future reference.

Henry Norland and his crew are now at work driving piles in the channel of the river for the purpose of holding the boom of the St. Hilaire Lumber Co., more secure.

The machinery for the new binding twine plant in connection with the Bismarck, N. Dak, penitentiary has been purchased. Building operations will be begun at once.

Dr. Blomburgh reports the roads leading to the country east of here as being in a frightful condition. In making one of his trips last week, they were three hours making five miles.

—Dan Patterson has again taken the contract of furnishing short mill wood for this year and anyone in need of any can leave orders at his livery barn or at the office of the St. Hilaire Lumber Co.

Several "bateaus" belonging to the Red Lake Falls Lumber Co., were hauled through here Monday destined to the upper Falls. From there they will be put in the river and used for bringing down the drive.

Miss Mamie Moisseau has rented the Dainard building on the corner of Broadway and Second street and will open a fruit and confectionery store. It is an excellent location and she will undoubtedly do well.

Hank Murray, our popular conductor who has been running the flyer on the main line between Barnsville and Larimore for the past month has again taken up his old run on this line since Friday last. Everybody is glad to see Hank back again.

Just two more democratic or populist Senators and two less republican Senators in the last legislature would have been worth Eight Hundred Thousand Dollars to the tax-payer of Minnesota.—Martin County Sentinel. Ex Lieutenant Gov. Day's paper.

The streets of St. Hilaire are in a horrible condition and reminds one of the saying of the Arkansas Traveler "When they are dry they don't need repairing and when its wet can't repair them." The village council should act in this matter and especially grade Broadway and Second streets.

The new spring bonnet is reported to be a stunner. It will have a cow catcher in front, a tailboard behind, a flower garden on top and a bunch of grass on one side and a birds carcass on the other, the whole will be banded together with crushed ribbons and topped off with a millinery bill.—Ex.

Charles Englund, a River Falls boy has accepted the position of general agent for the Waukegan Dehorning company in the State of North Dakota and will make his headquarters at Fargo. Charley says he can not get along without the SPECTATOR as it always reminds him of friends at home.

Alger says he wont resign and that if he is removed before his term expires it will be by an order of the president. The general may rest assured that if he does retire and the president does not fire him the people of this great nation will see to it that the terms of both end on March 4th 1901.—Princeton Union (Rep.)

The first issue of the Cass Lake Times is before us. It is edited and publish ed by Ives & Strawbridge while "Doc" Rutledge manipulates the type and attends to the mechanical department. The first number was filled with well selected matter which shows, while the paper is young, the editors are adepts in the business. Success to the Times.

A law passed by the last legislature declares that dogs which habitually bark at teams, pedestrians or bicyclists on the streets or roads are public nuisance, and that they may be shot by order of any justice of the peace, outlet eat proof as to their habits having been produced. The owner of the dog is compelled to stand the expense of the trial.

According to reports 750 lives have been sacrificed in the search for the north pole. Scientists now have come to the conclusion that about the north pole there is only water, but about the south pole there is believed to exist a vast continent. Three expeditors are at work scouring the antarctic seas. Hereafter the arctic region will probably pass into oblivion.

—It is better than ready money because it cures rheumatism, constipation sick headache, indigestion. Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure.

On the 8th, 9th and 10th of May the ministers of the M. E. church of the Duluth district will meet in a conference in Crookston. Visitors will be welcome at the sessions of the conference.

We are pleased to state that Oney Oidne has so far recovered as to be up and around after a long seige of sickness. The doctor has given him instructions to do no work for several months to come.

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican notes one favorable "balance of trade" with the Phillipines. Our exports are thousands of sturdy young men and millions of treasure; our imports only several hundred sick and wounded soldiers!

—If you are troubled with rheumatism take the Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure. It will positively cure all diseases arising from impure blood, and is sold under an absolute guarantee to benefit or money refunded. Call for free sample at the New Drug Store.

By mistake ten barrels of "blue rock" were shipped in here last Saturday. They were billed to T & Busternd, St. Hilaire, but of course intended for the new Crookston hardware firm who ordered them for the benefit of C. C. Hoch and his gang of sportsmen. They are bound to do spring shooting regardless of the new law.

—Dr. Thomas is an up-to-date in all the different branches in his profession. Remember the dates, May 8th and 9th.

Dan Patterson went to Red Lake Falls Monday, being a member of the board of appraisment for Red Lake county, which has to settle the value of lands to be used by the Northern Telephone Co., for placing their poles for which settlement could not be made by their right-of-way agent. Condemnation proceedings were brought against five different pieces of land in this county.

Arno Mereen, superintendent of the St. Hilaire Lumber Company was summoned to Minneapolis a week ago last Monday on account of the illness of his wife. From what we can learn it seems that Mrs. Mereen had opened with a pin, what proved to be nothing or less than a pimple on her cheek. Blood poison set in and with the best of medical aid her life could not be saved, and last Thursday she breathed her last. She leaves a husband and two children to mourn her loss. Mr. Mereen has the sympathy of the entire community in his sad affliction.

The Greatwestern clothing house is closing out their entire stock of ladies children and Misses shoes at cost price to make room for more spring goods.

There was a deacon in a certain church into whose pew one, Sunday a drunken man staggered and sat down. The preacher discoursed about prevalent vices. Soon he exclaimed "Where is the drunkard?" The drunken man thought the case personal, so rising heavily he exclaimed. "Here I am!" A few minutes later the preacher reached another head of his discourse and asked, "Where is the hypocrite?" nudging his neighbor, the intoxicated man said in an audible whisper: Stand up, deacon, he means you this time; stand up and take it like a man, as I did; it will do you good!" The deacon was fairly doubled up. He would have given 12 months takings of his drink shop to have been a clear mile away just then.—Ex.

Consumption Cured.

—Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth, cures a cold in one day if taken in time. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

There is always a lot of drag to the farm work at this season.

Council Proceedings.

Regular meeting of the village council Monday May 1st 1899.

All members present except Sorsoleil and Patterson.

Meeting called to order by President Holmes.

On motion meeting adjourned until Tuesday May 2, 1899, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. at the village hall.

EMIL J. HOLMES, Pres.
J. L. JOHNSON, Recorder.

Adjourned meeting of the village council Tuesday May 2nd 1899. All members present. Meeting called to order by president Holmes. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved with the exception of last special meeting changing the word delivered to shipped. On motion the following bills were allowed.

St. Hilaire Lumber Co., lumber..	3 10
" " "	28 91
C fall 1 month salary as marshal	40 00
Ed Whaley street work	16 50
Frank Tway street work	3 37
A C Adams hauling rubbish from street	8 00

On motion the resignation of Ed Whaley as street commissioner was accepted.

On motion the petition of Blixt et al was laid on the table for consideration.

On motion the village recorder was instructed to report the condition of the village jail to board of corrections and charities.

On motion the president was authorized to appoint a street commissioner until next regular meeting.

On motion W. A. Sorsoleil was instructed to purchase about 500 feet of three inch soil tubing for the village.

On motion the petition of J. C. Dahl for a street crossing was laid on the table.

On motion meeting adjourned.

Attest:— E. J. HOLMES,
President.
J. L. JOHNSON,
Recorder.

—La Grippe is again epidemic and every precaution should be taken to avoid it. When everything else fails, try a bottle of the Imperial Sarsaparilla it will cure Grippe in all its forms. Free samples at the New Drug Store.

Challenge.

To whom it may concern.

At a meeting held in the Scandinavian Ev. Lutheran church at St. Hilaire Minn., on the 10th day of April 1899, seven ministers of said church condemned the Independent order of Good Templars without giving members of said order an opportunity to be heard in defence of their own behalf; the ministers acting as prosecutors, witnesses, jurors and judges in the matter.

Now therefore we the undersigned on behalf of Breidabliks No. 28 Independent order of Good Templars do hereby challenge Rev. I. T. Aastad of Thief River Falls and his colleagues to meet us in a public debate on the following questions:

Is the Independant order of Good Templars a religious organization?

Does said order deny or reject Jesus Christ?

Is said order an enemy to the church?

Is the existance of said order contrary to the teaching of the word of God?

Has the order proven itself a successful medium to lesson the evils of intemperance.

We the undersigned grant Rev. I. T. Aastad the privilege of naming time and place for said debate as follows: The place not to be outside of Red Lake county and the time some day in the latter part of May or the first part of June this year.

For judges of said debate each side shall chose three persons and the six persons so chosed shall chose three neutral persons.

Parlimentary rules to govern. If said Rev. Aastad fails to notify the undersigned of his choice of time and place within two weeks from date, the undersigned will proceed to name date and place for said debate.

The time for speaking will be equally divided and no speaker barred.

Dated at Rocksbury this 30th day of April 1899

Respectfully submitted.
P. ENGELSTAD,
H. NORLAND,
F. TURNQUIST,
JOHN A. DAHL
Committee.

The above challenge has been forwarded to Mr. Aastad at Thief River Falls in registered letter.

Dentist.

—Dr. J. H. Thomas, the Crookston dentist will be at Hotel Markham, St. Hilaire, May 8th and 9th prepared to do all kinds of up to date dental work in all branches. All work warranted. Remember the dates 8th and 9th.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that all manure and rubbish must be cleaned up and hauled away from all lots within the village limits on or before the 15th day of May 1899 or the same will be removed at the expense of the lot owner.

Dated at St. Hilaire this 29th day of April 1899. J. L. JOHNSON,
Acting Health Officer.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

A man out in Iowa who was too stingy to subscribe for a local paper, sent his young boy to a neighbor to borrow one. As the boy was coming home he fell down and broke his leg; the father heard his cries and ran out to get him, but slipped and fell on the ice dislocating his knee and tearing the bosom out of his ten dollar pantaloons; his wife ran to his assistance leaving the baby on the floor; the baby crawled out of the door and fell down the well and while the mother was fishing the child out, the house caught on fire and was totally destroyed. Moral: It never pays to borrow a paper.—Prison Mirror.

The Best Cough Remedy on Earth.

Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, Consumption Cure, cures a cold in 24 hours if taken in time and does not stop a cough in ONE MINUTE by paralyzing the throat, but it cures the disease and leaves the throat and lungs healthy and strong. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

It may be an item not generally known that the United States supreme court recently handed down an opinion to the effect that poultry running at large is wild game, and those upon whose property chickens may trespass have a legal right to kill them. If your neighbor's hens persist in scratching up your spring garden, the law will uphold you in killing them.

Watches Clocks and Jewelery.

I will carry a full line of watches, clocks and jewlery hereafter at Johnson's drug store. Anything you want that we do not carry in stock we will order for you at ten per cent above the wholesale prices and by doing this you will save money by dealing at home. Watches left for repairs will be sent down on first train and returned the next day. I shall continue to be at Johnson's drug store the 10th 11th and 12th of each month. Eyes examined free.

PROF. J. Q. ADAMS.
Red Lake Falls.

FOR SALE.

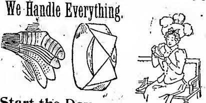
Two lots and house on South Broadway for sale at a bargain. For particulars address,

Mrs. C. Gerbig,
Box 20. Akeley, Minn.

WANTED.
Teachers to attend the Crookston College Summer School. It is cheap thorough and practical. Term opens June 12th and continues 8 weeks. Address, Crookston College, Crookston, Minnesota.

Agents Wanted.
The oldest and largest nursery in the West. Everything for the orchard and grove. Three plans of work and the year round. Pay weekly. Write for terms.
THE JEWELL NURSERY CO.,
40-45 Lake City, Minn.

We Handle Everything.



Start the Day Right

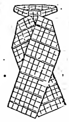
And everything will go smoothly. The proper way to start the day is by coming around to our store and ordering a supply of groceries for the day, such things as you may need. It will take you but a few minutes, and we feel sure you will not regret it.

Our Groceries

Are always fresh, and then the prices are as near right as we know how to make them. If you have not been in the habit of trading with us, drop in and see us anyway; you might get into the habit.

Hardware

We carry everything in the hardware line from cooking stoves down to tacks—all you have to do is to ask for what you want. If you want anything in the tin or copper line done drop into our tin shop and your wants will be attended to.



Yours very truly,
RAPP & POST
St. Hilaire, Minnesota.

The Cheap Cash Store.
GROCERIES NOTIONS FRUIT CANDIES TOYS TOBACCOS CIGARS AND GENTS FURNISHING GOODS.
ALL AT HARD TIMES PRICES. M. A. HALL.

A. H. WEAGANT
Having bought the business of Fred Eikhoff, I am now prepared to sell you anything in line of
HARDWARE AND TINWARE
CUTLERY, PAINTS & OILS,
Everything at Rock Bottom Prices. Come and see for yourself. Opposite Hotel Markham

LEONARD HOLMES,
—DEALER IN—
Agricultural Implements
WHEAT, FLAX OATS AND BARLEY.
Flour and Feed always on Hand.

Lumber! Lumber!
OF ALL KINDS.
We have a large and well assorted stock of Dry Lumber and are prepared to fill all orders on short notice. We also carry a complete assortment
—OF—
Sash, Doors, Paper
AND ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL
Which we buy in large quantities and are thereby enabled to sell at lowest market prices.
ST. HILAIRE LUMBER CO.

NEW MEAT MARKET.
L. M. ROLAND, Proprietor.
Fresh and Salted Meats.
Highest Market Price Paid for Hides.

L. K. KOLSTAD
DEALER IN
Boots and Shoes!
Repairing a Specialty.
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.

"The Prudent Man Setteth His House in Order."

Your human tenement should be given even more careful attention than the house you live in. Set it in order by thoroughly purifying your blood by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Erysipelas—"My little girl is now fat and healthy on account of Hood's Sarsaparilla curing her of erysipelas and eczema." Mrs. H. O. Wheatley, Port Chester, N. Y.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

Hood's Pills cure liver ills; the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Gave Herself Away.

Penelope—Isn't Charles a very smooth article?

Patrice—Well, he wasn't last night. He needed shaving badly.—Yonkers Statesman.

IOWA PEOPLE GO TO CANADA

Man Buys a Farm with Proceeds from Two-Thirds of One Crop.

W. R. Milburn, John Holmes, M. R. Dagger, E. L. Stetson, of Buena Vista county, Iowa, report as follows, of the Canadian North-West as to its suitability for farming, and the advantages it offers to the agricultural immigrant from the United States: "We came here solely to look up improved farms and, if suitable, to select such as pleased us best. We have not visited the homestead districts at all, though we believe them to be very inviting. Our inquiries have been confined solely to the district around Hartney, Deloraine and towards the Souris River in Manitoba. Our impressions of all that region are in every way satisfactory, and we have decided to go back to Iowa at once, and, having disposed of our several interests there, to return to Manitoba in the month of March next, and, effecting our purchase of improved farms, which we find we can do at reasonable rates, immediately begin farming. We are greatly pleased with all that we have seen in that part of Western Canada. The soil we find to be more than equal to that of our own country for wheat-growing, and the other conditions of climate, schools, markets, etc., are all that we could wish for.

"To show what an energetic man can do we may mention that we found one such at Hartney who had rented a farm on shares, receiving two-thirds of the returns as his share of the crop. When he came to sell his own produce he found that his two-thirds, when converted into cash, was enough to buy the farm he rented out and out, which he accordingly did, and is now its owner. It is our intention to induce as many of our friends as possible, who are practical farmers, to remove from Iowa to this country, where we believe there is a better future for the industrious man than is now to be found anywhere on this continent. We are well known in our part of the state of Iowa, and we invite correspondence from its residents in all parts, with regard to this region of Western Canada which we have visited, and to which we intend to return."

Not a Sure Criterion.

"He looks as shy as an Easter rabbit."

"Ah, but you can't always judge a man by the length of his ears."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Read the Advertisements.

You will enjoy this publication much better if you will get into the habit of reading the advertisements; they will afford a most amusing study, and will put you in the way of getting some excellent bargains. Our advertisers are reliable; they send what they advertise.

Made No Difference.

He (dramatically)—I can't tell you how much I love you.

She—Oh, can't you? Well, I guess it is just as well; I'm already engaged.

A Household Necessity.

Every home should have handy for use a little box of Cascarets Candy Cathartic, as a perfect guardian of the family health. All druggists, 10c, 25c, 50c.

It's related of a consistent St. Louis clergyman that he expounds solely from borrowed sermons during Lent.

It's unwise to trust your life in the hands of any physician who makes a specialty of post-mortems.

TOWER'S FISH BRAND
SLICKER
WILL KEEP YOU DRY.

Don't be fooled with a mackintosh or rubber coat. If you want a coat that will keep you dry in the hardest storm buy the Fish Brand Slicker. If not for sale in your town, write for catalogue to A. J. TOWER, Boston, Mass.

THE Spalding OFFICIAL League Ball

Is the only genuine National League Ball, and is certified as such by President N. E. Young.

ACCEPT NO SUBSTITUTES.

If a dealer does not carry Spalding's athletic goods in stock, send your name and address (and his) for a copy of our handsomely illustrated catalogue.

A. G. SPALDING & BROS.
New York Chicago Denver

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
REGULATE THE LIVER

N. W. N. U. —No 18— 1899.

PISO'S CURE FOR
CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS.
Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists.
CONSUMPTION

A SERIOUS APPRENTICESHIP

One morning I was called to the study to see several foreigners with whom Randall was talking. One was a Swede, who knew a little German and less English. With my assistance we managed to understand that the couple he had brought in were recent immigrants and that the conversationalist of the party wanted a place in some one's household for the girl.

The couple stood modestly waiting, side by side. It was already cold weather, and the woman had a cheap plaid shawl over her head, a bright ribbon tied around it to form a hood. I spoke to her in a kind voice and she looked me full in the face with the bluest pair of eyes I had ever seen.

The man beside her appeared stupid and heavy to me. I wondered if he was her brother and asked our interpreter. He managed to tell a story which afterward proved true in every detail.

The two were lovers from the extreme northern part of Sweden. They were the children of fisher folk, very poor. They had despaired of marriage at home, but one day walked away together, reached a seaport town, and there both, with hard labor, had earned enough money to come across the ocean and to Kansas City. The interpreter was her cousin. He was also poor and had a family.

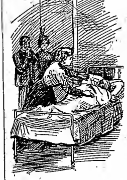
"Magnus has a place in the railroad yards," explained the cousin; "he live with me. She live with you. After while they have money and they get married."

It was finally decided that Christina Erd should come to us. The lover was to bring her chest from the railroad station at once. It arrived in an hour, a huge affair, and carried by the man, Magnus Liefssen, without apparent effort. She helped him take it up the stairs, then the two said farewell in my presence.

Christina had removed her shawl and rough cloak. Her head was crowned with heavy braids of flaxen hair. Her skin was white as milk, and on each cheek burned a spot that was like a pink rose, as clear and fine. She wore her best dress, a heavy blue skirt, a white waist, an old girdle. About her white neck were heavy silver beads, curiously engraved.

When she saw that her lover must go she went to him. They took each other's hands and stood silent for a few moments. Then his lips moved; he dropped her hands and she turned away to me, a haunting look of pain in her dark eyes.

I was, therefore, left with a maid who could not understand a word said or reply to me. I pass over the trials of the next few days. I grew patient because of the girl's extreme willingness and real intelligence, and I began to realize what dumb faithfulness meant. At first she was very timid, but in a few days she began to repeat names of articles, address us and grew more cheerful. At the end of a month we got along quite well.



WE STOOD AT HIS DEDSIDE.

Three times a week her lover came to see her for two hours. It was not long before I happened to go into the kitchen one evening and found both laboring over copy books. They were learning to write English, with the cousin's small son to guide them.

Our household settled down into peace and comfort. Christina was so strong, so determined, so cheery and became so full of resources as time passed that we wondered we had managed to live without her.

"Have you any fault to find with me?" asked Christina one day in the springtime. "Is all the work finished well?"

I believe I am just. I told her I had no reason to complain about it.

"I see that M'ria, she at the next door," the girl went on, gravely, "goes out in the evenings. What would beloved pastor say if I go sometimes?"

"With Magnus, you mean?" I asked, rather startled.

"Yes, ma'am. He got me job; car-cleaning at night. He carry all the water—help—I get money."

These two people meant to work all night or a great part of it after days of toil. I thought it my duty to interfere and expostulate. I even had "beloved pastor" talk to Christina.

When she understood that we were afraid for her health she put back her head and laughed.

"You folks too careful. I never know 'bout being tired. At home I work all night, two, three times a week. Carry boats, big baskets fish. Oh, such fish you never did see.

All Magnus said to the beloved pastor was, "It is very long to wait."

After that their hoard grew, and, as it did, the spirits of the two rose. When Magnus sat at the copybooks Christina sewed swiftly on all things necessary to their house-fitting. Not once did she lose her head. All she bought was sensible, good, necessary for a neat home.

Christina was indeed good and beautiful. When she came to church, as she often did with Magnus, I saw that people observed her. I told her story to one of our church societies and I heard that they intended to add to her modest outfitting by a present.

I must confess that, at times, I felt that Christina might do better than to wed such a stupid man as Magnus Liefssen. But suddenly the man I thought stupid rose to the height of a hero.

It was all in the morning papers. Randall ate the breakfast Christina had prepared and unfolded his journal while I sipped my coffee. He jumped to his feet.

"Where is Christine?" he asked, in a low tone, his mouth twitching.

She was singing somewhere. She had a voice like a lark.

"What is it, Randall?" I cried, running around to him.

He pointed to the great, black headlines. I read, breathless, of the attempted robbery of a railroad pay car preparing to set out in the gray dawn. The car had been drawn up in the switch yards, and guarded by the policemen and several section men. It had been a foggy night and the attack on the car was made so suddenly and quickly there was not a second of time to give a whistle of alarm. Two section men were knocked down, one fled, and the car door was defended alone by a brawny Swede, who fought steadily, doggedly, stubbornly, his eyes filled with blood; his wounds incredible. No shot had been fired. The policeman was in the roundhouse, not fifty feet away, telephoning to headquarters, when the fleeing Irishman burst in upon him with the news. Help arrived in time to save the car from being looted, but Liefssen was picked up for dead. He had been taken to the hospital and was the city hero. There was little hope for his life.

Beloved pastor and I took Christina in a carriage to the hospital. Her face had been like marble since we told her.

He had not regained consciousness. He was only a poor, bandaged mummy when we stood at his bedside. Christina said not a word. She stooped, and, in spite of the nurse's protests, took him into her two strong arms.

There was a perceptible shudder in his frame.

"Speak to him!" cried the surgeon, coming up. "He may rouse."

From Christina's lips burst forth a terrible tenderness. She called him endearing names in her strange language, she showered kisses upon his cheek, she laid hers upon his unhurt hand. At last he opened his eyes and gazed stupidly at her, then smiled and muttered a word.

Christina laid him down and stood erect. She looked full at Randall.

"Beloved pastor," she said, in her splendid voice, "we have done wrong. We have served too long for money. He have called me wife. It is now the right time."

And in the afternoon their serious apprenticeship to prudence was at an end. They were made man and wife.

The Obliging Riley.

Philadelphia Record: The strength of the fad for autographs was strikingly shown yesterday, when scores of clerks and customers besieged James Whitcomb Riley, while he was modestly making some book purchases in a large department store. As soon as the Hoosier poet was sighted near the latest book counter the news quickly went the rounds of the clerks, and within a half hour Mr. Riley had obligingly signed his name to 100 cards. Customers who were at the book stalls at the time or were attracted thither also took advantage of the opportunity, and secured the signature of the poet. To one of the clerks Mr. Riley said that, on the average, he receives 200 letters a day asking for his autograph, and many more personal requests while on his tours. When not in a humor for composition the poet, as a mental diversion, occupies himself in signing the thousands of cards which he yearly receives.

Ian Maclaren's American Gold Mine.

Ian Maclaren will write no more Scotch stories—at least for the present. His next important literary work will be a life of Christ, to which he will probably devote his leisure time next year. Doctor Watson is finding his biennial American lecture tours wonderfully remunerative. Two years ago he is said to have received $45,000 after all expenses were paid, and his present tour, which began in Bridgeport, Connecticut, on February 20, gives promise of being equally successful. This season he will travel as far north as Vancouver, British Columbia and his closing lecture will be given in St. Paul, Minn., on May 5. He has planned to sail for England on May 10. Doctor Watson's lectures have determined the popularity of Beside the Bonnie Brier-Bush over all of his other works. He seldom speaks before an audience without receiving a request to read some portion of this book.

To Excavate Babylon.

German savants are busy with plans for the excavation of Babylon. Layard, the discoverer of Nineveh, was the first really to do anything in the way of excavating. The Germans are determined that their work shall be thorough. It will be costly and take five years. The excavators will begin with El Kasr, the fortress, which is the remains of Nebuchadnezzar's palace and where Alexander died. They will also investigate a number of other ruins near by.

The Color That Counts.

Once upon a time a citizen conceived that he was going to be elected to the United States senate. "For," he argued, "I'm a dark horse!" The legislator listened courteously. "Let me see the color of your money!" urged the legislator when the citizen had done speaking.—Detroit Journal.

A Matter of Taste.

Moth—I overheard some callers saying this room is furnished in execrable taste.

Other Moth—Why, the idea! I never ate more palatable upholstery in my life.

His Standing.

"How does Billets rank as a poet?" "Too heavy for a lightweight, and too light for a heavyweight."—Philadelphia North American.

Longest Cable.

At present the longest single submarine cable is 2,700 miles.

Her Defects.

One question which a woman desiring to become a trained nurse must answer is, "What are your physical disabilities?"

In reply to this a girl recently wrote: "I have a cowlick and a corn."

Abolish the Death Penalty.

At Albany the law-makers are wrangling over the abolition of the death penalty. The man who succeeds will prove as great a benefactor to the breaker of man's laws as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has to the breaker of nature's laws. If you've neglected your stomach until indigestion and constipation are upon you, try Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

We promise according to our hopes, but perform according to our selfishness and fears. Rochefoucauld.

PATENTS.

List of Patents Issued Last Week to Northwestern Inventors

John Carlson, Mandan, N. D., Acetylene-gas generator; Harry De Wallace, St. Paul, Minn., Engineer's Alarm; Arthur M. Lara, Minneapolis, Minn., Carburetor; George McCadden, St. Cloud, Minn., Label-affixer; Ebenezer Murray, Deadwood, S. D., Breast-shield; August C. Schaefer, St. Paul, Minn., Drive-chain and chain-wheel; John A. Tulloch, Duluth, Minn., Stone-cutter's maul; Lyman H. Zeigler, Milbank, S. D., Rue-pen.

Merwin, Lothrop & Johnson, Patent Attorneys, 910 Pioneer Press Bldg., St. Paul

A woman may cast insinuations, but she can't propel a stone with accuracy.

Are You Using Allen's Foot-Ease?

It is the only cure for Swollen, Smarting, Burning, Sweating Feet, Corns and Bunions. Ask for Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder to be shaken into the shoes. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

The wise man is a fool if he doesn't listen to a woman's proffered counsel.

Ball Bearings Did It.

Bicycles were invented centuries ago, but it required the magic touch of the Nineteenth century inventor to make the "wheel" a most useful vehicle, instead of a mere toy.

Ball bearings did it. It was a case where the improvement has proved greater than the original invention. The principle that reduces friction to a minimum in a bicycle is applicable to all machinery, and the cost is the only obstacle in the way of what will be known in history as the "Light Draft Era" in mechanics. Millions of dollars have been spent in this direction. The Deering Harvester Company, of Chicago, solved the problem, as far as grain binders and mowers are concerned, by equipping their machines with roller and ball bearings in 1891.

Other manufacturers in this line have since followed with several kinds of experimental roller bearings, but the Deering machines are still alone in the field with ball bearings of the bicycle pattern.

The Deering Company's annual catalogue for 1899 contains some very interesting historical matter on this subject, fully illustrated. The book also describes the largest factory in America and gives the latest news on the subject of harvesting machinery. Send for one; it's free.

Despite all his refinement, the light and habitual taking of God's name in vain betrays a coarse and brutal will. E. H. Chapin.

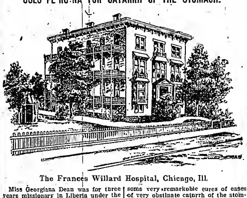
General Manager Underwood of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, has issued an order that holders of trip passes, desiring to stop off at any station, will be allowed to do so.

Conductors will note on the back of passes the name of the station in ink or indelible pencil, and this endorsement will be honored for passage by conductors of succeeding trains.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Central Ohio Railroad, as reorganized is to be held in Columbus, Ohio, on Wednesday, April 26th. The directors will also meet on the same day.

FRANCES WILLARD HOSPITAL.

USES PE-RU-NA FOR CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.



The Frances Willard Hospital, Chicago, Ill.

Miss Georgiana Dean was for three years missionary in Liberia under the M. E. Church from the training school in Chicago. After her return she studied nursing, graduating from the present Frances E. Willard National Temperance Hospital of Chicago. She is an enthusiastic friend of Pe-ru-na, as is evident from the following letter:

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 20, 1899.

Pe-ru-na Drug Mfg. Co., Columbus, O.:

Gentlemen—You will be glad to know of the happy results obtained from the use of Pe-ru-na among the patients under my care whenever prescribed by the physician. I have seen some very remarkable cures of cases of very obstinate catarrh of the stomach, where Pe-ru-na was the only medicine used. I consider it a reliable medicine. GEORGIANA DEAN.

The symptoms of catarrhal dyspepsia are: Coated tongue, pain or heavy feeling in the stomach, belching of gas, dizzy head, sometimes headache, despondent feelings, loss of appetite, palpitation of the heart and irregularity of the bowels.

Send for a free book written by Dr. Hartman, entitled "Health and Beauty." Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O.

All About Tortoise Shell.

The finest tortoise shell comes from the Indian Archipelago and is shipped from Singapore, and much of it is obtained on the Florida coast of America. There are three rows of plates on the back, called "blades" by the fishermen. In the central row are five plates, and in each of the others four plates, the latter containing the best material. Besides these, there are twenty-five small plates around the edge of the shell, known as "feet" or "noses." The biggest turtle does not furnish more than sixteen pounds of tortoise shell. Formerly the under shell was thrown away, being considered worthless, but at present it is very highly valued for its delicacy of coloring. Nowadays a very beautiful imitation of tortoise shell is made of cows' horns.

Birds That Dance.

There is no longer any doubt that birds are addicted to the dance. The bower bird and the prairie fowls are adepts in the art, while the American grouse is a veritable master of ceremonies. It is the custom for these birds to prepare their ball room by beating down the grass with their wings, and then to dance something suspiciously like the Lancers. By twos and fours they advance, bowing their heads and drooping their wings; then they recede and then advance again, and turn on their toes, swelling their feathers and clucking gently.

An Historical Pen.

When the Empress of the French writes about her lamented husband she invariably uses the diamond pen which signed the treaty of Paris. Each of the fourteen plenipotentiaries wanted to keep the pen which signed the Paris treaty, as a memento of the occasion. They, however, yielded to the request of the Empress Eugenie, who begged that one pen should be used, which should be retained by her as a souvenir. Only one pen was accordingly employed; it was a quill pen, plucked from a golden eagle's wing, and richly mounted with diamonds and gold.

Standing on His Dignity.

She—Will you speak to papa?

He—Never, unless he speaks to me first. It would be unjust to you and to me, my dear, for he dropped me because I adored you. Any advance toward a reconciliation must be made by him."

The Whistling-Tree.

The "whistling tree" is so called from the wind in its branches making a sound like a flute. It is the "sofar" of South Nubia, and yields the gum of senmar. Dr. Schweinfurth has shown that the sound is caused by the holes bored in the spines of the branches by an insect in order to suck the gum. The spines, in fact, become little flutes.

The Coming End of Leap Year.

Within eight more centuries leap year will have become a relic of the present time. By that time the extra eleven days lost to make up the change from the old Julian calendar to that of the present day will all have been duly accounted for, and the world will run around in just 365 days, and no more.

Hall's Catarrh Cure

Is taken internally. Price, 75c.

Poor Boston.

Boston Man (awakening suddenly)—Wh-what crash was that?

His Wife—Perhaps the kitchen towel fell down.

"The kitchen novel?"

"Yes; that's all the crash we have in the house."—New York World.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

Domestic Attachment.

A romantic incident of a domestic attachment is reported from Illinois. Hearing that her little son was lying in a Southern regimental hospital, a minister's wife traveled 300 miles and enlisted as a nurse in the army, in order to be near him. The minister, thereupon, applied for the chaplaincy of the regiment, which he secured, and the family is now happily united under the most remarkable of circumstances.

Every time a man goes to church he hears a lot of preaching that hits other men.

I shall recommend Piso's Cure for Consumption far and wide.—Mrs. Mulligan, Plumstead, Kent, England, Nov. 8, 1895.

When a man puts his foot down on a would-be-borrower's request for a five-spot, he simply V-toes it.

Some poets are noted for their veracity and some for the obituary verses they turn out.

A CHARMING grandmother!

What a pleasant influence in the house is a delightful old lady in good health!

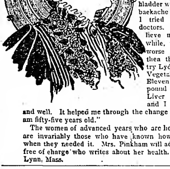
HEALTHFUL OLD AGE

Mrs. Mollie Barber, St. James, Mo., writes: "I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during change of life, and have passed through that critical period safely. I suffered for years with falling of the womb and female weakness. At times could hardly stand on my feet, also had leucorrhœa. I tried several good doctors, but instead of getting better, grew worse all the time. A friend advised me to try Mrs. Pinkham's Compound. I did so and after taking six bottles, was cured of both leucorrhœa and falling of womb. I am now enjoying good health and feel very grateful for the good your medicine has done me. I would recommend it to all women suffering as I was."

Mrs. N. E. Lacey, Pearl, La., writes:

"I have had leucorrhœa for about twenty years, falling of womb by spells for ten years, and my bladder was affected, had backache a great deal. I tried a number of doctors. They would relieve me for a little while, then I would be worse than ever. I then thought I would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Eleven bottles of Compound and one box of Liver Pills cured me and I am now sound and well. It helped me through the change of life period. I am fifty-five years old."

The women of advanced years who are healthy and happy are invariably those who have known how to secure help when they needed it. Mrs. Pinkham will advise any woman free of charge who writes about her health. Her address is Lynn, Mass.



Oh, what shall the har-vest be?... Oh, what shall the har-vest be?

NOTES ABOUT A BINDER

WITH SPECIAL REFERENCE TO THE DEERING IDEAL.

DEERING HARVESTER COMPANY, CHICAGO.

Sown in the light, Sown in our weakness or sown in our might

FARM LANDS FOR SALE.
DO YOU WANT A HOME?
60,000 ACRES OF GOOD FARMING LANDS IN WASHBURN AND BARRON COUNTIES, WISCONSIN, to be divided and sold at $3.00 to $6.00 PER ACRE.
Long time and easy payments to actual settlers.
Come and see us or address,
W. R. BOURNE, Mgr., SHELL LAKE LUMBER CO., SHELL LAKE, WIS.

"A HANDFUL OF DIRT MAY BE A HOUSEFUL OF SHAME." CLEAN HOUSE WITH SAPOLIO

NEW BICYCLES—Gent's from $8.17 up. Lady's from $8.17 up. New 1899 model Bicycles for $17.75 that others ask $60.00 for. We can sell you for $22.47 a bicycle that can't be beat by any make at any price. Complete with Morgan & Wright tires and all the latest improvements. Don't fail to send for our 1899 Bicycle Catalogue which will be sent free. Morgan & Wright Double Tube Tires, $4.74. Some Special Flyers. 37 packages Fresh Garden Seed for 37c. A Dollar Cattle Knife and 57 packages Fresh Garden Seed (a $2.75) all for 97c, postage paid. WRITE NOW

T. M. BORERT'S SUPPLY HOUSE, MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

The Meanest Man.

A mean man on the South Side agreed, early in the week, to meet a girl at luncheon down town Saturday, and after luncheon they were going to the matinee. The girl kept her part of the contract. She dressed in a new silk waist and a velvet bonnet, and was in the lunch room as the clock struck 1. After she had waited about five minutes there came a note from the mean man. It said:

"The inclosed cards will show you why I can't keep my engagement."

The "inclosed cards" announced that he had been married to a chum of hers that morning.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Do Your Feet Ache and Burn?

Shake into your shoes, Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It makes tight or New Shoes feel Easy. Cures Corns, Bunions, Swollen, Hot and Sweating Feet. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

What He Really Said.

"And you say that the idiot of a teacher told you that you had an extravagant fool of a father?"

"That's what he meant."

"But what did he say?"

"He said it was criminal folly to waste money on the education of such a chump as I am."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Coarse kindness is at least better than coarse anger; and in all private quarrels the duller nature is triumphant by reason of its dullness.—George Eliot.

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

WHEAT
WHEAT
WHEAT

"Nothing but wheat; what you might call a sea of wheat," is what was said by a lecturer speaking of Western Canada. For particulars as to routes, railway fares, etc., apply to Superintendent of Immigration, Department Interior, Ottawa, Canada, or to Ben Davies, 1st Third St., St. Paul, or T. O. Currie, Stevens Point, Wis.

You will never know what GOOD INK
is unless you use Carter's. It costs no more than poor ink.
Funny booklet "How to Make Ink Pictures" free.
CARTER'S INK CO., Boston, Mass.

CURE YOURSELF!

Use Big G for unnatural discharges, inflammations, irritations or ulcerations of mucous membranes. Painless, and not astringent or poisonous.

Sold by Druggists, or sent in plain wrapper, by express, prepaid, for $1.00, or 3 bottles, $2.75. Circular sent on request.

Big G CURES in 1 to 5 days. Guaranteed not to stricture. Prevents contagion. THE EVANS CHEMICAL CO. CINCINNATI, O. U. S. A.

WANTED—Case of bad health that R-I-P-A-N-S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1000 testimonials.

When Answering Advertisements Kindly Mention This Paper.

ALABASTINE

Alabastine, the only durable wall coating, takes the place of scaling kalsomines, wall paper and paint for walls. It can be used on plaster, brick, wood or canvas.

Alabastine can be used over paint or paper; paint or paper can be used over Alabastine. Buy only in five pound packages, properly labeled; take no substitute.

Every church and schoolhouse should be coated only with Alabastine. Hundreds of tons used yearly for this work. Genuine Alabastine does not rub and scale off.

Alabastine packages have full directions. Anyone can brush it on. Ask paint dealer for tint card. "Alabastine Era" free. Alabastine Co., Grand Rapids, Mich.

Minnesota Historical Society
MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR.

VOLUME XVIII. ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 1899. NUMBER 41

BANKS HARD HIT

BY THE EVERLASTING GRIND OF THE BRITISH GOLD STANDARD.

A Rude Though Tardy Awakening—Lessons From the Prosecution of the Public Examiner's Duties—Low Interest the Cause of Poor Banking Business—Significant Talk With Banker Lee of Todd. State and National Topics—Hope for Speedy Return of the Thirteenth Regiment—Tribute to Governor Lind—Significant Movement of Our German-American Citizens and Their Press—No Entangling Alliances and No Imperialism—The Republican Gubernatorial Looking Glass—Trouble for Knute Nelson in Hennepin—Political Note and Gossip of the Week.

Reform Press Bureau.
St. Paul, May 1, 1899.

The most important event of the past week, of political and economical bearing, has been the closing of another bank, that of Republican Leader C. J. Staples, on the West Side, St. Paul. The continued efforts of the Public Examiner's Department to protect depositors in weak banks are in strange contrast to the treatment given the department by the Republican legislature in reducing the allowance with which to conduct that and other business of the department. That General Pope, undismayed by this discrimination, goes on unflinching, discharging his sworn duties, is but an indication of the purpose animating all departments of the Reform administration. The extent to which they have been purposely crippled by the Republican legislature is well understood, and it is perfectly safe to leave results with the people.

That the legislature specially "had it in" for the Public Examiner's department is shown not only in the reducing of the allowance for such examinations as have nipped the several banks recently closed, but in the slaughter of about all the legislation asked for not involving appropriations. A summary of such is as follows:

Senate bill 401, relating to building and loan associations, now classed with state institutions. Failed in the house.

Senate bill 480, to restore chapter 250, General Laws of 1897; regulating building and loan associations, and greatly needed. Failed in the house.

Senate bill 362, providing fees from savings banks, now paying none, for state examination, and needed because the expense of examining banks is $13,000, while the fees amount to but $1,000, the bill also increasing fees of banks. Failed to pass the senate.

Senate bill 387 transferred to the Examiner a certain unused fund of many years standing. Failed to pass the senate.

Senate bills 280 and 288, for improvement in the laws governing savings banks, in protection of depositors. Failed from opposition of interested corporations.

Finally, by senate bill 374, the department proposed a consolidation of existing straggling laws governing the department. It passed the senate, but was allowed to die in house committee.

It has long been known that the banks have been as hard hit by the everlasting downward trend under the gold standard, as other lines of industry, some of them much harder. But the facts have not been so easily obtainable. Not long since I had a talk with Banker W. E. Lee of Todd, ex-speaker of the house of representatives, and who in fact directed the last Republican campaign in this state, as to this feature of general business. Mr. Lee admitted that the general conditions were greatly to be deplored, and the banks feeling the stress of small earnings as much as any lines. Business, he said, was being conducted almost without profit, and there was no use for money which kept on piling up in the home banks the same as in the great centers. He admitted that farm loans were not to be had, though desired at from a third to a half of what was once to be obtained for such loans. Farmers are not borrowing money but are lending to each other. Business men and manufacturers are using as little as possible because keeping close ashore. Margins are so small as not to warrant the expense of interest to extend lines. Mr. Lee admitted that this was no special case, but that the condition was quite general all over the country, except where lines were rising and trade moving from special causes such as iron and cotton, and the results of combinations.

Of course Mr. Lee begged the whole question when it came to discussing causes, denying that legislation had anything to do with, or could relieve the situation, though forced to admit that legislation benefitted some of the trusts and combines. The rise of these, he also admitted, was a menace the result of which no man could forsee. His remedy was simply to wait and the matter would work its way out, and the country in time come to a general prosperity. Would this come within another year? He scarcely hoped so, and yet he was loth to admit that if such proved not the case it would have much effect on the presidential campaign; Mr. Lee said that all the country could do was to wait events, of couse trusting in the Republican party.

Almost any day in St. Paul you can see prominent Republicans lined up in the Merchants, looking each other over and wondering on whom the gubernatorial lightning is going to strike next year, for the empty honor of following in the pathsteps of Eustis. Among those so far sizing themselves up before the political looking glass are Judge Collins, Handsome Heatwole, Unhandsome Eddy, Moses E. Clapp, Tricky Tawney, and genial Bob Evans. Tams Bixby looks himself over at home, or looks in his watch case when out on the Reservation.

And now they do say that Senator Knute Nelson is to have trouble in Hennepin county, in spite of the Grimshaw compact; that Charley Pillsbury will be in the race to a finish. If he goes in London Charley will make the fur fly.

In a recent Bureau letter the list of the majority of the senate committee on judiciary which supported the gross earnings bill was made to include Senator C. L. Benedict of Mankato. This, we are assured by the senator's friends, was an error, he having been a friend of the bill; that it was he who made the motion to place the bill on general orders, notwithstanding the adverse report, and that he voted against sustaining the report and for the bill on every opportunity; all of which is published with great pleasure.

The forecast of the sentiments of General C. McC. Reeve touching the Philippine war, made in the last letter, has been confirmed to the fullest by the General's return and statement in an interview. He has contributed a most important proof of the criminal blunder in the Philippines, and no publication yet made in that direction will carry stronger conviction to the country. His statement should have the widest publication. It was, however, only meagerly carried out by the Associated Press.

As a result of Governor Lind's visit to Washington, if his expectations are realized, the thousands who have dear ones in the Thirteenth regiment in the Philippines will not have to wait until Aug. 1 to see them home. The governor is satisfied that the regiment will or should sail from Manila in May.

Says H. J. O. Reed, the Minneapolis publicist who came near being labor commissioner, says: "Governor Lind is the best governor this state has had since I have been in the state, sixteen years, and I doubt if many have more closely observed than I have."

If only the new wolf bounty applied to recreant members of the recent legislature wouldn't we all go gunning next year?

High toned boardinghouse madams in St. Paul are excited because minions of the dairy department dined with them and carried off chunks of butter which on being analyzed were found to be butterine. It is positively shocking how Major Bowler's department is behaving. It won't let bogus vinegar be sold, nor other spurious food if it knows it, and it generally does.

The Republican Press Bureau says that Governor Lind, while expressing himself in favor of anti-fee legislation, was "understood" as not particularly "indorsing it." Understood by whom? By the Republicans? Governor Lind did not express himself as favoring the reduction of the Oil Inspector's fees, but as in favor of abolishing all fees in question, Oil Inspector, the Surveyors, and the Clerk of the Supreme Court. Dar Reese held up the legislature for himself and the other offices could not in consistency be attacked, hence the failure of this much needed reform, and concerning which he is a brazen one indeed who will question Governor Lind's sincerity.

The United States treasurer, at New York, discussing the scarcity of small bills complained of, especially in the Northwest, says that it is due from the fact that the people out here are so prosperous under the McKinley administration that their holdings of money have gone into large bills, and which they keep at home! Great guns! Send the fool killer to Washington right away quick.

Patriots' Day in Massachusetts was observed by the Springfield Republican with a broadside on the Spirit of Liberty, the keynote of which is the outrage on the Filipino war. Clustered about a picture of the "Flag of Freedom and Self-Government" were questions from all the great patriots past and present who have written in inspiration of American liberty. An editorial feature was on the barbarities of the war, giving some shocking stories of American violations of the rules of civilized warfare. As the Republican well says, "For our sins, for the blunder in policy and administration, we must pay the penalty and expiate in blood and treasure." The people will later place the responsibility where it belongs.

The attitude of the German-Americans and their press is very significant. In Minnesota there is marked change in sentiment from former strong leanings to Republicanism, under developments everywhere emphasizing the vicious Republican system. It is the same in Ohio under the leadership of such journals as the "Deutsche Umschau" of Greenfield. The Chicago German-Americans have organized against the proposed English-American alliance such as is advocated by Senator C. K. Davis, while the German Press of Missouri acting as a body have condemned the Republican policies of alliance, imperialism, and the fostering of the trusts and combines. In fact the outlook is that the German-Americans will next year be found in line with the policies for which W. J. Bryan will stand on the "liberty" platform for 1900—freedom from the oppressions of the money power, with its trusts and combinations; and from entangling alliances of every sort. Gut heil the coming day and its certain victories.

The continued rise of silver is well calculated to disturb the trust defenders. It is at the highest point for years and within 5 or 6 cents of wheat. Continued rise will help the free coinage cause. Par silver and dollar or dollar and a half wheat is what we are after.

G. S. C.

TO TAKE BACOLOR

THE NEXT TASK THE AMERICANS WILL UNDERTAKE.

Rebel General With 6,000 Troops Who Have Never Met the Americans and Who Think They "Can Lick the Whole Lot" Is in Possession—City Is Well Intrenched and the Rebels Are Working Like Beavers Preparing for the Coming Struggle—Rebels Extremely Active in the Vicinity of Laguna de Bay.

Manila, May 9. — The clear the Filipinos out of Bacolor, about seven miles south of San Fernando, will be the next task of the Americans. The rebel general, Mascado, has a force of 6,000 men there, well armed and possessed of plenty of ammunition. His troops have never met American soldiers, and they think, according to reports carried to San Fernando, that they "can lick the whole lot." Bacolor is well intrenched, and thousands of natives are working like beavers, digging trenches and carrying the dirt in baskets. The enemy uses his riflemen for fighting only, but compels the bolomen and Chinese, and even the women, to labor incessantly. The rebels have an outpost about a mile beyond San Fernando with a trench that holds between 200 and 300 men. From that point several volleys were fired last night upon the camp of the Twentieth Kansas regiment. Neither Maj. Gen. MacArthur or Maj. Gen. Lawton moved yesterday, although each reconnoitered the country in his own vicinity for some miles from headquarters, developing the presence of small forces of the enemy. In the vicinity of Laguna de Bay the rebels are extremely active, but the lines of Gen. Ovenshine and Col. Wholly, who is commanding Gen. King's brigade during the latter's illness, have been materially strengthened and there is no danger in that direction. The armed steamers Laguna de Bay and Cavadonga, under Capt. Grant, have gone to Jugua, about five miles southeast of Bacolor, presumably to establish a base of supplies for the troops engaged on the northern campaign.

It is rumored that Mabini, president of the cabinet and minister of foreign affairs in the so-called Filipino government, who is a radical, is to be succeeded by Patreno, the framer of the Spanish treaty of 1896. This change is regarded as significant at the present juncture. The entrance of the Americans into San Fernando was virtually unopposed. The Filipinos, who expected the invaders to approach from the sea, had that side of the town strongly guarded, but there was only one line of trenches beyond San Tomas. Two battalions of the Fifty-first Iowa regiment, which swam the river north of the city, were smartly peppered while in the water, but the rebels disappeared as soon as the Americans reached the shore. In the meantime the hospital squad had walked across the bridge into the city, supposing the Americans were there. They encountered no natives. The few Spaniards and Filipinos who were left welcomed the Americans and opened their houses to them. Gen. MacArthur accepting entertainment at the hands of Senor Hizon, a sugar magnate. If the inhabitants of the San Fernando region are to be believed, there is little sympathy with the insurrection in that quarter.

GEN. LAWTON'S GREAT WORK.

He Made It Impossible for MacArthur to Be Flanked.

Manila, May 9.—Maj. Gen. Lawton's column advanced to a position two and a half miles north of Baliuag Saturday. Before making a forward movement Gen. Lawton sent back to Manila two wounded men of the Minnesota regiment and one of the Oregon, besides twenty sick men. They were sent by way of Malolos. Gen. Lawton's advance met with but slight opposition. Outside of Maasin 2,000 rebels who occupied an intrenched position were routed in short order. Many corpses of rebels have been discovered in the river at San Tomas. Scores of rifles and other arms have been recovered from the river, into which they were thrown by the retreating rebels. Maj. Gen. MacArthur is resting in San Fernando, making in the meantime extensive reconnoissance.

PATRIOTIC SOUTH DAKOTANS.

Ninety-Five Per Cent of the Volunteers Willing to Remain.

Pierre, S. D., May 9.—Congressman Burke states that he is in receipt of numerous personal letters from officers and men of the First South Dakota, in which the statement is expressed, with but a single exception, in favor of continuing in the service until the present campaign is brought to a successful issue, and no complaints are made in regard to being kept in the Philippines. One officer writes that over 95 per cent of the regiment desires to remain to complete the work in which they are at present engaged.

BENNINGTON WENT AGROUND.

One of Dewey's Vessels Will Have to Be Docked.

Washington, May 9.—The following dispatch has been received at the navy department from Admiral Dewey:

"The Bennington grounded; shoal not on chart, on north side of Panay, P. I. Came off twenty-three hours later. Has been examined by divers. Damage is not serious, but is necessary to dock vessel. I have sent to Hongkong. No blame attached to any one."

Two Men Drowned.

San Francisco, May 9.—The capsizing of a boat opposite Belvidere Point caused the drowning of Frank Egbert and Edward Ward. Dr. Allen and H. O. Haydefelt, who were in the boat, were saved.

Suicide With Morphine.

Stillwater, Minn., May 9. — John C. Wagoner, after an extended debauch, committed suicide by taking morphine. Wagoner was a familiar character and was with Custer in the Indian campaign.

IT CENSURES MILES

Report of the Beef Court Inquiry Made Public.

Washington, May 9.—By direction of the president, who approves the findings, Acting Secretary of War Meiklejohn yesterday made public the report and findings of the military court appointed to investigate the charges made by Maj. Gen. Miles, commanding the army, that the beef supplied to the army during the war with Spain was unfit for the use of the troops. The most important features of the report are:

Findings are that the general's allegations that the refrigerated beef was treated with chemicals were not established; that his allegations concerning the canned fresh or canned roast beef were sustained as to its unsuitability for food as used on the transports and as a long continued field ration; censure of Gen. Miles for "error" in failure to promptly notify the secretary of war when he first formed the opinion that the food was unfit; censure of the commissary general (then Gen. Eagan) for the too extensive purchases of the canned beef as an untried ration; censure of Col. Maus, of Gen. Miles' staff; and, finally, that the packers were not at fault and the meat supplied to the army was of the same quality as that supplied to the trade generally, and the recommendation is made that be taken in the premises. The conclusion of the court adverse to further proceedings, based upon the charges, is as follows:

No Farther Proceedings

"It has been developed in the course of the inquiry, as recited in this report, that in some instances some individuals failed to perform their full duty or to observe the proprieties which dignify high military command, but the court is of the opinion that the mere statement in the official report of the facts developed meets the ends of discipline and that the interests of the service will be best served if further proceedings be not taken."

There is more or less criticism of Gen. Miles in various parts of the report. Probably the most direct instance is the one which states that beyond the criticism of officers found elsewhere in the report:

"The court finds that against none of the officers commanding corps, divisions, brigades and regiments and their staff officers should a charge of guilt be brought. The court also finds that the major general, commanding the army, had no sufficient justification for alleging that the refrigerated beef was embalmed or was unfit for issue to troops. It also finds that he

Committed an Error

in that having belief or knowledge as claimed that the food was unfit, that it caused sickness and distress, that some of it was supplied under the pretense of experiment that other beef was embalmed, he did not immediately report such knowledge or belief to the secretary of war to the end that a proper remedy might be promptly applied."

The censure of Col. Maus, inspector general on Gen. Miles' staff, is based upon his failure to call attention to charges concerning the beef at Chickamauga, contained in a report of inspection made by Dr. (or major) Daly, on the 26th of October last, in which he stated his belief that the beef was chemically treated.

Gen. Miles, when asked whether he had any comment to make upon the report, said he had read it, but "I have nothing to say upon the report, the decision reached, the manner of taking testimony or the exclusions."

"Does that mean to say that as far as you are concerned you will let the matter rest where it lays?" asked the reporter.

"I have nothing to say," said Gen. Miles.

INDORSE THE ADMINISTRATION.

Three Monster Mass Meetings Held in Chicago.

Chicago, May 9.—Three mass meetings were held in Chicago yesterday to voice the approval of the policy of the administration with reference to the Philippine islands and to protest against the sentiments expressed last Sunday at the "anti-expansion" meeting in Central Music hall. Yesterday's meetings were held in the Auditorium, Central Music hall and the First Methodist church, and in spite of the inclement weather the aggregate of attendance was probably 10,000.

The presiding officers of the three meetings were Judge Oliver H. Horton, ex-Judge John Barton Payne and Thomas B. Bryan. At the Auditorium as at the other two gatherings every mention of President McKinley or Admiral Dewey brought forth thunders of applause.

The speakers at the Auditorium were William Dudley Foulke of Indiana, Bishop Samuel Fallows, Congressman Jonathan P. Dolliver of Iowa, ex-Congressmen George A. Adams, Richard S. Tuthill and Rev. Dr. P. Henson. Most of these also spoke at the other meetings. Resolutions strongly endorsing the policy of the administration were adopted at all three meetings.

Banker Exonerated.

Salt Lake, Utah, May 9.—The jury in the case of ex-Banker J. M. Stoutt, formerly president of the Utah National bank, brought in a verdict of not guilty. The charge was that he had made false returns to the controller of the currency.

Duke of York Ill.

London, May 9.—His royal highness, the duke of York, owing to a severe cold, is confined to his room and his physicians have forbidden him to attend the launch of the royal yacht Pembroke.

Killed at Baseball.

New York, May 9.—Hugh Cavanagh was killed by a pitched ball during a game between the Washington Athletic Club of Montclair and the Emerald Athletic club team of Newark. The ball was delivered by L. F. Tischer.

Injured in a Sawmill.

Rush City, Minn., May 9.—John Lind, who works in the sawmill at Goose Lake about sixteen miles from here, had a thumb and forefinger cut off. The balance of the hand was badly cut with a saw.

COLLAPSE IS NEAR

FILIPINO INSURRECTION CANNOT LAST MUCH LONGER.

President McKinley Expects Peace Within Forty-eight Hours—What Promises to Be the Final Conference Between the Philippine Commission and the Rebels Is Either in Progress or Soon Will Be—Statement Made on Authority of a High Government Official—Proposed Plan of Government Favorably Commented On.

New York, May 9. — The following statement was obtained by the Herald's Washington correspondent from one of the highest officials of the government and may be regarded as authoritative so far as the views of the administration are concerned:

President McKinley has expressed to friends his firm conviction that the Filipino insurrection will collapse within forty-eight hours. This conclusion is based upon the highly satisfactory cablegrams received from Mr. Schurman, president of the peace commission. Another conference between the peace commission and Aguinaldo's representatives is probably now or soon will be in progress, the result of which, the president believes, will be a decision of the Filipinos to lay down their arms as preliminary to the inauguration of the form of government which the peace commission has recommended and which the president approved.

In view of the auspicious outlook for an early peace it is thought in some quarters to be rather strange that the American forces continue fighting. When I asked a high official of the administration for an explanation of this apparent incongruity he declared that the vigorous measures were necessary until peace had become an accomplished fact.

"The trouble all along has been," he said, "that Aguinaldo's army has misunderstood our efforts at conciliation. Every act of kindness has been considered by Aguinaldo as an evidence of weakness, and he would invariably follow all peaceful overtures by orders for increasing the strength of his intrenchments. The members of the peace commission, the civilians as well as the military members, have all agreed that the best way for having a speedy termination of the rebellion is to keep hitting hard while the enemy is revolving in its mind the conditions upon which he can have peace. Our information, however, justifies the belief that there will be a cessation of hostilities within less than forty-eight hours."

The form of government which the peace commissioners have recommended has been the principal topic in official quarters. The comment is generally favorable. Even the anti-expansionists have little fault to find with it.

Northwestern Victims.

Gen. Otis' latest casualty list contains the following:

Killed—First Montana—Company K, Private Thomas Scallon.

Wounded—First South Dakota—Company E, Musician Van Hook, leg, severe.

Fifty-first Iowa—Company C. Corporal John Cutching, scalp, slight; E. Private Everett Bronson, abdomen, slight; H. Charles Bordea, heel, slight.

First Montana — Company K, Capt. Thomas S. Dillon, chest, severe; Privates Bruce Belknap, breast, slight; C, Fred W. Smith, ear, moderate.

BOLD BANK ROBBERY.

Burglars Open a Safe With Nitro-Glycerine and Get Away With All the Currency.

Dresden, Ohio, May 9. —The local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce was yesterday robbed of an amount estimated at $10,000. The janitor who takes care of the bank offices was the first to discover the robbery. The front doors of the bank were pried open. Two holes were bored in the vault door, a charge of nitro-glycerine was exploded and then the inner safe was attempted. The second door apparently yielded as quickly as the first and the burglars gathered up the currency and fled. The manager of the bank says they did not get more than $2,000. The police report that the amount of currency stolen was $10,000, and those who are in a position to know say the amount is not correct. There is no clue.

DE FREYCINET OUT.

Camille Krantz Is Now French Minister of War.

Paris, May 9.—M. Charles de Freycinet tendered his resignation to the premier of the portfolio of war. M. Dupuy immediately summoned a meeting of the cabinet, which De Freycinet did not attend. At the conclusion of the cabinet meeting the premier had a conference with the president with the result that M. Camille Krantz, minister of public works, was appointed to succeed M. De Freycinet and Senator Monestier was appointed to succeed M. Krantz.

The Buffalo's Quick Trip.

New York, May 9.—The cruiser Buffalo has arrived from Manila after a very quick run of forty-four days, which includes stops at Singapore, Port Said and Gibraltar. The Buffalo brought about 500 officers and men of Admiral Dewey's squadron who will be landed at the navy yard and discharged.

Steamer in Distress.

London, May 9. — A dispatch from Belfast says a steamer, apparently an Allan liner, has been sighted in a disabled condition eight miles east of Glenarm, about twenty-five miles north of Belfast.

Violent Wind Storm.

St. Louis, May 9. — A short violent wind storm swept through the western part of St. Louis and unroofed a number of houses, blew down a circus tent and delayed street car traffic about two hours.

THE MARKETS

Latest Quotations From Grain and Live Stock Centers.

St. Paul, May 9. — Wheat — No. 1 Northern, 71 @ 71 3-4c; No. 2 Northern, 69 1-2@70c. Corn — No. 3 yellow, 31 3-4@32c, No. 2, 31 1-2@31 3-4c. Oats —No. 3 white, 28@28 1-2c, No. 3, 27 1-2 @28c. Barley and Rye—Sample barley, 36@40c; No. 2 rye, 53c; No. 3 rye, 52c.

Duluth, May 9. — Wheat — Cash, No. 1 hard, 74 7-8c; No. 1 Northern, 71 7-8c; No. 2 Northern, 67 7-8c; No. 3 spring, 64 7-8c to arrive, No. 1 hard, 74 7-8c; No. 1 Northern, 71 7-8c; May, No. 1 hard, 74 7-8c; No. 1 Northern, 71 7-8c; July, No. 1 hard, 74 1-8c; No. 1 Northern, 72 1-8c; September, No. 1 Northern, 70 5-8c; oats, 27 1-2@28c; rye, 57 1-2c; barley, 38@40c.

Minneapolis, May 9. — Wheat — May opened at 70 1-2c and closed at 70 1-4c; July opened at 71 3-4c and closed at 71 1-2c; September opened at 69 5-8c and closed at 69 1-8c. On track—No. 1 hard, 71 3-4c; No. 1 Northern, 70 3-4c; No. 2 Northern, 69 1-4c.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 9. — Flour is firm. Wheat easier; No. 1 Northern, 73c; No. 2 Northern, 71 3-4@72c. Oats lower at 27 1-2@30c. Rye steady; No. 1, 60c. Barley lower; No. 2, 41 1-2@42c; sample, 37@41 1-2c.

Chicago, May 9. — Wheat — No. 2 red, 75@76c; No. 3, 71 1-2@74 1-2c; No. 2 hard winter, 69@72c; No. 3, 67@68c; No. 1 Northern spring, 72 1-2@73c; No. 2, 71@72 1-2c; No. 3, 68@71c. Corn—No. 2, 34 1-4c; No. 3, 33 1-4c. Oats—No. 2, 27 1-2@27 3-4c; No. 3, 27@27 1-2c.

Chicago, May 9. — Hogs — Light, $3.60@3.85; mixed, $3.60@3.85; heavy, $3.75@3.90; rough, $3.55@3.70. Cattle —Beeves, $4.25@5.50; cows and heifers, $1.90@2.75; Texas steers, $3.55@4.75; stockers and feeders, $3.50@5. Sheep—Natives, $4@5.25; lambs, $4.75@5.55.

Sioux City, Iowa, May 9. — Hogs — $3.47@3.60. Cattle — Beeves, $4@5; cows and bulls, mixed, $2@4.25; stockers and feeders, $3.50@4.65; calves and yearlings, $3.75@5.25.

South St. Paul, May 9.— Hogs — $3.25@3.65. Cattle — Calves, $4.50; stockers, $3@4.80; bulls, $2.85@3.05; heifers, $2.50@3.50; cows, $2@3.65; steers, $4@4.60.

CUBANS DESIRE ANNEXATION.

Planters and Business Men Generally Favor It.

Washington, May 9. — H. M. Curtis, of the insular commission, has returned to Washington after his visit with the other members of the commission to Porto Rico. Mr. Curtis stopped in Cuba and reports that he found a large majority of the responsible people of that island advocating annexation. Among those with whom he talked was ex-President Masso, who is avowedly favorable, to the policy of making the island a part of the United States. Gen. Masso told him that the planters and business men generally were favorable to immediate annexation, and, indeed, their feeling was unanimous, except in the case of some soldiers who were ambitious for a trial of independent government, and also in that of some of those who are now drawing rations from the United States. It is Mr. Curtis' understanding that a census will be ordered and that an election to decide the future of the island will soon follow.

MRS. WHITNEY DEAD.

Long Suffering of the Wife of the ex-Secretary of the Navy.

New York, May 9.—Mrs. William C. Whitney, wife of the former secretary of the navy, died here. The change for the worse in Mrs. Whitney's case came on Tuesday. She was thrown from her horse while fox hunting in Aiken, S. C., Feb. 21, 1898. She tried to pass under a low bridge, but struck her head on a beam and fell to the ground. She was unconscious when she was picked up. She was placed in a plaster cast and remained in it for a long time. Everything possible was done for her, but she remained absolutely helpless from the time of the accident until she died. She was completely paralyzed from the neck down.

SMALLPOX PATIENT ESCAPES.

Draws a Knife on the Pest House Keeper and Robs Him of His Valuables.

Jamesville, Wis., May 9. — A negro tramp who came here from Cincinnati and was placed in the pest house, being affected with smallpox, arose early yesterday, dressed himself in the clothes of George Phelps, the pest house keeper, drew a large knife on Phelps, and, threatening his life, compelled him to give up his watch and his money. The negro then made his escape and has not yet been captured. Phelps came down town in search of the police and there is much alarm felt over the posible spread of the disease.

FOUL PLAY SUSPECTED.

Sioux City Man Thought to Have Been Killed for His Money.

Sioux City, Iowa, May 9. — Friends here of Edward Hensel have written to Secretary of State Hay asking him to request an investigation by the Canadian authorities of the circumstances of Hensel's recent death at Atlin City. Dispatches said he shot himself, but as he had considerable money with him, owned valuable property here, was in good health and had done well in the Klondike, suicide seems unlikely. Foul play is suspected.

Holds the Insurance.

Bismarck, N. D., May 9. — The supreme court has denied the application for a writ of habeas corpus for the Minneapolis Guaranty company's agent, C. N. Hogan. The court holds that the company is an insurance company in effect and must comply with the state insurance laws.

Partner Withdraws.

Pierre, S. D., May 9.—A change has been made in the management of the Free Press. It has been operated since Jan. 1 by Hopkins & Georgia, under lease. Mr. Hopkins withdraws and Mr. Georgia will operate the plant.

Will Continue the Survey.

Dickinson, N. D., May 9. — Surveyor J. E. Tayley is fitting a crew of men for the purpose of making a careful survey of the land in eighty townships of Northern Pacific lands. It is a continuation of last year's work.

MINNESOTA ITEMS

The state grand lodge of Orangemen met last week in Minneapolis.

The appointment of Archibald Stevens as government tea inspector at St. Paul, has been announced.

Samuel Bradfin, founder of the town of Winthrop, died at the latter place, aged seventy-seven years.

Capt. Fred B. Wood of Austin has been selected as an additional major for the Second regiment M. N. G.

The Northwestern Swedish Methodist conference will be held at Red Wing Sept. 7.

Lightning struck in three places in Morristown recently, doing considerable damage, burning Edgar Denny's barn with hay and a road wagon.

James Taylor died at his residence at Henning of pneumonia, aged sixty-nine years. He was a veteran of the civil war.

The city council of Red Wing elected C. W. Lee chief of police; M. Catuel president of the council; W. E. Taylor city clerk; F. M. Wilson, attorney.

The fortieth annual convention of the Goodhue County Sunday School association will be held at Pine Island June 13 and 14.

W. S. Gladson, a brakeman on the St. Paul & Duluth, was seriously injured while coupling cars at Grantsburg. His left leg was broken and his hip crushed.

Prof. Darius Steward of Fargo has been elected superintendent of the Stillwater schools, succeeding Prof. Weld, who will be president of the Moorhead normal.

The missing daughter of the late A. N. Knudson has been located in Austin. She is the wife of Fred Welden. She has not heard of her father's death nor of the fortune awaiting her.

The residence of Mrs. Sophia Smith at Red Wing, occupied by J. S. Crooks and family, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday night. Nothing was saved. The loss is $2,000, with an insurance of $1,500.

The board of directors of the Lutheran Orphans' home at Vasa, held a meeting and awarded the contract for rebuilding the home, which was totally destroyed by fire last January, to C. L. Linden of Red Wing.

The school board of Eden Valley engaged the following teachers for the year: E. M. McCombs, principal; the Misses McLaren, Costello and Slow for the lower grades. The principal resigned.

The Farmers' Grain and Implement company is the name of a new organization, with a capital stock of $20,000, licensed to do business in Paynesville. Swarson Brothers are the principal owners.

William Charles and Jesse Clements, who pleaded guilty to grand larceny in the second degree at Redwood Falls, having stolen fifty bushels of wheat from a granary of J. H. Slite, was sentenced to Stillwater for two years and four months each.

Fire burned the roof off the First National Bank building at Duluth and gutted the offices on the sixth floor. The Duluth Telephone company's exchange was located there and was entirely destroyed. There will probably be no telephone service for at least ten days.

George Schmidt, formerly of the New Ulm Roller Mill company, and A. F. Cech of Young America, have purchased the Crown Roller mills and elevator at the latter place, and will hereafter conduct the same under the firm name of Schmidt & Cech.

R. L. Tieen, a wagonmaker of Kasson, was found in his barn, hanging from a cow stanchion. Despondency is assigned as the cause of the suicide. He was born in Bergen, Norway, and has lived in Kasson about twenty-five years. He was fifty-one years of age, and leaves a wife and four children.

A man went into the house of Chas. Wacholz, two miles west of Waconia, recently, bound Mrs. Wacholz and compelled her to show him over the house. He poured kerosene on her clothing and threatened to fire it if she did not divulge the hiding place of money, but he secured nothing.

Allen Odell, a farmer living three-quarters of a mile west of Smith Lake, was found dead, entangled in the running gear of his buggy in his barnyard. He was at Howard Lake, and no doubt fell into the running gear on his way home and his horse ran into the barnyard.

An inmate of the state reformatory at St. Cloud broke and ran from the guard under whose control he was working, into a field near the institution. A half-hour later he was recaptured a mile or two down the river. A guard on horseback had tracked and overtaken him.

Harry Halverson, a brakeman on the Great Northern, was instantly killed near Johnson & Wentworth's sawmills at Cloquet. The young man fell from the train on which he was braking while the cars were being switched in the lumber company's yards. He was twenty-two years of age and a resident of Cloquet.

A young Swede named Nels Aggerson was drowned in Fox lake, near Sherburn, while fishing from a boat in company with Bert Berchold and L. E. Olson. The boat sank, upsetting the occupants into the water. Berchold hung to the boat, Olson swam ashore, but Aggerson, being unable to swim, sank and did not rise.

The heaviest failure that has thus far been recorded in the United States court at Frazee is that of Ray W. Jones of Frazee, whose petition in bankruptcy places his liabilities at $200,765; assets, nothing. Mr. Jones has been interested in some large lumber deals in the vicinity of Thief River Falls.

At a meeting of the newly-elected city council of Preston, the matter of fixing the amount of license was determined, and the same raised from $600 to $700.

News has reached Little Falls of the destruction of the largest dam on Crow Wing river. It is supposed to have been destroyed by farmers living near by, with the aid of dynamite. There are about 35,000,000 feet of logs to come out of Shell river this year, and as the destroyed dam contained the greatest volume of water, and is most important it is doubtful if all the logs can be taken out this year.

Bank of St. Hilaire.

HANNAY & CO., Bankers.

Real Estate Loans.
Chattel Loans.
Foreign & Domestic Xchange
INSURANCE.
Collections a Specialty.

A General Banking Business Transacted.

St. Hilaire, Minn.

Livery and Feed Stable!

DAN PATERSON, Prop.

Dray in Connection.

The finest equipped turnouts in the northwest. Safe drivers and furnished at a moments notice at reasonable rates. Don't forget the place

BIG - RED - BARN

Located on the east side of Broadway nearly opposite Range & Post's Store

ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Says a modest exchange: There is a little matter which some of our subscribers have seemingly forgotten—some of them made us promises, but have not kept them. With us, it is a very important matter—it's necessary in our business. We are very modest and don't like to speak about it.

GET YOUR PICTURE
TAKEN BY
D. COLLINS
THE
Photograper.
ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

K. O. GIGSTAD,
DEALER IN
REAL ESTATE.
Collections a Specialty.
JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.
NOTARY PUBLIC.
ST. HILAIRE,
MINNESOTA.

DAY F. STACY, C. E.
DEPUTY
County Surveyor.
RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.
Drainage and Farm Surveys a Specialty

FIRE
INSURANCE
DO
YOU
NEED
SOME?

The Best is the Cheapest.

I have nine of the best companies doing business in the State

Call for rates.

H. E. IVES.

M. O. SORTEDAHL. E. O. STORAASLI

RED LAKE COUNTY
ABSTRACT OFFICE.

The only complete set of Abstract Records in Red Lake County

SORTEDAHL & STORAASLI,
ABSTRACTERS OF TITLE.

REAL ESTATE, LOANS & INSURANCE.

Steamship Tickets Sold

41 RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

The Spectator.

IVES & SOLL, Publishers.
JOHN J. SOLL, Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at St. Hilaire, Minn., as second-class mail matter.

Published every Wednesday at St. Hilaire, Red Lake County, Minn.

TERMS:—$1.50 Per Year in Advance.

Subscribers should notify the publisher on or before expiration of subscription if discontinuance is desired. Otherwise paper will be continued.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 1899.

Some Cases of Kleptomania.

Here are some striking cases of kleptomania: A series of thefts was committed in some of the best houses in New York. The culprit turned out to be a young woman connected by birth and marriage with the owners. Thereafter, when from a household which she had visited anything was missed, the owner would go to her, kiss her, and ask it back. It was quite a family matter.

At that time there was a journalist about town who was both a social favorite and an able man. He kept a bachelor establishment in which it was his amiable habit to entertain those who had entertained him. There of an afternoon or of an evening people would gather and take back from his drawing room things which he had taken from theirs. There was never a word exchanged on the subject. Perfect courtesy prevailed.

Then there was a young fellow whose name figures in the early history of the United States. At a dinner which he attended a ring handed about for inspection disappeared. So much was said that later he returned it with a statement to the effect that it had caught in the lining of his sleeve. A few days afterward we heard Talboys—dead since, but not forgotten—ordering a coat of a tailor whom we patronized in common and expressly stipulating that it should not have that kind of sleeve.

In each of these instances the case belonged not to jurisprudence, but to pathology. Kleptomania is a disease, like influenza, only, thank fortune, less catching.—Collier's Weekly.

A Good Story of Landseer.

Landseer, riding down Bond street, saw the following notice in a picture dealer's shop window, "A Fine Landseer on View Within." He went into the shop and asked to see the "fine Landseer." The dealer, who did not recognize him, proudly pointed out the work. It was rather an early one. The dealer was, of course, loud in its praise.

"And how much do you want for it?" said Landseer.

"Two thousand guineas, sir," was the reply.

"Two thousand guineas? That seems a long price for an early work."

"I could not take a shilling less," said the dealer. "He's gone, sir," touching his forehead significantly. "He's out of his mind. He'll never paint another."

"Is he indeed?" said Landseer. "I'm very sorry to hear that." And as he was coming away he noticed a large picture by Stanfield. "May I ask what you want for this Stanfield?"

"That, sir, is also 2,000 guineas."

"What!" said Landseer, touching his forehead and imitating the dealer's gesture. "Is Stanfield gone too?"

A Test of Nerve.

The midshipman had greater freedom under Captain Lyons, who, being a thorough seaman, made that acquirement his first object by placing his young officers in positions of responsibility. He made his midshipmen take charge of the watch night and day. I had then been only four years in the service. One night the weather looked very threatening, and we had royals set, so I went down to the captain and asked whether I should shorten sail. He turned round in his cot and said, "Wait till it comes."

I went on deck, and, knowing what he would say if any spars were lost, I commenced taking in sail. We were struck by a squall so fierce that I had to put the helm up and get the ship before the wind to get the canvas in. When Captain Lyons came on deck and saw what I had done, he gave me great credit, laughed and said he had tried my nerve and sailoring. When I passed for lieutenant, he gave me a certificate which modesty forbids me to publish.—"Life of Vice Admiral Lord Lyons," by Captain Wilmot.

The Popping Stone.

"The popping stone" marks the spot where Sir Walter Scott asked Miss Carpenter to marry him. It is situated in the beautiful valley of the Irthing, at Gilsland, an inland watering place near Carlisle. The popping stone is visited by many thousands during the summer months, and, it is said, many a laggard lover has had his courage screwed up to popping point at this romantic spot.

In the immediate neighborhood may also be seen "Mumps Ha," which Scott immortalized in "Guy Mannering," while a little farther afield the Roman wall and Lanercost priory prove attractions to visitors to Gilsland.

An Insulting Programme.

A lady's maid who had been to a servants' ball came back before the evening was half over and in tears. Her mistress inquired the cause.

"I was grossly insulted, ma'am, by a young man."

"Well, what did he do?"

"Well, ma'am, he asked me to go down to supper with him, and when we had finished he said, 'Is your programme full?'"—London Chronicle.

Diplomacy.

"And so Fannie Perkleigh is going to marry that old, decrepit fellow just because he has a lot of money?"

"Oh, no, that isn't the reason. She's going to marry him because her parents, by throwing out clever hints, succeeded in making her believe they didn't want her to have him."—Chicago News.

It Is Pathetic, Nevertheless.

The headline "Died Penniless" loses nine-tenths of its pathos when one reflects that a minute after death the victim of such sad circumstances is just as well off as if he had died in possession of a hundred millions.—Indianapolis Journal.

A Consoling Thought.

While most persons come into the world crying, very few of them weep when they are leaving it.—Boston Transcript.

Making a Football.

A football requires a vast amount of work before it is ready for kicking over the gridiron.

The balls are covered with cowhide which must have remained in the tan pits a year or more. The hides are from 7 to 8 feet long, 6 to 7 feet wide and before splitting weigh from 25 to 30 pounds. The skin has to be split into two layers. The part to be used is soaked for a few days in a cleansing preparation. It is "slecked" out to make it firm. It is fed and cut into shape. The strips are stitched, always by hand. The bladder is or should be of the finest Para rubber, and undergoes perhaps more processes than the cow hide. It is as necessary to the football as pneumatic tires are to the cycle: in fact, even more so, since no effective substitute for an air bladder has yet been discovered. The bladder is of immense strength, and is fitted with a nozzle through which the air is injected. These bladders are an expensive item and represent a considerable portion of the cost of manufacture. The bladder is inserted through the unlaced slit, and the next process is to blow it up.

The rubber nozzle fits over a metal tube on the machine. A few turns of the hand wheel and the ball is inflated. It is now laced up and handed over to the shaper, who pats down any unevenness in the seams.

The Truthful Marksman.

An extraordinary shooting adventure is recorded by A. L. Butler of the State museum, Selangor, Malaya. One day in last July a Malay woodcutter went out into the jungle to cut fuel, taking with him an old single barreled, muzzle loading gun loaded with the rather unscientific charge of a bullet and four buckshot. Moving quietly through the jungle, he suddenly came upon a tiger feeding on the carcass of a sambhur, and with touching confidence in his weapon fired at a distance of 20 paces. The tiger rolled over, and when the Malay cautiously approached he found not one dead tiger, but two, the second having been hidden from the sportsman, though only a few feet distant from the animal he fired at.

Mr. Butler, who made a post mortem examination of the tigers after they had been skinned, found that in each case a single buckshot had gone to the heart. One had also an insignificant wound on the head from another pellet. "For a really appalling fluke," as Mr. Butler says, this achievement of the Malay woodcutter will be hard to beat. It certainly is not a performance any sane white man will try to parallel, much less to eclipse.

Old Love and New Repartee.

People are smiling at the little passage at arms which took place between two young women at a luncheon the other day. One of the women is a beautiful blond, a bride, and she comes from the south. She met the other woman first at the aforesaid luncheon and, shaking hands in her characteristic, cordial way, said:

"I'm so glad to meet you! You have afforded me so much amusement."

"Amusement?" said the other.

"Oh, yes!" went on the bride. "I've been through my husband's desk, and I've read all his old love letters. I found several very warm and affectionate letters from you, and I enjoyed reading them ever so much."

"I'm so glad you enjoyed them!" purred the other. "But do come to see me very soon. I have the answers to all those letters, and you might like to read them. Mr. X.'s letters are ever so much warmer and more affectionate than those I wrote him. I know you'll enjoy reading them ever so much more than you did mine."—New York World.

A Natural Mistake.

"I went to Paris," says an Englishman, "staying at the Hotel de Lille et d'Albion. Never having been before, I lost my way and could not find my hotel again, because I neither spoke nor understand French. Thinking some of the people I met might understand written English, I went into a stationer's shop and bought a large card, on which I wrote, 'Please tell me the way to the Hotel de Lille et d'Albion.'

"Again I sallied out, showing my card to several, but still to no purpose. At last a man read it and silently beckoned me to follow him, which I did as silently for a mile or more. Then he pointed, still silently, to the sign of the hotel, and when I saw it I broke the silence by exclaiming, 'Thank you.'

"'What,' he replied in amazement, 'are you an Englishman? So am I, but I took you to be deaf and dumb.'"

The Power of Money.

"What," said the visitor to the village of his childhood, "what's become of the one boy I hated—Willie Hawker, the sneak? In prison, no doubt. He bore that fate on his face."

"Hush," said the old inhabitant. "He is now Mr. Hawker, the famous millionaire."

"What!" cried the visitor. "My dear schoolfellow a millionaire? I must call upon him and revive old friendship."

A Wise Course.

Blimbus—Yes, I always make it a rule to be prepared for the worst.

Hamby—If I were in your place, I'd do the same thing. There's no telling when that stupid office boy of yours may go to sleep and let some collector crowd his way in.—Chicago News.

There are 26 pencil works in Bavaria, of which 23 are in Nuremberg, the great European center of the lead pencil trade. These factories employ from 8,000 to 10,000 workers and produce 4,300,000 lead and colored chalk pencils every week.

The habit of reading at the dining table is strongly condemned by L'Hygiene Moderne, though it thinks looking over the paper at breakfast is comparatively harmless.

The Army and Navy.

Have covered themselves with glory during the war. The Army and Navy vest pocket memorandum book published by the Northern Pacific is a compact digest of information relative to the navies and armies of Spain and the United States at the beginning of the war. It has a map of Cuba, illustrations of navel ships, glossary of navy and army terms, translation of Spanish words, etc. Send ten cents to Chas. S. Fee, general passenger agent, N. P. R., St. Paul, Minn., for a copy.

HE HAD A BAD HABIT.

And It Made Him a Poor Insurance Risk in Kentucky.

The manager of a life insurance company had the floor.

"Life insurance companies," he was saying, "are as particular about the people they already have on their lists as they are about getting them on. In the beginning. They are rich, of course, but they are no more anxious to take in a man who will die of disease within the first year or two than they are, to take in a perfectly healthy man and have him hazard his life by taking personal risks in dangerous pursuits or by travel in unhealthy countries.

"I remember a funny instance that occurred once while I was living in New England. One of our $10,000 men had a way of calling a man a liar in the most careless and indiscriminate manner and with only the merest or no provocation. One day he was in our office and casually mentioned the fact that he was going to make a trip to Kentucky.

"'When?' inquired the manager alertly.

"'Next week.'

"'On business or pleasure?'

"'Going to buy a pair of horses.'

"'Um—er—er!' hesitated the manager. 'Before you start I wish you would stop in and see me.'

"'What for? Want me to buy a horse for you?'

"'No: I want to arrange about your policy.'

"'What do you want to arrange about it? Isn't it all right?'

"'Yes, as long as you stay in this country. But if you go down to Kentucky we'll have to advance the rate until you come back.'

"'Well, what in ——,' began the policy holder hotly, when the manager interrupted him.

"'Don't fly the track, my dear fellow,' he said gently. 'It's all right here and the rate is satisfactory to me: but, by Jove, we can't give you the same rate and let you go to Kentucky and call men liars like you do in this section. Not much! We haven't got $10,000 policies to give away like that, and you oughtn't to expect it.'"—Washington Star.

—Dan Patterson has again taken the contract of furnishing short mill wood for this year and anyone in need of any can leave orders at his livery barn or at the office of the St. Hilaire Lumber Co.

—It is better than ready money because it cures rheumatism, constipation sick headache, indigestion. Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure.

What Love Is.

Miss Sophie Loury employs an exceedingly communicative old colored man to attend to odd jobs about her studio now and then, and his sayings have become proverbial among Miss Loury's familiars. He came to work one day not long ago very full of the goings on of a young man be knew, who was in love.

"But what is love, uncle?" asked Miss Loury.

Uncle wagged his head wisely.

"Miss Sophie," he said solemnly, "love is dizziness, muzziness and inattention to business."

And really I don't know of any definition more concise, complete and altogether adequate than that.—Washington Post.

Study It Out.

Here is a highly interesting paradox, which may amuse or bewilder, as the case may be. It is supposed to have been invented by Socrates: A. says that all Athenians are liars. A. is an Athenian and, therefore a liar. Therefore his statement that all Athenians are liars is not true, and consequently all Athenians tell the truth. A. is an Athenian, and hence tells the truth. Wherefore his statement that all Athenians are liars is true. Therefore he is a liar and his statement false, and so on.

Force of Waves.

In a high gale mile long waves, 200 feet from trough to trough and 40 feet high, roar along the sea at the rate of 20 miles an hour, with a weight of 00,000 pounds for every foot of their length.

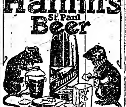
Upon these a 600 foot ship, such as the New York or the Paris, will rise like a floating leaf, but if the ill fated ship drifts upon a lee shore blows of 100,000 tons, delivered with remorseless fury, crash it like an eggshell.

A Matrimonial Musing.

The average young man thinks he is in a position to marry if he has $350 in the bank and a steady job. Hope is a great factor in a love affair. After the man is 40 he wonders how he ever did it, and when he eats pie at night and has the nightmare he always imagines that he is marrying again on $350.—Atchison Globe.

By special arrangement with the publishers we are enabled to give FARM, STOCK AND HOME one year and the ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR for $1.25.

For A Quiet Supper Have Hamm's St. Paul Beer



1ST RAT —What beer does the family use?
2D RAT —Hamm's, of course, or they would lose ME!

Theo. Hamm Brewing Co.
Tel. 972 ~ St. Paul, Minn.
Agents Everywhere.

WANTED-BRAINS

Can you think of something to patent? Protect your ideas; they may bring you wealth. Before applying for patent, get our liberal offer. Inventor's Assistant and handsome views of Washington sent Free on request. Be sure to write to-day COPP & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C.

List of Town Clerks.

Names	Township	Postoffice
Olof Larson	Numedal	Viking
C. E. Purdy	North	Thief River Falls
John E. Peterson	Bray	Dray
N. K. Anderson	Sanders	St. Hilaire
F. T. Satre	Rocksbury	T. R. Falls
O. T. Romsos	Polk Centre	Wylie
P. A. Eckstrom	Black River	Wylie
A. S. Anderson	River Falls	St. Hilaire
Ole J. Johnson	Wyandotte	"
A. D. Berry	Louisville	Huot
Ildaige Baril	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
Chas. E. Asp	Emardville	Lost
Edward Havik	Equality	Gril
Moses Ducharme	Lake Pleasant	R. L. F.
Edonor Perusse	Terrebonne	Terrebonne
J. D. Herbert	Poplar River	Brooks
Louis Doucet	Lambert	Lambert
J. L. Johnson	St. Hilaire	St. Hilaire
Lars Backe	Thief River F	T. R. F.
A. P. Toupin	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
H. D. Baaryson	Norden	T. R. Falls
Olof Tande	Garnes	Garnes

U. S. LAND OFFICE.
Crookston, Minn., April 14, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of her claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 1st 1899, viz:

Anna Sundahl, widow of Karl Sundahl, deceased. H. E. 11373, for the se¼, sec. 8, twp. 154 N. of range 42 W.

She names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—Aasine Olson, John P. Sandberg, Anton Peterson and Simon E. Ahlberg, all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

33-43 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

U. S. LAND OFFICE.
Crookston, Minn., April 11, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of her claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 1st 1899, viz:

Aasine Olson. H. E. No. 11974, for the nw¼, sec. 9, twp. 152 N. of range 42 W.

She names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—Anna Sundahl, John P. Sandberg, Anton Peterson and Simon E. Ahlberg, all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

33-43 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

U. S. LAND OFFICE.
Crookston, Minn., April 11, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 1st 1899, viz:

John P Sandberg. H. E. 15018, for the ne¼ sw¼, sec. 12, twp. 152 N. of range 43 W.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—Anna Sundahl, Aasine Olson, Anton Peterson and Simon E Ahlberg all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

33-43 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

U. S. LAND OFFICE.
Crookston, Minn., April 21, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 20th 1899, viz:

Joseph Anderson. H. E. 14951, for the ne¼ sec. 31, twp. 152 N. of range 42 W.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—H. A. Johnson, John Albin, E. P. Strober, and Charles Erickson, all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

39-41 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

Say?

If your wheel needs enameling, cleaning, new tires or any other repairing give us a trial. All work done promptly and satisfactory. Prices reasonable.

F. J. TOUSLEY & CO.

35 RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

Whereas, default has been made in the condition of a certain mortgage, made, executed and delivered by Kate Wilmes and Michael Wilmes, her husband, mortgagors, to Anna Ericsson, mortgagee, dated the [illegible] day of October 1896 and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Polk County, Minnesota on the 31st day of October 1896, at four o'clock p. m. in Book 28 of Mortgages, on page 153, thereof conveying and mortgaging lands and premises therein described as follows: All those tracts or parcels of land lying and being in the county of Polk and State of Minnesota, described as follows: to-wit; Lots numbered 23 and 24, Block 7, in Champagne and Dow's addition to the village, now city of Red Lake Falls, according to the plat thereof on file and of record in the office of the register of Deeds in and for the county of Polk and State of Minnesota; and

Whereas, that part of said Polk county in which said land and premises were at the time said mortgage was executed and recorded as aforesaid, has since been duly set off, organized and created as Red Lake county in the State of Minnesota, and the aforesaid record of said mortgage has been duly transcribed to and recorded in book 28 of Mortgages, on page 21 thereof in said Red Lake county, Minnesota and said lands and premises above described are now situated in said Red Lake county; and

Whereas, said mortgagors, covenanted in and by said mortgage deed to pay all taxes which were then or might be thereafter assessed upon the said premises and in case of their failure to do so that said mortgagee might pay the same and that said taxes so paid would become a part of the debt secured by said mortgage. Said mortgagors further covenanted that in case of default in any of the conditions of said mortgage therein contained said mortgagee was duly authorized and empowered to consider the whole sum secured by said mortgage as immediately due and payable.

That default has been made in the condition of said mortgage in this—that the mortgagors have neglected and refused to pay the taxes on said above described premises for the years 1896, 1897 and 1898 and that there is now $179.65 delinquent taxes against said above described premises. That said mortgagee has elected to and does hereby declare and consider the whole sum secured by said mortgage as now due and payable, being the sum of one thousand one hundred and twenty-nine dollars and ninety-five cents ($1,129.95), the amount due and claimed to be due upon said mortgage at this date. And no action or proceeding at law or in equity has been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained and therewith recorded and pursuant to the statutes in such cases made and provided said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale of the above described mortgaged premises by the Sheriff of said Red Lake county at public auction, at the front door of the Court House in the city of Red Lake Falls, in the county of Red Lake and State of Minnesota, on Saturday the 29th day of April, A. D. 1899, at ten o'clock in the Forenoon to satisfy the amount which will then be due on said mortgage and the debt secured thereby, together with the cost and charges of said foreclosure, including the sum of Fifty dollars ($50.00) Attorney's fees as stipulated in said mortgage.

Dated this 13th day of March A. D. 1899.

ANNA ERICSSON, Mortgagee.

F. A. GRADY,
Attorney for Mortgagee,
Red Lake Falls, Minn. 33-41

At the request of the Mortgagee the foregoing sale is adjourned to May 13th, A. D. 1899, at ten o'clock a. m. and will be made at the place specified in the foregoing notice.

Dated April 29th, 1899.

CHARLES SAMPSON,
Sheriff in and for Red Lake Co., Minn.

UNION MEAT MARKET
P. O. MOSLETH, PROP.

Choicest line of Fresh and Salted meats in the city.
Highest market price paid for Stock, Poultry and Hides.

—The SPECTATOR is the official paper of the village and county. Now is the time to subscribe. $1.00 per year if paid in advance—otherwise $1.50.

Spring Suits.

STYLISH SPRING SUITS FOR MEN AND BOYS.

The Greatwestren own magnificent display of men's spring suits, and boys' choicest clothing is now ready, at a saving of fully 25 per cent.

Greatwestern Clothing House.

Cosmopolitan and Spectator.

To secure for you the best and most interesting of the great illustrated magazines at the lowest possible price has been the aim of the editor of this journal. That we have succeeded we will leave our readers to judge. A special contract recently entered into with The Cosmopolitan which seeks to become better known in this neighborhood, has enabled us to offer you a year's subscription to the greatest of the illustrated magazines together with a year's subscription to this journal, both together one year for only $1.50.

SOME
OF OUR CLUB RATES
WITH
THE

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR

OUR TERMS ARE STRICTLY CASH
IN ADVANCE

Farm, Stock & Home.

50 cents per year. Read by a greater number of Northwestern farmers than any other agricultural paper published. Are you among the number? If not, Why not? Every department in the hands of a specialist. Sheep talks department. A department where all kinds of questions are answered for the benefit of subscribers, is a leading feature of the paper. No northwestern farmers list of papers is complete without it. This paper and Spectator one year for $1.25.

Cosmopolitan,
New York World
and
The Spectator.

You wish to keep in touch with metropolitan life, through the medium of a great daily. The Thrice-a-Week World of New York is the equivalent of a daily and is a marvellous fund of knowledge concerning the happenings of the day. Each issue contains six to eight pages of eight columns each or over eight thousand columns of reading matter a year. In former days this would have cost you probably as much as $6.00 a year, by itself. Now you can have it, if you wish, in connection with your home paper and The Cosmopolitan Magazine. Three together one year for only $2.25

OFFICIAL
PAPER
OF
ST. HILAIRE
AND RED LAKE COUNTY.

IF YOU INTEND TO Buy
Furniture

Come and look our assortment over. We carry everything in the Furniture line including picture frames and musical instruments. Prices reasonable.

Holmes Furniture Co.

FARMS
LOANS
ABSTRACTS

97 Farms for sale or rent in Red Lake County.

SWANSON & GRADY
Official Abstractors.
RED LAKE FALLS, - - MINN.

"Money to patent good ideas may be secured by our aid, address, The Patent Record Baltimore, Md." 37

CUSTOM WORK.

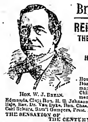
JUST LOOK AT THESE PRICES.

Roll Carding—per pound	5 cts
Spinning Single Yarn—per pound	15 c
Stocking Yarn—2 or 3 ply, per pound	20 c

LITCHFIELD WOOLEN MILLS.
LITCHFIELD, MINN.

—Every farmer who writes a letter occasionally should get envelopes with his name and address printed in the corner. We will furnish 100 of the best quality printed in any style for the small sum of 75 cts. Send in your order.

Bryan's New Book

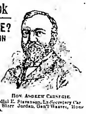


HON. W. J. BRYAN.

REPUBLIC OR EMPIRE?
THE PHILIPPINE QUESTION
BY
HON. WILLIAM J. BRYAN

With Supplementary Chapters from

Hon. Andrew Carnegie, Senators Hoar, Vest, Allen, White, Gorman, Bacon, Mason, Daniel, Chilton, Butler, McLaurin, Tillmen, Money, Turner, Teller, Edmonds, Clay; Hon. H. U. Johnson, Hon. Chas. A. Towne, Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, Ex-Secretary Carlisle, Rev. Dr. Van Dyke, Hon. Chas. Francis Adams, Prof. David Starr Jordan, Gen'l Weaver, Hon. Carl Schurz, Sam'l Gompers, Prest. Am. Fed. of Labor, and others.



HON. ANDREW CARNEGIE.

THE SENSATION OF THE CENTURY. IMPERIALISM AND ABSOLUTISM DENOUNCED.

Territorial Expansion denominated, "THE POOR MAN'S LOAD," and opposed to the Constitution of the United States, the Declaration of Independence, and all the most sacred doctrines of our Republic as handed down to us by our Fathers.

THE GOSPEL OF A HIGHER CIVILIZATION AND BROADER LIBERTY.
THE ONLY BOOK ON THE SUBJECT.

AGENTS WANTED.

It is profusely illustrated, giving beautiful half tone portraits of Mr. Bryan and the other contributors, also scenes of thrilling interest, showing the exact conditions and customs in the Philippines. Nothing like it before attempted in book publishing. A very bonanza for agents. It cannot be bought at book-stores, it cannot be furnished by any other house. We are the sole Official Publishers.

The first Edition, 100,000 copies. A large octavo book, beautiful new type.

WE PAY FREIGHT on each order amounting to 50 books at one time, when cash accompanies order.

THE OUTFIT IS FREE. We make no charge for the elegant, complete Prospectus Outfit, with blanks, etc., but as each Outfit costs us a lot of money, in order to protect ourselves against many who would impose upon us by sending for Outfit with no intention of working but merely out of idle curiosity, we require the applicant, as a guarantee of good faith on his part, to send us 25c to cover postage and wrapping, this amount to be refunded to agent upon our receipt of first order for 10 books.

Best Cloth Binding	$1.50
Best Half Russia Binding, with marbled edges	2.25
Best Full Russia Binding, with gold edges	3.00

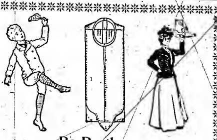
Write for our Unparalleled Terms to Agents. Address—

THE INDEPENDENCE COMPANY, Publishers,
FRANKLIN BUILDING, CHICAGO.

Cigars.

BRINK BROTHERS
DEALERS IN
Wines & Liquors
Minneapolis Beer.

Corner Broadway and 3rd St. St. Hilaire, Minnesota



Be Ready For Spring When it Comes

A full line of spring merchandise just arrived. We invite inspection of these goods. A splendid line of Skirts and Waists, both in ready-made and patterns at prices which are right. I shall not attempt to describe the line; only urge you most cordially to see the goods before you buy.

E. M. HOFF.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

I. O. O. F. St. Hilaire Lodge No. 147.—Meets at their hall every Thursday evening, eight o'clock. Visiting members are cordially invited to attend.
E. M. Hoff, N. G.
J. H. Johnson, Secretary.

M. W. A. CAMP 3550—Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every second and fourth Tuesday of every month. Visiting neighbors are cordially invited to attend.
Leonard Holmes, V. C.
Jas. M. Hall, Clerk.

R. N. A.—WILD ROSE CAMP—No. 834 Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every Friday evening. Visiting members of the order are cordially invited to attend.
Mrs. L. N. Nolan, Oracle.
Miss T. Hughes, Recorder.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Auditor	Adam Zeh
Treasurer	O. T. Tandberg
Register of Deeds	Samuel Gibeau
Sheriff	Chas. Sampson
Attorney	Van B. Brown
Judge of Probate	J. T. Knight
Clerk of Court	Joe Perrault
Supt. of Schools	Frank Jeffers
Coroner	Joe Delaire
Court Commissioner	J. C. Mathews
Surveyor	P. O. Hagglund
Commissioner 1st Dist.	J. Suter
Commissioner 2nd Dist.	W. L. C. Demsun
Commissioner 3rd Dist.	O. J. Johnsen
Commissioner 4th Dist.	Karl M. Hanson
Commissioner 5th Dist.	J. B. Herbert

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

E. J. Holmes	President
L. Johnson	Recorder
D. Patterson J. C. Dahl W. A. Sorsoleil	Councilmen
L. Holmes	Treasurer

Barber Shop

—AND—

BATH ROOMS.

—o—

Haircutting, Shaving, Shampooing.

Razors honed and put in first-class order.

J. H. PENNO, Prop.

ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Henry Francis, M.D, C.M.

Member College Physicians and Surgeons, Ontario. : : :

Thief River Falls, Minnesota.

"THE IDEAL" Lunch Room.

In the Paradis Building is noted for its Convenience.

FIRST-CLASS MEALS.

PROMPT SERVICE.

☞ Open until one o'clock A. M.

A. F. LANG, Prop.

DR. BLOMBURGH.

SCANDINAVIAN

Physician & Surgeon.

☞ Calls attended day or night. ☜

Teeth Extracted.

Office and residence opposite American Hotel. St. Hilaire, Minn.

2nd ☞ STORE

(Second Hand Store.)

Everything in this line now on hand. Special bargains given. If you have anything to dispose of give me a call. Repairing of harness also done.

C. A. SKEIE.

St. Hilaire, Minnesota

Blacksmith!

Horse-shoeing, repairing of all kinds of Farm Implements, Machinery, etc. All work promptly attended to and done in a satisfactory manner.

J. C. DAHL.

St. Hilaire, Minnesota

PATENTS

Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained and all Patent business conducted for Moderate Fees. Our Office is opposite U. S. Patent Office and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.

Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.

A Pamphlet, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,

C. A. SNOW & CO.

Opp. Patent Office, Washington, D. C.

Market Report.—To-Day.

Wheat No. 1	61	Oats	20
Wheat No. 2	59	Barley	28
Wheat No. 3	57	Flax	96
Eggs (per doz.)	12½	Butter (per lb)	10

LOCAL NEWS.

Wall paper and calcimine at the New Drug store.

Preaching on Sunday in the M. E. church at 11 a. m.

A great many "snake" pickerel are being caught now days.

Several new residences have been built already this spring.

Try a lunch, a meal or a weeks board at the Ideal Lunch Room.

A few bleachers benches should be put up at the ball grounds.

5 cents will buy two packages of garden seeds at M. A. Hall's.

—Go to the New Drug Store for your Stationery and School supplies.

Prof. J. Q. Adams will be here the 10th 11th and 12th of this month.

I. Dahleen is a busy man now days making screen doors and windows.

Patronize home industry by buying your wall paper at the New Drug store.

—For cuts and sores there is nothing better than the Imperial Carbolic salve.

A Knights of Pythias lodge will be instituted at Ada some time next month.

Mike Fricker has just received a carload of corn which he will grind into all kinds of feed.

Mike Rosenberg spent Sunday at Crookston visiting with his brother Hen and wife.

Miss Mary Quande returned Saturday from a short visit with her parents at Thief River Falls.

Dr. Thomas, the Crookston dentist was here the first two days of the week on professional business.

The Burkee Bros. went to Crookston Monday for the third time to get untangled in legal matters.

Miss E. Brink of Minneapolis arrived last week and will remain for some time visiting with relatives.

A. R. Mattes, cashier of the St. Hilaire Lumber Company was an over Sunday visitor at Crookston.

Attorney Lee of Thief River Falls was here the first of the week enroute to Crookston on legal business.

May 17th the band boys will give a dance at the dining room of the Hotel St. Hilaire. You are all invited.

We see by the Cass Lake Times that J. C. Battle, a former St. Hilairite, left there last week for British Columbia.

To cure a cough in one day take the Imperial cough syrup. Guaranteed to cure. For sale at the new Drug Store.

Arno Mereen, superintendent of the St. Hilaire Lumber Co., returned Tuesday from his sad mission at Minneapolis.

Dr. Forbes will lecture at this place on the evening of May 24th. Subject: The mistakes of the Devil and some other people.

The best of work is being turned out by the new St. Hilaire steam laundry. Show your appreciation by patronizing home industry.

The base ball boys are patiently awaiting the arrival of our new road grader which will be used for leveling off the ball grounds.

A great many complaints have been lodged about shooting firearms within the village limits and a law will be strictly enforced from now on.

L. T. Bergh, general collection agent for the Deering Machine Co., in this district left Monday for Red Lake Falls where he will remain this week.

L. K. Kolstad has been confined to his bed since last week and at one time was critically ill but we are pleased to state that he is now on the mend.

A petition was circulated last week to raise money for fixing up the base ball grounds and getting other material. It was well signed and the boys feel encouraged.

The Chronicle says Climax is a bet show town. The Colored Serenaders were there all last week for reasons they were short of funds and the walking slightly damp.

The disagreeable weather of the past two weeks was responsible of the organization known as the Storm de Club. And they are bound under oath not to work in the rain.

Messrs. Nolan, Steen, Kelley, Kohler Sargent and Holtz were down from the upper Falls Thursday evening. Most of them came down on purpose to attend the Odd Fellows meeting.

Mr. Arne Mereen wishes to extend his sincere thanks to the business men of St. Hilaire and the employees at the mill for kind remembrances at the death and funeral of his beloved wife.

Being so close to the cedar districts would it not be a good idea to pave Broadway and Second streets with cedar blocks? This matter should be brought up at the next council meeting.

Owing to the lateness of the season for seeding wheat, a great many farmers dispensed with going to religious services Sunday and worked from early morning to late in the evening putting in the wheat crop.

J. G. Brady the flour and feed store man of Wylie has branched out in business and now handles all kinds of lumber and building material. He was up Friday transacting business with the St. Hilaire Lumber Company.

H. E. Ives returned yesterday from a weeks trip at Cass Lake and the twin cities. He left word at the former place that whenever the fish commenced to bite good and fast to let him know and he will go back again.

The band boys have decided to give another dance at the dining room of the St. Hilaire on the evening of May 17th. This day is commonly known as the Norwegian Fourth of July in this country and is celebrated in all Scandinavian communities.

The "nigger" at the mill refused to work Monday afternoon and in consequence the mill was compelled to shut down. However, the machinist, knowing how to handle such things had the "kicker" in good running order Tuesday.

A. Dainard has opened up in the bakery business and the product is on sale at McConnell's fruit and confectionery store. After the roads dry up so vihicles can be used he intends to put a wagon into use for free delivery of fresh bread.

H. E. Ives one of the heavy-weight editors of the heavy-weight publishers of the St. Hilaire Spectator, paid our town a visit Tuesday leaving on the noon train to-day for Duluth and the twin cities. Harry is a son of Frank Ives, of the Times.—Cass Lake Times.

The Roseau Plaindealer will move its plant to Warroad, a lively little town on the banks of the Lake of the Woods and the only natural harbor on the American side of the lake. Warroad will make a good town and especially so if this line of the G. N. taps that point.

—Dr. Thomas is an up-to-date in all the different branches in his profession. Remember the dates, June 5th and 6th.

How many of you have preserved the law supplement sent out last week? You should study the work of our law makers over carefully and when they come around two years from now you will be familiar with what they are talking about and know whether they are telling the truth or otherwise.

Parties from this village are making preparations now for an outing at Red Lake. They will charter one of the steamers at Thief River Falls to be used exclusively by the party consisting of about twenty people. They expect to make the trip the early part of June and be gone about eight days.

From the way the Norman County Herald and Index (both Ada papers) doubled back on advertisements last week some of the printers must have been taken down with the spring fever or went out on a strike. By reading both papers and the way they roast each other, one would naturally think they were short on "brotherly love."—but its different.

Ray W. Jones, of Frazee City, has filed a petition in bankruptcy placing his liabilities at $200,000 assets nothing. This is the same Ray Jones who operated quite extensively at Thief River Falls five years ago, and who united with the people of that place in making lumbering operations very expensive for the Meehan brothers.—Crookston Times.

The Greatwestern clothing house is closing out their entire stock of ladies children and Misses shoes at cost price to make room for more spring goods.

A great many of our exchanges have reprinted our little local about the "seven ministers of the gospel taking a fall out of secret societies." Here is a specimen of a comment made by the Roseau Plaindealer:—"There was a time when ministers of the gospel were thankful to be allowed to preach the salvation of Christ, but now they would assume to condemn every thing that does not pour lucre into the church officers—if it does they can manage to justify it.

Hicks predicted rain from the 2nd to the 4th of May; warmer from the 7th to 19th with storms on the 8th and 9th. A storm period on the 12th lasting until the 15th will bring still warmer weather with storms on the 18th and 19th. More violating storms will occur from the 23rd to the 27th. There will be much rain during the month. When storms break up look out for a cold wave and frost. If you believe in Hicks keep the above in mind; if not clip this out and see how far off he is.

The Best Cough Remedy on Earth.

Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, Consumption Cure, cures a cold in 24 hours if taken in time and does not stop a cough in One Minute by paralyzing the throat, but it cures the disease and leaves the throat and lungs healthy and strong. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

Death of Mrs. S. M. Dainard.

Mrs. Nettie Dainard, wife of Samuel M. Dainard of this village died last Friday forenoon at 10:30 o'clock. For sometime it had been known that that dreaded disease, consumption had laid hold of her and for the past four months she was a patient sufferer. Funeral services were held at the Norwegian Luthern church Sunday afternoon conducted by Rev. H. Logan after which the remains were laid to rest in the Lutheran Cemetery east of town. She leaves a husband and five children to mourn her loss. The Spectator joins in extending sympathy to the bereaved family.

Nap. Bray, formerly of Red Lake Falls but now with the C. O. D. store at Crookston is in the village to-day.

Ladies' Aid Society.

The Ladies, Aid Society of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. S. Harris on Thursday afternoon May 18th. Other ladies interested in the work are kindly invited to attend.

Mrs. J. A. Dainard,
Secretary.

Kill all the Pickeral.

Among the amendments to the game and fish law passed by the legislature just adjourned, that making it lawful to take pickeral, red horse and suckers at any time of the year, with either hook or spear, is especially to be commended. Heretofore the provision forbidding the spearing of fish through the ice in winter was virtually a law to protect pickeral, for the pickeral are the most active fish during the winter months, and it is they who fall most frequently victims to the fisherman's spear. The pickeral is a cormorant fish, stronger and more active in the water than any finer and gamier kinds and it is claimed that they destroy the young of the latter and thus keep down the increase of the more desirable fish. It is asserted that a fullgrown pickeral will destroy more bass, croppies, etc., in the course of a year than will an army of amateur fishermen, who are given a full license with hook and line. The red horse and sucker are a coarse and undesirable fish, and the sooner our lakes and streams are depopulated of them the better.

With the pickeral out of the way, it will be possible for the fish commission to stock our Minnesota waters with the varities of fish that will delight the sportsman and the epicure. In permitting spearing through the ice in winter it is quite possible that some bass will be destroyed, but not many, as the bass are sluggish and inclined to hibernate during the winter, and a fisherman cannot secure many of them, even if he is dishonest enough to take them in violation of law.

Another advantage of permitting spearing through the ice in winter is that it will lead to the opening of the air holes through the ice by means of which millions of fish of all varieties will be saved from suffocation in cold weather.—Minneapolis Tribune.

—La Grippe is again ephlemic and every precaution should be taken to avoid it. When everything else fails, try a bottle of the Imperial Sarsaparilla it will cure Grippe in all its forms. Free samples at the New Drug Store.

Borrowing a neighbors newspaper reminds one of a man asking another for his pipe after he furnishes the tobacco and match. Don't do it; its a bad practice and awful small business.

—If you are troubled with rheumatism take the Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure. It will positively cure all diseases arising from impure blood, and is sold under an absolute guarantee to benefit or money refunded. Call for free sample at the New Drug Store.

W. J. Kelley, better known as Contractor Kelley, left Monday with a crew of twelve men up river to bring down a drive of logs for this mill.

Dentist.

—Dr. J. H. Thomas, the Crookston dentist will be at Hotel Markham, St. Hilaire, June 5th and 6th prepared to do all kinds of up to date dental work in all branches. All work warranted. Remember the dates 8th and 9th.

They Are Regulars Now.

Monday, three well known Red Lake Falls boys, Victor E. Patnaude, Wm. Beautrow and Simon Paul started for Fargo to enlist in the artillery department of the regular army and to-day we are in receipt of a communication from them saying they had passed the examination, will be sworn in Friday and start for the Phillippines Saturday.

Victor Patnaude was a member of Co. L. 14th Minnesota volunteers, in the Spanish American War, and had for some time been corresponding with General Andrus, relative to enlisting in the regulars. He induced his friends Messrs. Paul and Beautron to accompany him.—Red Lake Falls Gazette.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

K. O. Gigstad returned to-day from a business trip at Crookston.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that all shooting with shot guns, rifles, revolvers or pistols or with fire arms of any description must be stopped.

Any person found violating this notice will be dealt with according to the ordinance of this village and the laws of this State.

Christ Hall
Marshal.

Consumption Cured.

—Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth, cures a cold in one day if taken in time, 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

—To cure a cough or cold in one day take the Imperial Cough Syrup.

The Modern Woodmen Again.

While a few pastors of the Evangelical Lutheran churches have been called upon to antagonize the Modern Woodmen of America, and, in some instances deny the sacrament to those of their members who refuse to withdraw from the society, the greater majority of pastors who have witnessed the beneficent work of the Modern Woodmen have endorsed the society heartily and have become some of its most enthusiastic members.

If those bigoted pastors who were in St. Hilaire two weeks ago denouncing the Woodmen would get over the idea that "nothing good can come out of Nazareth," join the Woodmen and become acquainted with the aims and objects of the society, and see the idea of "brothe-hood" illustrated, see Lutheran, Catholic and Protestant, Jew and Gentile, silver bug and gold bug standing shoulder to shoulder in defense of the widows and orphans I believe they would have a change of heart, and instead of stigmatizing the order as a curse to humanity, as they have done they will be pleased to preach the woodcraft from the sacred desk.

It would be well, if those would-be expounders of the Christian religion, were enlightened nineteenth century men, then they could understand the meaning of the Pauline doctrine. "If one provideth not for his own and especially for those of his own household he hath dealed the faith and is worse than an infidel."

The arguments against secret societies are composed of misunderstanding and misrepresentation, and an attempt to make them appear dangerous to the world or to individuals, is not to be commended. It is not too much to say that their care for the needy and distressed is equal to that of the church, so far as material wants are concerned; understand that I have nothing against the church; it is a grand institution whose object is to teach its members the duty of man to his God. The true fraternal society endeavors to teach its members the duty of man to his fellow men, and in doing this, he is taught many other things all of which goes to make up a good citizen of value to the country at large and to the community in which he lives. The basic elements of every true fraternal are loyalty, truth and honesty and are the primary principals of the church, but not the primary principals of these narrow minded Bigots, in as much as they are not loyal to their profession wham they denounce the benevolent societies, and they are not truthful or honest in their denounciations.

The secret orders are growing and to day there are nearly four millions of members in the fraternal beneficial orders. Among these members are ministers of every denomination, doctors, lawyers and in fact men from all professions of business and trade, and yet, a very small handful of 14th century preachers, who can allow of nothing that is good except they furnish it have the audacity to denounce these orders, from the what should be, sacred desk, and in fact of the fact that the most influencial men of the church are members of some one of the many fraternal orders;

It is beyond the comprehension of intelegent men why these "out of date" preachers tumble over each other in their endeavors to overthrow the Woodmen, when it is plain to see that the more they fight us the more members we get, and that is as it should be. The Modern Woodmen have come to stay, and my advise to the preachers is "keep on pounding us" so that our membership will increase faster. Its a good thing, push it along.

W. A. Case,
Deputy Head Consul, M. W. of A.
St. Hilaire, Minn.

P. S:—I will at any time or place be willing to meet and discuss the question in public.
W. A. C.

Notice.

All customers holding tickets for crayon work must present the same to us on or before June 1st 1899 or the same will be void.
Rapp & Post.

Watches Clocks and Jewelery.

I will carry a full line of watches, clocks and jewlery hereafter at Johnson's drug store. Anything you want that we do not carry in stock we will order for you at ten per cent above the wholesale prices and by doing this you will save money by dealing at home. Watches left for repairs will be sent down on first train and returned the next day. I shall continue to be at Johnson's drug store the 10th 11th and 12th of each month. Eyes examined free.

Prof. J. Q. Adams.
Red Lake Falls.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that all manure and rubbish must be cleaned up and hauled away from all lots within the village limits on or before the 15th day of May 1899 or the same will be removed at the expense of the lot owner.

Dated at St. Hilaire this 29th day of April 1899.

J. L. Johnson,
Acting Health Officer.

FOR SALE.

Two lots and house on South Broadway for sale at a bargain. For particulars address,

Mrs. C. Gerbig,
Box 20. Akeley, Minn.

WANTED.

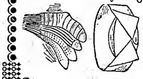
Teachers to attend the Crookston College Summer School. It is cheap thorough and practical. Term opens June 12th and continues 8 weeks. Address, Crookston College, Crookston, Minnesota.

Agents Wanted.

The oldest and largest nursery in the West. Everything for the orchard and grove. Three plans of work and the year round. Pay weekly. Write for terms.

The Jewell Nursery Co.,
40-45 Lake City, Minn.

We Handle Everything.



Start the Day Right

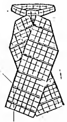
And everything will go smoothly. The proper way to start the day is by coming around to our store and ordering a supply of groceries for the day, such things as you may need. It will take you but a few minutes, and we feel sure you will not regret it.

Our Groceries

Are always fresh, and then the prices are as near right as we know how to make them. If you have not been in the habit of trading with us, drop in and see us anyway; you might get into the habit.

Hardware

We carry everything in the hardware line from cooking stoves down to tacks—all you have to do is to ask for what you want. If you want anything in the tin or copper line done drop into our tin shop and your wants will be attended to.



Yours very truly,

RAPP & POST

St. Hilaire, Minnesota.

The Cheap Cash Store.

GROCERIES NOTIONS FRUIT CANDIES TOYS TOBACCOS CIGARS AND GENTS FURNISHING GOODS.

ALL AT HARD TIMES PRICES. M. A. HALL.

A. H. WEAGANT

Having bought the business of Fred Eikhoff, I am now prepared to sell you anything in line of

HARDWARE AND TINWARE

CUTLERY, PAINTS & OILS.

Everything at Rock Bottom Prices. Come and see for yourself. Opposite Hotel Markham

LEONARD HOLMES,

—DEALER IN—

Agricultural Implements

WHEAT, FLAX OATS AND BARLEY.

Flour and Feed always on Hand.

Lumber! Lumber!

OF ALL KINDS.

We have a large and well assorted stock of Dry Lumber and are prepared to fill all orders on short notice. We also carry a complete assortment

—OF—

Sash, Doors, Paper

AND ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL

Which we buy in large quantities and are thereby enabled to sell at lowest market prices.

ST. HILAIRE LUMBER CO.

NEW MEAT MARKET.

L. M. ROLAND, Proprietor.

Fresh and Salted Meats.

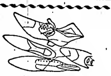
Highest Market Price Paid for Hides.

L. K. KOLSTAD

DEALER IN

Boots and Shoes!

Repairing a Specialty.



St. Hilaire, Minnesota.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N. Y.
For sale by all Druggists.—Price 50c. per bottle.

TOWER'S FISH BRAND
TRADE MARK
POMMEL SLICKER
The Best Saddle Coat.
Keeps both rider and saddle perfectly dry in the hardest storms. Substitutes will disappoint. Ask for 1897 Fish Brand Pommel Slicker—It is entirely new. If not for sale in your town, write for catalogue to A. J. TOWER, Boston, Mass.

THE Spalding OFFICIAL League Ball
is the genuine League Ball, and is officially ordered by the National League to be used in all games.
ACCEPT NO SUBSTITUTES
If a dealer does not carry Spalding's athletic goods in stock, send your name and address to us (and his, too) for copy of our handsomely illustrated catalogue.
A. G. SPALDING & BROS.
New York Chicago Denver

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE
WHEAT
WHEAT
WHEAT
"Nothing but wheat; what you might call a sea of wheat," is what was said by a lecturer speaking of Western Canada. For particulars as to routes, railway fares, etc., apply to Superintendent of Immigration, Department Interior, Ottawa, Canada, or to Ben Davies, 154 East Third St., St. Paul, or T. O. Currie, Stevens Point, Wis.

THOUSANDS KILLED.
Every Sheet
DUTCHERS' FLY KILLER
rids the house of thousands of Flies, thus affording peace while you eat and the comfort of a nap in the morning. Ask your Druggist or Grocer.
FRED'K. DUTCHER DRUG CO., St. Albans, Vt.

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
REGULATE THE LIVER

PENSION JOHN W. MORRIS, Washington, D. C.
Successfully Prosecutes Claims.
Late Principal Examiner U. S. Pension Bureau.
3 yrs in civil war, 15 adjudicating claims, atty since.

N. W. N. U. —No. 19— 1899

SMILING SAMOANS.

But When They Are Riled They Can Fight Like Fiends.

The men are noble specimens, physically—tall, muscular, with the erect carriage and elastic step of an American Indian. They, too, are smiling and kindly in time of peace—and are clad in mantles of gay prints which they have bought at the store; they greet you with a wave of the hand and a curious "Alofa." They tattoo the legs from the waist to the knee, and as they stride along those members appear between the folds of their drapery as if they were decently clothed in skin-tight trousers. They are indolent and, when not roused to hostility, as amiable and fun-loving as children. They work as little as possible, and why should they? The forest abounds in wild bananas, breadfruit and yams, which may be had for the taking; the sea is full of fish, which they are expert in catching, and if Providence deigns to send them a fattened pig once or twice a year they are blessed. Clothing they do not require, nor fuel; their taxes are only nominal, and they are consequently exempt from the chief demands of life, and which, but, for the expense and difficulty of getting buried, make it far easier for the average American to die than to live.

But these gentle creatures can fight, and fight cruelly, although their method of warfare is peculiar; they eat and drink between rounds, when a sort of truce is declared, then go at it again, shoot at short range, and shoot to kill. Formerly, until the practice was abolished by Chief Justice Ide, the killing was followed by beheading and this ceremony was not always deferred, where the victim had been only wounded, until life was extinct. The heads were then collected and presented to the king as an especial proof of prowess. This barbarous practice the chief justice had the utmost difficulty in dealing with, and it was not discontinued until the other representatives of the triple protectorate consented to enact a law to punish offenders by fining them heavily, and adding to this penalty a lengthy term of imprisonment.—Leslie's Weekly.

A Department Store in Berne.

Berne is peculiar in some things, and in matters of progress and enterprise is far behind the other Swiss cities. A tradesman who had done quite a business in small wares bought several small stores on the main arcadel street of the city, and prepared to erect a modern department store, as far as the continental ideas goes. He wanted to make his establishment as attractive as possible, and accordingly sought to have the dark and gloomy arcades in front of his proposed building removed. Such a storm of protests was made against this willful destruction of the ancient and typical stonework that he was obliged to abandon his scheme and get even by making his store the finest in the city. He even has had an elevator installed. There must be four in Berne. When the little dealers saw this and knew that it was good they held a largely attended meeting to protest. It is their desire to have a store with several departments so heavily taxed that it will be impossible for the owner to realize anything out of his venture.

The Great "Amen" Question.

By a vote of the church members at Moriah, Carnarvon, a curious dispute was on Tuesday evening settled. With the introduction of the new hymn and tune book of the connection a few weeks ago, there was also initiated the practice, which is not very general in non-conformist places of worship, of singing the "Amen" at the conclusion of each hymn.

Several members of the congregation disapproved of the innovation, and by way of protest resumed their seats at the close of the hymn proper. Feeling on the matter became so acute that the pastor decided to take the voice of the church on Tuesday evening, when there was present a large attendance of church members. The result was the defeat of the supporters of the "Amen" by an overwhelming majority.

The voting resulted as follows: In favor of the "Amen," 46; against, 86. —North Wales Observer.

Immune by Home Experience.

She—You say you ate everything they put before you in the Santiago campaign, and that you never got sick?

He—That's what I said.

"How do you account for that?"

"I was an immune."

"I don't understand."

"Why, for ten years I've been eating my wife's cooking."—Yonkers Statesman.

The Insanity Plea.

Stranger—Did they lynch that horse thief?

Native—Naw! They sent him to the asylum. The blame fool stole a $10 hoss, when he might just as well have took a $100 bicycle.—New York Journal.

Nervous People.

Nervous people not only suffer themselves but cause more or less misery to everyone around them. They are fretful, easily worried and therefore a worry to others.

When everything annoys you; when your pulse beats excessively; when you are startled at the least unexpected sound, your nerves are in a bad state and should be promptly attended to.

Nervousness is a question of nutrition. Food for the nerves is what you need to put you right, and the best nerve food in the world is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

They give strength and tone to every nerve in the body, and make despondent, easily irritated people feel that life has renewed its charms. Here is proof:

Miss Cora Watrous, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Mr. I. C. Watrous, of 61 Clarion St., Bradford, Pa., was seized with a nervous disorder which threatened to end her life. Eminent physicians agreed the trouble was from impoverished blood, but failed to give relief. Mr. Watrous heard Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People were highly recommended for nervous disorders, and gave them a trial. Before the first box had been taken the girl's condition improved. After using six boxes her appetite returned, the pain in her head ceased, and she was stronger than ever before. "My daughter's life was saved by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," said Mrs. Watrous. "Her condition was almost hopeless when she commenced taking them, but now she is strong and healthy. I cannot recommend these pills too highly."—Bradford (Pa.) Era.

The full name is on each package.—Sold by all druggists or sent, postpaid, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N.Y. Price 50¢ per box; 6 boxes $2.50

ALMS TO ROTHSCHILD.

How an Artist's Head Was Cast Upon the Waters and Returned.

One of the closest friends of Baron Rothschild of Paris was Carolus Duran, the artist, says a writer for Harper's Round Table. During the entire course of a certain large dinner party the great financier noticed that the painter kept looking at him with a most intent and peculiar expression. After the coffee and cigars the baron drew his friend aside and said: "My dear fellow, pray tell me why you have stared at me so peculiarly this evening?"

"I'll tell you with pleasure," answered Duran; "I am painting a beggar for the salon, and have looked all over Paris for a suitable head to draw from. Yours is the ideal."

Rothschild laughed heartily and promised to sit for his friend in suitable attire on the following day. During the progress of the sitting a young artist, one of Duran's pupils, came into the room. Naturally he had not been in a position to meet people of Baron Rothschild's importance, and so did not know him; but the beggar's miserable rags, wan face and wistful expression appealed deeply to the young man's sympathies. Waiting until his master was busy mixing colors, the pupil took a franc from his vest pocket and held it out behind his back to the model, who seized it with feigned avidity. When the sitting was over Rothschild made inquiries of Duran, concerning the philanthropist, and was informed that he was a student of great promise and attainments, but among the poorest of the inhabitants of the Latin Quarter. Some six months after this occurrence the young man received a note which ran about as follows: "Dear Sir—The franc that you gave in charity to a beggar in the studio of Mr. Duran has been invested by us, and we take pleasure in forwarding to you our check for 2,000 francs, the principal and interest of the same. Yours, etc., Rothschild & Cie."

WHAT IS TASTE?

Tests Indicating That the Sense Does Not Exist.

The University of Iowa has made some recent experiments which would almost seem to prove that the sense of taste, as we know it, is produced merely by a combination of the senses of sight, feeling and smell. The theory often advanced by smokers that a cigar has no taste when one cannot see the smoke receives here a startling scientific corroboration. The persons tested had their eyes covered and noses closed, and while in this state scarcely any one of them could tell the difference between weak tea and quinine. Pork was taken for turkey and vice versa. A widely varying list of trials gave such surprising results that it was finally concluded that the only sensations the tongue and palate knew were those of sweet, sour, bitter and salt, and probably that the two, sweet and bitter, would almost cover the range. One of the parties submitting to the test was a famous cook, who is noted for her delicate sense of taste. She called chopped raw potato acorns, boiled pumpkin was something sweet and flat, crushed pears were berries, roast pork was boiled beef, shredded turnip was cabbage, scraped apple was grape juice, and she said that the horseradish which was laid upon her tongue was something she had never tasted. The application of all this is obvious. An economically minded man has only to blindfold himself, plug up his nostrils, and with six weinerwursts, a pint of beer and a liberal seasoning of imagination, enjoy a Delmonico dinner.

When Patti Demanded a Doll.

Although Adelina Patti has recently installed a new head at her castle at Craig-y-Nos, it is doubtful if Baron Cederstrom will be other than a figurehead. When, in her young days, the famous singer was touring America, the impresario who was managing little Adelina as an "infant prodigy" found it necessary to give her a valuable little toy each time she appeared. One evening, in Cincinnati, he forgot the usual gift. "Very well," said Patti, "then I don't sing!" "But the house is filled and the audience is waiting," said the distracted manager. Entreaties proved vain; the little singer refused to go on the stage. After a vast amount of trouble the manager purchased a toy and tossed it at the feet of the songstress, who at once tripped on the stage and began to sing as only Patti can sing.

The New Spring Sleeve.

The chief sleeve of the spring will be the curved tailor model, with under part much narrower than the upper. It is a small sleeve with regard to fullness at the shoulder and needs to be fitted as neatly as is compatible with comfort. To relieve the tightness of the sleeve slashing on the shoulder is often seen, a style which facilitates the trimmings, not always an easy matter, because it admits the introduction of a contrasting fabric. Without slashing it is usual to cut lining and material on the same pattern, but when slashed the sleeve looks better with a smaller lining for the upper part.

Petroleum Drinking the Latest.

The morphine and alcohol habits have been relegated to the things of yesterday, while the latest narcotic vice is "petrolism," which is designated by experienced physicians as "a grim novelty, almost without parallel." Little by little, the victim to the use of petroleum becomes sad and melancholy and his doses increase in size until the habit becomes a passion. The mineral oil has none of the stimulating properties of alcohol or morphine, and the sufferer's condition is most deplorable. The evil is too new at present for the physicians to have discovered any satisfactory method of treatment.

Casualties.

"So you regard this idea of preserving beef with chemicals as an exploded fallacy." "I do," answered the army officer, "and there's no telling just yet how many people have been hurt by the explosion."

"He Laughs Best Who Laughs Last."

A hearty laugh indicates a degree of good health obtainable through pure blood. As but one person in ten has pure blood, the other nine should purify the blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla. Then they can laugh first, last and all the time, for perfect happiness comes with good health

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

Hood's Pills cure liver ills; the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Her Husband Twice Her Age.

A curious marriage has taken place at Newcastle, Eng. For the third time a lady named Makings has been before the altar in the character of a bride, and there was something remarkable in each of her three engagements. Her first husband was a Quaker, her second a Roman Catholic and her present a Protestant. Each husband was twice her age. At 16 she married a gentleman of 32, at 30 she took one of 60, and now, at 42, she is united to a gentleman of 84.

Catalogues by Carloads.

A statistical genius has figured that the various manufacturers of harvesting machinery have printed and distributed enough "advertising matter" during the last decade to fill 2,000 freight cars. The greater portion of this literature has been expended on the farmers of this country in an effort to make them believe that almost any kind of a machine is "as good as the Deering." In the meantime the Deering Harvester Company of Chicago has prospered until at the present time its works employ more hands than any single manufacturing plant of any kind in America.

The Situation.

"Biffles is a pleasant sort of chap," remarked one young man.

"I don't like him," said the other. "He's too egotistic."

"It is merely a matter of impression. You judged from his manner that he is egotistic, and you feel resentful. He judges from your manner that you think he's egotistic, and he resents your self-opinionated fashion of jumping at conclusions. It's a mistake all 'round."—Washington Star.

Are You Using Allen's Foot-Ease?

It is the only cure for Swollen, Smarting, Burning, Sweating Feet, Corns and Bunions. Ask for Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder to be shaken into the shoes. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Shoppy.

His Daughter—Yes; the story ends in the same old way; they marry and live happy ever after.

The Furniture Man—Ah! Antique finish!—Indianapolis Journal.

Runs in the Family.

"They say he's very fond of horses."

"Yes; it runs in the family. He had a brother hanged by a Texas vigilance committee for the same thing.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Chicago Great Western Increase.

The earnings of Chicago Great Western Ry., "Maple Leaf Route," for the third week of April, 1899, shows an increase of $14,026.63 Total increase since beginning of fiscal year (July 1st) to date, $392,382.06.

Why He Waits.

"Why don't you get married? You have plenty of money, and sixty is the very prime of life."

"I'm going to wait a few more years, then I can have any girl I want."—Life.

Hall's Catarrh Cure
Is a constitutional cure. Price, 75c.

The moralizer considers life but a dream until the demoralizer come along and wakes him up.

He that will watch providences shall never want providences to watch.—Flavel.

Every time the weather has a cold it takes a drop of mercury for it.

FITS Permanently Cured. No fits or nervousness after first day's use of Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. Send for FREE $2.00 trial bottle and treatise. Dr. R. H. Kline, Ltd., 931 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Better be three hours too soon than one minute too late. Shakespeare.

It is hard to convince some people that honesty is the best politics.

Some women may not earn their salt, but Mr. Lot's wife certainly did.

PE-RU-NA
FOR WOMEN

The debilitating drains and discharges which weaken so many women are caused by Catarrh of the distinctly feminine organs. The sufferer may call her trouble Leuchorrhoea, or Weakness, or Female Disease or some other name, but the real trouble is catarrh of the female organs and nothing else.

Pe-ru-na radically and permanently cures this and all other forms of Catarrh. It is a positive specific for female troubles caused by catarrh of the delicate lining of the organs peculiar to women. It always cures if used persistently. It is prompt and certain.

THE ANCIENT LAND OF OPHIR.

Evidence That It Was What Is Now Called Monomotapa, Africa.

From the Matabele Times: The Monomotapa region, in Rhodesia, is the ancient land of Ophir. The gold mines of the ancients are now rediscovered and the gold ingot molds recently discovered in Rhodesia are identical with the tin ingot molds used by the Phoenicians in Cornwall. It is believed that the Phoenicians worked the South African mines 2000 B. C. Scripture tells us how Hiram, the Phoenician king, brought enormous quantities of gold, ivory and slaves for King Solomon, and where could all of these have been discovered together and in such large quantities as described in holy writ, if not in this portion of southeast Africa? Job's references to "gold dust" locate the sources of Solomon's wealth in the parts, and certainly neither the "ivory" nor the "slaves" nor the "apes" of Bible history came from India, for Africa, as is well known, has ever been credited in history as the ivory, slave and ape producing country. Further, there is considerable doubt whether any other country, India included, could at that period have produced the quantity of gold mentioned in Chronicles and Kings. Scattered throughout this country are colossal ruins of fortresses, temples of distinctly Phoenician origin, identical with the ruins now seen in the land of the Phoenicians and built by the same race as erected Stonehenge on Salisbury plain and later built the rounded towers of Ireland. Here is the herringbone style of building, as in Arabia, Sardinia and the British Isles. There, too, are the gigantic monoliths, cloven stones and stone circles, with altars and sacred inclosures.

WANTED PAUL TO TELL HIM

Anxious About the State of His Ancient Correspondence.

A man of the north side saw a masculine member of the human race tumble down on the sidewalk the other evening, hopelessly intoxicated. Disgusted at the sight, he was about to pass on unheedful of his neighbor's misfortune when the story of the good Samaritan flashed across his mind and he resolved for once to be charitably helpful. He accosted the fallen one and assisted him to his unsteady feet, and after much persistent interviewing succeded in ascertaining the number of his home. Thither he piloted his swaying companion, and was rewarded on the doorstep by a volley of thanks and a most importunate invitation to enter and take a drink. "No," responded the modern Samaritan emphatically, "I won't go in and take a drink, and you'd better follow my example and get to bed as quickly as you can." "All right, guess I will," muttered the tipsy host, drowsily. "But tell me your name, anyway. I want to know the name of the man who brought me to my door." As his eloquence and voice were waxing in strength the Samaritan thought it wisdom to comply in some way with his associate's desires, and at the same time had no intention to reveal his own identity. "Paul is my name," he answered at last in compromise, turning to go down the steps. "Come here, Paul," eagerly called the other man at once. "Come back and answer the question I've had it in my mind to ask you for years. Paul," he continued impressively, "did you ever get an answer to your letters to the Ephesians?"

TEMPERANCE THEIR TEST.

Long Island Girls Won't Marry Men Who Touch Liquor.

The white ribbon is the badge of a little settlement on Long Island and temperance rules the town. "We do hereby severally and collectively agree never to marry men who drink. They must sign the pledge before they ask us for our hands." This platform has been adopted by the girls of the little Long Island town of Greenport. The men have dropped their drinking ways and they are all eating cloves. The saloonkeepers, seeing nothing but ruin in sight, have appealed to the girls to change their minds, but they declare they will not! The girl trust for the suppression of drunkenness was organized at the home of Mrs. S. B. Horton in First street, Greenport. A total abstinence society was formed and the members announced that they had agreed to boycott drinkers matrimonially. Mrs. Cora E. Sherry, the late secretary of the woman's work department of the W. C. T. U., made a speech paving the way to this stand. Mrs. Horton said that the only pledge absolutely required from them was that of total abstinence, the other agreement being optional. The young men of Greenport, it is said, are not especially bibulous, but more of their earnings go to liquor than the girl trust thinks right. A story will be made of the results of alcoholic marriages and lectures will be given showing the dreadful endings of homes in which the husbands are drinking men. Mrs. Horton declares that the men must stop altogether, and would not admit that they could just take a "wee little sip."

Deepest Wells in the World.

The following are some of the deepest wells in the world: In Europe, one at Passy, France, depth 2,000 feet; at La Chapelle, Paris, depth 2,950 feet; at Grenelle, Paris, depth 1,793 feet; Neusalwerk, near Minden, depth 2,288 feet; at Kissingen, Bavaria, depth 1,878 feet; at Sperenberg, near Berlin, depth 4,190 feet; at Pesth, Hungary, depth 3,182 feet. The well at Sperenberg, near Berlin, is the deepest well in the world. In the United States there are wells located at St. Louis, Mo., depth 3,843 feet; at Louisville, Ky., depth 2,086 feet; at Columbus, O., depth 2,775½ feet; at Charleston, S. C., depth 1,250 feet.

Divorce Not Recognized.

The lower house of the convocation of the church of England has passed a resolution declaring that the law of the church does not recognize divorce, and asking the bishops to devote themselves to securing action of parliament to the end that the church shall not remarry divorced persons.

The courtship period for Ayer's Sarsaparilla passed long since, when it won the confidence and esteem of thoughtful men and women 50 years ago.

You need have no doubts, if, when you go to buy Sarsaparilla, you simply say the old name.

"AYER'S"

That is the kind that cured your fathers and their fathers before them, and it is the kind that will cure you. Other Sarsaparillas may look like it, may even taste like it, but somehow or other they haven't the knack of curing people that Ayer's has. Just try one bottle of Ayer's today.

BETTER GO BACK THAN GO WRONG

An Old Proverb That—
but just as forceful today as one hundred years ago.

It's good common sense advice in almost every transaction, but for present purposes let us suppose you are going to buy a binder, a mower or a corn harvester.

Possibly you have made up your mind to get something cheaper than the Deering Ideal.

Perhaps it is not yet too late to "go back." And it certainly is "better to go back than to go wrong."

That word "cheaper" is an old fraud. Do not be deceived by it.

Deering Ideal grain and grass harvesters are "ideal" because they embody the best thoughts and suggestions of the farmer and the mechanic.

They are simple, scientific and substantial.

They are the cheapest to buy because they are the best to own.

DEERING HARVESTER CO., - Chicago.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE
DO YOU WANT A HOME?
60,000 ACRES OF GOOD FARMING LANDS IN WASHBURN AND BARRON COUNTIES, WISCONSIN, to be divided and sold at $3.00 to $6.00 PER ACRE.
Long time and easy payments to actual settlers.
Come and see us or address,
W. R. BOURNE, Mgr., SHELL LAKE LUMBER CO., SHELL LAKE, WIS.

"THERE IS SCIENCE IN NEATNESS."
BE WISE AND USE
SAPOLIO

Pushing Herself Forward.

Mistah Sniff—Lize Johnsing fell out oh a seven-story buildin' de othah day.

Miss Brown—Huh! Dat nig'll do anyfing tuh 'tract 'tention.—Independent.

Hushed is the conversation of men when money talks.

As Black as Your Hat DYE Your Whiskers
A Natural Black with Buckingham's Dye.
50 cts. of druggists or R. P. Hall & Co., Nashua, N.H.

STOCK RAISERS
Will find it greatly to their advantage, if before purchasing a farm, they will look at the country along the line of the Saint Paul & Duluth Railroad.

DAIRY FARMERS
Who desire the best Clover and Timothy land, in a district which can boast of a fine climate, good pure water, rich soil, fine meadows, and near to the markets of St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth and Superior should apply immediately by letter or in person to
WM. F. TROWBRIDGE,
Asst. Land Commissioner,
St. Paul & Duluth R. R.
Box U—903 Globe Bldg., St. Paul, Minn.

CURE YOURSELF!
Use Big G for unnatural discharges, inflammations, irritations or ulcerations of mucous membranes. Painless, and not astringent or poisonous.
CURES in 1 to 5 days. Guaranteed not to stricture. Prevents contagion. THE EVANS CHEMICAL CO. CINCINNATI, O. U. S. A.
Sold by Druggists, or sent in plain wrapper, by express, prepaid, for $1.00, or 3 bottles, $2.75. Circular sent on request.

WANTED—Case of bad health that R·I·P·A·N·S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimonials.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water.

When Answering Advertisements Kindly Mention This Paper.

PISO'S CURE FOR
CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS.
Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists.
CONSUMPTION

Minnesota Historical Society

MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR.

VOLUME XVIII. ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY. MAY 17, 1899. NUMBER 42

ISSUES OF 1900

BRIEFLY TOUCHED ON FROM THE MINNESOTA STANDPOINT.

That "Dead" Money Question—The Probable Shape of the Silver Question—The Minnesota Anti-Trust Law and "Tawney's Trick"—Gossip of the Railroad Lobby's Defeat of the Gross Earnings Bill—Said to Have Cost $150,000—Who Is the "Western Banker" Said to Have Distributed the Boodle?—Black and White Ingalls—More Regarding Bank Prosperity—G. O. P. Campaign Banners For 1900—State Capital Note and Comment of the Week.

Reform Press Bureau.
St. Paul, May 8, 1899.

The significant admissions of Banker Lee of Todd, regarding the condition of business as gauged by that of the country banks, as summarized in the last Bulletin, has attracted wide attention. Not a single banker has come forward to contradict Mr. Lee's statement, but on the contrary we have received several letters from country bankers congratulating Mr. Lee and the bureau on their telling of the truth. To which a state official adds that in attempting to find a place of investment for a sum of money for a relative in a country town who could get no interest for it there, he found that only two regular banks in St. Paul were paying interest on time deposits. To his inquiry of a banker why this was the case the reply was that it was because money was so "cheap." Why cheap? Because there is nothing into which it can be put that will earn a profit warranting borrowing it from the banks.

The recent report of United States Comptroller Dawes shows "whither we are drifting," as the condition of business may be gauged from the banks, taking the country over. Bank deposits are an indication of whether money is in business or not. It certainly is not in the banks for profit in the low rate of interest paid on deposits. The report shows that the deposits of the national banks of the United States increased from Dec. 1, 1898, to Feb. 4, 1899, $6,623,313.38, and from Feb. 18, 1898, to Feb. 4, 1899, increased $249,532,223.44, or an average of $20,000,000 per month for the year. On Feb. 4, 1899, the individual deposits piled up in the said banks aggregated the enormous sum of $2,225,000,000, largely there because there is no profit in employing it in business.

And, by the way, eliminate this mighty sum, and will some one, in heaven's name, tell us how much money there is in actual "circulation" among the people? And yet the gold standard advocates will figure it out that the "per capita circulation" is on the increase.

What nonsense to talk of conditions being satisfactory when every intelligent man or woman not in some manner in the specially favored classes knows no such thing exists. What means it when ex-Senator Ingalls of Kansas, who has done as much as any other Republican to stem the tide, and to make black seem white and white black, says in a recent interview:

"We are now brought face to face with the same condition of social affairs that brought about the French revolution; and unless a speedy remedy is found the people will rise in their wrath and wage a terrific war on the wealthy class. I do not look for any change in our system until the people force it upon us. I believe a revolution is ripening and will come, sooner or later. It only sleeps, awaiting an incentive."

It is facts like these which keep alive that "dead thing," the money question, which lies at the root of all our troubles. In fact there are but two classes of people who orate over the grave of the dead issue, those, of course, who do so from ignorance, and those who hope so because its triumph in the resurrection will be their everlasting political undoing. It is clear as daylight just about what the money question will be next year, made all the clearer when such hidebound party mouthpieces as Chauncey Depew admits as in his recent statement that the Republicans will openly declare for the gold standard.

We have received in a private letter from one of our foremost leaders, his forecast of what the Republican money tinkers now at work in hearing of the "sad sea waves," will produce for the approval of the administration and action of congress, possibly in special session called along in October. It will, he believes, follow the bill reported by the House Coinage Committee majority in the closing days of the last congress, declaring:

"The standard of value shall, as now, be the gold dollar, being one-tenth part of the eagle, consisting of 25.8 grains of gold nine-tenths fine, or of 23 22-100 of pure gold."

ALL OBLIGATIONS (NOTES OR CONTRACTS) FOR THE PAYMENT OF MONEY SHALL BE MADE IN CONFORMITY WITH THIS STANDARD.

ALL OBLIGATIONS OF THE GOVERNMENT NOW EXISTING OR HEREAFTER TO BE ENTERED INTO SHALL, UNLESS OTHERWISE STIPULATED, BE HELD TO BE PAYABLE IN SUCH GOLD COIN.

THERE SHALL CONTINUE TO BE FREE COINAGE OF GOLD INTO SUCH COINS, but

NO SILVER DOLLARS SHALL HEREAFTER BE COINED except from the silver bullion held against outstanding Treasury Notes of 1890.

There it is straight from the shoulder, the single gold standard, the destruction of the silver dollar and of the greenbacks, gold bonds, notes and contracts, and in the rest of the bill money issues by the banks, under the gigantic trust of all the trusts, the money trust.

The Reform protest against this wicked programme will follow that made by Richard P. Bland, S. B. Cooper, Rice A. Pierce, Samuel Maxwell, E. R. Ridgely, Charles S. Hartman, Charles F. Cochran and Harvey B. Ferguson, the same House Committee's minority. It will be to strike out all of the gold bill after the enacting clause and declare:

"The unit of account or value in the United States shall be A DOLLAR OF 412½ GRAINS STANDARD SILVER OR 25 8-10 GRAINS STANDARD GOLD.

"The holders of silver bullion not too base for the operations of the mint shall have the right to deposit the same at any mint of the United States for coinage into standard silver dollars ON THE SAME TERMS AND CONDITIONS AS GOLD BULLION IS NOW COINED FOR PRIVATE HOLDERS.

"AND SILVER DOLLARS HERETOFORE COINED AND HEREAFTER TO BE COINED UNDER THE PROVISIONS HEREOF SHALL BE LEGAL TENDER FOR ALL DEBTS AND DUES, PUBLIC AND PRIVATE."

And there you have the money question part of the campaign of 1900, stripped of the 16 to 1 bugaboo, and so simple and unequivocal that he who runs may read and understand. Who will doubt what the result will be with the American people?

Stimulated by the great indignation throughout the state over the defeat of the gross earnings bill, ever since the legislature adjourned there has been great interest to know the inside operations of the railroads which brought about that result. As a stroke of newspaper enterprise one of the state dailies is said to have used a detective to good advantage, but that the publication of his discoveries was prevented from the fact that the paper editorially took the railroad side on the bill. Whether the real truth will ever be known or not remains to be seen. But the general gossip is that five members of the senate judiciary committee received $10,000 each, and an equal number of "prominent" senators on the floor the same amount each, while five "cheaper ducks" on the committee received $5,000 each, making $45,000 more, and an equal sum in "driblets" was used among "scattering senators." This would make the aggregate outlay in the senate $150,000. This is said to have been furnished by three companies, and the disbursing agent is said to have been a well known banker in the western part of the state, who has figured for years as the lobby manager of one of the largest railroads. But, it is said that not one dollar of the boodle was even distributed in St. Paul but was placed at points designated where it would reach the proper parties without danger.

But whatever the sum or by whom dispensed it was a cheap investment, and any sum short of a half million would have been. And still in the long run it may prove an utter loss, as this question is only postponed, and in the present temper of the people the lift of the gross earnings tax may be much more than the one per cent the people asked this time. In short the roads may have played the game too fine.

Alger says that "one of the islands we hold in trust, the others are ours." That is to say Hanna's.

And rotund General Merritt, well groomed and lately married, slobbered at the Alger dinner, though he did say he was born a Democrat and couldn't get over it.

Wonder how many who talk so glibly about the recently passed anti-trust law have ever read that trust destroyer. Now that it is in the hands of every reader of the local paper, take it up and read it, and then pass your own judgment as to whether or not it will do any good. See if it has not been so sweepingly drawn that enforcement would stop even the smallest of the wheels of trade, and hence that it cannot by any possible means be enforced, and hence is all and entirely buncombe. That's the way it strikes the ordinary layman, and hence has probably arisen the common appellation of its author, Congressman Tawney, as "Tricky Tawney," that he invented the scheme simply to throw dirt in the eyes of the people. All this talk of uprooting the trust by such means is simply tommyrot. The trust and the combine exist from the necessity of lifting prices under the gold standard. The trouble is deeper seated than all that. To root it out is to strike at the foundations, the uprooting of the trust of trusts, the money trust. With $500,000,000 of trusts organized in the month of April, and more than $6,000,000,000 within a twelvemonth, it is a question whether mischief will not be done beyond the possibility of remedy which the national elections of 1900 should give us.

For the g. o. p. escutcheon just as have bull beef (spoiled) rampant, the whitewash brush flamboyant, the can opener pendent, and Algerism strident. On a background of Filipino blood red can be dashed other tokens like Spanish yellow for the gold standard and toryism.

For Minnesota put the Republican legislature on a "hog" locomotive, with Young of Swift at the throttle.

Don't worry about all of the "copperhead" Filipino matter being pulled out of the mails. The mail contracts are all by weight!

The interior of the state should take lesson from the Twin Cities as to organization. Ramsey county Democracy is followed by Hennepin in setting on foot a good organization, with harmony of all factions as the leading feature, and inviting the co-operation of all reform elements.

The foundations of the new capital have not settled. Neither has the state.

Depew has approved, and the blow almost killed Hanna. G. S. C.

PEACE MAY BE NEAR

AGUINALDO'S PROPOSAL FOR A CONFERENCE MAY BE ACCEPTED.

Civilian Members of the United States Commission Are Favorable to the Idea—Thought That It Resulted From the Recent Meeting of the Filipino Congress—Two Hundred Filipinos Flee Before Ten of Lawton's Men—Lawton Takes Two More Towns With Slight Loss—Minnesotans in It.

Manila, May 16.—The civilian members of the United States Philippine commission are favorable to the meeting with a Filipino commission which was suggested on behalf of Aguinaldo by Lieut. Reyes, of the staff of Gen. Gregorio del Pilar, who came to Gen. Lawton under a flag of truce, bearing the proposal. It is thought by the American commissioners that the idea may have resulted from a recent meeting of the so-called Filipino congress at San Isidor. Definite information on this point, however, cannot be obtained, though the local Filipino committee, which is in close communication with the leaders of the rebellion, is doing its utmost to secure peace.

Ten members of Maj. Gen. Lawton's band of scouts under W. M. Young, the old Indian fighter, entered the town of San Miguel, about fifteen miles north of Norzagaray, not aware of what place it was. They found 200 Filipinos there, but the rebels, taking the scouts for the advance of Gen. Lawton's army, fled after firing a few shots. Young and another scout were wounded and have been brought to Manila.

The Ninth infantry and a mounted battery of six guns have been sent to the front. The uniform quiet now prevailing in Manila has led the authorities to relax the rule under which the city's streets were cleared from 7 to 8:30 p. m., and last evening there was the largest and most brilliant assembly of pedestrians and people in carriages to listen to the band concert on the Luneta that has been known here since the Spanish left.

Prof. Schurman, president of the United States Philippine commission, gave a farewell luncheon to Admiral Dewey, at which Prof. Dean C. Worcester and Charles Denby, of the commission, with Gen. MacArthur, Miss Lawton and others where present. The health of the admiral was drunk with the utmost cordiality.

Reported by Gen. Otis.

Washington, May 16.—The war department has just received the following dispatch from Gen. Otis:

"It is reported that at Zamboanga insurgents attacked Spanish troops, 11th inst., using quick-firing guns and arms captured from Spanish gunboats. Spanish general and two officers wounded. Few casualties among troops. Spanish garrison now besieged. Water supply cut off and troops calling for relief."

TWO TOWNS CAPTURED.

Gen. Lawton Drives Out a Large Force of Filipinos.

Washington, May 16.—The following dispatch from Gen. Otis giving the status of the military situation as it now stands in the operations against the insurgents was received at the war department yesterday:

"Lawton, from Baliuag, has taken Ildefonso and San Miguel, to the north, with slight loss, and driving considerable force of enemy; gunboats and canoes, accompanied by 1,500 men under Kobbe, going up Rio Grande river from Calumpit, depart 16th; MacArthur remains at San Fernando, covering country. * * * Yesterday message from Aguinaldo expressing wish to send commission to Manila for conference with United States commission to arrange terms of peace; directions given to pass body representative insurgents to Manila should it present itself."

CAPTURED BY MINNESOTANS.

Town of San Ildefonso Wrested From the Filipinos.

Manila, May 16.—Twenty American scouts, under command of Captains Case and Berkheimer, supported by two companies of the Minnesota and Oregon regiments, flanked the insurgents at San Ildefonso and captured the town. The Filipinos were so terrorized that although they fired 20,000 rounds of ammunition all they did was to slightly wound one scout. The Americans killed one insurgent officer and wounded six men. The insurgents retreated to San Miguel, six miles north of San Ildefonso. Captured records show that 20 per cent of the opposing insurgent force has been killed and wounded since Lawton's advance began May 1.

CLEVELAND ALL RIGHT.

Reports of His Death Were Greatly Exaggerated.

Toledo, May 16.—A rumor gained currency here yesterday that Grover Cleveland, former president of the United States, had died suddenly at Middle Bass Island, in Lake Erie. The rumor caused considerable excitement for a time as it was impossible to get communication with the island to either confirm or deny the story. Later information was received from several reliable sources stating that Mr. Cleveland was alive and well.

Princeton, N. J., May 16.—A telegram has reached Mrs. Cleveland from Sandusky, Ohio, stating that Mr. Cleveland is all right.

Charged With Murder.

Bentonville, Ark., May 16.—J. O. Butler, a prominent citizen living eighteen miles south of here, was lodged in jail, charged with the murder of his fifteen-year-old daughter. The girl's head was split open with an ax and her throat cut.

Steamer Aground.

Montreal, May 16.—The Allan line steamer Gallia went ashore near here. The steamer is resting easily on a mud bottom. There are a large number of passengers on board.

CLAIMS FOR DAMAGES.

British, French and German Residents in Cuba Want Reimbursement.

Washington, May 16.—The state department has been informally advised that claims aggregating a considerable amount have been made by British, French and German residents in Cuba during the recent insurrection, and that these ultimately will be pressed against the United States government. The claims themselves have not yet been presented, but are being collected by the various foreign offices as the claimants send them in. In some cases schedules have been made and the aggregate stated to the authorities here. The French claims aggregate between 12,000,000 and 15,000,000 francs. The German claims are understood to be slightly under those of the French, while the British claims are said to be considerably more than either the French or German.

These foreign claims are quite distinct from those of citizens of the United States, originally against Spain for damages sustained in Cuba during the insurrection in Cuba. The peace treaty specifically provided for these American claimants releasing Spain, and stating that the United States would make such settlement as was proper. Under this clause claims aggregating several millions have been filed. No provision, however, was made in the treaty for foreign claimants, and there appears to be much doubt as to who is liable since the sovereignty over Cuba has passed out of the hands of Spain. The United States having undertaken to look after the American claimants, the foreigners are desirous of being treated in the same manner.

CUBA ABOUNDS IN ILL OMENS.

Possibility of Insurrection Against the United States.

Washington, May 16.—Though no official reports have been received from Gen. Brooke foreshadowing trouble with the Cubans, there is reason to believe that the authorities are not altogether satisfied with the situation on the island. An official explained that the danger lay in the politicians surrounding Gomez. Gen. Gomez has a staff of 150 officers, whom he must either support or provide office for, and it was with a view to making the latter provision that he recently wrote a letter to the president urging him to permit the organization of an army of 15,000 Cubans to preserve peace and order in the island. That permission was distinctly and emphatically refused by the president. The administration does not propose to permit the Cubans to maintain their army organization much longer. If the disbandment desired does not occur immediately after payment be made to the men measures will be taken to scatter the Cubans and take their weapons from them. In this connection considerable surprise is manifested at the large number of arms and quantity of ammunition which have been collected by the Cubans and seized by the United States officials. It is regarded in some quarters as an indication of the preparation being made by the Cubans for an insurrection against the United States in case all their wishes are not complied with.

WILL SOON SET SAIL.

Dewey Coming Home by Way of Suez Canal.

Manila, May 16.—Admiral Dewey will sail for New York by way of the Suez canal on board the United States cruiser Olympia in about ten days. It is expected that the voyage will occupy about four months. All are delighted with the prospect of returning home. The officers have had little shore leave, and have been obliged to be always on board by sundown. The crews have had still less leave, and show the effects of a year spent on a hot ship under an enervating sun. The Olympia will proceed from Manila to Hong Kong, where a fortnight will be spent in transforming the mud color which she was painted to white, having up to this time been unable to comply with the department's order to take on white paint. At Hongkong the cruiser will be coaled and provisioned for her further journey. Admiral Dewey expects to retain his position on the Philippine commission. Like all of the Olympia's company, Admiral Dewey is much run down by his long stay in a tropical port without change and under the rigid conditions incident to a war.

TO WEAR THE BLUE.

A Battalion of Porto Rican Soldiers Will Be Organized.

Washington, May 16.—Within a few weeks a fully organized battalion of Porto Ricans, wearing Uncle Sam's uniform, will be performing duty in their native island under the direction of American officers. The organization of the command was authorized by Secretary Alger, and Col. Henry directed the commanding officers of the ports of San Juan, Ponce, Mayaguez, Arecibo, Aguadilla, Cayey, Humacao, Adjuntas, Utuado, Yauco, Coamo, San German, Bayamon, Manati, Lares and Aibonito to designate an officer to enlist, equip and instruct twenty-five men, including one sergeant and two corporals. Gen. Henry recommended the enlistment of Porto Ricans because there was little work and a great deal of restlessness on the island. Reports show there is no lack of volunteers and that more than half of the battalion has been enlisted.

Gov. Tanner Tells How He Stands.

Chicago, May 16.—Gov. Tanner is not at present a candidate for renomination. He so declared to-day. "There are two reasons why," he went on. "I don't know that the people want me, and I don't know that I want the office."

Two Were Drowned.

Trenton, Ont., May 16.—Four men were crossing the bay in a small boat when the boat capsized. Two were drowned. The other two men were found clinging to the boat in an exhausted condition and may die.

McCoy's Challenge Accepted.

Boston, May 16.—Replying to a challenge by Kid McCoy, George Byers' manager has deposited $500 as a guarantee to match Byers against McCoy at middle-weight. Byers is satisfied to have the match at Denver.

BRIGGS IS ORDAINED

THE CEREMONIES CARRIED OUT WITHOUT A HITCH.

Those Who Expected From the Great Outcry of the Past Three or Four Weeks Some Sensational Feature Were Disappointed—Rev. Dr. Briggs Enters the Episcopal Fold to Serve Among the Poor—Bishop Potter Conducts the Ceremonies of Ordination.

New York, May 16.—In the pro-cathedral, on Stanton street, Rev. Dr. Charles A. Briggs, who was suspended for heresy by the Presbyterian assembly, was ordained a priest of the Episcopal church. He was ordained together with the Rev. Charles A. Snedeker, and the ordination ceremonies were conducted by Bishop Potter. The little church was crowded with people and the ceremonies were notable for the quietness that prevailed.

Those who expected, from the great outcry of the past three or four weeks, some sensational features, were disappointed. There was no scene, no excitement and no protest was filed at the beginning, during or at the close of the ordination. There was nothing notable in the sermon preached by Rev. Dr. George William Douglas. The ceremonies were very long, commencing at 10:30 o'clock and continuing until late in the afternoon. If anything the services were hurried a little, and the general communion which followed the communion of the postulants, or candidates, tended to extend the time.

There was a large crowd about the little pro-cathedral church as early as 8:30 o'clock. This increased as the time for the ordination ceremonies approached. Rev. Dr. Briggs was somewhat nervous, though he did not betray it in the church during the services. There was a semblance of nervousness in all the celebrants. There seemed to be a tendency to hurry through the ceremonies. The church was not decorated. Only a few potted plants and a few lilies were in the chancel.

Rev. Dr. Briggs was seen after the ceremony. He said he had nothing to say concerning the criticism raised by his ordination. He said he was going to take a rest. A close friend of Dr. Briggs said that he would go to Europe and in the fall would labor in the pro-cathedral church. Rev. Dr. Paddock said that it seemed strange that a man of Dr. Briggs' learning should take so much pleasure in laboring among the poor of the East side, but this was his wish. He said that Rev. Dr. Briggs would not give up his position in Union Theological seminary, but would labor in connection with his teaching.

NINE LIVES LOST.

First Accident of the Season on Lake Superior.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., May 16.—The schooner Nelson, deeply laden with a cargo of coal, foundered in Lake Superior, off Grand Marais Saturday evening and carried down all hands. So far as known here only one man, Capt. Hughney, escaped from this first accident of the season. The crew consisted of the following:

Capt. Andrew Hughney, wife and two-year-old child, Toledo; Fred Haas, sailor, residence unknown; six sailors, names unknown. The Nelson, which is owned by the Mitchell Transportation Company of Bay City, Mich., was in tow of the steamer A. Folsom, which also had the tow Mary B. Mitchell as a consort. The Folsom and Mitchell turned back and arrived here without serious damage. Capt. A. E. White, master of the steamer, at once reported the disaster to the owners.

The Folsom, Mitchell and Nelson were laden with coal. At the time of the disaster the wind was blowing a gale of fifty miles an hour and freezing hard. Seas broke aboard constantly and the force of the gale drove them toward the beach. Grand Marais was only four miles under the lee of the steamer and Capt. White decided to turn and make for the harbor. Before the turn could be made the Nelson drifted apart and it became apparent that the line had parted or had been cut. Soon it was apparent she was sinking. There was no possibility of rendering any assistance whatever. Soon the Nelson threw her stern into the air and dove straight for the bottom. Where she sank there is 300 feet of water. The crew even had no time to lower the yawl boat which hung on davits at the stern. The Folsom and Mitchell show the effects of the ordeal they had passed through. The Nelson measured 766 gross tons and was 133 feet long by 32 feet beam, and when she came out in 1896, was considered an exceedingly large schooner.

IN FRONT OF A TRAIN.

Sensational Suicide of an Insane Winona Woman.

Winona, Minn., May 16—Mrs. Martin Trzeblatowski was instantly killed by throwing herself in front of the fast mail train on the Milwaukee road just as it was entering the city. She was adjudged insane in the probate court some time ago, but was not committed because her family promised to take care of her. A small boy tried to hold her as the train approached, but she pushed him aside. She was struck by the steam chest of the engine and thrown about forty feet. She was fifty-seven years of age and leaves a husband and seven children.

Irving Seriously Ill.

London, May 16.—Sir Henry Irving, whose recent work in the title role of Sardou's drama "Robespierre," at the Lyceum theater, has been exceedingly trying, was taken seriously ill Sunday with an affection of the throat.

To Visit Dublin.

Dublin, May 16.—The prince of Wales has accepted the invitation of the earl of Cadogan, lord lieutenant of Ireland, to visit this city during the horse show in August. The princess will accompany him.

THE MARKETS.

Latest Quotations From Grain and Live Stock Centers.

St. Paul, May 16.—Wheat—No. 1 Northern, 71 @ 71 3-4c; No. 2 Northern, 69 1-2@70c. Corn—No. 3 yellow, 31 3-4@32c; No. 2, 31 1-2@31 3-4c. Oats—No. 3 white, 28@28 1-2c; No. 3, 27 1-2@28c. Barley and Rye—Sample, barley, 36@40c; No. 2 rye, 56c; No. 3 rye, 55c.

Duluth, May 16.—Wheat—Cash, No. 1 hard, 73 3-4c; No. 1 Northern, 70 3-4c; No. 2 Northern, 66 3-4c; No. 3 spring, 63 3-4c; to arrive, No. 1 hard, 73 3-4c; No. 1 Northern, 70 3-4c; May, No. 1 hard, 73 3-4c; No. 1 Northern, 70 3-4c; July, No. 1 hard, 74 3-4c; No. 1 Northern, 71 3-8c; September, No. 1 Northern, 69 1-8c. Oats, 26 1-2@27c; rye, 57c; barley, 38@40c; flax, to arrive, $1.03; September, 99c; corn, 31 3-4c.

Minneapolis, May 16.—Wheat—May opened at 68 3-4c and closed at 69c; July opened at 69 3-4c and closed at 70 1-8c; September opened at 67 1-4c and closed at 67 3-4c. On track—No. 1 hard, 70 7-8c; No. 1 Northern, 69 7-8c; No. 2 Northern, 68 5-8c.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 16.—Flour is dull. Wheat higher; No. 1 Northern, 73c; No. 2 Northern, 71 1-2c. Oats higher at 29@29 3-4c. Rye easy; No. 1, 60c. Barley strong; No. 2, 41c; sample, 36@41 1-2c.

Chicago, May 16.—Wheat—No. 2 red, 73 1-2@74 1-2c; No. 3, 70@73c; No. 2 hard winter, 68c; No. 3, 66@67c; No. 1 Northern spring, 72c; No. 2, 71c; No. 3, 70@71c. Corn—No. 2, 33 7-8c; No. 3, 32 1-2c. Oats—No. 2, 26 1-2@26 3-4c; No. 3, 26@26 1-4c.

Chicago, May 16.—Hogs—Light, $3.65@3.85; mixed, $3.65@3.90; heavy, $3.80@3.95; rough, $3.55@3.70. Cattle—Beeves, $4.25@5.35; cows and heifers, $1.75@4.95; Texas steers, $4.25@5. Sheep—Natives, $4@5.25; lambs, $4.50@6.25.

Sioux City, Iowa, May 16.—Hogs—$3.55@3.70. Cattle—Beeves, $4@5; cows and bulls, mixed, $2@4.50; stockers and feeders, $3.50@4.60; calves and yearlings, $3.75@5.25.

South St. Paul, May 16.—Hogs—$3.25@3.70. Cattle—Steers, $4@4.50; bulls, $2.75@2.80; stockers, $3.30@4.75; cows, $2.75@4; calves, $5.

Young Man Missing.

Minneapolis, May 16.—Trafford N. Jayne, a well known young lawyer of Minneapolis, is missing, and under very sensational circumstances. The facts as revealed by inquiries made by Mr. Jaynes' professional associate warrant the belief that serious financial embarrassments are responsible for his departure from a community wherein he was well known, and where he had figured prominently in business, social, religious and the better sporting circles.

Conspiracy the Charge.

Santa Fe, N. Mex., May 16—E. H. Bergman, late superintendent of the state penitentiary, his son Henry and O. I. Merrill, assistant superintendent, have been arrested, charged with conspiracy to get a prisoner to accuse Hon. T. B. Catron of employing him to poison Gov. Thornton and several others two years ago.

Insurgents Repulsed by Spaniards.

Madrid, May 16.—An official dispatch from Manila says the insurgents attacked the Spaniards at Zamboanga, on the island of Mindanao, but were repulsed. Two Spanish officers and three men were wounded and one man was killed. The insurgents cut off the water supply at Zamboanga.

The Resolute Out.

Portsmouth, N. H., May 16.—The United States steamer Resolute arrived here direct from Havana. Her crew of 325 men were all well. She will go out of commission at the navy yard here and the men will be discharged or transferred.

Attempted Suicide.

Chicago, May 16.—J. E. Degett, the son of a banker of Nebraska City, Neb., attempted to kill himself at the Victoria hotel. He was recently married, and it is supposed his suicidal attempt was the result of a trifling dispute with his wife.

Transvaal Trouble May Blow Over.

Pretoria, May 16.—The volksraad has given its approval to the meeting of President Kruger and Sir Alfred Milner, high commissioner to South Africa, on neutral ground. The general opinion is that the meeting will clear the air of most of the existing political troubles.

Catholic Jubilee in 1900.

Washington, May 16.—The papal bull issued in Rome within the last few days decreeing that the year 1900 shall be a jubilee year throughout the church is expected here shortly and will be announced in all churches in this country.

Costly Hoax.

Ancona, May 16.—Basani, the inventor of a story of a plot to assassinate Emperor William during his visit to the East, but which was abandoned, has been sentenced to seven and one-half years solitary confinement and to three years subsequent police supervision.

Fire at Lake Mills.

Des Moines, Iowa, May 16.—Fire at Lake Mills resulted in a loss of about $60,000 worth of property, including two elevators, two warehouses, two corn cribs and the Minneapolis & St. Louis stock yards. Partly insured.

Because He Wouldn't Buy.

Chicago, May 16.—Henry Rietz, a janitor at the Jefferson school, refused to buy drinks for two men whom he met in a saloon and a short time later he was struck a fatal blow by one of his companions.

Turks O. K., He Says.

Washington, May 16.—The Turkish minister gives an emphatic denial to cabled reports that the Turkish troops suffered a severe reverse at the hands of the Arab forces. He is informed that the Turks sustained no defeat.

To Legalize Prize Fighting.

New York, May 16.—The Press announces positively that the police board at its next meeting will grant a boxing license to the Coney Island Sporting club, which will then pull off the Fitzsimmons-Jeffries fight.

MINNESOTA ITEMS

The frame building of the Burns Co-operative Creamery association at Elk Point was burned to the ground.

G. H. Gurley has been appointed county auditor of Pipestone county to fill a vacancy caused by the death of J. C. Goodnow.

Leonard Vander Heuk, a prominent farmer of Bergen township, near Glencoe, was killed by his team running away.

John Lind, who works in a saw mill at Goose Lake, about sixteen miles from Rush City, had his thumb and forefinger cut off.

McIntyre insists that the Pillsbury-Washburn and Washburn-Crosby companies have become members of the great flour trust.

Hans Ecklund, a citizen of Princeton, was kicked by a horse on the face, and is thought to be fatally injured. He has a large family.

It has just leaked out that the state reformatory board at St. Cloud is contemplating a change of superintendents.

The Red Wing Furniture company has raised the wages of its employes 10 cents per day. This makes the fifth manufacturing establishment there to raise the wages of its men.

County Auditor J. C. Goodnow of Pipestone county, aged fifty-six, died after an illness of nine months. He has resided in Pipestone county since 1879 and was held in high esteem.

President J. J. Hill of the Great Northern has been secured by resident Director Hill of the St. Cloud normal school to make the annual address to the graduates.

The board of county commissioners has adopted a resolution providing for a bond issue to take up the floating indebtedness of Kanabec county, amounting to $12,500. The bonds will run from five to fifteen years.

The brewery of Amalia Busemetre at Pine City, with contents, machinery and ice house, were destroyed by fire. Loss on brewery, $5,000; store, $500. Insured in the Phoenix for $1,000, in the Manchester for $1,000.

Nellie Schermerhorn, wife of George Schermerhorn of Utica, Winona county, who last week made his debut as a balloonist, was granted a divorce from her husband. The same afternoon she was married to Aaron C. Schmidt of St. Charles.

The jury in the case of Frank Wanek vs. The City of Winona for $10,000 damages for personal injuries received because of a defective sidewalk, which he claimed to have fallen through, returned a verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $1,000.

N. M. Chase dropped dead in his yard at Hastings, evidently from apoplexy. He had been in his usual good health. He was one of Hastings' leading and most prosperous merchants, having been engaged in the boot and shoe business for the past twenty years.

O. H. Havill has been elected president and A. H. Reinhard cashier of the Merchants National Bank of St. Cloud. C. M. Hertig, who has been president since the organization of the bank, retires to engage in electrical enterprises there.

The Pine Tree mill employes in Little Falls have formed an association the object of which is to defray the expenses of any mill employe who is accidentally hurt or taken sick, excluding diseases considered dangerous and of long duration, during the time they are employed by the company.

The contract for constructing the New Ulm & Mankato railroad has been awarded to H. H. Streeter of Chicago, and work will begin very soon and be pushed to completion at once. The line will be divided into sections, and the work will advance all along the line at the same time.

Ole Knutson was arrested at Little Falls for robbing his room mate, one Wunberg, of some $20. He left a check of deposit for $100 untouched. When the case came up for trial Wunberg, the man who was robbed, did not appear, and the defendant was discharged and immediately left the city.

George Ketcham, an attorney of Herman and prominently mentioned as Judge Brown's successor on the district bench, died from apoplexy. He was about forty-eight years of age, and came to Herman eighteen years ago from Cass county, Mich.

The school board at Benson has elected Prof. H. S. Hillebo, who has been at the head of the Willmar seminary the past fifteen years, as principal of the Benson schools, to take the place of Prof. Andrew Nelson, who becomes assistant state superintendent July 1.

A meeting of delegates from the various German societies of Winona has been called for June 10, to effect a permanent organization, to join with the central society of the state in resenting the insinuations against German-American citizens, and is given voice by the yellow journals.

The franchise for twenty-five years for an electric light plant was awarded to Brown & Co. of Knoxville, Tenn., by the city council of Waterville, in consideration of their agreement to purchase and run to its full capacity the Rogers furniture factory, which has been lying idle for the past two years.

F. E. Culver, indicted at Duluth last fall for complicity in stealing part of the flour cargo from the steamer Orr, who skipped, has returned. F. G. Kraemer, the flour merchant who was indicted with Culver, but was released on account of the action of the county attorney when the cases came to trial, has been rearrested. It is rumored that Culver has returned under agreement to testify against Kraemer, and that a determined effort will be made by the insurance companies to convict the latter.

The board of directors of the Lutheran orphans' home at Vasa has awarded the contract for building the home, destroyed by fire last January, to C. J. Lindon of Red Wing, for $4,228. The new building will be heated by steam and will have all modern improvements.

While throwing up clips for a target, Edward Novak of Antigo was accidentally shot by James Krayche, his companion. The charge of bird shot entered the mouth, tearing away the left side of the face. Novak is about eighteen years old. His recovery is doubtful.

Bank of St. Hilaire.

HANNAY & CO., Bankers.

Real Estate Loans.
Chattel Loans.
Foreign & Domestic Xchange
INSURANCE.
Collections a Specialty.

A General Banking Business Transacted.

St. Hilaire, Minn.

Livery and Feed Stable!

DAN PATERSON, Prop.

Dray in Connection.

The finest equipped turnouts in the northwest. Safe drivers and furnished at a moments notice at reasonable rates. Don't forget the place

BIG - RED - BARN

Located on the east side of Broadway nearly opposite Rapp & Fost's Store

ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Says a modest exchange: There is a little matter which some of our subscribers have seemingly forgotten—some of them made us promises, but have not kept them. With us it is a very important matter—it's necessary in our business. We are very modest and don't like to speak about it.

GET YOUR PICTURE
TAKEN BY
D. COLLINS
THE
Photograper.
ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

K. O. GIGSTAD,
DEALER IN
REAL ESTATE.
Collections a Specialty.
JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.
NOTARY PUBLIC.
ST. HILAIRE,
MINNESOTA.

DAY F. STACY, C. E.
DEPUTY
County Surveyor.
RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.
Drainage and Farm Surveys a Specialty

"Money to patent good ideas may be secured by our aid, address, The Patent Record Baltimore, Md." 37

FIRE
INSURANCE
DO
YOU
NEED
SOME?

The Best is the Cheapest.

I have nine of the best companies doing business in the State

Call for rates.

H. E. IVES.

CUSTOM WORK.

JUST LOOK AT THESE PRICES:

Roll Carding—per pound	5 cts
Spinning Single Yarn—per pound	15 c
Stocking Yarn—2 or 3 ply, per pound	20 c

LITCHFIELD WOOLEN MILLS.
LITCHFIELD, MINN.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.
Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.
Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.
A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.
MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

The Spectator.

IVES & SOLL, Publishers.
JOHN J. SOLL, Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at St. Hilaire, Minn, as second-class mail matter.

Published every Wednesday at St. Hilaire, Red Lake County, Minn.

TERMS:—$1.50 Per Year in Advance.

Subscribers should notify the publisher on or before expiration of subscription if discontinuance is desired. Otherwise paper will be continued.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 17, 1899.

BIRD FLIGHT.

They flock upon the hazy air,
 Silent of note and purposeful of wing,
Nor gossip of the nesting time
 Disturbs their rhythmic, air born swing.

Across the dying fields light shadows fall
 That, for a moment's space, obscure the sun;
Then swift—a graceful troop—they wing their way,
 Pursued in haste by some belated one.

Now all the stubble land turns twilight grey
 A-hum with mystic runes and harvest rills.
Above the watching world a tiny speck
 Grows pale and fades against the southern hills.
—Elisabeth Alden Curtis in Philistine.

WAR AND MATRIMONY.

Cupid Is Much the Busiest in Times of Peace and Prosperity.

"There is a close connection between marriage and the price of wheat, beef, pork, beans, corn and other things which go to make up the main portion of human food," writes Professor D. R. McAnally of "The American Girl's Chances of Marriage," in The Ladies' Home Journal. "As the prices of these commodities go up the number of marriages goes down. From 1851 to 1854 times were good, food was cheap, and the marriage rate in Massachusetts went up to 26 per 1,000. Between 1855 and 1850 there was great depression of trade, and in 1858 the marriage rate went down to 17 per 1,000. The years from 1878 to 1879 form another period of depression. Factories were closed and manufacturers of every kind suffered severely. In one year, at least, crops were short and the prices of food were high. The result was immediately seen in matrimony, for in 1874 the number of marriages went down from 21 per 1,000 of the population to 18, and in 1870 and the following two years declined to 15 per 1,000—a tremendous falling off from 20 per 1,000, the figure attained in 1854, which was the banner year in the state of Massachusetts for matrimony.

"Almost as unfavorable as that of hard times is the influence of war upon matrimony. Whenever Mars is in the ascendant Cupid's stock goes down. During the civil war the number of marriages in this country fell off from 20 per 1,000 of population to 17 per 1,000, and immediately after the civil war was ended, in 1865, the number rose to 22 per 1,000, declining in 1800 to 21. The woman who is looking for a husband has a better chance of getting one just before or just after a war than at any other time."

With the Fading of Beauty.

A 16-year-old girl imagines that she is an angel, and never gets over it. After a woman gets old she thinks of how she was admired and complimented in her youth and feels that some great wrong was done her because she did not remain as pretty as she was at 10. If she is married, she is apt to lay the blame on the brutality of her husband; if she is an old maid, she lays it on her father, who was poor, and thus forced her to work, which resulted in a stooping figure and harsh features. A man never has this experience. He is at his worst at 10 and does not reach his best until he is 20 to 30. By that time he has acquired a little sense, and never mistakes a compliment for the truth.—Atchison Globe.

Sunday School Gems.

Stories of strange and amusing answers given to examination questions are frequently told, but we do not so often see recorded the equally surprising answers given by children in Sunday schools, and yet they are frequently original enough.

A teacher, lately wishing to turn the young idea toward the mission field, asked, "What are good men called who leave their homes and go to foreign lands to teach the heathen?"

"Prodigal sons," was the prompt and triumphant reply.

A class of boys when asked, "What were the ten plagues?" answered with more fervor than gallantry, "The ten virgins, sir."—Westminster Gazette.

Have No Use For Cents.

Pennies are not used by the banks of New Orleans in the payment of checks. If a check, for example, is drawn for $62.18, the holder receives $62.20. If the amount is $62.17, he gets $62.15. The split is made between the second and third cent, and the system, which has been in vogue for many years, is very rarely the subject of any complaint. It makes an exact balance of coppers at the end of the day's business rather unlikely, but the doctrine of averages operates to even things up to within a few cents. In the long run about as many checks break on one-half of the nickel as on the other.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Money Making Indians.

The Menominee Indians, in northwestern Wisconsin, are making as much money in lumber operations as are the Osages at farming. By the sale of pine logs in years past the 1,300 men, women and children have accumulated a tribal fund aggregating $1,000,000, which is still growing. The tribe expends about $75,000 a year in logging operations and clears from $50,000 to $100,000 annually.

Detecting Flaws in Metal.

To detect hidden cracks opening from the surface of metals the surface is first moistened with kerosene and is then dried off with a cloth. It is then coated with chalk. After a little while the oil works out of the little cracks and stains the chalk. A sort of diagram of the hidden fissures and defects is thus produced.

Professor C. Lloyd Morgan has in his book on "Habit and Instinct" advanced the theory that, while the calls and alarm notes uttered by birds are probably due to simple instinct, their songs may be traditional—that is, handed down from generation to generation and perpetuated through the faculty of imitation.

A SONG OF FORGETTING.

The hours as playthings were—ah, me!
 And laughter lived in every word
What time that love was young and glee
 In every pulsing heart throb stirred.

The wild plum blossomed in the glen,
 The rabbit raced across the plain,
And frightened birdlings flurried when
 Our hounds and horses tramped the grain.

Down in the grove beside the spring
 We rested when the race was won,
And listened to the wood bird sing
 A lullaby when day was done.

But, ah, you wandered from my side
 And paved the long, lone lane of years
With memory stones and lost too while
 For sobs to soothe with memory tears.

And now you come—come back to me
 To fill, as then, the old time place—
Where is the music of your plea?
 What change has come upon your face?

Oh, friend, to lose and still love on,
 To live on chaff instead of grain
Is better than to feel love gone—
 Forgetting is the keenest pain.
—Atlanta Constitution.

CHARLES STEWART PARNELL

How the Great Irish Leader Came to Enter Politics.

Charles Stewart Parnell was 28 years old before he made his entry into the political arena. How the step was taken is thus described by Mr. R. Barry O'Brien in his biography of the great Irish leader:

"One night during the general election of 1874 Parnell dined with his sister, Mrs. Dickinson, in Dublin. After dinner Captain Dickinson said: 'Well, Charles, why don't you go into parliament? Why don't you stand for your native county?'

"To the surprise of every one at the table, Parnell said quickly: 'I will. Whom ought I to see?'

"'Oh,' said Dickinson, 'we will see about that tomorrow. The great thing is you have decided to stand.'

"'I will see about it at once,' said Parnell. 'I have made up my mind, and I won't wait. Whom ought I to see?'

"'I think Gray of The Freeman's Journal,' said John, who was also present.

"'Very well,' said Parnell, rising from the table. 'I shall go to him at once. Do you come with me, John.'

"The two brothers then went away together. It was now 11 o'clock, and they found Gray at The Freeman's office. He was amazed when Parnell entered and said, 'I have come to say, Mr. Gray, that I mean to stand for Wicklow as a Home Ruler.'"

It was only the year after that, on the death of John Mitchel, Parnell was returned for Meath. At first it is plain that Parnell had few if any followers. The ability of the representative from Meath was questioned. Butt was then the controlling power. It was only in 1880 that Parnell became the leader.

Bruges.

The chronicles of 1456 speak of 150 vessels in its basins and of German merchants carrying away over 2,000 pieces of cloth to the distant lands of Russia and Poland. It was the exchange of Europe, possessing in the fourteenth century 52 guilds and 150,000 inhabitants, more than three times as many as it now contains. Among its wares we read of leather from Spain, wool from England, silk from Italy and Persia, linen and cloth from Brabant, hemp and flax from Holland, wine from Portugal, Greece and France and hardware from Germany, which included every variety of object in ivory, bone, wood, glass, tin, copper, lead, iron, silver and gold. It had its factories, its curriers, its dyers, and its taxation considerably exceeded that of Ghent. But at the commencement of the fourteenth century its troubles began—troubles, from within and from without.

The Soene was rendered useless by the invasion of sand as far as Sluis (Ecluse), treachery, slaughter and political jealousies and rivalries completed the fall, and in 1544 its inhabitants had diminished to 7,006. Then came the religious wars and persecutions from 1507 to 1584, the fanatics and the Gueux destroying what remained, leaving little for the French revolutionists.—Good Words.

The Swiss Parliament.

Switzerland differs from other countries in many things, and one of the most remarkable is the way in which its parliamentary debates are conducted. A Swiss member of parliament can express himself in French, German or Italian, and the privilege is freely used. When the president of the federal assembly speaks in German, his remarks are translated by a secretary in close proximity to him. All the laws and resolutions, before being voted upon, are drawn up in French, German and Italian, and every official report is published in these three languages.—Birmingham Post.

Making It Clear.

Somebody has discovered that a Bermuda onion eaten raw will clear the head. A Bermuda onion eaten raw will do more than that. It will clear an entire room. An active Bermuda onion is a complete clearing house all by itself. Take one Bermuda onion—only one—and let the lips of beauty close upon it, and love will turn to hatred and honey to gall and bitterness.

Clear the head? Why, a Bermuda onion in fairly good health will clear the head of navigation!—Exchange.

The Germans have introduced what amounts to slave labor in their east African colonies. Each native village must furnish a certain number of inhabitants to labor for the imperial government on plantations or elsewhere without pay.

A man who is overshrewd in his business relations is pretty sure to learn in the course of time that the world is shrewd enough to protect itself against him.—Somerville Journal.

Gambling debts are recoverable by law in France, Spain, Venezuela, and in some cases in Germany.

—Den Petterson has again taken the contract of furnishing short mill wood for this year and anyone in need of any can leave orders at his livery barn or at the office of the St. Hilaire Lumber Co.

—It is better than ready money because it cures rheumatism, constipation sick headache, indigestion. Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure.

—Every farmer who writes a letter occasionally should get envelopes with his name and address printed in the corner. We will furnish 100 of the best quality printed in any style for the small sum of 75 cts. Send in your order

Bamboo Fortifications.

Throughout the east the bamboo plays an important role in nearly every kind of outdoor work. In building earthworks it is utilized very cleverly indeed. In sandy soil or in the soft loam along the swamps two rows of bamboo are driven, about four feet apart. The lengths of bamboo are about 10 or 12 feet long, and the thickness is about four inches. Earth or sand is thrown in between the rows of bamboo, making a ditch in front of the stockade. A third row of bamboo is then driven four feet to the rear of the inner row, but this row rises only a couple of feet above the natural level of the soil. More earth or sand is filled in, and the filling in each case is rammed down as hard as possible.

Where there has been a sufficient length of time to cut portholes through the front thickness of earth the men in the fortifications thus thrown up need not expose themselves at all, but when, as in all cases of rapidly constructed field works, temporary protection alone has been desired, the rows of bamboo do not rise more than three feet above the natural level, and the men lie down or crouch behind the protection thus afforded and fire over it.

Such works will keep out any rifle ball, and will even so localize shrapnel fire as to make it very ineffective. If the shrapnel strikes the bamboo before exploding it will harm only those directly in front of it. If it bursts before reaching the earthwork the shrapnel balls will fail to penetrate it.

Religion and the Possum.

An incident told by the Rev. V. B. Carroll in The Homiletic Review makes apparent the necessity in this transition period of getting the negro inwardly right in order that his relationship to society may be right.

We were driving out one Sunday from Decatur, when we came upon a negro, with a club in his hand and a freshly killed possum on his shoulder. We stopped to examine his prize, and the colonel said:

"My friend, do you know it is Sunday?"

"Sartin, boss."

"Are you not a religious man?"

"I are. I'ze jist on my way home from church."

"And what sort of religion have you got that permits you to go hunting on Sunday?"

"Religion, religion?" queried the man as he held the possum up with one hand and scratched his head with the other. "Does you 'spect any black man in Alabama is gwine to tie hisself up to any religion dat 'lows a possum to walk right across de road ahead of him an git away free? No, sah! A religion which won't bend a little when a fat possum heads you off couldn't be 'stablished round yere by all de preachers in de univarse."

Sharks Fear Noise.

The cowardliness of sharks is well known among men who have been much to sea in southern waters infested by man eaters. The fiercest shark will get out of the sea way in a very great hurry if the swimmer, noticing its approach, sets up a noisy splashing. A shark is in deadly fear of any sort of living thing that splashes in the water.

Among the south sea islands the natives never go sea bathing alone, but always in parties of half a dozen or so in order that they may make the greatest hubbub in the water, and thus scare the sharks away. Once in awhile a too venturesome swimmer among these natives foolishly detaches himself from his swimming party and momentarily forgets to keep up his splashing. Then there is a swish,—and the man eater comes up beneath him like a flash and gobbles him.

The Sermon.

The caustic remarks of Justice Hawkins have not always been confined to the bench. At the opening of an assize the chaplain preached what he conceived to be a distinctly good sermon, and he had the temerity to sound Mr. Justice Hawkins on the subject.

"Did you approve of my sermon, my lord?" he asked.

"I remarked in your sermon, Mr. Chaplain," was the prompt reply, "two things which, to be candid, I did not approve of, and which I have, I am glad to say, never remarked on a similar occasion."

"They were, my lord?" was the anxious question of the preacher.

"The striking of the clock," answered Mr. Justice Hawkins, "twice, sir."—Green Bag.

Libels on Dogs.

After all man does not remember the dog's good qualities as he should. Look at the similes he uses—"you lying hound," "mean as a hound dog," "dog" and "low down cur!" Man hardly can think of a lower name than one connected with dogs. And in horse racing the worthless ones are called "dogs."

It seems a little ungrateful when one remembers all that a dog will bear from a man and still love him.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

She Was Deliberate.

It is said that Dinah Muloch Craik, the famous author of "John Halifax, Gentleman," made a habit of leaving at her bank the manuscript of each of her stories as soon as it was completed. It would remain there perhaps six months and then she would call for it and see how the story affected her after that lapse of time. If it pleased her, the manuscript was sent to the publisher. Otherwise it was rewritten or thrown away.

They All Knew.

Teacher—Now, boys, who was Columbus?

No answer.

Teacher (promptingly)—The man that—

Class (readily)—Broke the bank at Monte Carlo—London Judy.

The Army and Navy.

Have covered themselves with glory during the war. The Army and Navy vest pocket memorandum book published by the Northern Pacific is a compact digest of information relative to the navies and armies of Spain and the United States at the beginning of the war. It has a map of Cuba, illustrations of naval ships, glossary of navy and army terms, translation of Spanish words, etc. Send ten cents to Chas. S. Fee, general passenger agent, N. P. R., St. Paul, Minn., for a copy.

Notice of Dissolution.

Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership of Sortedahl & Storaasli is dissolved by mutual consent.

M. O. Sortedahl will continue the business in connection with a general banking business under the name and style of Bank of Red Lake Falls and is authorized to settle all accounts of said co-partnership.

M. O. SORTEDAHL.
E. O. STORAASLI.

Dated at Red Lake Falls, Minn., May 10 1899.

List of Town Clerks.

Names	Township	Postoffice
Olof Larson	Numedal	Viking
C. E. Purdy	North	Thief River Falls
John E. Peterson	Bray	Bray
N. K. Anderson	Sanders	St. Hilaire
F. T. Satro	Rocksbury	T. R. Falls
O. T. Romsos	Polk Centre	Wylie
P. A. Eckstrom	Black River	Wylie
A. S. Anderson	River Falls	St. Hilaire
Ole J. Johnson	Wyandotte
A. D. Berry	Louisville	Huot
Idaloge Baril	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
Chas. E. Asp	Emardville	Lost
Edward Havik	Equality	Orit
Moses Ducharme	Lake Pleasant	R. L. F.
Edmour Perusse	Terrebonne	Terrebonne
J. B. Horbert	Poplar River	Brooks
Louis Doucet	Lambert	Lambert
J. L. Johnson	St. Hilaire	St. Hilaire
Lars Backe	Thief River F	T. R. F.
A. P. Toupin	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
H. D. Baaryson	Norden	T. R. Falls
Olof Tande	Garnes	Garnes

U. S. LAND OFFICE.
Crookston, Minn., April 14, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of her claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 1st 1899, viz:

Anna Sundahl, widow of Karl Sundahl, deceased. H. E. 14373, for the se¼ sec. 8, twp. 152 N. of range 42 W.

She names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—Aasine Olson, John P. Sandberg, Anton Peterson and Simon E. Ahlberg, all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

38-43 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

U. S. LAND OFFICE.
Crookston, Minn., April 14, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of her claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 1st 1899, viz:

Aasine Olson. H. E. No. 14974, for the nw¼ sec. 9, twp. 152 N. of range 42 W.

She names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—Anna Sundahl, John P. Sandberg, Anton Peterson and Simon E. Ahlberg, all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

38-43 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

U. S. LAND OFFICE.
Crookston, Minn., April 14, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 1st 1899, viz:

John F Sandberg. H. E. 15018, for the ne¼ sw¼ sec. 12, twp. 152 N. of range 43 W.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—Anna Sundahl, Aasine Olson, Anton Peterson and Simon E Ahlberg all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

38-43 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

U. S. LAND OFFICE.
Crookston, Minn., April 21, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 20th 1899, viz:

Joseph Anderson. H. E. 14951, for the se¼ sec. 81, twp. 152 N. of range 42 W.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—H. A. Johnson, John Albin, E. P. Stroberg and Charles Erickson, all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

39-44 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

Say?

If your wheel needs enameling, cleaning, new tires or any other repairing give us a trial. All work done promptly and satisfactory. Prices reasonable.

F. J. TOUSLEY & CO.
35 RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

FARMS
LOANS
ABSTRACTS
97 Farms for sale or rent in Red Lake County.
SWANSON & GRADY,
Official Abstractors.
RED LAKE FALLS. - - MINN.

Why does the boy hate the beer?

He doesn't—he loves it because it is Hamm's delicious brew. It is the medicine his kind aunty has mixed in it that he dislikes. Never mind he is to have a drink of the pure article afterwards to take the bad taste away.

Hamm's
St. Paul
Beer
Drink a beer you know is pure.
Theo. Hamm Brewing Co.
Tel. 972 — St. Paul, Minn.
Agents Everywhere.

UNION MEAT MARKET
P. O. MOSLETH, PROP.

Choicest line of Fresh and Salted meats in the city.
Highest market price paid for Stock, Poultry and Hides.

—The SPECTATOR is the official paper of the village and county. Now is the time to subscribe. $1.00 per year if paid in advance—otherwise $1.50.

WANTED-BRAINS
Can you think of something to patent? Protect your ideas; they may bring you wealth. Before applying for patent, get our liberal offers. Inventor's Assistant and handsome views of Washington sent Free on request. Be sure to write to-day COPP & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C.

Spring Suits.

STYLISH SPRING SUITS FOR MEN AND BOYS.

The Greatwestren own magnificent display of men's spring suits, and boys' choicest clothing is now ready, at a saving of fully 25 per cent.

Greatwestern Clothing House.

SOME OF OUR CLUB RATES WITH THE

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR

OUR TERMS ARE STRICTLY CASH IN ADVANCE

OFFICIAL PAPER OF ST. HILAIRE AND RED LAKE COUNTY.

Cosmopolitan and Spectator.

To secure for you the best and most interesting of the great illustrated magazines at the lowest possible price has been the aim of the editor of this journal. That we have succeeded we will leave our readers to judge. A special contract recently entered into with The Cosmopolitan, which seeks to become better known in this neighborhood, has enabled us to offer you a year's subscription to the greatest of the illustrated magazines together with a year's subscription to this journal, both together one year for only $1.80.

Farm, Stock & Home.

50 cents per year. Read by a greater number of Northwestern farmers than any other agricultural paper published. Are you among the number? If not, Why not? Every department in the hands of a specialist. Short talks department. A department where all kinds of questions are answered for the benefit of subscribers, is a leading feature of the paper. No northwestern farmers list of papers is complete without it. This paper and Spectator one year for $1.25.

Cosmopolitan, New York World and The Spectator.

You wish to keep in touch with metropolitan life, through the medium of a great daily. The Thrice-a-Week World of New York is the equivalent of a daily and is a marvelous fund of knowledge concerning the happenings of the day. Each issue contains six to eight pages of eight columns each or over eight thousand columns of reading matter a year. In former days this would have cost you probably as much as $6.00 a year, by itself. Now you can have it, if you wish, in connection with your home paper and The Cosmopolitan Magazine. Three together one year for only $2.35.

IF YOU INTEND TO Buy
Furniture
Come and look our assortment over. We carry everything in the Furniture line including picture frames and musical instruments. Prices reasonable.
Holmes Furniture Co.

BANK OF RED LAKE FALLS,
RED LAKE FALLS, MINNESOTA
GENERAL BANKING. FOREIGN XCHANGE
Real Estate, Farm Loans and Insurance.
Abstracts of Title.
Steamship Tickets.
Interest Paid on Time Deposits.
Collections of all Kinds Given Prompt Attention.
Owner of the Abstract Books formerly owned by Sortedahl & Storaasli the only set of Abstract Books in Red Lake County.
M. O. SORTEDAHL, President and Cashier.
G. P. SEVERTSON, Assistant Cashier

Hon. W. J. BRYAN.

Bryan's New Book
REPUBLIC or EMPIRE?
THE PHILIPPINE QUESTION
BY
HON. WILLIAM J. BRYAN
With Supplementary Chapters from
Hon. Andrew Carnegie, Senators Hoar, Vest, Allen, White, Gorman, Bacon, Mason, Daniel, Chilton, Butler, McLaurin, Tillman, Money, Turner, Teller, Edmunds, Clay; Hon. H. U. Johnson, Hon. Chas. A. Towne, Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, Ex-Secretary Carlisle, Rev. Dr. Van Dyke, Hon. Chas. Francis Adams, Prof. David Starr Jordan, Gen'l Weaver, Hon. Carl Schurz, Sam'l Gompers, Prest. Am. Fed. of Labor, and others.

Hon. ANDREW CARNEGIE.

THE SENSATION OF THE CENTURY. IMPERIALISM AND ABSOLUTISM DENOUNCED.
Territorial Expansion denominated, "THE POOR MAN'S LOAD," and opposed to the Constitution of the United States, the Declaration of Independence, and all the most sacred doctrines of our Republic as handed down to us by our Fathers.
THE GOSPEL OF A HIGHER CIVILIZATION AND BROADER LIBERTY.
THE ONLY BOOK ON THE SUBJECT.
AGENTS WANTED.
It is profusely illustrated, giving beautiful half-tone portraits of Mr Bryan and the other contributors, also scenes of thrilling interest, showing the exact conditions and customs in the Philippines. Nothing like it before attempted in book-publishing. A very bonanza for agents.
It cannot be bought at book-stores; it cannot be furnished by any other house. We are the sole Official Publishers.
The first Edition, 100,000 copies. A large octavo book, beautiful new type.
WE PAY FREIGHT on each order amounting to 50 books at one time, when cash accompanies order.
THE OUTFIT IS FREE. We make no charge for the elegant, complete Prospectus Outfit, with blanks, etc., but as each Outfit costs us a lot of money, in order to protect ourselves against many who would impose upon us by sending for Outfit with no intention of working, but merely out of idle curiosity, we require the applicant, as a guarantee of good faith on his part, to send us 25c to cover postage and wrapping, this amount to be refunded to agent upon our receipt of first order for 10 books.

Best Cloth Binding	$1.50
Best Half Russia Binding, with marbled edges	2.25
Best Full Russia Binding, with gold edges	3.00

Write for our Unparalleled Terms to Agents. Address—
THE INDEPENDENCE COMPANY, Publishers,
FRANKLIN BUILDING, CHICAGO.

Cigars.
BRINK BROTHERS
DEALERS IN
Wines & Liquors
Minneapolis Beer.
Corner Broadway and 3rd St. St. Hilaire, Minnesota

Be Ready For Spring When it Comes

A full line of spring merchandise just arrived. We invite inspection of these goods. A splendid line of Skirts and Waists, both in ready-made and patterns at prices which are right. I shall not attempt to describe the line; only urge you most cordially to see the goods before you buy.

E. M. HOFF.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

I. O. O. F. St. Hilaire Lodge No. 147.—Meets at their hall every Thursday evening, eight o'clock. Visiting members are cordially invited to attend.
E. M. Hoff, N. G.
J. H. Johnson, Secretary.

M. W. A. CAMP 3650.—Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every second and fourth Tuesday of every month. Visiting neighbors are cordially invited to attend.
Leonard Holmes, V. C.
Jas. M. Hall, Clerk.

R. N. A.—WILD ROSE CAMP.—No. 834 Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every Friday evening. Visiting members of the order are cordially invited to attend.
Mrs. L. N. Nolan, Oracle.
Miss T. Hughes, Recorder.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Auditor	Adam Zeh
Treasurer	O. T. Tandberg
Register of Deeds	Samuel Gibson
Sheriff	Chas. Sampson
Attorney	Van D. Brown
Judge of Probate	J. T. Knight
Clerk of Court	Joe Perrault
Supt. of Schools	Frank Jeffers
Coroner	Joe Belaire
Court Commissioner	J. C. Mathews
Surveyor	P. O. Hagglund
Commissioner 1st Dist.	J. Suter
Commissioner 2nd Dist.	W. L. C. Demann
Commissioner 3rd Dist.	O. J. Johnsen
Commissioner 4th Dist.	Karl M. Hanson
Commissioner 5th Dist.	J. B. Herbert

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

E. J. Holmes	President
J. L. Johnson	Recorder
D. Patterson	Councilmen
J. C. Dahl
W. A. Sorsoleil
L. Holmes	Treasurer

Barber Shop
—AND—
BATH ROOMS.
—0—
Haircutting, Shaving, Shampooing.
Razors honed and put in first-class order.
J. H. PENNO, Prop.
ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Henry Francis, M.D, C.M.
Member College Physicians and Surgeons, Ontario.
Thief River Falls, Minnesota.

"THE IDEAL" Lunch Room.
In the Paradis Building is noted for its Convenience.
FIRST-CLASS MEALS.
PROMPT SERVICE.
☞ OPEN UNTIL ONE O'CLOCK A. M.
A. F. LANG, Prop.

DR. BLOMBURGH.
SCANDINAVIAN
Physician & Surgeon.
☞ Calls attended day or night. ☜
Teeth Extracted.
Office and residence opposite American Hotel. St. Hilaire, Minn.

2nd ☛ STORE
(Second Hand Store.)
Everything in this line now on hand. Special bargains given. If you have anything to dispose of give me a call. Repairing of harness also done.
C. A. SKEIE.
St. Hilaire, - - - Minnesota

Blacksmith!
Horse-shoeing, repairing of all kinds of Farm Implements, Machinery, etc. All work promptly attended to and done in a satisfactory manner.
J. C. DAHL.
St. Hilaire, - Minnesota

PATENTS
Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained and all Patent business conducted for Moderate Fees.
Our Office is opposite U. S. Patent Office and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.
Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.
A Pamphlet, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U.S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,
C.A.SNOW&CO.
Opp. Patent Office, Washington, D. C.

Market Report.—To-Day.

Wheat No. 1	70	Oats	20
Wheat No. 2	69	Barley	28
Wheat No. 3	65	Flax	96
Eggs (per doz).	12½	Butter (per lb)	10

LOCAL NEWS.

When smiling summer comes again
And jocund daisies grow.
We'll have to cut the waving grass.
Where once we shoveled snow.
We'll have to hear the same sad wail,
When men are brought together;
There's no vacation for the man
Who kicks about the weather.
Washington Star.

Band dance to-night.

Talk about mud! Dont mention it.

Rather heavy frost last Saturday morning.

Wall paper and calcimine at the New Drug store.

Some wheat fields are looking nice and green.

R. H. Almer make an A No. 1 street commissioner.

J. H. Johnson returned Monday from a business trip to Fisher.

Two blocks on Broadway should be fenced in and teams out.

Miss Dora Ostrom is visiting friends in the village since Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Eikhoff returned Friday from a visit at Crookston.

Try a lunch, a meal or a weeks board at the Ideal Lunch Room.

5 cents will buy two packages of garden seeds at M. A. Hall's.

The weather of the past few days has been a set-back to seeding.

—Go to the New Drug Store for your Stationery and School supplies.

Geo. Strawbridge made a business trip to the upper Falls Saturday.

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Olson Monday May 15th 1899, a daughter.

The weather since Friday has been a great deal like the first part of April.

Patronize home industry by buying your wall paper at the New Drug store.

Dr. Blomburgh went to Thief River Falls yesterday on professional business.

Erik Bjerk of Marshal county spent Sunday here visiting with his brother Martin.

With the aid of a harrow, Broadway has been wonderfully improved since last week.

Attention is called to the new advertisement of M. O. Sortedahl of Red Lake Falls.

Philip Zeh of the upper Falls passed through here Thursday enroute to the county seat.

Two teams got mired on Broadway yesterday and it was difficult to extricate them.

Dr. Dunlop of Crookston came up last Friday, being summoned in the Kolstad case.

Mike Fricker has just received a carload of corn which he will grind into all kinds of feed.

President McKinley promises to visit St. Paul and Minneapolis the coming summer or fall.

Supt. J. G. Ballerd of the Crookston Lumber Co., and wife, came up Saturday for a short stay.

Mrs. H. Thibedeau and son Walter paid Red Lake Falls friends a visit last Friday and Saturday.

Joe. Paradis of Red Lake Falls was here Friday visiting with his brother Peter for a few hours.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Nolon and family of Thief River Falls spent Sunday in the village visiting friends.

The rear of a four million feet drive of logs for the St. Hilaire Lumber Company reached here Monday.

Oscar Olson of Fosston arrived yesterday, being summoned at the death of his brother-in-law, L. K. Kolstad.

President Shavlin of the St. Hilaire Lumber Co., was here last week looking after his lumbering interests. He returned home Friday.

Editor Mussey of the Thief River Falls Press was a pleasant caller at this office yesterday. He left on the afternoon train for Crookston.

This spring compares favorably to that of seven years ago—only we are due to have another light snow storm between now and the 20th.

L. J. MacConnell has sold out his stock of confectionary to H. Fant of Thief River Falls who will continue to do business at the old stand.

Dr. Forbes will lecture at this place on the evening of May 24th. Subject: The mistakes of the Devil and some other people.

The weather on Monday was all one could wish for—sunshine, thunder, rain a few hail and some snow. Surely that ought to be enough for one day, and May 15th at that.

The last legislature again changed the time for holding the annual school meeting in Minnesota to the third Saturday in July, which was the time before the law of 1897 went into effect.

The old custom of charivaring a newly married couple has not been forgotten by the people of to-day. George knew how to handle a crowd of this kind and passed around the cigars before they had time to use bells, tin cans and other instruments of torture.

Northern Minnesota editors will have an outing June 13-17. They will visit Walker, Leech Lake, Bemidji, Grand Rapids, Pokegama Falls and Duluth. Four or five banquets, two dances and a number of carriage and boat rides will be among the diversions.

P. S. Ware, formerly in the newspaper business at Thief River Falls and who recently resigned the position as chief clerk on the Chippewa Indian Estimating Corps passed through here yesterday enroute to the upper Falls to assist in packing up his household goods preparatory to moving to Warren where we will make his future home. Mr. Ware has recently made a deal whereby he becomes the owner of the Chapin Drug store. We wish Brother Ware success in his new venture.

To cure a cough in one day take the Imperial cough syrup. Guaranteed to cure. For sale at the new Drug Store.

There has been a good deal of the usual maundering rot in the legislature about the "poor" farmer. The farmer is not poor. Taken as a class he is the richest man in the world. Taking the whole population of the cities and not one man out of twenty has a clear title to more than he wears on his back. Take the average farming community, and nine farmers out of ten are solvent, and have something laid by for a rainy day, and still they talk about the "poor" farmer!—Princeton Union.

Ladies' Aid Society.

The Ladies, Aid Society of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. S. Harris on Thursday afternoon May 18th. Other ladies interested in the work are kindly invited to attend.

Mrs. J. A. Dainard,
Secretary

The legal holidays in the state of Minnesota now number eight, the legislature just dead having added New Years, Independence day and Christmas day to the list. The dates of the holidays in their order during the year begin as follows: January 1, February 12th, February 22nd, May 30th, July 4th September 1st, the first Tuesday after the first Monday in each even numbered year, election day and December 25. Good Friday and Thanksgiving day might as well have been added to the list as both are more or less observed as holidays throughout the land.

Miss Alice and Walter Holmes of Cannon Falls, sister and brother of Emil Holmes, arrived to-day and will spend the summer visiting relatives.

A well meaning, communicative citizen is a boon to the newspaper reporter, and it is a notable fact that many good items are lost to the people who are too modest to tell the editor matters concerning themselves. The right thing to do is to courteously stop the newspaper man on the street or any other place you may see him and tell him you have been on a visit, have been entertaining friends, that your wife entertained relatives, or anything that is anyway a matter of news. If you have done anything mean keep it to yourself, for he already knows of it; there are others who make it their business to tell that.

—For cuts and sores there is nothing better than the Imperial Carbolic salve.

Raising the left arm is a simple and sure way of stopping choking, says the Washington Star. Raising the left arm as high as you can will relieve choking much more rapidly than by being thumped on the back, and it is well that every one should know it, for often a person gets choked while eating when there is no one to thump him. Very frequently at meals and when they are playing children get choked while eating and the customary manner of relieving them is to slap them sharply on the back. The effect of this is to set the obstruction free, so that it can be swallowed. The same thing can be brought about by raising the left hand of the child as high as possible, and the relief comes more rapidly. In happenings of this kind there is no cause for alarm, for if the child sees that the older person or parent get excited they are very liable to get so also. The best thing is to tell the child to raise its left arm and usually the difficulty passes down.

—La Grippe is again epidemic and every precaution should be taken to avoid it. When everything else fails, try a bottle of the Imperial Sarsaparilla it will cure Grippe in all its forms. Free samples at the New Drug Store.

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. L. K. Kolstad wishes to extend her heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends who so kindly extended aid and sympathy at the death and funeral of her late husband.

The Best Cough Remedy on Earth.

Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, Consumption Cure, cures a cold in 24 hours if taken in time and does not stop a cough in One Minute by paralyzing the throat, but it cures the disease and leaves the throat and lungs healthy and strong. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

Married.

Olson-Legess.—On Saturday May 13th 1899, Mr. George Olson to Miss Delia Legess. The ceremony was preformed by Father Lawrence of Red Lake Falls at the residence of the brides parents in this village. If we are rightly informed this is the youngest couple that was ever married in St. Hilaire. The bride is in her nineteenth year and the groom lacked just one day of being 19. The Spectator wishes them much joy throughout married life.

It's all Right.

County Commissioner Hansen on Tuesday had ex-Sheriff Norland examine the bridge across the Red Lake river at this point to ascertain whether or not it would be strong enough to hold the boilers for the new saw mill which will have to be taken across it. Mr. Norland is an expert at the business and he pronounces the bridge strong enough to hold 100 tons.—Thief River Falls News.

—Dr. Thomas is an up-to-date in all the different branches in his profession. Remember the dates, June 5th and 6th.

The Texas Citizen says:—We know of no better gymnasium than the wood-saw. It develops both the physical and the moral points of a young man. This is not so with the boxing gloves and trapeze which claim the attention of the sport while his grandmother is sawing wood with which to cook his dinner.

Lightning's Freak.

County Commissioner Wm. Demann had a narrow escape from death by lightning during the storm last Wednesday afternoon. The shock was sufficient to kill two of his cows, one of which was not more than fifteen feet away. The current followed the wire fence a few rods killing the second one. Luckily Mr. Demann escaped without injury although he was more or less shaken up.—Red Lake Falls Courier.

About forty friends of Dr. and Mrs. Blomburgh surprised them Saturday evening by dropping in on them unexpectedly. The party making their wants known, the large room was cleared and dancing was soon the order of the evening. Before retiring, the spokesman of the party after a little speech, presented the genial doctor and his wife with a token in the shape of an elegant side board. All present had an enjoyable time.

An Old Settler Gone.

On Sunday afternoon May 14th 1899, at his residence on Water street Mr. L. K. Kolstad breathed his last. The deceased had been suffering for a little more than two weeks with inflamation of the bowels and while several doctors done all within their power, his life could not be saved. Mr. Kolstad had been a resident of St. Hilaire for the past fifteen years and was engaged in the boot and shoe business. He was married in 1888 to Miss Mary Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Olson of this village. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn his loss. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon in the Norwegian Lutheran church, conducted by Rev. A. M. Lunde and Rev. H. Logan of the M. E. church after which the remains were laid at rest in the cemetery east of town. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the entire community.

—If you are troubled with rheumatism take the Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure. It will positively cure all diseases arising from impure blood, and is sold under an absolute guarantee to benefit or money refunded. Call for free sample at the New Drug Store.

A few "Arrow shots" clipped from the Fertile Journal.

Liars rarely ever associate with one another.

People's front porch indicate a good deal about what kind of folks they are.

An excursion for almost any fool thing will generally draw a big crowd.

There are some men with lock boxes at the postoffice who get little or no mail.

We are glad when some men have jobs, because then they are too busy to loaf.

Profanity in a play makes fools laugh who would disapprove of it on the streets.

It is one consolation to know that no one has real good friends without some enemies.

A man that boasts that he is at home wherever his hat is off is usually living off his relations.

A pretty woman showing just a bit of her petticoat attracts attention. A homely one does not.

When a woman reads anything she does not agree with she gets mad, while a man laughs about it.

We never heard of but one man who gave in more property to the assessor than he realy possessed.

No one looks as foolish as a couple of men who have been overheard by the person they were talking about, trying to look innocent and unconcerned.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

Dentist.

—Dr. J. H. Thomas, the Crookston dentist will be at Hotel Markham, St. Hilaire, June 5th and 6th prepared to do all kinds of up to date dental work in all branches. All work warranted. Remember the dates 8th and 9th.

Consumption Cured.

—Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth, cures a cold in one day if taken in time. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Regular Correspondent.

Senator Stewart was asked whether he favored an extra session of Congress in September. "No, certainly not," he replied; "nothing would be gained by it that would be useful. It would simply mean three or four months of talk before they got down to business, instead of three or four weeks, which invariably follows the assembling of the first session of a new Congress."

An extra session of Congress will be called early in the fall, if public opinion does not object sufficiently to frighten Mr. McKinley out of issuing the call. That is the only reason it has not been officially announced. It has been decided upon, but Mr. McKinley wishes to appear to follow a public demand, so the announcement was deferred until his friends, who are now talking extra session in every direction, could try to work up the public demand.

It seems that one of the ways in which our new possessions are to be Americanized is to allow them to be overflowed by Chinese coolies. The order issued several weeks ago, extending the laws and regulations governing immigration to the U. S. to all territory under military control, was taken to mean that Chinese coolies would be excluded from Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines. But that didn't suit those who are interested in filling those islands with Chinese and they had pull enough with the powers that be to get an official order issued by the War Department saying that the extension order issued did not include that excluding the Chinese.

The gall of the beef contractors is second only to that of Secretary Alger. It might have been supposed that they would have been more than satisfied to be exonerated from all blame for the bad beef, which the report of the Court of Inquiry admits was furnished the soldiers—the report declaring that the beef was all good when it left the hands of the contractors agents—but they are not; they are actually demanding the punishment of Gen. Miles because he dared, in the interest of the men in the army, to say that the beef was unfit to eat. They are citing the action of the committee of the German Reichstag which favored a bill discriminating against American meats as proof of the injury done their business by the charges of Gen. Miles. Alger would gladly have Miles punished, but Mr. McKinley will hardly consent. He fears that Congress will tackle the beef question anyway, but hopes that a Congressional investigation may be escaped by allowing the matter to stand just where it was left by the report of the Court of Inquiry. If the talk of several indignant Senators and Representatives counts for anything, the matter will be heard from the Congress.

—To cure a cough or cold in one day take the Imperial Cough Syrup.

The Cow Did It.

Hankinson News: Dick Dantt of Kidder county is a strong advocate of stock in connection with wheat raising. In his own words he tells the story this way:

In the year 1888 I bought one cow and in the year 1891 one heifer and from those two I have a good grade of cattle 32 head in number, and from the day I bought the first cow I had plenty of milk and butter for the house, and for the past three years I have sold on an average of $10 per month of butter, besides keeping a supply in the house the year round for my family; consisting of seven in number. In the last four years I have sold $325 worth of cattle all from this cow and heifer. My increase in cattle this spring will be about 14 head of calves. I own but 160 acres of land, have 120 acres under cultivation and have to hire my cattle herded which costs me $1 for the season. My farming does not interfere with my stock raising but helps it. I raise my own meat and raise about 100 chickens through the year which helps things along considerable. I own horses and machinery enough to operate 320 acres of cultivated land and am about out of debt and am very well satisfied with this country, but I attribute success to raise stock and the start from that one cow. I do not think much money can be laid up here in farming alone.

Notice.

All customers holding tickets for crayon work must present the same to us on or before June 1st 1899 or the same will be avoid. Rapp & Post.

Watches Clocks and Jewelery.

I will carry a full line of wathes, clocks and jewlery hereafter at Johnson's drug store. Anything you want that we do not carry in stock we will order for you at ten per cent above the wholesale prices and by doing this you will save money by dealing at home. Watched left for repairs will be sent down on first train and returned the next day. I shall continue to be at Johnson's drug store the 10th 11th and 12th of each month. Eyes examined free.

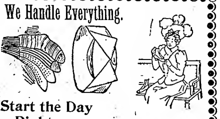
Prof. J. Q. Adams.
Red Lake Falls.

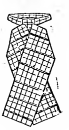
FOR SALE.

Two lots and house on South Broadway for sale at a bargain. For particulars address,
Mrs. C. Gerhig,
Box 20. Akeley, Minn.

WANTED.
Teachers to attend the Crookston College Summer School. It is cheap thorough and practical. Term opens June 12th and continues 8 weeks. Address, Crookston College, Crookston, Minnesota.

Agents Wanted.
The oldest and largest nursery in the West Everything for the orchard and grove. Three plans of work and the year round. Pay weekly. Write for terms.
The Jewell Nursery Co.,
40-45 Lake City, Minn.





We Handle Everything.

Start the Day Right

And everything will go smoothly. The proper way to start the day is by coming around to our store and ordering a supply of groceries for the day, such things as you may need. It will take you but a few minutes, and we feel sure you will not regret it.

Our Groceries

Are always fresh, and then the prices are as near right as we know how to make them. If you have not been in the habit of trading with us, drop in and see us anyway; you might get into the habit.

Hardware

We carry everything in the hardware line from cooking stoves down to tacks—all you have to do is to ask for what you want. If you want anything in the tin or copper line done drop into our tin shop and your wants will be attended to.

Yours very truly,
RAPP & POST
St. Hilaire, Minnesota.

The Cheap Cash Store.
GROCERIES NOTIONS FRUIT CANDIES TOYS TOBACCOS CIGARS AND GENTS FURNISHING GOODS.
ALL AT HARD TIMES PRICES. M. A. HALL.

A. H. WEAGANT
Having bought the business of Fred Eikhoff, I am now prepared to sell you anything in line of
HARDWARE AND TINWARE
CUTLERY, PAINTS & OILS,
Everything at Rock Bottom Prices. Come and see for yourself. Opposite Hotel Markham

LEONARD HOLMES,
—DEALER IN—
Agricultural Implements
WHEAT, FLAX OATS AND BARLEY.
Flour and Feed always on Hand.

Lumber! Lumber!
OF ALL KINDS.
We have a large and well assorted stock of Dry Lumber and are prepared to fill all orders on short notice. We also carry a complete assortment
—OF—
Sash, Doors, Paper
AND ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL
Which we buy in large quantities and are thereby enabled to sell at lowest market prices.
ST. HILAIRE LUMBER CO.

NEW MEAT MARKET.
L. M. ROLAND, Proprietor.
Fresh and Salted Meats.
Highest Market Price Paid for Hides.

L. K. KOLSTAD
DEALER IN
Boots and Shoes!
Repairing a Specialty.
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.

"Charges Accordingly.

Tommy Jones—Don't yer hate to take ol' nasty medicine?

Bobby Brown—I makes by it. The nastier it is the more pennies I get for takin' it.—Ohio State Journal.

France's New President.

The new president of France is calm, sane and a trifle bourgeois. He looks like a man who would infuse into French politics as much vigor as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will do into the run down system of anyone who uses it. It is an absolute cure for all stomach disorders.

Not Wholly Disinterested.

"How carefully your wife does watch your health."

"Yes; she knows that if I get up a big doctor's bill she won't get a summer trip."—Chicago Record.

"Keep to Your Place and Your Place will Keep You."

Without good health we cannot keep situations or enjoy life. Most troubles originate in impure blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood rich and healthy, and will help you "keep your place."

Built Up—"Was tired out, had no appetite until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla. It built me right up and I can eat heartily." Etta M. Hager, Athol, Mass.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

Hood's Pills cure liver ills; the non irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Often the Case.

Little Mike (in the midst of his reading)—Feyther, phwot is an epigram?

McLubberty—An ipigram, is ut? Begorra, ut's sum'thin' thot makes yez vomit.—Life.

PATENTS.

List of Patents Issued Last Week to Northwestern Inventors

John T. Farrar, Rapid City, S. D., tire for wheels; Fred C. Genge, Minneapolis, Minn., combined sofa bed; August J. Heine, Wahpeton, N. D., band cutter and feeder; Walter C. Cunningham, St. Paul, Minn., tobacco pipe member (design;) Haldor K. Solberg, Clarkfield, Minn., medal of similar article (design;) Charles F. Whaley, St. Paul, Minn., bicycle stirrup upper (design.)

Merwin, Lothrop & Johnson, Patent Attorneys, 910 Pioneer Press Bldg., St. Paul.

Never Labored.

First Tramp—They say pore old Bill is dyin'. 'Is breathin' is labored.

Second Tramp—Then 'e's done for. Bill could never live if any part of 'im was laborin'.—Judy.

What "Kalsomines" Are.

"Kalsomines" are cheap temporary preparations manufactured from chalks, clays, whiting, etc., and are stuck on the wall with decaying animal glue. They bear no comparison with Alabastine, which is a cement that goes through a process of setting, and hardens with age. Consumers, in buying Alabastine, should see that the goods are in packages and properly labeled. Nothing else is "just as good" as Alabastine. The claims of new imitations are absurd on their face. They cannot offer the test of time for durability.

Crowded Out.

"We will have to leave our flat."

"What for?"

"Our baby has got too big to sleep in the chiffonier."—Chicago Record.

The World's Record for Output.

Adding together the actual number of the different kinds of harvesting machines made in a single day during 1898 at the works of the Deering Harvester Company of Chicago gives the enormous total of 1,319, or more than 2 complete machines for each working minute.

The man who points out our faults may be a true friend, but we feel like kicking him just the same.

Do Your Feet Ache and Burn?

Shake into your shoes, Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It makes tight or New Shoes feel Easy. Cures Corns, Bunions, Swollen, Hot and Sweating Feet. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

The president should appoint a commission to negotiate terms of peace between the army and officials.

Beware of Fraud.

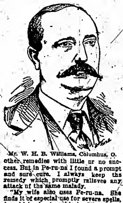
Every success breeds imitators and counterfeiters. Look out for substitutes when you ask for Cascarets Candy Cathartic. All druggists. 10c, 25c, 50c.

If you go one mile on the wrong road you are two miles further from your destination.

500,000 FAMILIES
RELY ON PE-RU-NA.

W. H. B. Williams, publisher of The Farmers' Industrial Union, in a recent letter to Dr. Hartman says: "I have used Pe-ru-na as a family medicine for several years. I find it of especial use for myself. I have had several tedious spells with systemic catarrh and before using Pe-ru-na I had tried several other remedies with little or no success. But in Pe-ru-na I found a prompt and sure cure. I always keep the remedy which promptly relieves any attack of the same malady.

"My wife also uses Pe-ru-na. She finds it of especial use for severe spells, to which she is subject. We always keep it in the house as a family medicine. We think it an excellent remedy for the various ills to which children are subject, especially climatic diseases. Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, for a free book on family medicine.



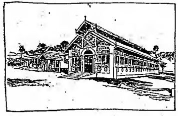
Mr. W. H. B. Williams, Columbus, O.

BOMBAY'S GREAT HOSPITAL FOR ANIMALS.

In far off Bombay, on the shores of the Arabian sea, is the most elaborate hospital for animals in the world. This hospital has its in-patients and its out-patients, and is as comprehensive in its plan of work as any hospital for the relief of distressed human beings. Cattle, horses and dogs are taken as in-patients, and among the out-patients almost every living thing is treated except man. Over 2,000 animals are taken into the hospital for treatment every year, and about 700 are treated as out-patients.

There are about forty buildings, large and small, within the hospital grounds. There are five cattle wards, two horse wards and one dog ward, besides an isolation ward where the animals suffering from contagious diseases are taken for treatment. Then there is a dissecting room, a patho-bacteriological laboratory and a veterinary college connected with the hospital.

This elaborate institution was founded by a native Indian, Sir Dinshaw Manockjee Petit, a Parsee merchant, who, for his good deeds, was made a baronet. It is called the Bai Sakarbai Dinshaw Petit hospital for animals, and for its support the merchants of Bombay have organized a system of voluntary taxation on the export and import of grain and seeds and the sale of cotton to the local spinning and weaving mills.

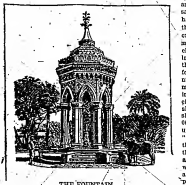


THE CATTLE WARD.

If it seems strange to hear of a great hospital for animals in Bombay and of a full-blooded Parsee who is a full-fledged baronet through a great white marble gateway of England, so also it seems hard to realize that round about Bombay there are cotton mills whose spindles are whirling as merrily and whose shuttles are flying as gayly as those of the New England manufacturing districts. The Parsee baronet, Sir Dinshaw, is a wealthy cotton mill owner, and made the money to found the great hospital out of the manufacture of cotton cloth. Besides the $20,000 collected by the merchants among themselves for the yearly support of the hospital the institution is heavily endowed, and when any member of Sir Dinshaw's family dies the hospital is pretty sure to get some fresh endowment in his memory.

The entrance to the hospital grounds is elaborately carved, and in the middle of the grounds, under the rustling palm trees, is a great carved stone fountain. An animal in this hospital receives all the attention and medical care that a man would receive in Bellevue or the New York hospital. There are attendants, nurses and doctors, all organized after the manner of the best hospitals, and in the wards the animals are surrounded by all the comforts which ingenuity can suggest. The medical staff of the hospital, from study and experience, has become most expert in the treatment of animal diseases. Of the 358 horses treated in the institution in 1897 only twenty-four died; of the 753 bullocks only 41 died, and of the 276 dogs treated 96 died.

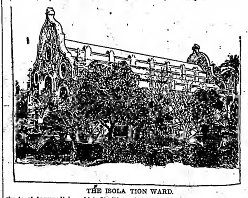
If any sort of an animal or bird is sick in Bombay, or its neighborhood, the first thing that is done is to seek treatment for it from the hospital. Therefore the list of out-patients is a curious list. Last year no less than twenty parrots demanded medical attendance, while only one hen was sick enough to have the doctor. Five cats were under medical treatment and one canary bird. The monkeys seem to have been in pretty good health, for the "Banderlog" people had to send for the doctor only twice. One swan and one cockatoo fell sick, but were saved by prompt medical attendance from the hospital. The turkey family seems to have been but poorly through the season, no less than seven of them being reported as out-patients. Most of the out-patients, of course, are dogs, bullocks and horses, not sick enough to be admitted to the hospital, but yet in need of the doctor's ministrations.



THE FOUNTAIN.

In connection with the hospital there is a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, and its agents last year made over 3,000 arrests. So Bombay and the region round about is rapidly getting to be a veritable paradise for birds and animals. Not only domestic birds and animals, but any wild denizen in the jungle, if it is found suffering from wounds or disease, is taken care of and nursed back to health again by the Bai Sakarbai Dinshaw Petit hospital staff.

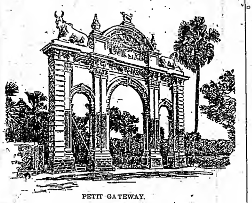
The Hindoos are, of all races, the most regardful of animal life. They will turn aside to avoid stepping on a worm, would not kill a bird and have the greatest reverence for a cow. The Hindoos of Bombay are liberal in their contributions to the Animal Hospital, and when Sir Dinshaw endowed the laboratory he expressly stipulated that no vivisection should be practiced in it, "for the reason that the same will wound the feelings of Hindoos, from whom material support is obtained for the hospital, and if they come to know of this they will at once discontinue their support, and the hospital will thereby suffer in this respect." There is something particularly frank and childlike in this, the third section of the legal document by which Sir Dinshaw created the trust for the laboratory. A man of the western world would probably have been content to have simply prohibited vivisection, but Dinshaw Manockjee Petit frankly spreads his reasons on the minutes.



THE ISOLATION WARD.

The Hindoos themselves have in Bombay an institution for the amelioration of the condition of animals. It is in the form of an asylum for aged and indigent cows, and is called "Pinjrapole." Yet the people of Bombay are by no means satisfied with what has been done in their city for the care of dumb animals, and Mr. Manekji Kavasji Patel, in a lecture before the local society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, called for an increase in the society's membership, so that it shall number 50,000. He also called upon the people to "write mercy in the woods where the wild deer runs, and in the air where our birds fly, and all along the paths where our children and our youths pass to and fro."

Sir Dinshaw's hospital is the pride of Bombay, and every now and then the theaters give performances for its benefit. It is recorded in the report of the hospital that $500 was received from Mr. Cursetjee Merwanjee Bnliwals, the proprietor of the Novelty theater, who gave for the benefit of the hospital a performance of "Harischandra" in the Hindostani tongue. The hospital has inspired the local poets, too, and that child of the muses, Dady Eduljee Taraporewala, has brought out under the auspices of the society and the hospital, a book of fifty-seven poems, written in the Gujerati dialect, and intended to inculcate kindness to animals among children. They also have an illustrated magazine on the same lines as the poems. It is printed in Gujerati, and is conducted by the eminent editor, Meneckji Nesserwanji Seerval, "brother of the late lamented income tax collector."



PETIT GATEWAY.

Among the contributors to Sir Dinshaw's hospital appears the name of another native baronet, Sir Jamsetjee Jejeebhoy, who is, like Sir Dinshaw, a Parsee of great wealth. These two East Indian baronets have their arms and their lineages put down in the books of the peerage and baronetage in the same manner as does the Duke of Norfolk, and they both came to their titles by reason of liberal gifts to the poor and the creation of such institutions as the hospital for animals.

IN NESTS.

The Bushmen of Australia Live Like Beasts.

You know that, of course, but nests and nest-building birds and animals are so intimately associated with eggs in some indefinable way that in speaking of men who build nests to live in, it may not be out of place to emphasize the absence of eggs. Travelers who have returned from the heart of Africa and the Australian continent, tell wonderful stories of nest-building people who inhabit the wilds of those countries. In the bushmen of Australia, we find, perhaps, the lowest order of men that are known. They are so primitive that they do not know enough to build even the simplest forms of huts for shelter. The nearest that they could approach to it is to gather a lot of twigs and grass, and taking them into a thicket or jungle, they build a nest for a home, much as does a bird. The nest is usually built large enough for the family, and if the latter be very numerous then the nests are of a very large size. Into this place they all turn and snuggle and curl up together like so many kittens. Sometimes the foliage will grow together and form a sort of natural covering, but there is never any attempt at constructing a protection from the rain and storms, and it is a marvel how they endure them. When there is a particularly good piece of jungle for home sites it will be quickly appropriated for the purpose, and sometimes hundreds of these nests will be found together in the bush, as it is called. But though the bushmen of our Australian colonies are the very lowest in the scale of ignorance, they possess a rare instinct, that equals that of many animals, and is in its way as wonderful as man's reason. It is almost impossible for them to be lost. Even if they be led away from their home blindfolded, for miles, when released they will unerringly turn in the right direction and make their way to their nest home, and though these are all very similar, they never make a mistake.

BERNHARDT AS A GIRL.

The Divine Sarah a Wonder Even in Her Youth.

Just thirty years ago, says the New York Mail and Express, Octave Foullet, in a letter to his wife, drew the following pen picture of Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, then at the beginning of her career:

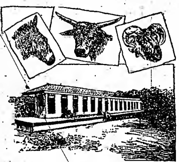
"A queer girl, indeed, is Sarah. It is the first time in my long career that I have met with a genuine actress, a comedienne of the eighteenth century, elegant, eccentric, insolent and bold.

"Contrary to the habit of all other actresses she comes to the rehearsals in full dress, or at least in a toilet arranged after her own fashion. She always wears a velvet—a velvet dress, a velvet hat, a scarf of black lace over her shoulders and a little ruffled collar. In this way, with her hair like that of a poodle dog, and with some fresh flowers in her hand, she repeats her part with care and somber gravity, and occasionally with attitudes à la Rachel.

"At the close of the act she prances about like a ballet girl, skips upon one foot and then sits down at the piano to accompany herself while singing a queer negro air. She has a veryy sweet voice. Then she gets up and begins to walk about with long strides, like a clown, laughing in everybody's faces and chewing chocolate candy, with which she always has her pockets filled. At times she takes out a little case in which there was a small brush, which she runs over her lips to give them a ruby color, after which she laughs, shows her white teeth and recommences to munch her chocolates."

Better Job Than a Judge's.

It seems hardly credible that a designer of dresses should be receiving bigger salary than one of Queen Victoria's judges. It is stated, however, on good authority that a fashionable dress designer in the west end of London makes on an average between $25,000 and $30,000 a year.



THE DOG WARD.

New Version of an Ancient Story.

A welcome variant on an ancient, ancient story comes from Atchison, Kan. To a young man, who stood smoking a cigar on the corner of a street in that city, there approached the elderly and impertinent reformer of immemorial legend. "How many cigars a day do you smoke?" asked the licensed meddler in other people's affairs. "Three," replied the youth, as patiently as he could. Then the inquisition continued. "How much do you pay for them?" "Ten cents each," confessed the young man. "Don't you know, sir," continued the sage, "that if you would save that mony by the time you are as old as I am you would own that big building on the corner?" "Do you own it?" inquired the smoker. "No," replied the old man. "Well, I do," said the young man.—New York Times.

Funny "Bulls" of the Liners.

From the Cornhill Magazine: Occasionally the "liner" produces a gem of unconscious humor. "The murderer," wrote one "liner," "was evidently in quest of money, but, luckily, Mr. Duncan had deposited all his funds in the bank the day before, so that he lost nothing but his life." Another "liner" describing a street accident, wrote: "The unfortunate victim was taken to Guy's hospital, where he now lies, progressing favorably, although he is sedulously attended by Dr. J. R. Robertson, the resident surgeon, and some of the leading members of the medical staff." In a report in a Glasgow newspaper of a shipwreck off the coast of Ayr this appeared: "The captain swam ashore, and succeeded also in saving the life of his wife. She was insured in the Northern Marine Insurance company for £5,000, and carried a full cargo of cement."

English Bank Notes.

Bank of England notes are made from new white linen cuttings—never from anything that has been worn. So carefully is the paper prepared that even the number of dips into the pulp made by each workman is registered on a dial by machinery.

A cynical bachelor says that ideas are like beards; men never have them until they grow up, and women don't have them at all.

JAPANESE ORANGE.

Grafted on to Louisiana Product Stands Zero Weather.

The gradual change of climate in Louisiana has been very disastrous to the orange growers, and the orange groves in the south would soon have been abandoned entirely had it not been for the introduction of the Japanese trifoliate, which, crossed with the ordinary variety, has stood the recent severe blizzard, which killed all the other orange trees in Louisiana. Immediately on the Weather Bureau's warning of the cold wave of Feb. 12 the orange growers, in fear of a repetition of the devastating frosts of three years ago, took energetic, but useless, steps to save the trees that had just reached the bearing stage since the last wholesale destruction. Groves were flooded, orchards smudged and the trees even covered with matting, but the results were the same in every case. Every orange tree was killed with the exception of the trifoliate, and the discouraged orange growers have again taken heart from the extraordinary hardiness of this variety. Owing to either the settlement of the upper country and the destruction of the forests, or to some other cause, severe winters are more frequent in lower Louisiana than of old. The ordinary sweet orange cannot stand a lower temperature than 20 degrees above zero, and even 25 degrees will kill the young plants. In the last twenty-five years the thermometer has dropped to 18 or below three or four times. Each time there was a wholesale destruction of the orange trees, both young and old, and the sour orange was grafted on, producing a fruit of excellent quality, able to stand eight or ten degrees more of cold than its predecessor. The recent blizzard, however, has demonstrated that no trees can be grown that will stand zero weather. The new Japanese orange has come to the rescue just in time, for it will stand this test.

Very Professional.

"Come out and fight, darn ye!" cried the Yankee. "Can't," replied the Filipino, under cover of the jungle; "it would interfere with my theatrical arrangements up in Malolos."—Philadelphia North American.

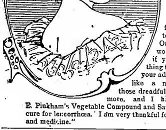
WOMEN are assailed at every turn by troubles peculiar to their sex. Every mysterious ache or pain is a symptom. These distressing sensations will keep on coming unless properly treated.

The history of neglect is written in the worn faces and wasted figures of nine-tenths of our women, every one of whom may receive the invaluable advice of Mrs. Pinkham, without charge, by writing to her at Lynn, Mass.

WOMEN WHO NEED MRS. PINKHAM'S AID

Miss Lula Evans, of Parkersburg, Iowa, writes of her recovery as follows:

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham—I had been a constant sufferer for nearly three years. Had inflammation of the womb, leucorrhœa, heart trouble, bearing-down pains, backache, headache, ached all over, and at times could hardly stand on my feet. My heart trouble was so bad that some nights I was compelled to sit up in bed or get up and walk the floor, for it seemed as though I should smother. More than once I have been obliged to have the doctor visit me in the middle of the night. I was also very nervous and fretful. I was utterly discouraged. One day I thought I would write and see if you could do anything for me. I followed your advice and now I feel like a new woman. All those dreadful troubles I have no more, and I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash a sure cure for leucorrhœa. I am very thankful for your good advice and medicine."



DEERING POPULARITY
DEERING POPULARITY
DEERING POP

DEERING POPULARITY.

YOU CAN'T KEEP IT IN.

An old proverb says: "He receives most favors who knows how to return them." This is the secret of the great popularity of Deering grain and grass cutting machinery. The confidence placed in them by the farmers of the world is never mis-placed.

Deering Binders, Reapers, Mowers, Rakes and Corn Harvesters

retain the favor of popularity by steady, reliable, satisfactory work in the harvest. Deering made the first successful application of ball and roller bearings to harvesting machinery, and the decided advantage in lightness of draft held by Deering machines today over all others shows conclusively that there is one right way of doing it—and that there are several wrong ways. The Deering way is the common sense way.

DEERING HARVESTER CO., CHICAGO.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE

DO YOU WANT A HOME?

60,000 ACRES OF GOOD FARMING LANDS IN WASHBURN AND BARRON COUNTIES, WISCONSIN, to be divided and sold at $3.00 to $6.00 PER ACRE.

Long time and easy payments to actual settlers. Come and see us or address,

W. R. BOURNE, Mgr., SHELL LAKE LUMBER CO., SHELL LAKE, WIS.

"THERE IS SCIENCE IN NEATNESS."
BE WISE AND USE
SAPOLIO

The coat ofttimes proclaims the man's indebtedness to his tailor.

Are You Using Allen's Foot-Ease?

It is the only cure for Swollen, Smarting, Burning, Sweating Feet, Corns and Bunions. Ask for Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder to be shaken into the shoes. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

The secret of success is constancy to purpose.—Disraeli.

$15.00 Per Week.

We will pay a salary of $15 per week and expenses for a man with rig to introduce Perfection Poultry Mixture and Insect Destroyer in the country. Address with stamp. Perfection Mfg. Co., Parsons, Kansas.

Most men have a peculiar way of forgetting the things they should be thankful for.

Hall's Catarrh Cure

Is taken internally. Price, 75c.

There is nothing stuck up about the hen. She is willing to remain a lay figure.

Piso's Cure for Consumption is our only medicine for coughs and colds.—Mrs. C. Beltz, 439 8th Ave., Denver, Col., Nov. 8, '95.

Farming pays, but often it only helps to pay the interest on the mortgage.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

Baseball should be played on the square as well as on the diamond.

A FUNNY BOOKLET
HOW TO MAKE INKPICTURES
FREE
Free by mail if you write with Carter's Ink to CARTER'S INK CO., BOSTON, MASS.

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
REGULATE THE LIVER

When Answering Advertisements Kindly Mention This Paper.

THE Spalding OFFICIAL League Ball

is the only official ball of the National League and must be used in all games. Each ball warranted.

ACCEPT NO SUBSTITUTES

If a dealer does not carry Spalding's athletic goods in stock, send your name and address to us (and his too) for a copy of our handsomely illustrated catalogue.

A. G. SPALDING & BROS.
New York Chicago Denver

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE
WHEAT
WHEAT
WHEAT

"Nothing but wheat; what you might call a sea of wheat," is what was said by a lecturer speaking of Western Canada. For particulars as to routes, railway fares, etc., apply to Superintendent of Immigration, Department Interior, Ottawa, Canada, or to Ben Davies, 1½ East Third St., St. Paul, or T. O. Currie, Stevens Point, Wis.

$5 to $30 3000 BICYCLES
Everyone a Bargain.
NEW AND SECOND HAND.

2d Hand—good as new for service $5 to $12. New '99 Models $12.50 to $30. None higher. We guarantee to save you money. Largest variety to select from. Lowest prices ever quoted. Every customer satisfied. Shipped subject to examination and approval. No money in advance. A few good AGENTS WANTED. For price list and particulars address the old reliable cycle house.

BROWN-LEWIS CO., (P C 293 Wabash Av., Chicago.
(The above Co. is reliable and every wheel a bargain—Editor.)

CURE YOURSELF!

Use Big G for unnatural discharges, inflammations, irritations or ulcerations of mucous membranes. Painless, and not astringent or poisonous. Sold by Druggists, or sent in plain wrapper, by express, prepaid, for $1.00, or 3 bottles, $2.75. Circular sent on request.

CURES in 1 to 5 days. Guaranteed not to stricture. Prevents contagion. THE EVANS CHEMICAL CO. CINCINNATI, O. U. S. A.

WANTED—Case of bad health that R-I-P-A-N-S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimonials.

N. W. N. U. —No. 20.— 1899.

PISO'S CURE FOR
CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS.
Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists.
CONSUMPTION

Minnesota Historical Society

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR.

VOLUME XVIII. ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 24, 1899. NUMBER 43

LAME DEFENSES

PUT UP BY LEGISLATORS WHO DEFEATED TAXATION REFORM.

Echoes of Republican Legislative Wrong Doing—Set Apologies For Defeat of the Gross Earnings Bill—That of Would-Be-Congressman McCarthy Analyzed. Young Squelched by Auditor Dunn. State Political Pot-Pourri—Will Judge 'Canty Lay Out Your Uncle Loren in the Fifth District?—Echo Says 'He Could—The "Tory" Hangers of 1899 "Copperheads"—Republican Press Bureau and "Tecumseh"—Plain Points on Silver Coinage.

Reform Press Bureau.
St. Paul, May 15, 1899.

It is remarkable how few of the Republican senators who defeated the reform of railroad taxation advocated so earnestly by Governor Lind and the reform forces of the legislature, have essayed to make any defense for their act, or effort to stem the tide of indignation which has spread over the state. The "lawyers" have here and there trotted out the "unconstitutional" scapegoat, but except Young of Swift, who was first skinned by the Appleton Press, and next blistered by State Auditor Dunn, for a defense made in the Minneapolis Journal, about the only other senator to "peep" has been Senator McCarthy of Itasca. His defense, going outside of the "lawyer's points," is attributed to an ambition to be the candidate for Congress in the Sixth district, hence the necessity of squaring himself at least with a show of defense, and his may be briefly referred to.

The senator's "firstly" is that because the railroad tax now paid has risen from $800,000 in 1880 to over $1,200,000 in 1898, and may rise at the present rate until in time it pays all of the state's expense, we should have a full discussion of the matter before we surrender our present position. That is exactly what was proposed by the bill which merely submitted the question to the people, to be voted on at the next election.

Second. If the roads accepted the alternative method, the outlying counties like those represented by the senator would receive but a small portion of the taxes, inasmuch as so small amount of property lies in such counties. The question is begged since every intelligent person should know that there is no possibility of the railroads taking the alternative proposition if they know that there will be an absolutely fair valuation, which there will be if the boards of equalization are removed from the power of the corporations to corrupt and control them, as the people may be sure they will be under such administrations as this of John Lind. Next, the view is a narrow and selfish one, and, finally, the benefit would directly inure to the people of every locality by the lowering of the tax rate of the state.

Third, to increase the tax would raise freight rates. This is a long and well-worked bugaboo, worthy of no more consideration than the overworked scheme of having railroad employes protest against railroad legislation on the ground that it will decrease railroad wages. But there is certain protection in the law recently signed by Governor Lind prohibiting the raising of rates without consent of the Railroad Commission. The point, of the same nature, that raising rates would retard railroad development in the northern counties falls equally with the other. Railroads are built where and when it is in the interest of those who control them to do so, and that they are influenced by legal "hampering" is too silly for attention.

Finally, the senator regarded it certain that the state would be brought to a standstill by the roads refusing to pay, and "hampering" it with long litigation. This was exactly the claim made for the Anderson law, and still the wheels have been turning right along, both railroad and state. And, by the way, the greatest, almost the exclusive benefits of that same successful law which was "unconstitutional" the same as the gross earnings increase, go to the same locality of the state for which Senator McCarthy makes his specious and groundless plea.

Said United States Senator C. K. Davis more than a quarter of century ago:

"Justinian abolished the corporations, and 1,600 years afterwards they threaten society as they did the stability of Rome."

Is "Cush" lifting up his voice in these degenerate days of trusts and combines? Not a few.

The strained effort of some of the Republican press to make capital of Governor Lind's veto of the bill to make records of the Railroad Commission final as to findings of fact, falls flat in the explanation which the Governor filed when deciding not to sign the bill. It was this. He recommended such legislation in his message, which the Republicans themselves have defeated by lugging into the bill other matter not necessary, but vicious. "As it is now," said the Governor, "when the commission makes an order there is the right of appeal to either party, and if it is not exercised the order is final. All the courts have to do is to enforce the order. But the measure passed was so framed that the grounds on which the order was based might be reopened when the order to enforce it is before the court," which, the Governor adds, "would allow interminable appeals and lead to endless litigation."

Is it not about time for our German-American citizens of Minnesota to take action on the all absorbing questions of Imperialism and Anglo-American alliance? Missouri has taken action and also Ohio, in a big meeting at Toledo. It is believed that Minnesota German-Americans to a man will oppose the Republican policy of foreign conquest and entangling foreign alliances.

The Republican Press Bureau has been transferred to Red Wing, though its letters continue to bear the St. Paul date line. The last wrestles with the "prosperity" problem, as applied to the banks, proving the prosperity of the interior of the state by the fact that the country banks increased individual deposits some $700,000 between February and April, and now hold $18,000,000 of such deposits! Learned student of finance, how long since increased deposits were a proof of prosperity, either of the banks or of the owners of the money? That's what our country banks, all banks in fact, are complaining of, that the money is piled up there and they cannot find profitable loans for it. Not loaning it they cannot pay interest on deposits, and business being unprofitable merchants and others cannot afford to borrow money to extend their lines. Circulation of money is what makes business good and times prosperous, not the locking of it up in banks.

National Committeeman Johnson: "I have yet to see the man who helped to make the Chicago platform or who voted for W. J. Bryan who has a thought of regret for either act."

A friend has furnished the bureau a copy of one of the campaign issues of the Republican state central committee, in which they sounded the alarm of the "attack" on the grain department. It is a most amusing composition bearing the signatures of Chairman Steele and Secretary Rasmussen. "Stand by the state grain inspection as you have done before," is one of the appeals. "It is all a Demo-Pop trick to deceive the young and cheat the ignorant," says Chairman Steele. Finally the address promises that if there is anything wrong the Republican party will investigate and make it right, for William H. Eustis has so "expressed himself on several occasions." Well, the Republicans did investigate and they didn't do a thing to Clausen. But that "address." We are going to have it embalmed.

The continued charges that the reform members of the legislature are responsible for the defeat of the anti-fee bills, are scarcely worth attention. The facts are that those members were so uncompromising in their determination to follow the governor's recommendations that they went farther than the Republicans, even in the latter's move against the oil inspector only, when the latter refused to include the Republican supreme court clerk. For when the Republicans in the senate agreed to make the oil inspector bill take effect in two years, protecting the present Democratic incumbent during his term, the reform senators caucused and said no, and voted to make the bill take effect at once.

There is only need to repeat that there is but one responsibility for the failure to accomplish this reform, and that was, the Republican determination to save the clerk of supreme court so that office and its extravagant fees would be left for future aid to a Republican machine. It being all they saved from last year's wreck, the Republicans cling to it like a barnacle to one of Dewey's ships.

The Minneapolis Flambeau club which squirts flame on Republican occasions blew out the eye of a Minneapolis lady. They didn't mind a little thing like that, but the lady has obtained a judgment of $1,000 damages. What a pity if this flamboyant Republican adjunct was obliged to quit the flame-squirting and eye-destroying business!

The price of silver has now passed the average price of wheat in the country markets, though lately standing neck and neck. It is a good time to remark that a very few "doubting Thomases," like the bimetallic editor of the Midway News, still fear that legislation cannot change the bullion value of the silver dollar. If so, please consider this: Suppose that on Wednesday last when silver was 64 7-8 cents per ounce, which would make the dollar for that day 50 1-5 cents, Bryan was president and a law was passed and signed making silver coinage a law on equal terms with gold. You could then have taken 412½ grains of silver to the mint and have it coined into a dollar that was legal tender for all debts public and private, without cost to you. Would you then part with that dollar for 50, 60, 80 or 99 cents? Legislation has then changed the value of the bullion has it not? You would not part with any silver bullion that you had, nor anyone else, for less than $1.29 per ounce, because you could have it made $1.29 in coined dollars at the mint without cost to you.

The bullion value has never fallen, never can, and never will fall below the coinage value, under free and unlimited coinage.

Closing the mints to silver caused its debasement, the same as readmitting it will restore its value, and one is as right as the other. If not, why not?

This was the comment of a prominent state Republican upon the speech of William Henry Eustis and W. P. Roberts proposing the doom of "traitors," and hanging to the nearest lamp-post of all who do not approve of the Philippine war: "What a pretty fix this state would be in with such dizzy brained men as Eustis at the head of its affairs."

This recalls what John Goodnow wrote from Shanghai a month after election, supposing of course that William Henry was elected: "Well, I suppose Eustis is in by this time and ripping you all up the back." Rumor has it that notwithstanding William Henry will run for governor again, presumably on "war issues," as last time it was "good roads."

Ex-Senator Washburn agrees with Jadam Beede that a panic is brewing from the trusts and combines, but both stand shoulder to back in support of the trust breeding party. G. S. C.

PARIS ON THE ROCKS

BIG AMERICAN LINER MEETS WITH AN ACCIDENT.

Struck on an Outlying Ridge of the Manacles During a Dense Fog—Now Lies Within Half a Mile of Where the Ill-Fated Mohegan Went Down—Perfect Discipline on the Part of the Crew Prevents Any Loss of Life—Passengers Were All Removed and Taken to Falmouth.

Falmouth, May 22. — The American line steamer Paris, Capt. Watkins, from Southampton and Cherbourg for New York, struck on an outlying ridge of the Manacles early yesterday morning at a point half a mile from where the wrecked Atlantic transport liner Mohegan lies and five miles from Falmouth. The Paris, which sailed from Southampton Saturday, called at Cherbourg and picked up fifty passengers. She left Cherbourg at 6 o'clock Saturday evening. Soon after 1 o'clock yesterday morning at high tide and in a dense fog she ran ashore. From the first there was no danger. Life boats and tugs were soon literally swarming around the vessel to render assistance. A majority of the passengers, who numbered 386, were brought to Falmouth, where they obtained lodgings for the night. Capt. Watkins reported that his ship was lying comfortably in smooth water, and that there was no occasion for any alarmist reports. He reported the passengers and crew all well. The first intimation of the vessel's striking the rocks was a slight grating sound, which was followed by a second and more pronounced shock. The lookout yelled that there was something looming ahead, but before there was time to reverse the engines the ship had Gone on the Rocks

200 yards from the shore. Assistance was summoned by means of rockets, and the coast guards promptly telephoned to the life saving station for boats. A majority of the passengers were not aware that an accident had happened until they were called up by the stewards. On reaching the decks they found the ship's boats in perfect readiness for their reception. The sea was perfectly calm and the only discomfort the passengers experienced was caused by the slight rain that was falling at the time. Owing to the calmness of the sea the boats could be managed with entire safety. Perfect order prevailed aboard the vessel. Capt. Watkins stood on the bridge giving orders and his perfect self-possession and calmness of demeanor had a reassuring effect on the passengers. In accordance with the instructions of the captain the women and children were the first to be taken off the ship. Such perfect order was maintained that a passenger explained the situation as simply a slow procession of women and children making for the boats. At daybreak the vessel could be made out more distinctly. The brilliant St. Anthony light at the entrance to Falmouth harbor could be distinguished plainly through the misty rain, and the standing masts of the

The Ill-fated Mohegan

could be seen near by. It is said that a Falmouth pilot boat shouted a warning signal to the Paris, telling the captain that he would put the vessel on top of the Mohegan if he did not alter the course of the ship. The warning, however, came too late, and the Paris struck a little to the westward of the Manacles. It is suggested that as this is only the second trip from Cherbourg the officers of the Paris were not familiar with the course. The crew of the Paris is still aboard the vessel. It is believed that the steamer has a large rent in her bottom in the forward part of the ship. Tugs are standing by her and will assist in an effort to get her off the rocks. Further details of the disaster show that when the vessel struck the crew was summoned on deck. The passengers upon appearing were met in the companion way with comforting words and assurances of their safety. Exceptional coolness was shown on all sides, the stewards distributing coffee and stimulants to all who desired them. The passengers are lavish in their praise of the admirable behavior of the officers and crew and declare that it was due to their self-possession that no accident occurred to any one. Perfect discipline, they say, was maintained throughout.

Plymouth, May 22.—The admiralty has sent several fast government vessels from Devonport to assist the Paris. Among the vessels sent to the assistance of the stranded steamer is a gunboat, and Admiral Sir Edmund Robert Freemantle, commander-in-chief at Plymouth, has ordered a number of torpedo boat destroyers to hold themselves in readiness to proceed to the scene of the wreck at a moment's notice.

CARNEGIE COMPANY.

Mr. Frick Declares It Will Be a Home Concern.

New York, May 22. — H. C. Frick made the following statement: To set at rest the many erroneous reports regarding the capitalization of the proposed new Carnegie Steel company, I desire to say that it will be a distinctly home concern, embracing only the Carnegie, the Frick and the allied interests, and using a Pennsylvania charter. The capital will be $250,000,000, and but one kind of stock will be issued, fixed upon an investment basis, so that the present management will take their holdings in the stock of the new company.

Adjournment of the Reichstag.

Berlin, May 22.—The adjournment of the reichstag has been agreed to in principle, though the federal government is still insisting upon the adoption of supplementary estimates. The meat inspection bill will be passed until next autumn.

Arrived at Gibraltar.

Gibraltar, May 22.—The cruiser Yosemite, carrying Capt. R. P. Leary, U. S. N., the newly appointed governor of Guam, and a garrison of marines, has arrived here en route for that island.

MGR. IRELAND HONORED.

Distinguished Prelate Dines With King Leopold.

Brussels, May 22.—Saturday evening Archbishop Ireland, accompanied by Bellamy Storer, United States minister designate to Spain, and Mrs. Storer, dined at the royal palace at Laeken, with King Leopold, Queen Marie Henriette and the other members of the royal family. His majesty was most courteous, showing great interest in the archbishop. Before going to the palace Mgr. Ireland preached in the collegiate church of St. Gudule, the finest in Belgium, before a distinguished audience, including the Comtesse de Flandre, mother of Prince Alexander of Belgium, heir presumptive to the throne. His subject was "First Christian Pentecost," which the archbishop entitled "The Birthday of the Church." On his arrival here last Tuesday Mgr. Ireland dined at the United States legation, where he met the papal nuncio, the president of the chamber of representatives, M. De Bernaert, Comtesse Delle De Korkq, Marquis Imperiali, secretary of the Italian legation, and a number of others. On Wednesday he dined with Mr. and Mrs. Storer at the palace of the Count De Flandre, who, during the evening, expressed his gratitude for the hospitality shown his son, Prince Albert, during his visit to the United States, and particularly for the entertainment given the prince by the archbishop and James J. Hill of St. Paul. On Thursday Prince Albert dined at the United States legation; it being the first time he had paid such a compliment to a foreign diplomat. Saturday the archbishop addressed the students of the university. The hall where the address was delivered was crowded by distinguished representatives of the diplomatic corps, the scientific world and society. As he entered the entire audience rose and cheered him. His eloquence and perfect command of French made a delightful impression. His theme was "The Opportunities for Youth in the New Century," a century which, he said, would be full of problems for church and state. Later he dined at the United States legation with a number of diplomats of note.

RICH STRIKE IN THE BLACK HILLS

Nuggets As Large As Hickory Nuts Are Found.

Custer, S. D., May 22.—The remarkable strike of free gold made nine miles southwest of this city last Friday by Lee and Charles Carr, two ranchers, is turning out to be better than at first reported. The ore vein is about fourteen inches wide and has been stripped for a distance of sixty feet. From one place at the intersection of two points nuggets as large as hickory nuts have been taken out, and large chunks of rock almost solid with gold stringers have been broken loose. The Carr brothers and their father have staked out eleven claims in one group. A great many from all parts of the hills have stampeded to the new gulch.

NOW FOR HARD WORK.

Presbyterian Assembly Begins a Week Full of Business.

Minneapolis, May 22.—After a Sabbath devoted to church-going and preaching and three popular meetings in the interests of home missions and Sabbath observance, the Presbyterian general assembly will to-day begin a week of hard work. The routine subjects to be considered to-day are the reports of the boards of freedmen and education. The principal interest attaches to the former because of the vigorous effort that has been made to raise the board's $40,000 debt.

Situation at Wardner.

Wallace, Idaho, May 22.—This, the third week since the riots occurred at Wardner, ends with greatly improved prospects. Of 1,200 men directly implicated in the affair not one remains with his former employer. Letters from all over the West are being received making inquiries regarding the situation, and when it becomes known that all the men who can bring satisfactory letters as to character and proficiency will receive protection and employment, it is probable the mines will soon fill up.

Omaha, May 22.—Two troops of the First cavalry, A and L, left Fort Robinson for Wallace, Idaho, pursuant to a request of Gen. Merriam.

North Dakota's Troops.

Bismarck, N. D., May 22.—It is the general desire of the people of the state who are interested in the troops in the Philippines that the boys be mustered out in San Francisco, if they so desire, and it is believed they will, as to muster them out there means an additional sum of money per man. There has been talk of rivalry among the cities of the state for the muster-out, and in view of this fact the state's senators and congressmen have been endeavoring to ascertain the sentiment of the several communities which have companies in the Philippines.

To Explore Alaska.

Portland, Or., May 22.—A large party of prominent scientists, mostly from leading educational institutions of the country, will leave Portland about June 1 for an exploring expedition in Alaska. This will be one of the largest scientific exploring parties ever organized, and is for thorough and practical investigation. It is said its work will be of the highest value in showing the resources and natural capabilities of Alaska. The expedition is organized by E. H. Harriman, a prominent New York capitalist.

Moffat Got a Decision.

Chicago, May 22.—Jack Moffatt of Chicago was given the decision over Charlie Burns of Cincinnati after six rounds of fighting. It was Moffatt's fight all the way through.

No One Was Injured.

Little Falls, Minn., May 22. — When the accommodation train was near Darling a coupling broke. The rear cars telescoped into the front ones, completely demolishing three freight cars. No one was injured.

Assaulted and Robbed.

Watertown, S. D., May 22. — Henry Hutchins of this city was assaulted and robbed here this afternoon by an unknown party. His face is badly smashed. The robber secured $40 and watch.

WITHOUT ANY POWER

FILIPINO COMMISSIONERS CANNOT ACT FOR THE GOVERNMENT.

Can Only Refer Any Results of Present Negotiations to Aguinaldo—All the Money Leaders of the Insurgents See That Independence Is Hopeless and Wish for Peace—Some Think They Can Get Money by Holding Out and Harrassing the Americans—Villagers Receive Maj. Kobbe's Command With Open Arms.

Manila, May 22—The Filipino commissioners, who arrived here Saturday to negotiate with the United States commissioners, held a conference this morning with Messrs. Schurmann, Worcester and Denby. They say they are without any power to bind the so-called Filipino government in any particular, and can only refer any results of the present negotiations to Aguinaldo.

The Filipino commissioners, Gen. Gregorio del Pilar, Lieut. Col. Alberto Barretto, Maj. Zaleita and Senor Gracio Gonzada, with their families, spent yesterday (Sunday) in visiting friends in Manila and conferring with Senores Florentine Torres, Pablo Paterno and Theodore Yancelno, the members of the local Filipino assembly, who will participate in the meetings with the American commissioners. Senor Torres was a member of Aguinaldo's cabinet before the war. He opposes independence and favors autonomy. He has been foremost in persuading the Filipinos to accept sovereignty. He is doing the burden of the talk of the Filipinos, and it is thought the terms they wish for is an American protectorate, which they talked of before the war. Senor Paterno, who has succeeded the irreconcilable Membrino in the so-called Filipino cabinet, is a scholar and a statesman. He is in favor of autonomy. He drew up a with the Spaniards which the latter repudiated. Paterno is now the strong man in Aguinaldo's party. All the money leaders of the insurgents see that independence is hopeless and wish for peace. There are those who want money, thinking they can hold out longer and harrass the Americans. On the suggestion of Mr. Schurmann, president of the American commission, the local members of the Filipino peace party have started a newspaper.

Scheme of Autonomy

Maj. Kobbe's expedition to occupy communication with Gen. Lawton, has occupied Arayat, about seven miles beyond Candaba, on the Rio Grande, following the course of the stream. No insurgents were found there and the Pampangas along the river are friendly. Last Friday Maj. Kobbe took Santa Ana, about six miles northeast of San Fernando, on the road to San Isidro. A priest met the expedition with a white flag. Delegations from San Nicolas and Santiago, small villages just south of Arayat, came to him with the news that 900 insurgents who had been holding both places had withdrawn. They invited the Americans to enter, and as the members of the expedition marched in the church bells were rung and the timid natives who had fled flocked back.

HALT CALLED BY GEN. OTIS.

Temporary Suspension of Aggressive Military Action.

Manila, May 22.—Gen. Otis has declined to recognize the rebels to the extent of agreeing to an armistice, but he has notified the American commanders to refrain temporarily from aggressive action. Thus he is in a position to resume hostilities at any time. This will defeat any subterfuges to gain time, which would not be the case if the he agreed to an armistice. The Filipinos are so deceptive that people hesitate to credit with good faith their latest overtures. But more attention is now paid to them than was paid to their previous advances. The Filipino commission is acting under instructions from Aguinaldo and the congress, but it is possible that if peace is arranged Generals Luna and Gregorio del Pilar and their followers will continue a guerilla warfare.

At Iloilo an attack on the Americans was recently expected. The Filipino leader boasted that he had 2,000 riflemen and 10,000 bolo men and had the impudence to send an ultimatum to the American commander, ordering him to leave the island. As a result many of the natives left the town and for some time outposts were doubled. The Yorktown and Iris anchored in positions commanding the mouth of the Jara river where the attack was expected to take place, but it failed to materialize. Cable communication between Iloilo and Bacalo, which was interrupted, has been resumed.

Alger Should Be Satisfied.

Detroit, Mich., May 22.—Senator McMillan received the following dispatch from Washington:

"Are the reports in the press to the effect that you are a candidate for the United States senate true? Answer at once, please. —R. A. Alger."

The senator answered it as follows: "R. A. Alger, Washington: I should have preferred a personal conference with you, but your dispatch appears to demand an immediate answer. I am a candidate for the United States senate. —James McMillan."

Secretary Alger's dispatch is looked upon by Senator McMillan's friends here as an indication that the secretary is considering a withdrawal from the senatorial race.

Monument for Carnot.

Dijon, France, May 22.—The monument to the late Marie Sadi Carnot, fourth president, third republic of France, was unveiled here in the presence of the president, the premier, the minister of war and other distinguished personages.

Town Destroyed by Fire.

Warsaw, Russian Poland, May 22.—The town of Porosow, in the government of Warsaw, has been destroyed by fire. Twelve lives were lost and 3,000 people driven from their homes.

GREETED BY THOUSANDS.

Enthusiastic Reception Tendered Admiral Schley.

Omaha, May 22. — In the face of a biting wind, and with every appearance that rain would commence to fall at any minute, at least 10,000 people came out to attend the public reception tendered to Rear Admiral Schley in the rotunda of the city hall. The rotunda was elaborately decorated with bunting and potted plants, and from 4 until 6 o'clock a constant stream of humanity passed through. Mayor Moore and ex-Senator Manderson were of the receiving party. Admiral Schley was escorted from the house of Gen. Manderson by the high school cadets, and conspicuous among those who pressed forward to grasp the hand of the admiral were the school children, and it was evident he has no more enthusiastic admirers than the little ones. When the hour for closing the reception came there were still many people in line. As he drove away in a carriage the large crowd around the city hall cheered him vigorously.

CURRENCY REFORM.

Plan Agreed Upon by the House Caucus Committee.

Washington, May 22. — It is understood the house Republican caucus appointed to frame a scheme of currency reform has agreed upon a measure along the following lines: The redemption of all obligations of the government in gold on demand; greenbacks, when once redeemed for gold, to be reissued only for gold; permitting national banks to issue notes to the par value of their government bonds deposited in the treasury, instead of 90 per cent as now; permitting the minimum capital of national banks to be $25,000 instead of $50,000 as at present. This plan is much less comprehensive than ardent advocates of general currency revision have urged, but was adopted because harmonious agreement on it was possible, which was not the case when more radical measures were suggested.

MRS. HOWE EMPHATIC.

Author of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" on Lynching.

Boston, May 22. — The anti-lynch meeting called by the women of Boston and vicinity was held here, about 300 persons, mostly women, being present. Mrs. Butler R. Wilson, wife of a well known colored citizen of Boston, presided. On the platform were, among others, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe and Mrs. Alice Freeman Palmer. Mrs. Edna D. Cheney, Mrs. Ridley, a colored woman, and Mrs. Howe were among the speakers. Mrs. Howe said: "I hold to it that the federal government is bound to see to it that the negro vote in the South is properly counted, and that military protection be afforded the negroes in dangerous sections. If the central government cannot do this, Americans might as well take down their flag and raise the black flag of piracy."

REINA MERCEDES ARRIVES.

Large Crowds Go to Old Point Comfort to See the Spanish Cruiser.

Newport News, Va., May 22. — The Spanish cruiser Reina Mercedes arrived in Hampton Roads yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in tow of the Merritt Wrecking company's tugs I. J. Merritt and Rescue and accompanied by the steamship Morgan. She is now at anchor nearly two miles off Old Point Comfort, where she will be held in quarantine for five days. Large crowds from Newport News, Norfolk and Hampton went to Old Point Comfort to see the cruiser and hundreds went out to the vessel in launches. The Mercedes left Santiago a week ago and reached Hampton Roads a good deal sooner than was expected. When she is released from quarantine she will go to Portsmouth navy yards for repairs.

CLASH AT BLUEFIELDS.

Rumor of a Hostile Meeting Between a Nicaraguan and American Warship.

Washington, May 22.—There was a rumor here last night that there had been a hostile meeting at Bluefields between the Nicaraguan gunboat San Jacinto and the United States cruiser Detroit, which is looking after the interests of Americans in that vicinity. The report lacks confirmation so far as official advices are obtainable, the statement being made in responsible quarters that up to 11 o'clock there had been no information received in regard to it.

A YANKEE TRICK.

How Our Peace Delegates Secured Front Seats.

London, May 22.—London diplomatic circles are chuckling over the little move by which the United States delegates at the peace conference secured seats in the front row at The Hague. The seats were allotted in alphabetical order, according to the French names of the countries represented. Thus Germany (Allemagne) came first, but the United States delegates, by registering Amerique Etates Unis, instead of Etates Unis, secured the next seats.

Interlake Yachting Meet.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 22. — The directors of the Interlake Yachting association have fixed Aug. 7-11 as the dates of the annual regatta to be held at Put-in-Bay. The prizes will amount to $1,000 and the regatta will be open to all yachts on fresh water.

Gift to a Hospital.

Winona, Minn., May 22.—H. W. Lamberton has made a gift to the Winona General Hospital association of $1,500. The association has just completed a new hospital building on which there is still an indebtedness of $5,000.

Former Congressman Dead.

Dunkirk, N. Y., May 22. — Francis Smith Edwards died at his home in this city of paralysis, aged eighty-two years. He represented this district in congress for a number of years, beginning in 1854.

Engineer Killed.

De Soto, Mo., May 22.—The engine of the Iron Mountain & Southern Texas express struck a cow at Tip Top, Mo., and jumped the track, turning completely over. Fireman Fred Parkes was killed and the engineer injured.

WIPED OUT BY FIRE.

DAWSON CITY VISITED BY A DISASTROUS CONFLAGRATION

Entire Business Center of the Town Almost Cleared Out—Losses Will Aggregate Four Millions of Dollars and Not a Dollar's Worth of Insurance—Fire Spread With Unusual Rapidity and the Firemen Were Utterly Helpless—The Town Is Paralyzed.

Victoria, B. C., May 22. — An extra edition of the Skagway Alaskan, received by the steamer Lees at midnight, contains the following report, wired from Bennett to Skagway just previous to the sailing of the steamer:

"Another disastrous fire has visited Dawson City, this time fairly wiping out the entire business center of the town, creating losses that will aggregate $4,000,000, in all four hundred and eleven buildings, without a dollar's worth of insurance. The news was telegraphed from Bennett by the special correspondent of the Daily Alaskan, who received it from a man named Tokales, who had just reached Bennett after a long and perilous trip from Dawson over broken trails, dangerous rivers and rough lakes. Mr. Tokales says that the fire broke out on April 21 in the very center of the business portion, commencing at the opera house on the water front and spreading with unusual rapidity, driven by a strong wind, and destroyed everything on the street, including Donahue & Smith's establishment, and taking in all the water front buildings abreast of the same blocks. The fire crossed the street, burned through and spread over to Second street, sweeping the principal business portion of Dawson, leaving it in ashes, with and powerless to do anything. The fire consumed everything from the Simmons Royal cafe down to and opposite the Fairview hotel. All the buildings burned like tinder, due to the fact that they had been standing for nearly two years and the logs were as dry as powder. The fire spread with such rapidity that the people were unable to save anything in the way of furniture, goods and clothing, so that the losses when footed up promise to be even greater than at first estimated. Among the prominent firms burned out were: The Royal cafe, Donahue & Smith; McClellan & McFeely, Parsons Produce company, Aurora saloon, Bodega saloon, Madame house, Hotel Victoria, McDonald block, Bank of British North America and scores of smaller firms and business houses. This fire came when the mills and dealers in building materials had exhausted their winter supply, and as a result there is a famine in all kinds of building material and furniture, such as sash, doors, locks, hinges, etc. The few articles still remaining outside of the burned district have quadrupled in price. Doors are selling at $35 each; door locks, $8 each, and everything else in proportion. The town is paralyzed, because nothing can be done until the opening of navigation, which will not be for several weeks."

The Firemen Helpless

TRAGEDY AT A BALL GAME.

Man Stabs His Wife, Killing Her Instantly.

New York, May 22.—In the presence of several hundred people who were watching a ball game on the hillside by the West Shore railway, between Hoboken and Jersey City, John Moretta, a block cutter forty years of age, murdered his wife, thirty-five years old, by stabbing her. The woman was killed instantly. It was done so quickly no one could prevent the murder. Moretta fled down the hillside toward the river, but a baseball player chased him and laid his scalp open with a blow from a bat. Moretta was then taken into custody.

HORSELESS CARRIAGE RIDE.

From Cleveland to New York, 800 Miles, Riding Day and Night.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 22.—A horseless carriage will leave Cleveland today on the longest trip ever undertaken by an automobile vehicle. Two passengers will be in the carriage, Alexander Winton, the inventor, and a companion. The destination is New York city. The route will follow the highways paralleling, as far as possible, the Lake Shore road from here to Buffalo, and the New York Central through New York State. The distance is 800 miles, and the party will travel day and night. The trip is expected to be made in five days.

Killed His Son-in-Law.

Evansville, Ind., May 22. — William Ornick, a farmer living near West Franklin, Vanderburg county, shot and killed his son-in-law, Thomas Sanders. Sanders had been divorced and was warned to keep away. He persisted in entering the house where his wife and children were, and Ornick shot him dead.

Confectioners' Combine.

Boston, May 22. — Efforts are being made to form a combine among the confectioners, including all the prominent concerns east of St. Louis. Several Boston firms and many of the large plants in New England outside of Boston have given options on their plants, the options to expire July 1.

Large Gas Strike.

Toledo, Ohio, May 22.—Kerlin Bros. struck gas on a farm at Tulin, the yield being over half a million feet a day. It is one of the largest strikes in years.

Powder Mill Goes Up.

Chicago, May 22.—A report has been received at Hammond, Ind., that the powder mill of the Aetna company at Aetna, Ind., has blown up. It was reported from Lake station that the shock had been felt there.

Forest Lake Hotel Fire.

Forest Lake, Minn., May 22. — The Forest View hotel at this place was totally destroyed by fire at midnight. The buildings were owned by the Theodore Hamm Brewing Company of St. Paul.

Bank of St. Hilaire.

HANNAY & CO., Bankers.

Real Estate Loans.
Chattel Loans.
Foreign & Domestic Xchange
INSURANCE.
Collections a Specialty.

A General Banking Business Transacted.

St. Hilaire, Minn.

Livery and Feed Stable!

DAN PATERSON, Prop.

Dray in Connection.

The finest equipped turnouts in the Northwest. Safe drivers and furnished at a moments notice at reasonable rates. Don't forget the place

BIG - RED - BARN

Located on the east side of Broadway nearly opposite Rapp & Post's Store

ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Says a modest exchange: There is a little matter which some of our Subscribers have seemingly forgotten—Some of them made us promises, but have not kept them. With us it is a very important matter—it's necessary in our business. We are very modest and don't like to speak about it.

GET YOUR PICTURE
TAKEN BY
D. COLLINS
THE
Photograper.
ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

K. O. GIGSTAD,
DEALER IN
REAL ESTATE.
Collections
a Specialty.
JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.
NOTARY PUBLIC.
ST. HILAIRE,
MINNESOTA.

DAY F. STACY, C. E.
DEPUTY
County Surveyor.
RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.
Drainage and Farm Surveys a Specialty

"Money to patent good ideas may be secured by our aid, address, The Patent Record Baltimore, Md." 37

FIRE
INSURANCE
DO
YOU
NEED
SOME?

The Best is the Cheapest.

*

I have nine of the best companies doing business in the State
Call for rates.

H. E. IVES.

CUSTOM WORK.

JUST LOOK AT THESE PRICES:

Roll Carding—per pound	5 cts
Spinning Single Yarn—per pound	18 c
Stocking Yarn—2 or 3 ply, per pound	20 c

LITCHFIELD WOOLEN MILLS.
LITCHFIELD, MINN.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

The Spectator.

IVES & SOLL, Publishers.
JOHN J. SOLL, Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at St. Hilaire, Minn., as second-class mail matter.

Published every Wednesday at St. Hilaire, Red Lake County, Minn.

TERMS:—$1.50 Per Year in Advance.

Subscribers should notify the publisher on or before expiration of subscription if discontinuance is desired. Otherwise paper will be continued.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 24, 1899.

A REINCARNATED DOG.

He Hadn't Lost His Human Traits In the Process.

"You can't tell me there is nothing in the theory of reincarnation," remarked a traveling man, "for I know there is. I was down in Florida recently, and in St. Augustine I saw a snob dog—an out and out snob. His name is Towser, and he is just a common yellow dog, lives in the street and belongs to no one.

"In the summer, when no wealthy northern people are in the town, he plays with all the middle class children and dogs and will greet patronizingly the middle class men and women who know him. But in the winter, as soon as the season begins, he attaches himself to some rich New York family, loafs in their yard, tags their footsteps or carriages all about the city, attends them to church and home again and so far as he is able makes himself one of them. For his meals he has been forced to resort to the back yards of a plain, good woman, who pities him and feeds him regularly. He is friendly with her at his eating hours, but never so far forgets himself as to wag his tail at her on the street or when he is with more pretentious people.

"When society functions take place in St. Augustine, there is Towser. Golf matches, afternoon teas, picnics or boating parties, all are attended by him with most conventional regularity. He never greets any ordinary acquaintance when thus socially engaged and has even been known not to eat for several days when a fashionable wedding was on his mind. With the swell dogs of St. Augustine Towser never has any rows, having, no doubt, studied the politic art of being agreeable, but with commoner curs he is irritable and defensive. That dog has been human in his time, and I'd give a penny to know who he was."—Indianapolis Journal.

AMONG THE CANNIBALS.

A Traveler's Experience With the Men Eaters of West Africa.

Mr. P. A. McCann has had 10 years' actual residence in west Africa. Mr. McCann's seven years' trading and residence with the cannibal tribes of the French Gaboon probably form the most exciting part of his experiences. He got friendly with them and thoroughly studied their habits and customs. They quite believed that the white men ate white men as they themselves eat their fellow blacks. A big chief offered Mr. McCann the smoked thigh of a native. This was considered a gracious act. To refuse it would be unfriendly. Mr. McCann was in a dilemma.

But he feigned illness, said he was not eating just then. The chief eventually put the matter off good naturedly by saying he supposed the white man preferred white man to eat instead of black man. "The Mpongwes," said Mr. McCann, "are in ferocious and pugnacious qualities second to no other tribe in Africa. Their villages mostly consist of a single street from 800 to 1,500 yards long, on each side of which are the houses. In these houses they cook, eat and sleep and keep their store of provisions, the chief of which is smoked game and smoked human flesh, hung up to the rafters.

"Although ferocious and quarrelsome to a degree, they are very industrious. They show considerable skill in the manufacture of pottery, and the designs of their cooking pots, water jars, tobacco pipes and palm wine bottles are extremely artistic. In ironwork they are also skillful workers. Although they kill game for food, they much prefer human meat to any other."—London Globe.

Where the Crabs Come In.

When a school of menhaden make their way into a bay, they may stay for days swimming around in one region. Larger fishes, including perhaps some sharks, feed upon them there. From such feeding there are more or less fragments that sink down through the water, and the various crabs and other crustaceans come scuttling from all parts of the bay to get them. It may be that the tide carries some of the litter about, or perhaps the crabs and other creatures smell it, as bluefish scent the bait that is used in chumming, but when a school of menhaden are preyed upon at the surface all the crabs in the bay congregate on the mud below to catch the crumbs that fall.—New York Sun.

How Genius Succeeds.

Our paternal relatives don't know it all. Riley's father wanted to make a lawyer out of him; it was thought that Bret Harte would make a first class carpenter; it was Mr. Gilder's idea that they wanted him to be a job printer; Hamlin Garland started as a farmer and is still a farmer, but makes enough out of literature to keep the farm going. But Hopkinson Smith is of all trades. When he isn't building a viaduct, he is painting a landscape, and when he's tired of that diversion he whirls in and writes a novel which sells 80,000 copies every 80 days.—Atlanta Constitution.

In For It.

Mrs. Chinner—Ernestine, my darling, do you expect Constant tonight?

Ernestine—Of course, mamma. Why do you inquire?

Mrs. Chinner—If he asks you to marry him, tell him to come and speak to me.

Ernestine—And if he doesn't ask me?

Mrs. Chinner—Tell him I am coming to speak to him.—Brooklyn Life.

In no country in the world are infectious diseases so frequently mortal as in Russia. Children especially suffer, and diphtheria, measles, scarlatina and smallpox literally decimate villages and country towns.

Moonshine has been found to have a marked effect on stammering. People so afflicted stammer most at full moon.

A TWO HOUR BREAKFAST.

It Is One of the Institutions of New Orleans.

There is a place in New Orleans that strangers are always glad to have pointed out—Begeny's, over in the French quarter, kept by Mme. Begeny (pronounced Bigaay, with the accent on the last syllable), and famous for the breakfasts it serves at 11 o'clock every morning.

Originally this breakfast was intended for the butchers, and they contributed to it the daintiest meats that the splendid French market in New Orleans provided from day to day. Gradually outsiders began to come in, and now one must engage a seat at breakfast two days ahead. The morning the writer was there a distinguished judge of the supreme court was the principal visitor, and he, with his family and several guests from Boston, sat at the head of the table.

One long table occupies the little dining room, to which one climbs by a rickety flight of stairs. Every Frenchman, when he gets up, takes a cup of coffee and a roll, and at 11 o'clock eats his real breakfast. This is the meal that Mme. Begeny serves, and it costs $1. The kitchen is right off of the dining room, and there is no pretense of adornment. Everything is as plain and simple as it can be, excepting the food, and this is the perfection of the gastronomic art. A bottle of claret stood at each place, which, with water imported from Germany and called "bina label," was all there was to drink until the little cup of black coffee finished the repast.

The first thing served was duck. It was excellent, and so was everything else included in the eight or nine courses that came on, and that concluded, singularly enough, with liver, so cooked that the only regret was that the piece was not larger. It takes two hours to eat a breakfast at Begeny's, and you get enough to last you for all day.—Leslie's Weekly.

A GRIM CEREMONY.

An Emperor's Death Hastened by Rehearsing His Own Funeral.

Emperor Charles V of Spain brought about his death by rehearsing his own funeral. For the last two years of his life, after resigning the scepter of Spain and the Netherlands to his son Philip, in 1556, Charles retired to the monastery of Yuste, in Estremadura, and there lived a cloister life in close intercourse with the monks, devoting much time to religious exercises. During this period, prompted it may be by the example of Cardinal de la Marck, who for several years before his death, in 1528, had annually rehearsed his own obsequies, the emperor, in the summer of 1558, formed the resolution to celebrate his own funeral before he died.

Accordingly, on Aug. 30 of that year, the grim farce was carried out with the most elaborate ceremonial. The imperial domestics marched with black tapers in their hands, and the emperor, clad in sable weeds, himself followed, wearing his shroud. While the solemn mass for the dead was sung before the high altar in the cathedral Charles gave up his taper to the priest, typifying thereby his resignation of life, and was solemnly laid in his coffin. The ceremony closed with sprinkling holy water on his body; then, all the attendants retiring, the doors were shut, and Charles rose from his narrow bed and withdrew to his private apartment.

The damping of the graveclothes indeed a chill, which, aided no doubt by the mental depression caused by the gruesome ceremony, induced a fever which ended in his death three weeks later, on the 21st of September, 1558.

A Missing Link.

It will doubtless surprise many who have never even heard of the brute that there still exists on the island of Java an animal, or rather a reptile, which seems to be the missing link between the ichthyosauri of prehistoric days and the well known saurians of modern times.

This animal is known to the Javanese as "lingnin." It fell to the luck of Baron Alfonso Pereire, consul general of Austria-Hungary, to shoot one of these beasts some years ago. Its length was between nine and ten feet, and it looked a cross between a snake and a crocodile. Though the beast was cut and wounded in its encounter with Baron Pereira it did not bleed.

Pennsylvania Sand Mines.

There are all kinds of mines in Pennsylvania. The greatest are of course the iron and coal mines, but few people would guess that the next extensive mining industry is the sand mines in western Pennsylvania. These mines are rarely underground, however, and many of them are viewed with wonder by passengers on the Pennsylvania, approaching Pittsburg. Whole mountains are being dug away, and the granular rocks forming them are being reduced to sand for the manufacture of glass in and about Pittsburg.—Philadelphia Call.

The Omnipresent Rose.

Every continent on the globe, with the exception of Australia, produces wild roses. There can be little doubt that the rose is one of the oldest flowers in the world and, perhaps, grown from the wind blown seeds in Paradise.

In Egypt it is depicted on numbers of early bas-reliefs, dating from 3000 to 3500 B. C. Rosewater, or the essence of roses, is mentioned by Homer in the "Iliad," and the flower is spoken of in the Proverbs of Solomon.

Lambitke Resignation.

Charles Lamb, when reminded by his sisters of the days when they were poor and capable of enjoying the smallest treat with the keenest relish, so different from the days when they were rich and surfeited, said, "Well, Mary, since we are in easy circumstances we must endeavor to put up with it."

The Army and Navy.

Have covered themselves with glory during the war. The Army and Navy vest pocket memorandum book published by the Northern Pacific is a compact digest of information relative to the navies and armies of Spain and the United States at the beginning of the war. It has a map of Cuba, illustrations of naval ships, glossary of navy and army terms, translation of Spanish words, etc. Send ten cents to Chas. S. Fee, general passenger agent, N. P. R., St. Paul, Minn., for a copy.

Too Much For Him.

It is evidently one thing to work without knowing how much we do and another thing to have our labors mapped out before us in detail. For several months a business house in this city has enjoyed the ministrations of an unusually faithful colored janitor. Always prompt and faithful, unerring in the discharge of his various duties, Tom was a great favorite with the firm, and the prospect was that he would abide with them many years.

One day it occurred to the senior partner that a little more system in Tom's routine would be advisable and perhaps render his work a trifle easier, so he wrote out in plain characters an outline of the chores Tom had been doing every week, arranged perhaps with more convenience to the firm and to Tom. Unfortunately Tom could not read, so the list was given to another man employed on rougher work, with instructions to read it to Tom and explain to him, each day's prescribed duties.

When the schedule was read to Tom, however, the effect was astonishing and disastrous. He listened quietly, but his eyes grew bigger and his black wool seemed to bristle on his head. At the end he reached for his cap and said to the porter: "Good gracious! I ain' goin to do all that work." Then he walked out and hasn't been seen since.—Indianapolis Journal.

Tricked the Vicious Camel.

A valuable camel working in an oil mill in Africa was beaten by its driver. Seeing that the camel had treasured up the injury and was only waiting a favorable chance for revenge, the driver kept a strict watch upon the animal. Time passed away. The camel, knowing that it was watched, was quiet and obedient, and the driver began to think that the beating was forgotten, when one night, after several months had gone by, the man was sleeping on a raised platform in the mill, while, as is customary, the camel was stabled in a corner.

Happening to awake, the driver saw by the bright moonlight that when all was quiet the animal looked cautiously around, rose softly and, stealing toward a spot where a bundle of clothes and a burnoose thrown carelessly on the ground resembled a sleeping figure, cast itself with violence upon them, rolling with all its weight and tearing them most viciously with its teeth. Satisfied that its revenge was complete, the camel was returning to its corner when the driver sat up and spoke. At the sound of his voice and realizing the mistake it had made, the animal was so mortified at the failure and discovery of its scheme that it dashed its head against the wall and died on the spot.

Easy Way to Be Generous.

In the Baptist church of a New England village was an old man who had all the Christian graces save one, and that one was the grace of liberality. He would do anything in the world for the cause of religion but give up his money. At the close of the financial year 1860 the church found itself $400 in debt. A church meeting was called, and it was voted to circulate a subscription paper on the spot and endeavor to thus raise the sum needed. This was done, and the old gentleman did not put his name on the paper. The result was rather disheartening, $200 only having been pledged. Silence reigned for a moment, when one of the most generous men in the church moved that "we double our subscriptions." Instantly the old gentleman was on his feet, and with extraordinary fervor cried, "I second the motion."

He evidently felt that he was thus doing his part in hastening a most desirable result.—Harper's Round Table.

To Jacob Olp, or others, whom it may concern:—

You are hereby notified that on the 11th day of May A. D. 1895, in proceedings to enforce the payment of delinquent taxes pursuant to that certain real estate tax judgment which was entered in the District Court in and for the County of Polk in the 14th Judicial District of the State of Minnesota, on the 21st day of March A. D. 1895, the following described piece and parcel of land which is situated in Polk county (now Red Lake county) in the State of Minnesota, to-wit:

Lot 18, Block 15, Champagne & Dows Addition to Red Lake Falls, was sold to the state to satisfy the amount for which it was adjudged liable in said judgment, interests and costs for the sum of Two dollars and sixty-four cents; that on the 27th day of April 1899, said lot was sold under the direction of the State Auditor for the sum of sixteen dollars and ten cents; that the amount required to redeem said piece and parcel of land from such sale (exclusive of the costs to accrue upon this notice) is sixteen dollars and ten cents and interest on said amount at the rate of 12 per cent. per annum from said 27th day of April A. D. 1899, until such redemption is made, and that the time for redemption of such piece and parcel of land from such sale will expire sixty days after the service of this notice and proof thereof has been filed in the office of the County Auditor of said Polk county.

Witness my hand and official seal this 18th day of May A. D. 1899.

[SEAL] JOHN GLEASON,
County Auditor of Polk county, Minn.
43-45 By N. A. Hoffard, Deputy.

To W. B. Dodge:—

You are hereby notified that on the 11th day of May A. D. 1895, in proceedings to enforce the payment of delinquent taxes pursuant to that certain real estate tax judgment which was entered in the District Court in and for the County of Polk in the 14th Judicial District of the State of Minnesota, on the 21st day of March A. D. 1895, the following described piece and parcel of land which is situated in Polk county (now Red Lake County) in the State of Minnesota, to-wit:

Lot 10, Block 2, Original townsite of Red Lake Falls, was sold to the state to satisfy the amount for which it was adjudged liable in said judgment, interests and costs for the sum of five dollars and forty-three cents; that on the 27th day of April 1899, said lot was sold under direction of the state auditor for the sum of thirty-two dollars and eighty-eight cents; that the amount required to redeem said piece and parcel of land from such sale (exclusive of the costs to accrue upon this notice) is thirty-two dollars and eighty-eight cents, and interest on said amount at the rate of 12 per cent per annum from said 27th day of April A. D. 1899, until such redemption is made, and that the time for redemption of such piece and parcel of land from such sale will expire sixty days after the service of this notice and proof thereof has been filed in the office of the County Auditor of said Polk County.

Witness my hand and official seal this 18th day of May A. D. 1899.

[SEAL] JOHN GLEASON,
County Auditor of Polk County, Minn.
By N. A. Hoffard, Deputy.

FARMS
LOANS
ABSTRACTS
97 Farms for sale or rent in Red Lake County.
SWANSON & GRADY,
Official Abstractors.
RED LAKE FALLS. - - MINN.

—The SPECTATOR is the official paper of the village and county. Now is the time to subscribe. $1.00 per year if paid in advance—otherwise $1.50.

The New York World

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly.

The striking and important events of the last year have established the overwhelming value of The Thrice-a-Week World to every reader. For an almost nominal sum it has kept its subscribers informed of the progress of all our wars and, moreover, has reported them as promptly and fully as if it were a daily. With our interests still extending throughout the world, with our troops operating in the Philippines and the great Presidential campaign, too, at hand, its value is further increased.

The motto of The Thrice-a-Week World is improved. It strives each year to be better than it was the year before, and public confidence in it is shown by the fact that it now circulates more than twice as many papers every week as any other newspaper, not a daily, published in America.

We offer this unequaled newspaper and The St. Hilaire Spectator together one year for $1.65.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

List of Town Clerks.

Names	Township	Postoffice
Olof Larson	Numedal	Viking
C. E. Purdy	North	Thief River Falls
John E. Peterson	Bray	Bray
N. K. Anderson	Sandors	St. Hilaire
P. T. Satro	Rockabury	T. R. Falls
O. T. Romsos	Polk Centre	Wylie
P. A. Eckstrom	Black River	Wylie
A. S. Anderson	River Falls	St. Hilaire
Ole J. Johnson	Wyandotte
A. D. Berry	Louisville	Huot
Hidalge Barli	Red Lake Falls	R. L. P.
Chas. E. Asp	Emardville	Lost
Edward Havik	Equality	Grit
Moses Ducharme	Lake Pleasant	R. L. F.
Edonor Perusse	Terrebonne	Terrebonne
J. B. Herbert	Poplar River	Brooks
Louis Doncet	Lambert	Lambert
J. L. Johnson	St. Hilaire	St. Hilaire
Lars Backo	Thief River F	T. R. P.
A. P. Tonpin	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
H. D. Basryson	Norden	T. R. Falls
Olof Tande	Garnes	Garnes

U. S. LAND OFFICE.
Crookston, Minn., April 14, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of her claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 1st 1899, viz:

Anna Sundahl, widow of Karl Sundahl, deceased. H. E. 14373, for the so¼ sec. 8, twp. 152 N. of range 42 W.

She names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—Aasino Olson, John P. Sandberg, Anton Peterson and Simon E. Ahlberg, all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

38-43 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

U. S. LAND OFFICE.
Crookston, Minn., April 14, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of her claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 1st 1899, viz:

Aasino Olson. H. E. No. 14974, for the nw¼ sec. 9, twp. 152 N. of range 42 W.

She names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—Anna Sundahl, John P. Sandberg, Anton Peterson and Simon E. Ahlberg, all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

38-43 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

U. S. LAND OFFICE.
Crookston, Minn., April 14, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 1st 1899, viz:

John P Sandberg. H. E. 15043, for the no¼ sw¼, sec. 12, twp. 152 N. of range 43 W.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—Anna Sundahl, Aasino Olson, Anton Peterson and Simon E Ahlberg all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

38-43 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

U. S. LAND OFFICE.
Crookston, Minn., April 21, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 20th 1899, viz:

Joseph Anderson. H. E. 14951, for the ne¼ sec. 31, twp. 152 N. of range 43 W.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—H. A. Johnson, John Albin, E. P. Stroberg and Charles Erickson, all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

39-44 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

Say?

If your wheel needs enameling, cleaning, new tires or any other repairing give us a trial. All work done promptly and satisfactory. Prices reasonable.

F. J. TOUSLEY & CO.
35 RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

Love in a Cottage

Bread and cheese and kisses are all right but a few other things to eat and

Hamm's
St. Paul
Beer

add a heap of comfort. Hamm's Beer is a pure delicious home brew. Won't you try it? ~ Agents everywhere.

Theo. Hamm Brewing Co.
Tel. 972 ~ St. Paul, Minn.

UNION MEAT MARKET
P. O. MOSLETH, PROP.

Choicest line of Fresh and Salted meats in the city.
Highest market price paid for Stock, Poultry and Hides.

WANTED-BRAINS

Can you think of something to patent? Protect your ideas; they may bring you wealth. Before applying for patent, get our liberal offers. Inventor's Assistant and handsome views of Washington sent Free on request. Be sure to write to-day. COPP & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C.

Spring Suits.

STYLISH SPRING SUITS
FOR MEN AND BOYS.

The Greatwestern own magnificent display of men's spring suits, and boys' choicest clothing is now ready, at a saving of fully 25 per cent.

Greatwestern Clothing House.

Cosmopolitan
and Spectator.

To secure for you the best and most interesting of the great illustrated magazines at the lowest possible price has been the aim of the editor of this journal. That we have succeeded we will leave our readers to judge. A special contract recently entered into with The Cosmopolitan, which seeks to become better known in this neighborhood, has enabled us to offer you a year's subscription to the greatest of the illustrated magazines together with a year's subscription to this journal, both together one year for only $1.80.

SOME
OF OUR CLUB RATES
WITH
THE

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR

OUR TERMS ARE STRICTLY CASH
IN ADVANCE

OFFICIAL
PAPER
OF
ST. HILAIRE
AND RED LAKE COUNTY.

Farm, Stock & Home.

50 cents per year. Read by a greater number of Northwestern farmers than any other agricultural paper published. Are you among the number? If not, Why not? Every department is the hands of a specialist. Short talks department. A department where all kinds of questions are answered for the benefit of subscribers, is a leading feature of the paper. No northwestern farmers list of papers is complete without it. This paper and Spectator one year for $1.25.

Cosmopolitan,
New York World
and
The Spectator.

You wish to keep in touch with metropolitan life, through the medium of a great daily. The Thrice-a-Week World of New York is the equivalent of a daily and is a marvellous fund of knowledge concerning the happenings of the day. Each issue contains six to eight pages of eight columns each or over eight thousand columns of reading matter a year. In former days this would have cost you probably as much as $6.00 a year, by itself. Now you can have it, if you wish, in connection with your home paper and The Cosmopolitan Magazine. Three together one year for only $2.35.

IF YOU INTEND TO Buy
Furniture

Come and look our assortment over. We carry everything in the Furniture line including picture frames and musical instruments. Prices reasonable.

Holmes Furniture Co.

BANK OF RED LAKE FALLS,
RED LAKE FALLS, MINNESOTA
GENERAL BANKING. FOREIGN XCHANGE

Real Estate, Farm Loans and Insurance.
Abstracts of Title.
Steamship Tickets.
Interest Paid on Time Deposits.
Collections of all Kinds Given Prompt Attention.

Owner of the Abstract Books formerly owned by Sortedahl & Storaash the only set of Abstract Books in Red Lake County.

M. O. SORTEDAHL, President and Cashier.
G. P. SEVERTSON, Assistant Cashier

Bryan's New Book

REPUBLIC OR EMPIRE?
THE PHILIPPINE QUESTION
BY
HON. WILLIAM J. BRYAN

HON. W. J. BRYAN.

HON. ANDREW CARNEGIE.

With Supplementary Chapters from

Hon. Andrew Carnegie, Senators Hoar, Vest, Allen, White, Gorman, Bacon, Mason, Daniel, Chilton, Butler, McLaurin, Tillman, Money, Turner, Teller, Edmunds, Clay; Hon. H. U. Johnson, Hon. Chas. A. Towne, Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, Ex-Secretary Carlisle, Rev. Dr. Van Dyke, Hon. Chas. Francis Adams, Prof. David Starr Jordan, Gen'l Weaver, Hon. Carl Schurz, Sam'l Gompers, Prest. Am. Fed. of Labor, and others.

THE SENSATION OF THE CENTURY. IMPERIALISM AND ABSOLUTISM DENOUNCED.

Territorial Expansion denominated, "THE POOR MAN'S LOAD," and opposed to the Constitution of the United States, the Declaration of Independence, and all the most sacred doctrines of our Republic as handed down to us by our Fathers.

THE GOSPEL OF A HIGHER CIVILIZATION AND BROADER LIBERTY.
THE ONLY BOOK ON THE SUBJECT.

AGENTS WANTED.

It is profusely illustrated, giving beautiful half-tone portraits of Mr. Bryan and the other contributors, also scenes of thrilling interest, showing the exact conditions and customs in the Philippines. Nothing like it before attempted in book-publishing. A very bonanza for agents.

It cannot be bought at book-stores; it cannot be furnished by any other house. We are the sole Official Publishers.

The first Edition, 100,000 copies. A large octavo book, beautiful new type.

WE PAY FREIGHT on each order amounting to 50 books at one time, when cash accompanies order.

THE OUTFIT IS FREE. We make no charge for the elegant, complete Prospectus Outfit, with blanks, etc., but as each Outfit costs us a lot of money, in order to protect ourselves against many who would impose upon us by sending for Outfit with no intention of working, but merely out of idle curiosity, we require the applicant, as a guarantee of good faith on his part, to send us 25c to cover postage and wrapping, this amount to be refunded to agent upon our receipt of first order for 10 books.

Best Cloth Binding	$1.50
Best Half Russia Binding, with marbled edges	2.25
Best Full Russia Binding, with gold edges	3.00

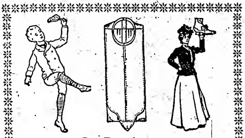
Write for our Unparalleled Terms to Agents. Address—

THE INDEPENDENCE COMPANY, Publishers,
FRANKLIN BUILDING, CHICAGO.

Cigars.

BRINK BROTHERS
DEALERS IN
Wines & Liquors
Minneapolis Beer.

Corner Broadway and 3rd St. St. Hilaire, Minnesota



Be Ready For Spring When it Comes

A full line of spring merchandise just arrived. We invite inspection of these goods. A splendid line of Skirts and Waists, both in ready-made and patterns at prices which are right. I shall not attempt to describe the line; only urge you most cordially to see the goods before you buy.

E. M. HOFF.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

I. O. O. F. St. Hilaire Lodge No. 147.—Meets at their hall every Thursday evening, eight o'clock. Visiting members are cordially invited to attend.
E. M. Hoff, N. G.
J. H. Johnson, Secretary.

M. W. A. CAMP 3550.—Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every second and fourth Tuesday of every month. Visiting neighbors are cordially invited to attend.
Leonard Holmes, V. C.
Jas. M. Hall, Clerk.

R. N. A.—WILD ROSE CAMP.—No. 831 Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every Friday evening. Visiting members of the order are cordially invited to attend.
Mrs. L. N. Nolan, Oracle.
Miss T. Hughes, Recorder.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Auditor	Adam Zeh
Treasurer	O. T. Tandberg
Register of Deeds	Samuel Olbeau
Sheriff	Chas. Sampson
Attorney	Van B. Brown
Judge of Probate	J. T. Knight
Clerk of Court	Joe Perrault
Supt. of Schools	Frank Jeffers
Coroner	Joe Bclaire
Court Commissioner	J. C. Mathews
Surveyor	P. O. Hagglund
Commissioner 1st Dist.	J. Sator
Commissioner 2nd Dist.	W. L. C. Bomann
Commissioner 3rd Dist.	O. J. Johnsen
Commissioner 4th Dist.	Karl M. Henson
Commissioner 5th Dist.	J. B. Herbert

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

E. J. Holmes	President
J. L. Johnson	Recorder
D. Patterson	Councilmen
J. C. Dahl
W. A. Sorsoleil
L. Holmes	Treasurer

Barber Shop

—AND—

BATH ROOMS.

—o—

Haircutting, Shaving, Shampooing.

Razors honed and put in first-class order.

J. H. PENNO, Prop.

ST. HILAIRE - - MINNESOTA

Henry Francis, M. D, C. M.

Member College Physicians and Surgeons, Ontario.

Thief River Falls, Minnesota.

"THE IDEAL" Lunch Room.

In the Paradis Building is noted for its Convenience.

FIRST-CLASS MEALS.

PROMPT SERVICE.

Open until one o'clock A. M.

A. F. LANG, Prop.

DR. BLOMBURGH.

SCANDINAVIAN

Physician & Surgeon.

Calls attended day or night.

Teeth Extracted.

Office and residence opposite American Hotel. St. Hilaire, Minn.

2nd STORE

(Second Hand Store.)

Everything in this line now on hand. Special bargains given. If you have anything to dispose of give me a call. Repairing of harness also done.

C. A. SKEIE.

St. Hilaire, - - Minnesota

Blacksmith!

Horse-shoeing, repairing of all kinds of Farm Implements, Machinery, etc. All work promptly attended to and done in a satisfactory manner.

J. C. DAHL.

St. Hilaire, Minnesota

PATENTS

Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES. OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.

Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured. A PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,

C. A. SNOW & CO.

Opp. Patent Office, Washington, D. C.

Market Report.—To-Day.

Wheat No. 1	.63	Oats	.20
Wheat No. 2	.59	Barley	.28
Wheat No. 3	.53	Flax,	.88
Eggs (per doz).	12½	Butter (per lb)	10

LOCAL NEWS.

Broadway is being paved with cut pine.

Rev. A. M. Lunde left yesterday for Crookston.

Wall paper and calcimine at the New Drug store.

Oney Oidne made a trip to Red Lake Falls to-day.

The base ball boys expect their new suits this week.

Try a lunch, a meal or a weeks board at the Ideal Lunch Room.

Miss May Halvorson was an over Sunday visitor at Crookston.

5 cents will buy two packages of garden seeds at M. A. Hall's.

The new hardware store handles everything in the harness line.

Ed. Iverson of Vaseau, Wis. was in town a short time last Monday.

—Go to the New Drug Store for your Stationery and School supplies.

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Deach Friday, May 19, 1899, a daughter.

Will Sorsoleil received a car load of flour from Red Lake Falls Monday.

Percy Vibert of Thief River Falls has moved his family to this village.

Chas. Rapp made a business trip to the upper Falls the first of the week.

Will Mageau returned last week from a six months stay in Beltrami county.

Patronize home industry by buying your wall paper at the New Drug store.

J. G. Ballard superintendent of the Crookston Lumber Co. was here yesterday.

The new steamer at Thief River Falls will be launched about the first of June.

County Commissioner Hansen passed through here Monday enroute to the county seat.

Arno Mereen and Henry Norland are still trying to solve the mysteries of spirit power.

The St. Hilaire band was out at the ball grounds Sunday and played several selections.

Mike Fricker has just received a carload of corn which he will grind into all kinds of feed.

Charles Thompson and Miss Selma Henrickson were married last Wednesday afternoon.

A party from Appleton is here looking over the site with a view of putting in a flour mill.

Dan Patterson is putting in a new pair of street scales on Broadway near his livery barn.

Mrs. Levi Stranahan and children of Thief River Falls were visiting relatives in the village last week.

Mrs. A. O. Wiste was reported as being very sick yesterday, caused by heart troubles which she is subject to.

Arthur Hannay of Minneapolis arrived last week and will remain a few weeks visiting with his parents.

The band dance given last Wednesday evening was a grand success regardless of the disagreeable weather,

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Cyr of Red Lake Falls were here several days last week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Thibedeau.

Dr. Watson and A. J. West were among those up from Red Lake Falls Sunday to witness the first ball game of the season.

C. O. Nelson representing the Crookston Times was here yesterday looking after collections and soliciting work for the bindery.

St. Hilaire Lodge No. 147, I. O. O. F. will elect officers at their meeting tomorrow evening. All members are requested to be present.

Since the fishing season opened the banks of the river below the dam is lined with fishermen and several nice strings have been caught.

The St. Hilaire base ball club will cross bats with the Thief River Falls nine next Sunday. A great many from here will go up to see the game played.

Consumption Cured.

—Werner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth, cures a cold in one day if taken in time. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

First B. B. Game.

The first base ball game of the season occurred last Sunday afternoon on the home grounds between Thief River Fell and St. Hilaire clubs. Fully five hundred people were out to see the game and all seemed to be very much interested. About fifty came down from the upper Falls and a like number were up from Red Lake Falls including their base ball nine, "The Selects." Neither of the teams had much practice and of course errors were made on both sides, but the home team won out with only a few scores ahead. The following are the names and positions of teams:

Thief River Falls.		St. Hilaire.
Moran	c	Stranahan	c
Stranahan L.	p	Warner	p
Hoar	ss	McCraig	ss
Benzio A.	1b	Mitchell	1b
Peranto	3b	Monsscau	3b
Dobner	2b	Martin	2b
Bensie W.	rf	Oolin	rf
Benzie D.	lf	Rouse	lf
Haasen	cf	Lilleman	cf

Umpires—Todd and Floherty.

Thief River Falls	0	0	1	0	3	4	3	4	3	—18
St. Hilaire	5	0	0	0	4	4	4	2	2	—21

NOTES.

Warner fanned out ten men.

Stranahan is playing good ball, likewise Warner.

From the catcher down the Thief River boys are right.

Lieut. Batdelson run short on voice before the game was over.

Hansen did some excellent work in centerfield as well as coaching.

C. C. Jackson can always be found where the upper Falls boys play ball.

With a few changes St. Hilaire will have the winning team for the season.

Rooters use the same language as that of previous years—no new rulings.

Both umpires stood pat on decisions when it looked different to outsiders and players.

Stranahan directed all his rooting to the opposition pitcher and won to a certain extent.

You cant keep Oscar Thomas of the lower Falls from behind the bat whether he plays ball or not.

The small girls as well as the little boys are well advanced in the rooting line, and singular to say, always in faver of the home team.

No sooner was Werner taken out of the pitchers box than he was, "brought face to face with the spirits" at the English Medium show. He was the centre of attraction and if he cant play ball next Sunday you will know the reason why.

To cure a cough in one day take the Imperial cough syrup. Guaranteed to cure. For sale at the new Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Kortgaard drove to Red Lake Falls Monday. This was their first visit and they were favorably impressed as it being a wide awake town.

Prof. J. Q. Adams the optican jeweler and watchmaker will be here Thursday and Friday of this week. If you need anything in this line be sure and call on him at Johnson's drug store.

—Dan Patterson has again taken the contract of furnishing short mill wood for this year and anyone in need of any can leave orders at his livery barn or at the office of the St. Hilaire Lumber Co.

The Worlds Famous English Mediums showed here Sunday and Monday evenings to crowded houses. Everybody seemed to be satisfied they got their moneys worth and still wondering how it was done.

Judge Searle, of St. Cloud has sentenced Homer Minot, Charles Hoffman and J. C. Hall, the three men convicted of robbing a Great Northern train near Carlyle last November, to nineteen and and half years in the Stillwater penitentiary.

Dewey has left Manila and is now at Hong Kong, where his ship the Olympia will be cleaned and painted white for the return voyage. On her arrival in this country the kind of paint used will be deep red—and the whole country will furnish the artists to do the painting properly.—E. G. F. Courier.

The section men on this line have been notified that a touch of prosperity have struck them to extent of an extra fifteen cents per day. All things come to him who waits. This is the first raise in three years and now the section men earn the handsome sum of $1.25 per day.

—To cure a cough or cold in one day take the Imperial Cough Syrup.

C. D. Buyanim, general agent for the United States Benevolent Society of Saginaw Mich. is in town this week in the interest of said company and has appointed K. O. Gigstad local agent for this place and any one wishing to avail themselves of a sick or accident benefit may call on him and be insured.

Several changes are in store for the first of the month. The Slocum Grocery store will move into the Chase block on Broadway. The Strawbridge Mercantile Co., of St. Hilaire will move from St. Hilaire to this city and also occupy part of the Chase building. The locations are excellent.—Crookston Tribune.

W. A. Case, deputy head consul of the Modern Woodmen of America left last Friday for Minneapolis. He has been transferred to this new district and no doubt will make as good a record organizing new camps as he did in this district for which he got the first state prize. He expects to be gone at least three months and will visit Kansas City before returning.

The Best Cough Remedy on Earth.

Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, Consumption Cure, cures a cold in 24 hours if taken in time and does not stop a cough in ONE MINUTE by paralyzing the throat, but it cures the disease and leaves the throat and lungs healthy and strong. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

Tired of Farming.

Last fall a young fellow by the name of Charles Christianson moved into this country from North Dakota leaving his team with a farmer near Thief River Falls and worked in the pineries during the winter. Some time in March he came down and rented a farm from A. G. Ness of River Falls township and along with his own team he bought another span of horses from Mr. Ness giving a mortgage on his own team, lumber wagon, harness, etc. All was sunshine for a time, but the reins came on and like other tillers of the soil we presume Mr. Christianson must have caught the "blues" and not attending to them in time, they may have run into something of a violent nature as his subsequent action indicate. On Thursday May 18th he borrowed a horse from Mr. Ness to finish up his spring work which had been very much delayed on account of the weather. Mr. Ness with his usual sagacity must have read something between the lins or "smelled a rat" for on the next day he sent one of his sons over to the farm to see how his tenant was getting along and on arriving there you can immagine his surprise; no tenant was there, the wheat left for seed was all gone and the sacks filled with hay and likewise the oats; and all five horses. Mr. Ness at once drove to town as fast as possible to look for the culprit but no one here had seen him, but a farmer from the town of Sanders had seen a wagon about a mile west of town stuck in the mud which answered the description. Ness drove out and found it to be the one he was looking for, so Christ Hall our village marshal and Dan Patterson went out to look for the man and horses and found the latter in a popple grove about a mile west of where the wagon was found but no driver. They took the horses to town and later in the evening Mr. Hall and Constable Fellman went out again but on arriving there they found the wagon with its contents had been set on fire and reached there in time to save the most of it. All went well until Sunday morning when Mr. Ness went out to the barn to feed his stock he found two of his best horses missing again, so he at once organized a company and the horses were tracked to the pasture of Mr. Just's about four miles south of where they were taken. Will Bramsness of the pursuing party had the pleasure of going up and speaking to Christianson but after making his wants known he was politely told to move on which was ompbathised by producing a 44-56 calibre army revolver—and the culprit held the right-of-way while Bramsness moved. Four shots were fired and during the fracas one of the horses broke loose and started for home. Ness is still one horse shy, but Sheriff Samson is hot on the trail.

The Strawbridge Mercantile Company are closing out this week preparatory to moving to Crookston.

—For cuts and sores there is nothing better than the Imperial Carbolic salve.

Representative Gains, of Tenn., is in Washington on business. Speaking of the political outlook he said: "The democrats have only to stand firm, renominate Bryan, make some additions to the Chicago platform, and they will sweep the country in 1900. Bryan's renomination is assured, for he is just as much admired in the strongholds of the party as he was in '96. The next platform will declare for free silver, but will also declare against expansion, militarism, and the trusts, which threaten the destruction of the nation. What makes the prospect all the brighter for the democracy is the torn and divided state of the republicans. When Congress meets and the majority tries to enact ironclad gold-standard legislation, it will find out the true sentiment of the country on the financial question."

—Dr. Thomas is an up-to-date in all the different branches in his profession. Remember the dates, June 5th and 6th.

Keeping Milk in Cellar.

Most farmers for want of a more suitable place, keep the milk and cream in the cellar. If suitble and well ventilated shelves be provided for the pans, the cellar be properly ventilated, and the air keept cool and free from odors, then the cellar set milk will produce quite as good butter as a poorly attended creamery and at one-half the trouble unless cool, running spring water is available for cooling the milk, and maintaining it at the proper temperature. To keep a cellar cool in summer it is very necessary that the direct reys of the sun and warm currents of air should be excluded, and this can be done by heavily shading the windows and keeping the doors closed from sunrise till sunset, when they may be opened. During the sultry nights of midsummer, doors should be opened only for an hour very early in the morning. Always remember that you cannot reduce the temperature of the cellar atmosphere by admitting warmer air from the outside. Hence, ventilate only when the outside air is equally as cold or colder, unless fresh air be desired.

—It is better than ready money because it cures rheumatism, constipation sick headache, indigestion. Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure.

Notice of Dissolution.

Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership of Sortedahl & Storaasli is dissolved by mutual consent.

M. O. Sortedahl will continue the business in connection with a general banking business under the name and style of Bank of Red Lake Falls and is authorized to settle all accounts of said co-partnership.

M. O. Sortedahl.
E. G. Storaasli.

Dated at Red Lake Falls, Minn., May 10 1899.

—Every farmer who writes a letter occasionally should get envelopes with his name and address printed in the corner. We will furnish 100 of the best quality printed in any style for the small sum of 75 cts. Send in your order.

His New Brother.

Say, I've got a little brother.
Never teased to have him, nuther,
But he's here;
They just went ahead and bought him.
And last week the doctor brought him,
Wan't that queer?

When I heard the news from Molly,
Why, I thought at first 'twas jolly,
'Cause, you see,
I s'posed I could go and get him,
And then mamma course, would let him
Play with me.

But when I had once looked at him.
"Why!" I says, My sakes is that him?
Just that mite!
They said "Yes," and "Aint he cunnin?"
And I thought they must be funnin—
He's a sight!

He's so small, its just amazin,
And you'd think that he was blazin,
He's so red;
And his nose is like a berry,
And he's bald as Uncle Jerry
On his head.

Why, he isnt worth a dollar!
All he does is cry and hollar
More and more.
Wont sit up; you cant arrange him—
I don't see why pa dont change him
At the store.

Now we've got to dress and feed him,
And we didn't really need him
More'n a frog;
Why'd they buy a baby brother
When they know I'd good deal ruther
Have a dog?

—Joe Lincoln, in L. A. W. Bulletin.

Dentist.

—Dr. J. H. Thomas, the Crookston dentist will be at Hotel Markham, St. Hilaire, June 5th and 6th prepared to do all kinds of up to date dental work in all branches. All work warranted. Remember the dates 8th and 9th.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

Give Them a Mark.

Editor wardwell, of the Pioneer Express, an old soldier himself says, "We hope the government will carry out the proposed medal system for the late and present war. Every regular and volunteer should be given a bronze medal, showing his company and regiment, and on the reverse side, if he served in foreign lands, the word "Cuba," "Porto Rico" or "Philippines." Such a souvenir, while at present would perhaps not be valued very highly, yet as years rolled on they would grow very precious not only the wearer, but to his relatives and descendants.

If the U. S. government fails to do this, then each state should do it for its own volunteers. Give the boys a mark. They deserve it, and the honor that such a mark will bring them. They have distinguished themselves, they deserve a mark of distinguishment."

—If you are troubled with rheumatism take the Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure. It will positively cure all diseases arising from impure blood, and is sold under an absolute guarantee to benefit or money refunded. Call for free sample at the New Drug Store.

Ladies' Aid Society.

The Ladies, Aid Society of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. Almer on Thursday afternoon June 1st. Other ladies interested in the work are kindly invited to attend.

Mrs. J. A. Dainard,
Secretary

Killing Noxious Growth.

You can kill any undesirable plant, vine or weed by persistent cutting away of the young growth. Even Canada thistles and poison ivy, two noted pests of great tenacity of life, can be destroyed in this way. A little experience that the writer once had with Canada thistles, leads him to think they are more easily killed than is generally supposed. In converting what had previously been a cultivated field into lawn one spot contained a liberal sprinkling of these thistles. It was suggested by a neighbor that they would spoil the lawn completely. So far from this being the case, they never gave a particle of trouble, and by a year all had died. In this case the simple mowing of the lawn once a week, to within half an inch of the surface, did the business. Young thistle shoots are very succulent, and the revolving knives easily took care of them. The writer has in mind another case of destroying poison ivy in a home grove. In the spring he allowed the vine to come out in full leaf, when it was cut to the ground. Every time later that it showed a sprout, this was cut to the ground when it soon died out. Leaves are comparable to lungs; not even a weed can long endure without them.—Vick's Monthly.

Watches Clocks and Jewelery.

I will carry a full line of wathes, clocks and jewlery hereafter at Johnson's drug store. Anything you want that we do not carry in stock we will order for you at ten per cent above the wholesale prices and by doing this you will save money by dealing at home. Watches left for repairs will be sent down on first train and returned the next day. I shall continue to be at Johnson's drug store the 10th 11th and 12th of each month. Eyes examined free.

Prof. J. Q. Adams:
Red Lake Falls.

FOR SALE.

Two lots and house on South Broadway for sale at a bargain. For particulars address,

Mrs. C. Gerbig,
Box 20. Akeley, Minn.

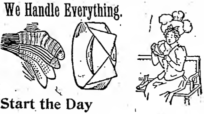
WANTED.

Teachers to attend the Crookston College Summer School. It is cheap thorough and practical. Term opens June 12th and continues 8 weeks. Address, Crookston College, Crookston, Minnesota.

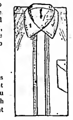
Agents Wanted.

The oldest and largest nursery in the West Everything for the orchard and grove. Three plans of work and the year round. Pay weekly. Write for terms.

The Jewell Nursery Co.,
40-45 Lake City, Minn.



We Handle Everything.

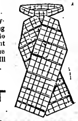


Start the Day Right

And everything will go smoothly. The proper way to start the day is by coming around to our store and ordering a supply of groceries for the day, such things as you may need. It will take you but a few minutes, and we feel sure you will not regret it.

Our Groceries

Are always fresh, and then the prices are as near right as we know how to make them. If you have not been in the habit of trading with us, drop in and see us anyway; you might get into the habit.



Hardware

We carry everything in the hardware line from cooking stoves down to tacks—all you have to do is to ask for what you want. If you want anything in the tin or copper line done drop into our tin shop and your wants will be attended to.

Yours very truly,

RAPP & POST

St. Hilaire, Minnesota.

The Cheap Cash Store.

GROCERIES NOTIONS FRUIT CANDIES TOYS TOBACCOS CIGARS AND GENTS FURNISHING GOODS.

ALL AT HARD TIMES PRICES. M. A. HALL.

A. H. WEAGANT

Having bought the business of Fred Eikhoff, I am now prepared to sell you anything in line of

HARDWARE AND TINWARE

CUTLERY, PAINTS & OILS,

Everything at Rock Bottom Prices. Come and see for yourself. Opposite Hotel Markham

LEONARD HOLMES,

—DEALER IN—

Agricultural Implements.

WHEAT, FLAX OATS AND BARLEY.

Flour and Feed always on Hand.

Lumber! Lumber!

OF ALL KINDS.

We have a large and well assorted stock of Dry Lumber and are prepared to fill all orders on short notice. We also carry a complete assortment

—OF—

Sash, Doors, Paper

AND ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL

Which we buy in large quantities and are thereby enabled to sell at lowest market prices.

ST. HILAIRE LUMBER CO.

NEW MEAT MARKET.

L. M. ROLAND, Proprietor.

Fresh and Salted Meats.

Highest Market Price Paid for Hides.

L. K. KOLSTAD

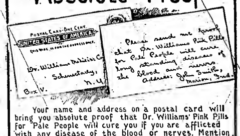
DEALER IN

Boots and Shoes!

Repairing a Specialty.

ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.

Absolute Proof



POSTAL CARD—ONE CENT.
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
THIS SIDE IS FOR THE ADDRESS ONLY.
Dr. Williams Medicine Co.
Schenectady,
N. Y.
Box V.
Please send me proof that Dr. Williams Pink Pills for Pale People will cure long standing disease of the blood and nerves. Address: John Smith, Marion, Ind.

Your name and address on a postal card will bring you absolute proof that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People will cure you if you are afflicted with any disease of the blood or nerves. Mention the disorder with which you are suffering and we will send evidence that will convince and satisfy you that Dr Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People will cure you

These pills contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, partial paralysis and all forms of weakness either in men or women.

To a Lawrence Journal reporter Mr. G. H. Snyder, a well known citizen of Lawrence, Kan., related a wonderful story. He said: "I am now seventy years of age. About three years ago I experienced a coldness or numbness in the feet, then creeping up my legs, until it reached my body. I grew thin, appetite poor and did not relish my food. I became unable to move about. Consulted several distinguished physicians, one telling me I had locomotor ataxia, another, creeping paralysis. I took their medicines but continued to grow worse. A friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Before I had finished my first box I found that they were benefiting me. I used twelve boxes and was perfectly cured. Although over six months since I used my last pill there has been no return of the disease. My appetite is good and general health better than for many years."

Look for the full name on the package. At druggists or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N.Y. 50c. per box. 6 boxes $2.50.

PATENTS.

List of Patents Issued Last Week to Northwestern Inventors

Stephen S. Bately, Mitchell, S. D., compound for removing taint of onions from butter; Thomas Dowling, Minneapolis, Minn., wheel rim and tire; Ole Ostad and M. H. Welta, Farwell, Minn., adjustable stove grate; J. W. Powers, Minneapolis, Minn., steam engine; Henry J. Wessinger, Tower, Minn., crusher plate; Marcus P. Nichols, St. Paul, Minn., oar lock (design;) James Casey, Minneapolis, Minn., automatic choke-feed device for lubricators.

Merwin, Lothrop & Johnson, Patent Attorneys, 910 Pioneer Press Bldg., St. Paul.

Read the Advertisements.

You will enjoy this publication much better if you will get into the habit of reading the advertisements; they will afford a most amusing study, and will put you in the way of getting some excellent bargains. Our advertisers are reliable; they send what they advertise.

Not Very Much.

Miss Oldgirl—Do you think, Mr. Sniffkins is sincere when he writes that he loves me more than tongue can tell?

Miss Peachblow—I dare say. He's tongue-tied, you know.—Kansas City Independent.

Around the World in a Day.

This globe of ours is a pretty good sized sphere, but we are told the Deering Harvester Company of Chicago can produce in a single day enough Binder Twine to encircle it, with 3,500 miles to spare—30,000 miles of twine is a fair day's output! A reliable publication recently proved by correspondence with dealers in all parts of America that 36 per cent of the twine used in 1898 was Deering Twine.

Tropical Enterprise.

"Cuba seems to adopt our industries quite readily."

"Yes. I am told Cuban tobacco is already being produced in Cuba to some extent."—Boston Journal.

Do Your Feet Ache and Burn?

Shake into your shoes, Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It makes tight or New Shoes feel Easy. Cures Corns, Bunions, Swollen, Hot and Sweating Feet. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

The Exceptions.

First American—Laugh and the world laughs with you.

Second American—All but the Englishman—Lie.

My doctor said I would die, but Piso's Cure for Consumption cured me.—Amos Kelner, Cherry Valley, Ill., Nov. 23, '95.

The worst disappointment you can experience is disappointment in yourself.

A Chinaman's Reasoning.

A Chinaman is speaking to himself as he irons a shirt. Picks up a shirt showing evidence of having been well cared for, and says:

"Bachelor. Him landlady fix him."

Picks up another, buttonless and all frayed at the wrists and neck.

"Mallied man."—New England Grocer.

What "Alabastine" Is.

Alabastine is a durable and natural coating for walls and ceilings. It is entirely different from all "kalsomine" preparations. Alabastine comes in white or twelve beautiful tints, and is ready for use by adding cold water. It is put up in dry powder form in five-pound packages, with full directions on every package. Alabastine is handsome, cleanly and permanent. It can be re-coated and retinted at slight expense. Paint dealers and druggists sell Alabastine and furnish card of tints.

She Had the Last Word.

Mr. Hornbill—Do you know, darling, I could pick you out of a crowd of women just by your style?

Mrs. Hornbill—I don't wonder, and me with the same old dress for the last two years!—Brooklyn Life.

Hall's Catarrh Cure

Is a constitutional cure. Price, 75c.

No man actually believes that his nextdoor neighbor is his superior mentally.

True dignity is never gained by place and never lost when honors are withdrawn.—Massinger.

A Guaranteed Cure.

Most difficult to cure—Chronic Constipation. Yet Cascarets Candy Cathartic are guaranteed to cure any case or money refunded. Druggists, 10c, 25c, 50c.

He that has no real esteem for any of the virtues can best assume the appearance of them all.—Colton.

We pay $15 a week and expenses to men with rigs to introduce our Poultry Remedies. Wyandotte Mfg. Co., 413 Lake St., Chicago, Ill.

A Kentuckian who always carries a pint bottle says it's just as easy to get hilarious on water as it is on land.

FITS Permanently Cured. No fits or nervousness after first day's use of Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. Send for FREE $2.00 trial bottle and treatise. Dr. R. H. Kline, Ltd., 931 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

A person is always startled when he hears himself seriously called old for the first time.—O. W. Holmes.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

The politician who cannot tell a lie had better quit the business and go to work.

HOME duties to many women seem more important than health.

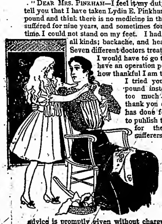
No matter how ill they feel, they drag themselves through the daily tasks and pile up trouble.

WOMAN'S DEVOTION TO HOME

This is heroic but a penalty has to be paid.

A woman in New Matamoras, Ohio, Mrs. Isabell Bradfield, tells in the following letter how she fought with disease of the feminine organs until finally forced to take to her bed. She says:

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham—I feel it my duty to write to you to tell you that I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and think there is no medicine in the world like it. I suffered for nine years, and sometimes for twelve weeks at a time. I could not stand on my feet. I had female troubles of all kinds; backache, and headache all the time. Seven different doctors treated me. Some said I would have to go to the hospital and have an operation performed. But oh! how thankful I am that I did not, that I tried your Vegetable Compound instead. I cannot say too much in its praise, nor thank you enough for what it has done for me. I want you to publish this in all the papers for the good of other sufferers."



The wives and mothers of America are given to overwork. Let them be wise in time and at the first indication of female trouble write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for her advice. This advice is promptly given without charge.

The present Mrs. Pinkham's experience in treating female ills is unparalleled; for years she worked side by side with Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, and for sometime past has had sole charge of the correspondence department of her great business, advising and helping by letter as many as a hundred thousand ailing women during a single year.

OUR BUDGET OF FUN

SOME GOOD JOKES, ORIGINAL AND SELECTED.

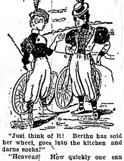
A Variety of Jokes—Gibes and Ironies Original and Selected—Flotsam and Jetsam from the Tide of Humor—Witty Sayings.

Where He Fell Down.

He had faced ten thousand foemen in the fray,
He had braved the wildest terrors of the sea;
No danger ever made him turn away,
For never was a braver man than he;
Where cannon boomed and blood in rivers ran
His calmness of demeanor never fled;
But he rose to make a speech, the foolish man,
And in a trice completely lost his head.

He never flinched when face to face with death,
The greatest danger never chilled his heart
Or even made him draw a quicker breath—
A score of times he played a hero's part;
When called upon to face a deadly breach
He rushed to act without a sign of dread;
But once he rose and tried to make a speech
And quickly and completely lost his head.

A Case of Degeneration.



"Just think of it! Bertha has sold her wheel, goes into the kitchen and darns socks!"

"Heavens! How quickly one can degenerate after leaving off cycling!"

Photographing the Baby.

A young photographer, when asked what sort of subjects presented the greatest difficulties to him, replied without a moment's hesitation, "Babies. I don't mean the babies themselves," he added. "It is not so hard to get what I consider satisfactory negatives of them. It's the relatives that make all the trouble.

"For instance," he continued, "I took photographs of a little ten-month-old fellow the other day in six different positions. Yesterday I sent proofs to his mother, and today she brought them in.

"'I'm sorry,' she said, without any obvious grief, 'but none of these negatives will do.'

"'Not one of the six?' I inquired, though I was prepared for what was to follow.

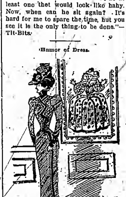
"'No,' she said, 'I'm afraid not. You see, I like this one very well, though, of course, it doesn't do the baby justice; but his aunt Ellen says it's an absolute caricature of the dear little fellow. The one she likes I don't care for at all, and his papa says he should never know for whom it was intended; it looks so cross, and baby is such a sunshiny child.

"'The one he likes, this smiling one, I shouldn't consider for a moment, for it makes baby's mouth look so much larger than it really is.

"'His grandmother chose that one, but as Cousin Fanny said, there's a very queer look in the child's eyes in it—very queer! However, she likes that one where he's almost crying, that sober one. You ought to have heard baby's grandfather when she said she liked it.

"'He really decided the thing, for what he said seemed so sensible. He asked me why I didn't have some more taken, and see if there wouldn't be at least one that would look like baby. Now, when can he sit again? It's hard for me to spare the time, but you see it is the only thing to be done.'"—Tit-Bits.

Humor of Dress.



Queen Bess—"Gramercy! How is the poor creature to walk?"—Punch.

Convincing.

He—"I assure you, Carrie, I love you as much as I love myself."

She—"Greater love than that no woman could reasonably ask for. You needn't say any more, Henry."—Boston Transcript.

Not Posted.

"What have we to do with the Samoan squabble?"

"Can't say, exactly. I don't know whether it's a case of duty, destiny or humanity, or merely an old-fashioned scrap."—Puck.

When love takes its flight from a window it usually selects the dining-room window.

The Power of Storm.

The Caymen Islands were nearly overwhelmed by the recent storm. Apparently secure things are not safe. Even if you have health, be on your guard. Disease works stealthily. An occasional dose of Hostetter's Stomach bitters will keep the bowels regular and disease at bay. If you have indigestion and constipation try it.

Matrimony worries a woman less after she gets into it than before.

"Think of Ease But Work On."

If your blood is impure you may "work on" but you cannot even "think of ease." The blood is the greatest sustainer of the body and when you make it pure by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla you have the perfect health in which even hard work becomes ease.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, the non irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

What He Said.

Artist—I am sorry I was not in when old Milyuns called. Did he notice my allegorical painting of "Liberty?"

Servant—He did, sir.

Artist—Ah! And what did he say?

Servant—He said, "O, Liberty! how many crimes are committed in thy name!"—Puck.

Are You Using Allen's Foot-Ease?

It is the only cure for Swollen, Smarting, Burning, Sweating Feet, Corns and Bunions. Ask for Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder to be shaken into the shoes. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Labor Lost.

Young Hardhead—I don't see why I am not invited to parties oftener. I am sure I always behave like a gentleman.

Young Lighthead—That's the trouble. You are so very gentlemanly that the girls think you are stupid.—New York Weekly.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N. Y.
For sale by all Druggists.—Price 50c. per bottle.

STOCK RAISERS

Will find it greatly to their advantage, if before purchasing a farm, they will look at the country along the line of the

Saint Paul & Duluth Railroad.

DAIRY FARMERS

Who desire the best Clover and Timothy land, in a district which can boast of a fine climate, good pure water, rich soil, fine meadows, and near to the markets of St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth and Superior should apply immediately by letter or in person to

WM. F. TROWBRIDGE,
Asst. Land Commissioner,
St. Paul & Duluth R. R.
Box U—903 Globe Bldg., St. Paul, Minn.

BOYS

Spalding's Athletic Library should be read by every boy who wants to become an athlete.

No. 4. Boxing.	No. 63. Official Foot Ball Guide.
No. 9. How to be an Athlete.	No. 66. Official Basket Ball Guide.
No. 26. How to Play Foot Ball, by Walter Camp.	No. 87. Athletic Primer.
No. 27. College Athletics.	No. 92. Official A. A. U. Rules.
No. 32. How to Play Base Ball.	No. 93. Athletic Records.
No. 37. All Around Athletics.	No. 95. Official Base Ball Guide.
No. 42. How to Punch the Bag.	No. 100. How to be a Bicycle Champion.
No. 82. How to Train.

PRICE, 10 CENTS PER COPY.

Send for catalogue of all sports.

A. G. Spalding & Bros., N.Y., Chicago, Denver.

WHISKERS DYED

A Natural Black by

Buckingham's Dye.

Price 50 cents of all druggists or R. P. Hall & Co., Nashua, N.H.

PENSION JOHN W. MORRIS, Washington, D.C. Successfully Prosecutes Claims. Late Principal Examiner U.S. Pension Bureau. 3 yrs in civil war, 15 adjudicating claims, atty since.

THREE CENTS AN ACRE

CHICAGO LAND SOLD FOR THAT LOW PRICE.

But the Poor Indians Were the Sellers and Government Agents the Buyers—Chief Pokagon Wants to Have the Ancient Swindle Adjudicated.

When Simon Pokagon, chief of the Pottawatomie Indians, died recently in Michigan he left a legacy to his son, Charles Pokagon, in the shape of an old claim to the ownership of valuable property in Chicago and Iowa. Charles Pokagon has now been chosen as chief of the tribe, and with all the sanguine energy of a young man, Chief Charles proposes to push the claim of his tribe to the Chicago lands which the Pottawatomies once owned, and which he asserts have never legally passed from their ownership, and also 2,000,000 acres of land in Iowa, on which the Indians once lived. If the claim is successful the Pottawatomies will be by far the richest Indians in the country, every individual owning an independent fortune. "I am not the chief of a poor tribe," said young Pokagon proudly. "We have money and lands. We have 10,000 acres of salable land beyond our needs. It has never been allotted. It is worth $10 an acre. If we win the suit—but I won't talk about that.

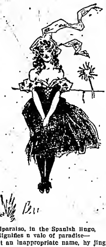
"I am pleased and proud that I have been selected as the chief. My father was chief, but if I were an unworthy man the tribe would have selected another. He was a good man.

"My father was born in Pokagon village, Michigan, in 1830. His father was Chief Leopold Pokagon, who was accused of murdering people at the Fort Dearborn massacre, where Chicago now stands. You have read my father's article, just printed in Harper's Magazine. You have seen that he tells how in many cases the Indians spared women and children who lived to tell the story of their danger and escape, and how the Chicago massacre could never have taken place but for the folly of your people. He shows there how merciless the white people have been to the red man. My father was a most learned Indian. He knew English, French, Greek and Latin, besides the noble tongue of our race. He has written for Harper's, the Century, the Review of Reviews and other magazines. You should have seen my father at the World's Fair! He was the first to ring the Liberty bell. He was the city's guest—the representative of Chicago's oldest family—and he made a great address.

"Our tribe owned the Chicago site. The land was sold to the United States government for 3 cents an acre, but it was not paid for until 1896. My father said: 'I have become an old man trying to get pay for my people for their lost birthright.'"

Judge's World's Fair.

PERI OF PERU.



Valparaiso, in the Spanish lingo,
Signifies a vale of paradise—
Not an inappropriate name, by jingo!
For the nest wherein such beauty lies.

Nestled at the feet of frowning Andes,
Bounded by the South Pacific blue,
Child of Incas and Castilian grandees,
Thou 'rt the living romance of Peru.
—Judge.

Foreign Residents in the West.

Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota and California were the four states of the country which by the federal census of 1890 had a larger foreign-born than native-born male population of voting age. The percentages were 53, 59, 65 and 50½ respectively. Wisconsin, Minnesota and North Dakota have a large Scandinavian population; California has many Chinese residents of voting age.

Not Found Yet.

School Visitor (examining scholar)—"Where is the North Pole?" "I don't know, sir." "Don't know! Are you not ashamed that you don't know where the North Pole is?" "Why, sir, if Sir John Franklin and Dr. Nansen and Captains Nares and Markham couldn't find it, how should I know where it is?"

Absolutely False.

Citizen—Is there any truth in the Morning Screecher's statement that since you assumed the reins of government the city's treasury has been irregularly plundered by politicians? The Boss—Well, I should say not. Why, the thing's been done as regular as clock work.

Why He Preferred It.

"A bad excuse is better than none," remarked the first philosophic hobo. "I like it better dan a good one," observed the other; "it's more gentlemanly, 'cause gener'ly don't work."

Sincere Grief.

Funeral Director (to gentleman)—Are you one of the mourners? Gentleman—Yes; he owed me $500.

Golden Wedding

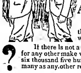
of Miss Popular Esteem and Mr. Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Fifty years of happiness, fifty years of doing good. The only Sarsaparilla in the world that ever celebrated its fiftieth anniversary and is doing it today with no signs of decay. Its mission is to cure and to help. No wonder it has fifty happy years back of it.

Get a bottle today of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

[which made Sarsaparilla famous]

All Druggists Sell Ayer's Sarsaparilla. $1.00 a Bottle.



? ? ? ? ? ?

ASK YOURSELF A FEW QUESTIONS

If Deering Ideal Harvesting Machines are not the best in the world, why is it that the Deering works are the largest in the world?

If there is not a greater demand for Deering machines than for any other make why is it that the Deering works employ over six thousand five hundred skilled mechanics—more than twice as many as any other reaper plant in the world?

If Deering machines have not earned the right to universal approval why is it that the Deering works are increasing the output for 1899 by 50,000 machines as against the product of 1898?

If Deering ball and roller bearings are not applied to binders and mowers in the only correct way why is it that competitors are at their wits' ends to make their machines as light draft as the Deering Ideals?

DEERING HARVESTER CO., Chicago.

? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ?

FARM LANDS FOR SALE

DO YOU WANT A HOME?

60,000 ACRES OF GOOD FARMING LANDS IN WASHBURN AND BARRON COUNTIES, WISCONSIN, to be divided and sold at $3.00 to $6.00 PER ACRE.

Long time and easy payments to actual settlers.
Come and see us or address,

W. R. BOURNE, Mgr., SHELL LAKE LUMBER CO., SHELL LAKE, WIS.

"WHERE DIRT GATHERS, WASTE RULES."
GREAT SAVING RESULTS FROM THE USE OF

SAPOLIO

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

WHEAT
WHEAT
WHEAT

"Nothing but wheat; what you might call a sea of wheat," is what was said by a lecturer speaking of Western Canada. For particulars as to routes, railway fares, etc., apply to Superintendent of Immigration, Department Interior, Ottawa, Canada, or to Ben Davies, 154 East Third St., St. Paul, or T. O. Currie, Stevens Point, Wis.

KILL THEM

Those peace destroyers, the household Flies.

Dutcher's Fly Killer

not only kills the parent fly, but prevents reproduction. A sheet will kill a quart.

Ask your Druggist or Grocer.

FRED'K. DUTCHER DRUG CO. St. Albans, Vt.

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
REGULATE THE LIVER

CURE YOURSELF!

Big G CURES in 1 to 5 days. Guaranteed not to stricture. Prevents contagion. THE EVANS CHEMICAL CO. CINCINNATI, O. U. S. A.

Use Big G for unnatural discharges, inflammations, irritations or ulcerations of mucous membranes. Painless, and not astringent or poisonous. Sold by Druggists, or sent in plain wrapper, by express, prepaid, for $1.00, or 3 bottles, $2.75. Circular sent on request.

$5 to $30 3000 BICYCLES

Everyone a Bargain.
NEW AND SECOND HAND.

2d Hand—good as any for service $5 to $12. New '98 Models $12.50 to $30. None higher. We guarantee to save you money. Largest variety to choose from. Lowest prices ever quoted. Every customer satisfied. Shipped on approval to anyone without a cent in advance. AGENTS WANTED for 1899. Write for our special offer. BROWN-LEWIS CO., 293 Wabash Av., Chicago. (The above Co. is reliable and every wheel a bargain.—Editor.)

WANTED—Case of bad health that R-I-P-A-N-S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimonials.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water.

When Answering Advertisements Kindly Mention This Paper.

PISO'S CURE FOR CONSUMPTION. CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS. Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists.

Minnesota Historical Society

MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR.

VOLUME XVIII. ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 31, 1899. NUMBER 44

YORK STATE, TOO,

WILL BE FOR BRYAN, SAYS SENATOR PETTIGREW OF SOUTH DAKOTA.

The Senator's Twin City Visit—Cheering Reports "From the Front"—Is the Dewey Boom a Gold Standard Scheme? State Political Topics—Expansion Meetings That Didn't Expand, and Banquets That Bankrupted the Drink Supply—What of Memorial Day and Fourth of July This Year?—Another Gold Standard "Financier" Joins Menage's South American Colony—Republican "Whole Hog" in Northern Minnesota. Republican Soldiers in Haste to Return From Manila in Order to Vote Against the Administration—The Big Job of the Tory Rangers of Anti-Expansionists—Note and Comment of the Week.

Reform Press Bureau.
ST. PAUL, May 22, 1899.

One of the pleasant political incidents of the week was the presence in the Twin Cities of Senator R. F. Pettigrew of South Dakota. Reform leaders in both cities did themselves the honor of a warm greeting to the distinguished senator, than whom no man in the Northwest can point to a better record in the cause of reform. Senator Pettigrew brought words of comfort for the people's battle. "We shall be in the fight next year whether we win or lose," said he, "but I have every confidence that we shall win." That our leader will be Bryan, and that the issues will be such as appeal to the masses, reaffirming those of right and truth of the battle of 1896, and touching the conscience of the people on the questions arising from the blunders or worse, of the McKinley administration, the senator fully believes. He says that there is every likelihood that we shall even have the delegation of New York state, its majority, at least, and other portions of the East not heretofore expected—all showing the progress made in that direction on the money question, while the masses of the South and West and Northwest will line up solid as a rock. While showing his old fire and spirit on these issues, Senator Pettigrew is, if possible, more intense on imperialism and the Filipino policy, and the aggressions of the trusts. "If," said he, "I had not left the Republican party when I did, I should leave it now."

The senator made investigations concerning the work of the Minnesota Reform Press bureau, for the purpose of reorganizing and extending the same work in South Dakota.

This bureau has been informed on good authority, that the Dewey demonstration was carefully planned in New York last October by gold Democrats to defeat the re-nomination of Bryan. Admiral Dewey is a Democrat, so far as he has any politics, and the gold Democrats concluded to bank on his popularity, and turn the same to political account as their way of returning to the Democratic fold, relying on the furore over our great naval hero to overshadow the financial issues which they so greatly fear. They would if successful accomplish the Wall street policy of keeping a grip on the financial management of the country, because McKinley is certain of renomination, and if Dewey took their bait they would, in the expectancy of controlling him, be safe in either event. They would not care which was elected. The little scheme will fail, because it will soon be clear to the people, and because the masses while shouting for Dewey and his achievements as loudly as any, nevertheless can neither be drawn away from the financial reforms to which which they have pledged all, nor be fooled by an such transparent tricks of Wall street. And it is not believed that Admiral Dewey himself will permit any such fooling with his name and fame, and thus bitter disappointment awaits the exploiters of Dewey for mere political purposes.

The same may be said of the Minnesota Republican scheme for booming McKinley, either in connection with the Dewey demonstrations or in connection with the return of our volunteers. All will unite in greetings to the President, as the head of the nation on any occasion, but any attempt to gain political advantage thereby will defeat itself, a great lesson concerning which should be the fate of Cleveland after he was boomed in the Northwest in 1888.

Letters from Eastern leaders, and conversation with those we meet, abound in warnings to look out for the "trimmers and tricky fellows." "The gold bugs are scheming," says such a letter to this Bureau, "to get control, and are even masquerading in 16 to 1 masks. I presume you know that there is a great deal of skulduggery going on." We can say this in comfort of our friends, that there are no fears to be felt regarding Minnesota. She is as true as the needle to the pole, and will be found so next year.

Events of the week have been the Minneapolis expansion meeting and the St. Paul Davis-Stevens banquet. The former had nothing terrifying in its results or size, nor the representative character of those present. Any down town theater can be filled on short notice with almost any attraction. In this case the numerous overflow meetings which had been arranged for were not needed. On the outside there was not a ripple to correspond with the "great demonstration." The appeals carried for a week, to "hang out the flags," went unheeded. In a ride of hours on various car lines not a dozen flags were to be seen, except those unfurled on order of the Republican board of education.

A prominent guest at the banquet asserts his firm belief that a majority of those who listened to the senator's expansion speech are against him in sentiment. Senator Davis was probably aware of this for he said in his opening that he would not be partisan, and in closing declared that if he was disapproved by his listeners he would bow to the reprobation.

With no desire to be captious, still there are economic students who would like to know Senator Davis' authority for the alluring figures of the commerce of the Philippines, placed by him at $60,000,000 annually. We have never seen any statement that placed the figures above $30,000,000, or only one-half those given by the senator, $10,000,000 imports and $20,000,000 exports. Of course the senator, who as a member of the Peace Commission was willing to give $2 a head for the Filipinos, who may cost us $100 apiece to make them "stay bought," may be expected to make the figures as large as possible, but multiplying it by two is rather strong for great statesmanship, is it not? His speech was substantially that delivered in Minneapolis before his departure for the Paris treaty making. He had then received the administration pointers to "take the Philippines," and he knows that it will be the policy to keep them—always excepting McKinley changes his mind some more.

What a commentary on the McKinley administration, that while sending congratulatory messages to the International Peace conference and to the Czar, enlightened, liberty-loving America is engaged in a war of subjugation and extermination of a liberty-loving people.

And what a sad commentary on "religion" that noted "men of God," in a great national gathering, speak and pray for success in such a war, praising God for the manifestation of His power, in "extending the work of our hands in the Philippines." And also that such a "divine" would shout "Glory to the Angels" in response to the sentiment, "Kill off the savages." Think of it, carrying death and destruction to a region as thickly settled as New York, where the people generally read and write, and where every burned hamlet has it church bearing the Cross of Christ overhead and holy altar within, testifying to the Christianty they have possessed for 200 years longer than the United States has been in existence as a nation. Think of it when next confronted with the missionary contribution box.

As fast as the Minnesota boys are heard from they seem well onto the administration scheme in the Philippines. Will G. Akers of the Thirteenth, Republican editor of the Edgerton Enterprise, writes his father: "It looks as if we would serve out our full two years fighting for the noble(?) cause of civilizing the Filipinos. I am more than ever convinced that the Filipinos are capable of governing themselves. I want to get back to the states before the election of 1900 in order to cast my vote against the Republican party. I guess our goverment has paid $20,000,000 for a war which will cost it twice that amount before it is ended besides the lives of its sons who volunteered to fight against the oppressors of these people."

Minneapolis mourns another Menage, one Financier Jayne, who, while having done less "business" than the concern of Director Eustis, is supposed to have gone to Menage's South American colony. And Jayne, like the rest of the "financiers," was a gold standard of gold standard men. If there was one flag hung out in 1896 with the British yellow ribbon on it wider than another, it was that of Financier Jayne. It stood for "sound money" and was expressive of Jayne's fears of "50-cent" dollars. Now an increasing number of Jayne's former friends may be mighty glad to get even a "50-cent dollar" out of their friend the gold standard financier. The latter, on his part, is enjoying his "200-cent" dollars in foreign travel. T'was ever thus!

To the man "up a tree" it looks as if Judge Collins most decidedly had the "bulge" for the Republican nomination for governor next year. In fact the only contrary view is that the north is topheavy in its expectations. Nelson is wild for re-election, while Auditor Dunn holding over, is from Mille Lacs. The north (Sixth District) has just had the speakership, and has one member of the supreme court, Collins, and another coming in, Judge Lewis of Duluth. The attorney general is from Douglas. Judge Morris, having no prospect of renomination for congress, is talked of for governor. In fact, with present, past and future ambitions, the north half of the state is extremely top heavy. This will militate against Judge Collins' prospects, and besides, the judge has been holding office pretty assiduously, thank you.

It is not least peculiar that as fast as the state administration is able to get an insight into what has been going on in the state institutions, it finds various odions and repulsive smells. There's the St. Cloud reformatory.

Possibly Superintendent Houlton of the St. Cloud reformatory, may soon take a hint without a kick, but his best holt seems to be to Holt-on.

Blatant Republicans of the Eustis-Roberts stripe who want to hang their betters for criticising the administration policy that is responsible for the Philippine war, would have their hands full. In this state they would clean out the intelligent rank and file of their party, while in the nation at large they would dangle from their rope's ends such eminent Republicans as Protectionist Atkinson, Campaign Contributor Carnegie, Gold Standarder Professor Laughlin, Grant's ex-secretary of the treasury, Boutwell, Senators Hoar and Mason, Pingree of Michigan, Golden Rule Jones of Ohio and scores of others of equal party prominence. These blatant Tory hangers of men better let their job out.

G. S. C.

NEW LEASE OF LIFE

TAKEN ON BY THE FILIPINO INSURRECTION.

Rebels Showing More Aggressive Activity in Their Guerrilla Style of Warfare—American Troops Kept Constantly on the Alert—Insurgents Believe That Americans Have Had Enough of Fighting—Thousands of Natives Throwing Themselves on the Americans for Support.

Manila, May 29. — The approach of the wet season finds the insurrection seemingly taking a new lease of life. All along the American lines the rebels are showing more aggressive activity in their guerrilla style than at any time before since the fall of Malolos. They keep the United States troops in the trenches, sleeping in their clothing and constantly on the alert against dashes upon our outposts, and they make things warm for the American garrisons in the towns. The bands of Gen. Luna and Gen. Mascardo, which retreated toward Arayat when they found that they would be caught between Gen. MacArthur and Gen. Lawton, have returned in force to their old trenches around San Fernando, where there are daily collisions. Opposite our forces protecting Manila, all the way round to San Pedro Macati, the Filipinos have three rows of the trenches for resistance. Their manners indicate that the insurgents consider the peace negotiations to mean that the Americans have had enough of fighting. The Filipinos are also encouraged by the belief that the Americans are preparing for an interval of inactivity during the wet season. This period is sure to be followed by much suffering. The plantations that were under cultivation last year have not been plowed this year, and the Americans are obliged to feed thousands just as they fed the Cubans. Thousands of friendly natives, Amigos, continue to pour into the American lines by land and sea, covering the country, where the passage of the two armies has left nothing for sustenance, throwing themselves on the Americans for support. Thousands of young Filipinos have been kept by the insurgent leaders to dig trenches, and old men, women and children are coming into the American lines. They must be fed before they can secure any sustenance from their crops.

Gen. Otis Reports.

Washington, May 29.—The war department made public the following dispatch from Gen. Otis:

"Manila, May 29. — Two battalions Twenty-third infantry in quiet possession Jolo. Spanish troops withdrawn from Zamboanga after battle with insurgents with severe loss to the latter. Spanish loss nine killed, twenty-seven wounded, among them Gen. Montero, commanding, who died from wounds; buried here yesterday. Insurgents used rifles, artillery and ammunition captured from gunboats, expending major part of ammunition. Conference followed between Gen. Rios, who went from Manila to withdraw troops, and insurgents. Latter stated to him would not oppose landing Americans, but would accept conditions in Luzon. Spanish troops withdrawn now here, depart for Spain to-morrow. Feeble attack by insurgents on inhabitants southeast portion Negros necessitated sending battalion troops from Manila there. Will soon restore. Insurgent falsehoods circulated in Southern islands of overwhelming insurgent victories in Luzon keep up excitement in that section among the more ignorant classes, and although intelligent people know American arms have never met reverse, and they call for American protection. Have turned over to navy for use on coast southern islands number of purchased Spanish gunboats, from which excellent results expected."

TREACHEROUS NATIVES.

Attack a Signal Corps Party and the Captain Commanding is Missing.

Washington, May 29.—Gen. Greeley received a cablegram from Maj. Thompson at Manila reporting that a party landing for the repair of the cable at Escalante, island of Negros, had been treacherously attacked by natives, that Capt. George H. Tilley, signal corps, is missing and that the worst is feared. Tilley's service in the Philippines has been marked by such ability, courage and zeal that his superior officers placed him in the foremost rank of subordinate officers. The cable operations referred to are not those of the signal corps, but of the Eastern Extension Cable company, that has been permitted to repair and replace certain cables in the Vizayan islands. Tilley doubtless accompanied the expedition as the representative of the United States, the supervision of all telegraph lines and cable being a part of his duties. No other casualties in the signal corps have been as yet reported in this expedition. Tilley was appointed from California.

Fatally Injured.

Detroit, May 29.—Chris Bowman and Miss Dora Lange were both fatally injured by a collision of a street car with a buggy in which they were riding. Two other occupants of the buggy received serious injuries.

Too Free With a Gun.

St. Louis, May 29.—James Lynch, a prosperous saloonkeeper shot and fatally wounded his wife and stepson, aged fourteen, and then put a bullet into his own head. Lynch was arrested.

Grade-Crossing Accident.

New York, May 29.—One woman was killed outright, another was fatally injured and a baby so badly hurt that its chances of life are small in a grade crossing accident at Singaca, eight miles from Paterson, N. J.

Negro Preacher Killed.

Huntsville, Ala., May 29. — A negro Baptist preacher was shot and killed at Newmarket by Tom Pitcock, a prominent citizen of that place. The negro had threatened to kill Pitcock. Pitcock was arrested.

OTIS TO BE REINFORCED.

Providing for the Persistent Belligerence of Filipinos.

Washington, May 29.—Appreciating the purpose of the Filipinos to continue their struggle against the authority of the United States, President McKinley contemplates sending as speedily as possible additional troops to Gen. Otis to aid him in suppressing the insurrection. The regiments to be sent will be those selected some weeks ago, but whose departure was delayed in the hope that the campaign by Generals MacArthur and Lawton, with the resulting peace negotiations, would bring a termination of the war. The fact that the Filipinos succeeded in escaping the net thrown at them and that the peace negotiations have failed are convincing to the administration that it is useless to hope for the restoration of peace until the Aguinaldo forces are completely destroyed or are forced to surrender.

UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER.

There Will Be No Further Parleying With the Insurgents.

New York, May 29.—A special to the Herald from Washington says:

"When you desire to re-enter the American military line come prepared for an unconditional surrender. Otherwise you will not be admitted."

This, in substance, it is said at the war department, is the parting message Aguinaldo's so-called peace envoys received when they left Manila on their way to Aguinaldo's headquarters. If our commissioners have not already received instructions to adhere to this decision they will receive them at once. The foolhardiness of further negotiations with irresponsible leaders of defiant rebels is at last fully appreciated by administration officials. The insurgents must be whipped into submission.

FIXED FOR HIM.

Fate of a Texan Who Was Going to Shoot a Man on Sight.

Waco, Tex., May 29.—J. A. Tyson, a traveling man representing the Parisian Portrait Company of Chicago, shot and killed Charles Marshall, a local insurance agent. Marshall had stated that Tyson had insulted his wife for not settling for an article purchased, and that he intended to kill Tyson on sight. Tyson learning this, armed himself, and when he met Marshall opened fire, shooting him three times. Tyson was remanded to jail without bail.

FOUND IN THE LAKE.

Steamer Intact After Eighteen Years Under Water.

Ogdensburg, N. Y., May 29.—The propeller Zealand, which disappeared after leaving Port Dalhouse in a storm eighteen years ago, has just been found by divers who were searching Lake Ontario for the tug Walker, from Ogdensburg, sunk last fall. The Zealand plied the St. Lawrence and was loaded with pork and iron. The steamer remains intact, and will be raised, the wreckers claiming ownership. She was valued at $35,000.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Man and Wife, With Seven Children, Lose Their Lives.

Savannah, Ga., May 29. — Advices from Parleeville, S. C., report the burning to death of Jacob Solomons, his wife and seven children in a fire which destroyed their house. The house was located on the Oestricher farm, near Parleeville. It had been damaged by a storm and Solomons built a fire on the floor to keep warm. It is supposed a fire which was left smouldering after the family had retired was fanned into a blaze and ignited the structure.

NEW TRUST LAW.

It Gets in Its Work on an Association of Retail Druggists.

St. Louis, May 29.—Under the state anti-trust law Attorney General Crow yesterday entered suit to annul the charters of every retail drug company in the city with the exception of four. The suit was brought on the ground that the retail druggists, who are members of the St. Louis Apothecaries' association, had notified the St. Louis wholesale concerns not to sell to the four retail drug firms not members of the association.

THE PARIS STICKS.

Another Unsuccessful Attempt to Pull Her Off the Rocks.

Coverack, Cornwall, May 29. — The ninth attempt to float the steamer Paris was made last evening and proved an utter failure. Her bow is absolutely impaled by the rocks.

Prominent Physician Suicides.

Kansas City, May 29.—Dr. Richmond M. Cornwall, a prominent local physician with a varied career, committed suicide in the home of his brother-in-law, Dr. J. C. Whittier. He left a note saying that despondency over financial affairs prompted the act.

Missouri Miners Strike.

Bevier, Mo., May 29.—All the miners employed at the Kansas & Texas mines here are out. The Wabash, Black Diamond and Northwest mines are at work as usual. J. P. Sees of Iowa, a member of the national executive board of mine workers, is here.

Steamer Ashore.

Sand Beach, Mich., May 29. — The steamer Minnie Kelton, bound from Chicago to Port Huron, ran ashore on Point Aux Barques, in a dense fog. A tug has been sent to her assistance. She has a cargo of 31,800 bushels of corn.

Drowned in the Yukon.

Victoria, B. C., May 29.—The steamer City of Topeka, from Alaska, brings news of the drowning of seven men in the Yukon. Three of them were Conrad Maberg of New York, David Peters of England and a man named Rhodes.

Italian Labor in Hawaii.

San Francisco, May 29.—The Salace, just arrived from Manila and Honolulu, brings news that Hawaiian planters are planning to introduce Italian labor. It is said that 10,000 Italians will be imported the coming year.

NINE LIVES LOST

A PASSENGER TRAIN WRECKED NEAR WATERLOO, IOWA.

Accident Caused by a Washout, Which Left the Unsupported Track in Such a Condition That There Was No Indication of Its Insecurity—In Addition to the Killed Twenty-Three Persons Received More or Less Severe Injuries—Cars Piled Up in a Confused Heap.

Waterloo, Iowa, May 29. — The through train to St. Paul over the Rock Island, Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern railways, was wrecked at 1:15 Sunday morning at the crossing of Sink creek, about four miles southeast of this place. The train consisted of six coaches, including mail and baggage car, smoking car, two passenger coaches and sleeper. Nine persons were killed and twenty-three injured. The list of dead is as follows:

E. L. Arnold, lumberman, Minneapolis; W. A. McLaughlin, Muskegon, Mich.; R. H. Schwette, Alton, Ill.; David Hallo, Minneapolis; F. S. Carpenter, St. Louis; Will Smillian, Waterloo, Iowa; George Wainwright, conductor, and an unknown person.

A cloudburst had washed the sand and gravel roadbed, leaving the track unsupported for a stretch of twenty feet. The rails had held together and there was nothing to indicate the insecurity of the road. The engine struck the wash-out and was derailed in the ditch beside the track, and behind it the cars were piled up in a confused heap. The mail car tipped over and telescoped the baggage car behind, while the rear end of the baggage car in turn telescoped the smoker. The roof of the sleeper plowed its way through the day coach, while the lower half of the latter crushed through the sleeper. The engineer and fireman jumped from the train and escaped with slight injuries. The news was brought to this city by a mail clerk, and the fire whistle was blown, a switch engine and a coach hastily prepared and a relief train sent very speedily. The injured passengers were extricated from the debris and brought here. Another relief train soon arrived from Cedar Rapids and took a number of the seriously injured to a hospital in that city.

GREAT WESTERN WRECK.

Elegant Passenger Train Almost a Total Loss.

Oelwein, Iowa, May 29.—The Chicago Great Western passenger train that left St. Paul Saturday night at 8:10 o'clock was wrecked two miles north of here. One person, the colored porter, was killed. Several men and women on the train were more or less injured. The train was running over lowlands when the track began to settle and the train was derailed. The damage to the railroad company will be heavy, as the train was an elegant one, and the coaches and locomotive are almost a total loss.

Freight Train Wrecked.

Dennison, Tex., May 29. — An extra freight train east-bound on the Transcontinental division of the Texas & Pacific, was wrecked two miles east of Whitesboro. The engine was bowling along at about twenty-five miles an hour when it jumped the track and turned completely over, wrecking seven cars of merchandise and killing Engineer Johnston and fatally injuring the fireman. The engine was a complete wreck.

Children Charged With Patricide.

Rapid City, S. D., May 29. — Lena Bouts, aged fourteen, and a younger brother, children of Frank Bouts, a Burlington tie contractor of Pennington county, are under arrest, the girl being charged with murdering her father. It is alleged that she shot him through the head while asleep. It is said the man was cruel to his family, who lived half-starved half the time.

Taken to the Pen.

Menomonie, Wis., May 29.—Charles Ryan and Louis Hanson, the two tramps who assaulted Conductor Riggs on the 15th, pleaded guilty and were sentenced to one years in the pen, and were taken there by the sheriff.

Sale of Pine.

Ashland, Wis., May 29.—W. H. Gilbert sold to Eastern parties 25,000,000 feet of Norway and white pine, to be sawed on Chequamegon bay this summer. The pine is situated on what is known as the Bradley tract.

Sentenced for Forgery.

St. Peter, Minn., May 29. — Peter Wright, alias John Kaiser, who was indicted for forgery, was found guilty and sentenced to one year in the state prison. He was charged with the forgery of a wheat ticket.

Killed by Lightning.

Hayward, Minn., May 29. — During the heavy rain and electric storm four horses belonging to Nels Siinile, three miles east of here, were instantly killed by lightning. He carried some insurance.

Drowned While at Play.

Menomonie, Wis., May 29. — Eddie Hintzmann, the eleven-year-old son of M. Hintzmann of this city, was drowned yesterday while playing on some drift in Wilson creek.

A Farmer Hangs Himself.

Albert Lea, Minn., May 29. — John Chrz, a farmer sixty years old, hanged himself in Oakland township. The coroner has gone to the scene.

Deed of a Delirious Woman.

Nashville, Tenn., May 29. — While delirious from fever Mrs. Odie Clayton shot her five-year-old daughter in the head, inflicting a dangerous wound. She then turned the revolver on herself, sending a ball through her brain.

American Tobacco in Japan.

Albany, N. Y., May 29.—A. N. Brady says that the directors of the American Tobacco company at their last meeting decided to build factories in Japan at once and to vigorously extend their business in that country.

THE ALASKAN DISPUTE.

President McKinley Anxious to Bring About a Settlement.

London, May 29. — The Washington correspondent of the Daily Chronicle, referring to the Alaskan boundary dispute, says: President McKinley has all along been most anxious to bring about a settlement. He personally urged the American commissioners to make every reasonable concession and go to the extreme limit of generosity if necessary, so desirous was he to remove all cause of friction. Secretary Hay is animated by the same motives, and the particular reason why he left the United States embassy in London to assume the portfolio of secretary of state was his hope of finally settling all the disputed questions.

After reviewing the history of the commission's deliberations, the correspondent says: "To agree in advance to cede a port would be making a farce of reason. The United States has shown a disposition to make concessions and has offered to buy out the Bering sea sealers at double what their property is worth, besides making other concessions, while the concessions offered by Canada in connection are not very valuable."

The Chronicle, in an editorial review of the situation, reproaches Canada with blocking the way.

DEATH FROM TEA DRINKING.

New Yorker Falls Victim to Excessive Use of the Fragrant Fluid.

New York, May 29. — Peter Phelan, who has been under treatment in Bellevue hospital since May 12, died Sunday morning from the excessive use of tea. He was unconscious for some before his death, which was caused from exhaustion, due to his inability to take food. The primary cause of death was set down as anaemia, due to tea poisoning. Phelan was forty years old and unmarried. He contracted the tea habit when a child, and daily drank thirty or forty cups a day. Phelan's case has excited much interest among medical men on account of its rarity, and Doctors Lefevre and Hitier, who had charge of him, are anxious to make an autopsy. They cannot do so, however, without the consent of his relatives, none of whom appeared at the hospital yesterday. The doctors expect to find that the liver was affected by the poison of the tea, and that the intestines are in a state of chronic inflammation.

CUBANS ARE SLOW.

Very Few Come Forward for Their Share of the Gratuity.

Havana, May 29. — There were 101 applications yesterday for shares in the $3,000,000 which the United States has offered as a gratuity to the Cuban troops. Thirty were given $75 each. The others were not on the rolls, although they had guns which they were ready to turn in and certificates of service. The United States military authorities consider that the rolls are very unreliable. Indeed, the opinion is freely expressed that a large proportion of the names are fictitious, and that the rolls omit a majority of the names of those rightfully entitled to share in the gratuity. The object of this apparently is to discredit the entire proceedings and to show the Cuban public that a large number of the troops refused to take American money.

IN TROUBLE AGAIN.

Alonzo J. Whiteman is Under Arrest in New York.

New York, May 29.—Alonzo J. Whitman, a former Minnesota state senator, was arraigned before Magistrate Poole, in the Jefferson Market police court, on a warrant issued by Magistrate Mott March 22, 1898, on complaint of Alonzo Foster, manager of the New Amsterdam hotel, that Whitman had given him a bogus check in payment of a hotel bill of $93.75. Without any testimony being taken, the prisoner was held in $500 cash bail for examination to-morrow. When asked if he had the money, Whitman replied that he had it in his shoe, and immediately pulled off his left shoe, produced a roll of bills, counted the amount of his bail and transferred the rest to his coat pocket.

SAMPSON'S SQUADRON

Will Assist at the Inauguration Ceremonies of Rhode Island's Governor.

New York, May 29. — The ships of the North Atlantic squadron, the cruiser New York and the battleships Texas, Indiana and Massachusetts, Admiral Sampson, commanding, sailed at 7 o'clock last night for Newport, R. I. The squadron is expected to reach Newport some time to-day, and on Tuesday will take part in the inauguration ceremonies of the governor of Rhode Island. The squadron will use Newport as the base of the summer evolutions and will engage in practice cruises, after which the fleet will visit cities on the New England coast, putting into Boston harbor a short time before Bunker Hill day.

TWO MINERS KILLED.

They Drill Into a Hole Where the Blast Has Not Been Fired.

Butte, Mont., May 29. — Angus McLeod and Anton Pendera, working in the diamond mine, while drilling in a hole where the blast had not been fired, were blown to pieces by the explosion of the powder.

Responsibility of a Horror.

Norristown, Pa., May 29.—The Norristown and Pottstown juries, which have been jointly investigating the cause of the wreck on the Reading railroad at Exeter, have returned a verdict holding the railroad company primarily responsible for the accident which resulted in the loss of twenty-nine lives and injuries to over fifty persons.

The Burial of Castelar.

Madrid, May 29.—President McKinley has telegraphed to Bellamy Storer, United States minister to Madrid, to represent him at the funeral of Senor Castelar. The body arrived here at 5 o'clock yesterday morning.

Good Crops in France.

Paris, May 29. — An official report says the harvest of the winter crops promises exceedingly well, though their appearance is slightly inferior to those of 1898. The spring crops are also looking well.

WIND'S FATAL WORK

SEVERAL LIVES LOST AND MUCH DAMAGE DONE.

Fatal Cyclone Sweeps a Section of South Dakota, Completely Destroying Everything in Its Course—Nebraska Also Gets Another Taste of the Cyclone's Destructiveness—Great Damage Done by Hail—Town in Iowa Reported Destroyed by a Cyclone.

Chamberlain, S. D., May 29.—Word reached town yesterday morning of a cyclone which passed across the country in the vicinity of Bijou Hills, twenty-five miles south of this city Saturday afternoon, resulting in the death of seven persons and the serious injury of two others. The killed are: Charles Peterson and six children, ranging from three to fifteen years of age. The wife and a remaining child were so badly injured that they may also die. The cyclone formed on a school section and moved in a southerly course. The first place reached was that of Arf Cohen, which was totally destroyed, then followed a church and schoolhouse, after which it reached the Peterson place, where the execution done was simply appalling. The dead and injured were strewn all about the premises, while the buildings were smashed into splinters. The cyclone destroyed the Crieger premises, then passed into the range of hills skirting the Missouri river, where it appears to have dissolved. The path covered by the storm was only about twenty rods wide and about three miles in length. The wind was accompanied by a heavy fall of rain and hail, the latter being as large as goose eggs. A large amount of stock was killed. This is the first cyclone that has ever appeared in this section of the country.

Destruction in Nebraska.

Central City, Neb., May 29.—Probably the most destructive cyclone that ever visited Nebraska passed through the northern part of Hamilton county, destroying from $75,000 to $100,000 worth of property, including fourteen dwellings, one church, one school house, two iron bridges across the Blue river, barns corn cribs, outbuildings, orchards, groves, fences and stock. A severe hail storm visited Beatrice, doing immense property damage, injuring several persons, killing birds and breaking glass by the wholesale. The storm is reported to have been more severe out in the country than in the city. At Hastings over 2,600 panes of glass were broken, fruit and grain destroyed, chickens and birds killed and injured and several persons hurt.

Iowa Also Suffers.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, May 29.—Terrific storms swept over Iowa again last evening. At Tama there was almost a cloudburst and much damage was done. There was a small tornado near Keswick, and five people were injured. The Chicago, & Northwestern sustained much damage. Between Watkins and Blairstown the track is in a dangerous condition and several trains are tied up in this city. It is reported the town of Hows was destroyed by a cyclone, but no particulars are obtainable yet. A tornado which struck half a mile south of Keswick did considerable damage. The farm house of Mr. McCoy was demolished and five persons were injured, Mrs. McCoy probably fatally. Rain and hail followed the storm and did great damage to the growing crops.

DIGGLES WOUND PROVES FATAL.

Death of the Major Commanding the Thirteenth.

St. Paul, May 29.—The death of Maj. Diggles from his wound was announced to Gov. Lind Saturday by a cable from Maj. Bean. Corporal Salisbury, of Company B, will accompany the remains home to Minneapolis on the first transport. Gov. Lind gave orders at once that the offices at the capitol be closed and the flag displayed at half-mast. Adjt. Gen. Lambert issued general orders announcing with regret the death of Capt. Arthur M. Diggles, Company B, First Infantry, N. G. S. M., major Thirteenth Infantry, U. S. V., with this tribute:

"The State of Minnesota proudly adds the name of another son to the nation's roll of honor, and the national guard mourns the loss of a brave and most efficient officer. The national flag will this day be displayed at half-mast at the armories of St. Paul and Minneapolis as a mark of respect and honor to the memory of the gallant soldier."

Searching for a Suicide's Body.

Fairmont, Minn., May 29.—A search is being made for the body of Leopold Questl, who committed suicide by drowning a few days ago. The lake has been dragged and large quantities of dynamite exploded, without result.

Barn Destroyed by Lightning.

Perham, Minn., May 29.—During the electric storm passing over this part of the county the big barn of Henry Smelz of Rush Lake was struck by lightning and burned to the ground, together with a lot of hay and feed.

Fatal Target Practice.

Luverne, Minn., May 29. — Worthy Jnequa, the boy accidentally shot at a German picnic in Denver township on Friday, is dead. The accident happened at a target practice with rifles.

Brakeman Reported Killed.

Red Wing, Minn., May 29.—It is reported that a brakeman on freight train 63 was killed at Frontenac, twelve miles from here. Name and address not learned.

Riotous Italian Statesmen.

Rome, May 29.—In the chamber of deputies Gen. Pelloux, the premier, denounced the Socialist attacks on the army, and wild tumult ensued. The session was suspended and the chamber was cleared by the officials.

Mgr. Ireland in Paris.

Paris, May 29.—The American University club will give a Decoration day banquet, presided over by Ambassador Proctor, Ex-President Harrison and Archbishop Ireland will be the guests of honor.

Bank of St. Hilaire.

HANNAY & CO., Bankers.

Real Estate Loans.
Chattel Loans.
Foreign & Domestic Exchange
INSURANCE.
Collections a Specialty.

A General Banking Business Transacted.

St. Hilaire, Minn.

Livery and Feed Stable!

DAN PATERSON, Prop.

Dray in Connection.

The finest equipped turnouts in the northwest. Safe drivers and furnished at a moments notice at reasonable rates. Don't forget the place

BIG - RED - BARN

Located on the east side of Broadway nearly opposite Rapp & Post's Store

ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Says a modest exchange: There is a little matter which some of our subscribers have seemingly forgotten—some of them made us promises, but have not kept them. With us it is a very important matter—it's necessary in our business. We are very modest and don't like to speak about it.

GET YOUR PICTURE
TAKEN BY
D. COLLINS
THE
Photograper.
ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

K. O. GIGSTAD,
DEALER IN
REAL ESTATE.
Collections
a Specialty.
JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.
NOTARY PUBLIC.
St. Hilaire,
Minnesota.

DAY F. STACY, C. E.
DEPUTY
County Surveyor.
RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.
Drainage and Farm Surveys a Specialty

"Money to patent good ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, The Patent Record Baltimore, Md." 37

FIRE
INSURANCE
DO
YOU
NEED
SOME?

The Best is the Cheapest.

I have nine of the best companies doing business in the State

Call for rates.

H. E. IVES.

CUSTOM WORK.

JUST LOOK AT THESE PRICES:

Roll Carding—per pound	5 cts
Spinning Single Yarn—per pound	15 c
Stocking Yarn—2 or 3 ply, per pound	20 c

LITCHFIELD WOOLEN MILLS.
LITCHFIELD, MINN.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

The Spectator.

IVES & SOLL, Publishers.
JOHN J. SOLL, Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at St. Hilaire, Minn., as second-class mail matter.

Published every Wednesday at St. Hilaire, Red Lake County, Minn.

TERMS:—$1.50 Per Year in Advance.

Subscribers should notify the publisher on or before expiration of subscription if discontinuance is desired. Otherwise paper will be continued.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 31, 1899.

SURPRISED HER HUSBAND.

Why the Young Wife Spent an Afternoon in His Office.

Young Mrs. Smith, who lives down on Prairie avenue, is very fond of her husband and also very jealous of him. Mr. Smith knows this and enjoys it immensely. Before the Smiths were married he used to know a Minneapolis girl who visited his sister in Chicago. Mrs. Smith knew her very well too. The Minneapolis girl came down not long ago, and Mrs. Smith called on her. A few days before the Minneapolis girl went back she called on Mrs. Smith, and they had an enjoyable quarter of an hour thinking things about one another and talking about Mansfield.

When the Minneapolis girl rose to go, she said sweetly, "Oh, by the way, I went to see Charlie before I go back, and I think I may just drop into his office this afternoon."

"Oh, do; Charlie will be delighted," returned Mrs. Smith. The door had hardly closed on the guest before Mrs. Smith executed a sort of war dance. She dressed as fast as she could, put on her bonnet and announced her intention of going down to Mr. Smith's office. Her grandmother remonstrated in vain. Mrs. Smith is only 18, and she is jealous.

"I thought I'd spend the afternoon with you," she announced to the astonished Charlie as she swept into the office.

"But, my dear"— he began, when Mrs. Smith ensconced herself at the side of his desk and intimated that the most violent arguments would not move her. She sat there all the afternoon. The Minneapolis girl enjoyed herself shopping, and forgot to call in to tell Charlie goodby. Mrs. Smith broke down and confessed as soon as she got home, and her foolish young husband told her to go down next day and buy herself the prettiest hat she could find.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

JOHN HAY'S BIG APRON.

One of the Cases Where Dishwashing Produced a Poet.

Colonel Hay was when a boy a regular attendant of the Presbyterian Sunday school at Warsaw, Ills.

The Sunday school lessons partly consisted of committing to memory Bible verses, and to attain supremacy in this created quite a rivalry among the scholars. John Hay was sure to come out ahead from two to five answers, sometimes more, causing those of his comrades who were always behind him to regard him with envy.

Consequently when some of those boys heard that John had to wash dishes and do the churning for his mother and, more than all, that he wore an apron while at these duties his jealous comrades fairly crowed.

One morning it was agreed by his comrades to get him out of doors while he had his apron on and humiliate him by having two or three girls whom he rather liked ask him questions in regard to his housework.

Young Hay came out to where the boys were and answered the questions by saying that he washed dishes as his mother taught him, and then, with twinkling eyes, he gave the dishpan which he had with him a tremendous fling, contents and all, drenching whoever happened to be near enough, and laughing loudly ran into the kitchen. Hay and his big apron were never molested after that.—Christian Endeavor World.

A Kissing Nation.

In no other part of the world is kissing so much in vogue as in Russia. From time immemorial it has been the national salute. Indeed it is more of a greeting than a caress.

In public affairs, as in private, the kiss is an established custom. Fathers and sons kiss, old generals with rusty mustaches kiss, whole regiments kiss. The emperor kisses his officers. On a reviewing day there are almost as many kisses as shots exchanged. If a lilliputian corps of cadets have earned the imperial approval, the imperial salute is bestowed upon the head boy, who passes it on with a hearty report to his neighbor, he in his turn to the next, and so on, through the whole juvenile body.

On a holiday or fete day the young and delicate mistress of a house will not only kiss all her maidservants, but all her menservants, too, and if the gentleman does not venture above her hand she will stoop and kiss his cheek.

To judge also from the number of salutes the matrimonial bond in these high circles must be one of uninterrupted felicity. A gentleman scarcely enters or leaves the room without kissing his wife either on her forehead, cheek or hand.

Heroes of the Pen.

The intensity of application with which the mind follows whatever it lays hold of in literary pursuits is exemplified in the case of Robert Ainsworth, a celebrated writer and antiquarian of the seventeenth century. He had been for years engaged in a voluminous Latin dictionary, and while fascinated with this heroic work gave so little time and attention to his wife that he incurred her bitterest jealousy, and before the work was quite complete she committed the whole to the flames. Instead of abandoning himself to despair, Ainsworth set to work and rewrote it, accomplishing the entire work in time. The same bitter disappointment was endured with similar heroism by Carlyle when the manuscript of his "Frederick the Great" was destroyed by fire.

Unexpected.

The tramp had been very impertinent and dictatorial until the hired man unexpectedly made his appearance and inquired, "Are you lookin fur a scrap?"

His manner changed entirely, and at once he answered, "Yes, sir, that's what I'm lookin fur—a scrap o' cold turkey er cold ham er anything that happens to be handy."—Washington Star.

CRAZY KING LUDWIG.

PATTI ONCE THREW HIM INTO A FRENZY OF MADNESS.

He Frightened and Enraged the Great Diva by His Strange Whims, and When She Finally Sang For Him It Drove Him Wild.

When Patti was in the first heyday of her fame, Ludwig II, the mad king of Bavaria, set his heart on having her sing for him at his private auditorium in Munich. He wrote letter after letter, begging, imploring, offering extravagant sums of money, but Patti resolutely refused to go. She had heard too many stories of Ludwig's freaks, his curses and his unreasonable commands, and she was desperately afraid of him. But at last the king offered her a sum so enormous that it seemed ridiculous to refuse it. Then the singer plucked up courage and started for Munich. When she and her maid alighted at the station, not even a carriage was there to meet them, and they had to inquire the name of the best hotel and call a cab like any ordinary travelers. That was the first shock to the diva's nerves and temper. After luncheon she started out to see the town and incidentally to examine the posters announcing the great honor conferred upon the citizens of Munich by a visit from Europe's greatest singer. Not a mention of her name could she find in the town. She rushed back to the hotel and told her maid to pack the trunks.

Just at that moment a resplendent officer was announced. He saluted her and delivered a letter from the king. The letter stated curtly that his majesty would await her at 7 o'clock precisely in the Royal palace, where his singer in ordinary, Mme. Fischer, would give her further directions. Mme. Fischer would also sing with Mme. Patti the duets which his majesty wished to hear. A programme was inclosed. Patti burst into tears of rage.

"I have never been treated so brutally," she said. "I shall leave at once. Tell the king so. I will not sing—never, never, never!" The officer pleaded with the irate prima donna. She must not disappoint the king. His majesty had been wild with excitement ever since he knew she would come and had not slept for three nights, so great was his joy at the prospect of hearing her.

"Besides," added the officer, "you know our king is—is—is—"

"Crazy," snapped Patti. "Yes, that's very comforting, isn't it? I don't know why I ever came." Just then she caught sight of a postscript she had not read:

"The king commands Mme. Patti to appear in pure white, without any color whatever, and not by any means to wear a satin gown, but soft wool. Silk is painful to his majesty."

"His majesty will have to be pained. I have no white woolen gown except my peignoir. Go tell the king I shall wear red velvet."

"Red!" groaned the officer. "Oh, no, no! Red sends his majesty into fits. If you appear in red, he will scream and have convulsions. Oh, do be patient, madame! I will bring Mme. Fischer to you. She understands the king's nerves. She will explain."

He fled from the room, and, shortly after, Mme. Fischer appeared upon the scene. She soothed Patti into good humor and also attacked the white wool peignoir and transformed it into a most becoming Greek robe.

Before 7 the royal carriage arrived at the hotel and Patti went to the palace. She was led through dimly lighted rooms and corridors into Ludwig's private theater, which was in utter darkness save for the moonlight that entered through the windows. Patti stood upon the dark stage, while an orchestra, somewhere out of sight, began a soft prelude. Through the gloom she could just make out a white face in the royal box opposite the stage. Not another auditor was in the great hall. The whole thing was most uncanny, and Patti felt cold shivers creeping over her. She shook with nervousness and fear, and when she should have begun her aria not a sound could she make. She opened her mouth, but her throat was paralyzed from nervous terror. There was a pause. The king sprang up and leaned forward out of the box, his white face gleaming in the moonlight. The violins repeated the prelude. Patti gathered herself together and made one heroic effort. Her voice rang out into the great empty place, and the king sank back into the dark box.

Patti, though badly scared, made the effort of her life and finished the aria from "La Traviata" triumphantly and stood flushed with victory. Dead silence. Not a sound came from the gloom before her. She went off the stage in a temper. His majesty might have given some sign of approbation. Mme. Fischer was behind the scenes, and Patti waited with her for the signal to sing the next number. A messenger appeared at the door. His majesty had had enough music and had gone to his apartments. For a moment Patti stood stunned. Then she laughed. The rudeness was so colossal that it was funny. Mme. Fischer took the diva to supper and then home.

The next morning Mme. Fischer called at the hotel once more, accompanied by the court chamberlain, who bore the promised check, an autograph letter of thanks from the king and some jewels of great value. Mme. Fischer's explanation of the concert fiasco pleased Patti more than the jewels. King Ludwig, she said, was in one of his maddest moods, wild with regret, cursing himself and cursing Patti. He had walked the floor all night, groaning that he was a traitor, for Patti's voice had so ravished his senses that for one moment he had gone over to Italian music and had been false to Wagner—to Wagner, the one musician who alone had satisfied his majesty's soul.

"That was better than having bored him," added Patti, shrugging her shoulders.—New York Sun.

The Army and Navy

Have covered themselves with glory during the war. The Army and Navy vest pocket memorandum book published by the Northern Pacific is a compact digest of information relative to the navies and armies of Spain and the United States at the beginning of the war. It has a map of Cuba, illustrations of naval ships, glossary of navy and army terms, translation of Spanish words, etc. Send ten cents to Chas. S. Fee, general passenger agent, N. P. R., St. Paul, Minn., for a copy.

PERIL MADE THEM FRIENDS.

The Wild Beasts Herded Together to Escape a Forest Fire.

An incident of forest fires in the hills of the Descanso neighborhood, in southern California, illustrates the comradeship that common peril brings about among beasts as well as among men. After the flames had completed their work of destruction and spread a pall over the hills a rancher went forth among the charred stumps and smoking brushheaps to look for a number of cattle and colts which he feared had been hemmed in by the fire. He went across gully and ridge in his search, until at last he saw his stock some little distance ahead.

He was more than astonished upon coming up to the group to find not only his cattle and colts, but a deer, three wildcats, a coyote and several rabbits, all alive and apparently in no fear of him. They watched his approach with indifference, the timidity gone from the big eyed deer, no venom in the wildcat's purr and honesty shining in the gray coyote's face. The rabbits sat on their haunches as meek as the pets of children. But the poor coyote was in pain, and as the farmer came close the erstwhile robber of the roost dragged his helpless hind quarters toward the man in mute supplication. The legs of the animal had been frightfully burned.

The rancher was in no mood to make friends of such strange creatures, and at once drove his stock through the smoldering brush, the deer going along with the cattle, the rabbits hopping along at the rancher's heels, the wildcats slouching along behind, and the coyote, unable to follow, whining a pathetic appeal for succor. When the burning field was passed, the deer broke into a run for the distant hills, the rabbits were away like a flash, and the old defiance and snarling leer came back to the wildcats, who scorned to make a show of haste. They walked slowly out of sight.—San Diego Union.

MONKEY AND BOY.

They Were Equally Concerned In the Jail Delivery.

In the picturesque little town of Lawrenceburg, Ind., there used to be an old stone building that was used as a jail. It could tell many a strange story of the persons it deprived of liberty, but would, if it were wise, be silent concerning one incident that proved to be a joke on itself.

Among the boys of the town was a half witted lad who was particularly incorrigible, and whose constant companion was a little monkey, who attended him as faithfully as Mary's little lamb. One of his mental weaknesses was known to be a confusion of the ideas of mine and thine, and after one very considerable theft the local Sherlock Holmes found footprints of Jocko, the monk, in regions from which the missing articles had disappeared, and so the boy was arrested. There was no law for imprisoning the monkey, so he was not "pinched." The boy was a model prisoner for several days, but was suddenly seized with a desire to have his monkey with him. So earnestly did he beg for this that the good natured jailer had Jocko brought to the cell. That night the lad, who was supposed to be without intelligence, began clawing out the mortar around one of the largest stones in the outer wall. He could not do much with his blunt fingers and weak nails, but the monkey immediately began imitating him. The long claws of the animal soon loosened up enough mortar to enable the boy to pull the stone out of the wall, and before morning both boy and monkey had disappeared.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Speechless With Rage.

"Strong emotion," says Darwin, "interrupts the steady flow of nerve force to the muscles." This prevents the proper working of those muscles which are used in speaking; hence the stumbling and incoherence of the speech. "The voice sticks in the throat," to use the words of Virgil. In some cases speech is for a short time impossible, as is seen where a person is said to be "speechless with rage." The hoarseness of the voice is due partly to the fact that passion causes an overaction of all the organs, partly by the fact that for generations harsh and fierce sounds have been made use of to terrify opponents in quarrels, and so have come to be associated instinctively with anger. Possibly the fact also has its influence that the utterance of sounds such as those referred to is in some way or the other a relief to the feelings.

FOR SALE.

Two lots and house on South Broadway for sale at a bargain. For particulars address,

Mrs. C. Gerbig,
Box 20. Akeley, Minn.

To W. B. Dodge:—

You are hereby notified that on the 11th day of May A. D. 1895, in proceedings to enforce the payment of delinquent taxes pursuant to that certain real estate tax judgment which was entered in the District Court in and for the County of Polk in the 14th Judicial District of the State of Minnesota, on the 21st day of March A. D. 1895, the following described piece and parcel of land which is situated in Polk county (now Red Lake County) in the State of Minnesota, to-wit:

Lot 10, Block 2, Original townsite of Red Lake Falls, was sold to the state to satisfy the amount for which it was adjudged liable to said judgment, interest and costs for the sum of five dollars and forty-three cents; that on the 27th day of April 1899, said lot was sold under direction of the state auditor for the sum of thirty-two dollars and eighty-eight cents; that the amount required to redeem said piece and parcel of land from such sale (exclusive of the costs to accrue upon this notice) is thirty-two dollars and eighty-eight cents, and interest on said amount at the rate of 12 per cent per annum from said 27th day of April A. D. 1899, until such redemption is made, and that the time for redemption of such piece and parcel of land from such sale will expire sixty days after the service of this notice and proof thereof has been filed in the office of the County Auditor of said Polk County.

Witness my hand and official seal this 18th day of May A. D. 1899.

[SEAL] JOHN GLEASON,
County Auditor of Polk County, Minn.
By N. A. Hoffard, Deputy.

U. S. LAND OFFICE.

Crookston, Minn., April 21, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., on June 20th 1899, viz:

Joseph Anderson; H. E. 14961, for the ne¼ sec. 31, twp. 152 N. of range 42 W.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz:—H. A. Johnson, John Ahlin, E. P. Streberg and Charles Ericksen, all of St. Hilaire, Minn.

39-44 SYLVESTER PETERSON, Register.

—The SPECTATOR is the official paper of the village and county. Now is the time to subscribe. $1.00 per year if paid in advance—otherwise $1.50.

Notice of Sale of Funding Bonds.

Notice is hereby given that at the office of the County Auditor in and for the County of Red Lake, State of Minnesota, on the 26th day of June, 1899, beginning at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, the County Commissioners of said county will sell funding bonds of said county in the aggregate sum of $20,000.00.

Said bonds are issued for the purpose of funding the floating indebtedness of said county existing on the first day of May, 1899; will be ten in number, and of denomination of one thousand dollars each, with interest coupons attached; interest at rate of 4 per cent per annum, payable annually; date of issue June 30th, 1899; date of maturity June 30th 1914; principal and interest payable at office of treasurer of said county. Bids for said bonds will be received at any time prior to the hour of beginning sale, at which time all bids will be opened. Each bid will be required to be accompanied by a certified check in the sum of two hundred dollars to be forfeited to said Red Lake county in case of failure to comply with the terms of said bid if accepted. The county commissioners of said county hereby reserve the right to reject any and all bids, and to continue said sale from day to day, if deemed necessary in the interests of said county.

Dated May 24th 1899.

[SEAL] ADAM ZEN.
Auditor of Red Lake County, Minn.

44-47

List of Town Clerks.

Names	Township	Postoffice
Olof Larson	Numedal	Viking
C. E. Purdy	North	Thief River Falls
John E. Peterson	Bray	Bray
N. K. Anderson	Sanders	St. Hilaire
F. T. Saire	Rocksbury	T. R. Falls
O. T. Remsos	Polk Centre	Wylie
P. A. Eckstrom	Black River	Wylie
A. S. Anderson	River Falls	St. Hilaire
Ole J. Johnson	Wyandotte	"
A. D. Berry	Louisville	Huot
Hilaire Baril	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
Chas. E. Asp	Emardville	Lost
Edward Havik	Equality	Grit
Moses Ducharme	Lake Pleasant	R. L. F.
Edonor Perusse	Terrebonne	Terrebonne
J. B. Herbert	Poplar River	Brooks
Louis Doucet	Lambert	Lambert
J. L. Johnson	St. Hilaire	St. Hilaire
Lars Backe	Thief River F.	T. R. F.
A. P. Toupin	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
H. D. Brayson	Norden	T. R. Falls
Olof Tande	Garnes	Garnes

FARMS
LOANS
ABSTRACTS
97 Farms for sale or rent in Red Lake County.
SWANSON & GRADY,
Official Abstractors.
RED LAKE FALLS. - - MINN.

Say?

If your wheel needs enameling, cleaning, new tires or any other repairing give us a trial. All work done promptly and satisfactory. Prices reasonable.

F. J. TOUSLEY & CO.
35 RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

UNION MEAT MARKET
P. O. MOSLETH, PROP.

Choicest line of Fresh and Salted meats in the city.
Highest market price paid for Stock, Poultry and Hides.

Hamm's
St. Paul
Beer
There's Honest Blood, Bone and Sinew in this Strengthening brew!
Agents everywhere
Theo. Hamm Brewing Company.
Tel. 972
St. Paul, Minn.

F. C. CORSETS
MAKE
American Beauties.
F. C.
LATEST MODELS.
On Each Box.
KALAMAZOO CORSET CO.
SOLE MANUFACTURERS.
SOLD BY
St. Hilaire, Minn. E. M. HOFF.

WANTED-BRAINS

Can you think of something to patent? Protect your ideas; they may bring you wealth. Before applying for patent, get our liberal offers. Inventor's Assistant and handsome views of Washington sent Free on request. Be sure to write to-day.

COPP & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C.

First
Mortgage
Loans.

I am prepared, for the next 60 days, to make loans at the

LOWEST

possible rates ever made in Red Lake county. If you want to make a loan or renew an old one call on

H. E. IVES.

A. O. LETVIG,
Tubular Well Contractor
A Good Supply of Water Guaranteed.
Repairing a Specialty.
WYLIE. MINNESOTA.

Agents Wanted.

The oldest and largest nursery in the West. Everything for the orchard and grove. Three plans of work and the year round. Pay weekly. Write for terms.

THE JEWELL NURSERY CO.,
40-45 Lake City, Minn.

To Jacob Olp, or others, whom it may concern:—

You are hereby notified that on the 11th day of May A. D. 1895, in proceedings to enforce the payment of delinquent taxes pursuant to that certain real estate tax judgment which was entered in the District Court in and for the County of Polk in the 14th Judicial District of the State of Minnesota, on the 21st day of March A. D. 1895, the following described piece and parcel of land which is situated in Polk county (now Red Lake county) in the State of Minnesota, to-wit:

Lot 16, Block 13, Champagne & [illegible] Addition to Red Lake Falls, was sold to the state to satisfy the amount for which it was adjudged liable in said judgment, interests and costs for the sum of Two dollars and sixty-four cents; that on the 27th day of April 1899, said lot was sold under the direction of the State Auditor for the sum of sixteen dollars and ten cents; that the amount required to redeem said piece and parcel of land from such sale (exclusive of the costs to accrue upon this notice) is sixteen dollars and ten cents and interest on said amount at the rate of 12 per cent. per annum from said 27th day of April A. D. 1899, until such redemption is made, and that the time for redemption of such piece and parcel of land from such sale will expire sixty days after the service of this notice and proof thereof has been filed in the office of the County Auditor of said Polk county.

Witness my hand and official seal this 18th day of May A. D. 1899.

[SEAL] JOHN GLEASON,
County Auditor of Polk County, Minn.
43-45 By N. A. Hoffard, Deputy.

Spring Suits.

STYLISH SPRING SUITS
FOR MEN AND BOYS.

The Greatwestern own magnificent display of men's spring suits, and boys' choicest clothing is now ready, at a saving of fully 25 per cent.

Greatwestern Clothing House.

Cosmopolitan and Spectator.

To secure for you the best and most interesting of the great illustrated magazines at the lowest possible price has been the aim of the editor of this journal. That we have succeeded we will leave our readers to judge. A special contract recently entered into with The Cosmopolitan, which seeks to become better known in this neighborhood, has enabled us to offer you a year's subscription to the greatest of the illustrated magazines together with a year's subscription to this journal, both together one year for only $1.80.

Farm, Stock & Home.

50 cents per year. Read by a greater number of Northwestern farmers than any other agricultural paper published. Are you among the number? If not, Why not? Every department in the hands of a specialist. Short talks department. A department where all kinds of questions are answered for the benefit of subscribers, is a leading feature of the paper. No northwestern farmer's list of papers is complete without it. This paper and Spectator one year for $1.25.

SOME OF OUR CLUB RATES WITH THE

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR

OFFICIAL PAPER OF ST. HILAIRE AND RED LAKE COUNTY.

OUR TERMS ARE STRICTLY CASH IN ADVANCE

Cosmopolitan, New York World and The Spectator.

You wish to keep in touch with metropolitan life, through the medium of a great daily. The Thrice-a-Week World of New York is the equivalent of a daily and is a marvellous fund of knowledge concerning the happenings of the day. Each issue contains six to eight pages of eight columns each or over eight thousand columns of reading matter a year. In former days this would have cost you [illegible] as much as $6.00 a year, by itself. Now you can have it, if you wish, in connection with your home paper and The Cosmopolitan Magazine. Three together one year for only $2.35.

IF YOU INTEND TO Buy
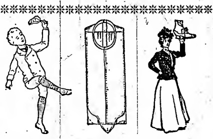
Furniture

Come and look our assortment over. We carry everything in the Furniture line including picture frames and musical instruments. Prices reasonable.

Holmes Furniture Co.

BANK OF RED LAKE FALLS,
RED LAKE FALLS, MINNESOTA
GENERAL BANKING. FOREIGN XCHANGE
Real Estate, Farm Loans and Insurance.
Abstracts of Title.
Steamship Tickets.
Interest Paid on Time Deposits.
Collections of all Kinds Given Prompt Attention.
Owner of the Abstract Books formerly owned by Sortedahl & Stomash the only set of Abstract Books in Red Lake County.
M. O. SORTEDAHL, President and Cashier.
G. P. SEVERTSON, Assistant Cashier

Cigars.
BRINK BROTHERS
DEALERS IN
Wines & Liquors
Minneapolis Beer.
Corner Broadway and 3rd St. St. Hilaire, Minnesota



Be Ready For Spring When it Comes

A full line of spring merchandise just arrived. We invite inspection of these goods. A splendid line of Skirts and Waists, both in ready-made and patterns at prices which are right. I shall not attempt to describe the line; only urge you most cordially to see the goods before you buy.

E. M. HOFF.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

I. O. O. F. St. Hilaire Lodge No. 147.—Meets at their hall every Thursday evening, eight o'clock. Visiting members are cordially invited to attend.

E. M. Hoff, N. G.

J. H. Johnson, Secretary.

M. W. A. CAMP 9550.—Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every second and fourth Tuesday of every month. Visiting neighbors are cordially invited to attend.

Leonard Holmes, V. C.

Jas. M. Hall, Clerk.

R. N. A.—WILD ROSE CAMP.—No. 834 Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every Friday evening. Visiting members of the order are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. L. N. Nolan, Oracle.

Miss T. Hughes, Recorder.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Auditor	Adam Zeh
Treasurer	O. T. Tandberg
Register of Deeds	Samuel Olbeau
Sheriff	Chas. Sampson
Attorney	Van R. Brown
Judge of Probate	J. T. Knight
Clerk of Court	Joe Perrault
Supt. of Schools	Frank Jeffers
Coroner	Joe Belairo
Court Commissioner	J. C. Mathews
Surveyor	P. O. Haggland
Commissioner 1st Dist.	J. Enier
Commissioner 2nd Dist.	W. L. C. Demann
Commissioner 3rd Dist.	O. J. Johnsen
Commissioner 4th Dist.	Karl M. Hanson
Commissioner 5th Dist.	J. B. Herbert

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

E. J. Holmes	President
J. L. Johnson	Recorder
D. Patterson	Councilmen
J. C. Dahl
W. A. Sorsoleil
L. Holmes	Treasurer

Barber Shop

—AND—

BATH ROOMS.

—o—

Haircutting, Shaving, Shampooing.

Razors honed and put in first-class order.

J. H. PENNO, Prop.

ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Henry Francis, M.D, C.M.

Member College Physicians and Surgeons, Ontario. : : :

Thief River Falls, Minnesota.

"THE IDEAL" Lunch Room.

In the Paradis Building is noted for its Convenience.

FIRST-CLASS MEALS.

PROMPT SERVICE.

☞ OPEN UNTIL ONE O'CLOCK A. M.

A. F. LANG, Prop.

DR. BLOMBURGH.

SCANDINAVIAN

Physician & Surgeon.

☞ Calls attended day or night. ☜

Teeth Extracted.

Office and residence opposite American Hotel. St. Hilaire, Minn.

2nd ☞ STORE

(Second Hand Store.)

Everything in this line now on hand. Special bargains given. If you have anything to dispose of give me a call. Repairing of harness also done.

C. A. SKEIE.

St. Hilaire, - Minnesota

Blacksmith!

Horse-shoeing, repairing of all kinds of Farm Implements, Machinery, etc. All work promptly attended to and done in a satisfactory manner.

J. C. DAHL.

St. Hilaire, Minnesota

PATENTS

Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained and all Patent business conducted for Moderate Fees. Our Office is opposite U. S. Patent Office and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.

Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured. A Pamphlet, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,

C. A. SNOW & CO.

Opp. Patent Office, Washington, D. C.

Market Report.—To-Day.

Wheat No. 1	.65	Oats	.20
Wheat No. 2	.61	Barley	.28
Wheat No. 3	.55	Flax	.88
Eggs (per doz.)	.12½	Butter (per lb)	.10

LOCAL NEWS.

The next club dance will be given June 10th.

Wall paper and calcimine at the New Drug store.

Last Thursday was the finest day of the season.

William J. Bryan will be in Fargo June 29th.

Eli Belair moved his family to Red Lake Falls to-day.

The paving on Broadway is appreciated by all interested.

M. Rosenberg was an over Sunday visitor at Crookston.

To cure a cigarette fiend, the Plaindealer says, get an axe.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Deach died Monday.

Try a lunch, a meal or a weeks board at the Ideal Lunch Room.

5 cents will buy two packages of garden seeds at M. A. Hall's.

The new hardware store handles everything in the harness line.

O. E. Olson is now snugly located in his new cottage on Wall street.

—Go to the New Drug Store for your Stationery and School supplies.

Mrs. E. Gunderson on Wall street is very ill and not expected to live.

The Winnipeg exposition opens July 15th and continues for one week.

L. T. Bergh, the Deering man made a trip to the upper Falls yesterday.

Patronize home industry by buying your wall paper at the New Drug store.

The fireman's tournament held at Bemidji last week was a grand success.

Preaching in the M. E. church in the evening at 8. No service in the morning.

Miss Cyr of Red Lake Falls is here visiting with Mr. and Mrs. H. Thibedeau.

If you want to make a loan on your farm, or renew an old one, call on H. E. Ivee.

The program of memorial exercises were called off yesterday on account of the rain.

J. W. Wheeler the Crookston banker was here yesterday looking after his interests.

Miko Fricker has just received a carload of corn which he will grind into all kinds of feed.

The school term closes this week and the youngsters will make the best of their vacation.

Are we going to celebrate the 4th of July at home this year or go to the upper or lower Falls?

Miss. Angie Reil of Crookston spent Sunday in the village visiting with friends and relatives.

The Crookston gun club has decided upon June 29th and 30th as the dates for holding the tournament.

Misses Makinson and Betts spent a delightful day at the farm residence of W. A. Sorsoleil last Sunday.

Ringling Bros. circus is headed towards the Red River valley and may make a date with Crookston.

Sam Dainard made a trip to Thief River Falls Monday interviewing the manager of the new saw mill.

Chas. Christienson, the horse thief, mention of which was made in our last issue, is still at large with one of Mr. Ness' horses.

St. Hilaire and Thief River Falls clubs did not play ball last Sunday owing to the condition of the diamond at the latter place.

The St. Hilaire base ball club will play at Thief River Falls next Sunday providing the roads dry up and the grounds in condition.

The Thief River Falls Fire department will have charge of the Fourth of July celebration at that place. They will make it a success.

The Willing Workers Society will meet with Amelia White Saturday afternoon June 3rd 1899. All members are requested to be present

Consumption Cured.

—Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth, cures a cold in one day if taken in time. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

Sam Dainard has made several trips out in the country and says the wheat is further advanced now, than any season for the past ten years.

We are in receipt of the Minneapolis Journal Almanac and Year Book for 1899. It is filled with all kinds of information and only costs 25 cents.

Rock bass fishing was at its best last week. Oscar Halvorson managed to yank out one hundred and one from after school was let out until dark.

The Strawbridge Mercantile Company closed out business at this place Saturday last and are now doing business at Crookston in the Chase block.

Miko Rosenberg takes his cue from strawberry blossoms and says a good crop of small grain will be harvested. He claims he is no prophet nor a son of a prophet.

You will notice that the fellows that catch a nice string of fish always come up Broadway while the other fellows hide their fishing tackle at the mill and come up Water street.

The base ball dance given at the dining room of the Hotel Markham last Saturday evening was the largest attended for several years. Everyone seemed to have a good time.

We had the pleasure last Sunday of hearing the St. Hilaire band warble sweet music. For the short time they have been organized the boys up the line are tooting excellently.—Red Lake Courier.

The mill started up again Monday after shutting down since last Thursday noon for want of logs. We anticipate no more trouble of this kind for this season as the river is being filled with logs.

The base ball uniforms for the St. Hilaire team arrived last Thursday. The color is gray of caps, shirts and trousers while the hose and belts are black same as uniforms worn by the St. Paul team.

Some wag in the southern part of the state, where there is a two-cent bounty on gophers' tails pinned one to a letter where the stamp should have been placed and sent it through the mails.—Grand Forks Plaindealer.

A. C. Schmidt the Crookston painter was here yesterday on business. He carried a sample case of his best work but his sprained ankle would not match. He also went to the county seat to take orders for sign painting.

A. O. Letvig, the tubular well contractor of Wylie was here the first of the week transacting business. See his advertisment in another column and if you need anything in this line he is the man to see and can be relied upon.

Tomorrow is the day set for starting the Fosston creamery. St. Hilaire should have one as this is a country well adapted to stock raising and farmers tributary to here would do less worrying on account of seasons same as this year.

Mr. Mereen, manager of the St. Hilaire Lumber Company informs us that the mill will be running night and day after June 5th. This means that between three hundred and fifty and four hundred men will be employed by this concern.

Lodge No. 147, I. O. O. F. elected officers at their meeting last Thursday evening and following are the officers that will be installed after July 1st.

Noble Grand—E. M. Hoff.
Vice Grand—J. B. O'Brien.
Secretary—J. H. Johnson.

The first hanging in twenty-three years at Winnipeg took place Monday when the two Galicians were executed for the murder of Wasyl Bojecueko and his four children at Stuartburn last October. The murder was committed with the object of obtaining $40.

Dr. Forbes, presiding elder of the Duluth district, delivered an interesting lecture last Wednesday evening in the M. E. church, the subject being "Mistakes of the Devil and Some Other People." The church was filled and all are unanimous saying it was the best lecture they ever heard.

—To cure a cough or cold in one day take the Imperial Cough Syrup.

A farewell party was given at the residence of President Holmes Monday evening in honor of Miss Alice and Walter Holmes who have been here the past two weeks visiting friends and relatives. Games were played and music and singing was the order of the evening. A real pleasant evening was spent by all present.

John L. Sullivan and Jake Kilrain the noted pugilists, sparred three rounds at the Crookston opera house last Thursday evening winding up their vaudeville performance. John looked as though he had been working in a brewery since he was knocked out of the ring—but still he is handy with his dukes. The show was above the average.

—For cuts and sores there is nothing better than the Imperial Carbolic salve.

The horse meat packing factory is a hard reality and is expected to begin operation at Medora June 1. No trouble to find a market for horse meat is anticipated and 100 animals a day will be slaughtered and shipped to the eastern cities for those unable to buy other kinds of meat food. It is one of the new deals that has appeared in this country in what is called rapid transit into European conditions.—Jamestown (N. D.) Alert.

The Best Cough Remedy on Earth.

Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, Consumption Cure, cures a cold in 24 hours if taken in time and does not stop a cough in ONE MINUTE by paralyzing the throat, but it cures the disease and leaves the throat and lungs healthy and strong. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co. St. Hilaire.

Arno Mereen manager of the St. Hilaire Lumber Co., left Monday for Minneapolis to gather enough men to run the mill nights. At least one hundred and fifty men are expected here between now and Saturday.

Frank Hawkins, night foreman of the Crookston saw mill was here the first of the week getting a few pointers on how to rush lumber through the mill. Frank went away satisfied as seeing the best up-to-date mill in the state and he has been long enough in the business to know.

Grenville Pease of the Anoka Union in distributing a few political pointers says: "Should that popular personage and shrewd politician, Tom Shevlin of Minneapolis, decide that he wants to go to congress from the fifth district, your Uncle Loren would have an opportunity worthy of his steel. Tom knows no such word as fail.

P. B. Malberg, ex-clerk of court of Marshall county and his brother Amos, of Goodhue county drove over from Warren Saturday for a few days visit with their cousin, C. G. Rapp, and a lot of old time friends formerly of Goodhue county. They left Monday for P. B.'s farm north of Thief River Falls which is located in the town of Excel.

Mrs. Chas. Nelson wife of the manager of Johnson's brick yard died Sunday night very suddenly. She had felt some ill effects from tonsilitis during the day, but a prescription she had taken afforded such relief that she was able to do her housework as usual. The family had retired for the night, when about 11 o'clock Mr. Nelson was awakened by his wife suddenly leaping from the bed. She fell upon the floor and rolled about as if in paroxysms of pain. Going to her the terror-stricken husband raised his wife in his arms and heard her feebly say "I am dying." She expired immediately after, death being caused by strangulation, her throat having swollen so as not to admit of breathing.—Red Lake Falls Gazette.

—Dr. Thomas is an up-to-date in all the different branches in his profession. Remember the dates, June 5th and 6th.

That another very serious mistake was made by this administration when it instructed the American delegates to the Czar's disarmament conference, now sitting at the Hague, to join the British delegates in working to secure an agreement of the nations represented for international arbitration, is believed by many close students of international politics. Should such an agreement be entered into the U. S. would be likely to get the worst of every question submitted to arbitration that effects European interests, for the very simple reason that a majority of the arbitrators would necessarily be European, possessing the natural prejudice that every man feels against the inhabitants of another hemisphere. Senator Stewart, whose wide experience in public life and close study of history makes his opinion entitled to consideration, says that we will live to deeply regret it, if we enter any arbitration agreement with the European nations; that every decision under such an agreement would certainly be anti-American, and that we will be all the time fighting a hostile combination from which we can expect neither justice nor fairplay.

Oh, Where Has He Gone?

LOST:—About six weeks ago a black and white English setter dog answers to the name of "Shy." A suitable reward will be given at this office when said dog is returned. Any information will thankfully be received.

John Sherman has stirred up the administration once more. On his way to Ohio he gave out an interview, at Pittsburg, which caused a sensation in administration circles, when it was telegraphed to Washington. The old man jumped on the Philippine policy of the administration with both feet, so to speak, declaring it to be wrong from beginning to end, or at least, to where it has got. Mr. McKinley fears that this interview will do the republicans much harm in Ohio, and is trying to bring influence to bear upon Mr. Sherman to get him to repudiate it outright, or, if he cannot be made to go that far, to say that what he said was exaggerated by the reporter.

—It is better than ready money because it cures rheumatism, constipation sick headache, indigestion. Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure.

Poor. But Honest.

A story was recently told of how a minister tested the effect of the hard times upon the congregation. At the conclusion of one of his sermons he said: "Let all in the house who pay their debts stand up." Instantly every man, women and child, with one exception, arose to their feet. He seated the crowd and said: Let every man who is not paying his debts stand up." The exception noted, a care-worn, hungry individual, clothed in his last summer suit, slowly assumed a perpendicular position, and leaned upon the back of the seat in front of him; "How is it my friend," inquired the minister, that you are the only man in this large congregation who is unable to meet his obligations?" "I publish a newspaper" he meekly replied, "and my brethren here who have just stood up are my subscribers, and——." "Let us pray" exclaimed the minister.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

—Every farmer who writes a letter occasionally should get envelopes with his name and address printed in the corner. We will furnish 100 of the best quality printed in any style for the small sum of 75 cts. Send in your order.

June Ladies Home Journal.

The June Ladies Home Journal reaches the top notch of excellence in both its pictorial and literary features. It opens with a page drawing of Longfellow's "Evangeline," and gives a group of pictures showing some "Fetes of College Girls." An interesting description is given of "The Creole Girl of New Orleans," and "Housekeeping on an Ocean Steamship" is graphically portrayed. "How a young man can work his way through college" has a practical value for every poor boy ambitious for higher education, and "Telling the Character from Handwriting" is interesting and entertaining. Bishop, priest, rabbi and minister contribute to a symposium on "What is the Good of Going to Church?" and the Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis, D. D., discusses "Pains that Polish Perfection."

The fiction of the June Journal includes the second installment of Anthony Hope's "Captain Dieppe," Sophie Swett's story, "The Revolt of Sar' Abby Quint," the first of "Ol Peckham's Opinions," and four chapters of "A College Courtship." There are two new departments: "Five-Minute Talks on Good Health," by expert physical educators, and a boys' page, to which Dan Beard contributes an illustrated article on "A Boys underground club House." Two pages of photographs show "Where our Presidents are Buried;" others picture "Childrens Day in the Church," "Picturesque Bits of Gardens ect., Mrs. S. T. Rorer teachers "The A B C of Ice Cream Making," and gives menus for outdoor gatherings. "The Journal's Prize Model House" is shown with others built from plans previously published. There are numerous practical articles on womans work and woman's wear. By The Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar per year; ten cents per copy.

To cure a cough in one day take the Imperial cough syrup. Guaranteed to cure. For sale at the new Drug Store.

Advantage of Sheep.

Farmers who are considering the advisability of entering upon the sheep-raising industry should ponder upon the following summary of the advantages of sheep, made by Wool Record:

"1. They are profitable.

2 They weaken the soil least and strengthen it most.

3 The are enemies to weeds.

4 The care they need is required when other farm operations are slack.

5 The amount of investment need not be large.

6 The returns are quick and many.

7 They are the quietest and easiest handled of all farm stock.

8 Other farm products are made more largely from cash grains, while those from the sheep are made principally from pasture.

9 There is no other product of the farm that has fluctuated so slightly in value as good mutton.

10 By comparison wool costs nothing for do not the horse and cow in shedding their coats waste what the sheep saves?"

In conclusion: Sheep pay.

Dentist.

—Dr. J. H. Thomas, the Crookston dentist will be at Hotel Markham, St. Hilaire, June 5th and 6th prepared to do all kinds of up to date dental work in all branches. All work warranted. Remember the dates 5th and 6th.

—If you are troubled with rheumatism take the Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure. It will positively cure all diseases arising from impure blood, and is sold under an absolute guarentee to benefit or money refunded. Call for free sample at the New Drug Store.

Watches Clocks and Jewelery.

I will carry a full line of wathes, clocks and jewlery hereafter at Johnson's drug store. Anything you want that we do not carry in stock we will order for you at ten per cent above the wholesale prices and by doing this you will save money by dealing at home. Watches left for repairs will be sent down on first train and returned the next day. I shall continue to be at Johnson's drug store the 10th 11th and 12th of each month. Eyes examined free.

Prof. J. Q. Adams.
Red Lake Falls.

FAMILY WASHING.

We can give you prices on family work that will surprise you. Why not save fuel, water and wood by having your washing done by us? We call and deliver your work. Starch and return rough dry at prices so small that we are ashamed to print it.

St. Hilaire Laundry.
B. KORTGAARD, Proprietor.

WANTED.

Teachers to attend the Crookston College Summer School. It is cheap thorough and practical. Term opens June 12th and continues 8 weeks. Address, Crookston College, Crookston, Minnesota.

The New York World

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly.

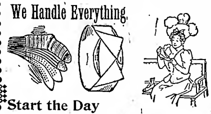
The striking and important events of the last year have established the overwhelming value of The Thrice-a-Week World to every reader. For an almost nominal sum it has kept its subscribers informed of the progress of all our wars and, moreover, has reported them as promptly and fully as if it were a daily. With our interests still extending throughout the world, with our troops operating in the Philippines and the great Presidential campaign, too, at hand, its value is further increased.

The motto of The Thrice-a-Week World is improved. It strives each year to be better than it was the year before, and public confidence in it is shown by the fact that it now circulates more than twice as many papers every week as any other newspaper, not a daily, published in America.

We offer this unequalled newspaper and The St. Hilaire Spectator together one year for $1.65.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

We Handle Everything.

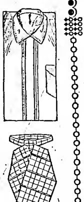


Start the Day Right

And everything will go smoothly. The proper way to start the day is by coming around to our store and ordering a supply of groceries for the day, such things as you may need. It will take you but a few minutes, and we feel sure you will not regret it.

Our Groceries

Are always fresh, and then the prices are as near right as we know how to make them. If you have not been in the habit of trading with us, drop in and see us anyway; you might get into the habit.



Hardware

We carry everything in the hardware line from cooking stoves down to tacks—all you have to do is to ask for what you want. If you want anything in the tin or copper line done drop into our tin shop and your wants will be attended to.

Yours very truly,

RAPP & POST

St. Hilaire, Minnesota.

The Cheap Cash Store.

GROCERIES NOTIONS FRUIT CANDIES TOYS TOBACCOS CIGARS AND GENTS FURNISHING GOODS.

ALL AT HARD TIMES PRICES. M. A. HALL.

A. H. WEAGANT

Having bought the business of Fred Eikhoff, I am now prepared to sell you anything in line of

HARDWARE AND TINWARE

CUTLERY, PAINTS & OILS,

Everything at Rock Bottom Prices. Come and see for yourself. Opposite Hotel Markham

LEONARD HOLMES,

—DEALER IN—

Agricultural Implements

WHEAT, FLAX OATS AND BARLEY.

Flour and Feed always on Hand.

Lumber! Lumber!

OF ALL KINDS.

We have a large and well assorted stock of Dry Lumber and are prepared to fill all orders on short notice. We also carry a complete assortment

—OF—

Sash, Doors, Paper

AND ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL

Which we buy in large quantities and are thereby enabled to sell at lowest market prices.

ST. HILAIRE LUMBER CO.

NEW MEAT MARKET.

L. M. ROLAND, Proprietor.

Fresh and Salted Meats.

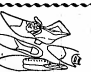
Highest Market Price Paid for Hides.

L. K. KOLSTAD

DEALER IN

Boots and Shoes!

Repairing a Specialty.



ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.

Something Wrong.

The Dog—You've got to have a pull to get along nowadays.

The Horse—Nonsense! I've had one all my life, and it hasn't done me any good.—Kansas City Independent.

Sixty Miles an Hour.

A steam motor car, for use on the railroads, recently made a trial trip, going at the rate of sixty miles an hour. This will probably be as much of a record-breaker as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It cures indigestion, constipation, nervousness, liver and kidney trouble.

Only Practicing.

Mistress—What are you doing, Ricke? Throwing the dishes at that target? Are you crazy?

Maid—"Crazy? No, I'm going to get married.—Das Kleine Witzblatt.

"In Union There is Strength."

True strength consists in the union, the harmonious working together, of every part of the human organism. This strength can never be obtained if the blood is impure. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the standard prescription for purifying the blood.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Never Disappoints

One Sort

"You sold this dog to me for a bird dog. He doesn't know a bird when he sees one. I took him out yesterday, and he wouldn't look at a bird."

"Well, how was the bird cooked?"—Brooklyn Life.

Are You Using Allen's Foot-Ease?

It is the only cure for Swollen, Smarting, Burning, Sweating Feet, Corns and Bunions. Ask for Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder to be shaken into the shoes. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

An Unsuccessful Operation.

"You told me you expected to perform an operation for appendicitis on old Beasley. How did you come out?"

"Badly."

"Is Beasley dead?"

"No. As soon as I suggested the operation he sent for another doctor."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

$15.00 Per Week.

We will pay a salary of $15 per week and expenses for a man with rig to introduce Poultry Mixture and Insect Destroyer in the country. Address with stamp, Perfection Mfg. Co., Parsons, Kansas

"Such a Happy Remark."

Wife of Patient—I'm so sorry, doctor to bring you all the way to Hampstead to see my husband!

Doctor (from Mayfair)—Pray, don't mention it, my dear madam. I have another patient in this neighborhood, so I'm killing two birds with one stone.—London Punch.

A Pure, Vegetable Compound.

No mercurial or other mineral poisons in Cascarets Candy Cathartic, only vegetable substances, late medical discoveries. All druggists 10c. 25c. 50c.

When a man does something mean to you that you had thought of doing to him it warps the golden rule.

Breakfast is another name for the oatmeal.

Hall's Catarrh Cure

Is taken internally. Price, 75c.

Bad luck in small quantities makes good fortune more palatable.

About the greatest drawback to a man's happiness is himself.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle

A man loses his appetite for a lot of things while waiting for them.

Real gratitude is never ashamed of humble benefactors.

Piso's Cure for Consumption is the best of all cough cures.—George W. Lotz, Fabucher, La., August 26, 1895.

Bald-headed friends find it difficult to part.

160 ACRES FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

WHEAT WHEAT WHEAT

"Nothing but wheat; what you might call a sea of wheat," is what was said by a lecturer speaking of Western Canada. For particulars as to routes, railway fares, etc., apply to Superintendent of Immigration, Department Interior, Ottawa, Canada, or to Ben Davies, 154 East Third St., St. Paul, or T. O. Currie, Stevens Point, Wis.

What would the world do without ink? Just think of it!

CARTER'S INK

IS THE BEST INK.

Forty years experience in the making. Costs you no more than poor ink. Why not have it?

BIG G CURES in 1 to 5 days. Guaranteed not to stricture. Prevents contagion. THE EVANS CHEMICAL CO. CINCINNATI, O. U. S. A. $1.00

CURE YOURSELF!

Use Big G for unnatural discharges, inflammations, irritations or ulcerations of mucous membranes. Painless, and not astringent or poisonous.

Sold by Druggists,

or sent in plain wrapper, by express, prepaid, for $1.00, or 3 bottles, $2.75. Circular sent on request.

$5 to $30 3000 BICYCLES

Everyone a Bargain.

NEW AND SECOND HAND.

2d Hand—good as any for service, $3 to $12. New '98 Models $12.50 to $30. Some higher. We guarantee to save you money. Larger variety to select from. Lowest prices ever quoted. Every customer satisfied. Shipped subject to examination and approval. No money in advance. A few good AGENTS WANTED. For price list and particulars address the well known dealers

BROWN-LEWIS CO., (F C) 293 Wabash Av., Chicago.

(The above Co. is reliable and every wheel a bargain.—Editor.)

CANDY CATHARTIC

Cascarets

REGULATE THE LIVER

WANTED—Case of bad health that R-I-P-A-N-S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimonials.

N W N U —No. 22. 1899.

25 CTS. PISO'S CURE FOR CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS. Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists. CONSUMPTION 25 CTS.

HIS NEW PURCHASE.

For ten years Hugh Markleman had been a wanderer upon the face of the earth. Financially speaking he had been successful, but for all that period of time he had been literally homeless. Now he was proceeding to a home of his own.

"The first road to the left beyond the bridge," mused Mr. Markleman to himself, "and the first house you come to is the one. The directions are plain enough, I am sure."

He paused half hesitatingly in front of a low wicket gate, hanging by one hinge, from which a shrub-grown path wound up through untrimmed woods to a one-story dwelling.

"Nonsense!" he muttered to himself; "it can't be that shed of a place. 'A desirable cottage,' was what Gibbs said, 'situated in the midst of charming grounds.' And, by Jupiter, this is the spot."

He swung open the gilded iron gate of a pretty little inclosure, where the graveled paths shone in the twilight, and evergreens skirted the path like tall old monks wrapped in green serge cloaks. The cottage beyond—a low-eaved, picturesque affair, with verandas on every side—exactly met his preconceived ideas of the "desirable country residence" painted in such glowing terms by "Moses Gibbs, Esq., real estate and insurance agent."

His countenance expanded into broad smiles as he pushed open the door and entered a pretty room on the left of the main entrance hall, while a glowing fire cast ruddy reflections through the whole room, and a cushioned armchair stood close to the velvet rug.

"Gibbs told me there was some furniture in the house, and an old woman left in charge," thought Markleman, sitting down in the easy chair and expanding his chilled fingers to the cheery blaze; "but I hadn't any idea of such snug quarters as this."

As Mr. Markleman sat there, basking in the warmth and coziness of the scene, the door of the adjoining room opened and two ladies came in, their faces glowing with the frosty air.

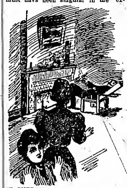
"Why, Lizzie!" cried the shorter one, stopping suddenly in the act of laying her hood on the table, "there is some one in the parlor!"

"Nonsense!" said Lizzie, who, although she had seen eight or nine and 20, was exceedingly fair to look upon. "The cat and the crickets may be there, but who on earth besides?"

"But I tell you I saw him," said Sue, gripping her cousin's arm with a sort of nervous terror. "A great, big, tall man in your easy chair, sitting staring at the fire."

"Fiddlesticks!" cried Lizzie. And she marched courageously into the room where sat our hero.

Mr. Markleman stared equally hard at her. Mr. Moses Gibbs, real estate and insurance agent, had mentioned an old woman. His ideas of old age must have been singular in the extreme. But he recovered his self-possession almost immediately.



"I SUPPOSE YOU'RE MARY ANN," said he, affably.

"No sir," said Miss Wyman, still sorely puzzled. "I'm Lizzie."

"O, Lizzie, eh? Well, it's just the same. I dare say you didn't expect me just yet?"

"No, sir, I certainly did not," said Lizzie, beginning to wonder whether or not she was dreaming.

"Things look nice and comfortable here, Lizzie, my girl, and now the best thing you can do will be to toss me a little bit of supper—sausages or broiled ham, or something of that sort, and be quick about it, for I'm half famished. And, Lizzie, you might send the other girl out for any little trifle you want in the culinary department. Of course, though," he added, as he drew out a bill and extended, grand seigneur fashion, toward the astonished damsel, "I shan't expect to keep two girls as a regular thing, although I must hunt up a man to take care of the horses. Now run along and make haste."

Lizzie Wyman retreated back upon Sue Baring with the money in her hand, scarlet with suppressed mirth.

"Sue," she cried, the instant the door was safely closed, "I see it all!"

"The man is an escaped lunatic, isn't he? Dear, dear, we shall all be murdered!" cried Sue, growing hysterical.

"Nothing of the sort!" said Lizzie, energetically. "He has only made a dreadful blunder. Can't you see, Sue, it's the old bachelor who has taken the place next door?"

"O!" aspirated Sue, with the sparkles of amusement beginning to come into her eyes.

"But, Lizzie, what are you going to do?"

"To cook him the best supper I can and afterward explain to him his mistake in the politest manner possible. Poor fellow, he is rather handsome, I think."

And the two girls bustled about with skillet, gridiron, and coffee strainer, while Mr. Markleman sat viewing the fire and wondering what Gibbs could possibly have meant by talking about "an old woman!"

"Why, she has got cheeks like peaches, and hair as thick and brown and glossy as my own!" he told himself. "Old, indeed! It won't be such bad fun to have a servant girl like that flitting about the house. She ought to have extra wages on account of her good looks."

Afterward he found himself seated before a table whereupon was spread a rich repast.

And he straightaway proceeded to do the best of practical justice to it. Lizzie Wyman composedly watched him the while.

"A nice supper, Lizzie!" said Mr. Markleman, refolding his napkin, and placing it on the table ere he drew out a cigar from his pocket case.

"I'm glad you liked it, sir," said Lizzie, smiling, "and I hope that when you become my neighbor at Laurel cottage you will often drop in to such another."

"Eh!" cried Mr. Markleman, starting back. "Ain't this Laurel cottage? Am I not in my own house?"

"No, sir," Miss Wyman answered, demurely. "You are in my house, and I am Elizabeth Wyman, your future neighbor; happy to make your acquaintance, even after this rather unusual fashion."

"I—I beg your pardon, Miss Wyman," he gasped, turning scarlet and pale in a breath. "I don't see how I ever came to make such a ridiculous mistake! What a donkey you must have taken me for!"

"I'll go," he uttered, making a dive toward his hat, and dropping the unsmoked cigar on the floor, with a countenance of such misery that Lizzie's womanly pity came to the rescue.

"You will do no such thing, Mr. Markleman," she said. "My brother will be here presently, and you shall stay and spend the evening at your own mistake."

So Mr. Markleman staid until Tom Wyman came home from the city on the evening train; and, as he afterward said, he "never spent a pleasanter evening in his life!"—New York Daily News.

FOR POSTERITY.

Why One Woman's Face Wore a Look of Scorn.

It was an impromptu little gathering of women, and before they had been seated long together the conversation turned to the subject of expansion, says the Detroit Free Press. Women do not vote, but they discuss politics just the same. The general verdict seemed to go against the taking of the Philippines. "It seems too bad," said one, "that so many of our young men have to be sacrificed just for the sake of adding a little more to our possessions." "Yes, but think what a fine thing it will be for posterity!" exclaimed the only enthusiastic expansionist in the group. There was a note of coldness in the thought that chilled the little group. The woman's eyes flashed, and her head bent haughtily back as though braced up by the pride of exceptional patriotism. But her eyes soon lowered; and a deep crimson flush spread over her face. No one said a word, but the beautiful pale face of another woman looked scornfully at her. She had lost her only son—"for posterity's sake."

Money in Abyssinia.

The few travelers who have taken the time and trouble to look into Menelek's queer kingdom of Abyssinia tell strange tales of it. Besides the Maria Theresa, 1780 dollars, the people of Abyssinia, for small change, use a bar of hard, crystallized salt, about ten inches long and two inches and a half broad and thick, slightly tapering toward the end, five of which go to the dollar at the capital. People are very particular about the standard fineness of the currency. If it does not ring like metal, or if it is at all chipped, nothing will induce them to take it. Then, it is a token of affection among the natives, when friends meet, to give each other a lick of their respective amolis, and in this way the material value of the bar is also decreased. For still smaller change cartridges are used, of which three go to one salt. It does not matter what sort they are. Some sharpers use their cartridges in the ordinary way, and then put in some dust and a dummy bullet to make up the difference, or else they take out the powder and put the bullet in again so that possibly in the next action the unhappy seller will find that he has only miss-fires in his belt; but this is such a common fraud that no one takes any notice of it, and a bad cartridge seems to serve as readily as a good one.—Philadelphia Press.

About an Even Thing.

A well-known member of the Detroit bar tells the Free Press this story: "Some years ago I attended a session of the circuit court up in the state. A pro confesso divorce case was called, and it so happened that the judge was very much opposed to divorces, especially those which were unopposed. After the attorney for the complainant in this case announced himself as ready to proceed, the judge asked if anyone appeared for the defendant. There was silence for a moment, and the judge repeated the question. At one end of the lawyer's table sat an attorney who had acquired the liquor habit and who was, at the time, considerably under the influence of stimulants. He was noticed struggling to get on his feet, and, on observing him, the judge seized the opportunity and asked: 'Do you appear for the defendant, Mr. Blank?' 'No, your honor, I merely rose to remark as "friend of the court" that with Brother Doubleblank as attorney for the complainant and no one on the other side, it was about an even thing.' Then Blank resumed his seat, while the whole court roared with laughter."

He Pulled It.

Because of an inquisitive turn of mind, Sub-Policeman John Atkinson, of the twenty-second district, yesterday had his new summer uniform thoroughly drenched. Atkinson was stationed near the Undine boathouse, along the Schuylkill river. Prior to the arrival of the parade he became very much interested in the boats and fixtures in the clubhouse. Finally he came to a sign posted on the wall which read: "Pull the rope and see the monkey jump." Atkinson gave the rope a jerk and then proceeded to do the jumping. He had pulled the rope attached to the shower bath.—Philadelphia Record.

It is estimated that England's stock of coal will last 200 years longer, and North America's 600 years.

HEARD WHEN YOU SNEEZE.

Ejaculations in Many Languages to Ward Off Coming Danger.

In many a family, particularly in New England, a sneeze is generally followed by a hearty "God bless us," though little thought is ever paid to the meaning of the phrase or why it is used. A curious explanation of the origin of the phrase is given. It seems that several centuries ago an epidemic like our present influenza became rife all over Europe, the first symptom of which was violent sneezing. The pope at that time prescribed prayers against the epidemic and recommended certain short ejaculations, to be made when anyone sneezed in such a way as to show signs of having contracted the malady. Hence all over Europe we have these ejaculations, practically of the same character. Italy: "Dio vi benedica!" in Germany, "Gott segne dich!" (also "Gesundheit!") in France, "Dieu vous benisse!" among the Spanish speaking people of New Mexico, "Jesus te favorezca!" in Arizona, "Jesus te ayude!" The English, "God bless you," or "God bless us," corresponds to the Gaelic, 'Dia linn,' "God with us!" Sometimes the response, "Agus Muire!" "and Mary," is added, and in violent attacks, "agus Eoin Baiste," "and John Baptist." In New Mexico they say to children sneezing: "Dios te haga crecer," "God make thee grow!" An equivalent expression is used in Gaelic as a thank phrase, and I have heard people say in Ireland to a child sneezing, "God bless you, child, you're no fairy!" a semi-serious allusion to the possibility of children being changed by fairies, as the old legend had it.—Donahoe's Magazine.

LIKE THE PROVERBIAL CAT.

How the Professor's Desk Came Back at His Own Expense.

The young lawyer has good taste in antiques, and has done much browsing about in search of them. He knows the places in Worcester and the neighboring towns where those who like old furniture and have the money to pay for it may find what will delight their souls. So it was no more than natural when the professor sold his desk, which was of ancient design but of doubtful age, and began looking for something better, that he should consult the young lawyer. The man of law was delightfully sympathetic. "I saw just what you want the other day," he said, "but I'm afraid it's gone now. I'll keep my eye out for the next few days." "Well, if you see anything really good," said the professor, "buy it and hold it for me. It is not safe to let a bargain go too long. Only let me know as soon as you can, so that I won't be buying one, too. It would be a great favor." "Not at all," said the lawyer. "It's a pleasure to buy a good thing, even if you are not to keep it yourself." In a day or two the professor received a joyful note. The young lawyer's mother had found just what the professor wanted—a beauty, one of those rare old bits that they cannot counterfeit, and such a bargain, only $10. The professor was charmed. He immediately sent his check to the young lawyer with an enthusiastic note of thanks and a request to send up the desk. He was in the hall when it arrived. He tore off the sacking and inspected his prize. It was his old desk that he had sold a few days before for $8.50.—Worcester Gazette.

Alcoholism in France.

In a weighty paper just prepared for the French Bulletin Medical, Dr. Brunon, an eminent medical writer, declares that the greatest national peril hanging over France just now is alcoholism, and more than all, alcoholism among women. Singularly enough his researches have demonstrated that the women of picturesque Normandy are more completely in the grasp of the drink fiend than the women of any other province of France. Drink is sold by the grocer, the coal dealer—even by the green grocer; and what is still more fatal, nearly every shopkeeper dispenses "wee drops" to customers worth cultivating—just to steady the connection. The question assumes a dark aspect in its relation to the terrible infant mortality in Normandy, which Dr. Brunon attributes to the almost universal prevalence of chronic alcoholism among women of the peasant and artisan classes.—London Leader.

Adding Insult to Injury.

It was the first night of his comedy, and, although it had fallen rather flat, he had hopes. "What do you think of it?" he asked a friend who had just come out. "Oh, it's all right for the kind," returned the other, "but I don't think the public likes that sort of a play. It would rather have something to make it laugh." "Make it laugh!" roared the indignant playwright. "Yes," answered the other. "Next time you ought to try to write a tragedy."—Chicago Post.

Would Create a Demand.

A speculator, who had made a large fortune out of a medicine for a disease common among sheep, thought that a fine market for his patent would be found in Australia. He knew there was an enormous number of sheep in that country, so he sent out his son to open out this most promising connection. The young man wrote to his father as follows: "This is a splendid place. The sheep are as plentiful as reported, and I have no doubt we could do a glorious business if we had the chance. But before sending me out here you should have sent the sheep disease. They haven't got it, and, unless you can let me have a box of microbes, I had better come home."—Stray Stories.

"Such a Happy Remark."

Wife of Patient—"I'm so sorry, doctor, to bring you all the way to Hampstead to see my husband!" Doctor (from Mayfair)—"Pray don't mention it, my dear madam. I have another patient in this neighborhood, so I'm killing two birds with one stone."—London Punch.

Awful Threat.

Jones—"Are you going to pay me that account?" Smith—"Not just yet." Jones—"If you don't I'll tell all your creditors that you paid me!"—Brooklyn Life.

MISSING LINKS.

A paragraph is being much handed around to the effect that a flour mill at Warrensburg, Mo., ships its product to Kansas City in barrels, has it repacked in sacks, and employs a stranger to come to Warrensburg and sell it as hard wheat flour made in Kansas. It "goes like hot cakes," and has almost run the home product out of the market.

—

North and South are joined in the material of the national capitol. The central building is constructed of Virginia sandstone, painted white. The extensions are of Massachusetts marble, and twenty-four columns of the grand central portico are monoliths of Virginia sandstone thirty feet high, and one hundred columns of the extension porticos are of Maryland marble.

—

Girls who attend some of the women's colleges in England are wailing because they don't have enough to eat, and they don't like what they do have. The parents are adding their voices to the lament, because their daughters are driven by hunger to buy food outside the college, "the bills for this extra diet being an additional charge on the parental purse already taxed with high enough fees." This recalls the American college boy whose parents were puzzled in reading over his accounts by the persistent reappearance of the item "S. P. G." They appealed for an explanation, which was prompt and to the point. S. P. G. meant "Sundries, Principally Grub."—New York Sun.

—

Wichita is a typical "boom" town. Twelve years ago it had a population of 49,000. Today it has perhaps 25,000, which is a considerable recovery from low tide in 1895, when it had less than 19,000, according to estimates based upon the number of names in the directory. In 1886-8, before the boom broke, Wichita real estate was selling at New York prices, and they point out lots on the main street that sold for $2,500 a front foot for which the owners would now be glad to get $300 or $400. The real estate exchanges in New York in good times will reach about $32,000,000 a year; in Chicago, in 1892, just before the world's fair, the transfers, as shown by the recorder's books, were about $30,000,000, but at Wichita during the five months preceding the collapse in 1888, more than $35,000,000 in town lots changed hands.—Correspondence Chicago Record.

—

The sons and daughters of the princely families of Rome are said to have a pretty hard lot. They are generally very poor, yet they have to live in enormous houses and keep up a tradition of magnificence. The young men drive in dog carts which, according to rumor, are owned jointly by a dozen of them. The young women are to be seen driving on the Pincio, arrayed in stylish hats and coats, wearing good gloves and carrying pretty parasols. "And yet," says the English correspondent who is responsible for this gossip, "their distrait expression shows that they are uneasy in their minds. The particular form of guilt which burdens their souls is a dread that some one will invite them to descend and stroll about the bandstand, revealing the fact that their skirts are by no means so smart as their coats or waists, and their boots more open to criticism than their gloves."—New York Sun.

—

Two bustling advertising agents are trying their utmost to buy all the available space on each side of the Reading railway, from Philadelphia to Norristown, in order to display the merits of their numerous wares. Being backed by plenty of capital, they are enabled to offer tempting sums for the spaces desired. Farmers owning ground along the line are only too glad to get their old fences torn down and have high ones erected in their stead. They also receive a handsome sum per foot from the agents for the privilege of the advertisement. The agent makes up the cost in width by the height of the fence, which is sometimes twenty feet. It is apparently the purpose of the advertisers to have all the pretty landscape shut from the view of the passengers and instead to offer them a continuous panorama of patent medicines, pills, bicycles, biscuits, etc.—Philadelphia Record.

Spain's Golden Legend.

Senora Pardo-Bazan is lecturing in Paris on "The Spain of Today and the Spain of Tomorrow" for the purpose of rehabilitating her compatriots after their recent disasters. She attempts to refute the idea that Spanish decadence is due to religious fanaticism. It is not the "black legend" which has been the ruin of the country, but rather the "golden legend" of past national greatness. Under the influence of this mirage the people thought it quite sufficient for a minister to proclaim that "America would be shattered against the rampart of Spanish breasts" for this to become an accomplished fact. Much in the same spirit the nation clamored for the promotion of Lieut. Peral to the rank of admiral on the mere rumor that he had solved the problem of submarine navigation. But alas! this eminent inventor is now engaged in fitting telephones and electric bells. Don Quixote, in fact, is really the patron saint of the peninsula. But in spite of bourgeois apathy and the despotic rapacity of village politicians, Senora Pardo-Bazan contends that the heart of Spain is sound enough, and that the people and the leading statesmen are generous, honest and disinterested.—London Chronicle.

A Sure Sign.

"Charlie Youngpop's baby is beginning to talk now." "Has Charlie been boring you with stories about it?" "No. But I sat near him at the lunch counter today, and I heard him say, absent-mindedly, to the waiter girl: 'Dimme a jinky watter, please.'"—Catholic Standard and Times.

Mohammed and the Mountain.

"The prince of Wales tells me he will never again visit the United States," sighed Mr. Tody. "Is that so?" queried the imperialist. "Well, I don't see how he is going to keep out of it if we go on spreading."—Life.

In His Line.

The Conductor—I don't believe I got your fare, sir."

The Misnomer—Ah, brother; you will not allow me to lead you from the walks of the unbelievers.—Philadelphia North American.

PATENTS.

List of Patents Issued Last Week to Northwestern Inventors

John A. Anderson, Austin, Minn., bag holder; Samuel Desoe, Willow City, N. D.; hay rack; Fred O. Koke, Mankato, Minn., purifier and roller mill feeding machine; Charles W. Mallory, Flandreau, S. D., wire stitching machine; William Pepperling, Aitkin, Minn., steam engine; Joseph Torker, Brockway, Minn., clock winding indicator; Edwin C. Washburn, Minneapolis, Minn., bolt (design.)

Merwin, Lothrop & Johnson, Patent Attorneys, 910 Pioneer Press Bldg., St. Paul.

Dad's Way.

Teacher—One should be thoughtful in dispensing favors. For example, suppose your father, Johnnie, was in a crowded street car, and two ladies, one old and the other young, got in, which of them would he give the seat to?

Johnnie—Guess you don't know dad. He wouldn't give it to neither.—Boston Transcript.

—

There was a time, before dining cars became a fad, that the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road's "Queen City Hotel," at Cumberland, Md., was noted for its service and cuisine. In latter years, the reputation declined, as few travelers partook of sustenance at the long tables in the big dining room. But an effort is to be made to restore the reputation of the seventies and eighties, and the hostelry has been placed in charge of J. N. Shattuck, who has been Dining Car Superintendent of several big Western roads. Considerable money will be spent on the hotel, and it will again try for first-class patronage.

Absentminded.

Kibber (who has jostled a dignified gentleman)—Beg pardon, sir.

Justice Farleigh (rather absent-minded)—You will enter the motion in the customary way.—Boston Transcript.

—

Without constancy there is neither love, friendship nor virtue in the world.—Addison.

—

Many of our worst troubles are those which we expect but never happen.

—

It is wonderful how near conceit is to vanity.—Jerrold.

The Maid and the Miracle

Miss Lacy Tucker, the daughter of a prominent farmer of Versailles, Ind., was the victim of nervous prostration. Most of the time she was confined to bed, and was on the verge of St. Vitus' dance. It was a pitiful case which medical science failed to conquer. Finally a doctor prescribed Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Her father said:

"We began giving the pills at once, and the next day we could see a change for the better in her. We gave her one pill after each meal until she was entirely well. She has not been sick a day since. We think the cure almost miraculous.

FRANK TUCKER, MRS. F. TUCKER."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tucker, being duly sworn, state that the foregoing is true in every particular.

HUGH JOHNSON, Justice of the Peace.

From the Republican, Versailles, Ind.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are never sold by the dozen or hundred, but always in packages. At all druggists, or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., 50 cents per box, 6 boxes $2.50.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 46,970]

"I had female complaints so bad that it caused me to have hysterical fits; have had as many as nine in one day.

"Five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me and it has been a year since I had an attack.

Mrs. Edna Jackson, Pearl, La.

If Mrs. Pinkham's Compound will cure such severe cases as this surely it must be a great medicine—is there any sufferer foolish enough not to give it a trial?

At the School Board

Inspector—Now, can any of you children state what is likely to be the future of China?

One maiden (after a pause)—Please, sir father says China's like him.

Inspector—Like him? What do you mean?

The Maiden—Sure to be broken by the force of circumstances.

Class dismissed immediately.—Punch

Ball Bearings on the Farm.

It is probably a safe prediction that all manufacturers of harvesting machinery will eventually adopt ball bearings wherever it is possible to use them. In 1891 the Deering Harvester Company of Chicago equipped all their machines with ball and roller bearings, and the great popularity of the idea led other manufacturers to experiment with several styles of roller bearings, hoping to apply them to their machines without appearing to imitate the originators too closely. The application of ball bearings is more costly, but popular demand will yet force all competitors to follow the lead of the Deering Company.

Literally Speaking.

Mrs. Secondtrip—You are just the meanest man alive.

Mr. Secondtrip—Well, there is one consolation. I presume that I may infer that the late lamented was meaner than I am.—Indianapolis Journal.

Do Your Feet Ache and Burn?

Shake into your shoes, Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It makes tight and New Shoes feel Easy. Cures Corns, Bunions, Swollen, Hot and Sweating Feet. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Following the Precept.

Peacemaker—Why did you give that boy such a thrashing?

Juvenile Belligerent—He hit me with a brick.

Peacemaker—But don't you know you should return good for evil?

Juvenile Belligerent—Well, if I didn't soak 'im good, I don't know.—Harlem Life.

Read the Advertisements.

You will enjoy this publication much better if you will get into the habit of reading the advertisements; they will afford a most amusing study and will put you in the way of getting some excellent bargains. Our advertisers are reliable; they send what they advertise.

His Motto.

First Bunco Man—He seemed pretty shrewd. I didn't think you could do him so easily.

Second Bunko Man—Oh, you never know what you can do until you try.—Life.

—

A man who looks at only one side of a thing imagines every other man does the same.

Don't Stand in Your Own Light.

Perhaps you intend to buy a binder or a mower this summer, and it may be that you have concluded that a cheap machine will answer your purpose. This means that you are standing in your own light.

It's better to investigate. There are some things that you should think about before putting your dollars into so expensive a machine as a binder or a mower.

Here are Some Pertinent Facts. Think About Them.

Last season the sales of Deering harvesting machines were 50,000 greater than in any previous year.

The area of ground covered by the Deering works is 62 acres—twice as large as that of any other reaper plant.

6300 employes are engaged in turning out the Deering product for 1899—more than three times the number at work in any other reaper plant.

During the busy part of last season Deering machines were built at the rate of one every 27 seconds.

Don't stand in your own light. Think about these things; they mean something. They mean that Deering machines are the lightest in draft, the easiest to operate and the most reliable and durable grain and grass harvesters manufactured.

DEERING HARVESTER CO., - - Chicago.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE

DO YOU WANT A HOME?

60,000 ACRES OF GOOD FARMING LANDS IN WASHBURN AND BARRON COUNTIES, WISCONSIN, to be divided and sold at $3.00 to $6.00 PER ACRE.

Long time and easy payments to actual settlers. Come and see us or address,

W. H. BOURNE, Mgr., SHELL LAKE LUMBER CO., SHELL LAKE, WIS.

"A FAIR FACE MAY PROVE A FOUL BARGAIN." MARRY A PLAIN GIRL IF SHE USES SAPOLIO

Minnesota Historical Society

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR.

MINNE HIST SOC

VOLUME XVIII. ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY. JUNE 7, 1899. NUMBER 43

APPROVAL

OF THE PEOPLE FOR THE DEPARTMENTS OF THE LIND ADMINISTRATION.

A Word to Those Who Think Governor Lind Moves Slowly With Appointments. Difficulties Encountered—More Recognition of the Press—G. O. P. Politics and Pointers—Dromios. Le Graft and Moses Land Opportunities for Mutual Contemplation—When Johnny Goodnow Comes "Marching Home"—G. O. P. Boorsan Still at It—Minnesota Old Soldiers Revolt Against the McKinley Pension Policy—How Professor Laughlin Crushed the Expansionists With a Lincoln Quotation.

Reform Press Bureau.
ST. PAUL, May 29, 1899.

Warm words of approval for his efforts for good government for this fair state constantly reach Governor Lind, and no doubt encourage him in the arduous labors which confront him daily. As a specimen, testifying to the results attained by the dairy and food department under the administration of Major J. M. Bowler and his excellent corps, as now completely organized, the following, which is but one of numerous approvals of the department, is well deserving of a reading throughout the state. It is from one of the large Twin City commission houses, the co-operation of which, so cordially pledged, will be gladly received. The letter, addressed to Governor Lind, is as follows:

MINNEAPOLIS, May 20, 1899.

Hon. John Lind, Governor, St. Paul:

DEAR SIR—We desire to express to you our appreciation of the work of the State Dairy Commission in this city during the past few months, and sincerely trust this work may be extended over the entire northern part of the state.

We are satisfied artificial butter is being used illegally in the lumber and mining camps and in many of the restaurants and hotels of our state to the great injury of our dairy interests.

We notice that through the active work of the commission a large number have recently pleaded guilty to the infringement of the oleo law right here in Minneapolis, and we can assure you that the produce commission men of our city are in hearty sympathy with the efforts of the State Dairy Commission to protect the dairy interests of our state.

We shall be glad to aid the commission in any possible way, and beg to remain,

Very sincerely,
LONGFELLOW BROS. CO.,
per L. Longfellow, Pres.

Wonder by what means those people who think that Governor Lind goes slow with appointments, can be made to comprehend the almost insurmountable obstacles encountered at almost every step of the administration. Will not these remember that every single board in the state was under Republican control, as all have been over since their creation. Scarcely an appointment under any board is made by the governor but by the board itself. Thus, in the grain department, where a clean sweep has been clamored for, regardless of the interests of the service, the governor has not the making of a single appointment, but the board makes every one. Under the law appointments to the board positions can only be made as terms expire, the law maintaining the same relative proportion as between the political parties as heretofore prevailed, and the change from Republican to Reform control being impossible except as terms expire, even if the governor were inclined to radical action, which he would not be, because he is at all times actuated by his conscientious convictions of the needs of the public service. The state's interests are at all times paramount to those of the individual.

Nor can it be known what is the condition of the several boards until such control is obtained. As fast as the inside has been learned, however, almost without exception, deep and flagrant wrongs have been discovered, to the remedy of which the people may be sure proper efforts are directed. But here again it depends on the boards and, as in the case of the St. Cloud Reformatory, if the board fails to act on the Governor's earnest demands, what can be done but wait? In that case the supposed reform majority refused to remove Superintendent Houlton, although the proofs were piled high that he had used his office for personal benefit and been guilty of cruelty and inefficiency. There was proof that the Superintendent sold numerous bills of lumber in the name of his foreman; that he used the institution funds to carry on his bank at Elk River, and that he schemed to sell land owned by his family to the state at a big figure, and the like. But Houlton still holds on and is likely to, unless there is a public sentiment aroused throughout the state which can move the board which he continues to control. And yet supposedly well informed persons are to be heard asking why Lind don't "put that man Houlton out."

When people hear such comments, or feel inclined to make them, let them consider the situation, as to the boards and the departments where the "enemy" is still entrenched, and then such as honestly desire reform throughout the state, and the appointment of men of that policy, go out and kick themselves for not having voted to change each and every department, and promise to do so the next time.

Apropos of numerous references by the state press of the operations of shyster storm, hail and other bogus insurance "companies," we see frequent words of approval of the efficiency of the Insurance Department as conducted by Commissioner O'Shaughnessy.

Those who are worried at the status of Colonel Ames, Lieutenant Colonel Friedrich or other officers or interests of the Thirteenth regiment need not tear their summer clothing. Governor Lind and Adjutant General Lambert will see all properly protected.

In some recent appointments Governor Lind has recognized the ability and public services of some well known newspaper men. In the appointment of Swan J. Turnblad of The Swenska Amerikanska Posten to the Reformatory Board an able business man was secured, and recognition given to the powerful Swedish newspaper which is now being sought for in all parts of the country for extending this work in the interest of the common people. Senator Pettigrew, while here recently, made arrangements for extension of The Posten in South Dakota. Another able editor and business man to be called to the Governor's staff for good government is Ed O'Brien of the Minneapolis Irish Standard, who will succeed Chief Weighmaster C. M. Reese June 15.

Thanks to G. O. P. Managers Merriam and Bixby, those two Minnesota Dromios of Has Beens, ex-Labor Commissioner Powers and ex-Examiner Kenyon have gotten upon Uncle Sam's payroll. When these meet in the census and the Cherokee Indian huslings how they will slobber over each other in contemplation of their mutual public worthlessness compared with their success in keeping engrafted upon the body politic. They make me think of two mean, stingy, uncharitable church elders down East, Brothers Waite and Meacham. On one prayer meeting occasion on their knees they had made their usual responses to the sentiments of others, in suppressed groans and deep sighs; each had prayed long and fervently. At the conclusion both raised their heads, commencing to rise, when Elder Waite, looking at the other over his spectacles, said with great solemnity: "Brother Meacham, ah! you and I can make a tol-ler-a-ble good prayer without and par-tic-u-lar assistance from the Lard! M-mm-m-m-m!"

To which Brother Meacham responded: "Yea, brother, bless the Lard! M-m-m-m-m-m-m!"

When Johnny Goodnow comes marching home from Shanghai, watch the fellows who abused him and said "good riddance" when he went away run to cover. Goodnow means Hanna, and he may run the 1900 campaign in Minnesota, he and Bixby, managing the Merriam census corps of G. O. P. strikers.

The Republican Press Bureau informs the dear people that the "few tone Democrats who hope to make a campaign cry out of anti-expansion will find themselves among the insignificant minority." Beside which we will place the prediction that the Administration policy responsible for the seizure of the Philippines and the stifling of the spirit of human liberty there, will be utterly and completely repudiated in 1900.

That bureau also notes that the anti-trust law passed by the late Republican legislature "has attracted a good deal of attention." It does not appear to have attracted sufficient "attention" to lead to any moves by the Republican state attorney general or other Republican officials to enforce it.

And that bureau finds great comfort in the recent article in the Minneapolis Times which made some strictures upon Governor Lind, referring to the paper as "the always Democratic Times." The Times "always Democratic." Don't that jar you?

The hunt for a Republican "elligible" for Governor, is simply amusing. "Some one who can beat Lind," is the standing pattern. Heatwole, Clapp, Van Sant, Evans, Morris, Eustis—yes Eustis, Eddy, Tawney, Collins, and last but by no means least, ex-Governor McGill, have one after another been passed in review with varying degrees of doubt and indecision. The idea that it better be an "old soldier" has aided Collins, but there is the warm feeling for Van Sant in the way, and besides, another thing to be considered is that the number of "old soldiers" who approve their old party's administration are becoming beautifully less.

A very patent fact is that the "old soldier," besides having learned a good lesson on the value of political independence, is on the edge of open, bitter and uncompromising revolt against the McKinley administration, on account of conduct of his pension department. This feeling is more bitter, it is stated on the inside, than it was in the worst days of the Cleveland administration, and the veterans didn't do a thing to Cleveland.

When your imperialist neighbor who defends the new colonial policy of conquest and imperialism, with all that the terms involve, tells you of the eminent divines, like Dr. Henson of Chicago who recently declared that there "was never a greater falsehood palmed off by the devil than that all governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed," please ask him to read the following from the writings of Abraham Lincoln:

"No man is good enough to govern another man without the other's consent. When the white man governs himself that is self government; but when he governs himself and also governs another man, that is more than self government—that is depotism. Our reliance is in the love of liberty which God has planted within us; our defense is in the spirit which prizes liberty as the heritage of all men, in all lands, everywhere. Those who deny freedom to others deserve it not for themselves, and under a just God cannot long retain it."

This extract was most crushingly used in Chicago by Professor Laughlin, who was invited to take dinner with some imperialistic friends. While the discussion was under way Professor L., who has taken so righteous a stand on this question as to redeem himself from his despicable course in 1896, quietly passed the extract around for his expansionist friends to read, and their faces, it is said, were a study; and, moreover, no one has answered, and none can, the noble sentiment in its application to the question of the hour.

G. S. C.

FIGHTING RENEWED

PENINSULA OF MORONG TO BE SWEPT OF INSURGENTS.

An Aggressive Campaign Being Conducted by Gen. Lawton—Several Battles Are Fought, In One of Which Four Americans Are Killed, and Several Are Wounded In Other Brushes With the Enemy—Gen. Hall Enters the Great Stronghold at Antipolo and Finds It Deserted.

Manila, June 5.—The position of the American troops last night indicated that they would to-day sweep the peninsula of Morong, the land projecting to the south into Laguna de Bay, where the insurgents are supposed to have a large force near the town of Morong, as well as the battery on the western shore of the peninsula, which recently smashed the propeller of the gunboat Napidan.

Gen. Hall is marching from Antipolo, about six and a half miles northwest of Morong, toward the peninsula, with his forces spread out to cover a large section. Col. Truman, with the First North Dakota regiment and the Twelfth infantry is advancing along the coast of the lake from Taytay, incidentally clearing several small towns. Col. Wholley, with the First Washington regiment, has landed on the peninsula above the town of Morong. The army gunboats Napidan, Covadonga and Ceste are in a position to co-operate. The original plan was to surround the forces of Gen. Pio del Pilar so that he to the Morong peninsula, where capture would have been inevitable. This was not a complete success because Gen. Hall's column found the country full of dumbfongs to marching. Most of Gen. Pio del Pilar's followers are supposed to have escaped northward, probably reaching Bozoboso, a stronghold in the mountains. Col. Wholley, having successfully completed his share of the movement, brought the Washington regiment to the River Pasig, where last night, about midnight, the men started for the island under cover of the gunboats. They encountered a portion of the experience undergone by almost every expedition on attempting to enter Laguna de Bay, as the boats went aground in the shallows at the mouth of the river and were detained there several hours. Maj. Gen. Lawton, in the meantime was indefatigable, riding from one force to the other and supervising the loading of the cascos, without sleep for two nights. Gen. Hall's column in the movement on the Morong peninsula,

Must Retreat

Completed a Circuit

of twenty miles over rough and mountainous country, having two engagements with the insurgents, one of them severe, and kept up with scattered bands of insurgents for nearly twenty-four hours. The Filipinos were driven in every direction, and the country through which Gen Hall passed was pretty well cleared. At 10 o'clock yesterday morning the column reached a point a few miles from Taytay, where Gen. Hall was met by Gen. Lawton, who had already entered the town and found it deserted, then, Hall's objective point was Antipolo, ten miles off, and there was desultory firing all along the line of march. The gunboats could be heard shelling the hills in advance of the column. The column, after driving the rebels from the foothills near Mayhi Chino about noon with the loss of but two or three slightly wounded, proceeded with all possible haste toward Laguna de Bay, the Fourth cavalry in the lead; the Oregon regiment next and the Fourth infantry last. At 5 o'clock those three regiments fought of the day, and it resulted like the first, in a complete rout of a large Filipino force located in the mountains and having every advantage of position. In the fight the American losses were four killed, three of the Fourth cavalry and one Oregonian, and about fifteen wounded. The Filipino loss could not be ascertained, but the terrific fire which the Americans poured into them for half an hour must have inflicted severe punishment. In this engagement our troops made one of the most gallant charges of the war and the enemy was forced to flee in the greatest disorder. It was the intention to press on to Antipolo Saturday night, but this was found impossible owing to the two fights and the constant marching for more than twelve hours with nothing to eat since morning and no supply train in sight.

Their Second Battle

Antipolo Deserted.

The forces, after camping for the night, started at 5 o'clock in the morning for Antipolo, where it was expected a strong resistance would be made. Antipolo is a place far up in the mountains, which the Spaniards had said the Americans could never capture. It cost Spain the lives of 300 troops. The progress of the column was considerably delayed while rushing up the steep mountainside by a small band of insurgents, but these were effectively routed by the Fourth cavalry, which was in advance, and the troops arrived at Antipolo in a few hours. Our troops were immediately thrown around on three sides of the town and the final advance was made. But it was found unnecessary to fire a shot. Not a rebel was visible, and the town was entirely abandoned. Two hours later, after a conference between Gen. Lawton and Gen. Hall, the column proceeded toward Morong to drive away any rebels found in that quarter.

New Hammer Throwing Record.

New York, June 5.—John Flanagan, world's champion hammer-thrower, wearing the New York Athletic club colors, won new fame by throwing a hammer 164 feet 10 inches, and making a new record. He was the star attraction in the field games of the Hollywood Inn club at Yonkers.

Sail for Spain.

Madrid, June 5. — A dispatch from Manila indicates that Gen. Rios, with the remainder of the Spanish troops, has sailed for Spain.

ROBINSON IS NOW MAJOR.

Gov. Lind Commissions Him to Succeed Diggles.

St. Paul, June 5.— Capt. Noyes C. Robinson has been commissioned major of the Thirteenth regiment by Gov. Lind, vice Diggles, deceased. Capt. Robinson has been commander of Company C from its mustering in, and has been in command of the battalion part of the time, and has a bullet mark on him. Maj. Masterman's appointment still hangs. Gov. Lind has received an intimation from the war department that they will "adhere to their former ruling." The governor differs. "There is no warrant in law for such a ruling," he says. "The regiment is entitled to three majors. I have issued the commission to Maj. Masterman, and the war department will recognize it."

LOST IN THE CLOUDS.

Over a Score of Indians Drowned in a Canadian Lake.

Laggan, Alberta, June 5.—Between twenty-five and thirty Indians, including men, women and children, were drowned in the Lake of Clouds, near the Canadian Pacific railway, while crossing to the reservation to attend a potlatch. They were traveling in boats rudely manufactured of cariboo skins, when the long boats collided. Both vessels were rendered useless and the entire party was lost. A third vessel bearing skins of deer, bear cariboo, mountain sheep and goats and manned by four Indians, reached the spot as the last survivor slipped from the capsized boat and disappeared in the glacier-fed waters of the lake. Dense clouds were resting over the surface of the lake and were responsible for the accident.

CRUSHED BY AN ENGINE.

Frank Morrissey Crosses in Front of a Locomotive and Is Killed.

St. Paul, June 5. — A fatal accident happened on the Omaha railroad track at Hamilton, 10 miles west of Mendota. Frank Morrissey, a laborer, was run down by a locomotive, and he was so severely injured that he died on the way to the hospital. It is said that Morrissey was crossing the tracks and did not see the engine approaching. Little is known of the dead man. He was about thirty-five years old.

Freak of Lake Michigan.

Sheboygan, Wis., June 5.—Capt. Nequette, of the Sheboygan life saving station, says that Saturday night Lake Michigan rose three feet, that it was a tidewater, heavy sea or swell; that it retained half an hour and then receded. There was little sea at the time, he says, and land around the station where there is water when big storms come, was covered.

Dickinson Brickmaking.

Dickinson, N. D., June 5.—The Dickinson Fire and Pressed Brick works has burned two test kilns and are now constructing four improved "flood up and down draft" kilns of 137,000 capacity each. The amount of fire brick used in the construction of one of these kilns is ten cars, and the company is molding and burning all of this material at their own yards. Each kiln will also contain a car load of iron.

Ministers Are Sued.

Lead, S. D., June 5.—Four ministers of this city have been sued for $5,000 damages by the manager of a troupe of travelling minstrels. Recently the troupe was billed for an entertainment here, when four pastors of leading churches secured an injunction prohibiting the performance. The manager claims his reputation has been damaged $5,000 worth, which sum he seeks to recover through the courts.

Death of a Tramp.

Baraboo, Wis., June 5.—A destructive railroad wreck occurred on the Northwestern road at Lodi, in which fourteen freight cars were demolished and three tramps injured, one of whom will die. The train crew escaped.

Died at Cavite.

Rapid City, S. D., June 5. — The remains of private J. W. Whitman, Company M, have arrived in this city. He died soon after the regiment arrived at Cavite of quick consumption. His parents live at Boyd, Wyo.

Christian Science Roasted.

Milwaukee, June 5.—The Wisconsin district of the German Evangelical Synod of North America, in session here, adopted resolutions scoring Christian Science. It is declared to be unchristian and unbiblical.

Troops Leave Fort Meade.

Fort Meade, S. D., June 5. — Troop M, First cavalry, stationed at this fort, have gone to Yellowstone Park to do guard duty. Two troops of the Fourth cavalry, now at the park, will soon be transferred to Manila.

Train Robbers Captured.

Cheyenne, Wyo., June 5.—A report from Union Pacific sources is to the effect that the Albany county sheriffs and posse have captured three of the train robbers and that one of them has made a confession.

Amateur Talent.

Fox Lake, Wis., June 5. — Burglars broke into the Milwaukee depot here with tools they got from the carhouse. They got change to the amount of $1.98. No clue, but amateur talent is suspected.

Twelve Hundred Sheep Drowned.

Mandan, N. D., June 5.—During the heavy rains here the last twenty-four hours a band of 1,200 sheep belonging to A. Linterman, were drowned. Loss, $5,000. Other minor losses have been reported.

Accountant Absconds.

Ottawa, Ont., June 5. — John H. Henderson, accountant of the Union bank, who disappeared Monday last, is reported by the inspector of the bank to have absconded with $25,000. He is supposed to have gone to Mexico.

Hottest of the Season.

Milwaukee, June 5.—Yesterday was the hottest of the season, the official record showing 90 degrees. Other thermometers registered as high as 95 degrees. Two prostrations were reported. Neither will prove fatal.

LOUBET INSULTED

VIOLENT DEMONSTRATION AGAINST THE FRENCH PRESIDENT.

Evidently a Plot to Get Rid of the Chief Executive—Organized and Directed by the League of Patriots—Count Christiano Makes a Violent Assault Upon the President With a Cane, but is Prevented From Doing More Damage Than Smashing the President's Hat—Many Arrests Made.

Paris, June 5.—President Loubet, accompanied by the premier, M. Dupuy, and the chief of the military household, Gen. McBailloud, drove to the Auteuil races yesterday afternoon, closely followed by Mme. Loubet in a second landau. As they drove along the Avenue des Champs-Elysees, the crowd bowed respectfully, but on arriving at Auteuil they were met by a violent demonstration, evidently organized and directed against the president. There was a storm of hoots, yells and cries of "Panama," "A bas Loubet," and "Vive l'armee." A few shouts of "Vive Loubet" were drowned in the clamor. During the second race the clamor increased to violence and was plainly directed by a committee of the League of Patriots, collected with their supporters before and behind the presidential stand, around which a formidable affray proceeded. During the grand steeplechase many blows were struck and several policemen were injured in their endeavors to prevent an invasion of the presidential stand.

Assaulted the President.

At the crisis of the excitement, while shouts of "Vive l'armee" and "Vive de Roulede" were heard on all sides, Count Christiano rushed toward the president, brandishing a stick and directed a blow at him, striking his hat. The crowd rushed upon Christiano, who only escaped severe handling by being taken under police protection. President Loubet remained all the while quite unmoved, taking in the disorder, while the members of his military household were defending him against violence. Finally after thirty arrests had been made the prefect of police ordered the Republican guards to surround the presidential stand. It seems certain that the demonstration was organized by the Jeunesse Royaliste and the League des Patriotes and the anti-Semites, the rallying sign being a carnation in the buttonhole. Count Christiano is a member of the Steeplechase society, a very select body, and his conduct has produced the greatest excitement. A special cabinet council was summoned at 9 o'clock in the evening to Consider the Situation, and important measures were concocted to be submitted to the president and council to-day for the preservation of order. The ministers, who were in session until 11 o'clock, maintain strict reserve as to the nature of these measures, but a semi-official note has been issued which says:

"The government will act with the greatest energy and will impose respect for the president and for the state."

Altogether about 130 arrests were made. Demonstrations and counter demonstrations continued until M. Loubet left the race course at 5:20 p. m., the arrival of his carriage being the signal for an indescribable tumult. The mounted guards with difficulty opened a passage through the crowd, the president being pursued to the last with hoots and yells. Even eggs were thrown. It was noteworthy, however, that the people generally cheered him loudly, the cheers increasing as he drove toward the Elysee, which he reached safely at 4:45. During the demonstration a number of hats labelled "Resignation," were picked up.

WAS PREMEDITATED.

New Light on the Burning of the Negro Sam Hose.

Chicago, June 5.—When the negro Hose was burned by a mob at Newnan, Ga., prominent colored people of Chicago raised a fund and sent a local detective named Levin to investigate all the circumstances. He reported at a meeting held at Bethel church that the Burning of Hose was fully premeditated and was openly advocated by many of the leading men in the community as an example to the colored people. He said he learned positively that while Hose actually killed Cranford, Mrs. Cranford had admitted that the negro did not molest her in any way.

One of the most astonishing charges made in his report is that the railroad officials who made up the special train for the lynching party after the capture of Hose actually advertised the contemplated burning and sold tickets to people attracted by these advertisements. Detective Levin said that the torture and hanging of the aged colored preacher Elijah Strickland was without a shadow of reason.

SMALLPOX IN A SCHOOL.

Said to Have Been Brought From the Dakotas.

Carlisle, Pa., June 5. — Maj. H. R. Pratt, superintendent of the Indian school, said that there were in the school hospital several cases of varioloid, which are under strict quarantine. Thomas Marshall, one of the pupils, died recently of smallpox, which was communicated to him, it is believed, through a letter from his home in the Dakotas, where his brother and sister both succumbed to the disease.

Two Men Killed.

Newark, Ohio, June 5.—Harry Jones, aged twenty, and Andrew Haines, aged twenty-six, were killed at the Panhandle crossing one mile east of here. The train struck the buggy, dashing it to atoms.

Another Try at the Paris.

London, June 3.—The American line steamship Paris has been handed over to the underwriters and salvagers, who are preparing to make another attempt to float her. There has been no change in her position.

MIDNIGHT CONFERENCE.

Mysterious Meeting Between Mr. Meiklejohn, Gen. Corbin and the President.

Washington, June 5. — Mr. Meiklejohn and Gen. Corbin were with the president about half an hour, leaving shortly before 1 o'clock. The lateness of the meeting attracted more than usual attention as there has been no recent occasion for late conferences. Upon return to his hotel Mr. Meiklejohn said in response to all inquiries that there was nothing to make public, and that the subject under consideration was not of serious character.

SCHLEY HONORED.

The Popular Admiral Receives an Ovation in Chicago.

Chicago, June 5. — Rear Admiral W. S. Schley, accompanied by his wife, arrived in Chicago Saturday from Omaha. A body of Chicago naval reserves who fought at Santiago, a committee from the Loyal Legion and a multitude of citizens welcomed him at the station. The party received an ovation all along the route from the station to the Palmer house, where an informal breakfast was served. In the evening the admiral dined at the Chicago Athletic club, as the guest of the Hamilton club, and later held an informal reception at the Hamilton club. He left last evening for Washington. During his stay here Admiral Schley was attended by a guard of honor of the naval reserves, consisting of seamen who served on the Maria Teresa after she was raised.

PRESS CENSOR.

Gen. Brooke Orders One for Santiago de Cuba.

Santiago, Cuba, June 5.—In view of the continued publication of inflammatory editorials in the local press Gov. Gen. Brooke has issued an order directing the appointment of a press censor for Santiago. The editors are indignant but the public generally is pleased. The seditious articles have not been in any sense an exercise of the general opinion. Several anonymous letters have been received by the United States military officials here threatening an uprising at any time unless certain concessions, equally preposterous are granted. One of these communications names June 20 as the date fixed for an uprising.

FOR PORTO RICO.

Scheme of Municipal Government Is Being Prepared.

Washington, June 5.—By direction of the president the insular commission, which submitted its report a few days ago, is drafting a scheme of municipal government for Porto Rico and a new system of taxation for the island. A member of the commission says that, judging from his observation of the inhabitants of Porto Rico, they were not yet fit for self-government.

HENDERSON HAS ENOUGH.

Pledges Already Received Give a Majority.

Chicago, June 5.—The Record says: "Congressman David B. Henderson of Iowa yesterday received enough pledges by telegraph and mail to give him 102 votes in the Republican caucus when it meets in Washington. As 93 votes constitutes a majority of the Republicans represented in the house, Col. Henderson has nine to the good and more states to hear from."

MILITIA ORDERED OUT.

Lawless Band Threatens Trouble in Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., June 5.—A telephone message to the Constitution says the Griffin Rifles were ordered out at midnight by the governor to guard the jail, the sheriff having telegraphed him that the "Regulators," a lawless band, were assembling to attempt the rescue of five of their gang who are in jail awaiting trial.

Dewey Home Fund Growing.

Washington, June 5.—A meeting of the Dewey home fund committee was held Saturday. It was decided to raise the subscription of $100,000, and there was no manifestation of discouragement because the fund has grown slowly. The amount in the hands of Treasurer Roberts is close to $6,000. The committee received notice from a New York newspaper that it has about $5,000 in hand which will soon be forwarded. This makes a total of $11,000 now in sight, with innumerable agencies yet to hear from.

Discloses a Conspiracy.

Hillsboro, N. Mex., June 5. — Capt. George Curry, formerly sheriff of Lincoln county, discloses a conspiracy to commit four murders, one that of Col. Fountain. He simply says: "If the court will admit my evidence I can tell who planned the killing and who vainly lay in wait for Col. Fountain once before he was killed." He does not implicate Lee and Gillett, who are now being tried for the murder of Col. Fountain and his son.

Three Were Rejected.

West Point, N. Y., June 5.—Three of the fifty-five candidates examined physically for admission to the military academy were rejected, including Merritt, at large. Young Merritt, who is a nephew of Gen. Wesley Merritt, was rejected on account of his eyes, but will probably be given another examination later on.

Suicide or Accident?

Chicago, June 5. — M. R. Mandelbaum, chief deputy coroner of Cook county, was found dying in his bedroom last night. A revolver lay at his side and a bullet had passed through his head. It is not known whether the case was one of suicide or accident. There was no apparent reason why he should have killed himself.

Died From Fright.

Zanesville, Ohio, June 5.—The most terrific storm for many years raged here. Mrs. Baum, aged 70 years, died from fright caused by the storm and more than twenty places were struck by lightning in the city.

Don't Think Much of It.

Berlin, June 5.—The general tone of the press in commenting upon the acquisition Caroline, Marianne and Palaos islands from Spain is in the direction of belittling the value of the concession.

JUSTICE IS SECURED

COURT OF CASSATION GIVES DREYFUS A NEW TRIAL.

French Man-of-War Ordered to Devil's Island to Bring Dreyfus to France—His Military Right and Title Restored to Him by the Decision of the Court—Will Be Lodged in Prison at Rennes—Court of Cassation Was Unanimous for Revision.

Paris, June 5. — The court of cassation Saturday rendered a verdict in favor of a revision of the Dreyfus case, and ordering a new court-martial to sit at Rennes, sixty miles from Nantes, for the trial of the prisoner.

Previous to the announcement of the verdict crowds of people assembled at the palace of justice and in its neighborhood, awaiting the decision. Perfect calm prevailed. The decision, which was pronounced at 3:40 p. m., says the prisoner is to be re-tried on the following question:

"Is Dreyfus guilty of having practiced, in 1894, machinations or having had communication with a foreign power, or its agents, with a view of facilitating acts of hostilities in case of war with France, or having furnished the means therefor by furnishing notes of documents retraced on the bordereau?"

The audience received the decision with cries of "Vive la Justice," "Vive la loi."

The cabinet council yesterday morning decided that the French third-class cruiser Sfax, now at Fort de France, Martinique, should proceed immediately and bring Dreyfus from the Isle of Devils to France. The cruiser is expected to arrive at Brest about June 16, when Dreyfus will be handed to the military authorities and lodged in the military prison at Rennes. His conviction having been annulled by the united court of cassation, his military rank and title are restored to him. He will occupy an officer's cabin on board the Sfax and will be allowed on deck from 1 to 4 o'clock every afternoon. It is pointed out that the court of cassation voted unanimously for revision and only debated the manner under which it should be carried out.

BLIND MAN MURDERS.

Frightful Crime by a Councilman Growing Out of Jealousy.

Uniontown, Pa., June 5. — Mrs. Minerva Monaghan was murdered in her home here shortly after midnight while trying to protect her daughter, Mrs. Gertrude McCoogan, from the attacks of Councilman McCormick. McCormick, who is blind, has been paying attentions to Mrs. McCoogan, and late last night found her in the company of a young man named Diffendorfer. This so enraged him that he assaulted her with a water pitcher. Mrs. Monaghan, her mother, came to her rescue and McCormick drew a knife and cut her throat. He then fled, but was later arrested at his home. Mrs. McCoogan was not seriously injured. Young Diffendorfer is under arrest and will be held as a witness.

CLOUDBURST IN CALIFORNIA.

Growing Crops Ruined and Many Buildings Damaged.

Redding, Cal., June 5.—As a result of the cloudburst in the southwestern part of Shasta county Duckett creek, ordinarily a placid stream, was transformed into a raging torrent, overflowed its banks and submerged all the adjoining lowlands. The water flowed over many acres of land which had been under cultivation, ruining the growing crops and washing away outbuildings and fences. An entire band of sheep was swept from the pasture field and drowned. Duckett creek, South Fork creek, Clear creek and other streams are now at the maximum height of the rainy season.

KILLED IN A STORM.

Fierce Tempest Is General Throughout Kansas.

Kansas City, June 5. — Two people were killed and two others were injured in a fierce storm general throughout Kansas last night. A deluge of rain amounting to nearly four inches was followed by a wind storm approaching the proportions of a tornado. Near Valley Center Mrs. William Thompson, sixty years of age, was struck by lightning and killed, and eleven miles northeast of Stafford G. W. Ritter was killed and two of his family were injured, their house being blown away. At Pratt the Santa Fe roundhouse was leveled and several barns and outhouses demolished.

EARTHQUAKES THICK.

Forty-Five Occur in Five Hours in the West Indies.

Kingston, Jam., June 5. — Advices from the island of Monsterrat, one of the British West Indies, report that forty-five earthquakes occurred in five hours on May 17, and that these were followed by frequent isolated shocks. Much damage was done to buildings, trees and growing crops. The population, the advices say, is demoralized.

Arbitration Conference.

Mohonk Lake, N. Y., June 5. — The session of the arbitration conference was addressed by Gen. O. O. Howard and Gen. Wagner Swayne, who insisted upon the necessity of war sometimes. Rev. Dr. T. L. Cuyler made an impassioned address, deprecating and denouncing the war spirit and extolling the blessings of peace. With an address by Gen. H. Wilson and the concluding address by Dr. E. E. Hale the conference adjourned.

Killed in a Railway Accident.

The Hague, June 5. — Miss Roth, daughter of Dr. S. Roth, Swiss minister at the court of Berlin, and chief of the Swiss delegation to the peace conference, was killed in a railway accident at Itusbing.

The Gathering Woodmen.

Kansas City, June 5.—Mayor Jones has issued a proclamation declaring Thursday a public holiday in honor of the annual convention of Modern Woodmen of America, which opens here to-day.

Bank of St. Hilaire.

HANNAY & CO., Bankers.

Real Estate Loans.
Chattel Loans.
Foreign & Domestic Xchange
INSURANCE.
Collections a Specialty.

A General Banking Business Transacted.

St. Hilaire, Minn.

Livery and Feed Stable!

DAN PATERSON, Prop.

Dray in Connection.

The finest equipped turnouts in the northwest. Safe drivers and furnished at a moment's notice at reasonable rates. Don't forget the place

BIG - RED - BARN

Located on the east side of Broadway nearly opposite Ramp & Post's Store

ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Says a modest exchange: There is a little matter which some of our Subscribers have seemingly forgotten—Some of them made us promises, but have not kept them. With us it is a very important matter—it's necessary in our business. We are very modest and don't like to speak about it.

GET YOUR PICTURE
TAKEN BY
D. COLLINS
THE
Photograper.
ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

Improved Farms.

K. O. GIGSTAD has a large list of Improved Farms for sale. Also agent for the best fire and cyclone insurance company. Sick and accident insurance Co., and hail insurance.

Money to loan on improved farms at low interest. All collections are promptly attended to.

NOTARY PUBLIC.

Office east of the city well.

ST. HILAIRE, - MINNESOTA.

DAY F. STACY, C. E.
DEPUTY
County Surveyor.
RED LAKE FALLS. MINN.
Drainage and Farm Surveys a Specialty

"Money to patent good ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, The Patent Record Baltimore, Md." 37

FIRE INSURANCE

DO YOU NEED SOME?

The Best is the Cheapest.

I have nine of the best companies doing business in the State

Call for rates.

H. E. IVES.

CUSTOM WORK.

JUST LOOK AT THESE PRICES:

Roll Carding—per pound........5 cts
Spinning Single Yarn—per pound........15 c
Stocking Yarn—2 or 3 ply, per pound........20 c

LITCHFIELD WOOLEN MILLS.
LITCHFIELD. MINN.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

The Spectator.

IVES & SOLL, Publishers.
JOHN J. SOLL, Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at St. Hilaire, Minn., as second-class mail matter.

Published every Wednesday at St. Hilaire, Red Lake County, Minn.

TERMS:—$1.50 Per Year in Advance.

Subscribers should notify the publisher on or before expiration of subscription if discontinuance is desired. Otherwise paper will be continued.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 7, 1899.

A Famous Poison Mystery.

England had a famous poison mystery a quarter of a century ago. Two members of a great club in Manchester, both men of position and keen politicians, each received, apparently as a New Year's gift, small boxes containing a few cigars of the very highest quality apparently. Both were taken fearfully ill after smoking, and one of them subsequently died.

The cigars were found to be loaded with poison, and it was said that the man who recovered only did so because he used a cigar holder. The facts were at first hushed up, because, as was said, the suspected sender, whose motive was revenge on account of a lady, was a man of wealth and power.

But this subject was cleared, and the mystery was deepened by the following circumstances: A rich Manchester merchant, traveling one day in a railway car about the time of the incident related, got into conversation with a most agreeably and highly cultivated stranger, who finally offered his cigar case. The Manchester man was found at Leeds almost unconscious and the only occupant of the carriage. He grasped in one of his convulsed hands the cigar he had been smoking and after analysis showed it to be identical with the others. He recovered, but the stranger was never discovered.

A Bad Place For Fat Men.

Among the ancient Spartans everything was considered secondary to military efficiency, and with a view to securing this the boys and men were by law kept in a continual state of "training." No deformed child was allowed to live. The boys were taken from their homes and subjected to military regulations at the age of 7. They were compelled to wear the same single garment winter and summer. At 20 they joined the ranks, and from that age till they reached 60 were required to dine at the public tables, where only a certain quantity was supplied for each man. The magistrates interfered in absurdly small matters. They regulated the degree of fatness to which it was lawful for any citizen to extend his body.

Those who dared to grow too fat or too soft for military service and exercise were sometimes soundly flogged. Aelian, in his history, relates that Nauclis, son of Polytus, was brought before the ephors (magistrates) and the whole assembly of Sparta, and "his unlawful fatness" was publicly exposed, and he was threatened with perpetual banishment if he did not bring his body within the regular Spartan compass and give up the culpable mode of living, which was declared to be more worthy of an Ionian than a Spartan."

Reed and Strout.

Thomas B. Reed served in the navy during the civil war, and in 1865 he returned to Portland to practice law.

As a young lawyer he displayed the same qualities of ability and aggressiveness which have been a conspicuous characteristic of his political life. One of the strongest men at the Portland bar at the time was A. A. Strout.

Before beginning the trial of a suit it was Strout's habit to inquire of every juror as to the state of his health and impress each with the idea that the lawyer was solicitous of that juror's personal welfare.

Reed and Strout were constantly antagonizing each other, though they were very good friends. In nearly every case of importance Strout and Reed were on opposite sides.

It was annoying, indeed, for the suave Strout to hear Reed drawl out before the opening of a case:

"Well, your honor, Brother Strout having finished his morning task of shaking hands with the jury, we may now, I hope, proceed with the business of the court."—Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post.

Hardly Worth the Agony.

An artist of more than national fame chose the most beautiful girl in his town for a mate. Before they were married he said: "My dear, you are almost perfect. You lack but two things—your mouth is a little too small, and you are a little too thin. I wish that before we are married you would correct those two and become absolute perfection." For six months the poor girl wore a brass fixture in her mouth to stretch her jaw and ate fattening food. Then she was married. To an intimate friend she has since confessed that the agony of that six months' jaw stretching was not worth all she since has enjoyed as the wife of a distinguished artist.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Who Whips?

The clergyman's little son was telling the small son of a parishioner of the dreadful fights which he and his sister indulged in.

"You don't mean to say that ministers' children fight?" replied the horrified little layman.

"Oh, yes."

"Who whips?"

"Mamma."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Chained Books.

The finest known collection of chained books is that in Hereford cathedral. It includes about 2,000 volumes, arranged in five bookcases, of which not less than 1,500 are secured by chains three or four feet long, each with a swivel in the center. A small collection of chained books, long forgotten, has just come to light in the vestry of the church at Sleaford, Lincolnshire.

Tuscan boys, like most others, delight in flying kites, but custom does not permit them to do so except during Lent. If they flew in the face of this custom, their kites would be torn up by the other boys.

In 1877 Falcon island, in the Friendly group, began as a smoking shoal. Ten years later it was a volcanic island about 800 feet high and over 1¼ miles long. Now it is disappearing.

They Settled.

Long before the war General Butler, who was then a struggling young lawyer, lived up in a Massachusetts manufacturing town. He had displayed ability at college, but had to wait the usual number of years for his first case. At last a young girl who had worked in a cotton mill came to him for redress against her employers. She had been discharged without wages, and on a request for three weeks' wages was unceremoniously thrust from the door. The case looked blue, for the firm was a very rich one, but she needed money badly. She offered Ben one-half to collect it.

The next morning, while on her way to look for employment, she came upon a great gathering at a crossing. She inquired what was the matter and learned that the factory she had left had shut down for the first time in 30 years. Wondering what could have brought about such a state, she passed on and presently met Butler. He was leaning against a lamppost whittling a stick.

"'Tsall right," he called, waving his knife with a jaunty air. "'Tsall right I've got 'em!"

"Got who?" ventured the young lady.

"Why, those old skins up at the factory. I went to 'em right after I saw you yesterday and demanded the bill. They told me to hustle. I then got out an attachment on their water wheel and shut up the shop. You own $15 worth of the entire machinery. Oh, they'll settle by noon!" And they did.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Mystery of Sausage.

The composition of the sausage is not only complex, but it is often obscure. In this country the preparation of this (as it should be) useful article of food is confined to the employment of minced beef and pork. The only exception probably is the so called "black pudding," which is made with pig's blood and perhaps some heart and kidney.

Abroad, however, the sausage is compounded of a much wider range of substances. These include brains, liver and horseflesh. The last substance is generally considered repugnant, while, of course, it is fraudulent to sell sausages as beef or pork containing horseflesh. Occasionally, however, sausages do not contain meat at all, but only bread tinged with red oxide of iron and mixed with a varying proportion of fat. The remarkable feature of horseflesh is the high proportion of glycogen which it contains, and this fact enables the presence of horseflesh to be detected with some amount of certainty. The test which depends on a color reaction with iodine has recently been more carefully studied and with more satisfactory results, so that the presence of 5 per cent of horseflesh in sausages can be detected.—Lancet.

A Street Hustler.

"What's your business?" asked the police magistrate of a man who was before him for abusing his wife because supper was not ready.

"I'm a street hustler," was the reply.

Explanations showed, says the New York Herald, that the man represented a large number of fellows in New York who have no regular occupation, but nevertheless manage to make a good living, particularly at this time of the year. They loiter around the streets until they see a vanload of furniture going somewhere. Then they follow the wagon, oftentimes for miles. The wagon drivers do not take kindly to these men and will not let them ride.

Men who are "handy with their hands," as it was explained to the magistrate, have no difficulty in getting a job laying carpets, cleaning windows and furnaces or hanging out clotheslines. It is a poor wagon chase that does not net from $3 to $4 a load. Sometimes, when two or more men are following the same load, competition is keen. The wagon driver whips his horses, and the prize falls to the man who has the fleetest foot and the greatest wind power.

A Sense of Security.

"Eudora," said Mr. Cumrox, "I have been several times annoyed by the way you see fit to worry about my grammar."

"It's awful," said his wife. "You use commas where they don't belong, and you forget all about your periods. You'll lose all your friends."

"Eudora, let me remind you that I have money enough to float any scheme I take a fancy to. A man may be loose on his punctuation, but when he enjoys my facilities for a capitalization he is bound to have friends that he couldn't lose if he tried."—Washington Star.

Benny's Failure.

Benny, the 4-year-old member of the family, had been trained to believe in the deep water form of baptism. This is believed to be the reason why he was trying to plunge the household cat into a bucket of water. The animal resisted. It howled and scratched and clawed and used violent language. Finally Benny, with his hands covered with scratches and with tears in his eyes, gave it up. "Durn you!" he said. "Go an be a Methodis' if you want to!"—Chicago Tribune.

Impudence.

"I have just learned," she said, with a perceptible tinge of asperity, "that I am the ninth girl to whom you have been engaged."

"Well," he suavely replied, "that ought to make you glad."

"Glad!" she exclaimed. "I'd like to know why!"

"Don't you know," he answered, "that there's luck in odd numbers?"—Chicago News.

She Ought to Make Him Confess.

During the first three months of every engagement the girl makes a confessional of the man. Later she wishes she hadn't confessed so much.—Atchison Globe.

The Army and Navy.

Have covered themselves with glory during the war. The Army and Navy vest pocket memorandum book published by the Northern Pacific is a compact digest of information relative to the navies and armies of Spain and the United States at the beginning of the war. It has a map of Cuba, illustrations of naval ships, glossary of navy and army terms, translation of Spanish words, etc. Send ten cents to Chas. S. Fee, general passenger agent, N. P. R., St. Paul, Minn., for a copy.

Some of the leading financial journals are predicting, as a result of the rapid formation of trusts during the last few months, a financial panic in the near future that will eclipse anything the country has ever experienced in that line. They also say the result will be to do away with trusts. In the latter statement they are mistaken, for while we believe a panic will come it will be brought about by those heavily interested in monopoly in order to drive out the smaller fish so they can consolidate the industries of the country in the hands of themselves. After the panic it will be found that while there are thousands of men now considered wealthy who will be penniless, there will be a few billionaires, who will own everything.

The Spanish flag is for the first time in more that a year flying in Washington. It flies over the hotel in which the Duke of Arcos, the new Spanish Minister, and his American wife, are guests. The new Minister called on Secretary Hay and presented his credentials and later was presented by Mr. Hay to Mr. McKinley, and diplomatic relations are again established with Spain. The Minister has many personal friends in Washington, which was the home of his wife when he first met her and for many years afterwards.

—The SPECTATOR is for sale—at one dollar a year—strictly in advance.

SIDEWALK NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the village council of the village of St. Hilaire in the county of Red Lake and State of Minnesota have ordered the construction of a sidewalk on the west side of Water street from a point 100 feet north of Fourth street to Sixth street in said village to be six feet in width constructed of dressed and sized two inch pine planks four inches wide placed flat wise and firmly spiked upon four sleepers or stringers of Norway pine two inches thick and six inches in width placed edge wise at equal distance from one another, and those next to the edge of the walk to be four (4) inches from their respective edges, and all to be placed upon a firm foundation and the material in said sidewalk to be of a quality acceptable to the street commissioner of said village and the work upon the same to be done to his satisfaction.

The side of the walk towards the center of the street to be six (6) feet from the front line of the lots upon the side of the street upon which it may be built, and said sidewalk to be constructed to a grade line established by said village council.

That for the purpose of building said sidewalk, the said village council have levied and assessed a tax of twenty-seven (27) cents per foot upon all the lands hereinafter described and the owners thereof, and delivered to the undersigned a warrant for the collection of said tax.

That the description of the lands in said village fronting upon said sidewalk and the names of the owners thereof which are known as well as the lands whose owners are not known, are as follows:

Name	Lot	Blk.	St. Hilaire
J A Dalnard	5 6 7	51	"
John P Olson	8 9	51	"
Mrs. N M Johnson	10	51	"
Nor. Luth. Church	11 12	51	"
H A Olson	1 2	64	"
E M Peterson & Bros	3 4 5	64	"
Tom Tompson	8 7	64	"
St. Hil. Townsite Co.	8 9 10	64	"
Swedish Luth church	11 12	64	"

Now, therefore the owners of the aforesaid lands are hereby notified and required to pay the said taxes in labor material or money on or before the 5th day of July 1899 and that the labor and material offered in payment of such taxes are to be such as may be required by the street commissioner of said village and done and furnished to his satisfaction.

Dated this 6th day of June 1899.

R. H. AIMES,
Street Commissioner.

LIQUOR LICENSE APPLICATION.

To the Common Council of the village of St. Hilaire, in the county of Red Lake and State of Minnesota.

The undersigned, P. O. Paradis, hereby make application for a license to be granted to him to sell intoxicating liquors for a period of twelve months from the first day of July 1899.

The place where said business is to be carried on is designated as follows: On the ground floor of the two story building situate on lot ten (10) of block forty (40) of the original townsite of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, said building having three outside entrances, one in front, one in side and one in rear.

Said applicant prays that such license be granted to him pursuant to the ordinances of said village of St. Hilaire and the statute of said State of Minnesota in such case made and provided.

Dated at St. Hilaire, this 6th day of June 1899.

P. O. PARADIS.

Notice is hereby given that the village council of the village of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, will meet at the council chamber in the village hall on Broadway in said village on Thursday the 29th day of June 1899, at eight o'clock p. m. at which time objections to granting said license in accordance with the above application will be heard.

[SEAL] J. L. JOHNSON, Recorder.

LIQUOR LICENSE APPLICATION.

To the Common Council of the village of St. Hilaire, in the county of Red Lake and State of Minnesota.

The undersigned, M. E. Bjerk hereby make application for a license to be granted to him to sell intoxicating liquors for a period of twelve months from the first day of July 1899.

The place where said business is to be carried on is designated as follows: On the ground floor of the two story building situate on lot three (3) of block forty (40) of the original townsite of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, said building having two outside entrances, one in front and one in side.

Said applicant prays that such license be granted to him pursuant to the ordinances of said village of St. Hilaire and the statute of said State of Minnesota in such case made and provided.

Dated at St. Hilaire, this 6th day of June 1899.

M. E. BJERK.

Notice is hereby given that the village council of the village of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, will meet at the council chamber in the village hall on Broadway in said village on Thursday the 29th day of June 1899, at eight o'clock p. m. at which time objections to granting said license in accordance with the above application will be heard.

[SEAL]. J. L. JOHNSON, Recorder.

FOR SALE.

Two lots and house on South Broadway for sale at a bargain. For particulars address,

Mrs. C. Gerhig,
Box 20. Akeley, Minn.

—Every farmer who writes a letter occasionally should get envelopes with his name and address printed in the corner. We will furnish 100 of the best quality printed in any style for the small sum of 75 cts. Send in your order.

Notice of Sale of Funding Bonds.

Notice is hereby given that at the office of the County Auditor in and for the County of Red Lake, State of Minnesota, on the 26th day of June, 1899, beginning at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, the County Commissioners of said county will sell funding bonds of said county in the aggregate sum of $20,000.00.

Said bonds are issued for the purpose of funding the floating indebtedness of said county existing on the first day of May, 1899; will be ten in number and of denomination of one thousand dollars each, with interest coupons attached; interest at rate of 4 per cent per annum, payable annually; date of issue June 30th, 1899; date of maturity June 30th 1914; principal and interest payable at office of treasurer of said county. Bids for said bonds will be received at any time prior to the hour of beginning sale, at which time all bids will be opened. Each bid will be required to be accompanied by a certified check in the sum of two hundred dollars to be forfeited to said Red Lake county in case of failure to comply with the terms of said bid if accepted. The county commissioners of said county hereby reserve the right to reject any and all bids, and to continue said sale from day to day, if deemed necessary in the interests of said county.

Dated May 24th 1899.

[SEAL] ADAM ZED.
Auditor of Red Lake County, Minn.

44-47

To Jacob Olp, or others, whom it may concern:—

You are hereby notified that on the 11th day of May A. D. 1895, in proceedings to enforce the payment of delinquent taxes pursuant to that certain real estate tax judgment which was entered in the District Court in and for the County of Polk in the 14th Judicial District of the State of Minnesota, on the 21st day of March A. D. 1895, the following described piece and parcel of land which is situated in Polk county (now Red Lake county) in the State of Minnesota, to-wit:

Lot 16, Block 15, Champagne & Dows Addition to Red Lake Falls, was sold to the state to satisfy the amount for which it was adjudged liable in said judgment, interests and costs for the sum of Two dollars and sixty-four cents; that on the 27th day of April 1899, said lot was sold under the direction of the State Auditor for the sum of sixteen dollars and ten cents; that the amount required to redeem said piece and parcel of land from such sale (exclusive of the costs to accrue upon this notice) is sixteen dollars and ten cents and interest on said amount at the rate of 12 per cent. per annum from said 27th day of April A. D. 1899, until such redemption is made, and that the time for redemption of such piece and parcel of land from such sale will expire sixty days after the service of this notice and proof thereof has been filed in the office of the County Auditor of said Polk county.

Witness my hand and official seal this 18th day of May A. D. 1899.

[SEAL] JOHN GLEASON,
County Auditor of Polk county, Minn.
43-45 By N. A. Hoffard, Deputy.

Oh, Where Has He Gone?

LOST:—About six weeks ago a black and white English setter dog answers to the name of "Shy." A suitable reward will be given at this office when said dog is returned. Any information will thankfully be received.

To W. B. Dodge:—

You are hereby notified that on the 11th day of May A. D. 1895, in proceedings to enforce the payment of delinquent taxes pursuant to that certain real estate tax judgment which was entered in the District Court in and for the County of Polk in the 14th Judicial District of the State of Minnesota, on the 21st day of March A. D. 1895, the following described piece and parcel of land which is situated in Polk county (now Red Lake County) in the State of Minnesota, to-wit:

Lot 10, Block 2, Original townsite of Red Lake Falls, was sold to the state to satisfy the amount for which it was adjudged liable in said judgment, interests and costs for the sum of five dollars and forty-three cents; that on the 27th day of April 1899, said lot was sold under direction of the state auditor for the sum of thirty-two dollars and eighty-eight cents; that the amount required to redeem said piece and parcel of land from such sale (exclusive of the costs to accrue upon this notice) is thirty-two dollars and eighty-eight cents, and interest on said amount at the rate of 12 per cent per annum from said 27th day of April A. D. 1899, until such redemption is made, and that the time for redemption of such piece and parcel of land from such sale will expire sixty days after the service of this notice and proof thereof has been filed in the office of the County Auditor of said Polk County.

Witness my hand and official seal this 15th day of May A. D. 1899.

[SEAL] JOHN GLEASON,
County Auditor of Polk County, Minn.
By N. A. Hoffard, Deputy.

Agents Wanted.

The oldest and largest nursery in the West. Everything for the orchard and grove. Three plans of work and the year round. Pay weekly. Write for terms.

THE JEWELL NURSERY CO.,
40-45 Lake City, Minn.

LIQUOR LICENSE APPLICATION.

To the Common Council of the village of St. Hilaire, in the County of Red Lake and State of Minnesota.

The undersigned, E. J. Brink, hereby make application for a license to be granted to him to sell intoxicating liquors for a period of twelve months from the first day of July 1899.

The place where the business is to be carried on is designated as follows: On the ground floor of the two story building situate on lot fourteen (14) of block thirty-nine (39) of the original townsite of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, said building having three outside entrances, one in front, one in side and one in rear.

Said applicant prays that such license be granted to him persuant to the ordinances of said village of St. Hilaire and the statutes of said State of Minnesota in such case made and provided.

Dated at St. Hilaire, this 6th day of June 1899.

E. J. BRINK.

Notice is hereby given that the village council of the village of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, will meet at the council chamber in the village hall on Broadway in said village on Thursday the 29th day of June 1899, at eight o'clock p. m. at which time objections to granting said license in accordance with the above application will be heard.

[SEAL] J. L. JOHNSON, Recorder.

F. C.
On Each Box.

F. C. CORSETS
MAKE
American Beauties.

LATEST MODELS.

KALAMAZOO CORSET CO.
SOLE MANUFACTURERS.
SOLD BY
St. Hilaire, Minn. E. M. HOFF.

WANTED-BRAINS

Can you think of something to patent? Protect your ideas; they may bring you wealth. Before applying for patent, get our liberal offers. Inventor's Assistant and handsome views of Washington sent Free on request. Be sure to write to-day. COPP & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C.

Spring Suits.

STYLISH SPRING SUITS FOR MEN AND BOYS.

The Greatwestren own magnificent display of men's spring suits, and boys' choicest clothing is now ready, at a saving of fully 25 per cent.

Greatwestern Clothing House.

IF YOU INTEND TO Buy
Furniture

Come and look our assortment over. We carry everything in the Furniture line including picture frames and musical instruments. Prices reasonable.

Holmes Furniture Co.

BANK OF RED LAKE FALLS,

RED LAKE FALLS, MINNESOTA

GENERAL BANKING. FOREIGN XCHANGE

Real Estate, Farm Loans and Insurance.
Abstracts of Title.
Steamship Tickets.
Interest Paid on Time Deposits.
Collections of all Kinds Given Prompt Attention.

Owner of the Abstract Books formerly owned by Sortedahl & Stoyaasli the only set of Abstract Books in Red Lake County.

M. O. SORTEDAHL, President and Cashier.
G. P. SEVERTSON, Assistant Cashier

First Mortgage Loans.

I am prepared, for the next 60 days, to make loans at the

LOWEST

possible rates ever made in Red Lake county. If you want to make a loan or renew an old one call on

H. E. IVES.

—The SPECTATOR is the official paper of the village and county. Now is the time to subscribe. $1.00 per year if paid in advance—otherwise $1.50.

"Won't You Try
The Hamm Brewing Co.
Telephone 972.
St. Paul, Minn.
Hamm's
Delicious
Beer?
It has a flavor all its own!"

A. O. LETVIG,
Tubular Well Contractor
A Good Supply of Water Guaranteed.
Repairing a Specialty.
WYLIE. MINNESOTA.

List of Town Clerks.

Names	Township	Postoffice
Olof Larson	Numedal	Viking
C. E. Purdy	North	Thief River Falls
John E. Peterson	Bray	Bray
N. K. Anderson	Sanders	St. Hilaire
F. T. Satre	Rocksbury	T. R. Falls
O. T. Romsos	Polk Centre	Wylie
P. A. Eckstrom	Black River	Wylie
A. S. Anderson	River Falls	St. Hilaire
Ole J. Johnson	Wyandotte	"
A. D. Berry	Louisville	Huot
Hdaige Barll	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
Chas. E. Asp	Emardville	Lost
Edward Havik	Equality	Grit
Moses Ducharme	Lake Pleasant	R. L. F.
Edonor Perusse	Terrebonne	Terrebonne
J. B. Herbert	Poplar River	Brooks
Louis Douret	Lambert	Lambert
J. L. Johnson	St. Hilaire	St. Hilaire
Lars Backe	Thief River F	T. R. F.
A. P. Toupin	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
H. D. Braryson	Norden	T. R. Falls
Olof Tande	Garnes	Garnes

FARMS
LOANS
ABSTRACTS

97 Farms for sale or rent in Red Lake County.

SWANSON & GRADY,
Official Abstractors.

RED LAKE FALLS. - - MINN.

UNION MEAT MARKET

P. O. MOSLETH, PROP.

Choicest line of Fresh and Salted meats in the city.

Highest market price paid for Stock, Poultry and Hides.

Say?

If your wheel needs enameling, cleaning, new tires or any other repairing give us a trial. All work done promptly and satisfactory. Prices reasonable.

R. J. BULLAN & CO.
35 RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

STEVENS RIFLES AND PISTOLS

HAVE FOR MORE THAN 35 YEARS BEEN CELEBRATED FOR THEIR EXTREME ACCURACY

STEVENS-DIAMOND MODEL TARGET PISTOL
STEVENS

We make our "Diamond" Pistol with two lengths of barrel, 6 and 10 inches. Every one guaranteed. Price, Postpaid, $5.00 with 6-inch barrel; $7.50 with 10-inch barrel.

We make a full line of rifles; Price, from $6.00 upwards. Every arm we turn out is warranted

SAFE, SOLID AND ACCURATE.

J. STEVENS ARMS & TOOL CO.,
Send Stamp for Catalogue. P. O. Box 698 CHICOPEE FALLS, MASS.

Cigars.

BRINK BROTHERS
DEALERS IN
Wines & Liquors
Minneapolis Beer.

Corner Broadway and 3rd St. St. Hilaire, Minnesota

SUPPLEMENT TO

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR.

ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA, JUNE 7, 1899.

Official Proceedings of the Board of County Commissioners.

Red Lake Falls, Minn., May 22nd, 1899.

Pursoant to a call dated May 11th, 1899, board of County Commissioners met in extra session this day.

Meeting called to order by the chairman.

All members present.

Motion made by Sutor seconded by Hansen to allow town of Polk Centre $200 out of county Road & Bridge fund to aid in repairing county bridge across Black River in said town.

Motion carried unanimously.

Hearing was then had on petition of P. S. Medchill and others for the formation of a new school district in the town of Emardville.

On motion carried unanimously the petition was granted and the following order was made:

Order of County Commissioners for Formation of new School District.

In the matter of the formation of school district No 16, Red Lake County.

Whereas. The board of County Commissioners of Red Lake county, state of Minnesota, was duly petitioned by a majority of the freeholders residing within the territory hereinafter described to form and erect the same into a new school district: and

Whereas. A hearing upon said petition was duly ordered by said board of County Commissioners, and had upon due and proper notice.

Now, therefore, It appearing to said board of County Commissioners that the prayer of said petitioners should be granted, it is hereby ordered and directed that the following named territory be, and the same is hereby formed into a new school district number sixteen, to-wit: s w ¼ s e ¼ w ½ s w ¼ sec 2, also n w ¼ n e ¼ s e ¼ e ½ s w ¼ sec 3, also n e ¼ e ½ s w ¼ of n w ¼ s e ¼ s ½ s w ¼ sec 9, also all of sec. 10, 11, 15, 16, e ½ of sec 17, also n e ¼ and e ½ s e ¼ sec 20 and all of sec 21 and 22 in the township of Emardville.

Wm. C L. Demann.
Chairman,
Board of County Commissioners.
Red Lake County.
Minn.

Attest:
Adam Zeh,
County Auditor,
and ex-officio clerk of board.
[SEAL]

Petition of Nels K. Anderson and others for the formation of a new school district composed of the following territory:

Sec 18, 19, n ½ sec 30, town 153 range 44, also sec 1, 2, 11, 12, 13, e ½ sec 14 and e ½ sec 24, town 153, range 45, was read and on motion carried unanimously the 10th day of July 1899 was set as a day of hearing on said petition.

Commissioner Hansen offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

> Resolved, that Commissioner Demann be and is hereby authorized to issue a relief order in the sum of $28.53 in favor of J. A. Duffy in payment of R. R. ticket to Chicago for Paul Benoit.

Which resolution was seconded by Hebert and on motion carried unanimously was adopted.

Petitions of Euclide Roepell and Frank Laplante asking to be set off from school district No. 40 to school district No. 27 was on motion duly carried laid on the table to July meeting.

On motion carried unanimously a recess was taken to 9 o'clock, a. m.

9 o'clock a. m., May 23, 1899.

Board reconvened.

Meeting called to order by the chairman.

All members present.

Application for correction of assessment and abatement of taxes of First State Bank of Red Lake Falls, Frank E. Hunt, Leo Steinert, and Mary C. Paradis asking for a reduction on valuation as follows.

First State Bank, lot No. 24, block 3, from $2325.00 to $1325.00.

Frank E Hunt, lot No. 23 and west 50 feet of lot No 24, block 3 from $2425.00 to $1425.00.

Leo Steinert on lots No. 21 and 22, block 3 from $4200.00 to $2400.00.

Mary C. Paradis on lots No. 19 and 20, block 3, $2600 00 to $1600.00.

All in Champagne & Dow's addition to Red Lake Falls.

Motion made by Hebert seconded by Hansen that the same be granted.

Motion carried unanimously.

Petition for formation of new school district by Fred Coe and others out of the following territory:

All of sections 21, 20, 19, town 152, range 45, also all of sections 28, 29, 30, 31, 32 and all of section 33 except the e ½ of s e ¼, town 152, range 45, also the n ½ of sections No. 4, 5, and 6, town 151, range 45 was read and on motion carried unanimously the 10th day of July, 1899, was set as a day of hearing on said petition.

On motion carried unanimously a recess was taken until 1 o'clock p. m.

1 o'clock, p. m.

Board reconvened.

Meeting called to order by the chairman.

All members present.

Petition of Andrew Lemieux and others asking for aid to construct a ditch in the town of Garnes was on motion duly carried referred back for correction.

Petition of Frank St. Martin for road money was, on motion carried unanimously, referred back for correction.

Application for correction of assessment and abatement of taxes of Wm. Findelsen asking for a reduction on valuation as follows:

Lots No 3, 4, and 5, block No. 7 from $700.00 to $467 00 and on lot No. 15, block No. 14 from $115.00 to $25 00 all in Champagne & Dow's addition to Red Lake Falls. Motion made by Hebert seconded by Sutor that the same be granted.

Motion carried unanimously.

Application of James Brady for correction of assessment and abatement of taxes was, on motion carried unanimously, rejected

Motion made by Hebert seconded by Sutor that the county appropriate $100.00 for the town of Emardville and $100.00 for the town of Garnes out of the Road and Bridge fund, to aid in constructing the county road through said towns, providing, said towns each appropriate and expend a likesum on said roads in accordance with petition of Martin P. Boraas and others and the petition of Ed Anderson and others on file in the auditor's office.

Motion carried unanimously.

On motion carried unanimously a recess was taken until 9 o'clock a. m.

9 o'clock, a. m., May 24, 1899.

Board reconvened.

Meeting called to order by the chairman.

All members present.

Commissioner Hansen offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

> Resolved that Red Lake county adopt the provisions of the wolf bounty law of 1899 and that the wolf bounty therein specified be paid by Red Lake county in accordance with the provisions of said law.

Which resolution was seconded by Hebert and on motion carried unanimously was adopted.

Red Lake Falls, Minn., April 26th, 1899.

To the Honorable board of county commissioners of Red Lake County, Minn.

Gentlemen:

We, the Board of Audit, of Red Lake County, Minn., report as follows:

That on the above named date, we examined the accounts, books and vouchers of the treasurer of Red Lake county, and counted and ascertained the kind, description and amount of funds in the treasury belonging to said county as follows:

Balance in treasury April 22th, 1899 as shown by the books of auditor and teasurer	$ 9684 67	$
Distributed as follows:
Currency		5 m
Silver		1 35
Checks and cash items		73 81
Receipts for Postage and express		19 m
Town orders received for taxes		47 50
Deposited in First State Bank of Red Lake Falls		5000 17
Deposited in First State Bank of Thief River Falls		4507 84
	9684 67	9684 67

Respectfully submitted.

Wm. C. L. Demann,
Chairman.
Joseph Perrault,
Clerk of Court.
Adam Zeh,
County Auditor
Board of Audit,
Red Lake County,
Minn.

Motion made by Hebert seconded by Johnson that we approve the report of the board of audit.

Motion carried unanimously.

Motion made by Hansen seconded by Sutor that the bond of The Merchants State Bank of Red Lake Falls be approved and said bank be and is hereby designated one of the depositories for county funds of Red Lake county.

Motion carried unanimously.

Commissioner Hansen offered the following resolution:

> Whereas, the floating indebtedness of the County of Red Lake, Minnesota, existing on the 1st day of May, 1899, was and is the sum of 20,000 dollars. Now, therefore. Be it resolved by the board of county commissioners of said county, that bonds of said county be issued for the purpose of funding said indebtedness in the sum of $20,000.00 dollars, and it is further resolved that said bonds issue upon and be dated the 30th day of June, 1899, and be made payable on the 30th day of June, 1914, with interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum, payable annually, that said bonds be 20 in number and for the sum of one thousand, (1,000), dollars each with interest coupons attached, principal and interest payable at the office of the county treasurer, and it is further resolved that the County Auditor of said county be and is hereby instructed to advertise in the St. Hilaire Spectator and St. Paul Globe for sealed bids upon said bonds, each bid to be accompanied by a certified check in the sum of 200 dollars, all of said bids to be opened at a special meeting of said board of Co. commissioners to be held for the purpose at the office of said auditor in said county at two o'clock in the afternoon of the 26th day of June, 1899, such advertisement reserving to the commissioners the right to reject any and all bids and to, if deemed proper, continue said sale from day to day.

Commissioner Hansen moved the adoption of the foregoing resolution and commissioner Hebert seconded the motion to adopt the same.

The resolution was then declared carried upon the following vote:

Yeas,

Commissioners Hansen, Hebert, Sutor, Johnson, and Demann.

Nays;

None.

On motion duly carried a recess was taken until one o'clock p. m. May 24, 1899.

Board reconvened.

Meeting called to order by the chairman.

All members present.

Motion made by Hansen, seconded by Johnson that auctioneer's license be granted Daniel Patterson on payment of $10 to county treasurer.

Motion carried unanimously.

Commissioner Hansen offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

> Resolved that the sum of four hundred ninety-one 75-100 $491.75 be, and the same is hereby appropriated from the county revenue fund for the purpose of paying the necessary and actual expenses incurred by order of this board in proceedings to bring about a settlement and division of the funds between Polk and Red Lake counties, and the County Auditor is hereby instructed to draw a warrant (or order) upon the county revenue fund for said amount in favor of the chairman, out of which money the chairman shall pay such expense bills as are presented and audited by the finance committee.

Which resolution was seconded by Sutor and on motion carried unanimously was adopted.

On motion carried unanimously bills were allowed as follows:

COUNTY POOR FUND.

John Alben, board and care of John Ortenquist months of April and May	$ 17 80
Treffle Daoust, board of Thos Carl months of March and April	12 00
Ed Garceau board of Joe Doyea by O. Lacourciere for months of April and May	20 00
Theo LaBissoniere clothing for Joe Doyea, pauper	3 85
Theo LaBissoniere mdse for Mrs Breault months of March and April	10 00
Theo LaBissoniere mdse for Mrs Broullette months of March and April	20 00
John Beaudry board of E. Morrissette months of March and April	16 00
Ernest Buse house rent for Mrs Marchildon from March 5th to May 5th	8 00
M P Boraas board of G. Quale month of April	6 00
M P Boraas board of B. Quale for month of May	5 00

COUNTY REVENUE FUND.

St. Hilaire Spectator to publishing commissioners proceedings	46 50
St Hilaire Spectator to publishing treasurer's notice of warrants and orders payable	2 20
St. Hilaire Spectator to publishing notice of tax judgment sale	3 35
St. Hilaire Spectator to publishing notice of beet sugar seed	1 10
Pioneer Press Co 2 general index deeds dated May 14th, 1898	39 50
Pioneer Press Co Blanks for Co auditor	2 00
Pioneer Press Co blanks for Co auditor	10 65
Free Press Printing Co assessment books and blanks with same	57 90
Courier Pub Co Letter heads and envelopes for Co surveyor envelopes and tax statements to treasurer and statements for clerk of court	22 50
Polk county boarding John Doyle 7 days month of March	4 87
J F Ford 14 days work on transfer plat-books	30 20
J C Mathews court commissioner fees in case of state vs Emil Just	6 50
Samuel Gibeau recording town treasurers bonds, making list mortgages in assessment books and comparing townsite plats at Crookston	41 m
Jos Belair services as interpreter in case of state vs Emil Just	2 00
C L Tayler justice fees in case of state vs Emil Just	11 30
Joseph Perrault to making certified copies of list of real estate taxes delinquent for 1897 and making all entries in the real estate tax judgment book required by law. 9000 descriptions @ 1½c	135 00
Geo A Ralph balance on contract for townsite plats	73 00
P H Kirwin township plats and field notes for Red Lake county	245 25
Chas Sampson sheriff's fees in case of state vs Emil Just	14 25
J B Hebert 3 days service Co commissioner and 40 miles	13 00
Ole J Johnson 3 days services Co commissioner and 40 miles	13 00
K M Hansen 3 days services Co commissioner and 40 miles and one day attending poor	16 00
James Sutor 3 days services Co commissioner and 20 miles and 1 day committe work and 20 miles	16 m
Wm C L Demann 3 days service Co commissioner and 14 miles and 1 day committee work and 14 miles	14 80
Wm C L Demann 1 day auditing board. treasurer's books	3 m

On motion duly carried the bill of Dr. I. Lemieux was referred back for correction.

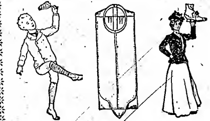
On motion carried unanimously the bill of Dr. A. F. Bloomburgh of $150.00 for service rendered Ole Wold was rejected.

On motion carried unanimously the bills of Geo D. Barnard & Co. were laid over to next meeting.

On motion carried unanimously meeting adjourned.

Wm. C. L. Demann,
Chairman.

Attest:
Adam Zeh,
County Auditor.



Be Ready For Summer. It is Here Now.

A full line of summer merchandise just arrived. We invite inspection of these goods. A splendid line of Skirts and Waists, both in ready-made and patterns at prices which are right. I shall not attempt to describe the line; only urge you most cordially to see the goods before you buy.

E. M. HOFF.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

I. O. O. F. St. Hilaire Lodge No. 147.—Meets at their hall every Thursday evening, eight o'clock. Visiting members are cordially invited to attend.
E. M. Hoff, N. G.
J. H. Johnson, Secretary.

M. W. A. CAMP 3540—Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every second and fourth Tuesday of every month. Visiting neighbors are cordially invited to attend.
Leonard Holmes, V. C.
Jas. M. Hall, Clerk.

R. N. A.—WILD ROSE CAMP.—No. 834 Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every Friday evening. Visiting members of the order are cordially invited to attend.
Mrs. L. N. Nolan, Oracle.
Miss T. Hughes, Recorder.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Auditor	Adam Zeh
Treasurer	O. T. Tandberg
Register of Deeds	Samuel Olbeau
Sheriff	Chas. Sampson
Attorney	Van B. Brown
Judge of Probate	J. T. Knight
Clerk of Court	Joe Perrault
Supt. of Schools	Frank Jeffers
Coroner	Joe Belaire
Court Commissioner	J. C. Mathews
Surveyor	P. O. Hagglund
Commissioner 1st Dist.	J. Suter
Commissioner 2nd Dist.	W. L. C. Demann
Commissioner 3rd Dist.	O. J. Johnsen
Commissioner 4th Dist.	Karl M. Hanson
Commissioner 5th Dist.	J. B. Herbert

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

E. J. Holmes	President
J. L. Johnson	Recorder
D. Patterson	Councilmen
J. C. Dahl
W. A. Sorsoleil
L. Holmes	Treasurer

Barber Shop
—AND—
BATH ROOMS.
—0—
Haircutting, Shaving, Shampooing.
Razors honed and put in first-class order.
J. H. PENNO, Prop.
ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Henry Francis, M. D, C. M.
Member College Physicians and Surgeons, Ontario. : : :
Thief River Falls, Minnesota.

"THE IDEAL" Lunch Room.
In the Paradis Building is noted for its Convenience.
FIRST-CLASS MEALS.
PROMPT SERVICE.
Open until one o'clock A. M.
A. F. LANG, Prop.

DR. BLOMBURGH.
SCANDINAVIAN
Physician & Surgeon.
Calls attended day or night.
Teeth Extracted.
Office and residence opposite American Hotel. St. Hilaire, Minn.

2nd STORE
(Second Hand Store.)
Everything in this line now on hand. Special bargains given. If you have anything to dispose of give me a call. Repairing of harness also done.
C. A. SKEIE.
St. Hilaire, - - Minnesota

Blacksmith!
Horse-shoeing, repairing of all kinds of Farm Implements, Machinery, etc. All work promptly attended to and done in a satisfactory manner.
J. C. DAHL.
St. Hilaire, Minnesota

PATENTS
Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained and all Patent business conducted for Moderate Fees. Our Office is opposite U. S. Patent Office and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.
Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.
A Pamphlet, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,
C. A. SNOW & CO.
Opp. Patent Office, Washington, D. C.

Market Report.—To-Day.

Wheat No. 1	63	Oats	20
Wheat No. 2	59	Barley	28
Wheat No. 3	52	Flax	88
Eggs (per doz.)	12½	Butter (per lb)	10

LOCAL NEWS.

Club dance Saturday night.

Preaching Sunday evening at 8 p. m.

Go to the M. E. church Friday evening.

Wall paper and calcimine at the New Drug store.

Prof. J. B. O'Brien made a trip to Crookston Friday last.

P. G. Paradis made a flying trip to the county seat Monday.

Wm. Eikhoff made a business trip to Crookston last Thursday.

Try a lunch, a meal or a weeks board at the Ideal Lunch Room.

Strawberries and ice cream at the M. E. church Friday evening.

H. E. Ives returned Saturday from a business trip at Crookstan.

5 cents will buy two packages of garden seeds at M. A. Hall's.

—Go to the New Drug Store for your Stationery and School supplies.

A Strawberry and ice cream social at the M. E. church Friday night.

Banker Dobner and J. B. Yining of Thief River Falls were here Monday.

Patronize home industry by buying your wall paper at the New Drug store.

The two Martins—Hall and Hoff are prize rooters at a ball game—so they say.

If you want to make a loan on your farm, or renew an old one, call on H. E. Ives.

Miss Mary Kyle left last Friday for Crookston where she will spend her vacation.

Mike Fricker has just received a carload of corn which he will grind into all kinds of feed.

L. T. Bergh the Deering man left Monday for Marshall county to look after collections.

Photographer Collins did a "land office" business last Thursday taking forty-three sittings.

You are invited to attend the strawberry and ice cream social at the M. E. church Friday night.

Surveyor Ralph returned Saturday from Thief Lake where he had been surveying out a town-site.

Dr. Blomburgh has rented the new Patterson residence and will move into the same when completed.

J. B. Armstrong, the popular cigar manufacturer of Red Lake Falls was here Saturday interviewing the trade.

Andrew Erickson of Wall street has purchased the C. Legess house on Minnesota Avenue and will move this week.

Fred Dahl, who has been attending school at Crookston returned home Monday to spend his summer vacation.

A. H. Weagant handles everything in the hardware line and also harness, robes, fly-nets, etc. Drop in and see us.

Howard Dunning arrived from Minneapolis Thursday and is holding down the position of night sawyer at the mill.

Mike Kelley, the pine land cruiser for the St. Hilaire Lumber Company left Monday again for the Black Duck country.

The filers and edgermen at the mill are compelled to work overtime on account of the scarcity of men in their respective lines.

A. J. Baker representing the Bates Carbon Book Company of Grafton, N. D., was here last Thursday interviewing our business men.

A mass meeting was held at Red Lake Falls Saturday to discuss the question "Shall we celebrate the Fourth of July in a good old fashioned manner."

And Ness is still one horse shy—but he is not worrying as the mortgage executed leaves him with a balance in his favor. This is a case where a horse thief quits looser.

The Shevlin-Carpenter Company invested $100,000 in pine timber in the Red Lake basin last week. All this pine will be manufactured into lumber at St. Hilaire and Crookston.

Walter Holmes terminated a three weeks visit here with relatives and friends and left Monday for his home at Canaon Falls. Miss Alice has decided to remain and spend the summer.

Dr. J. H. Thomas, the Crookston dentist was here the first two days of this week relieving the suffering of aching molars.

Mrs. B. E. Burkee left yesterday for Manitowoc county, Wisconsin, where she will spend the summer visiting with her parents.

Miss Henrietta Makinson, one of the teachers of the village schools left Friday to spend a three months vacation at her home in Minneapolis.

I. G. Idzrek, travelling agent for the Wisconsin, Minnesota & Pacific Ry Co. was here yesterday for a short time while enroute to the county seat.

J. H. Johnson, of the clerical force at Rapp & Post's store, returned yesterday from Fisher where he had been since Saturday looking after his farm interests.

Miss. Laura J. Betts, teacher of the intermediate department of our village schools left Friday for her home at Litchfield where she will spend her summer vacation.

Strange, isn't it; a town the size of St. Hilaire with so many boys of the right size and age and not a boot-black among them. An elegent opening for a good boy to make money during school vacation.

T. H. Shevlin, president of the St. Hilaire Lumber Company, accompanied by his brother E. C., manager of the Crookston Lumber Company came up yesterday. The latter returned on the evening train to Crookston.

Dan Patterson drove to Black River last Thursday and did the auctioneer act in disposing of August Peterson's farm implements and household goods. Mr. Peterson is compelled to leave this country on account of his health.

The St. Hilaire Lumber Company started up their mill on the night run Friday. Some over three hundred men are now employed by this company at this point to say nothing about the men bringing down the log drives.

Rev. C. F. Dykeman, Grand Chief Templer of the State will lecture on the benefits of the Good Templar order to-night at the I. O. O. F. hall at 8 o'clock p. m. All are cordially invited to attend. By order of the committee.

Frank Montague of Crookston who has the state grass lands under his charge will be in St. Hilaire Thursday June 15th for the purpose of selling the grass on State swamp and school lands. If you are interested be sure to come in and see him on that day.

The commissary for the wannegan of the St. Hilaire Lumber Company was shipped up to the outlet of the Red Lake river Monday. Another drive of logs will be brought down which will soon be followed by another and another throughout the season.

—If you are troubled with rheumatism take the Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure. It will positively cure all diseases arising from impure blood, and is sold under an absolute guarantee to benefit or money refunded. Call for free sample at the New Drug Store.

"When our ships come home from Manila laden with our Nations dead are we to tell the loved ones here that they died to extend our trade?" says United States Senator William Mason, in the new book on the Philippine question, "Republic or Empire?" by W. J. Bryan and others.

Dr. H. J. Fountain and his company are holding down the boards at Brink's hall this week and drawing good houses The small price of admission enables people to attend every night. They leave next week for Thief River Falls and the following week to Red Lake Falls.

K. O. Gigstad left yesterday for a two weeks visit with his parents at Eaton, Manitowoc county, Wisconsin. It has been twelve years since Mr. Gigstad visited his old home, and the whole family of brothers and sisters who are scattered all over the states, have arranged for a family reunion.

It would be better for the republican press to honestly advocate the defeat of John Lind because he is not a republican. To attempt to encompass his defeat by silly criticism and clap trap buncomb, will only add to his strenght. Kill him off by conceding him to be a good man but on the wrong side of the fence.—Roseau Times.

The state of Kansas, always famous for the excentricities of its people—and other things—is also one of the most progressive and up-to-date states in the Union in the matter of education. The state has $10,000,000 invested in schools and the per cent of illiterates among her sons and daughters is smaller than that of all the eastern states combined or singly.—Crystal Call.

Consumption Cured.

—Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth, cures a cold in one day if taken in time. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

Andrew Carnegie says: "We have paid Spain $20,000,000 for the privilege of getting what we would better have paid a thousand millions to be without. Read W. J. Bryan's new book, "Republic or Empire?—The Philippine Question." Fifty thousand expansionists have been converted by its chapters. The best reading book published. Cloth, $1.50; delivery free. The Independence Co., Franklin Building, Chicago.

The Best Cough Remedy on Earth.

Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, Consumption Cure, cures a cold in 24 hours if taken in time and does not stop a cough in One Minute by peralyzing the throat, but it cures the disease and leaves the throat and lungs healthy and strong. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

The Champions Lost.

As per agreement the St. Hilaire base ball team went to Thief River Falls Sunday to play a return game with the "Champions" as they are called by the News of that place while our team is called the "Selects" by the same paper which of course makes no difference to our boys as the club is only known as "St. Hilaire" which is sewed on their suits in bold-face letters. On account of the roads St. Hilaire did not turn out very strong, but about twenty enthusiasts outside of the team managed to get away. Both teams agreed on a seven inning game as it was after three o'clock before the players were on the grounds. The toss up gave St. Hilaire the bat and they used it to the extent of knocking out four runs. The game throughout was very interesting save a few wild throws of the "Champion" team. A. Golla made star play of the game and be it an accident or otherwise we are not prepared to say. The play was made in this manner: Bunting the ball midway to pitcher which was fumbled and a wild throw to first landed the runner at third when another wild throw to third brought Golla a home run. Lilleman the centerfield man was anxious to go after everything that came his way and on one occasion slipped in a pool of water which was dished out by the fall that soiled his new trousers—he got the ball however. The following are the names and positions of teams:

Thief River Falls.		St. Hilaire.
Moran	c	Stranahan	c
Stranahan L.	p	Werner	p
Hoar	cf	McCraig	ss
Dobner	1b	Mitchell	1b
Paranto A.	3b	Burke	3b
Paranto B.	2b	Martin	2b
Benzie W.	rf	Golla	rf
Benzie D.	lf	Rouse	lf
Hansen	ss	Lilleman	cf

Umpires—Todd and Flaherty.

Thief River Falls 0 3 0 0 1 0 0—4
St. Hilaire 4 1 0 1 4 2 x—12

—Dr. Thomas is an up-to-date in all the different branches in his profession. Remember the dates, July 19th and 20th.

Weather permitting, the Red Lake Falls base ball team will cross bats at St. Hilaire next Sunday with our home team. Don't overlook the hat when its passed around as it costs money to keep the base ball grounds in repairs, buy suits, bats, etc. We have an exceptionally good team and it should be supported, but which can not be done by donating coppers, same as was done at last game here by fourteen different parties. Turn out and help the boys along.

—To cure a cough or cold in one day take the Imperial Cough Syrup.

Sam Dainard is at Thief River Falls to day.

Two sidewalk notices appear in this weeks issue.

Several changes will be made in the St. Hilaire cornet band.

Will Peterson went to Crookston yesterday on business.

Jim Hill will fence one side of Ed. Twing's farm while Ed puts up the other three.

S. Hall, father of the Hall brothers returned to-day from a months visit at Fergus Falls.

Arthur Mattes, cashier of the St. Hilaire Lumber Company will leave to-day for Minneapolis and other points to spend his summer vacation. Mr. Mattes has been confined to indoor work, steady for the past three years and finds it necessary for the benefit of his health to take a vacation. His many friends here wish him a speedy recovery to his former robust health.

—It is better than ready money because it cures rheumatism, constipation sick headache, indigestion. Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure.

Council Proceedinge.

Regular meeting of the village council Monday June 5th 1899.

All members present.

Meeting called to order by President Holmes.

Minutes of last regular and special meeting read and approved.

On motion the following bills were allowed.

Ole J Hegg work on stree	3 00
C Hellberg " "	3 00
Louis Nick " "	10 20
R H Almer " "	27 81
C Hall marshal salary etc.	42 00
W A Sorsoleil soil pipe per bill	79 35
D Patterson hauling lumber etc.	5 50
St Hilaire Lumber Co. lumber	27 52

On motion the bill of St. Hilaire Lumber Co., for hauling mill refuse on street was returned for correction.

On motion the sidewalk petition of Daniel Patterson et al was granted and the street commissioner was instructed to order the sidewalk built.

On motion the sidewalk petition of E. N. Peterson et al was granted and the street commissioner instructed to order the sidewalk built.

On motion the sidewalk on the west side of Broadway north of Fifth street was condemned and the street commissioner ordered to have the same removed.

On the petition of O. W. Brink was referred to road and bridge committee.

On motion the marshal was instructed to place street lamps at the places designated by the council.

On motion the alley petition of P. A. Blixt et al was rejected.

On motion the petition of Holmes was referred to the road and bridge committee.

On motion meeting adjourned.

Attest:— E. J. Holmes
J. L. Johnson, President.
Recorder.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

Auction Sale.

Auction sale of household furniture next Monday June 12:30 p. m. sharp.

I will sell at public auction in front of my stable the following household goods: 4 beds with mattresses and springs, 1 dresser, 2 commodes, 1 lounge 1 cook stove, 2 tables, 12 chairs, three clocks, cooking utensils, dishes and other articles too numerous to mention.

D. Patterson, Auctioneer.

From Farm, Stock and Home.

It is as easy to grow cauliflower as cabbage, and it makes much the daintiest dish.

From the buckwheat patch comes next winter's pancakes and the honey to eat on 'em.

A cool, shady, out-of-door feeding place is better for the horse's nooning than a hot stable.

Do you know what nice soup-stock vegetable oysters are? If you do you will not fail to grow some.

Onions are tattle tales after the have been eaten, but they are among the healthiest of spring vegetables.

One of the most appetizing and healthful winter vegetables is celery, and it is as easily grown as potatoes.

To get early tomatoes, tie plants to stakes and allow the first blossom only to produce fruit by pinching off the sprouts and blossoms that come later, as the vine grows tie again to the stake so as to keep it erect.

For about a fortnight or three weeks prior to the time at which it is intended to wean a foal from its dam it is a good plan to separate the youngster from its mother for several hours a day. So treated the foal will feel the effect of the ultimate separation much less keenly than if the change were more suddenly brought about.

Worked the Machine.

The court house officials had a music box on the go several days this week. It is the property of Bergerson & Nelson, who put it in Clerk of Court Perrault's hands of safe keeping until they were settled in their new location. The fact that it was a nickle-in-the-slot machine was assurance that the music box would pay interest, because it is a well known fact that the court house boys are musically inclined. Visitors to the court house were delightfully entertained with sylvan like music, and the impression prevailed that the officers were taking turns at blowing themselves. An examination of the contents of the box by the proprietors showed, also, that the "nickles" were hammered out of lead.—Red Lake Falls Gazette.

To cure a cough in one day take the Imperial cough syrup. Guaranteed to cure. For sale at the new Drug Store.

Dentist.

—Dr. J. H. Thomas, the Crookston dentist will be at Hotel Markham, St. Hilaire, July 19th and 20th prepared to do all kinds of up to date dental work in all branches. All work warranted. Remember the dates 19th and 20th.

SIDEWALK NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the village council of the village of St. Hilaire in the county of Red Lake and State of Minnesota have ordered the construction of a sidewalk on the east side of Water street from Third to Fourth street including the outlots A and B in said village, to be six feet in width constructed of dressed and sized two inch pine planks four inches wide placed flat-wise and firmly spiked upon four (4) sleepers or stringers of Norway pine two inches thick and six inches wide placed edge wise at equal distance from one another, and those next to the edge of the walk to be four (4) inches from their respective edges, and all to be placed upon a firm foundation and the material in said sidewalk to be of a quality acceptable to the Street commissioner of said village and the work upon the same to be done to his satisfaction.

The side of the walk towards the center of the street to be six (6) feet from the front line of the lots upon the side of the street upon which it may be built, and said sidewalk to be constructed to a grade line established by said village council.

That for the purpose of building said sidewalk, the said village council have levied and assessed a tax of twenty-seven (27) cents per foot upon all the lands hereinafter described and the owners thereof, and delivered to the undersigned a warrant for the collection of said tax.

That the description of the lands in said village fronting upon said sidewalk and the names of the owners thereof which are known as well as the lands whose owners are not known, are as follows:

Name	Lot	Blk.	St. Hilaire
Maria Francis	A	0	"
"	1	1	"
Danial Patterson	2	1	"
"	3	1	"
O. J. Kruse	4	1	"
H. O. Jackson	5	1	"
H. E. Ives	6	1	"
W. A. Sorsoleil	B	0	"

Now, therefore the owners of the aforesaid lands are hereby notified and required to pay the said taxes in labor material or money on or before the 5th day of July 1899 and that the labor and material offered in payment of such taxes are to be such as may be required by the street commissioner of said village and done and furnished to his satisfaction.

Dated this 6th day of June 1899.
R. H. Almer,
Street Commissioner.

Watches Clocks and Jewelery.

I will carry a full line of wathes, clocks and jewlery hereafter at Johnson's drug store. Anything you want that we do not carry in stock we will order for you at ten per cent above the wholesale prices and by doing this you will save money by dealing at home. Watches left for repairs will be sent down on first train and returned the next day. I shall continue to be at Johnson's drug store the 10th 11th and 12th of each month. Eyes examined free.

Prof. J. Q. Adams,
Red Lake Falls.

FAMILY WASHING.

We can give you prices on family work that will surprise you. Why not save fuel, water and wood by having your washing done by us? We call and deliver your work. Starch and return rough dry at prices so small that we are ashamed to print it.

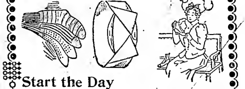
St. Hilaire Laundry.
B. Kortgaard, Proprietor.

WANTED.

Teachers to attend the Crookston College Summer School. It is cheap thorough and practical. Term opens June 12th and continues 8 weeks. Address, Crookston College, Crookston, Minnesota.

—For cuts and sores there is nothing better than the Imperial Carbolic salve.

We Handle Everything.



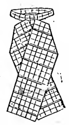
Start the Day Right

And everything will go smoothly. The proper way to start the day is by coming around to our store and ordering a supply of groceries for the day, such things as you may need. It will take you but a few minutes, and we feel sure you will not regret it.

Our Groceries

Are always fresh, and then the prices are as near right as we know how to make them. If you have not been in the habit of trading with us, drop in and see us anyway; you might get into the habit.

Hardware



We carry everything in the hardware line from cooking stoves down to tacks—all you have to do is to ask for what you want. If you want anything in the tin or copper line done drop into our tin shop and your wants will be attended to.

Yours very truly,
RAPP & POST
St. Hilaire, Minnesota.

The Cheap Cash Store.

GROCERIES NOTIONS FRUIT CANDIES TOYS TOBACCOS CIGARS AND GENTS FURNISHING GOODS.

ALL AT HARD TIMES PRICES. M. A. HALL.

A. H. WEAGANT

Having bought the business of Fred Eikhoff, I am now prepared to sell you anything in line of
HARDWARE AND TINWARE
CUTLERY, PAINTS & OILS,
Everything at Rock Bottom Prices. Come and see for yourself. Opposite Hotel Markham

LEONARD HOLMES,
—DEALER IN—
Agricultural Implements
WHEAT, FLAX OATS AND BARLEY.
Flour and Feed always on Hand.

Lumber! Lumber!
OF ALL KINDS.
We have a large and well assorted stock of Dry Lumber and are prepared to fill all orders on short notice. We also carry a complete assortment
—OF—
Sash, Doors, Paper
AND ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL
Which we buy in large quantities and are thereby enabled to sell at lowest market prices.
ST. HILAIRE LUMBER CO.

NEW MEAT MARKET.
L. M. ROLAND, Proprietor.
Fresh and Salted Meats.
Highest Market Price Paid for Hides.

L. K. KOLSTAD
DEALER IN
Boots and Shoes!
Repairing a Specialty.

ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.

The Waning Honeymoon.

"Do you mind if I go into the smoking compartment of the car for a few minutes?" he asked.

"You'd better not go just now, darling," she replied suggestively. "We're coming to a tunnel in a few minutes."—Chicago Post.

Victoria Getting Young.

In view of the Queen's approaching visit to the continent, Englishmen are especially interested in her health. It is announced that her hearing has grown acute and her eyesight keener. Youthful faculties in old age depends upon the health. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters cures indigestion, constipation, biliousness, nervousness, as well as malaria, fever and ague.

Not Exactly a Failure.

Mrs. Gotham—"So your marriage was a failure?"

Mrs. Lakeside—"Yes but I'm the preferred creditor; all my husband's property is in my name."—Town Topics.

"Pride Goeth
Before a Fall."

Some proud people think they are strong, ridicule the idea of disease, neglect health, let the blood run down, and stomach, kidneys and liver become deranged. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla and you will prevent the fall and save your pride.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

Where the Bird Was.

Amateur Sportsman—"What did I bring down, Pat?"

Pat—"Yer dog, sur; blew his head all off."

Amateur Sportsman—"Where's the bird?"

Pat—"Picking at the dog, sur."—Harlem Life.

A Study in Mechanics.

The Deering Ideal Mower, made in Chicago, affords an interesting study in advanced machines, and is as perfect a machine as brain, brawn and money can build. It is furnished throughout with Deering Roller and Ball Bearings. The "Ideal" has a very wide truck and high wheels, insuring great stability and ample traction. Its gears are light, strong and reliable. In this machine the amount of lost motion is so slight that the instant one of the mower wheels starts it communicates power to the crank shaft and knife, thus making it possible to start in heavy grass without backing. The knife may be removed in fifteen seconds, simply by raising a latch. It is the only mower on the market equipped with ball bearings of the bicycle pattern.

That New Drug.

"I see they have a new chemical over in Germany that is called dyatlekilocollamidoxylenzoesauremethylestine."

"Gee, I'd hate to go after a dose of that for a man whose life depended upon having it in a hurry."—Exchange.

PATENTS

List of Patents Issued Last Week to Northwestern Inventors.

John H. Ames, St. Paul, Minn., refrigerator; Jacob Banz, 2nd, St. Paul, Minn., pail ear; Frederick Dickerhoom, Mankato, Minn., means for detaching harness from shafts; James S. Ferguson, Minneapolis, Minn., acetylene gas generator; Orlando V. Geer, Simpson, Minn., nut lock; Ferdinand Hinrichs, St. Paul, Minn., refrigerator circle; Joseph M. Oldham, Afton, Minn., pneumatic sprayer; Jay W. Powers, Minneapolis, Minn., acetylene gas generator; Olaf Rood, Hagan, Minn., bag holder design.

Merwin, Lothrop & Johnson, Patent Attorneys, 910 Pioneer Press Bldg., St. Paul.

A Domestic Catastrophe.

"Then there is no hope?" said the man desperately.

"None," she calmly replied. "The tramp must have stolen it."

She had saved a piece of pie from luncheon for his dinner, and now it was gone.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Do Your Feet Ache and Burn?
Shake into your shoes, Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It makes tight and New Shoes feel Easy. Cures Corns, Bunions, Swollen, Hot and Sweating Feet. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Cruel.

Mrs. Skimpen—"I think Mr. Smith must have liked the beefsteak pie. He had two helpings of it."

The Tactless Boarder—"Perhaps he did it on a wager."—Boston Transcript.

Don't Accept a Substitute!
When you ask for Cascarets, be sure you get the genuine Cascarets Candy Cathartic! Don't accept fraudulent substitutes, imitations or counterfeits!

The ideal juror is a man who never reads the papers, or if he does is unable to understand what he reads.

The world would soon cease to gyrate if it were not for our hobbies.

I believe Piso's Cure is the only medicine that will cure consumption.—Anna M. Ross, Williamsport, Pa., Nov. 12, '95.

Letters of credit may be properly termed capital letters.

It sometimes happens that a divorce is the part of wisdom.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

If a cat has nine lives we should accredit a kit-ten.

The century plant is a case of age before beauty.

FREE.
Kindly inform your readers that for the next 30 days we will send a sample box of our wonderful 5 DROPS Salve free, which never fails to cure Piles, Eczema and all skin diseases, also old running and chronic sores. It is a specific for Piles, and the only one in existence which gives instant relief and cures within a few days. Its effect is wonderful when applied to Burns, Scalds, Sunburn, Boils, Abscesses, Scrofulous Affections, Scalp Humors, Chafing Parts and Raw Surfaces. Write today for a free sample of 5 DROPS Salve to the Swanson Rheumatic Cure Company, 160-164 E. Lake St., Chicago, Ill.
5 DROPS

KILL THEM
Those peace destroyers, the household Flies.
Dutcher's Fly Killer
not only kills the parent fly, but prevents reproduction. A sheet will kill a quart.
Ask your Druggist or Grocer.
FRED'K DUTCHER DRUG CO. St. Albans, Vt.

FARM AND GARDEN.

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO AGRICULTURISTS.

Some Up-to-Date Hints About Cultivation of the Soil and Yields Thereof—Horticulture, Viticulture and Floriculture.

Plague of Foreign Weeds.

If we had only to contend with weeds native to this country, the task would be a comparatively light one. The weeds brought in from across the oceans have proved to be our greatest enemies and the most difficult to eradicate. The change of soil and climate has seemed in many instances to give them increased powers of living and developing. Where at home they receive little attention on account of their little aggressiveness, in their new habitat they spread and take possession of the earth to such an extent that it sometimes seems as if man must be vanquished in his conflict with them. In the list of 200 weeds of the United States published in the Year-Book of 1895, 108 species are of foreign origin. Of these 108, 64 are natives of Europe and 30 have come to us through Europe, though they probably originated in Asia. Two only of these came to us directly from Asia. From South America we have received about a dozen weeds, most of which are as yet known only in our gulf states.

As the star of empire is said to hold its way westward, so also weeds seem to have a tendency to work westward more than eastward. It is a fact that the weeds passed from Asia to Europe and from Europe to America and from America across the Pacific to New Zealand and Australia. Less than half a dozen American weeds have become troublesome in Europe, which is very remarkable considering the fact of our constant shipments of grain to Europe. Only three or four species from west of the Mississippi have become distributed through the eastern states, and only one or two have entered the country from the Pacific coast.

This may be due to a number of causes. The greatest would seem to be the extension westward of cultivated areas. The newly cultivated lands may prove more susceptible to seizure by the weeds than the lands that have been tilled for centuries and ages. Another cause may be the poor cleaning of seed from Europe due to their possession of poorer machinery and the fact that in the advance line of agriculture machinery for cleansing is so generally possessed that the seed sent to Europe contains few weed seeds. A third reason may be that there is found less waste ground in Europe than in America, on which the weeds can get a foothold. We must, however, admit that these reasons do not entirely satisfy us as to the causes of so general a westward movement of weeds.

How to Raise Corn.

If you have a good bed of loose dirt and cultivate right, you can raise corn, says a contributor to Indiana Farmer. The first thing is to break your ground nine inches deep. Then harrow and drag until the ground is loose as deep as you plowed it, unless it is a heavy sod; then you don't have to work it so deep. I would lay the ground off in rows three and one-half feet wide and make a good furrow with the single plow. I would plant one grain of corn every twenty inches; then take your steel spike-tooth harrow. Go the first time the same way that you planted, just as the corn comes through the ground. Then in about a week, with your harrow, go crosswise the piece; then take the cultivator and plow deeper the first time than any other; the second time a little shallower than the first. I would plow as many as five times; once every week. I prefer level cultivation. Then, after I am through plowing, and when most of our farmers have laid their corn by, I take a drag that weighs about 100 pounds and is three feet wide and run through every balk, every other week until my corn begins to get into hard roasting-ear condition.

Pruning and Transplanting Young Trees

From Farmers' Review: A large proportion of the trees that are lost in resetting die because they have been injured when they were taken up. In digging up the trees the surface soil should be removed to the root system, then a trench dug around the tree outside the mass of roots; then by cutting under the roots with a sharp spade on each side, the tree may be loosened from the soil with a good supply of young, growing roots. If the tree is large, the trench must be made around the roots to the depth of the lowest, and the roots gradually loosened and freed from the soil. No matter how carefully a tree is dug, many of the young feeding roots will be injured or destroyed. Thus only a small amount of sap can be supplied to the branches and buds, which nevertheless continue to evaporate a large amount of water; thus the tree often starts very slowly, and sometimes fails entirely. By removing the branches and buds in proportion to the injury of the roots a balance is maintained. All injured roots should be cut off clean with a knife, and the wounds of large roots should be painted over with some waterproof covering. When trees are planted the roots should have a fine, mellow bed of soil, which should be pressed firmly in contact with every fiber, leaving no air space around them, and all should be spread out in natural position. The soil should be pressed very firmly around all the roots, so that the new roots will be encouraged to make a rapid growth. If the soil in which the tree is planted is the same as the one from which it is taken, the tree should be set the same depth as it was before it was removed. If the soil is heavier, the tree should be shallower; if lighter, it should be placed deeper. The surface of the soil which is over the roots should be fine and light, because the capillarity is then broken up and the moisture cannot escape.

The Lost Crop.

From Farmers' Review: The losing of this year's crop may not be an unmitigated calamity to the fruit grower. If he gives his orchards the right kind of treatment, in a year from now he will see that they will be in better condition for further bearing than they would have been had they been allowed to go on and bear their usual heavy crop. But this will largely depend upon how the orchard is managed, and there are a number of things that must be attended to.

First, all the dead wood must be cut away, and some that is not dead, in order that the remaining parts of the tree may be able to make a more vigorous start in the spring.

Second, all the pruned-off wood, whether in the orchard or small fruit plantation, should be burned to destroy any insect or disease that may infect it.

Third, the spraying must not be abandoned because the crop has failed. Begin in time and spray just as faithfully as though expecting a big crop of fruit. Spraying is likely to be very effective this year, if the directions on pruning and burning are carried out, because the parts of the tree carrying the diseases and insects have been largely destroyed. There will be, consequently, fewer enemies left to combat.

Fourth, the cultivation should be thorough and good. This is necessary in order that the tree may have sufficient food supply for the vigorous growth which it should make.

These attentions are all necessary to assist the tree in its recuperation.

A Fish Pond.

From Farmers' Review:—Since the ice has gone from my pond I have seen a number of good-sized catfish in the edge of the water dead. There were also the heads of a number, the rest of the fish being gone. The dead fish can be accounted for by the long-continued freezing which made ice two feet in thickness. The heads are perhaps the remains of some mink or turtle feast. They were eaten close up to the barbels. These sharp thorns would certainly be in the way of devouring the head. In the fall there were several clouds of these fish playing up and down the pond, and as I have not observed any of their size among the dead, I suppose the pond is yet well stocked. A fish pond is a profitable institution. It furnishes an excellent pastime, for there are but few who do not delight in angling. Then the finny brood are a choice dish on the table. A pond does not occupy much room and is a blessing to the stock when it supplies a tank where they can drink whenever they are inclined. It would surprise many to know how often stock will drink when they have free access to a trough always supplied with water. Lack of water will shrink a cow faster than anything else within my knowledge. A pond, too, can easily be made a thing of beauty. Mine is in a woods pasture and down to both its margins grow the young oaks of various species, and the hazel. In its borders I have planted calamus, cat-tails, skunk-cabbage, and white hellebore; in the deeper flood lilies. Wild fowl of many kinds visit it, and it is full of varied life. Had I no natural grove in which to locate a pond, I would surround with trees and shrubs the one I would make in the open field. I don't think I would fancy sitting in the sun to angle. Besides, fish are fond of shade in the heats of summer.

Foreign Eggs in Great Britain.

Regarding the countries from which Great Britain imports eggs, an English writer says:

Taking the various countries from which we import eggs, the comparative values for the last three years are very suggestive:

	1896.	1897.	1898.
	£	£	£
Russia	630,032	812,297	966,129
Denmark ...	522,985	596,282	685,447
Germany ...	782,121	813,022	788,844
Belgium ...	694,322	768,677	729,876
France	1,273,290	1,022,869	817,336
Canada	178,931	193,998	251,710
Other countries	103,045	150,262	216,781

It will be seen that the remarkable advance of Russian supplies during the last few years is not only maintained, but increased, and now the empire of the Czar sends more eggs to us than any other country. In 1896 it held the fourth place, now it occupies the first. Increases are recorded from Denmark, Canada, and other countries, and decreases from Germany, Belgium, and France. As to the last named, the change which has been mentioned in previous years is still further accentuated. In 1892 the value of eggs sent to us from France was £1,611,945; last year it was little more than half, and it is evident that home and Irish supplies are taking the place once occupied by the French, which formerly commanded a much higher position than is now the case. The greater supplies of English, and the improvement in Irish eggs, will probably make this tendency still more evident in the future. As a result of the reduction of French supplies, which are the best foreign on our markets, and increase of Russian, which are among the cheapest, the average value has naturally been reduced.

Potash in the Soil.—The farmer who usually puts on 20 loads or tons of stable manure to the acre may think it would be expensive to add to that a dressing of 2,000 pounds of acid phosphate and 1,000 pounds of potash salts, but it should be remembered that in the above estimate no allowance is made for phosphoric acid or potash in the soil. Very few fields are so destitute of potash as to need the full amount indicated. The fermenting or rotting of so much manure in the soil would liberate potash which is now in an insoluble form, so that the plants could take it up, and we may leave it to future generations to supply it when we have exhausted the soil supply.—Ex.

Sugar-Curing Pork.—Allow the hog to thoroughly cool before cutting; carefully trim hams and shoulders and split the sides in two lengthwise. Sprinkle bottom of barrel with fine salt and rub each piece of meat with salt. Pack in barrel with hams on the bottom, shoulders next and sides on top. After three days cover the meat with brine made as follows: Water, 8 gallons; salt, 12 pounds; sugar, 3 pounds; saltpeter, 3 ounces; concentrated lye, 3 teaspoonfuls. Boil all together and skim. After cooling, pour over the meat. Leave in brine from four to six weeks, then smoke as desired. The brine should be strong enough to bear up an egg.

A Happy Mother's Gratitude

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 26,735]

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I have many, many thanks to give you for what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. After first confinement I was sick for nine years with prolapsus of the womb, had pain in left side, in small of back, a great deal of headache, palpitation of heart and leucorrhœa. I felt so weak and tired that I could not do my work. I became pregnant again and took your Compound all through, and now have a sweet baby girl. I never before had such an easy time during labor, and I feel it was due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am now able to do my work and feel better than I have for years. I cannot thank you enough."—MRS. ED. EHLINGER, DEVINE, TEX.

Wonderfully Strengthened.

"I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Blood Purifier and Liver Pills and feel wonderfully strengthened. Before using your remedies I was in a terrible state; felt like fainting every little while. I thought I must surely die. But now, thanks to your remedies, those feelings are all gone."—MRS. EMILIE SCHNEIDER, 1244 HELEN AVE., DETROIT MICH.

Read the Advertisements.

You will enjoy this publication much better if you will get into the habit of reading the advertisements; they will afford a most amusing study, and will put you in the way of getting some excellent bargains. Our advertisers are reliable; they send what they advertise.

Poor Fellow.

"What's the matter with Shingle?"

"He doesn't know; he's so thin."

"What do you mean by that?"

"Simply that he can't tell wether it's stomach trouble or backache."—Philadelphia Record.

Are You Using Allen's Foot-Ease?
It is the only cure for Swollen Smarting, Burning, Sweating Feet, Corns and Bunions. Ask for Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder to be shaken into the shoes. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Friendly Relations Established.

George—"How is your suit with Miss De Pink progressing?"

Jack—"Finely. When I call now her dog wags its tail."—Stray Stories.

Hall's Catarrh Cure
Is a constitutional cure. Price, 75c.

Inconsistency with past views or conduct may be but a mark of increasing knowledge and wisdom.—Tryon Edwards.

FITS Permanently Cured. No fits or nervousness after first day's use of Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. Send for FREE $2.00 trial bottle and treatise. DR. R. H. KLINE, Ltd., 931 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

When a married couple or a pair of shoes are exactly alike they fail to make a fitting pair.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N. Y.
For sale by all Druggists.—Price 50c. per bottle.

STOCK RAISERS
Will find it greatly to their advantage, if before purchasing a farm, they will look at the country along the line of the
Saint Paul & Duluth Railroad.
DAIRY FARMERS
Who desire the best Clover and Timothy land, in a district which can boast of a fine climate, good pure water, rich soil, fine meadows, and near to the markets of St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth and Superior should apply immediately by letter or in person to
WM. P. TROWBRIDGE,
Asst. Land Commissioner,
St. Paul & Duluth R. R.
Box U—903 Globe Bldg., St. Paul, Minn.

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
REGULATE THE LIVER

25 CTS. PISO'S CURE FOR 25 CTS.
CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS.
Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists.
CONSUMPTION

FOOLING AN AFRICAN LION.

Ruse Which a Hunter Employed to Save His Life.

Only those familiar with the "manners and customs" of the elephant have any idea what a nimble creature it really is, says Chums. Massive and slow-footed as it looks, it is capable, when roused, of feats that would be difficult for much fleeter animals. Especially is this the case with African elephants, which, though taller, are generally lighter than their Asiatic brethren. Moreover, accustomed for ages to lead a wild life and often depending on their alertness and speed of foot for their very existence, they have acquired a skill in gymnastics which has occasionally taken even old elephant hunters by surprise. In illustration of this fact we are reminded of a story told by one of the noble army of British sportsmen in Africa. He was "out after elephants," and had just fired at and wounded a magnificent specimen. Unfortunately for him, he had only succeeded in slightly wounding it, when, infuriated by the attack, it turned and charged him. It was a terrifying sight. With its enormous ears spread out like sails, and emitting shrill notes of rage, it came thundering over the ground like a runaway locomotive. The hunter fired another shot, but missed; his nerve was shaken, and, throwing down his "express" rifle, he sought safety in flight. Near at hand was a steep hill and to this he directed his steps, for, being but slightly acquainted with the climbing powers of the elephant, he thought his pursuer might be baffled by the steepness of the ascent. It was a terrible disappointment to find that the elephant could climb a hill just as quickly as the hunter, nimble runner as he was. The fugitive, indeed, would have soon been overtaken if he had not thought of a really ingenious ruse. He knew that elephants never run, or even walk, down a steep incline, but always crouch down, gather their feet together, lean well back and slide down. Just as the ferocious animal had got within a few yards of him, therefore, the wily hunter suddenly doubled and ran down the hill again. Quick as a flash the elephant turned, gathered himself together, and, trumpeting with baffled rage, slid down after his victim. The hunter had just time to spring out of the way as the great beast came "tobogganing" after him, smashing trees and shrubs and carrying everything before it like an avalanche. Then once more the hunter dashed to the top of the hill, while the elephant, unable to stop itself, went careering down to the very foot, where, apparently feeling very sore and disappointed, it rose and walked wearily back to its native woods.

MILL OWNED BY NEGROES.

White People Employed to Instruct the Colored Labor.

Sixty hands are now daily employed in the mill of the Coleman Manufacturing company at Concord, N. C., placing the machinery and getting the mill ready to begin work. This is the mill organized by colored people and to be operated by colored labor, says the Manufacturers' Record of Baltimore. Warren C. Coleman, the secretary and treasurer, was instrumental in placing the stock, the bulk of which was subscribed by colored people. The capital stock is $50,000. The mill building is 80 by 120 feet, three stories, with a tower four stories and a chimney 20 by 100 feet, all neatly painted and whitewashed. A waterworks system has been built in connection with the mill, the source of supply being a spring 1,100 feet distant. The company owns 100 acres of land adjoining the mill. J. C. Speckin of Indianapolis is superintending the placing of a 200-horse-power Corliss engine and two 100-horse-power boilers. When the mill begins operations, white people will be employed to instruct the colored labor. The mill and its equipment cost about $65,000. It will operate 7,000 spindles and 100 looms. All its officers are colored. By its charter it will be allowed to spin, weave, manufacture, finish and sell warps, yarns, cloth, prints or other fabrics made of cotton, wool or other material.

Her Skirts Rustle.

All is not silk-lined that rustles. There is a lady in this town some of whose skirts are silk-lined and give out that delightful rustle that denotes the aristocrat, says the New York Commercial Advertiser. Other of her skirts are not, but they give out the same rustle. For them she buys a yard of the rustliest silk on the market and sews it down the front of her gown, where the action of her knees will produce the most swishing effect, and then she prances forth with as good an appearance as the richest of them all. And she has a silk-lined walk that forbids the entrance of a suspicion into the minds of the most suspicious. All which proves her fertility of expedient, and does not argue her more deceitful than man, only more resourceful, more alive to the "instant needs of things;" for it is not the silk lining the public demand, but only the swish of it.

Does Manual Work Debase a Lawyer?

In principle, Americans are used to the doctrine that no honest labor is demeaning. Perhaps Hungary also holds this idea, but, practically, she is inclined to be indignant because one of her briefless barristers has taken to manual work. Tired of waiting for clients, he went to earning money by painting, decorating, window cleaning and so forth, in the provincial towns in the district in which he practiced at the bar. An effort was made to have his name erased from the advocates, but the Lord Chief Justice ruled that the young man was within his rights in earning money by honest manual labor.

Severe Test of Friendship.

Jack—And you say Minnie Jones and Sadie Brown used to be fast friends?

Tom—Yes. They were up to the time they moved next door to each other.—Ohio State Journal.

Word "Milliner."

Milliner is a corruption of "Milaner," from Milan, which city at one time gave the fashion to Europe in all matters of taste in woman's dress.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the Medicine of Auld Lang Syne

Old friends, old wine, and the old doctor are the trusty kinds. For half a century has been the Sarsaparilla which the people have bought when they were sick and wanted to be cured. If the best is none too good for you, you will get Ayer's. One bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla contains the strength of three of the ordinary kind.

AYER'S

X 10 X 10 X 10 X 10 X 10 X 10 X 10

Why Is a Ten Dollar Bill Always Worth Ten Dollars?—
BECAUSE THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS BEHIND IT.

Why Is a Deering Binder Always Worth What You Pay for It?—
BECAUSE THE DEERING HARVESTER CO. IS BEHIND IT.

The man who owns a Deering machine knows that he has full value for his money—knows it because the Deering guaranty goes with every machine sold by them.

Deering Machines are as strong as the Deering claim, and that claim, in substance, is that Deering Grain and Grass Harvesting Machines will outclass all others in practical field performance at harvest time—that they will "clean up the crop" better than any other—that they are by all odds of lighter draft than any other—and that either in the field or on the road they are more conveniently handled than any other.

These are strong claims, but remember the Deering Harvester Company is behind them.

DEERING HARVESTER CO., - - - Chicago.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE
DO YOU WANT A HOME?
60,000 ACRES OF GOOD FARMING LANDS IN WASHBURN AND BARRON COUNTIES, WISCONSIN, to be divided and sold at $3.00 to $6.00 PER ACRE.
Long time and easy payments to actual settlers.
Come and see us or address,
W. R. BOURNE, Mgr., SHELL LAKE LUMBER CO., SHELL LAKE, WIS.

"WHERE DIRT GATHERS, WASTE RULES."
GREAT SAVING RESULTS FROM THE USE OF SAPOLIO

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE
WHEAT
WHEAT
WHEAT
"Nothing but wheat; what you might call a sea of wheat," is what was said by a lecturer speaking of Western Canada. For particulars as to routes, railway fares, etc., apply to Superintendent of Immigration, Department Interior, Ottawa, Canada, or to Ben Davies, 154 East Third St., St. Paul, or T. O. Currie, Stevens Point, Wis.

Trade Mark
CURES in 1 to 5 days. Guaranteed not to stricture. Prevents contagion.
BIG G
THE EVANS CHEMICAL CO. CINCINNATI, O. U. S. A.
$1.00
CURE YOURSELF!
Use Big G for unnatural discharges, inflammations, irritations or ulcerations of mucous membranes. Painless, and not astringent or poisonous.
Sold by Druggists,
or sent in plain wrapper, by express, prepaid, for $1.00, or 3 bottles, $2.75.
Circular sent on request.

A Natural Black is Produced by
Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers.
50 cts. of druggists or R. P. Hall & Co., Nashua, N.H.

$5 to $30 3000 BICYCLES
Everyone a Bargain.
NEW AND SECOND HAND.
2d Hand—good as new for service, $3 to $12. New '99 Models $12.50 to $30. None higher. We guarantee to save you money. Largest variety to select from. Lowest prices ever quoted. Every customer satisfied. Shipped subject to examination and approval. No money in advance. A few good AGENTS WANTED. For price list and particulars address the old reliable cycle house,
BROWN-LEWIS CO., (F C) 293 Wabash Av., Chicago.
(The above Co. is reliable and every wheel a bargain—Editor)

GET RICH! A COPPER MINING COMPANY
just Organized offers their stock in limited amounts at a low price. A fortune awaits intelligent investors. Send for prospectus and full information. Stock 25 cents a share. Par value, $1.00. We believe this stock will be worth $20.00 a share inside of one year. Write for prospectus to J. W. CAVANAGH, 11 Wall St., New York City.

PENSION JOHN W. MORRIS, Washington, D. C.
Successfully Prosecutes Claims.
Late Principal Examiner U S Pension Bureau.
3 yrs in civil war, 15 adjudicating claims, atty since.

WANTED—Case of bad health that R-I-P-A-N-S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimonials.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water.

When Answering Advertisements Kindly Mention This Paper.

Minnesota Historical Society

MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR.

VOLUME XVIII. ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY. JUNE 14, 1899. NUMBER 46

FORWARD!

IS THE WORD FOR THE REFORM FORCES, STATE AND NATION.

No Steps Backward—Cheering National Reports—More "Death" for the Financial Question — Enthusiastic Bi-Metal-lists—Republican Revolt From the Gold Standard — Trusts and Imperialism Companion Issues to Silver—State and Twin City Topics—Minnesota's Endorsement of Denderson, and Five Tornadoes in Iowa!—The Story of "We are Seven." The Old Settlers and Forty Years of Republican Rule—G. O. P. Gubernatorial Candidates in Hard Lines—Memorial Day Observances and Their Lessons. Political Notes and Comments of the Week.

Reform Press Bureau.
ST. PAUL, June 5, 1899.

During the past week the financial question has died some more. Besides renewed pledges by the Democracy's national committee the bimetallic organizations of the four states of Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Illinois have met at Louisville, not a member or an organization lost, and their declarations more reassuring than ever. Kansas has a Republican revolt, ex-Governor Eskridge bringing out his paper, the Emporia Republican, against the gold standard, as the "parent of trusts, the paralyzer of industry, as commercial cannibalism, as serfdom for the masses, as the headwind against transportation lines, as the undermining rat of Republican institutions. Governor Erskine's revolt is the sensation of the day. He has been prominent in the Republican party since Lincoln's time. And the church, as well, is aroused. The synod of the Reformed church in session in Ohio denounced the gold standard and consequent evils as sapping to the life of the nation, destroying moral as well as material progress.

Oh, yes; free coinage is dead!

Municipal ownership of utilities is also marching on: The city of Glasgow earned net, in 1898, from such control, $374,500, after paying all expenses, and giving the people the cheapest street railways, gas, water, parks, gardens and concert halls—all of which the city conducts—in the world. The Twin Cities could do the same, but what would poor Colonel Lowry do without his $60,000,000 property which is taxed as $1,500,000.

Th' United States uv Amerikee—
I hev grown kind o' used t' that name, you see,
En I've bin jest ez proud ez a feller could be
Uv old "Uncle Sam" en of this countree
En th' Red, White and Blue uv th' Flag uv th' Free.
But I can't figger out jest how Manillee,
On th' other side uv the world frum me,
En a lyin' off shore from old Ashlee,
Kin be part uv th' States uv Amerikee.
—Henry Slade Goff, in Farm, Stock and Home.

As fast as the truth is revealed by publication of suppressed official reports the underpinning is knocked out of the administration's course toward the Filipinos. Dewey cabled Aguinaldo to "Come as soon as possible," and he came and joined forces against the Spanish. When Spain was crushed, Aguinaldo formally requested the United States forces to "assume protection of the Philippines for at least long enough to enable the inhabitants establish a government of their own," acquiescing in which, such remained the attitude of our forces, land and sea, until Aguinaldo learned of the purpose of Washington to seize the country by purchase, and govern it by arms. When the situation, from the just suspicions of the Filipinos became strained, Aguinaldo proposed the establishment of a neutral zone until the issues were settled, which was officially declined by Otis. The latter's official report shows that our men fired the first shot, one of MacArthur's outposts firing on and killing a Filipino.

This much creeping out from the press censorships, probably when the whole truth is known the whole Western world will not afford the like of the outrages we as a nation have committed in the name of "liberty." What a day of reckoning will that be when the responsibility is fixed for what it has cost of beloved dead, who have carried out the orders of superiors without questionings, and what it will cost in blood and treasure before the wretched end is reached!

Are those who are so glib about calling people "copperheads" aware of the distinguished and patriotic men who comprise the Anti-Imperialist League of America. Take their officers: Hon. George S. Boutwell is president, and the vice presidents are: Grover Cleveland, George F. Edmunds, John Sherman, Henry Copman Potter, H. S. Pingree, Samuel Gompers, John G. Carlisle, Andrew Carnegie, Charles Francis Adams, Carl Schurz, Beverdy Johnson, Samuel Bowles of the Springfield Republican, Edward Atkinson, James C. Carter, John C. Bullitt, Patrick A. Collins, Herbert Myrick, Theodore L. Cuyler. The League treasurer is Francis A. Osborne, the secretary Erving Winslow and the executive committee, besides the officers, Winslow Warren, William Endicott, Jr., James J. Meyera, Albert S. Parsons, David Green Haskins, Jr., and J. P. Munroe. Pretty good "copperhead" associates, these, and quite a prominent list for the scaffold when Hangman Eustis commences on his job.

Twin City Memorial Day observance had few special features, though more than the usual deep interest. Here and there a few breaks were noted, where such as speakers uttering sentiments at variance with the principles of freedom and personal liberty for which the veterans of the War for the Union fought, in referring to the Filipino war. Of course the "glory of the flag," pride in our victorious arms and the might of our nation easily lead to exultations. But the moment it is remembered that the Filipinos are fighting for country as they desire and understand it, we come to our sober senses. There's ever our Declaration of Independence; "We hold these truths self-evident. That all men are created equal; that they are endowed with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." Imperialism requires a new Declaration of Independence. Out upon it.

Of the many addresses touched with the true fire none is more highly praised than that of Hon. T. R. Kane, secretary of the Democratic state central committee, delivered in the St. Paul Auditorium to a magnificent audience. Of Memorial Sunday addresses one of great power and ability was that delivered by Rev. Dr. Holwith, First Presbyterian church, Minneapolis, before Rawlins post, G. A. R. The post obtained the address for publication and for the post archives.

A flamboyant Republican orator began an address at one of the Twin City schools, on Memorial day, "As I look into the smiling faces sitting before me," and the children commenced to giggle. They hadn't gotten over their amusement at the idea of sitting on their faces when he commenced to speak of the glorious war on the Filipinos, and that orator actually went away believing Superintendent Jordan's pupils tainted with "copperheadism."

It has remained for the Republican school board of Minneapolis to take the first "crack" at the free text book law, its rule requiring children to purchase their own pencils and paper. That's right. Restore the burdens to the poor that big salaries and expensive administration may be maintained.

Among excuses for defeating the gross earnings bill made by Republican senators none is more inventive than that given by Senator Shellbach of Granite Falls. Assuming the change from the present to the direct method of taxation, the senator says that nearly all the assessable railroad property would be found in the Twin City counties, and as for the country the assessors would be able to find only a "narrow strip of turnpike, two rails and a couple of muddy ditches." "The fast mail and even the crawling freight would be too swift for the assessor." Let the senator have the credit that here is a reason not laid down in the "tract" of Solicitor Grover.

The hunt for some one "to beat Lind" goes on. Eddy is the latest consideration. But wait till next year and Hanna and Goodnow will come up and settle it.

Minnesota's Republican congressional delegation, having had pointers from Hanna that either Henderson or Sherman would be "acceptable to McKinley and me," our patriot "Seven" have been together and endorsed Henderssn. If influence counts the other fellow should win.

Speaking of the "influences" of our "seven," probably Minnesota never had a delegation of so aggregate "light weight," and that is saying much. Think of the comparison of "Tricky" Tawney with William Windom, Mort Wilkinson, Mark H. Dunnell, Judge Thomas Wilson or Captain W. H. Harries; or McCleary with John Lind, H. B. Strait or Ignatius Donnelly; Heatwole and his "good looks," with Eugene Wilson, "Bill" King, W. D. Washburn, Colonel Strait, Judge J. L. McDonald and O. M. Hall; Stevens with S. R. J. McMillan and Edmund Rice; Your Uncle Loren himself and Frank Eddy with those who have given Minnesota standing in the nation, and been more than mere clerks and wirepullers to worm places for the importunate out of the overworked departments. And finally Morris, with Hon. Charles A. Towne. But comparisons are odious. Peace to the "seven." They will dwindle to less than a pair if the people are wise in 1900.

While the Minnesota "seven" were declaring for Henderson, five tornadoes were on deck in Iowa celebrating the Henderson boom. Was this Your Uncle Loren's work?

Of course everybody will be glad if the "seven" get committee promotions from Henderson, but how short lived it will be anyhow.

And they do say that the "seven" turned a deaf ear to Chairman Steele's appeal to the congressmen to "loosen up" up for the state campaign. How the Eustis chairman does get it in the neck.

And they do say that Your Uncle Loren Fletcher has taken to the sleep walking habit, and talks as he walks, and is heard to say, "Canty, Canty. Will they run Canty agin me? I can beat any one but Canty."

On Thursday last the Minnesota Old Settlers' association met with "old settler" Colonel Allen, at the Merchants hotel, St. Paul. Said one member to another: "Bill, do you know that for the 41 years that we have been attending these meetings, we never before had one under a Democratic governor?" "You bet I do know it, John," answered the venerable William, "and I never felt so good at a meeting before." Then they went and had an old fashioned "smile," for William is a Democrat. He had been up to call on Governor Lind earlier in the day.

Judge Collins' candidacy for the Republican nomination for governor having reached the explanation stage, the prospect is not rosy for the genial judge. He is charged with not having supported the Republican judges and with declaring that he could not bear to have "Eustis slobbering over him." If lukewarmness last year is condemnation where is the g. o. p. going to get its candidates anyhow?

G. S. C.

FITZ KNOCKED OUT

YOUNG MAN FROM CALIFORNIA DOES TH ETRICK.

James J. Jeffries, After Eleven Rounds of Whirlwind Fighting, Wrests the Title of Heavy-weight Champion From the Redheaded Antipodean — Jeffries the Acknowledged Match of the Man He Defeated—Contest Pulled Off Without a Wrangle and Was Devoid of Brutal Elements.

New York, June 11. — James J. Jeffries, another sturdy young giant, has come out from the West to whip champion pugilists.

At the arena of the Coney Island Athletic club last night he defeated Robert Fitzsimmons, world's champion in two classes — middle-weight and heavy-weight — in eleven rounds of whirlwind fighting. He came to the ring a rank outsider and left it the acknowledged master of the man he defeated. He was never at any time in serious danger, and after the size-up in the early rounds of the contest took the lead. He had the Australian whipped from the ninth round. It was acknowledged that Jeffries would have an immense advantage in weight, height and age, but the thousands who tipped and backed his opponent to win were sure that he was slow and that he would in that respect be absolutely at the mercy of the past master at the science of fighting that he was to meet. He proved, on the contrary, that he was just as fast as the man he met, and beat him down to unconscious defeat in a fair fight. He is a veritable giant in stature and marvelously speedy for his immense size. Less than a year ago he appeared in New York a great, awkward, ungainly boy. At twenty-four he has defeated Robert Fitzsimmons, Tom Sharkey and Peter Jackson, and if he cares for himself he will probably be able to successfully for many years. The defeated man was just as good as when on the crispy morning on the plains of far-away Nevada he lowered the colors of the then peerless Corbett. He was just as active, just as clever, just as tricky and just as fearless of punishment. He went unfaltering to his defeat. He was the aggressor even at moments when he was bleeding and unsteady, and when stunned by the blows he received he reeled instinctively toward his opponent, but found him a different than any he had met and a difficult man to fight. Jeffries fought from a crouching attitude that was hard to get at. He held his head low, his back was bent down and his left arm was extended. He kept jabbing away with the left and found no trouble in landing it. It was there that his superior reach told. That giant arm served as a sort of human fender to ward off danger. He showed an excellent defense and the ability to use both hands with skill. He is game, too, for he never shrank from his punishment. It was a great fight to watch and commenced and ended amid scenes of intense excitement. It was all very dramatic.

Defend the Title

The contest was pulled off without wrangle and was devoid of the brutal elements that Chief Devery alleged he feared. Never was a crowd handled with greater order and less friction. It was all perfectly orderly.

Fight Starts Promptly.

There was no long delay at the ring, and the big gong sounded almost as soon as the men had been presented and gloved. When they squared off Jeffries looked fifty pounds to the good. The opening round was a try-out pure and simple, and not a single blow of an effective nature was landed. The second round began in business-like fashion with Jeffries getting in his left. Fitzsimmons then took a turn, but was short. Just as the round closed Jeffries downed Fitzsimmons with a hard straight left on the jaw. The champion came up slowly in a dazed sort of a way and reeled toward his man. The crowd cheered Jeffries, but the gong ended the round. Fitzsimmons rallied in the rest and was aggressive again in the third. Fitzsimmons was bleeding but fighting viciously. He made the pace, but it was the Californian's round. The fourth was fast but not decisive. Fitzsimmons made his best showing in the fifth. He began the round with a punch that opened Jeffries' left eye and sent a little torrent of blood coursing down his cheek. He forced Jeffries against the ropes, but the Californian slipped away from him. He made Jeffries lug around, but when the round ended Jeffries was Duck and Fighting.

Fitzsimmons was the aggressor in the sixth, and that, too, was his round. He tried all of his tricks with left and right but was unable to place them right. He closed with a strong right upper-cut, but that, too, was blocked. The seventh might be said to have been Fitzsimmons', but he did no particular damage with his punches. The eighth saw the beginning of the end, for Fitzsimmons never regained his balance after that round. Jeffries began the round with a straight left on the face that again brought the blood out of his opponent's mouth. The Cornishman staggered against the ropes but came back for another facer. There was fear in Fitzsimmons' corner, and Julian yelled to Fitzsimmons to be careful. Fitzsimmons planted one of his lefts on Jeffries' jaw and staggered him against the ropes. Fitzsimmons looked like a beaten man. The round was all Jeffries'. He sent the Australian's head back with a series of lefts, put his right on the body and avoided any serious punishment. Fitzsimmons kept pressing forward all the time, however, but was unable to find his opponent. The tenth was in reality where the fight ended. Jeffries rushed his opponent and downed him with a left swing. Fitzsimmons seemed out, and there was a moment of the wildest excitement. Julian ran along the side of the ring and sprinkled water on his fallen idol. At the end of seven seconds Fitzsimmons staggered to his feet only to go down again. He was up again and Jeffries poised himself

For the Finish.

He shot his left to the body and tried for the head with the right. He was calm and collected, but the time was too short. Again did the gong come to the aid of the man who was then going, staggering and dazed, to certain defeat. There was a frantic effort to revive the champion of champions, but he was clearly gone and his seconds could not restore him. The fate-like gong clanged again and the old fighter wobbled out to meet the sturdy young Hercules who awaited him. It was as courageous and gritty a dash as up to the firing line in battle, but it was hopeless. They were together. It was a splendid moment and full of the melodramatic intensity that characterizes a tragedy. Jeffries was as fresh as at the start. There was a moment of sparring and the giant arms of the Californian shot out through the air. It was left and right and all over. Fitzsimmons, limp and unconscious, dropped to the floor. Jeffries stepped back, for he knew the force that had been put behind the terrible blows. The timers called off the seconds that counted out an old ring hero and heralded another, but nobody heard them. The crowd was on its feet howling. There was a rush for the ring, but scores of bluecoats barred the way. Ten seconds are short, and when the tenth had come there was a new roar of excitement to welcome the victor. Julian, Yank Kenny and Everhart gathered up the prostrate man. He was still in a trance. They carried him to his corner and a little blood oozed from his mouth as his head fell forward on his chest. The new hero crossed the ring and shook the hand of his rival, after which he was surrounded by his friends, who hustled him from the ring and into his dressing room.

MAY USE VETERANS.

Chance for Volunteers Who Want to Stay at Manila.

Washington, June 11.—The cabinet, in connection with the possible necessity of enlisting a force of volunteers, discussed a plan for the enlistment of several skeleton regiments in Manila from among the volunteers who desire to remain in the service and the subsequent filling out of these regiments with recruits enlisted in this country. Gen. Otis, according to the plan, will be given authority to select the officers who are to be mustered out. The plan, which commends itself to the favor of the members of the cabinet generally, would form a nucleus of veteran officers and men, seasoned to the climate and familiar with the work to be done. Such a force leavened with veterans, doubtless would be immeasurably superior to a force of raw recruits, undisciplined and unacclimated. The plan was only discussed in connection with future contingencies, and did not reach the stage of completion. The president announced names of the Nicaraguan canal commission and there was unanimous concurrence in the selection. The attorney general announced his opinion that the army reorganization bill fixing the maximum strength of the army at 65,000 did not include the enlisted force of the hospital corps, about 2,000 men, so that the enlisted force can be increased by that number.

Up to the time the cabinet met no word had come to indicate that the modus vivendi relative to the Alaskan boundary had been signed.

THE MARKETS.

Latest Quotations From Grain and Live Stock Centers.

St. Paul, June 12. — Wheat — No. 1 Northern, 72 1-2@74c; No. 2 Northern, 71 1-2@73 1-2c. Corn—No. 3 yellow, 30@31 1-2c; No. 2, 31 1-2@31c. Oats—No. 3 white, 27 1-2@28c; No. 3, 27@27 1-2c. Barley and Rye — Sample barley, 34@40c; No. 2 rye, 56c; No. 3 rye, 55c.

Duluth, June 12.—Wheat—Cash, No. 1 hard, 76 5-8c; No. 1 Northern, 74 1-8c, No. 2 Northern, 69 5-8c; No. 3 spring, 67 1-8c; to arrive, No. 1 hard, 76 7-8c; No. 1 Northern, 74 3-8c; July, No. 1 hard, 76 7-8c; No. 1 Northern, 74 3-8c; September, No. 1 Northern, 73 7-8c. Oats, 26 3-8@26 7-8c; rye, 56c; barley, 34c; flax, to arrive, $1.01; September, 94c; corn, 32 3-4c.

Minneapolis, June 12.—Wheat—July opened at 72 7-8c and closed at 72 5-8c; September opened at 71 7-8c and closed at 71 1-2c. On track — No. 1 hard, 73 5-8c; No. 1 Northern, 72 5-8c; No. 2 Northern, 71 5-8c.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 12.—Flour is steady. Wheat lower; No. 1 Northern, 76c; No. 2 Northern, 74 1-2c. Oats steady at 28@29c. Rye dull; No. 1, 57 1-2c. Barley steady; No. 2, 40c; sample, 35@39 1-2c.

Chicago, June 12. — Wheat — No. 2 red, 77@77 1-2c; No. 3, 72 1-2@75 1-2c; No. 2 hard winter, 72 1-2@73c; No. 3, 70 1-2@71 1-2c; No. 1 Northern spring, 76 1-2c; No. 2, 73 1-2@76c; No. 3, 70@75c. Corn—No. 2, 33 5-8@33 3-4c; No. 3, 32 1-2@33c. Oats—No. 2, 25c; No. 3, 24 1-2c.

Chicago, June 12. — Hogs — Light, $3.75@3.95; mixed, $3.70@3.95; heavy, $3.85@3.95; rough, $3.60@3.75. Cattle—Beeves, $4.50@5.50; cows and heifers, $1.75@5; Texas steers, $4.25@5; stockers and feeders, $3.75@5.10. Sheep—Natives, $3.75@5; lambs, $3.75@5.75.

Sioux City, Iowa, June 12. — Hogs — $3.50@3.60. Cattle—Beeves, $4.50@4.65, cows and bulls, mixed, $2@4.50; stockers and feeders, $4@4.30; calves and yearlings, $4@5.50.

South St. Paul, June 12. — Hogs — $3.35@3.60. Cattle—Steers, $4.35@4.75; calves, $5.25@6.40; cows, $3.50@4; stockers, $3.50@4.85; heifers, $2.75@3.

The secretary of state of Delaware has issued a certificate of incorporation to the American Grass Twine Company of New York, for the manufacture and sale of twine of all kinds, capital stock, $15,000,000, and the Delaware Cotton Company of Wilmington, for the manufacture and sale of cotton goods of all kinds and qualities; capital stock, $250,000.

Tempest at Madrid.

Madrid, June 11.—The city was visited by a terrible tempest of hail which did immense damage and caused floods at many points. One person was killed and many injured.

Attorney Wile Is Dead.

Chicago, June 11.—David J. Wile, the attorney who was shot a few weeks ago by Mabel Burke, who shot and killed herself at the same time, died last night of bloodpoisoning. Wile was about forty-two years old.

To Find the North Pole.

Christiana, June 11. — The Italian crown prince, Victor Emanuel, accompanied by the crown princess, arrived her to join the expedition of the duke of Abruzzi in search of the north pole.

LOUBET THE HERO

FRENCHMEN SHOUT THEMSELVES HOARSE FOR THE PRESIDENT.

President Loubet Is Made the Hero of a Popular Demonstration—His Drive to the Longchamps Race Course Is One Continual Ovation—Policemen and Soldiers Line the Route to Longchamps—Government Was Prepared for Every Eventuality—Disorderly Scenes in the Evening.

Paris, June 12. — President Loubet has had his revenge for last Sunday's outrage at Auteuil. When he drove to Longchamps yesterday to attend the Grand Prix he was the hero of a great popular demonstration, expressing itself in one form or another along the whole route from the Elysee Palace to the race course. He remained only a quarter of an hour, just long enough to witness the race, and, having congratulated the owner of the winner, returned to the Elysee, where he arrived at 4 o'clock without special incident. The Revisionist and Socialist organs summoned their readers to assemble along the thoroughfares to be traversed by the president and his party, and from the hour of noon thousands of demonstrators set out from Montmartre, Belleville and other working class quarters in big organized bands, all wearing a small artificial red flower in the buttonhole, and marched across Paris, taking up positions along the Avenue des Champs Elysee and the Avenue du Bois de Boulogne. They gave M. Loubet a tremendous ovation, continuing their cries almost entirely to "Vive Loubet" and "Vive la republique." The president did not hear

A Discordant Cry,

although there were one or two scuffles before and after he passed between the police and an occasional hot-headed anti-Dreyfusard, who tried to shout "a bas Loubet," and was immediately pounced upon by a swarm of policemen. Although the visit passed off quietly the government was prepared for every eventuality, the whole district between the Elysee and Longchamps literally teeming with troops and police. A policeman was stationed every dozen yards along the whole route and there were squadrons of dragoons armed with lances and mounted Republican guards at all important points, while through the green foliage of the trees on each side of the avenue could be seen heavy masses of red and blue, denoting the presence of detachments of soldiers, awaiting orders. Longchamps resembled a military camp. Battalions of infantry, squadrons of dragoons and Republican guards were distributed all around the course. It is estimated that there were 15,000 soldiers and police under arms. Loubet practically drove through a

Double Hedge of Steel

A line of infantry even stood around the race course, between the public and the course, on which no one was allowed to walk between the races, while several Republican guards patrolled the course itself. After the race the police dispersed several thousand persons demonstrating along the Avenue des Champs Elysee, who were supposed to be making for the Elysee, cheering for the president and the army. Several arrests were made. Later in the evening disorderly scenes occurred outside the office of the Intransigeant, M. Rochefort's paper. Several journalists were roughly handled and eventually arrested. At a late hour there was considerable effervescence along the boulevards, where the traffic was much impeded. A few police charges were necessary in the vicinity of the office of Libre Parole. Just before midnight another demonstration took place outside of La Libre Parole. In the scuffle with the police several persons were injured. Inquiry at the prefecture of police at a late hour elicited the information that about thirty arrests were made during the day and ten policemen more or less seriously injured.

Deaths From Starvation.

Victoria, B. C., June 12.—Miners who have just reached here from the headwaters of the Stewart river tell of a number of deaths from starvation among the Indians. They sacrificed an Indian girl to appease the great spirit and troops have gone from Selkirk barracks to arrest them. Scurvy is prevalent among the miners on the Stewart and Zelwin rivers and three deaths have resulted. Rich gold deposits have been found on the upper Stewart.

Crew Was Saved.

New York, June 12.—Word has been received from Porth Chester, N. Y., that the crew of the three-masted schooner, George A. Howes, which capsized off Barnegat, N. J., had all been saved by an unknown three-masted schooner going south. Capt. A. E. Meader, of the schooner Cora C. Meader, was a short distance from the scene at the time of the wreck and witnessed the rescue.

Must Pay Damages.

Winona, Minn., June 12.—The United States court has adjourned. Anton Bohen was awarded $2,250 in his damage suit against the Chicago Great Western. The jury gave Wilbur Blackman $3,000 in his suit against the Milwaukee.

Seventeen Miners Killed.

Cape Town, June 12.—Seventeen native miners were killed and thirty injured in a mine at Kimberly by the explosion, it is supposed, of a dynamite magazine.

A Triple Tragedy.

Colorado Springs, Colo., June 12. — Samuel Roberts shot and instantly killed his wife, her mother and then blew out his own brains at Cannon City. His wife had obtained a divorce and made her home with her parents.

For Canadian Catholics.

Rome, June 12.—The clerical Il Cittadino of Genoa says the pope has decided to establish a permanent apostolic delegation in Canada. Investigation shows that the statement is premature.

REFUGE FOR OUTLAWS.

Determination to Clean Out the Hole in-the-Wall.

Casper, Wyo., June 12.—The Hole-in-the-Wall, for years a refuge for outlaws, promises to be cleansed of its desperate inhabitants. The daring robber band which looted the Union Pacific express at Rock Creek recently and escaped to the fastness of their dens in the Hole-in-the-Wall in spite of the fact that they were closely pursued over plain and mountain, are to be systematically hunted to their death. To this purpose the several railroad managers with interests in this state are organizing posses and the outlaws will be given no rest. It is expected 200 men will be engaged in the big man hunt. The state, express and railroad companies have offered an aggregate of $6,000 each for the heads of the members of the band. In addition to this head money, in the event of success, the men who are arranging for this chase will be armed and fed by the corporations and big cattle companies of this section during the time they are engaged. Thus they are enabled to enlist a typical band of rough riders, and every man of them a dead shot.

FATAL CHARIVARI

Fool Friends Too Attentive to a Newly Married Couple.

Wichita, Kan., June 12.—While a party of young men were serenading Mr. and Mrs. Ray Higgins near Watonga, Okla., Friday night, the bride and groom of two hours appeared on the front porch and ordered the serenaders to leave.

The charivari party, composed of about twenty friends of the young married people, refused to go. Instead, they continued to make deafening noises by beating on tin pans and firing shot guns.

One of the party, Harry Randall, deliberately pointed his gun at the young couple and fired. The bride's face and breast were filled with buckshot. She fell fatally injured, shot through the lungs, and died an hour later. The groom was also shot in the face, but not fatally, and a small brother of the bride was also wounded, but not seriously. After the accident the charivaring party fled. No arrests have yet been made.

FRAUD IN ALASKA.

Educational Agent Accused of Making False Statements.

Seattle, Wash., June 12.—The report of the United States grand jury sitting at Juneau, Alaska, investigating educational matters in the territory, has just been received here. The report says that between 1884 and 1897, inclusive, $415,000 was appropriated by congress for education in Alaska, which, if it had been judiciously expended, ought to have provided a school system commensurate with the requirements there, and would have done so had not the general agent of education wasted the money in useless jaunts in the establishment of schools at places where but few white people lived. The report accuses him of making false statements in his official reports and concludes by asking the secretary of the interior to relieve Alaska of this official.

HETTY WINS.

Needy Woman Gains Something Like a Million More.

Milwaukee, June 12.—Judges Woods, Jenkins and Brown, constituting the United States court of appeals, have rendered a decision in the famous case of Hetty Green of New York, who has been fighting for years to have her title perfected to part of the old Gage farm in Chicago, now valued at $1,000,000 or more. The court upholds Mrs. Green's claim to the property. In addition to the Gage farm, which lay in the town of Lake, and which is now solidly built up with residences and flat houses, there was involved an improved eighty-foot lot on Michigan avenue.

WAGES HIGHER.

Raise of 25 Per Cent for 45,000 Iron and Steel Workers.

Detroit, Mich., June 12. — The final conference between the representatives of iron and steel manufacturers and the iron and steel wage committee of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers was completed Saturday evening. The net result is that the wage scales for iron and steel workers as fixed by the recent convention of the Amalgamated association are practically all accepted by the manufacturers. This means a general raise of 25 per cent for some 45,000 men employed in the iron and steel manufacturing industries.

Milwaukee Not In It.

Milwaukee, June 12. — In regard to the Indianapolis story about the gigantic brewery combine, Capt. Pabst and Eugene Wuesthoff, of the Pabst and Schlitz Brewing companies, denied that Milwaukee breweries are connected with the deal in any way.

Boxell and Taylor Indicted.

Buffalo, Minn., June 12.—The grand jury has returned indictments against Joe Boxell, John Boxell and George Taylor for murder. Joe has been under arrest for some time. The others were brought in from Howard Lake Saturday.

Shoots Wife and Daughter.

Armour, S. D., June 12. — S. Clark shot and fatally wounded his wife and fifteen-year-old daughter four miles northwest of Delmont and then disappeared. Officers are in pursuit. He is armed with a rifle and revolver.

Two Men Drowned.

Clinton, Iowa, June 12. — Two men named Albright and Larson of Sycamore, Ill., on an excursion, took a sail boat and went sailing. The boat capsized and both were drowned.

In Custody of Troops.

Manchester, Ky., June 12.—Col. Williams and his troops have left for Barbourville, having in custody Al Dee and Wiley and James Baker, who will be jailed at that place. The body of Tom Baker hase been taken home.

Trust Makes Improvements.

Toledo, Ohio, June 12. — The rolling mill trust has commenced a series of improvements here by the purchase of a tract of land near the mill. The price paid was $75,000. The plant will probably be increased.

HARD WON VICTORY

FILIPINO OCCUPATION OF CAVITE PROVINCE BROKEN.

Two Important Coast Towns Now Occupied by Americans—Hardest Work Our Army Has Seen Yet—Our Loss Four Killed and Thirty Wounded; Insurgents' Loss About Four Hundred—Navy Does Excellent Work Along the Shore of the Bay.

Manila, June 12.—The Filipino occupation of the province of Cavite has been broken and as the result of the present movement the Americans now control the important coast town of Paranaque, and also Las Pinas, while a long line of insurgent trenches facing our south line has been cleared.

The insurgents have again proved their facility as dodgers, between 3,000 and 4,000 warriors who seemed destined to be captured having disappeared, the majority sliding away under cover of the night after fighting the Americans all day. Some others came to meet our troops with protestations of friendship. The Thirteenth infantry lost one man killed and six wounded; the Ninth infantry, one man killed and five wounded; the Fourteenth infantry, three wounded, and the First Colorado, eleven wounded. Saturday's work was the hardest our army has seen. The battle field stretched out across the entire isthmus from Laguna de Bay to the harbor. While the troops were advancing the army gunboat Napidan, in the river near Taguig, shelled the enemy, killing several of them. The monitor Monadnock and the gunboat Helena shelled Paranaque and Las Pinas all day with the full power of their batteries. The rebel sharpshooters kept hiding until the American lines had passed and then attempted to pot stragglers from the trees. Thanks to their poor marksmanship this was without result. The whole country proved to be a succession of small hills, with boggy ground between the high, thick grass, and bushes in the hollows, which greatly added to the difficulty of the advance, but gave shelter that saved many from the enemy's bullets. Our men threw away their blankets, coats and even haversacks, stripping to the waist and trusting to luck for food. Water could not be obtained, and there was much discomfort after the canteens were emptied.

GEN. OTIS REPORTS.

He Says the Movement Was a Great Success.

Washington, June 12.—The war department yesterday received a report from Maj. Gen. Otis of the military movement Saturday to the south of Manila for the purpose of clearing out the rebels in that section. It shows that the movement was a great success and that the enemy's loss was considerably greater than stated in the press dispatches. Gen. Otis' cablegram is as follows:

"Terrible heat Saturday did not permit troops to reach positions at hours designated; enabled majority of insurgents to escape in scattered organizations south and westward, which they effected during the evening and night. Movement great success, however; enemy disorganized and routed, suffering heavy loss; troops resting at Las Pinas and Paranaque. Navy did excellent work along shore of bay, but many insurgent detachments retired in that direction, protected by presence of women and children, whom they drove along with them. Our loss four killed and some thirty wounded. Report of casualties later. Conservative estimate of enemy's loss about 100."

OLD VETS FOR CUBA.

Paul Vandervoort Will Take a Colony There.

Chicago, June 12.—A special to the Chronicle from Omaha says: Paul Vandervoort has received a letter from President McKinley acknowledging receipt of his letter offering to take to Cuba a great colony of old soldiers of both the blue and the gray whose presence shall be a guarantee against the outlawry practiced by some of the Cuban bands. Mr. Vandervoort is receiving hundreds of letters daily from veterans in all parts of the country who are anxious to accompany the expedition. Mr. Vandervoort was formerly commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. He says the colonists will go in the fall whether the movement has the sanction of the government or not, merely as a private affair. The West and South seem to be the largest contributors to the scheme.

"SCHLEY DAY."

Men of the Brooklyn Will Celebrate the Battle of Santiago.

New York, June 12.—The men attached to the armored cruiser Brooklyn, now moored at the Brooklyn navy yard, have decided to celebrate July 3, the anniversary of the battle of Santiago, when Cervera's fleet was destroyed. They propose to call it "Schley day." Special invitations will be sent to Admiral and Mrs. Schley, Capt. Cook, who commanded the Brooklyn during the battle of Santiago; Commodore Phillips, commandant of the navy yard, and Admiral Sampson, as commander-in-chief of the North Atlantic squadron.

Insane Man at Large.

Pierre, S. D., June 12.—Officers went down to the southern part of the county to bring in Adolph Koch, an insane man who had escaped from the asylum at Yankton and tramped to his home, where he was threatening people.

Spanish Tornado.

Madrid, June 12.—A tornado swept over San Pedro and Alasse. About 150 houses were destroyed and there was great loss of life. Toledo has been visited by a great storm. The lower portions of that city were flooded.

Flurry at Poitiers.

Poitiers, France, June 12.—The arrival here of M. Albert Vigo, minister of agriculture, caused a demonstration by friends of President Loubet, which resulted in a counter demonstration by members of the Catholic party.

Bank of St. Hilaire.

HANNAY & CO., Bankers.

Real Estate Loans.
Chattel Loans.
Foreign & Domestic Xchange
INSURANCE.
Collections a Specialty.

A General Banking Business Transacted.

St. Hilaire, Minn.

Livery and Feed Stable!

DAN PATERSON, Prop.

Dray in Connection.

The finest equipped turnouts in the northwest. Safe drivers and furnished at a moments notice at reasonable rates. Don't forget the place

BIG - RED - BARN

Located on the east side of Broadway nearly opposite Rapp & Post's Store

ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Says a modest exchange: There is a little matter which Some of our Subscribers have Seemingly forgotten—Some of them made us promises, but have not kept them. With us it is a very important matter—it's necessary in our business. We are very modest and don't like to Speak about it.

GET YOUR PICTURE TAKEN, BY

D. COLLINS

THE

Photograper.

ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

Improved Farms.

K. O. GIGSTAD has a large list of Improved Farms for sale. Also agent for the best fire and cyclone insurance company. Sick and accident insurance Co., and hail insurance.

Money to loan on improved farms at low interest. All collections are promptly attended to.

NOTARY PUBLIC.

Office east of the city well.

ST. HILAIRE, - MINNESOTA.

DAY F. STACY, C. E.

DEPUTY

County Surveyor.

RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

Drainage and Farm Surveys a Specialty

"Money to patent good ideas may be secured by our aid, address, The Patent Record Baltimore, Md." 37

FIRE INSURANCE

DO YOU NEED SOME?

The Best is the Cheapest.

I have nine of the best companies doing business in the State.

Call for rates.

H. E. IVES.

CUSTOM WORK.

JUST LOOK AT THESE PRICES:

Roll Carding—per pound.....5 cts
Spinning Single Yarn—per pound.....15 c
Stocking Yarn—2 or 3 ply, per pound... 20 c

LITCHFIELD WOOLEN MILLS.

LITCHFIELD, MINN.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York

Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

The Spectator.

IVES & SOLL, Publishers.
JOHN J. SOLL, Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at St. Hilaire, Minn., as second-class mail matter.

Published every Wednesday at St. Hilaire, Red Lake County, Minn.

TERMS:—$1.50 Per Year in Advance.

Subscribers should notify the publisher on or before expiration of subscription if discontinuance is desired. Otherwise paper will be continued.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14, 1899.

Modern Surgery.

"The average man would be greatly surprised to know how far the surgical world has moved in the last quarter of a century," said a prominent New Orleans practitioner. "It's hard to realize, even for one in the profession. We do things as a matter of course at present that only a few years ago would have been looked upon as downright murder.

"I remember back in the seventies I was called to attend a man who was shot through the intestines with buckshot, making a number of perforations. I promptly opened the abdominal cavity and sewed up the wounds, which at that time was regarded as a wildly daring operation. The man died from unavoidable complications, and his friends were determined to prosecute me for killing him. In fact, I had a close squeak from unpleasant consequences, for a great many other surgeons condemned my procedure in the severest terms.

"Just think of it! Today things are exactly reversed, and a surgeon who failed to open the abdomen in such a case would undoubtedly be punished for malpractice. This is one instance out of many. It is no exaggeration to say that the modern surgeon saves thousands of lives that his earlier brothers would have abandoned without an effort. 'Necessarily fatal' would have been the verdict and the sufferer assisted into the valley of the shadow by a merciful opiate."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Effort to Create Life.

The news that Wohler had obtained, in 1828, out of inorganic stuffs a certain substance, urea, which occurs in nature as a distinct product of vital activity in animals, upset current ideas. Then, later on, Liebig in Germany and Frankland in this country made several important syntheses, and in 1860 Berthelot published his epoch making work, "Organic Chemistry Based Upon Synthesis," in which he proved that the synthesis of organic bodies must be pursued and may be achieved in a quite systematic way, going step by step over the whole series of organic compounds.

At the present time about 180 different acids, aromatic oils, fats, coloring matters, and so on, which are only found in nature as products of vital activity, have already been prepared in our laboratories out of inorganic matter. Some of them are already fabricated in this way for trade. Every year brings some new achievement in the same direction: so that the main interest now lies, not so much in adding a new product to the already long list of chemically prepared organic substances, as in catching the secrets of the tiny living laboratories in the vegetable and animal cells.—Prince Krapotkin in Nineteenth Century.

Without Shuffling or Evasion.

From Fenimore Cooper and other authorities we have gained the impression that the Indian is a stolid, severe individual, with no sense of the white man's humor, but one red brother showed himself quite a civilized joker in the United States court. He was on the stand in a hotly contested case, and Attorney D. R. Bailey of Sioux Falls was after him in the most approved fashion of cross examination. Finally, after apparently frightening the Indian with the awful consequences which would follow the slightest deviation from the truth, Mr. Bailey took his most portentous tone and solemn manner and demanded:

"Now, sir, I want you to tell me the exact truth, without any shuffling or evasion. I want you to look me square in the eye and tell me how you get your living, sir."

The Indian looked straight at Mr Bailey, and, with that imperturbable air familiar to all acquainted with the red men, simply said, "Eat."

The courtroom roared, even Judge Carland smiled and Mr. Bailey let the witness go.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Good For a Whole Chapter.

The overturned coaches lay at the foot of the embankment, where they had rolled when the train left the track. The wrecking train had arrived, the crew had gone to work, and the wounded had all been cared for.

"Will you please tell me your personal experience in the accident?" asked a reporter, whipping out his notebook.

"You will read about them, sir," replied the solemn looking passenger with a slightly foreign accent, whom he had addressed, "in the book I shall certainly publish about this country."—Chicago Tribune.

Well Answered.

In the course of a lecture to an unimpressionable Scotch audience De Rongemont, talking of "the dear, dead days," explained that he had a good memory and a better imagination. An unbeliever in the unreserved seats persisted in asking unanswerable questions, which ultimately brought out an interesting reflection.

"I have always found," said the wanderer, "that it was enough for one ass to bray at a time."

And thereafter he had peace.

An Honest Admission.

She—You are hypercritical. The fact is, you don't like German opera.

He—Oh, I don't know. It isn't so bad—that is, you know, to a man who is very hard of hearing.—Boston Transcript.

A Pleasant Pose.

"Emeline, you are not happy. What makes you pretend that you are?"

"Because artificial happiness is lots better than none at all."—San Francisco Examiner.

The Last Man Wins.

"They say the secret of success is tenacity of purpose."

"Of course; if you hold on long enough, competitors die off."—Chicago Record.

He Got the Window.

Old "Saw Log" Sam Stevenson is said to be the richest man in Michigan. He was in congress several years, but was defeated for re-election in 1894. He lives in the upper peninsula, and is a lumber king. He was probably the most ignorant man who ever sat in congress. He knew the value of a dollar, however, and could tell the color of one as far as the next man. He could be generous on occasion, and, on occasion, he could be lavish.

When forest fires swept over Wisconsin some years ago and wrought such destruction and occasioned such destitution, "Saw Log" Sam wired Pillsbury, at Minneapolis, to send to the sufferers 1,000 barrels of flour and forward the bill to him.

When McKinley was inaugurated, one of the Vanderbilts was a guest of the Arlington hotel. He sent his secretary out to secure a window on the avenue from which to view the parade. The man asked $400 for it, and the secretary told him to hold it until he could consult Mr. Vanderbilt. Nearly all the windows had been taken. Along came "Saw Log" Sam window hunting, and approached the window seller Vanderbilt's man had been negotiating with. After some haggling "Saw Log" bought the window for $1,000 cash in hand and he and his party at once took possession.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

A Little Punctuation.

People who fail to punctuate their communications are invited to study the following line, which is a correct sentence:

"It was and I said not or."

We got that line one day this week by wire, where punctuations are always omitted. We nearly wrecked our mentality trying to clear up the mystery of the single line, when all of a sudden it occurred to us to look up a copy of our letter to the party, when we discovered that our friend wanted to inform us he did not use the word "or," but did use "and." To be plain, the sentence is correct and should have read, "It was 'and' I said—not 'or.'"

Another party who has been studying Pope wrote us as follows: "My Dear Mr. George—I have been thinking over the statement you made last week, and I too believe that that is is that that is not is not, and I take pleasure in believing so."

A good way to untangle the above is to write it as follows: "That that is, is. That that is not, is not." In other words, it is a play on Pope's "whatever is, is right." People who eschew punctuation should not feel hurt if their meaning is not always readily grasped.—George's Denver Weekly.

She Was Over Twenty-one.

In Australia there are so few natives left that anything but a white man's marriage is a comparative rarity. The curious difference, however, between weddings there and in the mother country is that here we license the place for the solemnization of the ceremony and at the antipodes they license the man who performs the rites. Marriage can be performed at the registrar's office for a guinea, but if a minister knowingly marries a minor without her people's consent he is liable to imprisonment and a fine of $1,500. If, however, the contracting parties have taken the oath that they are of full age, he is safe, though it has happened more than once that young lovers have gone to the registry office and obviously perjured themselves on the age question.

A smart but very good looking girl in Australia who was once asked, "Have you the written consent of your parents?" responded, "No, but I'm over 21."

"Are you sure?" doubtfully. "As sure as I stand here," was the answer, and indeed what she said was accurate enough, for she had written the number 21 on the sole of each of her shoes.—Cassell's Magazine.

A Query For Him.

He had discoursed learnedly, if somewhat wearyingly, to his friend on the influence of food upon character.

"Tell me," said he in summing up, "tell me what a man eats and I will tell you what he is."

His friend, though fatigued, was evidently interested.

"There is only one question I wish to ask you," he said.

"Ask it," replied the discourser magnanimously, with an air that said very clearly, "Give me a hard one while you are at it and I'll show you how smart I am."

"It is this," replied the fatigued friend. "How much sago tea would you have to drink to make a wise man of yourself?"

No answer being promptly forthcoming, the conference broke up.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Safeguards.

"The cashier informed me," said the president, "that he was strongly tempted to skip with the funds, but that he locked himself up with them and prayed over them all night and overcame the temptation."

"I know it," said the chief director. "I had a detective at his door, one at each window and one on the roof—at the chimney flue—while he was praying."—Atlanta Constitution.

Reciprocity.

"Where do actresses get all their pretty little tricks of high bred manner?"

"They imitate the society girls in the boxes."

"And where do society girls get all their fascinating little ways?"

"Why, they imitate the actresses on the stage."—Chicago Record.

The Phoenix was the name of the first fire company in England, and it was established in 1682. At that time in the towns squirts or syringes were used for extinguishing fires, and their length did not exceed two or three feet, with pipes of leather.

The Army and Navy.

Have covered themselves with glory during the war. The Army and Navy vest pocket memorandum book published by the Northern Pacific is a compact digest of information relative to the navies and armies of Spain and the United States at the beginning of the war. It has a map of Cuba, illustrations of naval ships, glossary of navy and army terms, translation of Spanish words, etc. Send ten cents to Chas. S. Fee, general passenger agent, N. P. R., St. Paul, Minn., for a copy.

WISCONSIN CYCLONE.

Wisconsin Villages in Ruins—250 People Killed or Injured.

Survivors Impoverished And Will Need Help For Some Time.

New Richmond, Wisconsin, a town with the population of 2,500 completely wiped out by a storm on Monday afternoon. Up to yesterday afternoon seventy-eight dead bodies have been recovered from the ruins. It is estimated that 250 people are killed or injured. This we believe to be the worst cyclone ever visited the American continent.

Consumption Cured.

—Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth, cures a cold in one day if taken in time. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

Oh, Where Has He Gone?

LOST:—About six weeks ago a black and white English setter dog answers to the name of "Shy." A suitable reward will be given at this office when said dog is returned. Any information will thankfully be received.

By special arrangement with the publishers we are enable to give FARM, STOCK AND HOME one year and the ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR for $1.25.

SIDEWALK NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the village council of the village of St. Hilaire in the county of Red Lake and State of Minnesota have ordered the construction of a sidewalk on the west side of Water street from a point 100 feet north of Fourth street to Sixth street in said village to be six feet in width constructed of dressed and sized two inch pine planks four inches wide placed flat wise and firmly spiked upon four sleepers or stringers of Norway pine two inch thick and six inches in width placed edge wise at equal distance from one another, and those next to the edge of the walk to be four (4) inches from their respective edges, and all to be placed upon a firm foundation and the material in said sidewalk to be of a quality acceptable to the street commissioner of said village and the work upon the same to be done to his satisfaction.

The side of the walk towards the center of the street to be six (6) feet from the front line of the lots upon the side of the street upon which it may be built, and said sidewalk to be constructed to a grade line established by said village council.

That for the purpose of building said sidewalk, the said village council have levied and assessed a tax of twenty-seven (27) cents per foot upon all the lands hereinafter described and the owners thereof, and delivered to the undersigned a warrant for the collection of said tax.

That the description of the lands in said village fronting upon said sidewalk and the names of the owners thereof which are known as well as the lands whose owners are not known, are as follows:

Name	Lot	Blk.	St. Hilaire
J A Dalnard	5 6 7	51	"
John P Olson	8 9	51	"
Mrs. N M Johnson	10	51	"
Nor. Luth. Church	11 12	51	"
H A Olson	1 2	64	"
E M Peterson & Bros	3 4 5	61	"
Tom Tompson	6 7	64	"
St. Hil. Townsite Co.	8 9 10	64	"
Swedish Luth church	11 12	64	"

Now, therefore the owners of the aforesaid lands are hereby notified and required to pay the said taxes in labor material or money on or before the 5th day of July 1899 and that the labor and material offered in payment of such taxes are to be such as may be required by the street commissioner of said village and done and furnished to his satisfaction.

Dated this 6th day of June 1899.

R. H. AIMER,
Street Commissioner.

LIQUOR LICENSE APPLICATION.

To the Common Council of the village of St. Hilaire, in the county of Red Lake and State of Minnesota.

The undersigned, P. O. Paradis, hereby make application for a license to be granted to him to sell intoxicating liquors for a period of twelve months from the first day of July 1899.

The place where said business is to be carried on is designated as follows: On the ground floor of the two story building situate on lot ten (10) of block forty (40) of the original townsite of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, said building having three outside entrances, one in front, one in side and one in rear.

Said applicant prays that such license be granted to him pursuant to the ordinances of said village of St. Hilaire and the statute of said State of Minnesota in such case made and provided.

Dated at St. Hilaire, this 6th day of June 1899.

P. O. PARADIS.

Notice is hereby given that the village council of the village of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, will meet at the council chamber in the village hall on Broadway in said village on Thursday the 29th day of June 1899, at eight o'clock p. m. at which time objections to granting said license in accordance with the above application will be heard.

[SEAL] J. L. JOHNSON, Recorder.

LIQUOR LICENSE APPLICATION.

To the Common Council of the Village of St. Hilaire, in the county of Red Lake and state of Minnesota.

The undersigned, Markham Hotel Company, (J. M. Markham, manager) hereby make application for a license to be granted to him to sell intoxicating liquors for a period of twelve months from the first day of July 1899.

The place where said business is to be carried on is designated as follows: On the ground floor of the three story building situate on lot twenty (20) of block thirty nine (39) of the original townsite of St. Hilaire Red Lake county, Minnesota, said building having two outside entrances, one in front and one in rear.

Said applicant prays that such license be granted to him pursuant to the ordinance of said state of Minnesota in such case made and provided.

Dated at St. Hilaire, this 8th day of June 1899.

MARKHAM HOTEL CO.,
J. M. Markham, Manager.

Notice is hereby given that the village council of the village of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, will meet at the council chamber in the village hall on Broadway in said village on Thursday the 29th day of June 1899, at eight o'clock p. m. at which time objections to granting said license in accordance with the above application will be heard.

[SEAL] J. L. JOHNSON, Recorder.

—Every farmer who writes a letter occasionally should get envelopes with his name and address printed in the corner. We will furnish 100 of the best quality printed in any style for the small sum of 75 cts. Send in your order

Notice of Sale of Funding Bonds.

Notice is hereby given that at the office of the County Auditor in and for the County of Red Lake, State of Minnesota, on the 26th day of June, 1899, beginning at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, the County Commissioners of said county will sell funding bonds of said county in the aggregate sum of $20,000.00.

Said bonds are issued for the purpose of funding the floating indebtedness of said county existing on the first day of May, 1899; will be 20 in number and of denomination of one thousand dollars each, with interest coupons attached; interest at rate of 4 per cent per annum, payable annually; date of issue June 30th, 1899; date of maturity June 30th 1914; principal and interest payable at office of treasurer of said county. Bids for said bonds will be received at any time prior to the hour of beginning sale, at which time all bids will be opened. Each bid will be required to be accompanied by a certified check in the sum of two hundred dollars to be forfeited to said Red Lake county in case of failure to comply with the terms of said bid if accepted. The county commissioners of said county hereby reserve the right to reject any and all bids, and to continue said sale from day to day, if deemed necessary in the interests of said county.

Dated May 24th 1899

[SEAL] ADAM ZEH,
Auditor of Red Lake County, Minn.

44-47

LIQUOR LICENSE APPLICATION.

To the Common Council of the village of St. Hilaire, in the County of Red Lake and State of Minnesota.

The undersigned, E. J. Brink, hereby make application for a license to be granted to him to sell intoxicating liquors for a period of twelve months from the first day of July 1899.

The place where the business is to be carried on is designated as follows: On the ground floor of the two story building situate on lot fourteen (14) of block thirty-nine (39) of the original townsite of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, said building having three outside entrances, one in front, one in side and one in rear.

Said applicant prays that such license be granted to him pursuant to the ordinances of said village of St. Hilaire and the statutes of said State of Minnesota in such case made and provided.

Dated at St. Hilaire, this 6th day of June 1899.

E. J. BRINK.

Notice is hereby given that the village council of the village of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, will meet at the council chamber in the village hall on Broadway in said village on Thursday the 29th day of June 1899, at eight o'clock p. m. at which time objections to granting said license in accordance with the above application will be heard.

[SEAL] J. L. JOHNSON, Recorder.

LIQUOR LICENSE APPLICATION.

To the Common Council of the village of St. Hilaire, in the county of Red Lake and State of Minnesota.

The undersigned, M. E. Bjer; hereby make application for a license to be granted to him to sell intoxicating liquors for a period of twelve months from the first day of July 1899.

The place where said business is to be carried on is designated as follows: On the ground floor of the two story building situate on lot three (3) of block forty (40) of the original townsite of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, said building having two outside entrances, one in front and one in side.

Said applicant prays that such license be granted to him pursuant to the ordinances of said village of St. Hilaire and the statute of said State of Minnesota in such case made and provided.

Dated at St. Hilaire, this 6th day of June 1899.

M. E. BJER.

Notice is hereby given that the village council of the village of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, will meet at the council chamber in the village hall on Broadway in said village on Thursday the 29th day of June 1899, at eight o'clock p. m. at which time objections to granting said license in accordance with the above application will be heard.

[SEAL] J. L. JOHNSON, Recorder.

FOR SALE.

Two lots and house on South Broadway for sale at a bargain. For particulars address,

Mrs. C. Cerbig,
Box 20. Akeley, Minn.

UNCLE SAM Is not In the Shos Businsss, And Neither Am I, But I can Interest You in CIGARS.

ALL THE BEST SMOKERS BUY THEM

J. B. Cigars.

ALL THE BEST DEALERS SELL THEM.

J. B. ARMSTRONG, Manufacturer.

RED LAKE FALLS, MINNESOTA.

F. C. CORSETS MAKE American Beauties.

LATEST MODELS.

On Each Box.

KALAMAZOO CORSET CO.

SOLE MANUFACTURERS.

SOLD BY

St. Hilaire, Minn. E. M. HOFF.

WANTED-BRAINS

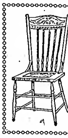
Can you think of something to patent? Protect your ideas; they may bring you wealth. Before applying for patent, get our liberal offers. Inventor's Assistant and handsome views of Washington sent Free on request. Be sure to write to-day COPP & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C.

Spring Suits.

STYLISH SPRING SUITS FOR MEN AND BOYS.

The Greatwestern own magnificent display of men's spring suits, and boys' choicest clothing is now ready, at a saving of fully 25 per cent.

Greatwestern Clothing House.



IF YOU INTEND TO Buy Furniture

Come and look our assortment over. We carry everything in the Furniture line including picture frames and musical instruments. Prices reasonable.

Holmes Furniture Co.

BANK OF RED LAKE FALLS,

RED LAKE FALLS, MINNESOTA

GENERAL BANKING. FOREIGN XCHANGE

Real Estate, Farm Loans and Insurance.
Abstracts of Title.
Steamship Tickets.
Interest Paid on Time Deposits.
Collections of all Kinds Given Prompt Attention.

Owner of the Abstract Books formerly owned by Sortedahl & Storaash the only set of Abstract Books in Red Lake County.

M. O. SORTEDAHL, President and Cashier.
G. P. SEVERTSON, Assistant Cashier

First Mortgage Loans.

I am prepared, for the next 60 days, to make loans at the LOWEST possible rates ever made in Red Lake county. If you want to make a loan or renew an old one call on

H. E. IVES.

—The SPECTATOR is the official paper of the village and county. Now is the time to subscribe. $1.00 per year if paid in advance—otherwise $1.50.

List of Town Clerks.

Names	Township	Postoffice
Olof Larson	Numedal	Viking
G. E. Purdy	North	Thief River Falls
John E. Peterson	Bray	Bray
N. K. Anderson	Sanders	St. Hilaire
P. T. Saire	Rocksbury	T. R. Falls
O. T. Romsus	Polk Centre	Wylie
F. A. Eckstrom	Black River	Wylie
A. S. Anderson	River Falls	St. Hilaire
Ole J. Johnson	Wyandotte	"
A. D. Berry	Louisville	Huot
Hildge Barll	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
Chas. E. Asp	Emardville	Lost
Edward Hovik	Equality	Grit
Moses Ducharme	Lake Pleasant	R. L. F.
Edmour Perusse	Terrebonne	Terrebonne
J. B. Herbert	Poplar River	Brooks
Louis Danet	Lambert	Lambert
J. L. Johnson	St. Hilaire	St. Hilaire
Lars Backe	Thief River F.	T. R. F.
A. P. Toupin	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
H. D. Baardsen	Norden	T. R. Falls
Olof Tande	Garnes	Garnes

FARMS
LOANS
ABSTRACTS

97 Farms for sale or rent in Red Lake County.

SWANSON & GRADY,
Official Abstractors.

RED LAKE FALLS. - - - MINN.

Hamm's
ST. PAUL
BEER
THEO. HAMM BREWING
ST. PAUL MINN.
Buy a case of nearest agent or write to the brewery.

A. O. LETVIG,

Tubular Well Contractor

A Good Supply of Water Guaranteed.
Repairing a Specialty.

WYLIE, MINNESOTA.

UNION MEAT MARKET

P. O. MOSLETH, PROP.

Choicest line of Fresh and Salted meats in the city.

Highest market price paid for Stock, Poultry and Hides.

Say?

If your wheel needs enameling, cleaning, new tires or any other repairing give us a trial. All work done promptly and satisfactory. Prices reasonable.

R. J. BULLAN & CO.

35 RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

STEVENS-DIAMOND MODEL TARGET PISTOL
STEVENS

STEVENS RIFLES AND PISTOLS

HAVE FOR MORE THAN 35 YEARS BEEN CELEBRATED FOR THEIR EXTREME ACCURACY

We make our "Diamond" Pistol with two lengths of barrel, 6 and 10 inches. Every one guaranteed. Price, Postpaid, $5.00 with 6-inch barrel; $7.50 with 10-inch barrel.

We make a full line of rifles; Price, from $6.00 upwards. Every arm we turn out is warranted

SAFE, SOLID AND ACCURATE.

J. STEVENS ARMS & TOOL CO.,

Send Stamp for Catalogue. P. O. Box 690 CHICOPEE FALLS, MASS.

Cigars.

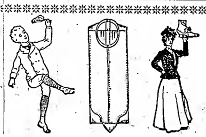
BRINK BROTHERS

DEALERS IN

Wines & Liquors

Minneapolis Beer.

Corner Broadway and 3rd St. St. Hilaire, Minnesota



Be Ready
For Summer.
It is Here Now.

A full line of summer merchandise just arrived. We invite inspection of these goods. A splendid line of Skirts and Waists, both in ready-made and patterns at prices which are right. I shall not attempt to describe the line; only urge you most cordially to see the goods before you buy.

E. M. HOFF.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

I. O. O. F. St. Hilaire Lodge No. 147.—Meets at their hall every Thursday evening, eight o'clock. Visiting members are cordially invited to attend.
E. M. Hoff, N. G.
J. H. Johnson, Secretary.

M. W. A. CAMP 3650.—Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every second and fourth Tuesday of every month. Visiting neighbors are cordially invited to attend.
Leonard Holmes, V. C.
Jas. M. Hall, Clerk.

R. N. G.—WILD ROSE CAMP.—No. 831 Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every Friday evening. Visiting members of the order are cordially invited to attend.
Mrs. L. N. Nolan, Oracle.
Miss T. Hughes, Recorder.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Auditor	Adam Zeh
Treasurer	O. T. Tandberg
Register of Deeds	Samuel Olbeau
Sheriff	Chas. Sampson
Attorney	Van B. Brown
Judge of Probate	J. T. Knight
Clerk of Court	Joe Perrault
Supt. of Schools	Frank Jeffers
Coroner	Joe Belaire
Court Commissioner	J. C. Mathews
Surveyor	P. O. Hagglund
Commissioner 1st Dist.	J. Suter
Commissioner 2nd Dist.	W. L. C. Demann
Commissioner 3rd Dist.	O. J. Johnsen
Commissioner 4th Dist.	Karl M. Hanson
Commissioner 5th Dist.	J. B. Herbert

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

E. J. Holmes	President
J. L. Johnson	Recorder
D. Patterson	Councilmen
J. C. Dahl
W. A. Sorsoleil
L. Holmes	Treasurer

Barber Shop
—AND—
BATH ROOMS.
—o—
Haircutting, Shaving, Shampooing.
Razors honed and put in first-class order.
J. H. PENNO, Prop.
ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Henry Francis, M. D, C. M.
Member College Physicians and Surgeons, Ontario. : : :
Thief River Falls, Minnesota.

"THE IDEAL" Lunch Room.
In the Paradis Building is noted for its Convenience.
FIRST-CLASS MEALS.
PROMPT SERVICE.
☞ OPEN UNTIL ONE O'CLOCK A. M.
A. F. LANG, Prop.

DR. BLOMBURGH.
SCANDINAVIAN
Physician & Surgeon.
☞ Calls attended day or night. ☜
Teeth Extracted.
Office and residence opposite American Hotel. St. Hilaire, Minn.

2nd ☞ STORE
(Second Hand Store.)
Everything in this line now on hand. Special bargains given. If you have anything to dispose of give me a call. Repairing of harness also done.
C. A. SKEIE.
St. Hilaire, - Minnesota

Blacksmith!
Horse-shoeing, repairing of all kinds of Farm Implements, Machinery, etc. All work promptly attended to and done in a satisfactory manner.
J. C. DAHL.
St. Hilaire, Minnesota

PATENTS
Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained and all Patent business conducted for Moderate Fees.
Our Office is Opposite U. S. Patent Office and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.
Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.
A Pamphlet, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,
C. A. SNOW & CO.
Opp. Patent Office, Washington, D. C.

Market Report.—To-Day.

Wheat No. 1	63	Oats	20
Wheat No. 2	59	Barley	28
Wheat No. 3	52	Flax	88
Eggs (per doz.)	12½	Butter (per lb)	10

LOCAL NEWS.

Dr. Fountain returned from Ada this morning.

Wall paper and calcimine at the New Drug store.

Several of our betting men lost their money on Fitz.

Ringling Bros. big show will appear at Crookston July 5th.

Try a lunch, a meal or a weeks board at the Ideal Lunch Room.

5 cents will buy two packages of garden seeds at M. A. Hall's.

—Go to the New Drug Store for your Stationery and School supplies.

Look over our advertisements as several changes have been made.

The Willing Workers will meet with Clara Halverson Thursday June 15th.

Patronize home industry by buying your wall paper at the New Drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. Ballard of Crookston were visiting with friends here Friday last.

If you want to make a loan on your farm, or renew an old one, call on H. E. Ives.

They say that women love to make bread because it cleans their hands so beautifully.

Rains have visited this section of the country most every day for the past two weeks.

The planing mill crew are compelled to work five quarters in order to catch up with work ahead.

Car load after car load of machinery passes through here daily for the new mill at Thief River Falls.

Marcus Johnson, of St. Paul, who has large interests in this neck of the woods was here yesterday.

One of the St. Hilaire Lumber Co., houses was struck by lightning last Saturday. Slight damage.

Miss Alice and Nellie Buse of Red Lake Falls were here a few days last week visiting with relatives.

Miss Clara Mageau of Crookston came up Saturday to visit with her dear friend, Miss May Halvorson.

H. O. Jackson, and daughter Mary returned yesterday from a visit to Helstad where they have been since Friday.

J. B. Armstrong, the cigar manufacturer of Red Lake Falls has something to say in our advertising column. Look it up.

Editor Kaufer and wife of Red Lake Falls left last week for the state of Washington where they will visit relatives for a few weeks.

St. Hilaire now has a boot black who can be found at the Hotel Markham. No necessity of going around now with red and rusty looking shoes.

Wm. Bedeyne, the night mill wright of the Crookston Lumber Company's mill was here from Saturday until Monday visiting with old time friends.

D. Collins drove to Terrebonne last Saturday and reports the roads being in a horrible condition. He took his camera along and brought home a few snap-shots.

Mrs. H. J. Fountain left Monday on a visit to home at Redwood Falls. Dr. Fountain accompanied her as far as Ada, where he stopped over on business matters.

H. E. Ives left Monday for Minneapolis, being a delegate of I. O. O. F. Lodge No. 147, to attend the annual session of the Grand lodge which convenes to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kretzhmar of Thief River Falls were here yesterday and to-day enroute home from a visit with friends at Red Lake Falls, their former home.

Henry Kohler and Andrew Steen, the brick layers, returned from Thief River Falls yesterday where they have been the last six weeks plying their trade for the new lumber company.

Word has been sent out from Chicago that hereafter farmers and retail dealers in machinery will be required to pay more for harrows, plows, seeders and all farm implements of kindred nature.

To cure a cough in one day take the Imperial cough syrup. Guaranteed to cure. For sale at the new Drug Store.

Game Called-Off.

What promised to be the most interesting base ball game of the season was called off Sunday afternoon at the first half of the fourth inning on account of rain. The people of Red Lake Falls turned out, regardless of the conditions of the roads to the number of over one hundred and fifty to see their team of "Selects" wipe the St. Hilaire team off the diamond. Thief River Falls turned out a like number to witness the game, but sorry to say they were all disappointed, being worked up to the highest pitch and anxious to see the game played out. The Selects won the toss up, went to bat, but retired to the field with a goose egg in their favor. St. Hilaire had no trouble to find Ferrell and pounded him all over the field to the extent of nine scores. Three of the "Select" boys found Warner and reached the home plate in the second inning. The balance of the game was played exceptionally well and both sides were put out with only goose eggs in their favor. At the time the game was called off the score stood three to nine in favor of St. Hilaire. Weather permitting St. Hilaire will go to Red Lake Falls next Sunday to try conclusions. Arrangements are now being made and in all probability a special train will be run up from Crookston and to take in Thief River Falls—the hot bed of base ball enthusiasts. The St. Hilaire boys feel confident of winning unless the "Selects" go into the importing business and bring in a few professionals.

NOTES.

The "Selects" are a gentlemanly lot of fellows.

Flaherty, the umpire, proved satisfactory to both nines.

Lilleman, the centerfield man held everything that came his way.

Dedheart, in the left field happened to be the right man in the right place.

O. Thomas, "the little boy behind the bat" as they call him, is all right and clever with the mit.

The saw dust on and around home plate was very unsatisfactory and should be replaced with sand.

Pouliot, the 1st base man for the "Selects" is a freezes—nothing got away from him and they had occasion to use him often.

When Messrs. West, Watson and Armstrong arrived on the scene they proved to be the mascot for the "Select" as good ball was played from that time on.

It seems strange, but whenever Red Lake Falls and St. Hilaire plays ball you can always hear "Joe to bat, Joe on deck" mentioned one hundred and one times.

The St. Hilaire cornet band, assisted by several members of the Red Lake Falls band, livened things up considerably after the rain Sunday afternoon. They were at home with their respective instruments.

This is the way a local reads; June 2nd in the Texas Citizen—Ed. Love's paper: "Some wheat has been cut in this county and much more will be harvested in the next week. Reports are that the crop is good.

Gov. Sayers, of Texas, has asked all the other governors and the attorney generals of the different states to meet with him at St. Louis on Sept. 20th, for the purpose of taking such action as may be deemed proper respecting trusts."

Frank Montague of Crookston who has the state grass lands under his charge will be in St. Hilaire tomorrow June 15th for the purpose of selling the grass on State swamp and school lands. If you are interested be sure to come in and see him.

Miss Rosser, of the Riverside Hospital, Crookston, was here several days last week and as a result eighty employees at the mill are now carrying hospital tickets. It is a grand institution and every man in the mill, especially single ones, should have a ticket, as in case of an accident, they will be sent to the hospital and cared for.

Indian Chief Drunk.

Chief Moose Dung caused considerable of a disturbance on La Bree avenue last Thursday afternoon. He was intoxicated and when Chief Benzio suggested that he should go back to the reservation he threatened to raise a rebellion and massacre the citizens of this place.—Thief River Falls News.

—For cuts and sores there is nothing better than the Imperial Carbolic salve.

Keeping Flies Off.

Every housekeeper will be glad to know how she may keep flies off her chandeliers. Wipe them with a soft cloth that has been wet in kerosene oil. This should be done several times during the summer. Simple isn't it? Fly specks can be wiped off in the same manner, even when on gilt picture frames; but the cloth must be only slightly moistured in the latter case, and used lightly, else the gilt itself may come off.—New Orleans Times Democrat.

—If you are troubled with rheumatism take the Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure. It will positively cure all diseases arising from impure blood, and is sold under an absolute guarantee to benefit or money refunded. Call for free sample at the New Drug Store.

Will We Celebrate?

There will be a Fourth of July meeting at the Village Hall Friday evening June 16th at 7:30 p. m. All interested in having a celebration should not fail to attend.

The Best Cough Remedy on Earth.

Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, Consumption Cure, cures a cold in 24 hours if taken in time and does not stop a cough in One Minute by paralyzing the throat, but it cures the disease and leaves the throat and lungs healthy and strong. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

A TOTAL WRECK.

Bray Brick Building Tumbled to the Ground Last Night. Most Fortunately Not a Person Was Injured.

Last Wednesday evening, shortly after seven o'clock while standing on the walk between the Paradis and Bray blocks, Martin Grit noticed that mortar was falling off the wall of the building occupied by J. M. Bray's saloon and the second floor as a residence in an unusal manner. Hurrying in he informed Mr. Bray, who, not then believing anything serious but as a matter of safety rushed up to the second floor where his family resides and assisted them to the street. Fifteen minutes after this occurrence, and before an article had been removed from the building, it shoved out at the foundation and piled up in a heap, brick, mortar, lumber and furniture a mass of wreckage. The whole catastrophe occurred in less than two minutes coming down with a roar and a rush heard all over the city, and throwing clouds of dust high in the air. Citizens hurried to the scene in dread that lives were lost, but it was a most fortunate circumstance that not a person was injured. The timely discovery probably averted a horrible tragedy.

The events leading up to the disaster originated with the first erection of the building. Built in winter, during the very coldest weather, with heavy frosts in the ground followed by heavy and continual rainfall throughout the spring which did not allow the building to settle properly and racked it at every corner. Then the owners of the lot adjoining on the south just completed the excavation for another basement which took away the proper support of the foundation wall and with this medley of misconstruction aided materially by the elements of weather—down it went.

Mr. Bray estimates his loss at exceeding $3,000, the only things saved being his saloon fixtures and a small amount of stock which was pulled out of the wreckage. Household goods were about all smashed beyond repair. Owing to the nature of the loss, he will receive no insurance, although $2,500 in fire insurance was carried on the building and fixtures.

Misfortunes have been coming rather heavily on Mr. Bray during the past year. Only last November his business place was destroyed by fire, but with determination and enterprise he quickly hustled along the construction of the brick block and was just nicely settled when this last disaster occurred. —Red Lake Falls Courier.

—To cure a cough or cold in one day take the Imperial Cough Syrup.

Farming.

There are two kinds of farmers attempting to make a living. One is progressive. He takes an interest in public affairs and takes the local paper of his town. He knows of the developments of agriculture. If there is a wheat or corn famine in any part of the world, he is aware of it, and governs his sales and purchases accordingly. He is so busy with his own affairs that he has no time for calamity howling. He knows nothing of the hard fare of city life, and always has an abundance of the best food. He has an early garden, the best verities of fruit, a flock of good hens. The dollars flow into his hands as a result of his energy. The other type is the slow going, never-do-well. He can perhaps sign his name to a mortgage on the old farm to buy machinery or build a new house. He cannot however, tell how he is going to lift the mortgage. He reads no papers, and plods along from morning until night in his own peculiar way, using his brawn altogether and not his brain. From disuse it becomes deadened and benumbed, and develops into simply a working machine.—Bottineau Courant.

—Dr. Thomas is an up-to-date in all the different branches in his profession. Remember the dates, July 19th and 20th.

Good Thing if It Works.

The following tip is for those who are worried by those very troublesome creatures, mosquitoes: Throw a bit of alum about the size of a marble into a small bowl of water, and wet the hands and face and any exposed parts lightly with it. Not a mosquito will touch you. They hum about a little and disappear. I never had any occasion to use a mosquito curtain, and am glad to think that I can perhaps benefit others (travelers in particular) by this little bit of information.—Emerson Journal.

Ladies' Aid Society.

The Ladies, Aid Society of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. Bramsness on Thursday afternoon June 15th. Other ladies interested in the work are kindly invited to attend.

Mrs. J. A. Dainard,
Secretary

Fresh Lake Superior trout at Rolands meat market.

Council Proceedings.

Special meeting of the village council Tuesday June 13th 1899.

All members present except Sorsoleil Meeting called to order by President Holmes.

On motion the dray license was fixed at $10.00 for the ensuing year.

On motion the Liquor License was fixed at $500.00 for the ensuing year.

On motion the Pool and Billiard table license was fixed at $10.00 for the ensuing year.

On motion it was resolved to place an 8x10 inch sewer on the south side of Block 40 in the village of St. Hilaire, said sewer to be constructed of two inch pine planks 10 inches wide.

On motion meeting adjourned.

Attest: E. J. Holmes
J. L. Johnson, President.
Recorder.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

—The Spectator is for sale—at one dollar a year—strictly in advance.

For The Farmers.

Some of the topics to be discussed at the State Farmer's Institute which will be held in the city of Crookston Tuesday and Wednesday June 20th and 21st.

Hon. M. F. Greeley will take up the sheep industry; show the advantages and profits in the business; feeding Ragno sheep; many of the diseases; and how to handle large flocks. Mr. Greely has a wide range of experience and none interested in his subject should miss it. Prof. Burnett, will represent the beef and dairy types of cattle. He will show how to grow and feed to a profit, as well as to describe the grasses for pasture and meadow.

Dr. J. C. Curry, is still with the institute and he will represent the horse department. He will show the types of horses for different purposes; the fallacy of continually crossing breeds of improvement; defects in horses, the strong and weak points by breeding, the care and handling the little colt: the education of our horses; how to cure their bad habits; and lastly a novel method of hitching the balky horse; etc, etc.

C. W. Hale, will take the topic of the care and management of sheep on the farm (from a farmers standpoint), including why every farmer should have them.

Supt. O. C. Gregg, will be with the work to take part wherever his services are required. It is also expected that Prof. Shaw and other speakers from different states and localities will be at this important meeting, to help along the good work of Agricultural improvement, the very foundation of Minnesota's future grandure.

Every farmer and those interested in farms should not forget that Annual number eleven will be distributed at the close of the first forenoon session. It is a book of over 350 pages that has been estimated (by those who have examined it critically) to be worth from $5.00 to $25.00, and is given free.

Everybody should invite everybody else to be at the State Farmers' Institute, because it will be a rare chance to exchange experiences for profit. The ladies will be as deeply interested as the men and should not be backward in getting front seats. Remember the dates and be on hand early.

Dentist.

—Dr. J. H. Thomas, the Crookston dentist will be at Hotel Markham, St. Hilaire, July 19th and 30th prepared to do all kinds of up to date dental work in all branches. All work warranted. Remember the dates 19th and 20th.

SIDEWALK NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the village council of the village of St. Hilaire in the county of Red Lake and State of Minnesota have ordered the construction of a sidewalk on the east side of Water street from Third to Fourth street including the outlots A and B in said village, to be six feet in width constructed of dressed and sized two inch pine planks four inches wide placed flat-wise and firmly spiked upon four (4) sleepers or stringers of Norway pine two inches thick and six inches wide placed edge wise at equal distance from one another, and those next to the edge of the walk to be four (4) inches from their respective edges, and all to be placed upon a firm foundation and the material in said sidewalk to be of a quality acceptable to the street commissioner of said village and the work upon the same to be done to his satisfaction.

The side of the walk towards the center of the street to be six (6) feet from the front line of the lots upon the side of the street upon which it may be built, and said sidewalk to be constructed to a grade line established by said village council.

That for the purpose of building said sidewalk, the said village council have levied and assessed a tax of twenty-seven (27) cents per foot upon all the lands hereinafter described and the owners thereof, and delivered to the undersigned a warrant for the collection of said tax.

That the description of the lands in said village fronting upon said sidewalk and the names of the owners thereof which are known as well as the lands whose owners are not known, are as follows:

Name	Lot	Blk.	St. Hilaire
Marie Francis	A	0	"
	1	1	"
Danial Patterson	2	1	"
	3	1	"
O. J. Kruse	4	1	"
H. O. Jackson	5	1	"
H. E. Ives	6	1	"
W. A. Sorsoleil	B	0	"

Now, therefore the owners of the aforesaid lands are hereby notified and required to pay the said taxes in labor material or money on or before the 5th day of July 1899 and that the labor and material offered in payment of such taxes are to be such as may be required by the street commissioner of said village and done and furnished to his satisfaction.

Dated this 6th day of June 1899.
R. H. Aimen,
Street Commissioner.

Watches Clocks and Jewelery.

I will carry a full line of watches, clocks and jewlery hereafter at Johnson's drug store. Anything you want that we do not carry in stock we will order for you at ten per cent above the wholesale prices and by doing this you will save money by dealing at home. Watches left for repairs will be sent down on first train and returned the next day. I shall continue to be at Johnson's drug store the 10th 11th and 12th of each month. Eyes examined free.

Prof. J. Q. Adams.
Red Lake Falls.

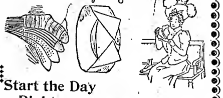
FAMILY WASHING.
We can give you prices on family work that will surprise you. We save fuel, water and wood by having your washing done by us. We call and deliver your work. Starch and return rough dry at prices so small that we are ashamed to print it.
St. Hilaire Laundry.
B. Kortgaard, Proprietor.

WANTED.

Teachers to attend the Crookston College Summer School. It is cheap thorough and practical. Term opens June 12th and continues 8 weeks. Address, Crookston College, Crookston, Minnesota.

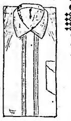
—It is better than ready money because it cures rheumatism, constipation sick headache, indigestion. Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure.

We Handle Everything.



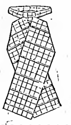
Start the Day Right

And everything will go smoothly. The proper way to start the day is by coming around to our store and ordering a supply of groceries for the day, such things as you may need. It will take you but a few minutes, and we feel sure you will not regret it.



Our Groceries

Are always fresh, and then the prices are as near right as we know how to make them. If you have not been in the habit of trading with us, drop in and see us anyway; you might get into the habit.



Hardware

We carry everything in the hardware line from cooking stoves down to tacks—all you have to do is to ask for what you want. If you want anything in the tin or copper line done drop into our tin shop and your wants will be attended to.

Yours very truly,
RAPP & POST
St. Hilaire, Minnesota.

M. A. HALL
DEALER IN DRY GOODS,
GROCERIES,
NOTIONS,
GENTS FURNISHING GOODS,
TOBACCO,
CIGARS,
CONFECTIONERY

A. H. WEAGANT
Having bought the business of Fred Eikhoff, I am now prepared to sell you anything in line of
HARDWARE AND TINWARE
CUTLERY, PAINTS & OILS,
Everything at Rock Bottom Prices. Come and see for yourself. Opposite Hotel Markham

LEONARD HOLMES,
—DEALER IN—
Agricultural Implements
WHEAT, FLAX OATS AND BARLEY.
Flour and Feed always on Hand.

Lumber! Lumber!
OF ALL KINDS.
We have a large and well assorted stock of Dry Lumber and are prepared to fill all orders on short notice. We also carry a complete assortment
—OF—
Sash, Doors, Paper
AND ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL
Which we buy in large quantities and are thereby enabled to sell at lowest market prices.
ST. HILAIRE LUMBER CO.

NEW MEAT MARKET.
L. M. ROLAND, Proprietor.
Fresh and Salted Meats.
Highest Market Price Paid for Hides.

L. K. KOLSTAD
DEALER IN
Boots and Shoes!
Repairing a Specialty.

ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.

Reverses of Life.

"Less than a year ago," she mused, "he said he would lay down his life for me, and now he won't put up the window screens."—Indianapolis Journal.

The United States a Power for Good.

A distinguished historian writes, while referring to our advent as a colonizing power, that our influence for good over European spheres will be immense. This result was just as inevitable as is the cure which follows the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It cures indigestion, constipation, and tones up the whole system.

The Contrary Person.

"Old Bill Gudgett, he was that contrary," said the oldest inhabitant, "that when spring came he pretended that he felt like workin'."—Indianapolis Journal.

Are You Using Allen's Foot-Ease?

It is the only cure for Swollen, Smarting, Burning, Sweating Feet, Corns and Bunions. Ask for Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder to be shaken into the shoes. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Questions of Duty.

"I intended," said the German emperor, "to be guided in this matter entirely by my duty."

"Yes, your majesty," answered the official; "I was desiring to call your attention to the small amount of duty we have been in the habit of collecting on these American articles."—Washington Star.

Chicago Great Western Increase.

The earnings of Chicago Great Western R'y, "Maple Leaf Route," for the fourth week of May, 1899, shows an increase of $26,232.01. Total increase since beginning of fiscal year (July 1st) to date, $425,821.18.

Nothing to Brag Of.

First Soldier—I was one of the men behind the guns.

Second Soldier—You ain't got nothin' to brag of. I was one of the men in front of them.—Syracuse Herald.

Chronic Constipation Cured.

The most important discovery of recent years is the positive remedy for constipation, Cascarets Candy Cathartic. Cure guaranteed. Druggists, 10c, 25c, 50c.

In the Same General Direction.

"If you won't stand up and fight," yelled the American soldier, "throw down your arms and surrender."

"You make me tired!" panted the Filipino.

And he kept on running.—Chicago Tribune.

For Lung and chest diseases, Piso's Cure is the best medicine we have used.—Mrs. J. L. Northcott, Windsor, Ont., Canada.

The greatest affliction that can befall a man is the unkindness of a friend.—Fielding.

Every time a man looks at his neighbor's faults he uses a magnifying glass.

Hall's Catarrh Cure

Is taken internally. Price, 75c.

The wise and the active conquer difficulties by daring to attempt them.—Rowe.

Absence makes the heart grow fonder.—J. H. Bailey.

It doesn't take a blooming idiot long to go to seed.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

Affection is the broadest basis of a good life.—George Eliot.

An honest enemy often proves to be a man's best friend.

The average Kentuckian is above the high-water mark.

A little something to bear—the cub.

"Evil Dispositions Are Early Shown."

Just so evil in the blood comes out in shape of scrofula, pimples, etc., in children and young people. Taken in time it can be eradicated by using Hood's Sarsaparilla, America's Greatest Medicine. It vitalizes and enriches the blood.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE
WHEAT
WHEAT
WHEAT

"Nothing but wheat; what you might call a sea of wheat," is what was said by a lecturer speaking of Western Canada. For particulars as to routes, railway fares, etc., apply to Superintendent of Immigration, Department Interior, Ottawa, Canada, or to Ben Davies, 154 East Third St., St. Paul, or T. O. Currie, Stevens Point, Wis.

The Greatest Railway Systems of the United States
Use CARTER'S INK
They wouldn't use it if it wasn't good. Costs you no more than poor ink. Insist upon having it.

CURE YOURSELF!
Use Big G for unnatural discharges, inflammations, irritations or ulcerations of mucous membranes. Painless, and not astringent or poisonous. Sold by Druggists, or sent in plain wrapper, by express, prepaid, for $1.00, or 3 bottles, $2.75. Circular sent on request.
CURES in 1 to 5 days. Guaranteed not to stricture. Prevents contagion. THE EVANS CHEMICAL CO. CINCINNATI, O. U. S. A.

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
REGULATE THE LIVER

WANTED—Case of bad health that R-I-P-A-N-S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimonials.

When Answering Advertisements Kindly Mention This Paper.

N W N U —No. 24.— 1899.

PISO'S CURE FOR
CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS.
Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists.
CONSUMPTION

THE FOUNDLING.

"Auntie," said pretty Elsie Maywood, "Arthur has something to ask you, and I hope you will be pleased."

"Very well, darling," said her aunt, "go and tell him I will be there in a few minutes. But you will not be offended, dear, if I ask you something first. Elsie, do you love him?"

"Of course I love him, auntie. Do you think I would marry him if I did not?"

"Then, if you are still of the same mind after you have heard what I have to tell you, I shall give my consent." She then entered the parlor.

Arthur Glidden, the young man who was waiting there, was the son of the richest man in the place. His face, though not handsome, had a look which made one trust him. He had succeeded in winning the love of Elsie, and now he had come to ask Miss Maywood to give her consent to their marriage. He was a noble young fellow and stated his case most eloquently. Indeed, it would have taken a harder-hearted person than Miss Maywood to refuse him. When he had finished she said:

"If you are still of the same mind after hearing what I have to say tonight, I will give my consent gladly." Going to the door, she called Elsie, who had been vaguely wondering what her aunt's words meant.

"Auntie can't be feeling well," she was saying to herself, "or she would never talk so."

Just then she heard her aunt call her, so she entered the parlor.

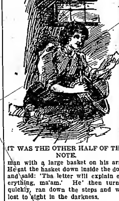
"Elsie, sit here by me, dear," said Arthur.

"Yes, do, Elsie," said her aunt, "for I have a long story to tell you, and you would get tired, standing." So Elsie sat down beside Arthur on the sofa, and Miss Maywood commenced: "In the first place, children," she said, "let me tell you that Elsie is not my niece at all, but ——"

Elsie jumped from the sofa. "Auntie!" she exclaimed.

"I know, dear," said Miss Maywood. "No doubt you think me crazy, but I assure you I am perfectly sane."

Elsie sank back on her sofa, and Miss Maywood continued: "It was a dark, stormy night, just eighteen years ago; I was sitting before the fire thinking. My thoughts were not pleasant ones, for just three years ago that night was to have been my wedding night. But again the same old story; we quarreled over a trifle and parted for life. The wind seemed to sympathize with me, for it howled and moaned in such a dismal manner that I could not help feeling thankful that I had a roof over my head this dreary night, and hoped there was no one out in the storm. As if in answer to my thoughts, the door bell rang, and as Jane was in bed I answered it myself. On opening the door I saw before me a man with a large basket on his arm. He sat the basket down inside the door and said: 'The letter will explain everything, ma'am.' He then turned quickly, ran down the steps and was lost to sight in the darkness.



IT WAS THE OTHER HALF OF THE NOTE.

"It all happened in less time than it takes to tell, and I was so surprised I hardly knew what to do. I picked up the basket, which was rather heavy, carried it into the dining room and set it on the table. As I did so there issued from it a feeble wail, like that of an infant. I ran for Jane to come, and open it, for I would not dare, as my nerves were all unstrung. She came, and together we opened the basket. There, nestling cozily, was the sweetest little baby of perhaps six months. She opened her big blue eyes and smiled up at me. From that moment I loved the child and decided to keep her. In the bottom of the basket we found a scrap of paper with the words: 'You will not be expected to keep the child for nothing, for a remittance will be sent you every month.' We searched the basket for the letter that the man had spoken about, but we could not find it, and concluded he must have meant the note, though that did not explain much to be sure. That child was you, Elsie, and my only regret is that I do not know who your parents were. I knew your name was Elsie, because it was worked in all your clothes and—"

"Have you changed your mind, Arthur?" It was Elsie who had spoken. All during the time her aunt was talking she had been as one stricken dumb, and now she turned to Arthur with a sarcastic look on her fine face.

"Changed my mind?" he echoed. "No; a thousand times, no. If anything, Elsie, I love you more."

"Thank God," she murmured, as he clasped her in his arms. * * *

One day, about a year after Arthur and Elsie were married, Elsie, who was exploring the attic, came across an old market basket. Thinking it was worthless, she started to tear out the lining, but in doing so a scrap of paper tucked up under the rim caught her eye. She pulled it out and glanced over the contents.

It was the other half of the note that had been found in the basket the night it was brought. The note was from Miss Maywood's former lover, saying that the child was his and asking her to care for it for the old love's sake, as he was dying and had no relatives to send it to.

So the mystery was solved, and you will not find a happier couple than Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Glidden.—Boston Post.

OLD-TIME DOCTORS.

The Dutch West India company, which colonized the island of Manhattan, enjoined upon the colonists to support a minister and a schoolmaster, and also to appoint Zieckentroosters (comforters of the sick). Sometimes the offices of pedagogue and "comforter" were united in one person, he being "pious, well qualified and diligent." Usually the comforter of the sick was a safer attendant than the doctor in those days, whose conception of disease and remedies was a confused theory of humors, sympathetics and antagonistics.

"The whole ground of physic," says a medical authority of 1657, "is comprehended in these two words, sympathy and antipathy. The one cures by strengthening the parts of the body affected, the other by resisting the malady afflicting."

Certain simples and compounds, with a few mineral remedies, were made up into unguents, plasters, liniments, pills, boluses and decoctions. Armed with these, and with herbs gathered at certain phases of the moon or conjunctions of the planets, and above all with the lancet, the seventeenth century doctors waged war with disease. They had no intelligent conception of the causes or processes of disease, nor of the true action of drugs; yet they thought they cured disease. No wonder the Dutch of New York appointed "comforters of the sick!"

The author of an essay entitled "The Doctor in Old New York, published in the "Half-Moon Papers," himself a physician, says that the remedies of the most eminent physician of his time in Europe whose patients were Henry IV. and Louis XIII. of France, and James I. and Charles I. of England, were calomel, sugar of lead, pulverized human bones, raspings of an unburied human skull and a balsam of bats.

We sneer at the remedies of Chinese doctors, whose error is that they stopped learning three hundred years ago, whereas their English brethren went on from one medical discovery to another, and often set aside the teachings which were twenty years old as obsolete.

Doubtless the personality of these doctors had much more to do with their success, whatever it was, than their practice had. They sought to make themselves impressive; they carried gold headed canes and wore wigs with two or three pigtails—so elaborately dressed that they went hatless to call on their patients.

A silk coat and stockings, silver buckles and a muff were essential to a well-dressed doctor of the seventeenth century. "Up to the days of Charles II. he made his visits on horseback, riding sideways, after the fashion of women; but after that time he rode in his coach, drawn by two, and sometimes four, or even six horses.—Youth's Companion.

A BRAVE DEED.

By no means all the heroic actions performed in these days are done by soldiers. The policeman may be as prompt to risk his life as if he wore a military uniform. Early on the morning of March 13, 1899, fire broke out in a tenement house in Philadelphia. The occupants of the third floor were cut off from escape by the way of the stairs, and some of them sought to get out of the window. One of them, William Marlin by name, was overcome by smoke while hanging from the third-story window, and fell toward the stone pavement.

Below stood Policeman Thomas Murphy. As Marlin dropped, Murphy saw that if his fall was not broken he would probably be killed. Murphy had nothing whatever with which to break the man's fall—nothing, that is, save his own body, and that he rushed forward without a thought that the fall, as Marlin was descending through the air heavily, might kill him or disable him for life. He simply extended his arms and received the full force of the man's weight.

Both fell, and Marlin rolled over to the pavement with no injury, not serious, to his nose and head. Murphy was not at all badly hurt; his comrades sought to take him to the hospital, but he refused to go, saying that he was "all right." His escape from serious injury was almost miraculous.

Soon afterward reporters who had been told of his deed began to flock around him. "Pooh! pooh!" was all he would say; "anybody would do that if he got the chance."

Employes of the Kaiser.

There are 1,500 people upon the German emperor's list of employes, including 350 women servants, who are engaged in looking after the twenty-two royal palaces and castles that belong to the crown. Their wages are small. The women receive not more than $12.50 per month, and the menservants from $15 to $25 a month.

Europe's Wars.

Turkey has been engaged in war 38 years of the present century—considerably more than one-third of the time. Spain comes next, with 31 years of war; France has had 27 years; Russia, 24; Italy, 23; Great Britain, 21; Austria, 17; Holland, 14; Germany, 13; Sweden, 10; Portugal, 10, and Denmark, 9.

Of Evil In-tent.

"The deacon doesn't approve of the circus."

"No, indeed. He says that 'charity covers a multitude of sins, and the circus tent a multitude of sinners.'"—Philadelphia Bulletin.

His Motto.

First bunko man—He seemed pretty shrewd. I didn't think you could do him so easily.

Second bunko man—Oh, you never know what you can do till you try.—Life.

DAIRY AND POULTRY.

INTERESTING CHAPTERS FOR OUR RURAL READERS.

How Successful Farmers Operate This Department of the Farm—A Few Hints as to the Care of Live Stock and Poultry.

About the Poultry Yard.

An opinion is prevalent that the number of early hatched chicks will be small this year on account of the lateness of the spring. The cold kept the fowls from exercising as much as they do at this time most years. It is said that not only are fewer hens sitting, but that fewer of the eggs will be found to be fertile. Of course this theory is only a theory, and we wait to see if it will prove itself by demonstration. It may be that the results will be opposite to those anticipated. The fact that the spring has been cold may be a factor in keeping down the lice that multiply so rapidly in the early spring. It may be also that the losses from the causes indicated will be offset by increased vigor in the chicks hatched. Another cause that will have some bearing on the situation is the number of incubators in use. We believe that the number is much greater than last year, and, if so, we may expect to have a comparatively large yield of chicks, for the incubator does not sit for three weeks on a sterile egg if its manager knows his business. It is really impossible for any man to form an opinion worth anything on the probable hatch of chicks.

* * *

We wish to caution our readers against feeding angle-worms to chicks. We have just read in a contemporary an article by a lady who is of the opinion that cornmeal produces gapes, and therefore advises not to feed cornmeal. But we have the best of reasons for believing that gapes come from angle-worms. Experiments have been carried on at some of the stations that certainly go a long way to confirm this opinion. Only last year the government published a report on their investigations along this line. Broods of chicks that were allowed to have angle-worms became infested with the gapes, while chicks in the same place but that were given no angle-worms were not affected. The gape-worm is described as a parasite of the earthworm. It may be that many earthworms are free from these parasites, but we cannot know when they have the free and when the infested worms. Chicks that are well grown and mature fowls are not injured by the gapes, and can be allowed to have all the earthworms they can get, but if gapes have been known to exist in a locality in former years, it would be well to keep the little chicks from hunting them.

* * *

In sorting over the flock and culling out hens to be disposed of to the butcher select the sluggish hens, as they are less likely than others to be good layers. The vigorous layer is a vigorous bird all through. She gets up early in the morning and continues her vigorous work all through the day. She does not easily lay on fat and flesh, for the reason that she puts her fat and lean into eggs. She can no more become "beefy" than a Jersey cow that is a big milker. In setting eggs it is advisable to have the eggs from such hens in preference to the eggs of the sluggish hens. Moreover the health of these small active hens seems to be better than that of the less active. They have quick and strong digestive systems. For this reason we have to be careful to give them all the grit they need.

* * *

Indigestion in fowls probably kills more birds than any other trouble, with the exception of lice. The fowls of the farm, having the run of the fields and pastures, are not likely to be affected in this way, but the fowls that are penned up nearly all the year round are sure to fall victims in many cases. The birds that have the run of the farm obtain a greater variety of food, and this is why they do not have indigestion. They do not feed on an entire grain ration. Open their crops and they will be found to contain grass, bugs, worms, scraps from the table and grain. But it makes a bulky mass that can be handled by the gizzard with little trouble. We must try to imitate this with birds that are shut up, and then indigestion will disappear. A breakfast of chopped food scalded will act as a preventer of indigestion.

Our Horses and Their Values.

No class of farm animals seems to feel good or bad times more than the horse. When times are good the horse is a luxury that the townsman can afford to buy and the farmer can afford to raise in view of a sure market. When hard times come the townsman throws his horse onto a falling market and helps send it down still further. The farmer can not as suddenly stop producing and must needs continue for a year or two to offer his surplus horses to the buyers. The result is that the buyers become at once masters of the situation, and, as all buyers are naturally bears, the downward speed of the market is accelerated. When the time again comes that the city people can keep a luxury like the horse, they find the market empty, for the farmer has stopped breeding horses and millions of the former surplus have died off—worn out in the city and farm work teams.

This will explain the great changes that have taken place in less than 20 years in the number and value of horses in the United States. On the first day of January, 1880, the number of horses in this county was, according to the most reliable estimates, 11,201,800. The following year there was a small increase, but in 1881 there was a sudden drop of over 800,000, the number on the first day of January, 1882, being 10,521,554. From that date there was a gradual increase up to the first day of January, 1893, when the number stood at 15,206,802. This was high water mark in the supply of horses. From that date to the first of January, 1899, the decrease has been steady, till the number this year is estimated at 13,665,307.

The total value has undergone a still greater metamorphosis. In 1880 the value was put at $613,296,611. The total value was kept up even in the great decline noted on the first of January, 1882, when it was put at 615,824,914. For the following ten years, 1883 to 1892, the values jumped up as follows (round millions): $765, $833, $852, $860, $901, $946, $982, $978, $941, $1,007. In the following seven years the values dropped faster than the numbers, as will be seen by the estimates, beginning in 1893 (round millions): $992, $769, $576, $500, $452, $478, $511. Thus in 1897 we reached our lowest value in horses, though the number was still in excess of 14,300,000. Since that time the number has been declining and the value increasing. In the last two years the number of horses has decreased almost 700,000, but the total value has advanced over $58,000,000.

This process must continue to go on for some years yet. Horses of all kinds are being worn out faster than they are being produced. The stimulus to renewed activity in breeding has only recently been given by the upward tendency of prices and it will be at least three years before the colts resulting from that stimulus will be fit to go into the market. We believe the men are wise that go into breeding horses at this time, provided they have a suitable foundation.

Weeds and Milk.

An article in the Farmer and Stock Breeder of London says: "The plants which may be considered good for feeding cows will give us no trouble; but these are commonly associated with others which are mischievous. The true grasses and leguminous plants may cause changes in milk quality by their many mixtures, proportions, and growth, but they will not interfere with the dairy processes, or give to the product ill qualities. The miscellaneous plants, which may be considered weeds, include some which are dangerous to the health of the cow; others, more numerous, which flavor milk undesirably; and a few which color milk, or produce irregularities. To these causes of mischief must be added those arising from the plant diseases of a fungoid nature. Do cows eat any appreciable proportion of such plants? The occasions known may be few in which the mischief is recognized and traced to some particular plants, but such do not occur often enough to make the matter one of great importance; and we believe that a very considerable amount of harm is done daily by such weeds as are incapable of giving a distinctly bad flavor to the milk, but in their many kinds combine to give one generally inferior. What is the cure? Clean pastures. If a weed is a pest in a cornfield, it is a much greater one in the case before us, where it not only takes the place of a better plant, and hinders the superior growths around it, but actually does direct damage to the dairyman's goods. Weeds are the natural and almost inevitable consequence of neglect. There are few pastures which can be kept sweet and free from such trouble by the mere force of natural conditions. Draining and manuring can do much in reducing the miscellaneous plants to small numbers and the more innocent kinds, and a constant war against them should be maintained.

Overfeeding with Maize.

Even the English, who have to buy their maize from foreign countries are acquiring the habit of making this to too great an extent an exclusive food. The following is from an English exchange:

Touching on maize, how common it is still to see the farmer's wife keep on day after day, year in and year out, feeding nothing except this to her poultry. No greater mistake can be made than this. Maize alone is neither good for the laying hen nor fattening bird, and we would strongly advise those so persistent in its use to desist. Don't by any means stop feeding maize altogether, as this also would be a mistake, as it is a cheap and valuable food. Feed it in conjunction with other grain, such as wheat, barley, and oats, according to price. It is best not to mix different sorts of corn together, but feed them alternately—say one one day and another the next. Fowls are usually passionately fond of maize, and will pick it out first, and perhaps leave the rest, if a mixture be given. Laying hens fed solely on maize go off in their yield, as the egg organs are very liable to become fatted up by this food.

Introducing Date Palms.—Secretary Wilson states that the department of agriculture will likely spend $10,000 during the next two years in buying date palms for the southwest. One of the expert vegetable pathologists of the department, W. T. Swingle, is now in Morocco making a close study of the African date and selecting the very finest varieties and those supposed to be best adapted to this country. It has been found that date palms, under irrigation will grow as well in Arizona as in Arabia. Early Mormon settlers in the territories proved this many years ago; but the trees were not of the best varieties and date growing never developed as an industry. The department, as Secretary Wilson indicates, is prepared to push the experiment on an extensive scale. Each date palm will be shipped in its own tub and should arrive at its destination without material if any injury.

Merino Wool.—The wool best known to commerce as a "carding" wool or "clothing" wool is that obtained from the Merino. The fleece of the Merino is very fine (finer than that of most other wools), strong, elastic and of a good color, and, besides, it possesses a high "felting" power. Though naturally short, it is now grown of good length, and the fleece is very dense. The Merino sheep, so far as authentic history knows, is a native of Spain, and Spain was for many years the chief country of its production. It was also in past centuries much bred in England, and English wool owes much to the Merino for the improvement it has effected in the fleeces of other sorts of English sheep. It was also introduced into Saxony, and was highly bred there, and Saxon wool soon came to surpass Spanish wool in firmness, softness and felting properties.—Ex.

Plums for Central Illinois.—At an Illinois convention the question was asked: What are the three best plums for planting in Central Illinois? President Foster answered: German plum, Moore's Arctic and Lombard.

PATENTS.

List of Patents Issued Last Week to Northwestern Inventors.

Hannibal H. Ames, Hutchinson, Minn., rotary engine; Mathis Pink, Chaska, Minn., coupling and draft-cushioning device; Reuben E. Freeman, Fergus Falls, Minn., steering mechanism; James D. Hatcher, Minneapolis, Minn., plaiting machine; Calvin Q. Hayes, Grand Forks, N. D., steam generator; Laurence P. Leonard, Waseca, Minn., dental matrix clamp; Norman McAuley, Hill City, S. D., quartz mill; Emma R. Rice, Zumbrota, Minn., dust pan; John H. Forster, New Ulm, Minn., snap book member (design); John Taylor, Joliette, N. D., attachment for threshers.

Merwin, Lothrop & Johnson, Patent Attorneys, 910 Pioneer Press Bldg., St. Paul.

A Conscientious Worker.

"Abner," said the wife of the editor of the Plunkville Bugle, looking up from her latest "take," "don't you think it is a sin for you to write those Washington dispatches right here in the office?"

"No, I don't," stoutly replied the editor. "I have always been taught that the way to get a thing done right is to do it yourself."—Indianapolis Journal.

It Works Like a Grain Binder.

The only way to bind corn is the reasonable, sensible, horizontal way: that is, as nearly after the principle of a grain binder as is possible. Those who have used the Deering Horizontal Corn Binder know that binding corn by machinery is no longer an experiment. This machine has roller and ball bearings, it is light for two horses and free from side draft, and it does not scatter loose ears all over the field.

Would Be Welcomed.

"I wish the kaiser could spare time to come over here for a while," remarked the Chinese emperor.

"What for?"

"I'd like to have him give the empress dowager a few of his ideas regarding a king's rights and the way he ought to be treated."—Washington Star.

Do Your Feet Ache and Burn?

Shake into your shoes, Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It makes tight-old New Shoes feel Easy. Cures Corns, Bunions, Swollen, Hot and Sweating Feet. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

The paperhanger finds business gold when it drives him to the wall.

Man proposes, but God disposes.—Thomas a'Kempis.

A Story of Sterility,

SUFFERING AND RELIEF.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 69,155]

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—Two years ago I began having such dull, heavy dragging pains in my back, menses were profuse and painful, and was troubled with leucorrhœa. I took patent medicines and consulted a physician, but received no benefit and could not become pregnant. Seeing one of your books, I wrote to you telling you my troubles and asking for advice. You answered my letter promptly and I followed the directions faithfully, and derived so much benefit that I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough. I now find myself pregnant and have begun its use again. I cannot praise it enough."—MRS. CORA GILSON, YATES, MANISTEE, MICH.

"Your Medicine Worked Wonders."

"I had been sick ever since my marriage, seven years ago; have given birth to four children, and had two miscarriages. I had falling of womb, leucorrhœa, pains in back and legs; dyspepsia and a nervous trembling of the stomach. Now I have none of these troubles and can enjoy my life. Your medicine has worked wonders for me."—MRS. S. BARNHART, NEW CASTLE, PA.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY.

A Book That Should Be in the Hands of Every Woman.

Mrs. McKee Rankin, one of the foremost and best known character actresses and stage artists of this generation, in speaking of Pe-ru-na, says: "No woman should be without a bottle of Pe-ru-na in reserve."—Mrs. McKee Rankin. Mrs. Eliza Wike, 120 Iron street, Akron, Ohio, says: "I would be in my grave now if it had not been for your God-sent remedy, Pe-ru-na. I was a broken down woman, had no appetite; what little I did eat did not agree with my stomach. It is now seven years past that I used Pe-ru-na and I can eat anything."—Mrs. Eliza Wike.

Mrs. McKee Rankin

Every woman should have a copy of Dr. Hartman's book entitled "Health and Beauty." This book contains many facts of especial interest to women. Dr. Hartman has treated more ailments peculiar to women than any other physician in the world. This book gives in brief his long and varied experience.

Send for free books on catarrh. Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

Dinner Fared Well.

Hicks—So you were at Pinchcley's last night. Does he serve a good dinner?

Wicks—Well, I'll say this much for Pinchcley—he served the dinner rather better than he did the diners.—Boston Transcript.

Ancient American Sleeping Cars.

L. Xavier Eyma, a Frenchman, who came to this country in 1847, wrote an article in L'Illustration of Paris, published July 22nd, 1848, giving his experiences on the railroads of the United States. He says that at that time the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road had a length of seventy leagues and that the cost of the road was 4,116,741 francs, the receipts 3,388,156 francs and expenses 1,363,741 francs. He also gives considerable space to the interior arrangements of the sleeping cars used at that time, and says that, "they are actually houses where nothing is lacking for the necessity of life, and are divided into compartments and sleeping rooms, some for men and some for women." Each room held six beds or rather little couches in three tiers on one of the sides. He winds up his account by saying that valuables are not particularly well taken care of, as in America then "were no such things as sneak thieves."

The Savage Bachelor.

The Missionary Brother—Now, you know, the man who governs himself is greater than he who takes a city.

The Savage Bachelor—No doubt of that, provided he's a married man.—Indianapolis Journal.

Read the Advertisements.

You will enjoy this publication much better if you will get into the habit of reading the advertisements: they will afford a most amusing study, and will put you in the way of getting some excellent bargains. Our advertisers are reliable, they send what they advertise.

How They Are Alike.

"Why is Aguinaldo like a man who relies on his knowledge for a living?"

"Dunno. Why?"

"He always carries his capital around with him."—Chicago Times-Herald.

THE MAN "ON THE FENCE"

NEEDS BUT A HINT TO BRING HIM DOWN ON THE RIGHT SIDE.

He wants to buy a binder. Has been fooled once or twice and now really wants to know what machine can be relied upon—what machine will actually "live up" to the claims made for it by its makers. Here are some hints:

50,000 more Deering machines were sold last season than in any previous year.

6700 employes are working day and night in the Deering factories.

85 acres of ground are covered by the Deering factories—twice as large as any other in existence.

Deering machines have the only perfect ball and roller bearings.

Deering machines are the lightest draft grain and grass cutters ever built.

These are straws. They tell which way the wind blows. They should be helpful hints to the man on the fence.

DEERING HARVESTER CO., - - CHICAGO.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE

DO YOU WANT A HOME?

60,000 ACRES OF GOOD FARMING LANDS IN WASHBURN AND BARRON COUNTIES, WISCONSIN, to be divided and sold at $3.00 to $6.00 PER ACRE.

Long time and easy payments to actual settlers.
Come and see us or address,

W. R. BOURNE, Mgr., SHELL LAKE LUMBER CO., SHELL LAKE, WIS.

PRICES ON BINDING TWINE.—Sisal Binding Twine, 8¼c lb. Standard Binding Twine, 8¾c lb. 600 ft. Manila binding Twine, 9¾c lb; Our Giraffe Extra Manila 10c lb. Especially recommended. This Extra Giraffe Manila Twine is made for us only by one of the largest and best mills in the United States. Order immediately from this lot before it is sold and your twine will be shipped at once from Minneapolis. Above prices are on board cars at Minneapolis. Prices quoted are net cash with order. No discount allowed. Put up in 60-pound sacks which we cannot break. We guarantee these prices, subject to stock. You may have to pay more, so do not delay ordering. Order at once. This is your only sure plan. Prices may advance; our stock may be exhausted; hundreds of things may happen in a week. Send in your orders at once. We can ship immediately. We reserve the right to limit the quantity of twine supplied on any one order, as we do not desire to have dealers snap up our stock, as our desire is to give our farmer friends the first chance. We know of nothing that can be gained by waiting, and you may lose money by so doing. It is to your profit to buy of us.

T. M. ROBERTS' SUPPLY HOUSE, Minneapolis, Minn.

"A FAIR FACE MAY PROVE A FOUL BARGAIN." MARRY A PLAIN GIRL IF SHE USES

SAPOLIO

Minnesota Historical Society

MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR.

VOLUME XVIII. ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY JUNE 21, 1899. NUMBER 47

DEATH AND DESOLATION

OVERWHELMS THE ONCE FAIR CITY OF NEW RICHMOND.

Terrible Destruction Wrought by the Cyclone Almost Impossible of Comprehension—Happy Homes and Prosperous Business Establishments Piled in Promiscuous Confusion—List of the Dead Has Almost Reached the Hundred Mark and Is Rapidly Growing—Fire Follows the Cyclone and Adds to the Horror of the Tragedy—Relief Trains Sent From St. Paul With Physicians and Supplies—Gov. Scofield Calls for Contributions and Many Towns Promptly Respond—Injured Cared for in St. Paul Hospitals.

TREES UPROOTED BY THE STORM.

New Richmond, Wis., June 15.—Almost unparalleled in its absolute ferocity was the visitation of the destructive forces of the air which overwhelmed New Richmond on Monday afternoon. A cyclone storm swept down upon the little city just at 6 o'clock, and as a man would crush an egg shell in his hand the business section of the city, with the residence portions immediately to the south and north, were razed to the ground.

The destruction was sudden and complete. A furrow eighty or a hundred yards wide was literally plowed through the town from southwest to northeast, its greatest extension, and not one stick or stone was left upon another. Happy homes and prosperous business establishments were piled in promiscuous confusion. Frame structures were reduced to kindling wood and brick buildings were dashed in upon themselves in utter ruin. Sturdy stone blocks with massive walls offered no apparent resistance to the irresistable fury of the storm. Huge trees were uprooted or broken, stripped of their foliage, bark and branches and twisted into fantastic shapes.

And in this wreck of human handiwork it could not be expected that human life would be spared. The mournful roll of death is growing rapidly. It has reached almost the hundred mark already, and no conservative estimate places it below that number. It may be half as many more, and there are those who think that it will reach well up to the two hundred when the confusion that now exists is reduced to a semblance of order.

The loss of life among the residents of the city proper is probably already established with reasonable definiteness. The city was filled, however, with farmers from around the city, and there were many visitors from neighboring villages. It will be several days before they are all accounted for, and there is no escape from the conviction that some of them will never be accounted for other than as missing.

the Whole Countryside

The fire which raged among the ruins during the whole of the night and day following the destruction of the city will unquestionably destroy some of the evidence of the loss of life. Several partially incinerated bodies have already been rescued from the fire, but the ruins of several buildings in which it is positively known that some lives were lost were totally destroyed before any effective work was organized to prevent the spread of the flames.

It was "circus day" in New Richmond. Gollmar Brothers had set up their tents on the east side of the town, and the whole surrounding country was advised. The result was that there was an unusually large number of people in town. The day had been warm and sultry. The atmosphere was close and oppressive and the sky was heavily overcast with scurrying clouds. It was readily understood that a storm was approaching, and many of the townspeople hastened to their homes to make secure in advance of the rain.

The first flurry of rain preceded the wind, and all the while the clouds over in the south were assuming a continually more threatening aspect. Those who resided on the south side of the town could see the whirling masses shaping themselves into the fatal funnel. Word was quickly passed that the cyclone was upon the city, but more speedily came the swirling mass. Everybody that was within doors made for the cellars and basements, and the streets were full of belated ones dashing madly for shelter.

From Mouth to Mouth

The four outermost houses on the south side of the city were the Dayton, Hollenbeck, Wells and McCartney homes. They were the first to suffer. Exposed to the full fury of the blast, they were raised high in the air, only to be dashed to earth again and then twisted and strained into fragments. The foundation walls alone remain. This was the fate of every other building in the path of the storm. The absoluteness of the destruction never varied. On and on through three squares of residences and then came the business center of the community. It was here that the loss of life was the greatest.

Squarely facing the rushing tempest stood the first stone building of Ward, Williams & Co., only one story high, but with walls that would have sufficed for a city block, fully eighteen inches in thickness. The south-facing front was driven in, crushing through the floor into the basement, where many had taken refuge, the huge stones crushing several of them to death.

There were other brick and stone buildings along the two squares of Main street given over to business, ending with the three-story Nicollet hotel. All went down in ruins. In almost every basement there were huddled together from half a dozen to a score of persons. In many cases the floors sustained the weight of the ruins of the superstructure. In a number of instances, however, the building was raised clear and dashed down upon the helpless ones.

From Its Foundations

On the north side of the city were more residences, and these all were wiped out of existence. There was the water tower which supplied the city, and the pumping station, operated by electricity supplied from Somerset, over on the Apple river, five miles away. The water tower was overthrown and the electric wires went down, thus cutting off all possibility of securing a supply of water to fight the later encroachments of the fire.

Ascending the hill toward the Wisconsin Central tracks, upon the northern limits of the city, the cyclone seemed to rise into the air. It ricocheted once or twice and knocked over a few buildings in the town of Stanton, but no further serious damage was done within the radius of communication from New Richmond. It appeared to dissipate itself into the sky where it was formed.

The passage of the cyclone proper was followed by a torrent of rain that was fairly cataclysmal, and the survivors who crept out from the ruins were buffeted by a furious gale of wind, which continued for some time. The city was almost in absolute darkness for a time. Bewildered and helpless citizens were slow in organizing relief measures. Those who were fortunate enough to escape from the destroyed buildings and who knew of others still imprisoned alive or dead beneath the wreck endeavored in little groups to tear away the debris. Many rescues were effected, but in too many other instances relief seemed impossible. The very enormity of the calamity seemed to paralyze effort.

Fire Breaks Out.

To add to the sum total of misery, fire broke out almost immediately, presumably in the ruins of the hardware store of O. J. Williams. Its origin is unknown. It spread slowly in spite of the rain, and ultimately involved practically all of the two blocks from the Nicollet house to the Ward-Williams store. It extended across Main street to the east, but was confined here within a smaller radius. Another fire broke out in the ruins of the houses in the southern end of town, but was not allowed to spread over a very wide area.

Hardly had the cyclone passed beyond the town before the physicians of the city were actively at work administering to the wounded, of whom there was a very large number. The four physicians of the city, Doctors Epley, McKean, Knapp and Wade, undertook the duties of the hour with devotion and untiring zeal. Telegraphic communications in all directions was cut off and there was no way of appealing for help that was so sadly needed.

It was after 2 o'clock in the morning before the first outside relief arrived, a train coming from Chippewa Falls on the Wisconsin Central, with Dr. Partick of Baldwin and other physicians, who took up the work with the local surgeons. At 3:30 a train arrived from St. Paul with fifteen or more St. Paul and Stillwater physicians and nurses, and from that hour the work of relieving the physical sufferings proceeded rapidly. In the early morning the second relief train arrived from St. Paul with food and clothing for the destitute. Later came Chief of Police Goss of St. Paul with a force of officers and a fire engine and crew, and by noon the work of succor and relief was well organized.

SEARCHING THE RUINS.

Willing Hands Delve for Cyclone Victims.

New Richmond, Wis., June 16.—With little or no organization and nothing to guide their efforts, hundreds of willing toilers delved in the ruins of the town yesterday, following up the seemingly endless search for bodies. They acted on no general plan, but trusted to the guidance of those that believed they knew where some of the unfortunates were buried. When the search ended for the day eight bodies had been recovered, bringing the total of the dead above the hundred mark.

The bodies recovered were Mrs. S. N. Hawkins, Nick Pardon, Miss Addie Clough, John Prior, Carl N. Larsen, Lillie McGrath, Willie Hughes and the unidentified head of a child.

The task of recovering the dead or accounting for the missing seems to be well nigh endless. There are so many immediate wants, so much to be done for the living that it has been necessary to make the dead a secondary consideration. The distribution of supplies to the destitute, the care for the injured and the burial of the bodies already recovered occupied the entire attention of the committee in charge, and they were compelled to depend on the unorganized efforts of volunteers to complete the rescue.

To add to the chaos during the morning several thousand people were dumped into the city by the two regular trains that arrived shortly before noon, and the one company of Wisconsin militiamen that had been called out was totally inadequate to keep the crowd back, even when supplemented by the detail from the St. Paul police department. Complaints poured into the general headquarters that relic hunters were of value that was not nailed, and it was impossible to attend to all the cases. Especially vehement were the residents of the Second ward, which occupies the point where the cyclone left the city. This was strictly a residence district, and every house was leveled. The household goods were scattered about and furnished an excellent reward for curiosity hunters, who flocked to the place and defied the owners of the goods to drive them away. The business portion was guarded by a line of pickets, and it was here that the bodies were recovered. It was believed that no one could be alive among the mass of tangled timbers when the search started in the morning, but long before noon this idea was dissipated by the recovery of Charles Lindenfield, who was yet alive and able to walk, with some assistance. He was found in the basement, pinned by the arm, under a mass of timbers. He could neither talk nor see, and his hearing had been impaired by the terrible ordeal he had passed through. The body of Mrs. S. N. Hawkins was recovered during the morning, buried beneath the roof of her home, near the old depot. Her bones were broken, her face was entirely torn away, and her trunk was an unrecognizable mass of flesh. Her identity was established by a ring on the second finger of her left hand. John Prior, a young farmer, was the next to be brought out from under the wreck. He was found in Cullen & Greely's saloon, beneath a pile of broken boards. His body was mangled by the weight that had rested on him, and his face was

Carrying Off Everything

Black and Distorted.

Just before the workmen quit at noon they unearthed the body of Carl N. Larson under the wreck of the icehouse. He was found pinned under the roof and two sides of the icehouse, which had been piled together. The saddest scene of all was the recovery of the body of little Lillie McGrath, the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McGrath. The father and mother were both fearfully injured, perhaps fatally, and the story of the find was kept away from them in the fear that it would add the last drop to their cup of misery. Two of their children, Russell and Walter, were killed outright. So when they inquired about their little baby, almost continually it seemed to those that watched beside them, they were told a white lie, that their little child was safe. At this the mother's face beamed with joy, and the informant almost regretted the deception that soon must be detected. The McGraths lived on Fourth street, side by side, William and Nick. They had handsome homes and pretty lawns with lots of trees. When the cyclone struck, both families took refuge in the cellar. Mr. McGrath had just returned home and hitched his team in front of the house. He ran to reassure his wife that there was no danger, and he was about to return to the team when the house was blown from its foundation. He tried to get to the cellar but he was hurled away. When he recovered consciousness he was in the cellar under his brother's house, or, rather, where the house had stood, for it had been blown away. Near him he found what he believed to be and when he crawled close to the bruised face he recognized the bruised features of his wife. Most gruesome of all finds was that of the head of a boy about eight years old. There has been no report of such a child missing and no one has appeared at the morgue who is able to identify it. A workman, passing up Fourth street, near Main, stumbled on something which he at first believed to be a chicken. He turned and picked it up. He was horrorstricken to find that it was the head of a boy, the neck having been cut from the body as if by a cleaver, and the skull crushed to a pulp. No trace has been secured of the body and it is presumed that it is buried under the mass of ruins that was once a city. Among the scattered ruins of the farmers' hotel was found the mangled body of Addie Clough, eighteen years old, a chambermaid in the hotel. She had been caught beneath one of the beams that supported the roof, and her life was crushed out by the mass that fell across her trunk.

A Lifeless Form,

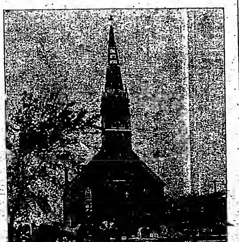
The Williams building is expected to give up a number of dead, but owing to the fact that the stone walls have been piled up in the cellar, removing the debris is naturally slow. Only a few men were working there yesterday as it was thought advisable to search the buildings that could be explored more quickly. The frame structures were taken first, as the timbers could be more quickly removed. Broken boards and posts were piled in the street mountain high in the search for victims.



ST. MARK'S CATHOLIC CHURCH, WHERE MANY OF THE DEAD WERE TAKEN.

ST. PAUL TO THE RESCUE.

Injured Victims of the Cyclone Kindly Cared For.

St. Paul, June 15.—Human misery, in awful detail, swayed to pity and moved to tears a surging throng that gathered at the union depot yesterday afternoon to witness some of the fearful work of the New Richmond cyclone. The fruits of that tornado were shown in the thirty-two bodies, broken and bleeding, that had been rescued from flame and torrent by the hands of a pitying people whose deepest sympathy went out for the afflicted citizens of a sister state.

St. Paul hastened to the rescue as soon as it was known that rescue was needed. Its physicians and nurses were sent on a special train, its police department was called in to help guard the wrecked property and its hospitals were thrown open for the unfortunates. Yesterday the mayor of the city and many influential citizens were present to meet the train carrying the first group of wounded and assisted in lifting from the train and carrying to ambulances the maimed bodies of those to whom life yet remained. Every ambulance in the city, every patrol wagon and many private conveyances were brought into requisition to carry to places of comfort the cyclone sufferers.

The first train contained thirty-one wounded men, women and children that were distributed among the hospitals, and one man who died on the way. A later train brought eight others, of whom two died at the hospitals.

OPEN HEARTS AND PURSES.

St. Paul People Swift to Relieve New Richmond's Needs.

St. Paul, June 16.—St. Paul's generosity makes quick response to the needs of neighbors in distress. Service and help are given freely to the New Richmond sufferers; ministrations of the hospitals where half a hundred of the wounded lie, labor of the hands in bringing back order to the wreck of the community, clothing and food and furniture and money for their sore straits, abundant good will in all.

Through the Pioneer Press, through Controller McCardy, through the Red Cross and the Commercial club and the Jobbers' union, contributions in cash and in kind have poured in the last two days since the need was known. Of money, the sum already brought forward from this city amounts to $4,245. No estimate of the value of the other articles is made, but it comes close to the money gifts in sum. And no account is made of personal service that cannot be reckoned in money's terms.

Other cities have hastened with like zeal for the relief of our kinsfolk in trouble.

GOVERNOR URGED TO ACT.

Requested to Proclaim That Aid Is Required for Cyclone Sufferers.

Madison, Wis., June 16.—Assemblyman O. W. Mosher wired Gov. Scofield to impress upon the people of the state the need of contributions of money for the New Richmond storm sufferers, as many merchants and others lost their all, and there is not a cent of insurance, because of no tornado clause in the policies. Adjt. Gen. Boardman, who is directing the work of relief, wires that it is progressing rapidly. The governor is active in the work of getting aid.

School Fund.

Pierre, S. D., Special.—The state department of school and public lands has distributed among the various counties $155.58 interest and income fund which goes directly to the school fund of counties. The distribution, amounting to $1.37 1-2 per capita on school population, is the largest semi-annual distribution ever made by the department.

Another Lee-Taylor Victim.

Middlesboro, Ky., Special.—In another collision between several of the Lee and Taylor factions a man named Speeder was shot.

Bleeds to Death.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Special.—Alfred Anderson, one of the oldest and most prominent farmers in the eastern part of Minnehaha county, was the victim of a peculiar accident. An emery wheel burst, a piece striking him in the leg, from which he bled to death before assistance could be rendered.

Casualties at Lafayette, Ind.

Lafayette, Ind., Special.—Mrs. W. A. Hoover was fatally shot and two boys are under arrest, each charging the other with the shooting. By the explosion of a gasoline stove three women were horribly burned.

All But Drowned.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Special.—A party of seven well known Sioux Falls men last evening had a narrow escape from drowning in the Sioux river. They got an old steamboat which had recently been put in running condition, and while taking a position a short distance above the huge dam near the water works to be photographed, lost control of the steamer, which was swept over the dam. The boat capsized and all the machinery and heavy articles were dumped into the river and disappeared, while the men were compelled to swim for their lives. None of them were drowned.

Mission Burned.

Another Serious Anti-Foreign Demonstration in China.

Shanghai, Special.—A dispatch from Foo Chow says serious anti-foreign troubles have occurred at Kieng-Ning-Fue, province of Ngan-Hwei. The church and mission have been burned but the missionaries escaped to Ning Wha on their way to Foo Chow.

London, Special.—The Church Missionary society confirms the report of the trouble at Kieng-Ning-Fue, adding that two native missionaries were killed.

Spanish Budget.

Madrid, Special.—The parliamentary difficulties have momentarily subsided. The chamber is to be organized to-day, and the minister of finance, Senor Villaverde, will introduce the budget after the close of the bourse so as to allow operators time to weigh, and thus possibly avert starting a panic.

Sampson May Be Detached.

Boston, Special.—It is reported that Rear Admiral Sampson is to be detached from the North Atlantic fleet and assigned to the naval station at Newport, the scope of which is to be greatly broadened.

MORE MEN NEEDED

TO CRUSH THE REBELION IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Developments Conclusively Show That the Task Which Confronts Gen. Otis Has Been Underestimated—Force Asked for by Gen. Otis Will Not Be Sufficient—Military Authorities Believe That the President Should Call for the 35,000 Volunteers Authorized by the Law.

Washington, June 19.—Developments during the last two months have shown conclusively that the military authorities have underestimated the task which confronts Gen. Otis in the Philippines. It is also evident that unless a much larger force is sent out the struggle must be continued for a long time. When all the men now under orders reach Manila and the three additional regiments decided on have been enlisted Gen. Otis will have about 33,000 men—3,000 more than he said he needs—but a force, in the judgment of many military authorities, far too small to make rapid progress against the insurgents. It is evident that few more regulars can be spared from the small force retained in the United States unless volunteers are enlisted to replace them. Reports on the progress of the campaign that all the officers who have returned from the Philippines have brought and the press dispatches which the censor has allowed to come from Manila agree that the force asked for by Gen. Otis will not be sufficient. The number of islands in the archipelago is variously estimated at from 1,200 to 2,000. The distribution of American troops, consequently, while as great as could be expected under the circumstances, certainly does not meet the situation, and many officials argue that the president should immediately call for the 35,000 volunteers authorized by the army reorganization law.

GEN. GRANT AT MANILA.

Transport Sherman With 1,800 Troops Arrives.

Manila, June 19.—The United States transport Sherman, which sailed from San Francisco May 24 with 1,800 men and 703 officers under command of Brig. Gen. Fred A. Grant, has arrived here after a smooth voyage. One private died after the transport's arrival. The troops brought by the transport will go to the Island of Negros to relieve the California troops. Gen. Bates, who arrived on the transport, and Gen. Grant will probably be assigned to the commands of the volunteer generals, some of whom will leave for home soon.

Generals Hale and Funston desire to accompany their regiments home. The Utah artillery, it is announced, will accompany the Nebraska troops on board the transport Hancock, leaving their guns here. The Pennsylvanians will start for home on the transport Senator this week. The Indiana sailed to-day with 500 discharged and sick soldiers. She will go into dock for a few days at Nagasaki, Japan.

Military operations against the insurgents in the south have apparently been planned. Gen. Wheaton, at Imus, is sending reconnoitering parties today to locate the enemy, and other reconnoisances are being made from Cavite.

NEEDED AT MANILA.

Minnesota Men's Return Said to Be Uncertain.

Washington, June 19.—Again all the calculations have miscarried regarding the return of volunteer regiments. The war department begins to think that Gen. Otis needs all the available forces he has to protect his base at Manila. Acting Secretary Meiklejohn, the man who made a specific date and was very positive a month ago in the assertion that the Thirteenth Minnesota would be in Minnesota by July 4, is not making predictions nowadays. He would not even approximate dates Saturday, but did venture the opinion that before any more volunteers sailed the regulars now en route on board the transports Grant and Sherman would have to arrive at Manila. The aggressive stand and boldness of insurgents in creeping up close to Manila is certainly puzzling the war department. Especially since Gen. Otis has all along claimed that 30,000 men would be enough for him to suppress the Filipinos. Gen. Miles and other army officers have long held that it will require three times that many.

TO SAIL THIS WEEK.

Nearly Four Thousand Troops to Leave San Francisco.

San Francisco, June 19.—Nearly 4,000 men and officers will sail from here this week for the Philippines. The Zelandia will sail on June 22 with four companies of the Twenty-fourth infantry and 100 recruits; the Pennsylvania on the 23d with eight companies of the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth infantry; the Sheridan on the 24th with two troops of the Fourth cavalry, two companies of the Fourteenth infantry, a signal corps detachment and 1,275 recruits, and the Valencia on the 25th with four companies of the Twenty-fourth or Twenty-fifth infantry and 100 recruits.

Johnson's Island Sold.

Port Clinton, Ohio, June 19.—Johnson's Island, Lake Erie, which was famous as a prison for rebel soldiers during the Civil war, has just been sold at auction for $45,000. The island lies in Sandusky bay, a few miles from the city of that name.

Three Men Drowned.

Vineyard Haven, Mass., June 19.—Three men are supposed to have been drowned in Edgartown bay while on a gunning trip. This morning the revenue cutter Manning found their boat adrift in a waterlogged condition.

Steamers in Collision.

Rossario, June 19.—The British steamers Castilian Prince and Amphitrite, from Sunderland for Buenos Ayres, have been in collision. The Castilian Prince has arrived here in a badly damaged condition.

HEAVY HAIL.

People Injured and Windows Broken at Verndale.

Verndale, Minn., June 19.—This vicinity was visited by a terrible hail storm. One thousand panes of glass were broken on the north side of buildings. Large hailstones fell, striking with terrible force. The Fulton Mercantile company is the heaviest loser, as its big store fronts to the north. The school district and the village are also quite heavy losers. The Wadena County bank lost all its leaded glass on the north side of the building. At the same time a cyclone developed just south of town, but the force of the hailstorm from the north seemed to drive it back. Several people were injured.

TWO CHILDREN DROWNED

While Playing Over a Cistern the Cover Gave Way.

Sioux Falls, S. D., June 19.—Word reaches here of the death by drowning of two little children of Mrs. Edward Swartz of Freeport, Ill., while visiting her father, Tobias Clementson, in Union county, this state. The children were two and three years old. While at the home of a neighbor they played on top of a cistern which was covered only with a piece of tin. The absence of the children being noticed a search revealed their bodies in the cistern.

Met Instant Death.

Walker, Minn., June 19.—Laura Dean, an inmate of a bawdy house at Lakeport, a town on the Brainerd & Northern Minnesota railway about fourteen miles north of here, was instantly killed near the Brainerd Northern depot here. She was aboard a logging train which was about to start for Bemidji, and was standing on the front platform of the caboose. In starting the train gave a sudden jerk, which threw the woman off her balance, and she fell between the caboose and a logging car, striking on the coupling bar in such a manner as to fracture the spine.

Road Seems a Go.

Black River Falls, Wis., June 19.—Thomas McHugh, one of the stockholders of the La Crosse, Black River Falls & Neillsville Electric Beltway company, is securing the right of way between Melrose and La Crosse, and is meeting with flattering success. The object now seems to be to make Melrose the terminus at present. Stockholders are very sanguine that ere many moons the road will be completed to Melrose at least.

Head-end Collision.

Portland, Ore., June 19.—It is reported that a head-end collision has occurred between a Northern Pacific freight train and a returning excursion train from Astoria, at Linton, ten miles north of Portland. There is no telegraph office at Linton. Particulars are not obtainable at present. A telephone message from Linton says one man was killed outright and six injured, some of them with broken limbs.

Omaha Fire and Explosion.

Omaha, June 19.—Just before midnight a fire broke out in Allen & Co.'s wholesale drug store. The fire was confined to the Allen building. A explosion occurred whereby seven firemen were hurt, one fatally. Loss, $100,000.

Cashier Arrested.

Stoughton, Wis., June 19.—A. H. Joire, cashier of the defunct Dane County bank, was arrested on a warrant sworn out by a widow who charges him with having taken a deposit of $900 and given in exchange his individual notes instead of certificates.

Fatally Injured.

Sioux Falls, S. D., June 19.—W. Spencer, a farmer living a few miles from here, was fatally injured by his horses jerking him violently to the ground, injuring his neck. He was brought to the hospital here.

Miner Instantly Killed.

Duluth, Minn., June 19.—Charles Savella was instantly killed at the Auburn mine, near Virginia. He was buried by falling ore from a blast set off in the mine and three railway cars fell on him.

Large Estate Sold.

Oshkosh, Wis., June 19.—In the personal assignment of Henry Sherry of Neenah, Judge Burnell confirmed the sale of a large amount of personal property to Leander Choate of this city for $70,000.

Suspicion of Foul Play.

Fountain City, Wis., June 19.—The body of an unknown man was found in the marsh two miles south of here. It was devoid of clothing and the head was missing. There is a suspicion of foul play.

Big Fire in Lead City.

Lead, N. D., June 19.—The large Fish & Hunter planing mill was destroyed by fire. The loss was $50,000, with about $8,000 insurance. Fish & Hunter of Deadwood were the heaviest losers.

Grain Too Heavy.

Stewartville, Minn., June 19.—Grain is very heavy, and a great deal of it will be badly lodged before harvest. The hay crop will be very heavy. Corn is doing well, but needs working badly.

His Last Swim.

Kasson, Minn., June 19.—Ervin Stillwell, about sixteen years of age, was drowned while swimming in company with some other boys.

Received by Leopold.

Brussels, June 19.—Lawrence Townsend, the new United States minister to Belgium, was received by King Leopold.

Fell Eight Stories.

Chicago, June 19.—An elevator in the Western Electric building fell eight stories yesterday, carrying with it eleven men. A. C. Russell of Lowell, Mass., bit his tongue nearly through. The others were badly bruised.

Military Prisoner Shot.

Leavenworth, Kan., June 19.—A military prisoner named Wringer who was serving a two years' sentence for desertion from the Sixteenth infantry, made a break for liberty and was shot and killed.

Bank of St. Hilaire.

HANNAY & CO., Bankers.

Real Estate Loans.
Chattel Loans.
Foreign & Domestic Xchange
INSURANCE.
Collections a Specialty.

A General Banking Business Transacted.

St. Hilaire, Minn.

Livery and Feed Stable!

DAN PATERSON, Prop.

Dray in Connection.

The finest equipped turnouts in the northwest. Safe drivers and furnished at a moments notice at reasonable rates. Don't forget the place

BIG - RED - BARN

Located on the east side of Broadway nearly opposite Rapp & Post's Store

ST. HILAIRE - - - - MINNESOTA

Says a modest exchange: There is a little matter which some of our Subscribers have seemingly forgotten—Some of them made us promises, but have not kept them. With us it is a very important matter—it's necessary in our business. We are very modest and don't like to speak about it.

GET YOUR PICTURE
TAKEN BY
D. COLLINS
THE
Photograper.
ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

Improved Farms.

K. O. OIGSTAD has a large list of Improved Farms for sale. Also agent for the best fire and cyclone insurance company. Sick and accident insurance Co., and hail insurance.

Money to loan on improved farms at low interest. All collections are promptly attended to.

NOTARY PUBLIC.

Office east of the city well.

ST. HILAIRE, - MINNESOTA.

DAY F. STACY, C. E.
DEPUTY
County Surveyor.
RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.
Drainage and Farm Surveys a Specialty

"Money to patent good ideas may be secured by our aid, address, The Patent Record Baltimore, Md." 37

FIRE
INSURANCE
DO
YOU
NEED
SOME?

The Best is the Cheapest.

I have nine of the best companies doing business in the State
Call for rates.

H. E. IVES.

CUSTOM WORK.

JUST LOOK AT THESE PRICES:

Roll Carding—per pound......5 cts
Spinning Single Yarn—per pound......18 c
Stocking Yarn—2 or 3 ply, per pound......20 c

LITCHFIELD WOOLEN MILLS.
LITCHFIELD, MINN.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

The Spectator.

IVES & SOLL, Publishers.
JOHN J. SOLL, Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at St. Hilaire, Minn, as second-class mail matter.

Published every Wednesday at St. Hilaire, Red Lake County, Minn.

TERMS:—$1.50 Per Year in Advance.

SUBSCRIBERS should notify the publisher on or before expiration of subscription if discontinuance is desired. Otherwise paper will be continued.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 21, 1899.

Hi Robinson's Thrift.

While we were eating breakfast the farmer said: "That remark o' yourn yisteddy about sellin Elmiry the dishes an havin the coffee fer nothin 'minds me o' the way Hi Robinson got somethin fer nothin out o' the storekeeper at the village. You 'member Hi, don't you? He's kinder slow spoken, 'n' some folks calls him foolish. One day I was settin in the store a spell, with a lot more, an in comes Hi. He goes up to Lish, who keeps the store, an takes an egg out o' his pocket an says, 'How'll you swap?' 'Oh, I d'n' kno's I want to swap fer one egg,' says Lish; 'what do you want fer it?' 'A darnin needle.' 'Well, I'll swap with you,' says Lish an took the egg an giv' him the darnin needle.

"Hi stood round awhile, an then he says, drawlin'like, 'Say, ain't you goin to treat?' 'Treat? On one darnin needle?' says Lish. 'Not much.' 'Feller 'cross the way will,' says Hi. Lish grinned. 'All right,' says he, jest to humor him; 'what'll you have?' 'Cider 'n' egg,' says Hi. That tickled the rest o' us, but Lish brought the cider an broke the egg into it—Hi's own egg—an Hi see it was a double yelker. Hi took up the glass an looked at the egg some time. Then he says, says he, 'Say, hadn't you better gimme 'nother darnin needle?' "—Forest and Stream.

He Laughed.

A literary man who was compelled by circumstances to use his family sitting room as a study missed his penholder one evening while absorbed in writing a story.

He looked over his desk, through the pigeonholes and in the drawers, but it was nowhere in sight. It was not on the floor. He felt behind his ear. It was not there.

"This is what comes," he said impatiently, "of trying to work where there is a houseful of children. Which one of you has taken my pen?"

The children looked at each other and laughed. He became irritated.

"I don't want any foolishness!" he exclaimed. "Where's that pen? Who has taken it?"

After a moment's pause one of the children said slowly:

"If you'll laugh, papa, you will find it."

He stared at her in astonishment. Then, as her meaning slowly broke in upon him, he joined in the laugh, and the penholder fell out of his mouth, where it had been all the time.

How many of the little difficulties of this life one can extricate oneself from by a laugh!—Youth's Companion.

Snakes' Sense of Smell.

Snakes have the sense of smell. It is difficult to obtain food for the rattlesnakes and copperheads out at the zoological park. The keeper has been trying them on the house rats and mice he has caught about the building. He would leave them in the snake cage overnight and through the day. They would run over the snakes with impunity. The snakes would pay no attention to them, but when he happened to secure some field mice and put them in the cage the snakes ate them at once. He put in several rats and mice of the ordinary house variety that were living out of doors under the sidewalk, and these were seized by the snakes almost as readily as the wild species.

The keeper then conceived the idea of making an earth box to keep the rats in for awhile before feeding, and he found that if they were put in there for 12 hours or so before they were given to the snakes they would be eaten. The only apparent explanation is that the smell of the earth is agreeable to the snakes, and that the smell which the animals acquire about buildings is objectionable.—Chicago Record.

The Albany Capitol Guide.

One of the first things done by a stranger visiting Albany, says the Philadelphia Call, is to pay 25 cents and put himself at the mercy of a capitol guide. The guide makes a profound and obsequious bow, like a prestidigitator about to charm an audience, and proceeds to lift the veil which hides the mysteries of the great building.

On a recent occasion the guide led the stranger regretfully past "McGinty's" empty frame and proceeded to identify the heads of notables that decorate the stairway. He did fairly well until the stranger pointed out Shakespeare and Homer and asked who they were.

"Them," replied the guide, undaunted, "are the heads of two politicians whose names I disremember."

Then the Girls Giggled.

It occurred at a wedding in a Kansas City church. The minister was young and nervous and instead of saying, "Who gives this woman?" etc., he asked gravely, "Who gives this man to this woman?"

If the bride had not been four inches taller and many pounds heavier than the groom, the slip would have attracted less attention. As it was, the other girls in the church were not to be blamed for tittering.

Her Aristocracy.

"Every woman is an aristocrat at heart," said the youngest boarder.

"Yes," said the cheerful idiot; "she hates to think of herself as classed with the plain people."—Indianapolis Journal.

It Was Tantamount.

"Has she told you that she loved you?"

"Not in so many words. She merely asked me what life insurance I carried."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A four months' tour from England to India can be made, including all cost with economy, or $1,500 and luxuriously for $2,500.

Among the Phoenicians, in ancient days, the wearing of earrings was a badge of servitude.

ENGLISH RED TAPE.

It Took a Broken Leg to Get the Chair Repaired.

It is stated that one morning recently a young fellow who had just secured a clerkship in a government office was considerably startled by a little scene that he witnessed. An elderly man, one of the senior clerks in the room, suddenly rose from his desk, dragged the comfortable chair on which he had been sitting into the middle of the room, seized a poker and attacking the chair with great vigor succeeded in breaking one of its legs. When it was done, the official gave a sigh of relief and flung the chair into a corner of the room. The budding junior's first thought was that his senior had suddenly taken leave of his senses, and he almost expected that his colleagues would put him under restraint. But to his astonishment the other clerks hardly raised their eyes while the work of destruction was in progress. Before the office work was over the newcomer sought information from one of his fellow clerks.

"Can you tell me," said he, "why Mr. Dash carried on in that extraordinary fashion? I mean, of course, when he broke a perfectly sound leg off the chair in which he had been sitting."

"Oh, that was all right!" replied the other with a meaning laugh. "A caster had come off one of the legs of that chair, and, you know, 'my lords' will not provide us with new casters; they will attend to nothing less than a broken leg. So Dash had to break one of the legs to get his chair put right at the public expense."—London Standard.

The Dead Irishman.

Some Irish body snatchers had rifled a grave and hid their booty in a corner of the churchyard, when it occurred to a half tipsy fellow, who had been watching them unobserved, that it would be pleasanter to be driven back to the nearest town than to walk. He accordingly secreted the dead man under a hedge and lay down in his place. He was duly transferred to a cart, but when about half the journey was over one of the men who had touched his hand screamed to his friend, "Good heavens, the body is warm!"

Hereupon, in a deep voice, the supposed dead man remarked, "If you had been where I've been for the last two days, you'd be warm too!"

In a moment he was left in full possession of the vehicle!—Sir M. E. Grant Duff's Diary.

A Bloodthirsty Editor.

A down east editor has drawn up some new game laws which he wants adopted. The following is a summary:

"Book agents may be killed from Oct. 1 to Sept. 1; spring poets, from March 1 to June 1; scandalmongers from April 1 to Feb. 1; umbrella borrowers, from Aug. 1 to Nov. 1 and Feb. 1 to May 1, while every man who accepts a newspaper two years, and, upon being presented with his bill, says, 'I never ordered it!' may be killed on the spot, without reserve or relief."—Christian Register.

Next Thing to It.

He—Oh, by the way, the doctor advised me to eat a water cracker before going to bed; said it would prevent my insomnia. Are there any in the house?

She—The only thing in the house approaching a water cracker is the ice pick.—Indianapolis Journal.

We exaggerate misfortune and happiness alike. We are never either so wretched or so happy as we say we are.—Balzac.

Theatrical companies in Mexico have to pay a fine if they do not produce the pieces announced.

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

Default having been made in the payment of the sum of ten hundred and fifteen ($1,015.) dollars, which is claimed to be due at the date of this notice, upon a certain mortgage, duly executed and delivered by Alphonse Boucher and Philomine Boucher, his wife, mortgagors, to The Western Security Co., mortgagee, bearing date the 27th day of July 1888, and, with a power of sale therein contained, duly recorded in the office of the register of deeds in and for the county of Polk, now Red Lake county, and State of Minnesota, on the 27th day of July 1888, at 10:20 o'clock A. M., in Book 37 of mortgages, on page 144.

Which said mortgage together with the debt secured thereby, was duly assigned by said The Western Security Co., mortgagee, to Joseph F. Dearborn, by written assignment, dated the 1st day of November 1888, and recorded in the office of said register of deeds, on the 6th day of November 1888, at 1:00 o'clock P. M., in Book 40 of said mortgage records, on page 278;

And whereas, the said assignee of mortgagee, did on the 4th day of November 1897, pay to the Treasurer of Polk county, Minnesota, the sum of $18.65 for taxes due and delinquent on said premises for the year 1896; and the further sum of $35.96 paid by said mortgagee on the 1st day of November 1897 for taxes due and delinquent on said land for the year 1892, all of which taxes are still due and payable to said assignee of said mortgage.

And whereas, Adele C. M. Currier (formerly Dearborn) executrix under will of Joseph F. Dearborn, deceased, the assignee, mortgagee and holder of said mortgage, has duly elected and does hereby elect to declare the whole principal sum of said mortgage due and payable at the date of this notice, under the terms and conditions of said mortgage, and the power of sale therein contained; and whereas, there is actually due and claimed to be due and payable at the date of this notice the sum of Ten Hundred, sixty-nine and 81-100 dollars, including taxes with interest thereon at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum, from the 19th day of June 1899, and whereas, the said power of sale has become operative, and no action or proceeding having been instituted, at law or otherwise, to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof.

Now therefore, notice is hereby given, That by virtue of the power of sale contained in said Mortgage, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, viz: The southeast quarter of section twenty-one (21) township one hundred and fifty (150) range forty-one (41) containing one hundred and sixty (160) acres, more or less, according to the United States government survey in Red Lake county (formerly Polk) and State of Minnesota, with the hereditaments and appurtenances; which sale will be made by the Sheriff of said Red Lake county, at the front door of the Court House in the village of Red Lake Falls, in said county and state on the 12th day of August 1899, at 2 o'clock p. m. of that day, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt of Ten hundred sixty-nine and 81-100 dollars, and interest and taxes and fifty dollars, Attorney's fees, as stipulated in and by said mortgage in case of foreclosure, and the disbursements allowed by law; subject to redemption at any time within one year from the day of sale, as provided by law.

Dated June 19th A. D. 1899.

ADELE C. M. CURRIER,
Executrix of Joseph F. Dearborn, deceased, Assignee of Mortgagee.
JOHN CROMB,
Attorney for Assignee of Mortgagee.
Crookston, Minnesota. 47-1

The Army and Navy.

Have covered themselves with glory during the war. The Army and Navy vest pocket memorandum book published by the Northern Pacific is a compact digest of information relative to the navies and armies of Spain and the United States at the beginning of the war. It has a map of Cuba, illustrations of naval ships, glossary of navy and army terms, translation of Spanish words, etc. Send ten cents to Chas. S. Fee, general passenger agent, N. P. R., St. Paul, Minn., for a copy.

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

Whereas, default has occurred in the conditions of a mortgage given by Carrie Crown and Edvard (mortgage signed "Edvard" but written in body of deed and in acknowledgment "Edward") Crown, her husband, mortgagors, to Dakota Investment Company, of Grand Forks, Dakota, mortgagee, dated May 20th A. D. 1889, which mortgage, together with the power of sale therein contained, was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in Polk county and state of Minnesota, May 24th A. D. 1889 at 8:30 o'clock a. m., in book 43 of mortgages, on page 32 and subsequently transcribed into the records of Red Lake county and state of Minnesota in book 17 of mortgages on page 371 and assigned by said mortgagee to Elijah M. Topliff by an instrument in writing dated June 14th A. D. 1889 and filed for record in said office of the Register of Deeds for said Red Lake county, March 9th A. D. 1898 at 3:00 o'clock p. m. and recorded in book F of assignments on page 554.

And whereas the undersigned attorneys for said Elijah M. Topliff have been empowered by him to foreclose said mortgage by an instrument in writing, dated March 28th A. D. 1899 and filed for record in said office of the Register of Deeds for said Red Lake county, April 5th A. D. 1899 at 12 o'clock M. and was recorded in book A of power of attorneys on page 204.

And whereas there is claimed to be due upon said mortgage at this date including taxes for the years 1889, 1890, 1892, 1893, 1894, 1895, 1896, 1897 and 1898 amounting to $136.64 the sum of four hundred, ninety-nine 04-100 dollars, and no action or proceeding having been instituted at law to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof;

Now, therefore, Notice is hereby given that said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale of the premises described in said mortgage, viz.: The south half of the north-west quarter (s½ of nw¼) of section ten (10) in township one hundred and fifty-two (152) of range forty-five (45) in said county, which sale will be made by the Sheriff of said county, at the front door of the Court House, in the city of Red Lake Falls in said county of Red Lake, August 12th A. D. 1899 at two o'clock p. m., at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt, interest and taxes on said premises, and $25.00 attorney's fees, and the disbursements allowed by law, subject to redemption as provided by law.

Dated at Minneapolis, Minn. June 10th 1899.

ELIJAH M. TOPLIFF,
Assignee of Mortgagee.
WEBSTER & TAYLOR,
Attorney's for assignee of Mortgagee.
47-52

By special arrangement with the publishers we are enable to give FARM, STOCK AND HOME one year and the ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR for $1.25.

LIQUOR LICENSE APPLICATION.

To the Common Council of the village of St. Hilaire, in the county of Red Lake and State of Minnesota.

The undersigned, Clara Peterson hereby make application for a license to be granted to her to sell intoxicating liquors for a period of twelve months from the first day of July 1899.

The place where said business is to be carried on is designated as follows: On the ground floor of the two story building situate on lot eleven (11) of block forty (40) of the original townsite of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, said building having two outside entrances, one in front and one in rear.

Said applicant prays that such license be granted to her pursuant to the ordinance of said village of St. Hilaire and the statutes of said State of Minnesota in such case made and provided.

Dated at St. Hilaire, this 6th day of June 1899. CLARA PETERSON.

Notice is hereby given that the village council of the village of St. Hilaire Red Lake county, Minnesota, will meet at the council chamber in the village hall on Broadway in said village on Thursday the 29th day of June 1899, at eight o'clock p. m., at which time objections to granting said license in accordance with the above application will be heard.

[SEAL] J. L. JOHNSON, Recorder.

LIQUOR LICENSE APPLICATION.

To the Common Council of the village of St. Hilaire, in the county of Red Lake and State of Minnesota.

The undersigned, P. O. Paradis, hereby make application for a license to be granted to him to sell intoxicating liquors for a period of twelve months from the first day of July 1899.

The place where said business is to be carried on is designated as follows: On the ground floor of the two story building situate on lot ten (10) of block forty (40) of the original townsite of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, said building having three outside entrances, one in front, one in side and one in rear.

Said applicant prays that such license be granted to him pursuant to the ordinances of said village of St. Hilaire and the statute of said State of Minnesota in such case made and provided.

Dated at St. Hilaire, this 6th day of June 1899. P. O. PARADIS.

Notice is hereby given that the village council of the village of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, will meet at the council chamber in the village hall on Broadway in said village on Thursday the 29th day of June 1899, at eight o'clock p. m. at which time objections to granting said license in accordance with the above application will be heard.

[SEAL] J. L. JOHNSON, Recorder.

LIQUOR LICENSE APPLICATION.

To the Common Council of the Village of St. Hilaire, in the county of Red Lake and state of Minnesota.

The undersigned, Markham Hotel Company, (J. M. Markham, manager) hereby make application for a license to be granted to him to sell intoxicating liquors for a period of twelve months from the first day of July 1899.

The place where said business is to be carried on is designated as follows: On the ground floor of the three story building situate on lot twenty (20) of block thirty nine (39) of the original townsite of St. Hilaire Red Lake county, Minnesota, said building having two outside entrances, one in front and one in rear.

Said applicant prays that such license be granted to him pursuant to the ordinance of said state of Minnesota in such case made and provided.

Dated at St. Hilaire, this 6th day of June 1899. MARKHAM HOTEL CO.,
J. M. Markham, Manager.

Notice is hereby given that the village council of the village of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, will meet at the council chamber in the village hall on Broadway in said village on Thursday the 29th day of June 1899, at eight o'clock p. m. at which time objections to granting said license in accordance with the above application will be heard.

[SEAL] J. L. JOHNSON, Recorder.

NEW YORK WORLD.

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly.

The striking and important events of the last year have established the overwhelming value of The Thrice-a-Week World to every reader. For an almost nominal sum it has kept its subscribers informed of the progress of all our wars and, moreover, has reported them as promptly and fully as if it were a daily. With our interests still extending throughout the world, with our troops operating in the Philippines and the great Presidential campaign, too, at hand, its value is further increased.

The motto of The Thrice-a-Week World is improved. It strives each year to be better than it was the year before, and public confidence in it is shown by the fact that it now circulates more than twice as many papers every week as any other newspaper, not a daily, published in America.

We offer this unequalled newspaper and The St. Hilaire Spectator together one year for $1.65.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

—Every farmer who writes a letter occasionally should get envelopes with his name and address printed in the corner. We will furnish 100 of the best quality printed in any style for the small sum of 75 cts. Send in your order

Notice of Sale of Funding Bonds.

Notice is hereby given that at the office of the County Auditor in and for the County of Red Lake, State of Minnesota, on the 28th day of June, 1899, beginning at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, the County Commissioners of said county will sell funding bonds of said county in the aggregate sum of $20,000.00.

Said bonds are issued for the purpose of funding the floating indebtedness of said county existing on the first day of May, 1899; will be 20 in number and of denomination of one thousand dollars each, with interest coupons attached; interest at rate of 4 per cent per annum, payable annually; date of issue June 30th, 1899; date of maturity June 30th 1914; principal and interest payable at office of treasurer of said county. Bids for said bonds will be received at any time prior to the hour of beginning sale, at which time all bids will be opened. Each bid will be required to be accompanied by a certified check in the sum of two hundred dollars to be forfeited to said Red Lake county in case of failure to comply with the terms of said bid if accepted. The county commissioners of said county hereby reserve the right to reject any and all bids, and to continue said sale from day to day, if deemed necessary in the interests of said county.

Dated May 24th 1899

[SEAL] ADAM ZEE,
Auditor of Red Lake County, Minn.
44-47

LIQUOR LICENSE APPLICATION.

To the Common Council of the village of St. Hilaire, in the County of Red Lake and State of Minnesota.

The undersigned, E. J. Brink, hereby make application for a license to be granted to him to sell intoxicating liquors for a period of twelve months from the first day of July 1899.

The place where the business is to be carried on is designated as follows: On the ground floor of the two story building situate on lot fourteen (14) of block thirty-nine (39) of the original townsite of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, said building having three outside entrances, one in front, one in side and one in rear.

Said applicant prays that such license be granted to him pursuant to the ordinances of said village of St. Hilaire and the statutes of said State of Minnesota in such case made and provided.

Dated at St. Hilaire, this 6th day of June 1899. E. J. BRINK.

Notice is hereby given that the village council of the village of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, will meet at the council chamber in the village hall on Broadway in said village on Thursday the 29th day of June 1899, at eight o'clock p. m. at which time objections to granting said license in accordance with the above application will be heard.

[SEAL] J. L. JOHNSON, Recorder.

LIQUOR LICENSE APPLICATION.

To the Common Council of the village of St. Hilaire, in the county of Red Lake and State of Minnesota.

The undersigned, M. E. Bjerk hereby make application for a license to be granted to him to sell intoxicating liquors for a period of twelve months from the first day of July 1899.

The place where said business is to be carried on is designated as follows: On the ground floor of the two story building situate on lot three (3) of block forty (40) of the original townsite of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, said building having two outside entrances, one in front and one in side.

Said applicant prays that such license be granted to him pursuant to the ordinances of said village of St. Hilaire and the statute of said State of Minnesota in such case made and provided.

Dated at St. Hilaire, this 6th day of June 1899. M. E. BJERK.

Notice is hereby given that the village council of the village of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, will meet at the council chamber in the village hall on Broadway in said village on Thursday the 29th day of June 1899, at eight o'clock p. m. at which time objections to granting said license in accordance with the above application will be heard.

[SEAL] J. L. JOHNSON, Recorder.

FOR SALE.

Two lots and house on South Broadway for sale at a bargain. For particulars address,

Mrs. C. Gerbig,
Box 20. Akeley, Minn.

UNCLE SAM
Is not
In the Shoe
Business,
And Neither
Am I,
But I can
Interest
You in
CIGARS.

ALL THE BEST
SMOKERS BUY THEM

J.B. Cigars.

ALL THE BEST
DEALERS SELL THEM.

J. B. ARMSTRONG,
Manufacturer.
RED LAKE FALLS, MINNESOTA.

F.C. CORSETS
MAKE
American Beauties.

LATEST
MODELS.

On Each Box.

KALAMAZOO CORSET CO.
SOLE MANUFACTURERS.
SOLD BY
St. Hilaire, Minn. E. M. HOFF.

WANTED-BRAINS

Can you think of something to patent? Protect your ideas; they may bring you wealth. Before applying for patent, get our liberal offers. Inventor's Assistant and handsome views of Washington sent Free on request. Be sure to write to-day COPP & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C.

Spring Suits.

STYLISH SPRING SUITS FOR MEN AND BOYS.

The Greatwestern own magnificent display of men's spring suits, and boys' choicest clothing is now ready, at a saving of fully 25 per cent.

Greatwestern Clothing House.

IF YOU INTEND TO
Buy
Furniture.

Come and look our assortment over. We carry everything in the Furniture line including picture frames and musical instruments. Prices reasonable.

Holmes Furniture Co.

BANK OF RED LAKE FALLS,
RED LAKE FALLS, MINNESOTA
GENERAL BANKING. FOREIGN XCHANGE

Real Estate, Farm Loans and Insurance.
Abstracts of Title.
Steamship Tickets.
Interest Paid on Time Deposits.
Collections of all Kinds Given Prompt Attention.

Owner of the Abstract Books formerly owned by Sortedahl & Storaasli the only set of Abstract Books in Red Lake County.

M. O. SORTEDAHL, President and Cashier.
G. P. SEVERTSON, Assistant Cashier

First
Mortgage
Loans.

I am prepared, for the next 60 days, to make loans at the

LOWEST

possible rates ever made in Red Lake county. If you want to make a loan or renew an old one call on

H. E. IVES.

—The SPECTATOR is the official paper of the village and county. Now is the time to subscribe. $1.00 per year if paid in advance—otherwise $1.50.

Call for and get
HAMM'S
Celebrated
St. Paul
BEER Order of Nearest agent.
Theo. Hamm Brewing Co.
St. Paul.

A. O. LETVIG,
Tubular Well Contractor
A Good Supply of Water Guaranteed.
Repairing a Specialty.
WYLIE, MINNESOTA.

List of Town Clerks.

Names	Township	Postoffice
Olof Larson	Numedal	Viking
C. E. Purdy	North	Thief River Falls
John E. Peterson	Bray	Bray
N. K. Anderson	Sanders	St. Hilaire
P. T. Satre	Rocksbury	T. R. Falls
O. T. Romsoa	Polk Centre	Wylie
P. A. Eckstrom	Black River	Wylie
A. S. Anderson	River Falls	St. Hilaire
Ole J. Johnson	Wyandotte	"
A. D. Berry	Louisville	Huot
Hidalge Baril	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
Chas. E. Asp	Emardville	Lost
Edward Havik	Equality	Orit
Moses Ducharme	Lake Pleasant	R. L. F.
Elonor Perusse	Terrebonne	Terrebonne
J. B. Herbert	Poplar River	Brooks
Louis Doucel	Lambert	Lambert
J. L. Johnson	St. Hilaire	St. Hilaire
Lars Backe	Thief River P	T. R. F.
A. P. Tonpin	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
H. D. Baaryson	Norden	T. R. Falls
Olof Tande	Garnes	Garnes

FARMS
LOANS
ABSTRACTS

97 Farms for sale or rent in Red Lake County.

SWANSON & GRADY,
Official Abstractors.
RED LAKE FALLS. - - - MINN.

UNION MEAT MARKET
P. O. MOSLETH, PROP.

Choicest line of Fresh and Salted meats in the city.

Highest market price paid for Stock, Poultry and Hides.

Say?

If your wheel needs enameling, cleaning, new tires or any other repairing give us a trial. All work done promptly and satisfactory. Prices reasonable.

R. I. BULIAN & CO.
35 RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

STEVENS RIFLES AND PISTOLS
HAVE FOR MORE THAN 35 YEARS BEEN CELEBRATED FOR THEIR EXTREME ACCURACY

We make our "Diamond" Pistol with two lengths of barrel, 6 and 10 inches. Every one guaranteed. Price, Postpaid, $5.00 with 6-inch barrel; $7.50 with 10-inch barrel.

We make a full line of rifles; Price, from $6.00 upwards. Every arm we turn out is warranted

SAFE, SOLID AND ACCURATE.

J. STEVENS ARMS & TOOL CO.,
Send Stamp for Catalogue. P. O. Box 096 CHICOPEE FALLS, MASS.

Cigars.

BRINK BROTHERS
DEALERS IN
Wines & Liquors
Minneapolis Beer.
Corner Broadway and 3rd St. St. Hilaire, Minnesota

Be Ready For Summer. It is Here Now.

A full line of summer merchandise just arrived. We invite inspection of these goods. A splendid line of Skirts and Waists, both in ready-made and patterns at prices which are right. I shall not attempt to describe the line; only urge you most cordially to see the goods before you buy.

E. M. HOFF.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

I. O. O. F. St. Hilaire Lodge No. 147.—Meets at their hall every Thursday evening, eight o'clock. Visiting members are cordially invited to attend.
E. M. Hoff, N. G.
J. H. Johnson, Secretary.

M. W. A. CAMP 3650.—Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every second and fourth Tuesday of every month. Visiting neighbors are cordially invited to attend.
Leonard Holmes, V. C.
Jas. M. Hall, Clerk.

R. N. A.—WILD ROSE CAMP.—No. 831 Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every Friday evening. Visiting members of the order are cordially invited to attend.
Mrs. L. N. Nolan, Oracle.
Miss T. Hennes, Recorder.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Auditor	Adam Zeh
Treasurer	O. T. Tandberg
Register of Deeds	Samuel Olhean
Sheriff	Chas. Sampson
Attorney	Van R. Brown
Judge of Probate	J. T. Knight
Clerk of Court	Joe Perrault
Supt. of Schools	Frank Jeffers
Coroner	Joe Delaire
Court Commissioner	J. C. Mathews
Surveyor	F. O. Hagglund
Commissioner 1st Dist.	J. Saint
Commissioner 2nd Dist.	W. L. C. Romann
Commissioner 3rd Dist.	O. J. Johnson
Commissioner 4th Dist.	Karl M. Hanson
Commissioner 5th Dist.	J. B. Herbert

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

E. J. Holmes	President
J. L. Johnson	Recorder
D. Patterson	Councilmen
J. C. Dahl
W. A. Sorsoleil
E. Holmes	Treasurer

Barber Shop
—AND—
BATH ROOMS.
—o—
Haircutting, Shaving, Shampooing.
Razors honed and put in first-class order.
J. H. PENNO, Prop.
ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Henry Francis, M.D, C.M.
Member College Physicians and Surgeons, Ontario. : : :
Thief River Falls, Minnesota.

"THE IDEAL" Lunch Room.
In the Paradis Building is noted for its Convenience.
FIRST-CLASS MEALS.
PROMPT SERVICE.
☞ OPEN UNTIL ONE O'CLOCK A. M.
A. F. LANG, Prop.

DR. BLOMBURGH.
SCANDINAVIAN
Physician & Surgeon.
☞ Calls attended day or night. ☜
Teeth Extracted.
Office and residence opposite American Hotel. ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

2nd ☞ STORE
(SECOND HAND STORE.)
Everything in this line now on hand. Special bargains given. If you have anything to dispose of give me a call. Repairing of harness also done.
C. A. SKEIE.
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA

Blacksmith!
Horse-shoeing, repairing of all kinds of Farm Implements, Machinery, etc. All work promptly attended to and done in a satisfactory manner.
J. C. DAHL.
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA

PATENTS
Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES. OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.
Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.
A PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,
C. A. SNOW & CO.
OPP. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

Market Report.—To-Day.

Wheat No. 1	.64	Oats	.20
Wheat No. 2	.60	Barley	.24
Wheat No. 3	.54	Flax	.92
Eggs (per doz)	.12½	Butter (per lb)	.10

LOCAL NEWS.

St. Hilaire will celebrate the Fourth of July.

Wall paper and calcimine at the New Drug store.

Mike Rosenberg was an over Sunday visitor at Crookston.

Try a lunch, a meal or a weeks board at the Ideal Lunch Room.

J. H. Johnson made a trip to Fisher Saturday returning home Monday.

Patronize home industry by buying your wall paper at the New Drug store.

September 1st is the date now spoken of for the arrival of the 13th Minnesota.

If you want to make a loan on your farm, or renew an old one, call on H. E. Ives.

Yesterday must have been "Farmers Day" judging by the number of teams in town.

President McKinley has announced that Dewey will accompany him to the west.

Will Eikhoff is having a tank built in which his large flock of sheep will be dipped.

Mrs. O. F. Post returned yesterday from a weeks visit with friends at Crookston.

K. O. Gigstad returned to-day from a two weeks visit with parents at Eaton, Wisconsin.

Thirty-five cars were side tracked here Monday for the St. Hilaire Lumber Company.

L. T. Bergh, the Deering collector, left Thursday for Crookston where he will make his headquarters.

The planing mill was compelled to shut down a few hours Monday afternoon on account of the high wind.

The Roseau Times says the blind pigs have infested Warroad, the only town on the American side of the Lake of the Woods.

Manager Mereen of the St. Hilaire Lumber Company went to Minneapolis last Saturday after more men to work on the night shift.

No less than four deaths are reported by our exchanges the past week from accidental shooting. In all cases it "didn't know it was loaded."

Norman Hannoy having graduated from the central high school of Minneapolis, arrived here Friday and will make St. Hilaire his future home.

Most every town has an ordinance to prevent the riding of bicycles on sidewalks within the corporate limits. Thank heaven we have no scorchers.

Ike and Ole Halvorson returned Friday from a five months absence in the Black Duck country where they have been interested in logging operations.

The state grass land sale held last Thursday was well attended and some of the forties was sold at a high figure. Don Patterson did the auctioneer act.

A benefit entertainment was given Sunday evening by the Fountain show people. Half of the receipts going to the New Richmond cyclone sufferers.

Mrs. Hughes who has been visiting relatives at Minto, N. Dak., the past three weeks returned home Saturday. Little Eva McAndress accompanied her.

Every vehicle in town, and several teams from the country, were brought into service Sunday to take the base ball enthusiasts to Red Lake Falls. The roads were in a horrible condition.

Fred Case left Thursday for Goodhue county for the purpose of organizing Woodman camps. His father is deputy head consul of the Modern Woodmen America and is organizing camps in the same district.

Little Grover Rouse while fooling around the mill yesterday got one of his hands caught in a chain that necessitated him going over to the doctors care. This ought to be a warning to the boys to keep away.

—Go to the New Drug Store for your Stationery and School supplies.

Consumption Cured.

—Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth, cures a cold in one day if taken in time. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

We Lost The Game.

The home team crossed bats with the Red Lake Falls "Selects" on the latter's grounds Sunday. The day was fine and a large crowd went down to help the boys win. A good game was played but owing to the rank decisions of the umpire in the early part of the game which were all against St. Hilaire and too yellow to mention the boys lost heart and the game was lost by the score of 11 to 14. There were many brilliant plays made on both sides, chiefly among them being Deco's high jump and stop of a hot liner and Warner's catch of a hot liner getting the ball to second in time to make a double play. The weather permitting a return game will be played here between the same teams next Sunday when it is hoped a suitable umpire can be had and do away with so much wrangling.

The following are the names and positions of teams.

—Red Lake Falls.		—St. Hilaire.
Thomas	c	Stranahan	c
Ferrell	p	Warner	p
Coenen	ss	McCuaig	ss
Murphy	2b	Mitchell	1b
Lemieux	cf	Burks	3b
Lambert	3b	Lachapelle	lf
Pouliot	1b	Deco	2b
Padden	lf	Redhert	rf
Heonings	cf	Lilleman	cf

Umpire—Randall.

Red Lake Falls	1	1	1	1	4	0	3	0	x	—14
St. Hilaire	1	3	0	2	3	0	0	0	2	—11

NOTES.

For a high jumper Deco takes the cake.

The first ball over the plate was touched by Stranahan for two bases.

The umpire acknowledged after the game that he did not know anything about base ball.

Warner took in that hot liner just the same as he would a banquet from some of his lady admirers, only he refused to smile.

The spectators seriously interfered with the game by crowding the base lines and field. Many bad plays would have been avoided had proper attention been paid to this.

Leonard Holmes just received another car load of Deering machinery.

Supt. Ballard of the Crookston Lumber Company was here Saturday.

H. E. Ives returned to-day from St. Paul where he has been the past ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Danielson of Cannon Falls, father and mother of Mrs. E. J. Holmes, are expected here tomorrow on a visit.

The Frank E. Long show company billed the town for Monday and Tuesday nights but failed to come, having decided to play three more nights at Crookston.

Dr. H. J. Fountain, with his troop of specialists, having held down the boards at Brinks hall the past two weeks left Monday for Thief River Falls where they show under canvas for the next week or two.

H. T. Murray our popular conductor on this branch has been transferred on to the main line running No. 1 and 2 between Barnsville and Grand Forks. He expects to take his old run in the course of two or three weeks.

St. Paul won a game of ball from Milwaukee and the Dispatch, of St. Paul said it was "The stuff that made Milwaukee famous was the proper dope for our boys, and they should carry nine kegs with them from now on."

"Midsummer Day" June 24th, celebrated all over Sweden, will be celebrated at Brinks hall Saturday evening by giving a dance. The Thief River Falls orchestra will furnish the music which is a guarantee of having a good time. Everybody invited to attend.

It was S. M. Owen, editor of Farm, Stock and Home who said: "This government better own railroads than islands; better own telegraphs than cannibals; better own telephones than tropical beasts and jungles; better have postal saving banks than yellow fever!"

While the Minnesota Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, in session at Minneapolis Wednesday, was waiting to get down to business they voted $100 for the relief of the New Richmond cyclone sufferers, just to pass the time away. That is the kind of fraternity that counts for something.—Aitkin Age.

What in thunder is the use of presenting Admiral Dewey with a palatial residence? He is a widower without any family, and it would be a "white elephant" on his hands, and his salary of $13,500 a year will enable him to eke out a miserable existence, anyway. Besides the American people have graven on the tablets of their memory an inscription of greater value than any palace wealth could produce. Admiral Dewey is the idol of his people and no edifice erected by human hand is needed to convince him of the fact.—Fargo Call.

A gentleman from Grand Forks is authority and says gasoline will kill dandelions. Here is his statement: "Just take a common oil can with a spring bottom, fill it with gasoline, and that's all the outfit you need. Separate the dandelion leaves till you get down to the crown of the plant, squirt on a few drops of the stuff, and the deed is done. The dandelion will die. You need to remember that gasoline will kill grass as well as dandelions, so be careful about using it. We have tried everything on the Central school lawn from dynamite to a stump puller, but gasoline is the only thing that I would use again. If every owner of property would purchase about 15 cents worth of gasoline and would spend an hour's time on his own lot and the street immediately in front of it the city could be rid of the pest in a day."

—Dr. Thomas is an up-to-date in all the different branches in his profession. Remember the dates, July 19th and 20th.

The Best Cough Remedy on Earth.

Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, Consumption Cure, cures a cold in 24 hours if taken in time and does not stop a cough in ONE MINUTE by paralyzing the throat, but it cures the disease and leaves the throat and lungs healthy and strong. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

FOURTH OF JULY.

Will be Celebrated at St. Hilaire in a Good Old Fashioned Way.

A Programme is Being Prepared that will Please the Masses.

St. Hilaire Invites You All To Join And Help Celebrate The Day.

At a meeting of the citizens held at the village hall Friday evening it was decided that a Fourth of July celebration be held in a fitting manner. A committee canvassed the town and reported the sum of $500.00 collected which will be put up as prize money for the many different sports that will be pulled off during the day. The St. Hilaire cornet band will furnish music throughout the day and evening. As yet the program has not been made up in full, but the committee in charge will see that nothing is overlooked in the way of entertaining a large crowd to their entire satisfaction. Below we mention a few of the water sports that will take place at the foot of Water and Second streets and more will be added in due time.

Log rolling contest.
Boat races.
Tub races.
Diving contest.
Swimming races.
Walking the greased pole suspended over the water with a prize at end.

FIELD SPORTS.

Free-for-all running race.
Ox race.
200 yard foot race.
Boys' race.
Three legged race.
Egg race.
Wheelbarrow race.
Tug of war.
Sack race.
Bicycle race—half mile.
Base ball.

Everybody should come and see the fun, as a regular old fashioned Fourth of July celebration you will witness. Make your arrangements now to be present. Take your wife and children along with you, if you have none, take your best girl and as many others as you like, but come to St. Hilaire and celebrate Independence day.

Hot Drops for Eagan.

A dispatch from San Francisco under date of May 25th, repeating an article from the Honolulu (H. I.) Volcano of May 14th, gives the contents of the article as follows:

"Eagan, the canned beef scapegoat of the administration, a man with a loud mouth, is in town. He was dismissed from the army by a court martial. The Volcano dismisses him from its columns.

"He was saved from decapitation by McKinley; he is received here as the lion of the hour; but he is horsemeat and poor quality at that. Give him a wide berth.

"He it was who killed more American soldiers in Cuba than Spanish bullets did."

From Farm, Stock and Home.

From flyless stables stock will fly less willingly.

Sharp mower knives are savers of horse energy—and oats.

The time to make the haying boom is when the grass is in early bloom.

Are the young cattle being sold off to be finished in neighboring states?

Health is promoted by sleeping in no clothing that is worn during the day.

"Don't do to-day what can be put off till to-morrow" will not work in haying time.

At this season there should be no foul drains, festering cesspools nor untidy cellars around the home.

Roads are often "worked" as fakir "works" a farmer, and both are the worse for the working.

You cannot spare the vampire fakir out of existence; he must resolutely and emphatically be invited to "move on."

A cheese cloth covering for the cow at milking time is a great comfort to the cow and a means of grace to the milker.

The hay that has the most "get there" qualities in the winter is that which is cut at just the right time in the summer.

"Make hay when the wind blows," is the up-to-date axiom. But don't wait for the wind. There must be no wait in haying time.

Another milk and butter preservative(?) is on the market, called "freezine." It has been found to be formaldehyde, a chemical that has a disastrous effect on the tissues of the stomach. The worthless stuff is sold at a price that also produces a disastrous effect on the pocket book.

—If you are troubled with rheumatism take the Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure. It will positively cure all diseases arising from impure blood, and is sold under an absolute guarantee to benefit or money refunded. Call for free sample at the New Drug Store.

Council Proceedings.

Special meeting of the village council Saturday June 17th 1899.

All members present.

Meeting called to order by President Holmes.

On motion it was resolved to appropriate the sum of fifty dollars for the use of the St. Hilaire brass band and the recorder was instructed to draw an order on the treasurer for the same.

On motion meeting adjourned.

Attest:— E. J. HOLMES,
J. L. JOHNSON, President.
Recorder.

To cure a cough in one day take the Imperial cough syrup. Guaranteed to cure. For sale at the new Drug Store.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

Run The Right Way.

When a tornado comes never run east—always run north or south.

The chance of a tornado is about one-half in 100 years, but when they do come there are forewarnings that are very plain. The air feels gummy, clammy. It is hard to breathe. Gusts of wind come up suddenly from the south and die away as suddenly. It grows tensely silent, then with a long, roaring sound the tornado sweeps down and it is time to run. Never run east no matter what happens. The tornado always comes from the southwest and travels by a circular path to the northeast, and a 25 mile run is generally enough to tire it out.

By running west or northwest you are far more certain to get outside the path of the windstorm. When you go into a cellar get into the southwest corner. Then the flying ruins of the house as it is swept away will be piled up in the northeast or east side of the cellar and leaves the occupants uninjured. Brick houses collapse when struck hard and are therefore dangerous to hide in.

Tornadoes generally come about six p. m. almost never night. The conditions causing a tornado are hot weather low barometer and hot winds from the south for several days. The longer this lasts the greater the danger. The air is full of slow sailing clouds, and feels sticky, and people are nervous. This uneasiness is felt by a perfectly well person, and is a sign that something is wrong with the atmosphere, and will right itself in a pretty violent manner.—Minneapolis Tribune.

—For cuts and sores there is nothing better than the Imperial Carbolic salve.

Ringling Bros.' Excursions.

Arrangements have been completed by which all who wish to attend the performances of Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Shows in Crookston July 5th can secure special excursion rates on all lines of travel. This will be the only point in this vicinity where the great show will exhibit during the present season, and those who fail to see it will miss the grandest amusement event of the year. Since last season Ringling Bros.' famous exhibition has been doubled in size and is now beyond all question or doubt the largest and best combined circus, menagerie hippodrome in the United States. The performance is given by over 200 high-salaried specialists, in three rings, on two stages, in mid-air, and on a huge quarter-mile hippodrome track. The trained animal features, which are alone worth many times the price of admission to see, include three troupes of wonderfully educated elephants, Lockhart's play-acting elephants, Marchand's pugilistic pachyderms and Souder's elephant brass band, and the O'Brien's sixty-one horse act, in which three-score handsome equines perform in one ring, at one time, under the direction of one man. The grand free street parade which takes place at 10 o'clock on the morning of the exhibition is the most magnificent display ever seen. Don't miss it.

—To cure a cough or cold in one day take the Imperial Cough Syrup.

Rocksbury News.

An entertainment will be given at Valhall on the 27th day of June. The Grand chief Templar of Minnesota Scandinavian Grand Lodge of I. O. G. T. Mr. Oscar Wolf and deputy grand chief Templar of the same order and John A. Thoren will deliver addresses in the interest of the Good Templar order. All are cordially invited.

As Rev. I. T. Aastad having failed to name a place and date for a debate between said Aastad and Good Templars upon points set forth in the challenge, therefore the Lodge Briedeblik decided at a meeting some weeks ago that place and time for such debate be named as follows: City Hall, Thief River Falls on the 27th of June next at 7:30 p. m. So far Rev. I. T. Aastad has not accepted the Lodge Briedabliks challenge and we may look in vain for a debate but Messrs. Oscar Wolf and John A. Thoren will entertain the people by interesting lectures regarding the Good Templar Order. All are cordially invited.

Dentist.

—Dr. J. H. Thomas, the Crookston dentist will be at Hotel Markham, St. Hilaire, July 19th and 50th prepared to do all kinds of up to date dental work in all branches. All work warranted. Remember the dates 19th and 20th.

Watches Clocks and Jewelary.

I will carry a full line of wathes, clocks and jewlery hereafter at Johnson's drug store. Anything you want that we do not carry in stock we will order for you at ten per cent above the wholesale prices and by doing this you will save money by dealing at home. Watches left for repairs will be sent down on first train and returned the next day. I shall continue to be at Johnson's drug store the 10th 11th and 12th of each month. Eyes examined free.
PROF. J. O. ADAMS.
Red Lake Falls.

FAMILY WASHING.
We can give you prices on family work that will surprise you. Why not save fuel, water and wood by having your washing done by us? We call and deliver your work. Starch and return rough dry at prices so small that we are ashamed to print it.
St. Hilaire Laundry.
B. KORTGAARD, Proprietor.

WANTED.
Teachers to attend the Crookston College Summer School. It is cheap thorough and practical. Term opens June 12th and continues 8 weeks. Address, Crookston College, Crookston, Minnesota.

—It is better than ready money because it cures rheumatism, constipation sick, headache, indigestion. Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure.

We Handle Everything.

Start the Day Right
And everything will go smoothly. The proper way to start the day is by coming around to our store and ordering a supply of groceries for the day, such things as you may need. It will take you but a few minutes, and we feel sure you will not regret it.

Our Groceries
Are always fresh, and then the prices are as near right as we know how to make them. If you have not been in the habit of trading with us, drop in and see us anyway; you might get into the habit.

Hardware
We carry everything in the hardware line from cooking stoves down to tacks—all you have to do is to ask for what you want. If you want anything in the tin or copper line done drop into our tin shop and your wants will be attended to.

Yours very truly,
RAPP & POST
St. Hilaire, Minnesota.

M. A. HALL
DEALER IN DRY GOODS,
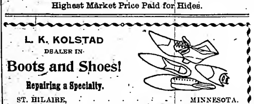
GROCERIES,
NOTIONS,
GENTS FURNISHING GOODS,
TOBACCO,
CIGARS,
CONFECTIONERY

A. H. WEAGANT
Having bought the business of Fred Eikhoff, I am now prepared to sell you anything in line of
HARDWARE AND TINWARE
CUTLERY, PAINTS & OILS,
Everything at Rock Bottom Prices. Come and see for yourself. Opposite Hotel Markham

LEONARD HOLMES,
—DEALER IN—
Agricultural Implements
WHEAT, FLAX OATS AND BARLEY.
Flour and Feed always on Hand.

Lumber! Lumber!
OF ALL KINDS.
We have a large and well assorted stock of Dry Lumber and are prepared to fill all orders on short notice. We also carry a complete assortment
—OF—
Sash, Doors, Paper
AND ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL
Which we buy in large quantities and are thereby enabled to sell at lowest market prices.
ST. HILAIRE LUMBER CO.

NEW MEAT MARKET.
L. M. ROLAND, Proprietor.
Fresh and Salted Meats.
Highest Market Price Paid for Hides.



L. K. KOLSTAD
DEALER IN
Boots and Shoes!
Repairing a Specialty.
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.

Lugubriously Cheerful.

Miss Ethel—Music always makes me feel sad, doesn't it you, Mr. Suds?

Mr. Suds—Yes; but I like it—it's awfully jolly to feel sad, don't y' know.—Brooklyn Life.

Exhibits at Paris.

There will be a large exhibit from this country at the Paris exposition in 1900, which will prove very interesting to all, but no more so than the news that the famous American remedy, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, will cure dyspepsia, indigestion and constipation. To all sufferers a trial is recommended.

And the Statue of Justice Winked.

A judge in a remote part of Australia recently had a painful case before him. It was that of a man charged with unlawfully selling liquor.

The judge said he was there to administer the law, and the man must be fined; but as he himself had frequently had the pleasure of sampling his whisky, and he saw many persons in court who had done the same, perhaps the officer would kindly pass his hat around to see if the place contained thirty shillings.

It did.—Stray Stories.

In the kitchen, spiders are of more use than flies.

Cause and Effect.

"My wife's got a cold again, doctor,"
He said,
Like a man who for grievance has cause;
"Despite all my protests, she would go last night
To the ball in a dress made of gauze."

Though the doctor tried hard to look grave, on his face
Was a smile not so hard to detect,
As, he answered: "That settles the matter at once,
It's a plain case of gauze and effect."
—Buffalo Courier.

Are You Using Allen's Foot-Ease?

It is the only cure for Swollen, Smarting, Burning, Sweating Feet, Corns and Bunions. Ask for Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder to be shaken into the shoes. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Pricing the Goods.

"What are the great questions which a man must consider now when he becomes forward to ask for votes at the polls?"

"That's easy," answered Senator Sorghum. "My experience has been limited to just two—'how many' and 'how much?'"—Washington Star.

The Price of Peril.

Clerk (to the applicant at the Leviathan Assurance Company)—You wish to be assured against accidents, sir? May I ask your profession?

Applicant—I am a football referee.

Clerk (politely)—First door to the right for the death department.—London Punch.

Tommy's Retort.

Tommy—That church is over 200 years old.

Cissy—My auntie says it's only 100.

Tommy—Oh, well, I suppose that's as far back as she can remember.—Rival.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

Wanted His Stud.

"Mrs. Joy—Oh, John, run for the physician. The baby's swallowed your diamond stud!"

Her Bachelor Brother—Physician be hanged! I'll bring a surgeon.—Jeweler's Weekly.

FITS Permanently Cured. No fits or nervousness after first day's use of Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. Send for FREE $2.00 trial bottle and treatise. Dr. R. H. Kline, Ltd., 931 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

The Only One.

"Robbie," said the visitor, "have you any brothers and sisters?"

"No," replied Robbie. "I'm all the children we've got."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Life to a Lazy Liver.

Lazy, laden livers cause nine tenths of all deaths. Give your liver life with Cascarets Candy Cathartic and save your own life! All druggists, 10c, 25c, 50c.

His Experience.

Mrs. Wallies—What is the longest time you ever got along without food?

Professor—I once lived three days on my wife's cooking.—Leslie's Weekly.

Hall's Catarrh Cure
Is a constitutional cure. Price, 75c.

Poverty is no disgrace, but it is seldom used as a testimonial of ability.

How many women are economical in the matter of pins.

I know that my life was saved by Piso's Cure for Consumption.—John A. Miller, Au Sable, Michigan, April 21, 1895.

To fasten a lie upon a person, you must nail it.

Was there ever anything in life just as you'd expected it to be?

It is as hard to kill real love as it is to find it.

"Better Be Wise Than Rich."

Wise people are also rich when they know a perfect remedy for all annoying diseases of the blood, kidneys, liver and bowels. It is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is perfect in its action—so regulates the entire system as to bring vigorous health.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints.

KILL THEM

Those pesty destroyers, the household Flies.
Dutcher's Fly Killer
not only kills the parent fly, but prevents reproduction. A sheet will kill a quart.
Ask your Druggist or Grocer.
FRED'K DUTCHER DRUG CO. St. Albans, Vt.

Whiskers Dyed
A Natural Black by
Buckingham's Dye.
Price 50 cents of all druggists or R. P. Hall & Co., Nashua, N. H.

When Answering Advertisements Kindly Mention This Paper.

PISO'S CURE FOR
CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS.
Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists.
CONSUMPTION

FOUR LINERS

ON TWIN CITY, STATE AND NATIONAL POLITICS,

With a Preliminary Reference to the Meat and Pith of the Silver Question. Why Silver Restored Means Dollar Wheat and More—A Nut Which The Gold Press Cannot Crack—Gold Begins to Go Abroad Again—Twin City Letter. Business and Politics—Mayor Gray's Work in the "Old Stiff" Yards—Points Here and There in the State Reform Administration—G. O. P. Hustling for Next Year's State Candidates—Knute Nelson's "Fighting Face"—Mr. Towne With Moreton Frewen—Anti-Imperialism to the Front—State Note and Comment.

Reform Press Bureau.
St. Paul, June 19, 1899.

The gold standard press are very "flip" in sneering at this Bureau for remarking that "dollar wheat and more is what we are after," but not one of them can show why free coinage will not accomplish it, nor answer the following:

Free coinage would, as it formerly did, destroy the destructive competition with us in the world's markets of great nations that now do and will continue to do business with a money cheaper than gold. With free coinage it would no longer be possible for their growers of wheat to sell it for 50 cents a bushel in gold and take this gold and buy a dollar's worth of silver and coin it into that much of their money, with which they can then pay double the debts, taxes and fixed charges that our farmers can pay with their bushel sold in foreign markets. The closing of our mints to silver is responsible for this enormous difference in the debt paying power of a bushel of wheat for our own farmers and those of silver using countries, whose product of which regulates the market price of every bushel sold in the United States. The discrimination between the two metals has forced the dollars apart until gold buys twice the silver that it did and should now. When an ounce of gold would buy 16 ounces of silver instead of more than 30 as now, then 50 cents in gold would buy just 50 cents in silver, and the power of the bushel of wheat to pay debts, taxes, and the fixed charges would not fall with the prices of products, such, for instance, as are fixed by the trusts and monopolies, custom and law, but would be the same everywhere. Is this not true?

The wheat growers of silver countries, who are our principal competitors abroad, can sell a bushel of wheat for the same amount of silver they always could, for they can get it coined into about as much money as formerly. But we can't get it coined into money at all any more, and can convert it only into one-half of the gold money we could once. This gives them their old profitable price and gives us the ruinous half prices of recent years, and has made this mightiest of our farm industries very unprofitable, unless we happen to have the unprecedented crops of the last two years and they have a wheat famine at the same time. We can destroy this ruinous competition only by open mints, for thereby and thereupon, the old ratio between gold and silver would be restored. Is not this also true?

And the foregoing are among the reasons why the money question is not dead, neither sleepeth.

When anti-imperialists are feeling badly at being called names, let them read this:

"When I die I wish but two words written on my tombstone: 'Infidel-Traitor.' Infidel to a church that can be at peace in the presence of sin, traitor to a government that is a magnificent conspiracy against justice."—Wendell Phillips.

The Chicago Democrat thus concludes a most just and charming comment on our great leader, and the certainty of Bryan's nomination and election next year:

"William Jennings Bryan is not only the logical candidate of the Democratic party—he is the ideal American manhood, a worthy successor to Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln."

When last heard from Hon. Charles A. Towne was in London, guest of the great English bimetallist, Hon. Moreton Frewen. Mr. Towne is said to be making a great success of his foreign mission and may be expected to bring home material of great value. Especially will he no doubt be posted on the Indian mints question.

The managing gentlemen are profuse in their assertions that no politics is expected, in the coming of McKinley to greet the return of the Thirteenth. Well, why not make it certain by inviting Mr. Bryan?

Let no one be disturbed about Colonel Ames and Lieutenant Colonel Friedrich. Both will come marching home, in their proper places, with the noble Thirteenth.

With 50,000 census appointees next year, most of them Republicans, and with 10,000 strikers let loose by the McKinley blow at the civil service, it will behoove the people to be up and doing to offset their work for "Me and McKinley."

There is a marked similarity between the present situation with the Ohio Republicans and those of Minnesota last year. Nominations have been made under false pretenses of "harmony," and everybody has gone home to sulk and vote for the other fellow at the polls. Why not the opposition all unite on Golden Rule Jones?

An Ohioan has survived a broken back, and is able to walk with an alligator skin jacket as the only artificial assistance. Here is hope for Your Uncle Loren Fletcher, after his coming tussle with Judge Canty.

To encourage such promise of success in Ohio, there is a wide open bolt of several prominent Republican leaders from the Hanna-Cox bossism. When such men as General John Beatty, lifelong Republican, are out against the McKinley administration, there is hope for the Democracy in Ohio.

The Republicans now say that an income tax will destroy the trusts and that they will favor it, but in 1896 they declared that supporters of the Chicago platform were anarchists because it declared for income taxation.

And the same as to government by injunction. Now they condemn the courts for upholding trusts in their decisions. Republican consistency is not of the "jewel" variety.

Merriam, Powers and Kenyon are at the front to do the "me and McKinley" work for Hanna in Minnesota next year. This is rough on "Lieutenant Commander" Tim Byrnes.

When Republican papers leave State Printer Expert Colonel Whitney out of the count of candidates for Secretary of State it simply proves that "Republics are ungrateful."

Of course when the ink trust begins operations in Minnesota the Republican Attorney General will but need to wave a copy of the Tawney anti-trust law and say "Out damned spot," and the trust will "out."

Judging from past generations of state Republican blunders, the Grand Rapids Magnet (Rep.) declares that the late legislature should have created the office of official explainer.

The Honorable Chauncey Despew, United States Senator and LL. D., from his Lunnun view of American politics sees Gorman the Democratic candidate and Bryan shelved. Dopfewl

Ex-Commander Paul Vandervoort of the G. A. R. has offered to raise a colony of old soldiers to settle in our foreign "possessions," if the government will distribute the $3,000,000 of Cuban money among the colonists instead of the Cuban soldiers. A similar idea is offered by Major Hotchkiss of the Preston Republican, that the $20,000,000 of Philippine purchase money had better been distributed among the Filipinos.

The national bank statement shows that from Feb. 4 to April 5 loans increased but $104,308,000, while deposits increased $205,000,000. Since May, 1898, loans have increased $308,300,000 and deposits increased $488,000,000.

The aggregate of the deposits piled up in banks, given by the report mentioned, is $2,500,000,000, bringing little or no interest. If this enormous sum is "out of business," how much money is actually in "circulation?"

Oh, yes, there is "plenty of money." No need of more, and especially no need of free coinage. And yet the McKinley-Hanna plan is to authorize the national banks to issue 10 per cent more—the full value of their bonds held for circulation.

The gold market has again reached the export mark, and the anticipated exports have commenced. Of course, this is independent of the millions taken over by American nabobs like Chauncey Despew.

Suppress the state dairy and food department! Now it has jumped on the big packers, Swift, Armor and Cudahy, for selling adulterated lard under unlawful labels. All are being prosecuted. Also, the department prosecuted the American Biscuit company for the same offense, causing a fine of $25 to be paid, and securing the assurance of the company that the law would not again be violated. That's what comes of having a department officered by men of the right kind of stamina.

Adjutant General Lambert has not completed the organization of the governor's staff as yet. Nearly a dozen appointments remain to be made. The annual encampment opens next week at Lake City.

The candid statement of the Twin City business situation is that the "bulge" in April and May, caused by the sudden bursting of delayed winter, is over. Collections are "hard," and margins closer than ever.

In all office situations there are many more applicants for places than men wanted. The scarcity of men for ordinary labor is over. The latter demand has in some part been filled by men in higher employment forced out of places.

Up to this time Mayor Gray of Minneapolis has been engaged in cleaning out the old "stiffs" in the municipal back yard and they lay several deep. But Mayor Jim will get there.

There is no longer doubt but that Senator Knute Nelson has arrayed against him the whole power of Hennepin county. The combination which by the appointment of Steve Lovejoy as postmaster would keep Fletcher and his friends in line for Nelson has apparently failed.

Charley Pillsbury, the Minneapolis flour king, is to be the anti-Nelson candidate, provided present plans do not miscarry. It is the outlook now that Nelson must face solid opposition from Hennepin county.

In the first place, the Reform forces expect to carry the county, and in the next, if any Republicans squeeze through, they will be anti-Nelson. The senators hold over, but only one of the Republican four is believed to be for Nelson.

Speaking of "fighting faces," who has seen Senator Nelson's since he heard the Pillsbury news from Hennepin?

G. S. C.

HOUSES WASHED AWAY.

The Rio Grande River on a Tear in Texas.

Laredo, Texas, Special.—The Rio Grande has reached the highest stage since 1876. The water works and ice plants of both Laredos were flooded and compelled to shut down, causing a suspension of work at several other places. Many houses of poor people along the banks of both sides were flooded or washed away and their contents swept down the river. Three human bodies were seen floating down the river but owing to the swift current they could not be recovered. Many dead animals and large quantities of garden and farm products are being carried by, showing heavy loss above. Reports from below also indicate much damage to irrigation plants and crops. All railroads entering Laredo have suffered from washouts. The Rio Grande & Eagle Pass railroad has ten bridges washed away.

Warships at Boston.

Boston, Special.—The flagship New York, and the battleships Massachusetts, Indiana and Texas have arrived in the inner harbor and dropped anchor. The customary courtesies were exchanged with Fort Warren.

Resisting Power of Snow.

Some experiments were made recently in France on the penetrative force of bullets through snow. The results were astonishing. The Lebel rifle was used, and at a distance of 160 feet the bullet penetrated only five feet into the snow target. A bullet from a Lebel rifle has been known, it is said, to go through a tree three and one-half feet in diameter. That it should penetrate only eighteen inches further into such soft stuff as snow seems altogether startling. The explanation suggested by the experimenters is that the rotating bullet picks up particles of snow as it goes in, and so gets "balled" or blocked up. Doubtless, also, the inelastic character of snow also accounts for the difference. The closing in of the springy particles of wood behind the bullet tends to facilitate penetration. Any inert mass, such as sand, earth or coal, shows great resistance against penetration.—Pathfinder.

A Few Timely Pointers.

The up-to-date farmer has learned the wisdom of doing his own thinking, and in selecting a binder or mower to weigh carefully the actual points of superiority and to avoid mere "talking" or "selling" points. The "life" of a machine depends largely on its main frame, which should be solid enough to outwear the working parts and yet not heavy enough to tear itself to pieces through its own inertia. The Deering Ideal Binder has a high-carbon steel frame, hot-riveted at the joints. This machine has stood the most severe tests ever put on a binder. It has a cutting apparatus that will cut any crop that grows; elevators that will elevate anything it cuts; a simple reel with greater range of adjustment than any other, operated with a single lever; the famous Deering Knotter and Binder which never misses; the only bundle carrier worthy of the name, and finally Deering Roller and Ball Bearings, making it the lightest draft binder that ever cut a swath.

Looking Ahead.

"And so you have decided to name your baby James, have you?"

"Yes; but, of course, we shall call him Jim right from the start."

"Why have you such a decided preference for that name?"

"Why, you see I want to give him a fair show. Jim, you know, rhymes with him, vim, trim, grim, prim, rim, shim, whim, dim, limb, swim, and probably a lot of other words that I can't think of just now; so if he ever does anything worth mentioning the poets will not be likely to overlook it."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Couldn't Get In, Anyway.

Benign Individual—My good friend, don't you know that indulging your appetite for strong drink will undermine your health and bring you to death's door?

De Tanque—Thatsh all right, old boy; I won't be able to (hic) find the keyhole.—Philadelphia Record.

The Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road is about to make a radical change in its method of running dining cars, and it is expected that the new plan will meet with popular approval.

On and after the first of June, all meals, except dinners, will be served on the "a la carte" plan. Hitherto, on the main line, all service was at the uniform rate of One dollar per meal. Two new dining cars are being built and will be in service by July 1st, so that all through trains will be provided with first-class dining cars.

His Motto.

First Bunco Man—He seemed pretty shrewd. I didn't think you could do him so easily.

Second Bunco Man—Oh, you never know what you can do until you try.—Life.

The Summer Bath for Health.

The bath in summer is not only a luxury, but a necessity for health and beauty. To take it properly, fill a tub with luke warm water, use Ivory soap, rub the flesh until it glows, rinse in cool water, and dry on a soft towel. A daily bath thus taken will keep the system in good condition during the warm weather.

ELIZA R. PARKER.

She'll Say the Rest.

"It's awfully late," I remarked to my friend, after a long whist bout at the club. "What will you say to your wife?"

"Oh, I shan't say much, you know," was the reply. "'Good morning, dear,' or something of that sort. She'll say the rest."—Roxbury Gazette.

How Old She Looks

Poor clothes cannot make you look old. Even pale cheeks won't do it.

Your household cares may be heavy and disappointments may be deep, but they cannot make you look old.

One thing does it and never fails.

It is impossible to look young with the color of seventy years in your hair.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

permanently postpones the tell-tale signs of age. Used according to directions it gradually brings back the color of youth. At fifty your hair may look as it did at fifteen. It thickens the hair also; stops it from falling out; and cleanses the scalp from dandruff. Shall we send you our book on the Hair and its Diseases?

The Best Advice Free.
If you do not obtain all the benefits you expected from the use of the Vigor, write the doctor about it. Probably there is some difficulty with your general system which may be easily removed. Address, Dr. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

FISH GRANDFATHER CAUGHT.

An Old, Old Story with Some Modern Variations.

Colson is a star at telling fish stories, but he isn't a marker to the man we met in a canoe off Twin island, says the Lewiston Journal. He was evidently an Oxford bear and he greeted us pleasantly as we pulled by.

"What luck?" we asked.

"Nuthin' much," he answered.

"Ain't very good fishin'," chipped in Colson.

"Good?" he grunted, turning so that he could keep alongside us and carry on the conversation. "Good? I should say it wa'n't. You ought to her seen this here pond when my father was a young feller. Lord bless ye, ye don't know nuthin' 'bout fishin'. How big a fish did you ever ketch?"

"Three pounds," said I, truthfully.

"Nine pounds," said Colson.

"Nine pounds," repeated the native, scornfully. "Nine pounds! Why, I've heard my grandfather tell 'bout their using nine-pounders fer bait! Them wuz the days when fishin' wuz fishin'. The lake wuz so dern full of fish then that the farmers never used to buy grain fer the hens. Uster set nets an' catch fish fer 'em. Some of my grandfather's hens got so they'd cotch their own fish. Grandfather says he l'arnt the ducks how, an' they l'arnt the hens.

"That seems to'able strange, I know, but I've hearn grandfather say as how his father uster feed out fish to the cows. They l'arnt to like it better'n hay, an' as there wasn't much hay raised them days it were a great savin'. Only trouble wuz the cows couldn't pick out the bones, an' they uster work down along with the milk and stick into a feller's fingers when he were milkin'.

"Them wuz days when there wuz some fun goin' fishin'. They never'd never think of takin' home a fish that weighed under fifty pounds. Some of them big whallopers uster fight like time. I've hearn grandfather tell about bein' out when they'd hooked onto a big feller and brought him up to the side of the boat. He was ugly and wuz fer comin' right into the boat an' settlin' things. T'other two fellers wuz scairt, but granddad he just pulled out a big revolver he always carried an' shot that fish right plumb through the head.

"Granddad said it wuz a pretty close call, but he wuz a prudent fellow, granddad wuz, an' he never went fishin' without bein' armed."

Colson had been listening with rapt attention. As the native concluded he took off his hat deferentially.

"I am something of a liar myself," he said, and I rowed away.

MALAYAN TRAITS.

Points of Character of the Philippine Islanders.

The Malay race is impassive, reserved, and even bashful, so that, until one knows the race better, one can scarcely credit his bloodthirsty reputation. The Malay is entirely undemonstrative. If he has any feelings of surprise he never shows them. Perhaps he experiences none, no matter how wonderful the sight which meets his gaze. He is slow and deliberate in speech, and circumlocutory in introducing a subject to be discussed. Even the children and women are timid, and scream at the sight of a European, while in the presence of the men they are silent and taciturn. Even when alone the Malay neither talks nor sings, in this respect differing much from the Papuan, who has all the negro traits of chattering and singing to himself for company. Overpay a Malay for some trifle and his countenance betrays no sign of emotion; a Papuan will be grave for a moment out of perfect astonishment at the mistake made, and then burst into peals of grinning laughter, while he bends in two, and finally rolls on the ground in ecstasies of merriment. The Malays, when in company in a canoe, chant a plaintive, monotonous song; at other times they are silent. The Malay is cautious of giving offense to any one, and accordingly will hesitate to quarrel about money matters, and rather abandon a just debt due to him than to run the risk of a feud with his equals. In his ordinary life he is as impassive as a typical Scot, and as fond of all the all admiral line of conduct as the American Indian, though, unlike him, the Malay does not dissemble his feelings or play a part. He has really little, if any appreciation of humor, and does not understand a practical jest. To all breaches of etiquette he is very sensitive, and equally jealous of any interference with his own or any one else's liberty. To such an extent does he carry this idea that a Malay servant will hesitate to waken another, even his own master, though told to do so. The higher classes are exceedingly polite, possessing all the repose and quiet dignity of the best-bred Europeans. There is, however, another side to the character of the Malay. He is reckless, cruel and careless of human life; possesses but a poor intellect, and has neither taste for knowledge nor any indigenous civilization.

No Cause for Doubt.

"I'm afraid I won't be able to get through," faltered the young knight, preparing for his first tourney.

"Never fear!" grinned his opponent, as he playfully poised his lance, "I'll run you through."—Answers.

Overheard in a Cemetery.

Boyle—I am strongly opposed to cremation. I think it is carrying things entirely too far. Coyle—How so? Boyle—We would then be compelled not only to earn our living but to urn our dead.

A Natural Error.

Handout Harry—Say, Teddy, somebody told me dat you'd been t'rough Yale.

Tlapass Teddy—De feller wot said dat must a been a Swede. He meant jail.

Not Much Warmth.

"Well, I want to see my rich uncle to see if he would help me," said Squildig. "Did he receive you warmly?" asked McSwilligen. "Yes; lukewarmly."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

PATENTS.

List of Patents Issued Last Week to Northwestern Inventors.

Freeman S. Farr and C. F. Nyberg, Minneapolis, Minn., ice motor; John E. and O. A. French, St. Cloud, Minn., automatic grain bundle shocker; Ole E. Hegstad, Hegbert, Minn., extension ladder and truck; George T. Honstain, and C. E. Bird, Minneapolis, Minn., coaling station; Charles B. Underwood, St. Paul, Minn., corn cutter, shocker and binder; Alfred L. Whipple, Lisbon, N. D., variable gear for bicycles; Henry N. Qunley, Vermillion, S. D., incandescent lamp hanger, (design.)

Merwin, Lothrop & Johnson, Patent Attorneys, 910 Pioneer Press Bldg., St. Paul.

Changed Intentions.

Vicar's Daughter—Oh, Withers, your mistress tells me you are saving up to take a little shop and look after your mother. I think it is such a sweet idea.

Withers—Well, yes, miss, I did think of it; but now I've got the money I've changed my mind, and I'm going to buy myself one of those 'ere bicycles instead.—London Punch.

A Hard Word.

Ethel—Supper is weady, Uncle Don.

Uncle John—You mean breakfast, don't you, dear?

Ethel—'Es; but I can't say it.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Do Your Feet Ache and Burn?

Shake into your shoes, Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It makes tight and New Shoes feel Easy. Cures Corns, Bunions, Swollen, Hot and Sweating Feet. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Conditional Superstition.

"Would you be willing to eat at the table where there were thirteen people?"

"Well, a good deal would depend upon whether I was goin' to git the meal for nothin' or not."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Chicago Great Western Increase.

Chicago, June 12, 1899.—The earnings of Chicago Great Western Ry., "Maple Leaf Route," for the first week of June, 1899, show an increase of $31,023.97. Total increase since beginning of fiscal year (July 1st) to date, $456,845.05.

Of Course He Was.

Young Wife—You—you were intoxicated when you came in last night.

Young Husband—Only at the sight of your beauty.—Syracuse Herald.

A man of mark seems sure to prosper, especially if it is a dollar mark.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N. Y.
For sale by all Druggists.—Price 50c. per bottle.

From Mrs. Gunter to Mrs. Pinkham.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 76,244]

"One year ago last June three doctors gave me up to die, and as I had at different times used your Vegetable Compound with good results, I had too much faith in it to die until I had tried it again. I was apparently an invalid, was confined to my bed for ten weeks. (I believe my trouble was ulceration of womb).

"After taking four bottles of the Compound and using some of the Liver Pills and Sanative Wash, at the end of two months I had greatly improved and weighed 155 pounds, when I never before weighed over 138. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine I ever used, and I recommend it to all my friends."—MRS. ANNA EVA GUNTER, HIGGINSVILLE, MO.

Mrs. Barnhart Enjoys Life Once More.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I had been sick ever since my marriage, seven years ago; have given birth to four children, and had two miscarriages. I had falling of womb, leucorrhœa, pains in back and legs; dyspepsia and a nervous trembling of the stomach. Now I have none of these troubles and can enjoy my life. Your medicine has worked wonders for me."—MRS. S. BARNHART, NEW CASTLE, PA.

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
REGULATE THE LIVER

STOCK RAISERS

Will find it greatly to their advantage, if before purchasing a farm, they will look at the country along the line of the

Saint Paul & Duluth Railroad.

DAIRY FARMERS

Who desire the best Clover and Timothy land, in a district which can boast of a fine climate, good pure water, rich soil, fine meadows, and near to the markets of St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth and Superior should apply immediately by letter or in person to

WM. P. TROWBRIDGE,
Asst. Land Commissioner,
St. Paul & Duluth R. R.
Box U—903 Globe Bldg., St. Paul, Minn.

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

WHEAT
WHEAT
WHEAT

"Nothing but wheat; what you might call a sea of wheat," is what was said by a lecturer speaking of Western Canada. For particulars as to routes, railway fares, etc., apply to Superintendent of Immigration, Department Interior, Ottawa, Canada, or to Ben Davies, [illegible] East Third St., St. Paul, or T. O. Currie, Stevens Point, Wis.

Trade Mark BIG G
CURES in 1 to 5 days. Guaranteed not to stricture. Prevents contagion.
THE EVANS CHEMICAL CO. CINCINNATI, O. U. S. A.
$1.00

CURE YOURSELF!
Use Big G for unnatural discharges, inflammations, irritations or ulcerations of mucous membranes. Painless, and not astringent or poisonous.
Sold by Druggists,
or sent in plain wrapper, by express, prepaid, for $1.00, or 3 bottles, $2.75.
Circular sent on request.

INVENTORS

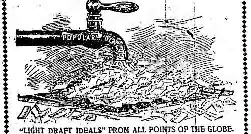
Send to-day for our handsomely engraved 38th anniversary work on patents FREE.
MASON, FENWICK & LAWRENCE, Patent Lawyers, Washington, D. C.

PENSION JOHN W. MORRIS, Washington, D. C.
Successfully Prosecutes Claims.
Late Principal Examiner U S Pension Bureau.
3 yrs in last war, 15 adjudicating claims, atty since.

WANTED—Case of bad health that R·I·P·A·N·S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimonials.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water.

N W N U —No. 25.— 1899.



ORDERS POUR IN FOR DEERING

"LIGHT DRAFT IDEALS" FROM ALL POINTS OF THE GLOBE.

The largest single factory of any kind in America is running day and night to supply the demand.

There is no important grain-growing country in the world where Deering Harvesting Machines are not in use.

The machines that have a reputation for steady, reliable work, light draft and great durability are everywhere sought after.

Deering pioneered and popularized roller and ball bearings in binders and mowers.

Deering machines are built to meet the practical needs of the farmer.

They are the kind that don't get out of order. They are easy on horses.

That's why the farmers of the world unite in endorsing Deering machines.

DEERING HARVESTER CO., Chicago, U. S. A.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE
DO YOU WANT A HOME?
60,000 ACRES OF GOOD FARMING LANDS IN WASHBURN AND BARRON COUNTIES, WISCONSIN, to be divided and sold at $3.00 TO $6.00 PER ACRE.
Long time and easy payments to actual settlers.
Come and see us or address,
W. R. BOURNE, Mgr., SHELL LAKE LUMBER CO., SHELL LAKE, WIS.

"IF AT FIRST YOU DON'T SUCCEED," TRY
SAPOLIO

Minnesota Historical Society

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR.

VOLUME XVIII. | ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY. JUNE 28, 1899. | NUMBER 48

ANTI-IMPERIALISTS

MAKE SIGNIFICANT PLEDGES FOR NEXT YEAR'S CAMPAIGN.

Official and Reassuring Statement of Their League—While the League Is Non-Political, Says Secretary Erving Winslow, Our Friends Will Vote for the Candidate Who Stands Squarely on Our Platform — Other National Points. Hanna and Fletcher Will Wipe Out the Trusts—Old Kaintuck Solid—Tears for Silver Dick Bland—Minnesota's Military Arm—Republican Ghosts Refusing to Down—Lumber Up, Grain Down. General Reeve's Loaded "Gun" That Is Not Loaded Now—Secretary Randall's "White City"—State and Twin City Comment of the Week.

Reform Press Bureau.
ST. PAUL. June 10, 1899.

There are multiplying signs that the hearts and consciences of the people are becoming aroused on the subject of imperialism, the country over. Since the recent publications in the bureau, mentioning the national work being conducted at Boston and Washington we have received numerous responses, all to the same tenor, that the spreading of the work of the Anti-Imperialist League must go on. Numerous requests have been received to be enrolled in such league membership. In that connection a criticism came to hand, that it was feared, from persons noted in connection with the movement, that there was a religious bent to it which might prove dangerous. For the sake of the cause we laid this before the league, and promptly received the following reassuring and politically very significant statement:

"Anti-Imperialist League,
Boston and Washington, June 12, '99.
"George S. Canfield, Democratic Reform Press Bureau, St. Paul:

"DEAR SIR—I hasten to inform you that there is not the slightest warrant for the impression you mention. There is no religious or ulterior motive in the purposes or work of the League. It is unreligious, unsectarian and unpolitical. But our friends will certainly support for president the candidate who stands squarely on the Anti-Imperialist platform.
Your obedient servant,
"ERVING WINSLOW, Secretary."

"What will be the outcome?" asks the Mankato Free Press. Can't tell you that, but the out-go to date is $2 a head to get 'em, and from $100 to $1,000 a head to kill them off, so far.

While attention has been to a degree absorbed by the civil branches of Governor Lind's administration, the military arm has been brought up to a very high standard by the energy and untiring efforts of the adjutant general, Brigadier General George C. Lambert. The foundation for the results accomplished by General Lambert was in the fact that he was the author of the state's military code, which, by the way, has been followed almost literally by the United States war department. Hence the intimate conformity of state and federal school and tactics where the two branches come in contact.

The following is the roster of the field and staff, as now completed, and as will be in camp this and following weeks, at Lake City, the initial service being at Duluth, in the recognition of the war department, in the person of Secretary Alger:

Commander-in-Chief—His Excellency John Lind, governor.

Chief of Staff—Brigadier General George C. Lambert, St. Paul, adjutant general.

General Staff:

Surgeon General—Brigadier General Alex J. Stone, St. Paul.

Quartermaster General — Brigadier General Gustav Scholle, St. Paul,

Assistant Adjutant General—Major Francis Baasen, New Ulm.

Assistant Surgeon General—Major Ed Whitcomb, St. Paul.

Assistant Judge Advocate General—Major Albert Steinhauser, New Ulm.

Assistant Quartermaster General—Major Roy Viall, Spring Valley.

Military Storekeeper—Captain Ed J. Bobleter, New Ulm.

Chaplain—Colonel James M. Cleary, Minneapolis.

Aides de camp:

Colonel James M. Hawthorn, St. Paul; Colonel F. Bergmeier, St. Paul; Colonel Ed W. Murphy, Minneapolis; Colonel Roland Hartley, Minneapolis; Colonel Arnold R. Chace, Marshall; Colonel Christ Brand, St. Paul; Colonel George O. Eddy, Minneapolis; Colonel Charles W. Stanton, Appleton; Colonel John G. Hardy, St. Paul; Colonel Henry H. Hawkins, Carlton; Major. R. F. Shields, Park Rapids; Major Eckhard Hurd, St. Paul.

The First brigade, under command of Brigadier General W. B. Bend, composed of the First, Second, Third and Fourth regiments, the medical corps, and the First battalion of artillery under command of Major E. D. Libbey, will do 10 days' tour of duty and instruction, as follows:

Second infantry (the First, being the Thirteenth, absent at Manila) Colonel Joseph Bobleter commanding, June 23 to July 1.

Third infantry, Colonel Charles A. Van Duzee, July 5 to 14.

Fourth Infantry Reserve, Colonel Conde Hamlin, July 17 to 26.

First artillery, Major E. D. Libbey, July 17 to 26.

Minnesota's honorable part in the Spanish-Cuban war will add an interest to this year's encampment not possessed since the Civil War period. Lake City will be the Mecca for many thousands.

Yes, the Thirteenth is not only still absent, but heaven only knows when our loved ones will be here, or who will never come at all. Apropos of the dreadful losses which have been sustained by the administration's criminal blunders, the Sioux Falls Press has gathered reports of the Dakota regiment's strength at certain recent periods, from letters received throughout the state from men of the regiment. They summarize as follows:

April 2—But 400 men able to be on the firing line.

April 26—300 at the front now, the rest killed, wounded, sick.

April 27—Only about 20 men left to a company.

April 29—Regiment now down to 400 men.

May 1—Started for Malolos with 60 men in our company, got there with but 33. Rest killed, wounded, prostrated and missing.

Same date—Our whole battalion has only 90 men fit for duty.

May 3—Chaplain's statement: "This leaves our fighting strength only about 300 men."

The regiment left Sioux Falls in May, a year ago, 1,000 strong.

And these sacrifices have been made for what? To subjugate a people demanding and fighting for political liberty, as our forefathers fought against wicked George III.

The latest report from National Chairman Jones, now abroad, is that he is fully recovering his health. Oh, he won't do a thing to Hanna next year.

Millions lay tributes of love and respect on the bier of "Silver Dick" Bland of Missouri. Congressman Bland, more than any other public man, up to the coming of W. J. Bryan, upheld and advanced silver's restoration. A member of congress almost continuously for a quarter of a century, he ever stood in protest against silver's debasement and pointed out to the people the certain ruin to follow. The nation has lost a great man and the people a fast friend.

During the past week Hennepin county Democracy has completed the preliminary steps of the organization upon which such indefatigable workers as William Banquet Baldwin have been engaged. The plan is on the lines of Ramsey county, the foundation being laid in the primary election, by precincts. Notwithstanding that the meetings occurred Monday night, in the terrific storm, they were generally held, so that complete representation will be had in the central body.

What are our Republican friends, press, party, leaders and laymen going to do with the discovery made by the supreme court that all the "special" legislation they have been passing for several sessions back, under the guise of general legislation, is really special, and thus unconstitutional. This Republican bungling will probably require a constitutional convention in the very near future.

For Hennepin it may be said that the latest is that the Republicans will attack the primary election law. The fact is that the Republicans find that the law which they passed gives them the worst of it, hence they will try to get rid of it.

Add to the above the fact that the rockribbed Republican "organ," The Tribune, is now daily denouncing McKinley's Philippine policy, and also that the Nelson Republicans are "rearing mad" at the fight on Nelson, and the G. O. P. in Hennepin may be said to be in Your Uncle Loren Fletcher's "h-ll of a fix."

The Minnesota railroads have received more than 13,500,000 acres of granted lands, state and national, the average selling price of which 10 years ago was $4.98 per acre, making the value of such grants at that time $75,000,000. They have fought the payment of taxes on the most of this to the uttermost, and finally got the Republican state senate to save them from an increase of 1 per cent in their gross earnings tax.

The premium list of the coming state fair is very greatly increased, and this and coming attractions warrant the expectation of the largest fair ever held in the state and probably in the entire Northwest. The grounds even this early are being made ready, and Secretary Randall's men have about converted the beautiful buildings into one vast "white city."

General C. Mc. C. Reeve in the St. Paul Globe, takes a fall out of warrior Wheelock of the Pioneer Press, which the latter will long remember. Wheelock should have known that General Reeve always goes loaded.

Two-thirds of the people of Toledo cast their votes for Golden Rule Jones for mayor, only to be characterized by Mark Hanna, in an interview, as "riffraff, bums, idle fellows and other Democrats." Hanna has a way of improving the "silly season" strictly original.

And Hanna said in an interview, before leaving for Europe, in defense of trusts, that Standard Oil has done the State of Ohio more good than any corporation doing business within its borders. And yet Hanna's party is going to destroy trusts next year—with the assistance of Congressman Loren Fletcher.

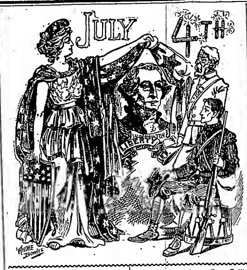
Will some one tell us where Noah is? It was up to him some days ago.

As a result of Mr. Bryan's recent visit to Kentucky, it is the understanding that the Henri Watterson wing of the Democratic party returns heartily to the fold. This means Old Kaintuck solid in the Bryan electoral column next year. Hooray!

As if anticipating the reservation pine, lumbermen jabbed lumber up a 50 cent notch. Lumber is several such notches higher than last year, and grain lower. But the farmers have no combine handspike to lift themselves with.

No recent appointment of Governor Lind's has received more favorable comment than that of Rev. Father Cleary of Minneapolis to be staff chaplain.

G. S. C.



DONALD'S SWEETHEART

Perhaps the morning never dawned on a sadder scene than on July 4th, '63, when over the blood-sodden field of Gettysburg the light began to break. Could all the history of the wounded and dead have been written never before had been such a chronicle of romance and tragedy, but it was not; only now and then a leaf, here and there, has been written and preserved, and this one by an army nurse.

My hands and skirts were dabbed in blood; my heart was faint within me. For long hours I had fasted and worked; into my ears had been poured the most tender of last messages; the most heart-breaking tales.

"You ought to rest a little," said the rough but kindly voice of an old surgeon; "only, if you can stand up a minute longer—there is a case over here I want you to see. In silence I followed him to a small church building that had been turned into an hospital. Every pew was a bed of pain; blood dripped from between the altar rails; even the aisles were partially blocked with the wrecks of humanity. It is in a scene like this that one appreciates the "other side" of war.

The surgeon led me straight to the singer's stand and pointed to a young man in shoulder straps, whose blonde curls were matted and whose beautiful blue eyes, beautiful even in their pain, roved restlessly over the walls and ceiling. He was lying flat on his back with only a prayer book for a pillow.

I saw at a glance that an arm was gone. The fingers of the other hand worked nervously.

"I can't make out whether he is in his right mind or not," the surgeon said in an undertone. "Maybe you can tell."

I kneeled and laid my hand on his brow. He seemed not to have noticed me before. Now he turned a startled, wondering gaze on me. His lips moved, but at first I could not catch the words. By and by I made out:

"I want Dollie. Please bring Dollie here." Again: "I will give all I have to the one who will bring me Dollie."

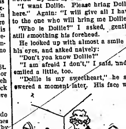
"Who is Dollie?" I asked, gently, still smoothing his forehead.

He looked up with almost a smile in his eyes, and asked naively:

"Don't you know Dollie?"

"I am afraid I don't," I said, and I smiled a little, too.

"Dollie is my sweetheart," he answered a moment later. His face was very grave now. "And, oh, how she cried when I came away! Poor Dollie!"



"I WANT DOLLIE."

A few moments I busied myself in trying to make him more comfortable; then he broke out again:

"If only I could see her just a few minutes it would be heaven on earth. Maybe she would come if she knew I am sick. I am sick, ain't I?"

"What ails me? I feel so queer and sore all over and——"

"There!" he suddenly interrupted himself—"if you look quick you will see Dollie's head up there when the light shines on that lamp. Look! Why, how natural her curls, and she smiles at me out of the corners of her eyes—a trick of hers. Dear Dollie! She's gone now. I dreamed of her last night; dreamed that her arms were about my neck and that she was kissing me and calling me her soldier boy."

"Was she willing for you to go to war?" I asked. Like the doctor, I was not sure of his mental condition.

"Yes, willing in a way. She felt that it was right for me to go, and right is law with Dollie."

I went away then, but an hour later, having bribed a good woman over the way to let me have a pillow—her last one—I returned to his side. It seemed to me that he had failed during my absence and the troubled look in his eyes was intensified.

When I had put the pillow under his head and bathed his face, he said, gratefully:

"How very kind you are! Your touch 'minds me of mother's."

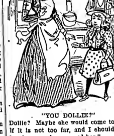
Then I knew he was watching me, but he did not speak for a long time, and when he did it was not to me:

"Father in heaven, let me see Dollie once more; please send her to me."

I could not stand either the words or the pathos in the voice. I must help answer that prayer if possible.

By and by I said:

"Could you tell me where to send for Dollie? Maybe she would come to you if it is not too far, and I should tell her how much you need her."



"YOU DOLLIE?"

It was a hazardous thing to say. We did not often dare make such suggestions, for, of course, few comparatively, could come, and it did not do to raise false hopes. However, I felt confident that he could not live many hours, and his pleadings touched me inexpressibly, even amid the scene and sights surrounding.

At the question he flashed me such a look.

"Will you?"

That was all, but oh, the intensity of it! "Write to S. B. Sterling, Sterling's Corners, Pennsylvania."

I was not in the least doubt of his sanity at the moment, but before I could trace the words in my notebook, his gaze was once more on the ceiling, and he was babbling of mother and Dollie.

Reluctantly I brought myself to search his pockets, finding, strange to say, only a notebook with the name in gilt letters on the cover: "Donald Dee."

My letter was brief, only this:

"Donald Dee is dangerously wounded and calls ceaselessly for Dollie."

It was a memorable Fourth of July, one never to be forgotten by the poor fellows suffering through the hot, interminable hours, or the busy surgeons and nurses, who never paused in their work of moistening hot lips, bathing throbbing brows, washing out gaping wounds, receiving last messages, "writing letters home;" in short, doing what they could when everything was to do.

As soon as possible we had the young captain removed to more comfortable quarters. His wounds were doing fairly well, but the surgeon said the shock had been too much for his nervous system; he might or might not live. "Everything, I should say, depends upon the nursing," he added, looking meaningly at me.

"I will do my best for him till Dollie comes," I made answer, but my heart misgave me; I did not think she would come, and if she did—well, the future was veiled, as futures are apt to be.

Day by day he wasted away. Although I prepared him fairly decent messes he scarcely ate at all; and though a real bedstead had been loaned him, with a real though somewhat dilapidated straw mattress on it, he seldom slept. Without being moody, he was not talkative. He seemed to be silently consumed by some inward longing.

"He is dying to see his sweetheart—poor boy!" was what the surgeon said, and what we all thought.

It was the evening of the fourth day after I had sent my message to Sterling Corners. Sitting by his couch, fanning him—it was intensely hot—I was startled to hear him say in a hurried whisper:

"You don't think she will get here in time?"

To give myself time to frame an answer, I feigned not to understand.

"I am afraid I will not hold out till Dollie gets here. I dreamed this afternoon that her mother was here by the bed, and she said, 'You won't have to wait much longer, Donald.' Her mother is dead, you know, and I think it means that I am soon to go."

Assuming a hopefulness that I was far from feeling I answered: "I do not so interpret your dream. I take it that you will not have long to lie here and wait before Dollie comes."

He caught hopefully at the suggestion and seemed much better all night. Early the next morning I went to see a poor boy whose end was unmistakably near and who called me "mother." I was detained some time and as my return to my headquarters necessitated my passing where Capt. Dee was quartered, I thought to serve him his breakfast and then take an hour or two of rest.

The surgeon met me, saying: "Dollie has come and is waiting out there in the kitchen. See her and then break the news to him. He is very weak this morning."

My heart beat fast; at last I would see Dollie with her arms about her lover's neck. I could imagine just the way he would look at her; he said so much with his eyes.

I paused on the threshold of the kitchen; she was not there—no one but the cook, a strange man and a little child were in the room. Dollie must have grown impatient and sought him out; the shock might kill him.

Hurriedly I turned away, but as I did so the child sprang forward and caught my hand, exclaiming vehemently:

"Dollie wants her papa!"

In my surprise I jerked my hand away and fairly staggered backwards.

"You—Dollie?"

It was all I could say.

"Of course I'm Dollie," she answered in an injured tone, adding piteously: "I want my papa, and he wants me."

The stranger, an elderly gentleman, now interposed by handing me my own letter and saying:

"I am S. B. Sterling, Donald Dee's stepfather, and this is little Dollie, his daughter."

"Certainly—yes, I see," I stammered, and I did, though as yet dimly; it was so entirely different from what I had expected.

And then I went to Capt. Dee. He seemed restless and feverish, and I gave myself time by wetting a cloth and placing it on his head.

By and by I said:

"If Dollie should come today, could you bear the joy of it?"

"I'd like to try the experiment," and a ghost of a smile flitted over his wan features. "Joy is not as apt to be fatal as either hope deferred or rebel bullets, and I know something of both of these."

Then I said:

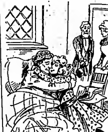
"Well, she is here."

I can no more describe the unutterable look of gladness that lighted his face than I can describe the rapture of the blest.

"Thank God—and you!"

A few moments later Dollie was covering his face and hands with kisses and he was hugging her with his one arm and calling her "sweetheart" over and over again.

For the time the grandfather and I stood apart and let them enjoy themselves, the former telling me meanwhile of the unusual affection existing between them, of how the young wife had died while Dollie was a babe and of the almost constant prayer of the child for her father's safety since he entered the army.



THEY HUGGED AND KISSED EACH OTHER.

She was a lovely child, with her father's blonde curls and fine blue eyes.

Donald Dee did not die, and a few days later he was taken home to the mother love and care awaiting him there.

I am now grandmother to Dollie's children, for you must know Donald and I celebrated our next Fourth in a far more pleasing manner than the one a year before, and Dollie has long been my sweetheart as well as his.

CUBANS ARE SORE

THEY ARE DISSATISFIED WITH GEN. BROOKE'S METHODS.

Object to Giving Politicians Government Positions While the Military Gets Nothing—This Method, They Say, Will Eventually Lead to Trouble—Pull With Secretary Alger Necessary to Receive Appointment—Disturbance Between Cuban and American Officers.

Havana, June 26.—At a meeting held yesterday at the Union club, an important organization, including some of the best people in Havana, political matters were discussed. Among those present were several appointees of Gov. Gen. Brooke, but they took no part in the discussion. One speaker, a Cuban officer, took up a great deal of the time of the meeting. He said Gen. Brooke was following a wrong course in giving politicians government positions, while military men are getting nothing. "This method," he declared, "will eventually lead to trouble. Those who defended the country deserve recognition and will tire of being ignored."

Another speaker said:

"Only those having influence with Secretary Alger, through Washington connections, are able to secure appointments, and there are some of these who were not in Cuba during the war."

A prominent Havana club was the scene of a disturbance last night between two very well known Cubans and several American officers, all of whom had been drinking. The Cubans began cursing the American administration, President McKinley, the United States troops and their officers. Finally one of the American officers, thoroughly out of patience, struck a Cuban in the face. The latter demanded a duel, but the former only laughed at him. The Cuban called for a gun and said he would shoot his assailant anyway. At this juncture a party of Americans and Cubans interfered and sent the disturbers about their business. An hour later some Cubans returned and began demanding satisfaction, but the Americans had left the club. The Cubans, who are prominent in local society, have no political importance whatever.

TWO LIVES LOST.

Yacht Club Regatta Has an Unfortunate Disaster.

New York, June 26.—Two lives were lost at the twenty-ninth annual regatta of the Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht club, held from a starting line in the lower bay over a triangular course, the base of which ran eastward along the Connecticut shore. The men were lost off C. T. Pierce's catboat Dot during a squall which came out of the northeast, forcing all the flyers to take down their sails. One of the men was a Mr. Lockwood of Englewood, N. J., friend of Mr. Pierce, and the other a sailor named Mitchell. When the squall struck Mr. Pierce ordered the sail down and Lockwood and Mitchell had it lowered about half-way when the boom, which was to port, swung over to starboard, striking both of them on the head and tumbling them into the water. T. N. Benedict's steam yacht Tide steamed to the spot and stood for three-quarters of an hour, but the men had disappeared. The Vergena then took the Dot in tow inshore, and the Tide crossed over to report the matter to the racing committee.

CARS AGAIN RUNNING.

Union Men Return to Work at Cleveland.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 26.—Only one outbreak of violence attended the resumption of traffic on all the lines of the Big Consolidated Street railway. There was objection in some parts of the city to the retention of the nonunion men who were kept by the company. A party of 250 men assembled near the Brooklyn bridge, just south of the city, and whenever a car came along with a non-union crew the passengers were asked to disembark and wait for a car manned by a union crew. In most cases the passengers did as requested. Finally a non-union conductor undertook to argue with the crowd and he was promptly struck over the head with a club and he and the motorman driven away. The crowd refused to permit the car to move until a union crew came along and pushed it to the barn.

ORDERED TO OTTAWA.

Alleged Significance of Instructions to Jamaica Delegates.

Kingston, Jam., June 26.—The secretary of state for the colonies, Joseph Chamberlain, has directed the governor of Jamaica to instruct the reciprocity delegates to proceed immediately from Washington to Ottawa for the purpose of conferring with the Dominion authorities on the whole project of Jamaica's future relations with Canada. The reason for this step is not known, but many people suppose Mr. Chamberlain doubts the practical results of the American negotiations and desires to hasten the movement of the alternative Canadian annexation.

Swept Clean by Fire.

Boston, June 26. — The four upper stories of the large six-story building on the corner of Pearl and Purchase streets was swept clean by fire, the owners and occupants, mostly small publishing concerns, sustaining a loss of nearly $50,000.

Murderers Are Located.

Chicago, June 26.—The police state that positive evidence has been secured pointing to Frank, alias Matt Smith, and "Coffee" Brauer, alias Sigmund Brock as the men who murdered and robbed Martin Meier.

Damaged By Fire.

Camden, N. J., June 26. — A fire damaged the Moro-Philipps chemical works to the extent of $100,000. Three large buildings used in the manufacture of phosphates were destroyed. Loss covered by insurance.

THEY RODE WITH ROOSEVELT.

Reunion of the Rough Riders at Las Vegas, N. M.

Las Vegas, N. M., June 26.—Roosevelt's Rough Riders' day opened auspiciously. The city is handsomely decorated. Gov. Roosevelt arrived here Saturday evening and was greeted as he stepped off the platform of the rear car with tremendous cheering from 5,000 people massed around the depot. The tall New Yorker was clad in his rough rider uniform and was easily recognized by the crowd. He was almost lifted bodily from his feet by the press of persons anxious to grasp his hand, and as his party made its way slowly to the Castaneda hotel the crowds surged after him. He seemed to appreciate the hearty enthusiasm of the people who greeted him. As he walked down the depot sidewalk a line of rough rider veterans saluted and joined in the general ovation. When Col. Roosevelt came opposite the line of rough riders he commenced shaking hands with the troopers and gave them a most cordial greeting. He remarked: "I am mighty glad to see you, boys, and to be able to be with you. I would not have missed this for anything. If the reunion had been held in Alaska I would have gone there to see you." The rough riders cheered him continually and were apparently equally pleased to see him. The party of rough riders and citizens of New Mexico met Roosevelt and party at Wagon Mound. On his way down Col. Roosevelt remarked: "Capt. Luna was the first man I spotted." As he met his old comrades in arms he ejaculated heartily: "I'm glad to see you. It does me good to shake your paw. How are you?" and similar expressions evincing his hearty sympathy.

The regimental parade took place Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The regiment formed at Camp Cochrane and marched to the tournament grounds, six blocks away. Col. Roosevelt rode as a commander, accompanied by a staff of officers. At the tournament grounds Col. Roosevelt occupied a box reserved for him and the guests of the regiment. As the rough riders passed and repassed the grand stand in performing their evolutions Gov. Roosevelt stood with bared head. The scene was witnessed by fully 10,000 people. A feature of the exercises was the presentation of a medal to Gov. Roosevelt on behalf of the citizens of New Mexico.

STAY IN THE CABINET

Alger Won't Get Out on Account of His Candidacy for the Senate.

Washington, June 26.—Secretary Alger returned to the city last night after an absence of three weeks, during which he visited New England and afterward spent some time at his home in Michigan. He says he has enjoyed his outing very much and appeared benefited by the change.

To callers at his house during the evening the secretary talked freely regarding his announced candidacy for senatorial honors and of the printed statements of the probability of his leaving the cabinet because of his alliance with Gov. Pingree, who, it has been stated, is opposed to the administration of President McKinley. He made it plain to his questioners that he did not propose to resign on this account, as he does not consider his candidacy for the senate any reason why he should not continue to hold his position as a member of the cabinet. Gov. Pingree, the secretary added, is for President McKinley first, last and all the time.

Rapid Recruiting.

Washington, June 26.—It is said by officials at the war department interested in the recruiting movement that this work is progressing with pleasing rapidity. Recruits have been secured at the rate of 1,000 a week, and there are now at the Presidio, San Francisco, about 5,000 men awaiting transportation to the Philippines. Many of these are old soldiers and the others are being rapidly drilled and broken in. The army is now practically recruited up to its maximum of 65,000 men, but it is understood the recruiting at the present rate will be kept up for some time, or at least until the department receives further advices from Gen. Otis.

Serious Disturbances.

Rome, June 26.—Disturbances have broken out in Ceccio, fifty miles south of here, in consequence of a priest having excommunicated a parishioner for a private quarrel. The man defies and ignores the excommunication and the priest has ceased holding services. The community has divided into rival factions and already several men have been killed. Troops have been sent to occupy the town.

German Objections Withdrawn.

The Hague, June 26. — Count Munster, the head of the German delegation, has received Prince Hohenlohe's instructions, and Germany will withdraw her objections to the establishment of a court of arbitration provided the obligatory provisions are expunged. The Russians themselves do not expect a majority for their disarmament proposals, which are not advanced seriously.

Business for the Concord.

Washington, June 26.—The gunboat Concord has sailed from Hongkong for Lingayen for patrol duty. Lingayen is a port on the bay of Lingayen, the northeast coast of Luzon. Here is where supplies for insurgents have been landed.

Miners Die of Thirst.

San Diego, Cal., June 26.—Word has been received here that a party of twenty miners bound for the Sierra Pintada placers, lost their way in the desert and died of thirst.

Now Looks Like Murder.

Wichita, Kan., June 26. — When the body of Miss Belle Slavin was found in the office of the National Bank of Commerce it was supposed she had committed suicide. Later developments indicate murder.

Robber Hunt Abandoned.

Caspar, Wyo., June 21. — Officers who have been following the trail of the Union Pacific robbers for three weeks have given up the chase. The trail was lost west of Thermopolis in the Big Horn basin.

Bank of St. Hilaire.

HANNAY & CO., Bankers.

Real Estate Loans.

Chattel Loans.

Foreign & Domestic Xchange

INSURANCE.

Collections a Specialty.

A General Banking Business Transacted.

St. Hilaire, Minn.

Livery and Feed Stable!

DAN PATERSON, Prop.

Dray in Connection.

The finest equipped turnouts in the northwest. ☞Safe drivers and furnished at a moments notice at reasonable rates. Don't forget the place

BIG - RED - BARN

Located on the east side of Broadway nearly opposite Rapp & Post's Store

ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Says a modest exchange: There is a little matter which some of our subscribers have seemingly forgotten—Some of them made us promises, but have not kept them. With us it is a very important matter—it's necessary in our business. We are very modest and don't like to speak about it.

GET YOUR PICTURE

TAKEN BY

D. COLLINS

THE

Photograper.

ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

Improved Farms.

K. O. GIGSTAD has a large list of Improved Farms for sale. Also agent for the best fire and cyclone insurance company. Sick and accident insurance Co., and hail insurance.

Money to loan on improved farms at low interest. All collections are promptly attended to.

NOTARY PUBLIC.

Office east of the city well.

ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.

DAY F. STACY, C. E.

DEPUTY

County Surveyor.

RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

Drainage and Farm Surveys a Specialty

"Money to patent good ideas may be secured by our aid, address, The Patent Record Baltimore, Md." 37

FIRE INSURANCE

DO

YOU

NEED

SOME?

The Best is the Cheapest.

I have nine of the best companies doing business in the State

Call for rates.

H. E. IVES.

CUSTOM WORK.

JUST LOOK AT THESE PRICES:

Roll Carding—per pound.......5 cts

Spinning Single Yarn—per pound.......15 c

Stocking Yarn—2 or 3 ply, per pound...20 c

LITCHFIELD WOOLEN MILLS.

LITCHFIELD, MINN.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS

DESIGNS

COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York

Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

The Spectator.

IVES & SOLL, Publishers.

JOHN J. SOLL, Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at St. Hilaire, Minn, as second-class mail matter.

Published every Wednesday at St. Hilaire, Red Lake County, Minn.

TERMS:—$1.50 Per Year in Advance.

Subscribers should notify the publisher on or before expiration of subscription if discontinuance is desired. Otherwise paper will be continued.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28, 1899.

The Answer Was Easy.

When King Oscar was at Paris some years ago, he was about seeing the sights incognito. Among other places he dropped in at the official exposition of Sevres porcelain. Here the product of every year was arranged chronologically and with great care. Of some kinds there were full sets, but of bleu celeste there were but three pieces, and the custodian informed the king that it was impossible to obtain more and that they were of immense value.

"What!" said the king. "Have you only these three plates of bleu celeste?"

"That is all."

"Well, then," said his majesty, "I have many more than you."

"You!" said the custodian in amazement. "Who are you?"

"The king of Sweden!"

"May I inquire, your majesty, how many pieces of this exquisite porcelain you have?"

"Hear then, Nils," said the king, turning to his first marshal, Count Rosen, who accompanied him. "How many have we?"

"Two hundred and fourteen pieces your majesty."

"Heavens!" cried the astonished custodian. "How can it be possible that you have preserved them all this time?"

"Oh, that's very easily accounted for!" said the king. "You see, in Sweden we don't have any revolutions!"—Philadelphia Post.

She Washed Her Hair.

If you observed closely a certain pretty bridesmaid at a certain wedding on a certain day last week, you may have noticed that her hair under the fetching hat had a strange look, an oddly disheveled appearance, but I don't believe you ever guessed how narrowly that bridal procession missed being one maid short. The young woman we are speaking of has uncommonly pretty hair, and in order that it might be fluffy and silky and soft for the wedding she washed it the day before. It is her custom to drop a handful of borax into the water with which she shampoos her tresses, and on this occasion she dropped in a handful of soft, white powder that proved to be not borax, but, horribile dictu—powdered alum.

If you've seen the crystal baskets your mother used to make by immersing strings in alum water, you may have some idea of how the hair looked. It was like a mass of spun glass threads, and it broke off if you looked at it. A hairdresser was sent for and vaseline and sweet oil, and goodness only knows what else were called into use. The bridesmaid's hair was finally rescued after a fashion, but it wasn't a thing of beauty at the wedding, and it will be weeks before it is what it was before the accident.—Washington Post.

Deceitful, but Brave.

He had been out late. When he reached his residence, the clock was chiming 5. Heavy, weary, disgusted, he opened the front door with some difficulty and softly toiled up the stairs, entering the bedchamber with elaborate caution.

Thank goodness, she was asleep!

He dropped into a chair, and, without taking off his coat or hat, began to remove his shoes. One he placed with great care upon the floor, but, alas, as he took off the other it slipped out of his hand and fell with a loud noise.

"Wifey" awoke on the instant.

She looked at him and then at the sunlight that streamed through the blinds.

"Why, George, what are you getting up so early for?"

Talk about reprieves!

"Why, my dear," replied George, with the clearest enunciation of which he was capable, "I found I couldn't sleep, so I thought I'd get up and go out and take a walk."

And out the poor wretch went, dragging himself round wearily for an hour upon the verge of tears and torpor.

He Returned the Compliment.

A young man and a young woman are leaning over the front gate. They are lovers. It is moonlight. He is loath to leave, as the parting is the last. He is about to go away. She is reluctant to see him depart. They swing on the gate.

"I'll never forget you," he says, "and if death should claim me, my last thought will be of you."

"I'll be true to you," she sobs. "I'll never see anybody else or love them as long as I live."

They parted. Six years later he returns. His sweetheart of former years has married. They meet at a party. She has changed greatly. Between the dances the recognition takes place.

"Let me see," she muses, with her fan beating a tattoo on her pretty hand, "was it you or your brother who was my old sweetheart?"

"Really I don't know," he says. "Probably my father."—Exchange.

"Knotty" History.

Tying knots in a handkerchief to jog one's memory had its origin in China thousands of years ago. Before writing was invented in that country, which did not happen until 3000 B. C., memorable and important events were recorded by long knotted cords. The most ancient history of China is still preserved as told by these knots.

When Emperor Tschang Ki invented writing, the entire system of "knotting" was abandoned. And today the memory knots made by us in handkerchiefs are the only surviving descendants of that ancient custom.

Taking the Cowboy's Picture.

"Now," said the border photographer, pulling his gun and leveling it across the camera at the man in the chair, "will you have the kindness to look pleasant?"

Much amused by the cheek and the cool nerve of the request thus conveyed, the bold cowboy smiled broadly, and at that instant the border photographer pressed the button.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

COUNTY BOARD MEETING.

Red Lake Falls, Minn., June 26, 1899, 2 o'clock p. m., pursuant to call dated June 6th 1899.

The Board of County Commissioners of Red Lake county, Minn., met in extra session this day.

Meeting called to order by the chairman. All members present.

Motion made by Herbert, seconded by Hansen, to open up bids for bonds. Motion carried unanimously.

Bids were then opened as follows:

Trowbridge, MacDonald & Niver Co.	$20,000.00
T. B. Potter	20,187.00
Mason Lewis & Co.	20,327.65
W. J. Hayes & Sons	20,225.00
Bank of St. Hilaire	20,500.00
N. W. Harris & Co.	20,804.40

Stoddard Nye & Co. $20,000.00 for 4½ per cent. twenty year bond.

At a special meeting of the Board of County Commissioners of Red Lake County, Minnesota, held on the 26th day of June A. D. 1899 at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day at the office of the County Auditor of said Red Lake county, at the county seat of said county. Present Commissioners Damanson, Herbert, Johnson, Hansen and Sator. Also the County Auditor of said County, the following proceedings were had:

Whereas, heretofore, to-wit on the 24th day of May A. D. 1899, the said Board of County Commissioners resolved to issue and sell to the highest and best bidder, the bonds of said county of Red Lake, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars, under and by virtue of an act of the Legislature of the State of Minnesota, entitled, "An act to enable and authorize the board of county Commissioners of the several counties of the state of Minnesota to issue bonds to fund the floating indebtedness of said counties existing on the first day of May A. D. 1899, and to levy taxes for the payment thereof." Approved April 18th 1899.

And whereas, the County Auditor of said county was directed to advertise for bids for said Bonds in the St. Hilaire Spectator a newspaper, also in the St. Paul Globe, a newspaper.

And it appearing that notice of the proposed sale of said Bonds, has been duly published by the County Auditor in pursuance of the terms of said resolution, and that certain bids for the purchase of said Bonds have been submitted. That after considering said bids, Commissioner Hebert offered the following resolution which was seconded by Commissioner Johnson.

Resolved that the bid of Hannay & Company of St. Hilaire in the sum of twenty thousand five hundred dollars for the entire issue of said funding Bonds shall be accepted, and that the following described bonds shall be issued, viz: twenty bonds of said county of the sum of one thousand dollars each, with interest coupons attached to each of said bonds. Said bonds shall respectively bear interest at the rate of four per cent per annum, and both principal and interest be payable at the office of the County Treasurer of said County of Red Lake.

Said interest coupons shall be payable on the thirtieth (30th) day of June in each year until the maturity of said bonds. The principal of said bonds to become due on the 30th, day of June A. D. 1914.

That said bonds and coupons shall bear date the 30th day of June A. D. 1899, and shall be payable to said Hannay & Company. Said bonds and interest coupons shall be signed by the Chairman of the said Board of County Commissioners, and attested by the Auditor of said County and sealed with the official seal of said County.

That upon payment to the County Treasurer of Red Lake County of the sum of twenty thousand five hundred dollars, of lawful money of the United States, by the said Hannay & Company, the said Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners and the County Auditor are hereby directed to deliver the said twenty bonds of one thousand dollars each, with the said interest coupons so attached, to the said Hannay & Company.

That the said sum of twenty thousand five hundred dollars shall be set apart in a special fund and shall be at once applied by the County Treasurer in liquidating, cancelling and paying off the floating indebtedness of said county heretofore existing on the first (1st) day of May, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Ninety-nine, and shall be used for no other purpose.

That the County Auditor shall keep a record of said bonds so issued, which record shall show the date, number and amount of each bond and the rate of interest, the time when due, the place where payable and the name of the party to whom issued.

That the County Attorney is hereby directed forthwith, to procure printed or lithographed forms for the issue of said bonds.

That there shall be annually levied, a tax upon the taxable property of said Red Lake county in addition to all other taxes levied, a sufficient tax to pay the interest accruing yearly upon the said bonds. And there shall be levied and collected from the said taxable property of said county, in addition to the other taxes so to be levied, a sufficient sum to pay the principal of said bonds when they shall fall due on the 30th day of June, 1914.

Which aforegoing resolutions were then declared carried upon the following vote:

Yeas—Commissioners Hansen, Johnson, Sator, Hebert and Damann.

No—None.

Oh, Where Has He Gone?

LOST:—About six weeks ago a black and white English setter dog answers to the name of "Shy." A suitable reward will be given at this office when said dog is returned. Any information will thankfully be received.

Yellow New York.

We know of no city in all this land, not excepting Hoboken or Jersey City, which is less national in its feelings, its ideas and its aspirations than New York. It has never yet done anything really national. There was not public spirit enough in the well to do classes of the town to even build the pedestal of the Liberty statue. The same classes waited years and went begging all over the country to raise a fund for the Grant monument—a duty which, in 1885, they claimed as their peculiar privilege. But New York is New York. There is none like it, nor shall be till our summers have deceased. It is yellow and it continually doth bark.—Washington Post.

Trying to Fix a Limit.

Mrs. Gofrequent—How old do you take Mr. Mixwell to be?

Mrs. Nexdore—From his general behavior I should estimate his age to be about 150. When a woman looks at him now, he doesn't think she's in love with him.—Chicago Tribune.

The Army and Navy.

Have covered themselves with glory during the war. The Army and Navy vest pocket memorandum book published by the Northern Pacific is a compact digest of information relative to the navies and armies of Spain and the United States at the beginning of the war. It has a map of Cuba, illustrations of naval ships, glossary of navy and army terms, translation of Spanish words, etc. Send ten cents to Chas. S. Fee, general passenger agent, N. P. R., St. Paul, Minn., for a copy.

—The SPECTATOR is the official paper of the village and county. Now is the time to subscribe. $1.00 per year if paid in advance—otherwise $1.50.

The marriage of J. F. Hetler and Miss Lizzie Zarracher will occur Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Fisher officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Hetler will be at home at Buxton, North Dakota.—Crookston Tribune.

Miss Zarracher a former teacher at St Hilaire.

Proper Care of the Finger Nails.

"Soft white hands are always one of the principal points of a refined appearance, and for that reason women of all ages have most carefully attended to their hands," writes Mrs. Humphry advising plain girls how to be pretty, in the June Ladies Home Journal. "The care of the hands cannot be said to be neglected nowadays, when so many persons employ the manicure, who scrapes the nails and makes them of a lovely pink, pushes back the skin from the little white half-moons at the base, cuts the nails in a crescent which exactly follows the outline of the half-moons, and ends by washing the hands in a preparation that makes them both smooth and white, temporarily, if not permanently. The hands look extremely well after the manicure's task has been finished, although Erasmus Wilson says that the nails should never be scraped nor cleaned with any instrument save the nailbrush. The only other implement needed is the small ivory presser."

The intrinsic value of a glass of water is no greater on the Dessert of Sahara that upon the bank of the Mississippi river, but its price might be very different. * * * Intrinsic value does not regulate price. Air possesses more intrinsic value than any other thing known, but it has no price. The intrinsic value of a bushel of wheat never changes, but its price does.—National Watchman

LIQUOR LICENSE APPLICATION.

To the Common Council of the village of St. Hilaire, in the county of Red Lake and State of Minnesota.

The undersigned, Clara Peterson hereby make application for a license to be granted to her to sell intoxicating liquors for a period of twelve months from the first day of July 1899.

The place where said business is to be carried on is designated as follows: On the ground floor of the two story building situate on lot eleven (11) of block forty (40) of the original townsite of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, said building having two outside entrances, one in front and one in rear.

Said applicant prays that such license be granted to her pursuant to the ordinance of said village of St. Hilaire and the statutes of said State of Minnesota in such case made and provided.

Dated at St. Hilaire, this 5th day of June 1899.

CLARA PETERSON.

Notice is hereby given that the village council of the village of St. Hilaire Red Lake county, Minnesota, will meet at the council chamber in the village hall on Broadway in said village on Thursday the 29th day of June 1899, at eight o'clock p. m., at which time objections to granting said license in accordance with the above application will be heard.

[SEAL] J. L. JOHNSON, Recorder.

LIQUOR LICENSE APPLICATION.

To the Common Council of the Village of St. Hilaire, in the county of Red Lake and state of Minnesota.

The undersigned, Markham Hotel Company, (J. M. Markham, manager) hereby make application for a license to be granted to him to sell intoxicating liquors for a period of twelve months from the first day of July 1899.

The place where said business is to be carried on is designated as follows: On the ground floor of the three story building situate on lot twenty (20) of block thirty nine (39) of the original townsite of St. Hilaire Red Lake county, Minnesota, said building having two outside entrances, one in front and one in rear.

Said applicant prays that such license be granted to him pursuant to the ordinance of said state of Minnesota in such case made and provided.

Dated at St. Hilaire, this 6th day of June 1899.

MARKHAM HOTEL CO.,

J. M. Markham, Manager.

Notice is hereby given that the village council of the village of St. Hilaire, Red Lake county, Minnesota, will meet at the council chamber in the village hall on Broadway in said village on Thursday the 29th day of June 1899, at eight o'clock p. m. at which time objections to granting said license in accordance with the above application will be heard.

[SEAL] J. L. JOHNSON, Recorder.

NEW YORK WORLD.

THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION.

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly.

The striking and important events of the last year have established the overwhelming value of The Thrice-a-Week World to every reader. For an almost nominal sum it has kept its subscribers informed of the progress of all our wars and, moreover, has reported them as promptly and fully as if it were a daily. With our interests still extending throughout the world, with our troops operating in the Philippines and the great Presidential campaign, too, at hand, its value is further increased.

The motto of The Thrice-a-Week World is improved. It strives each year to be better than it was the year before, and public confidence in it is shown by the fact that it now circulates more than twice as many papers every week as any other newspaper, not a daily, published in America.

We offer this unequalled newspaper and The St. Hilaire Spectator together one year for $1.65.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

First Mortgage Loans.

I am prepared, for the next 60 days, to make loans at the

LOWEST

possible rates ever made in Red Lake county. If you want to make a loan or renew an old one call on

H. E. IVES.

—Every farmer who writes a letter occasionally should get envelopes with his name and address printed in the corner. We will furnish 100 of the best quality printed in any style for the small sum of 75 cts. Send in your order

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

Default having been made in the payment of the sum of ten hundred and fifteen ($1,015.) dollars, which is claimed to be due and is due at the date of this notice upon a certain mortgage, duly executed and delivered by Alphonse Boucher and Philomine Boucher his wife mortgagors, to The Western Security Co. mortgagee, bearing date the 27th day of July 1888, and, with a power of sale therein contained, duly recorded in the office of the register of deeds in and for the county of Polk, now Red Lake county, and State of Minnesota, on the 27th day of July 1888, at 10:20 o'clock A. M., in Book 37 of mortgages, on page 144.

Which said mortgage together with the debt secured thereby, was duly assigned by said The Western Security Co., mortgagee, to Joseph F. Dearborn, by written assignment, dated the 1st day of November 1888, and recorded in the office of said register of deeds, on the 8th day of November 1888, at 1:00 o'clock P. M., in Book 40 of mortgages on page 378;

And whereas, the said assignee of mortgagee, did on the 4th day of November 1897, pay to the Treasurer of Polk county, Minnesota, the sum of $18.85 for taxes due and delinquent on said premises for the year 1896; and the further sum of $35.96 paid by said mortgagee on the 1st day of November 1897 for taxes due and delinquent on said land for the year 1892, all of which taxes are still due and payable to said assignee of said mortgagee, and no action or proceeding having been instituted, at law or otherwise, to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, viz:

The south-east quarter of section twenty-one (21) township one hundred and fifty (150) range forty-one (41) containing one hundred and sixty (160) acres, more or less according to the United States government survey, in Red Lake county, formerly Polk county, and State of Minnesota, with the hereditaments and appurtenances; which sale will be made by the sheriff of said Red Lake county, at the front door of the Court House, in the village of Red Lake Falls in said county and state, on the 12th day of August 1899, at 2:00 o'clock P. M., of that day, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt of Ten Hundred and Fifteen Dollars, and interest, and the taxes, on said premises and fifty dollars, attorney's fees, as stipulated in and by said mortgage in case of foreclosure, and the disbursements allowed by law; subject to redemption at any time within one year from the day of sale, as provided by law.

Dated June 19th A. D., 1899.

ADELE C. M. CORSISA,
Executrix of Joseph F. Dearborn, deceased,
Assignee of Mortgagee.

JOHN CROME,
Executrix of Assignee of Mortgagee.

Crookston, Minn. 48-2

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

Whereas, default has occurred in the conditions of a mortgage given by Carrie Crown and Edvard (mortgage signed "Edvard" but written in body of deed and in acknowledgment "Edward") Crown, her husband, mortgagors, to Dakota Investment Company, of Grand Forks, Dakota, mortgagee, dated May 20th A. D. 1889, which mortgage, together with the power of sale therein contained, was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in Polk county and state of Minnesota, May 24th A. D. 1889 at 8:30 o'clock, a. m., in book 43 of mortgages, on page 32 and subsequently transcribed into the records of Red Lake county and state of Minnesota in book 17 of mortgages on page 371 and assigned by said mortgagee to Elijah M. Topliff by an instrument in writing dated June 14th A. D. 1889 and filed for record in said office of the Register of Deeds for said Red Lake county, March 9th A. D. 1898 at 3:00 o'clock p. m. and recorded in book F of assignments on page 554.

And whereas the undersigned attorneys for said Elijah M. Topliff have been empowered by him to foreclose said mortgage by an instrument in writing, dated March 28th A. D. 1899 and filed for record in said office of the Register of Deeds for said Red Lake county, April 5th A. D. 1899 at 12 o'clock M. and was recorded in book A of power of attorneys on page 201

And whereas there is claimed to be due upon said mortgage at this date including taxes for the years 1889, 1890, 1892, 1893, 1894, 1895, 1896, 1897 and 1898 amounting to $138.64 the sum of four hundred, ninety-nine 04-100 dollars, and no action or proceeding having been instituted at law to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof;

Now, therefore, Notice is hereby given that said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale of the premises described in said mortgage, viz.: The south half of the north-west quarter (s½ of nw¼) of section ten (10) in township one hundred and fifty-two (152) of range forty-five (45) in said county, which sale will be made by the Sheriff of said county, at the front door of the Court House, in the city of Red Lake Falls in said county of Red Lake, August 12th A. D. 1899 at two o'clock p. m., at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt, interest and taxes on said premises, and $25.00 attorney's fees, and the disbursements allowed by law, subject to redemption as provided by law.

Dated at Minneapolis, Minn. June 10th 1899.

ELIJAH M. TOPLIFF,
Assignee of Mortgagee.

WEBSTER & TAYLOR,
Attorney's for assignee of Mortgagee.
47-52

UNCLE SAM Is not In the Shoe Business, And Neither Am I, But I can Interest You in CIGARS.

ALL THE BEST SMOKERS BUY THEM

J.B. Cigars.

ALL THE BEST DEALERS SELL THEM.

J. B. ARMSTRONG,

Manufacturer.

RED LAKE FALLS, MINNESOTA.

By special arrangement with the publishers we are enable to give FARM, STOCK AND HOME one year and the ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR for $1.25.

F.C. CORSETS

MAKE

American Beauties.

LATEST MODELS.

On Each Box.

KALAMAZOO CORSET CO.

SOLE MANUFACTURERS.

SOLD BY

St. Hilaire, Minn. E. M. HOFF.

WANTED-BRAINS

Can you think of something to patent? Protect your ideas; they may bring you wealth. Before applying for patent, get our liberal offers. Inventor's Assistant and handsome views of Washington sent Free on request. Be sure to write to-day COPP & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C.

Spring Suits.

STYLISH SPRING SUITS FOR MEN AND BOYS.

The Greatwestern own magnificent display of men's spring suits, and boys' choicest clothing is now ready, at a saving of fully 25 per cent.

Greatwestern Clothing House.

IF YOU INTEND TO

Buy Furniture

Come and look our assortment over. We carry everything in the Furniture line including picture frames and musical instruments. Prices reasonable.

Holmes Furniture Co.

BANK OF RED LAKE FALLS,

RED LAKE FALLS, MINNESOTA.

GENERAL BANKING. FOREIGN XCHANGE

Real Estate, Farm Loans and Insurance.
Abstracts of Title.
Steamship Tickets.
Interest Paid on Time Deposits.
Collections of all Kinds Given Prompt Attention.

Owner of the Abstract Books formerly owned by Sortedahl & Storaash the only set of Abstract Books in Red Lake County.

M. O. SORTEDAHL, President and Cashier.

G. P. SEVERTSON, Assistant Cashier

Uncle Sam's Monogram Whiskey

STANDS GUARD against attacks upon health. It is used in leading hospitals and recommended by doctors everywhere as a pure, worthy stimulant.

Druggists and Dealers Sell it

sold by GEO. BENZ & SONS, ST PAUL AND MINNEAPOLIS

UNCLE SAM'S MONOGRAM WHISKEY

List of Town Clerks

Names	Township	Postoffice
Olof Larson	Numedal	Viking
C. E. Purdy	North	Thief River Falls
John E. Peterson	Bray	Bray
N. K. Anderson	Sanders	St. Hilaire
F. T. Satre	Rocksbury	T. R. Falls
O. T. Romsos	Polk Centre	Wylie
P. A. Eckstrom	Black River	Wylie
A. S. Anderson	River Falls	St. Hilaire
Ole J. Johnson	Wyandotte	"
A. B. Berry	Louisville	Hunt
Hdalge Baril	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
Chas. E. Ast	Emardville	Lost
Edward Havik	Equality	Grit
Moses Decharme	Lake Pleasant	R. L. F.
Edonor Perusse	Terrebonne	Terrebonne
J. B. Herbert	Poplar River	Brooks
Louis Doucet	Lambert	Lambert
J. L. Johnson	St. Hilaire	St. Hilaire
Lars Backe	Thief River F	T. R. F.
A. P. Touple	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
H. B. Baaryson	Norden	T. R. Falls
Olof Taade	Garnes	Garnes

FARMS

LOANS

ABSTRACTS

97 Farms for sale or rent in Red Lake County.

SWANSON & GRADY,

Official Abstractors.

RED LAKE FALLS, - - MINN.

A. O. LETVIG,

Tubular Well Contractor

A Good Supply of Water Guaranteed.

Repairing a Specialty.

WYLIE. MINNESOTA.

For A Quiet Supper Have Hamm's St. Paul Beer

1ST RAT—What beer does the family use?

2D RAT—Hamm's, of course, or they would lose ME!

Theo. Hamm Brewing Co.

Tel. 972 — St. Paul, Minn.

Agents Everywhere.

UNION MEAT MARKET

P. O. MOSLETH, PROP.

Choicest line of Fresh and Salted meats in the city.

Highest market price paid for Stock, Poultry and Hides.

Say?

If your wheel needs enameling, cleaning, new tires or any other repairing give us a trial. All work done promptly and satisfactory. Prices reasonable.

R. J. BULLAN & CO.

35 RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

STEVENS RIFLES AND PISTOLS

HAVE FOR MORE THAN 35 YEARS BEEN CELEBRATED FOR THEIR EXTREME ACCURACY

We make our "Diamond" Pistol with two lengths of barrel, 6 and 10 inches. Every one guaranteed. Price, Postpaid, $5.00 with 6-inch barrel; $7.50 with 10-inch barrel.

We make a full line of rifles; Price, from $6.00 upwards. Every arm we turn out is warranted

SAFE, SOLID AND ACCURATE.

J. STEVENS ARMS & TOOL CO.,

Send Stamp for Catalogue. P. O. Box 698 CHICOPEE FALLS, MASS.

Stevens-Diamond Model Target Pistol.
STEVENS

Cigars.

BRINK BROTHERS

DEALERS IN

Wines & Liquors

Minneapolis Beer.

Corner Broadway and 3rd St. St. Hilaire, Minnesota

Be Ready For Summer. It is Here Now.

A full line of summer merchandise just arrived. We invite inspection of these goods. A splendid line of Skirts and Waists, both in ready-made and patterns at prices which are right. I shall not attempt to describe the line; only urge you most cordially to see the goods before you buy.

E. M. HOFF.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

I. O. O. F. St. Hilaire Lodge No. 147.—Meets at their hall every Thursday evening, eight o'clock. Visiting members are cordially invited to attend.
E. M. Hoff, N. G.
J. H. Johnson, Secretary.

M. W. A. CAMP 3550.—Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every second and fourth Tuesday of every month. Visiting neighbors are cordially invited to attend.
Leonard Holmes, V. C.
Jas. M. Hall, Clerk.

R. N. A.—WILD ROSE CAMP.—No. 834 Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every Friday evening. Visiting members of the order are cordially invited to attend.
Mrs. L. N. Nolan, Oracle.
Miss T. Hughes, Recorder.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Auditor	Adam Zeh
Treasurer	O. T. Tandberg
Register of Deeds	Samuel Olbeau
Sheriff	Chas. Sampson
Attorney	Van B. Brown
Judge of Probate	J. T. Knight
Clerk of Court	Joe Perrault
Supt. of Schools	Frank Jeffers
Coroner	Joe Balaire
Court Commissioner	J. C. Mathews
Surveyor	P. O. Hagglund
Commissioner 1st Dist.	J. Suter
Commissioner 2nd Dist.	W. L. C. Demann
Commissioner 3rd Dist.	O. J. Johnsen
Commissioner 4th Dist.	Karl M. Hanson
Commissioner 5th Dist.	J. B. Barbert

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

E. J. Holmes	President
J. L. Johnson	Recorder
D. Patterson	Councilmen
J. C. Dahl	Councilmen
W. A. Sörsoleil	Councilmen
I. Holmes	Treasurer

Barber Shop
—AND—
BATH ROOMS.
—o—
Haircutting, Shaving, Shampooing.
Razors honed and put in first-class order.
J. H. PENNO, Prop.
ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Henry Francis, M.D, C.M.
Member College Physicians and Surgeons, Ontario.
Thief River Falls, Minnesota.

"THE IDEAL" Lunch Room.
In the Paradis Building is noted for its Convenience.
FIRST-CLASS MEALS.
PROMPT SERVICE.
☞ OPEN UNTIL ONE O'CLOCK A. M.
A. F. LANG, Prop.

DR. BLOMBURGH.
SCANDINAVIAN
Physician & Surgeon.
☞ Calls attended day or night. ☜
Teeth Extracted.
Office and residence opposite American Hotel. ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

2nd ☛ STORE
(SECOND HAND STORE.)
Everything in this line now on hand. Special bargains given. If you have anything to dispose of give me a call. Repairing of harness also done.
C. A. SKEIE.
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA

Blacksmith!
Horse-shoeing, repairing of all kinds of Farm Implements, Machinery, etc. All work promptly attended to and done in a satisfactory manner.
J. C. DAHL.
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA

PATENTS
Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES.
OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.
Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.
A PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,
C. A. SNOW & CO.
OPP. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

Market Report.—To-Day.

Wheat No. 1	62	Oats	20
Wheat No. 2	58	Barley	24
Wheat No. 3	54	Flax	92
Eggs (per doz.)	12½	Butter (per lb)	10

LOCAL NEWS.

St. Hilaire will celebrate the Fourth of July.

Wall paper and calcimine at the New Drug store.

H. E. Ives made a business trip to the county seat Monday.

Try a lunch, a meal or a weeks board at the Ideal Lunch Room.

H. Thibedeau moved into the W. S. Morse residence last week.

Ed Skogen and Fred Fountain drove down from the upper Falls Sunday.

Thousands of men quit work in Colorado recently on account of trusts.

Patronize home industry by buying your wall paper at the New Drug store.

The ground was given another drenching by the steady rain of yesterday.

The band boys gave an open air concert at Gigstads grove Sunday afternoon.

If you want to make a loan on your farm, or renew an old one, call on H. E. Ives.

County Commissioner Johnson was in the village Monday enroute to the county seat.

Martin Hall has had it in the neck the past week—a carbuncle about the size of an egg.

Owing to the pitcher of the Red Lake Falls nine being disabled, no ball was played here last Sunday.

O. Furuseth representing the Fosston woolen mills was here last week looking after the wool trade.

Several praire schooners passed through here Monday. They were looking up land to locate on.

J. G. Brady, the flour and feed man of Wylie was here yesterday on business with the St. Hilaire Lumber Co.

Banker Hannay went to the county seat Monday and got what he went after—he purchased $20,000 worth of bonds.

Married at John Halvorson's residence, June 23rd 1899, Andrew Staberg and Naka Slyper. K. O. Gigstad, officiating.

President Shevlin of the St. Hilaire Lumber Company came up from Minneapolis yesterday to spend a day or two here.

P. Lemay the milk man, informs us that he has reduced the price of milk from four cents down to three cents per quart.

Jake Rosenberg of Minneapolis, accompanied by his daughter and son, were here Saturday visiting with Mike Rosenberg.

Reporter Hennings of the Red Lake Falls Gazette was here yesterday between trains enroute home from a trip to Crookston.

Superintendent Mereen of the St. Hilaire Lumber Company was present before the board of county commissioners Monday.

Quite a number of our townsmen are making preparations to take in the Winnipeg exposition which will be held next month.

County Commissioner Hensen of the the upper Falls was here yesterday for a short time enroute home from a meeting at the county seat.

Will Peterson has rented the Bjerk building for another year and has made several improvements including a stairway from the front.

Dr. N. Nelson, of Fertile, who has been addicted to the use morphine for several years took too large a dose last week and died from the effects.

—Dr. W. A. Moore (dentist) from Red Lake Falls will be at the Hotel Markham, July 10th, 11th and 12th. Those wishing his services please call.

The St. Hilaire Lumber Company has purchased the boat "Silver King" and shipped the same to Red Lake last Monday where she will ride the billows.

—Go to the New Drug Store for your Stationery and School supplies.

Consumption Cured.

—Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth, cures a cold in one day if taken in time. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

County roads are planked in different parts of Oregon. One county there recently purchased two saw mills for the purpose of cutting planks to build roads.

Mrs. A. F. Bell, with her youngest son and daughter, who have been visiting relatives in the state of New Hampshire for the past three months returned home Saturday.

—A. H. Weagant, the hardware merchant, is now prepared to do all kinds of bicycle repairing in a satisfactory manner. If your bicycle is out of order brings it around to us.

The shooting of fire-crackers or other explosives will be prohibited on any of the streets or alleys south of Fourth street next Tuesday, July 4th. Parents should apprise their children of the fact.

The annual grasshopper scare is on again at New Rockford, N. Dak. Prof. Waldron of the Agricultural College, Fargo, has been called to the scene but does not anticipate much trouble this year.

Billy Warner, the pitcher for the St. Hilaire team, met with a mishap Saturday evening while coming down from Thief River Falls. He was thrown out of a vehicle and the result was a sprained ankle.

Exchange: When a man worth $1,000,000 gives away $1,000 his generosity is publicly applauded. When a man worth $1,000 gives away $1 he is equally as generous, but they call him a skinflint.

Special rates have been made by the Great Northern to those wishing to take in Ringling Bros. circus at Crookston July 5th. $1.15 for round trip. Tickets sold on the 4th good to return on the 6th.

Bonil Bros. circus will show at Red Lake Falls next Saturday and Ringling Bros. at Crookston July 5th. The letter has the reputation of being the best show on earth and free from leeches and thugs.

Haying time is soon upon us! Get your grass permits on the Great Northern and the Wis., Minn. & Pacific Ry. Co. lands from M. O. Sortedahl, Red Lake Falls, Minn., agent for Red Lake county. First come, first served.

Young Americans are not jumping at the chance to go where glory awaits them at $13 per month, when they can get $26 in the pineries, and no emblamed beef. Hence, the recruiting officer's efforts, as evidenced at Fargo, are not always successful.—G. F. Plaindealer.

Just a difference of three months. Ed. Love's paper at Honey Grove, Texas, has this news item. "The song of the thresher is heard in the land, and its music is sweet to the farmer as well as others. The wheat is averaging from eighteen to twenty-five bushels per acre."

People in the country who are annoyed by flies should remember that clusters of fragrant clover, which grows abundantly by nearly every roadside, if hung in the room and left to dry and shed its faint fragrant perfume through the air, will drive away more flies than all sticky saucers of molasses and other fly-traps and fly-papers can even collect.—Ex.

Chas. Tedford, formerly of St Hilaire but now of Cass Lake, arrived last Friday to remain a few days looking after his business interests here and at Thief River Falls. Charley is still of the opinion there is no place like Cass Lake and the land will soon be thrown onto the market, which at present is Indian reservation. His valuable dog "Nig" accompanied him.

Grand Band Benefit.

At Brink's hall Thursday June 29th, 1899. Messrs. Verne Bestor, Harry Deco and Percy Eldon, assisted by the St. Hilaire Brass Band, will present a 120 minute concert, consisting of Mirth Music and Song. A social dance will follow the entertainment and remember you can hop as long as you please. The music will never cease. Admission, 10 and 15 cents. Everyone turn out and assist your own musical enterprise.

Haying time is soon upon us! Get your grass permits on the Great Northern and the Wis., Minn., & Pacific Ry. Co. lands from M. O. Sortedahl, Red Lake Falls, Minn., agent for Red Lake county. First come, first served.

—To cure a cough or cold in one day take the Imperial Cough Syrup.

"Midsommar" Day.

The loyal sons of Sweden did themselves proud at their "Midsommar" festival given at Brinks hall Saturday evening June 24th. The hall was very handsomly decorated like that of the old country custom. The walls were lined with green trees which gave the interior the resemblance of a park. On the outside a pole was erected, called the "May Pole" this was fairly covered with leaves and on the cross board were suspended two large wreaths also made of leaves and on both ends of the board was tacked flags of Sweden while on the top was that of the American flag. The "May Pole" is always visible at the midsummer festival. This day is celebrated all over Sweden and Norway and is called "Midsommar" on account of it being the longest day in the year, and they claim if the sky is clear they can see the sun at midnight, especially in the northern part of Sweden. Souvenir badges were given all entering the hall. Dancing commenced at 9:30 and continued until after two o'clock in the morning. Everybody present had a most enjoyable time.

The Best Cough Remedy on Earth.

Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, Consumption Cure, cures a cold in 24 hours if taken in time and does not stop a cough in ONE MINUTE by paralyzing the throat, but it cures the disease and leaves the throat and lungs healthy and strong. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

FOURTH OF JULY.

Will be Celebrated at St. Hilaire in a Good Old Fashioned Way.

A Programme is Being Prepared that will Please the Masses.

St. Hilaire Invites You All To Join And Help Celebrate The Day.

The committees in charge of the celebration are still at work preparing one of the best programs ever carried out and it is an assured fact that all those who attend our celebration will have an opportunity of having a big time. $500.00 has been collected which will be put up as prize money for the many different sports that will be pulled off during the day. Everything we will have will be in the amusement line and will be entirely free. Our celebration is not for the purpose of making money it is simply gotten up for the purpose of having a good time, and that is what you will have if you come to St. Hilaire Below we mention a few of the water sports that will take place at the foot of Water and Second streets.

Log rolling contest.
Boat races.
Tub races.
Diving contest.
Swimming races.
Walking the greased pole suspended over the water with a prize at end.

FIELD SPORTS.

Free-for-all running race.
Ox race.
200 yard foot race.
Boys' race.
Three legged race.
Egg race.
Wheelbarrow race.
Tug of war.
Sack race.
Bicycle race—half mile.
Base ball.

Everybody should come and see the fun, as a regular old fashioned Fourth of July celebration you will witness. Make your arrangements now to be present. Take your wife and children along with you, if you have none, take your best girl and as many others as you like, but come to St. Hilaire and celebrate Independence day.

—Dr. Thomas is an up-to-date in all the different branches in his profession. Remember the dates, July 19th and 20th.

All Going to the Circus.

Everybody is talking about Ringling Bros.' famous big circus, which is to exhibit in Crookston July 5th. Several big excursions will go from this vicinity and the popularity of the show will insure an enormous crowd. People from this locality should make an especial effort to arrive in time to see the new free street carnival which precedes the exhibition every morning at 10 o'clock. The procession is divided into thirty enormous sections each of which is a complete parade, and presents in its entirety a bewildering magnificent two-mile carnival of pageantry such as the world has never seen. In this gorgeous display are shown over 100 beautiful dens and cages of wild animals. 500 horses, 25 elephants and nearly a thousand people, and the costumes throughout are of the finest silks, satins, velvet and cloth of gold. The performance that follows is the most magnificent arenic display ever presented by any circus in America.

Equalization Board.

The board of equalization met on Monday the 26th day of June 1899 at the village hall pursuant to notice of K. O. Gigstad the village assessor.

All members present except Sorsoliel.

Meeting called to order by President Holmes.

On motion J. M. Markham was raised $100 on sample room fixtures and stock.

On motion the St. Hilaire Lumber Co. was raised $2000 on lumber, lath and shingles.

On motion M. McAndress was assessed $60 for piano.

There being no further business meeting adjourned.

Attest:— E. J. HOLMES
J. L. JOHNSON, President.
Recorder.

Take Care of The Binder.

A writer in the Dakota Farmer gives the following timely advice in regard to getting binders in condition in season:

"There are many farmers in harvest time who start their binders and the machines work for a while, but soon everything goes wrong and the machine refuses to work. The farmer in such a fix starts to town and brings out the agent, who, when he has looked the binder over and can find nothing, tells the farmer it is worn out. Then the farmer goes to town, buys a new machine and gives his note in payment—when he might have used his old machine still. Every farmer should take his binder apart from one to two weeks before harvest time, inspect every wear where is a box worn or put in a new one and see that all bolts are in place and tightened. When the machine has been put up, take a square and square the machine up, using the rod that runs over the bull wheel between the elevator boards. No matter how old the machine may be, by having all worn out parts replaced and the machine squared you save money, and time. One of my neighbors had a machine that would not work, and was about to buy a new one when I went over and squared it up. I found it two inches and a half out of true. He hitched his horses up and the machine worked nicely. He saved $130, and in the fall gave me $2 for my trouble. By knowing just what is wrong you will save money every time."

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

Fly Time.

With the approach of warm weather one of the annoyance of the dairy heard is the swarms of flies that attack them under the conditions in which too many dairy herds are kept. The pest of flies, together with the heat during summer form an obstacle to successful dairying little if any less severe than the cold weather in winter, and protection against it is quite important. In the older sections of the country where stabling, at least during the day, is practiced, the stable that is darkened and yet ventilated affords the required protection, but in the West cows kept on most farms are not handled in this way, but are on pasture continuously. Shelter, both from the sun and flies, should, however, be provided so far as possible. The best method of doing this, perhaps, is to have a pasture, when the situation will admit of it, in which there is a high knoll. If there are trees on the knoll that will afford shade and the spot is without underbrush to prevent it from being swept by the summer breezes, it will be found that the cows will prefer it as a resting place to any other part of the pasture as soon as they have made their morning meal on the grass and have reached the point where they wish to go and lie down quietly and chew the cud. If there are no trees, it is a wise plan to build upon such a knoll an open shed that will shade the cows without interfering with the passing winds. Where cows have the option to pass their time upon a knoll or on low ground on which there is a thicket, they will choose the former even if they have no shade at all, because they escape the flies there, while the thicket, although furnishing shade attracts these pests. This fact, which is a matter of common observation, indicates how severely cows feel the annoyance of flies, and furnishes a measure of the importance of providing a resting place for the herd where the winds will sweep the swarms away.

—For cuts and sores there is nothing better than the Imperial Carbolic salve.

School District Notice.

Whereas, a petition duly signed and the signature thereto duly acknowledged, has been duly presented to the Board of County Commissioners of Red Lake county, Minnesota, at a session of said board held on the 22nd day of May A. D. 1899 asking for the formation of a new school district to be composed of the following described territory, to-wit: Section No. 18 and 19 north ½ of section 30 in township No. 153 of range 44 also sections No. 1, 2, 11 12 and 13 East ½ of section 14 and east ½ of section No. 24 township No. 153 of Range 45.

Now, therefore notice is hereby given that a hearing of parties interested in the matter of said petition will be granted at the next session of said board, commencing on the 10th day of July A. D. 1899 at the office of the county auditor in Red Lake Falls in said county.

By order of the Board of county commissioners. ADAM ZEH,
[SEAL] Clerk of Board.

To cure a cough in one day take the Imperial cough syrup. Guaranteed to cure. For sale at the new Drug Store.

School District Notice.

Whereas, a petition duly signed and the signatures thereto duly acknowledged, has been duly presented to the Board of county commissioners of Red Lake county, Minnesota at a session of said board held on the 23rd day of May A. D. 1899 asking for the formation of a new school district to be composed of the following described territory, to-wit: All of sections 21, 20, 19, Town 152 of range 45 all of sections 28, 29, 30, 31, 32 and all of 33 except the east ½ of se¼ twp. 152 of Range 45 w also the north ½ of sections 4, 5 and 6 township 151 of range 45 w.

Now, therefore notice is hereby given that a hearing of parties interested in the matter of said petition will be granted at the next session of said Board, commencing on the 10th day of July A. D. 1899, at the office of the County Auditor in Red Lake Falls in said county.

By order of the Board of County Commissioners ADAM ZEH,
[SEAL] Clerk of Board.

—If you are troubled with rheumatism take the Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure. It will positively cure all diseases arising from impure blood, and is sold under an absolute guarantee to benefit or money refunded. Call for free sample at the New Drug Store.

Dentist.

—Dr. J. H. Thomas, the Crookston dentist will be at Hotel Markham, St. Hilaire, July 19th and 20th prepared to do all kinds of up to date dental work in all branches. All work warranted. Remember the dates 19th and 20th.

Watches Clocks and Jewelery.

I will carry a full line of watches, clocks and jewlery hereafter at Johnson's drug store. Anything you want that we do not carry in stock we will order for you at ten per cent above the wholesale prices and by doing this you will save money by dealing at home. Watches left for repairs will be sent down on first train and returned the next day. I shall continue to be at Johnson's drug store the 10th 11th and 12th of each month. Eyes examined free.

PROF. J. Q. ADAMS.
Red Lake Falls.

WANTED.

Teachers to attend the Crookston College Summer School. It is cheap thorough and practical. Term opens June 12th and continues 8 weeks. Address, Crookston College, Crookston, Minnesota.

—It is better than ready money because it cures rheumatism, constipation sick headache, indigestion. Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure.

We Handle Everything.

Start the Day Right

And everything will go smoothly. The proper way to start the day is by coming around to our store and ordering a supply of groceries for the day, such things as you may need. It will take you but a few minutes, and we feel sure you will not regret it.

Our Groceries

Are always fresh, and then the prices are as near right as we know how to make them. If you have not been in the habit of trading with us, drop in and see us anyway; you might get into the habit.

Hardware

We carry everything in the hardware line from cooking stoves down to tacks—all you have to do is to ask for what you want. If you want anything in the tin or copper line done drop into our tin shop and your wants will be attended to.

Yours very truly,

RAPP & POST
St. Hilaire, Minnesota.

M. A. HALL
DEALER IN DRY GOODS,
GROCERIES,
NOTIONS,
GENTS FURNISHING GOODS,
TOBACCO,
CIGARS,
CONFECTIONERY

A. H. WEAGANT
Having bought the business of Fred Eikhoff, I am now prepared to sell you anything in line of
HARDWARE AND TINWARE
CUTLERY, PAINTS & OILS,
Everything at Rock Bottom Prices. Come and see for yourself. Opposite Hotel Markham

LEONARD HOLMES,
—DEALER IN—
Agricultural Implements
WHEAT, FLAX OATS AND BARLEY.
Flour and Feed always on Hand.

Lumber! Lumber!
OF ALL KINDS.
We have a large and well assorted stock of Dry Lumber and are prepared to fill all orders on short notice. We also carry a complete assortment
—OF—
Sash, Doors, Paper
AND ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL
Which we buy in large quantities and are thereby enabled to sell at lowest market prices.
ST. HILAIRE LUMBER CO.

NEW MEAT MARKET.
L. M. ROLAND, Proprietor.
Fresh and Salted Meats.
Highest Market Price Paid for Hides.

L. K. KOLSTAD
DEALER IN
Boots and Shoes!
Repairing a Specialty.
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.

How He Manages Her.

"How is it that your wife is so tractable?"

"Why, I told her when we were married that she could do just exactly as she pleased, and, of course, she finds no pleasure in doing it."—Chicago Post.

Confession of a Millionaire.

A millionaire confessed the secret of his success in two words—hard work. He put in the best part of his life gaining dollars and losing health, and now he was putting in the other half spending dollars to get it back. Nothing equals Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for restoring health. It cures dyspepsia and indigestion.

Where He Learned How.

Yeast—That man Gallup is a fine judge of horseflesh.

Crimsonbeak—Been to Paris, has he?—Yonkers Statesman.

"Durability is Better Than Show."

The wealth of the multi-millionaires is not equal to good health. Riches without health are a curse, and yet the rich, the middle classes and the poor alike have, in Hood's Sarsaparilla, a valuable assistant in getting and maintaining perfect health.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

Didn't Want His Life Prolonged.

"I will marry you on one condition, Mr. Gotrox."

"Name it," joyfully exclaimed the rich but aged suitor.

"Promise me," slowly replied the designing young woman, "that you won't go to Chicago and undergo this new-fangled lymphatic treatment."—Ohio State Journal.

Needless Anxiety.

Mother—It's very foolish of you to become engaged to a man of whom you know so little. Remember that your whole life's happiness depends on him.

Daughter—Why, mamma, you talk as if I was going to marry the man.—New York Journal.

The Flag Follows Trade.

Uncle Sam may now boast that "the sun never sets on American flag," but the Stars and Stripes have but followed the achievements of the American inventor and mechanic. Years ago American harvesting machinery led the way and created a demand for itself in lands where "Old Glory" was never seen outside of books. Deering Harvesting Machines, made in Chicago, are sold today by the ship-load from New Zealand to Norway and from South Africa to Siberia, and in every land where grass and grain are harvested. The name of "Deering" is a household word the world over.

A Special Duty.

Inspector—I notice that in this photograph you are bald.

Home-Coming American—Yes my hair grew out while I was absent.

"Then I shall have to charge you the special duty on European-grown hair."—Life.

Where He Erred.

"Funston," said Caesar, "has shown me where I made a great mistake."

"Where was it?" asked Alexander.

"I should have swam the Rubicon," replied the shade of Julius.—Philadelphia North American.

Read the Advertisements.

You will enjoy this publication much better if you will get into the habit of reading the advertisements; they will afford a most amusing study, and will put you in the way of getting some excellent bargains. Our advertisers are reliable, they send what they advertise.

That Dull, Awful Pain!

It's a sick headache. Cure it? Avoid it? Cascarets Candy Cathartic give quick relief and prevent headaches if taken in time. All druggists, 10c, 25c, 50c.

Circumstantial Evidence.

Husband (after the performance)—I didn't enjoy the show very much; I forgot my glasses.

Wife—Perhaps you did, my dear, but your breath doesn't indicate it.—Chicago News.

Like Most of Us.

Watts—What would you do if you had your life to live over?

Potts—I wouldn't do it, that's all.—Indianapolis Journal.

Hall's Catarrh Cure
Is taken internally. Price, 75c.

Hateful Thing.

Jiggers—There goes a man that I always envy.

Jaggers—Why?

Jiggers—He proposed to my wife once, and she rejected him.—Somerville Journal.

Outside View.

"I should think you would always be glad when it rains in Chicago."

"Why?"

"It wets your Chicago river, you know."—Chicago Tribune.

Piso's Cure for Consumption is the only cough medicine used in my house.—D. C. Albright, Mifflinburg, Pa., Dec. 11, '95.

Domestic Mathematics.

Teddy (who has just begun to go to school)—Papa, do you know what six boys and five girls make?

"Yes," answered the father, "a racket."—Harper's Bazar.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

Miserly traits seldom run to the keeping of promises.

FREE.

Kindly inform your readers that for the next 30 days we will send a sample box of our wonderful 5 DROPS Salve free, which never fails to cure Piles, Eczema and all skin diseases, also old running sores. It is a specific for Piles, and the only one in existence which gives instant relief and cures within a few days. Its effect is wonderful when applied to Burns, Scalds, Sunburn, Boils, Abscesses, Scrofulous Affections, Scalp Humors, Chafing Parts and Raw Surfaces. Prepaid by mail 25 and 50c per box. Write today for a free sample of 5 DROPS Salve to the Swanson Rheumatic Cure Co., 160-164 E. Lake St., Chicago, Ill.

5 DROPS

N W N U —No. 20.— 1899.

25 CTS PISO'S CURE FOR 25 CTS
CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS.
Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists.
CONSUMPTION

COLONIAL POSSESSIONS

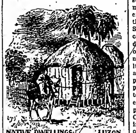
Their Varied Resources and Rich Possibilities Fully Demonstrated.

THE EXPOSITION OF AN EMPIRE

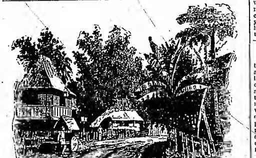
What Is to Be Shown at the Greater America Exposition From the Rich Country Acquired by Our Government in the War With Spain—A Display that Will Command the Admiration of Hundreds of Thousands.

In days gone by the road from empire to republic has been long and marked by desperate struggles. In our own time we have seen a republic become an empire almost in a day; a free republic annexed, a kingdom wrested from an old world tyrant and added to the possessions of a younger nation. The thunder of Dewey's guns announced the opening of a new and stronger chapter in American history, a chapter of grand achievements and mighty potent. The destinies of a people may be at stake, the fate of a nation may hang in the balance as the result of the stirring events crowded into the brief space of a single year. It has been said that "the dreams which nations dream come true," and those who would give form and force to such dreams must needs understand not only the possibilities of success, but the dangers of failure.

When the war with Spain began a great exposition was well under way, an exposition international in its scope. Its promoters realized that war was likely to be detrimental to such an enterprise and yet their work was steadily pushed forward to a successful conclusion and the world saw a nation strong and vigorous enough to wage a mighty war with an old world power and at the same time hold a grand exposition, typifying its great resources, its marvelous progress and its infinite possibilities. That same spirit of indomitable energy has made it possible to organize another grand exposition which shall exploit the possessions so recently acquired.

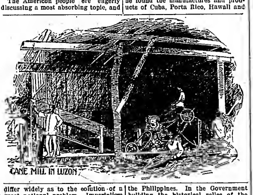


NATIVE DWELLINGS—LUZON.



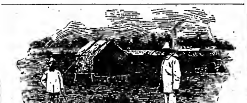
NATIVE HOUSE IN PHILLIPINES

The American people are eagerly discussing a most absorbing topic, and differ widely as to the solution of a great national problem. Imperialism and expansion find earnest advocates and bitter opponents, and the future of the young nation depends largely upon a proper solution of this question. To meet a widespread demand for information, to bring special knowledge on a special subject to the American people, to illustrate and exploit the characteristics of the peoples who have recently found shelter beneath our flag, to show without prejudice or favor their capabilities and possibilities, to bring together in one vast collection the material evidences of their resources and to display their varied modes of life, their commerce and their art, is the mission of the first Greater America Colonial Exposition, which opens its gates at Omaha on July 1st. That it was possible to do this in so short a time was due to the fact that the beautiful grounds and magnificent buildings of the Trans-Mississippi Exposition were still intact and were secured for the new enterprise. The task of collecting representative people and exhibits from Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippine Islands was made comparatively easy by government assistance and the results so far attained have surpassed even the expectations of the enthusiasts who inaugurated the great enterprise. The ordinary work of years has been compressed into a few short months. The officers of the army and other representatives of the government in the several islands have spared no efforts to assist in the collection of exhibits which would exhaustively illustrate each salient feature of each of our new possessions, and whole families of natives, representing almost every racial characteristic of the inhabitants of these sea-washed lands, have been induced to travel to the land of Stars and Stripes, there to build their homes and villages for a brief time and to faithfully reproduce their daily life and customs.



CANE MILL IN LUZON

In the colonial exhibits building will be found the manufactures and products of Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippines. In the Government building the historical relics of the late war with Spain and the present war in the Philippines will prove of interest to all. In the Horticultural building, or Winter Garden, may be seen the trees, plants, fruits and flowers of tropic and sub-tropic lands, a splendid collection, the like of which has never been surpassed at any exposition, and which presents a rich field of study to the lover of nature. Many of these rare plants and flowers are used in decorating the grounds.

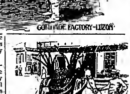


GONIMADE FACTORY—LUZON

Cuba and Porto Rico will likewise be fully represented, and the life, habits and manners of the people faithfully portrayed.

The Giant See-Saw and the Shoot-the-Chutes will be features of the Greater America Exposition Midway at Omaha this summer, with novel improvements over the same features of last year.

There will be a Chinese Village on the Midway at the Greater America Exposition. It will be the best representation of the routine life of the Celestial Kingdom ever made at an exposition, and will show especially the amusements of the race.

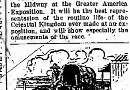


PORTO RICAN FRUIT PEDDLER

The City of Omaha will extend a cordial welcome to all who come, assuring her visitors that their pleasure, comfort and safety shall be her first consideration.

Over 75,000 square feet of space has been taken for exhibits in the machinery and electricity and manufactures building at the Greater America Exposition this summer.

J. B. Morris of Illinois has secured a concession for a Parisian Art Studio at the Greater America Exposition at Omaha, that promises to attract a great deal of attention from straight-laced art critics who insist that art, which is a picture of nature, shall have its definite and inviolable limitations.



PHILLIPINE CART

The Chinese believe that women who wear short hair will be transformed into men in a future world.

IMPORTANT LAW POINT.

Has Just Been Established for California Fig Syrup Co.

An important decision has just been rendered in San Francisco in the United States Circuit Court, in the case of the "California Fig Syrup Company vs. Clinton E. Worden & Co., et al." The principal defendant is a large non-secret manufacturing concern. A permanent injunction has been granted enjoining the defendants from using the name—Syrup of Figs, or Fig Syrup—and ordering them to pay the costs and account for damages. The decision is of the greatest value, not only to manufacturers of proprietary articles, but to the public generally, as it affirms that the valuable reputation acquired by an article of merit, will be protected by the Courts, and that the party who builds the reputation by extensive and legitimate advertising, is entitled to the full fruits of his enterprise. This confirms the title of the California Fig Syrup Co. to this genuine and most valuable remedy, "Syrup of Figs."

An Unexpected Courtesy.

"I was returning home with a small travelling bag in my hands," says the woman, "and as it chanced to be just the rush hours and the cars crowded, of course I did not have a seat. But I was standing beside a gentlemanly young man who had a seat, and who, I soon saw, was also in possession of a kind heart.

"Can't I hold your bag for you?" he asked, politely, raising his hat.

"I own I was a little surprised at first, but street car etiquette is developing in so many directions that one must be prepared for anything. For a moment I hardly knew what to say, and then, as it occurred to me that this was probably the very latest development, and it would not be well to check anyone's curiosity, I thanked the young man, handed him my bag, which he held and sat until I reached my destination, while I stood in front of him."—New York Times.

Locomotive Runs.

During the past few months, the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road has materially extended the runs of the passenger locomotives on through trains. Formerly, engines were changed on an average of 100 or 150 miles. It was thought that the mountain grades of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road would prevent an extension of the runs. However, the experiment was made. It has proved successful and reduced the number of locomotives formerly required by 24, which can be used in other branches of the service, and save the purchase of more motive power.

A Mangled Quotation.

"Isn't McCorkle awfully thin since his return?"

"Yes. Do you know what they call his valet at the club?"

"No."

"They call him the valet of the shadow."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Short-sighted Parents.

He (reading an item in newspaper)—It is estimated that in a few thousand years the human race will have become entirely destitute of teeth.

She—And yet you want Tommy to be a dentist.—Chicago Tribune.

Anti-Trust Sentiment.

"The anti-trust movement is spreading to all parts of the country."

"Yes," sadly replied Slimpurse, "my tailor has caught the fever."—Columbus State Journal.

Good Reason.

"I wonder why a busy man like Jenks should want to go to the legislature."

"I don't know—unless he needs the money."—Puck.

Not Really Fighting.

"Have you been fighting, Willie?" she asked.

"No," he replied, ruefully. "I only thought I was."—Chicago Evening Post.

A Sugar Scoop.

The Editor—What does that sugar story of yours amount to?

Springville (always on the spot)—It's a scoop.—Philadelphia North American.

He overcomes a stout enemy who overcomes his own anger.—Chilo.

FIFTY YEARS OLD

Why let your neighbors know it?

And why give them a chance to guess you are even five or ten years more?

Better give them good reasons for guessing the other way. It is very easy; for nothing tells of age so quickly as gray hair.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

is a youth-renewer.

It hides the age under a luxuriant growth of hair the color of youth.

It never fails to restore color to gray hair. It will stop the hair from coming out also.

It feeds the hair bulbs. Thin hair becomes thick hair, and short hair becomes long hair.

It cleanses the scalp; removes all dandruff, and prevents its formation.

We have a book on the Hair which we will gladly send you.

If you do not obtain all the benefits you expected from the use of the Vigor, write the doctor about it. Probably there is some difficulty with your general system which may be easily removed. Address, Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass.

A QUEER LETTER.

It Was Written on Thin Slabs of White Stone.

"The queerest letter I ever saw in my life," said Washington newspaper men to a New Orleans Times-Democrat reporter, "was shown me at the home of an army officer who is now on duty in the war department. It is written on a couple of thin slabs of grayish-white stone, each about six inches long and two inches broad, and its story is rather romantic. When Gen. Crook was chasing the Apache chief, Geronimo, across southern Arizona in 1885, the officer to whom I refer commanded a company of infantry, and while the main command pushed west, along the Gila river, he took a couple of troopers and struck out southward on a reconnoiter. They had been gone about two weeks, suffering all manner of hardships and living exactly like the Indians themselves, when the captain decided to send one of his men back with a verbal report. He was anxious to embrace the opportunity to also dispatch a letter to his sweetheart, who was then a young belle in Washington society, but there was not a scrap of paper of any kind in the party, nor as much as a morsel of pencil. Knowing she was eagerly waiting news from the front he racked his brain and finally noticed some smooth fragments of limestone that had chipped off from a nearby ledge. That solved the problem. He selected two flat pieces, drew a pistol cartridge from his belt and scrawled his letter with the point of the bullet. Laying the stones face to face, so that the writing would not be rubbed off by abrasion, he tied them firmly together with strips of a handkerchief and inscribed the address on the outside. Nothing remained but to affix the stamps, which the trooper promised to do as soon as he struck camp. He put the parcel in his blouse, got through in safety, and mailed it at Maricopa. It required eighteen cents postage, and the date mark is quite legible. I need hardly say that the lady prizes this strange epistle above all the souvenirs which now fill her beautiful Washington home."

AN ICEBERG STRANDS.

It is not unusual at the proper season of the year for vessels to sight icebergs while making the transatlantic passage, especially if the vessels happen to be taking a northerly course, but it is seldom that an iceberg grounds, so that it can be seen by those on shore, says the Scientific American. This was recently the case at St. John's, N. F., where an enormous iceberg, 150 feet high and nearly a quarter of a mile long, grounded off the south side entrance to the harbor, where it was, of course, seen by many thousands of spectators.

Most icebergs are produced from glaciers which move down from elevated heights in the interior of some land in the arctic regions. The glaciers move slowly onward into the deep waters of the sea, and from time to time fragments break off from the advance border and float away, forming icebergs. Occasionally whole masses of ice break off at once, really forming floating islands. Ice islands are also made by the breaking up of the great fields of ice of the arctic region. In the Atlantic ocean most of the icebergs come from Greenland and Iceland, the greatest number being produced on the west side of Greenland. From Labrador the ice is floated with the current past Newfoundland, and keeping near the great bank the warming influence of the gulf stream causes it to disappear. Usually the limit of travel of icebergs is 40 degrees north latitude, but in the South Atlantic ocean they have been found as near as 37 degrees south latitude.

Nothing is more imposing than the sight of one of these immense icebergs, which might send the finest ocean steamship to the bottom in a few moments. The iceberg is apt to be an intense bluish white; they are real floating mountains of ice. The sun melts them unevenly, causing rugged and picturesque peaks to jut into the air, and in northern latitudes, where whole fields of icebergs are seen, they look like fairy castles. Dr. Kane in his first cruise counted 280 icebergs in sight at one time and most of these were 250 feet high. It is, of course, a well-known fact that about one-eighth or one-ninth of the berg projects above water. As might be imagined, the iceberg, containing, as it does, at its base many pieces of rock carried down by the glacier from some northern country, scores the bottom of the sea, acting really like a gigantic file.

Good Reason.

Storekeepers at times resort to ingenious methods to attract trade. The following is said to be an exact copy of a placard displayed in front of a store in a southern town: "Step inside and get the greatest bargains you'll ever get again." Here is an announcement posted by a Russian shopkeeper in front of his place of business: "The reason why I have hitherto been able to sell my goods so much cheaper than anybody else is that I am a bachelor, and do not need to make a profit for the maintenance of wife and children. It is now my duty to inform the public that this advantage will shortly be withdrawn from them, as I am about to be married. They will, therefore, do well to make their purchases at once at the old rate."

An Opinion.

"A trust," remarked the very prosperous-looking man, "is a public blessing." "Maybe it is," answered the unassuming friend, "but I can't help thinking it is one of the kind that would brighten as it took its flight."—Washington Star.

His Experience.

Miss Waffles—"What's the longest time you ever got along without food?" The Professor—"I once lived three days on my wife's cooking."—Leslie's Weekly.

No Sign of Progression.

"Here is a paragraph which will interest you, my dear," said Mr Darley to his wife.

"A progressive woman in St. Louis uses the telephone in making social calls."

"That's not progressiveness," said Mrs. Darley.

"No?"

"No; she simply has no new clothes to wear."—New York World.

PATENTS.

List of Patents Issued Last Week to Northwestern Inventors.

Paul W. Amlie, Cooperstown, N. D., hopple; Charles E. Bird, Minneapolis, Minn., grain separator; Clarence W. Carter, Howard Lake, Minn., painting apparatus; Johnston Mealey, Howard Lake, Minn., check rein hook or fastener; James H. Nagle, Minneapolis, Minn., dust or waterproof casing for fields of electric motor; Allen W. Powell, Lead City, S. D., miners' candlestick; Edwin C. Washburn, Minneapolis, Minn., oil box and draft rigging; George W. Youmans, Rochester, Minn., pump piston.

Merwin, Lothrop & Johnson, Patent Attorneys, 910 Pioneer Press Bldg., St. Paul.

Slighted.

Lizzie—I'm as mad as I can be with Tom.

Bessie—Why, what has Tom been doing now?

Lizzie—It's what he has not been doing. He has never told me I am the only girl he ever loved, and he has told all the other girls so. I don't care particularly for Tom, but one doesn't like to be discriminated against, you know.—Boston Transcript.

To Catch the Public.

First Capitalist—I understand you are forming a trust for the manufacture of a new bicycle?

Second Capitalist—Yes; that's so.

First Capitalist—What are you going to call the wheel?

Second Capitalist—You won't tell?

First Capitalist—Certainly not.

Second Capitalist—We'll call it the "Anti-Trust."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

To Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 41,207]

"DEAR FRIEND—A year ago I was a great sufferer from female weakness. My head ached all the time and I would get so dizzy and have that all gone feeling in the stomach and was so nervous and restless that I did not know what to do with myself.

"My food did me no good and I had a bad case of whites. I wrote to you and after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as directed, I can truly say that I feel like a new woman and cannot tell you how grateful I am to you.

"I have recommended it to all my friends and have given it to my daughter who is now getting along splendidly. May you live many years to help our suffering sisters."—MRS. C. CARPENTER, 253 GRAND ST., BROOKLYN, N. Y.

Over eighty thousand such letters as this were received by Mrs. Pinkham during 1897. Surely this is strong proof of her ability to help suffering women.

A Georgia Bill of Fare.

A Southwest Georgia negro was discovered in the act of chopping a monster alligator into steaks.

"You don't intend to eat him, do you?" he was asked.

"Dat's what I aim ter do wid 'im," was the reply.

"Pretty tough, isn't it?"

"Yes, suh, he's tough, ez you say, but w'en you salts en peppers 'im, en suns 'im, he's fillin,' suh, he's fillin'."—Atlanta Constitution.

On the Steamboat.

Muddle—By Jove! just look at that hat skimming into the water!

Tangle—By the way, where is your hat? Did you leave it in the cabin?

Muddle—No; I distinctly remember having it on when I came on deck. Great Scott! Come to think of it, that must be my hat!—Boston Transcript.

Not Much of the Angel, After All.

Prison Chaplain—Ah! you have a pet, I see.

Convict—Yes, this rat. I feeds him every day. I think more of that 'ere rat than any other livin' creature.

Prison Chaplain—Ah! in every man there is something of the angel left, if one can only find it. How came you to take such a fancy to that rat?

Convict—He bit th' warder.—Tit-Bits.

So They Are.

"This magazine article," said Mrs. Northside, "says that the kangaroos of Australia are being rapidly exterminated."

"So those animals are on their last legs literally, as well as figuratively?" added Mr. Northside.—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

GREAT TAMMANY LEADER.

(The Catarrh of Summer.)

New York, Oct. 11, 1898.

Pe-ru-na Drug M'f'g Co., Columbus, O.:

Gentlemen—Pe-ru-na is good for catarrh. I have tried it and know it. It relieved me immensely on my trip to Congressman Amos J. Cummings.

Cuba, and I always have a bottle in reserve. Since my return I have not suffered from catarrh, but if I do I shall use Pe-ru-na again. Meantime you might send me another bottle.

Yours, Amos J. Cummings, M. C.

Summer catarrh assumes various forms. It produces dyspepsia and bowel complaint. It causes biliousness and diseases of the liver. It deranges the kidneys and bladder. Summer catarrh may derange the whole nervous system, when it is known to the medical profession as systemic catarrh. Pe-ru-na is a specific for all these forms of catarrh. Pe-ru-na never disappoints. Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, for a free book on summer catarrh.

Insulting.

"I never was so insulted in my life!" she exclaimed.

"What did he do?" asked her dearest friend.

"We were all alone, and he threatened to kiss me."

"Well?"

"Well, we were all alone, and he didn't do it."

"Oh-h-h!"—Chicago Post.

Happily Averted.

Chappie—Averted tewibble twagedy just now.

Chollie—No! How?

Chappie—Man said he would pound me to mincemeat if I did not give him half a crown, and I gave him half a crown.—Tit-Bits.

Supreme Court Sustains the Foot-Ease Trade Mark.

Justice Laughlin in Supreme Court, Buffalo, has ordered a permanent injunction, with costs, and a full accounting of sales, to issue against Paul B. Hudson, the manufacturer of the foot powder called "Dr. Clark's Foot Powder," and also against a retail dealer of Brooklyn, restraining them from making or selling the Dr. Clark's Foot Powder, which is declared, in the decision of the Court, an imitation and infringement of "Foot-Ease," the powder to shake into your shoes for tired, aching feet, now so largely advertised and sold all over the country. Allen S. Olmsted, of Le Roy, N. Y., is the owner of the trade mark "Foot-Ease," and he is the first individual who ever advertised a foot powder extensively over the country. He will send a sample Free to anyone who writes him for it. The decision in this case upholds his trade mark and renders all parties liable who fraudulently attempt to profit by the extensive "Foot-Ease" advertising in placing upon the market a spurious and similar appearing preparation, labeled and put up in envelopes and boxes like Foot-Ease. Similar suits will be brought against others who are now infringing on the Foot-Ease trade mark and common law rights.

Luxury.

"Mike," said Plodding Pete, "dere's only one time when I envies de rich."

"I'm ashamed of yer weakness."

"I don't blame you. But when I read about dese swells comin' all de way from Europe as saloon passengers, I can't help feelin' a pang o' jealousy."—Washington Star.

It's always tough on the tight-rope walker when he steps from the straight and narrow path.

It is never too hot in summer or too cold in winter for the ice man.

160 ACRE FARMS IN WESTERN CANADA FREE

WHEAT
WHEAT
WHEAT

"Nothing but wheat; what you might call a sea of wheat," is what was said by a lecturer speaking of Western Canada. For particulars as to routes, railway fares, etc., apply to Superintendent of Immigration, Department Interior, Ottawa, Canada, or to Ben Davies, 171 East Third St., St. Paul, or T. O. Currie, Stevens Point, Wis.

Did you ever run across an old letter? Ink all faded out. Couldn't have been

CARTER'S INK.
—IT DOESN'T FADE.

Costs you no more than poor ink. Might as well have the best.

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
REGULATE THE LIVER

WANTED—Case of bad health that R·I·P·A·N·S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimonials.

When Answering Advertisements Kindly Mention This Paper.

FARM LANDS FOR SALE

DO YOU WANT A HOME?

60,000 ACRES OF GOOD FARMING LANDS IN WASHBURN AND BARRON COUNTIES, WISCONSIN, to be divided and sold at $3.00 to $6.00 PER ACRE.

Long time and easy payments to actual settlers.
Come and see us or address,

W. R. BOURNE, Mgr., SHELL LAKE LUMBER CO., SHELL LAKE, WIS.

BINDING TWINE!

Sisal Binding Twine	8¾c lb.
Standard Binding Twine	8¾c lb.
600 ft. Manila Binding Twine	9½c lb.
Our Giraffe Extra Manila	9⅞c lb.

Prices quoted are net cash with order. You may have to pay more, so do not delay ordering. Order at once. This is your only sure plan. Prices may advance; our stock may be exhausted; hundreds of things may happen in a week. Send in your orders at once. We can ship immediately. We reserve the right to limit the quantity of twine supplied on any one order, as we do not desire to have dealers snap up our stock, as our desire is to give our farmer friends the first chance. We know of nothing that can be gained by waiting and you may lose money by so doing. It is to your profit to buy of us.

T. M. ROBERTS' SUPPLY HOUSE, Minneapolis, Minn.

"DIRT IN THE HOUSE BUILDS THE HIGHWAY TO BEGGARY." BE WISE IN TIME AND USE
SAPOLIO

Minnesota Historical Society

MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR.

VOLUME XVIII. ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY. JULY 5, 1899. NUMBER 49

TRUST TALK

IN ITS APPLICATION TO NATIONAL AND STATE POLITICS.

How Wages Are "Going Up" by the Trust Route—How the Old Thing Works. "Down With the Trusts," and the Gold Standard as the Daddy of Them—The G. O. P. Boodle Story of 1896—Hustling to Create Big Army Sentiment—McKinley Prosperity Strikes Lobsters. Six Months of Imperialism—Dog Catcher Eustis Makes Denial—Magnificent Wisconsin Relief—State and Twin City Political Points—Note and Comment of the Week.

Reform Press Bureau.
St. Paul, June 26, 1899.

"Wages are going up," they tell us, when we complain of the Republican, trust-making policy. Let us see how the Trust can afford to increase wages and how they do not in fact benefit labor. A trust is composed, let us say, of 20 concerns. They each employed 250 hands, earning $500 a year on the average and 25 more expensive help or traveling salesmen averaging $2,000 a year. The aggregate is 5,000 hands earning $2,500,000, and 500 office men earning $1,000,000, grand total of the pay rolls, $3,500,000. If on completing the combine it is determined to reduce the force of hands one-fourth—often it is more—it cuts the remaining payroll down to $1,875,000. Only one in 10, say, of the office and traveling force is retained, the roll of the remaining 50 amounting to $100,000. Total of the remaining payrolls, $1,975,000. How much then, has the trust saved by the combine? Why the difference between the former payroll and the remaining, $1,775,000. "We will increase wages," says the Trust, and it does so, a paltry 10 per cent. This will require $197,500, and this can be paid out of what has been saved by the combine on wages alone and have $1,577,000 remaining!

Not only has an army of unemployed been turned loose, but the price of the product has been raised, as in the case of barbed wire, from $1.75 to $3.00 per hundred within a year!

Down with the trusts!

Is that all of the trust story? No, there are the small concerns which, declining to go into the robbery, or unable to do so, are forced to the wall, their owners ruined, their employes turned out to become tramps.

Down with the trusts!

And there is the stock and bond scheme, or the "watering" process. The concerns combining are paid cash for their plants and business, and given an equal amount of trust stock or bonds, an equal amount of which is said to go to the "promoter," while a third equal amount is retained by the trust. This was shown by Attorney General Monett, in the case of Standard Oil. Thus do trust and tool (the "promoter"), keep control, and thus are the stock and bonds "watered" on which the people, by rising prices, are forced to pay dividends and interest.

Down with the trusts!

Another phase is the absolute enslavement of the labor under trust and combine control. The New York World has made a compilation which shows that 116 trusts, covering the necessities of life, represent 17,000,000 individuals in American families, dependent on them for rate of wages and other regulations. The total employes number 3,420,000. Of these more than 600,000 are engaged in manufacturing articles of food and drink; 775,000 are engaged in the making of clothing and furniture; around 1,000,000 produce and prepared products of the earth in mines and minerals; an equal number are engaged in transportation and communication; nearly 500,000 in machinery and metal products; Who will deny that the wages and other conditions of this fully one-fourth of the total of such laborers in the United States are as much under control of the gigantic combinations concerned as ever the blacks of the South were by their white masters?

Down with the trusts. Down with the money trust.

Republican authorities disagree as to the amount of money it cost the money power to elect McKinley, the figures being all the way from $3,000,000 to $50,000,000. Hanna publicly admits the payment of $3,000,000 for what he deemed "legitimate expenses," meaning printing and speakers. John Sherman has said that he understood it was $5,000,000. "Old Man of the Sea" Grosvenor puts it at $15,000,000, and declares it will cost $25,000,000 to re-elect McKinley, and he speaks by the card. But whatever the sum it came from the trusts, combines and money power in general, which knew it would receive the benefits of special privileges, as it has. This money power is now going to pledge itself, in the next platform it writes for the G. O. P., to destroy the trusts, itself. Selah!

And in Minnesota we are to have the parallel of restoring the G. O. P. to power in order that it may reform the state by restoring the regime of the past 40 years!

Apropos of this promised slaughter of trusts, the New York Journal and Cincinnati Enquirer, which are publishing some great cartoons by Davenport, have Gladiator Hanna and Assistant Gladiator McKinlay engaged in much slaughter. Gladiator Hanna has slain the tack, chewing gum, sardine and toothpick trusts, while Gladiator McKinley is chopping off the head of the flypaper trust. Among the enthusiastic spectators in the boxes are the railroad, the bread, sugar, Standard Oil and coal trusts. "In 1906," says Hanna, "we will be against the dangerous trusts," and those that are bad and dangerous are of course the little ones. And the biggest and most dangerous of them all is the money trust, which can only be slain by free coinage.

Kaiser William and the dumdum:
Hier! Schtop dot business an den Hague,
Dot arbitration nonsense vague,
Ist alles rot!
Mach zu das door of Hus en wood,
I vouldn't schtand it eef I could,
For I dink tumtum bullets good,
I do, "Und Gott!"

If the tariff is the mother of trusts, the gold standard is the daddy. Let the devil have the whole brood.

Apropos, the director of the mint figures out the output of gold for 1898 to have been $64,463,000 and silver 54,000,000 ounces. The average bullion value of silver has been 57 cents during the past year, which would make the coinage value of the silver product $31,029,660. But the 16 to 1 coinage value is $1.29 per ounce, hence free coinage would have made the silver product $70,215,000 surpassing gold. But with free coinage silver production would greatly increase, and what is more the great bulk of silver gets into circulation—you can hear it jingling in the pockets and purses of the people—while gold goes into the vaults, or, as at present, runs away abroad.

Give us free coinage, a free field and fair fight and the American people will take care of themselves, and you'll soon see an end of the trusts and combines.

Governor Lind's staff has been practically filled by the following appointments:

Inspector General—Brigadier General Henry J. Gjertsen, Minneapolis, vice W. J. Murphy.

Judge Advocate General—Brigadier General Herschel V. Fryberg, Duluth.

Aide-de-Camp—Col. Christ Brandt, St. Paul.

Now as the scheme to increase the standing army finds g. o. p. encouragement, as regiments are called for watch the "fire-eating" patriots rush to arms. It will be like Artemus Ward who was willing to sacrifice all his wife's relations.

The state press told of the operations of rapid fire swindlers buying butter and eggs throughout the country with bogus checks. Rapid-fire shotguns, let off in close proximity to the rear parts of their persons, are a good remedy.

Recorded and unrecorded contributions by the Twin Cities for Wisconsin cyclone sufferers will amount close up to $50,000. Minnesota set Wisconsin a pace in relief for the latter's people that will not soon be either overtaken or forgotten.

And in giving credit for relief work performed the railways seem to have been quite overlooked. The Wisconsin Central line, and the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha (Northwestern) have simply done everything in their power, and in all departments. Organized labor in numerous lines, has also made large sacrifices. The Northwestern heart is not only large but in the right place every time.

By the way with Judge McCafferty removed to the North Pacific slope, what is the present status of the Minnesota Palmer-Belmont Democracy anyhow?

More McKinley prosperity has been discovered. Lobsters are "riz" from $1 to $5 per barrel, and all without a trust or combine, but merely by the aid of last winter's freeze out.

It will be very interesting to see how, under recent decisions and disclosures those corporations which have hitherto escaped taxation of their franchises will wiggle out of it this year, and escape righteous action by the board of equalization. Justice Mitchell points out clearly to assessors that under the existing laws, crystalized in section 1530 of the present statutes, franchises are reached by deducting from the capital stock at its actual value, the value of tangible property, real and personal, otherwise assessed and listed. The remainder is the intangible property, which has its value in the franchises on which the capital stock, so to speak, is based.

It it can be done under the law, the Grain and Warehouse Commission mean to enforce its order for reduction of coal rates in the New Ulm case and have retained Hon. T. D. O'Brien to assist the Attorney General in the matter.

The old First Minnesota has once more been in reunion, and every company was represented at St. Cloud, less than 70 survivors being present. God bless the brave veterans of the "Bloody First" and protect them to the last man.

Acting under the counsels of Bryan and the confidence of success a continued union of reform forces has been secured in Nebraska, and Democratic, Peoples party and Silver Republican conventions will meet on the same day, Aug. 22, in Omaha, to make up a union ticket against the common enemy. "United we stand, divided we fall."

And up rises Simon Eustis, dog catcher for Minneapolis, with a statement that he is "not related" to William Henry Eustis, the late defeated.

Our first six months of imperialism will be marked by a treasury deficit of $100,000,000. In the year just ending we have expended $292,000,000 for the army and navy, all above about $60,000,000 being due to the war with Spain and the miserable business in the Philippines. The war revenue act has produced but $100,000,000, so that the amount Uncle Sam has so far been obliged to go down in his jeans for exceeds $160,000,000.

Here's a suggestion to McKinley. Recall the troops from the Philippines and turn them loose in the Foraker war in Ohio.

And now comes Mikado Dowling of Renville with the claim that State Treasurer Koerner is the "only" man who can beat Lind. But he probably means "except me."

G. S. O.

PITH OF THE NEWS

DIGEST OF THE NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

A Comprehensive Review of the Important Happenings of the Past Week Culled From the Telegraph Reports—The Notable Events at Home and Abroad That Have Attracted Attention.

Trusts and Combines.

The Great Lakes Towing company (the tug trust) has been organized at Cleveland with a capital stock of $5,000,000.

The reported combination of the coal companies of the Pittsburg district was confirmed by John H. Jones, one of the most prominent coal operators in that region.

It is said that there is on foot a big combination to include nearly all the watch case companies in the country. It is stated that the concerns to be absorbed represent an invested capital of over $10,000,000.

Leopold Schwarzman, a cigarette manufacturer of the City of Mexico, passed through Austin, Texas, on his way to Montreal, Que. He said that negotiations for the combination of all the principal cigarette manufacturers in Mexico into a trust had been completed. The capital of the new syndicate is $1,750,000.

Accidental Happenings.

The house of Andrew Johnson, a lake engineer of Mayville, was burned, and Johnson burned to death.

Fire at Laurel, Del., destroyed property valued at $125,000 to $150,000, including a number of stores and one hotel.

William Woodrum, a prominent dry goods merchant and president of the Commercial club at Jefferson City, Mo., was drowned while swimming in the Missouri river.

Fire damaged the Moro-Phillips chemical works at Camden, N. J. to the extent of $100,000. Three large buildings used in the manufacture of phosphate were destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

The British sloop Buzzard, while trying to reach the French treaty shore, collided with an iceberg, which stove in her bows. By means of collision mats and moving the guns and heavy gear to the stern, she made her way back to St. Johns, N. F., safely.

The steamship Aldborough reports the destruction by fire of the Clyde line steamer Pawnee, which trades between Boston, Charleston and Brunswick. The vessel burned to the water's edge, and there was no sign of life on board. She was sighted 150 miles east of Cape Charles.

Washington Talk.

Ten thousand more troops will be sent to the Philippines.

The Havana customs receipts from Jan. 1 to June 23, inclusive, amounted to $4,938,015.

Commissioner Peck has arranged to have the United States exhibit to the Paris exposition carried in vessels belonging to the navy.

The report of the seizure of their guns after having been paid at Nuevitas, Cuba, proves to have been without foundation.

The prohibition upon the importation of horses from Turkey has been removed and export duty of $24 will be charged upon each horse exported.

The formal report of Maj. Gen. Nelson A. Miles of his tour of observation in Europe, from May 5 to Oct. 10, 1897, has been issued in pamphlet form by the war department, under the general title of "Observation Abroad."

The war department has decided not to retry the case in which Judge Simonton of Pennsylvania held that the canteen at Camp Meade must pay a state license, but will not regard the case as a precedent.

United States Consul Skinner, at Marseilles, reports to the state department that clouds of grasshoppers threaten to destroy the standing crops in Algeria and that the government is already expending large sums of money to suppress them.

People Talked About.

Arthur Tennyson, youngest brother of the famous poet laureate, died at his home in London.

Henry P. Plant, president of the Plant Steamship company, died at his home on Fifth avenue, New York.

W. H. McDonald, business manager of the Milwaukee Evening Telegram, formerly with the St. Paul Globe, is dead.

J. G. Johnson has been succeeded by J. W. White of Rock Falls as general attorney of the Modern Woodmen of America.

Henry C. Payne of Milwaukee denies absolutely and emphatically, the story that he would succeed Hanna as chairman of the Republican national committee.

Cardinal Count de Francois de Paula von Schonborn, archbishop of Prague and primate of Bohemia, died in his fifty-fifth year. He was raised to the cardinalate in 1889.

Thomas Walsh, the noted East side politician of New York, better known as Fatty Walsh, died of heart failure, aged sixty-three years. He was the father of Blanche Walsh, the actress.

A Denver advice says: The nuptials of Capt. Walter S. Scott, of the Twenty-first infantry, and a St. Paul lady are postponed by an order from the war department to the captain to leave for Manila.

Capt. Joseph B. Coghlan, U. S. N., appeared at Winfield, Kas., before the Winfield Chautauqua club, and his lecture on "The Battle of Manila" was listened to by over 8,000 people. He was received with marked enthusiasm. Gov. Stanley was present.

Rev. Paul Welzel, one of the first German Dunker clergymen to preach in this country, is dead. He died at Kansas City, Mo., in his seventieth year. He had preached in Somerset county, Pa., Franklin, Ill., and Grundy Center and McPherson, Kan. The interment will be at Grundy Center, Iowa.

Criminal Record.

In Jersey City a man, supposed to be Antonio Mucolate, a laborer, shot and killed his wife, Farritta, and then killed himself. The affair took place in a public street.

Harvey J. Ramsey, a ticket seller at the Madison Square Garden, New York, was killed by his wife, who cut his throat with a razor as he lay sleeping in their room in the Gardner hotel.

The examination of a quantity of jewelry taken from Mrs. Phyllis E. Dedge of New York, a passenger on the steamer St. Paul, shows that it is worth $100,000. The duty on the jewelry seized would have been $4,000. This seizure is the largest ever made in New York.

It is almost certain that the chest, containing $25,000 in gold, lost from the steamer Alameda, was taken from the ship at Honolulu. In fact, Marshal Brown has in his possession almost conclusive evidence that such was the case. The man who is suspected of having robbed the ship is almost known to have escaped beyond the Hawaiian law. He is now in Japan, and may eventually be caught, for the Oceanic Steamship company has a powerful detective agency on his track.

Sadie B. Matthewson, twenty-six years old, was murdered by her alleged paramour, Samuel Rowens, fifty-seven years old, at Foster, R. I. It is claimed that both were drunk, and that Rowens drove the woman into the yard, knocked her down and split her head open with an ax, stabbed her twice in the breast with a carving knife, and then, pouring kerosene oil over her, set her on fire while she was still breathing. Her body was burned to a crisp. Rowens was arrested.

Foreign.

Belgian deputies engage in a rough-and-tumble fight.

The Transvaal is buying provisions and war material.

In the legislative assembly at Melbourne, Victoria, the federal enabling act passed its first reading.

The Official Gazette, Madrid, announces that the effective active army for the next financial year has been fixed at 108,000 men.

The house of lords has defeated the bill legalizing the election of women in England as councilors and aldermen—182 to 68.

The bricklayers' strike at Berlin has been settled by a court of arbitration and the men will get advances in wages in September and December of next year.

Eastern and Northern Finland, according to a dispatch from St. Petersburg to the London Times, are threatened for famine and floods. The drouth has ruined the rye crops.

It is officially explained in Berlin that the German-American cable contract will go to an English firm, because the firm possesses the sole right of granting a concession for a cable to land in the Azores.

The trans-Caspian region of Asiatic Russia, which is under the administration of the governor general of the Caucasus, Prince Bariatinski, is said to be threatened with famine, owing to the prolonged drouth and a plague of locusts.

It is reported at Pekin, according to News received by the Empress of China at Victoria, B. C., that the emperor will resume power next month. Another report is that about July 20 the new emperor will be proclaimed.

Anti-foreign disturbances have just occurred in the Meng-Tzu province of Yun Nan, China, where the residences of the customs staff and French consulate have been burned by an armed mob. The foreigners effected their escape.

The Neueste Nachrichten of Berlin, contends that the recognition by the international commissioners of the decision of Chief Justice Chambers regarding the kingship in Samoa, does not in the least prejudice the claims of Germans in compensation for losses sustained during the recent disturbances.

Otherwise.

Degrees are conferred upon over 600 Yale students.

South Dakota judges re-nominate all the supreme judges.

Harvard confers degrees upon several well known men.

The Kentucky Democratic convention completes its work.

The first celebration of the Fourth of July in Hawaii, under American sovereignty, is to be made a memorable one.

Charles E. Waters, a Chicago pie manufacturer, has filed a petition in bankruptcy, scheduling his liabilities at $86,030 and assets, $80,702.

Suit was commenced in the common pleas court at Toledo, Ohio, by Herbert Chittenden, to prevent the mayor from signing the $150,000 worth of Ohio centennial bonds recently sold by the city.

The Great Northern has notified the railroad commission that, beginning July 3, would establish a daily passenger train both ways on the line between Fargo and St. Vincent.

Important tests with thorit, a new explosive, are being conducted by the board of ordnance and fortifications at the Sandy Hook proving grounds. The new explosive is the invention of Prof. Tuttle of Oregon.

The heavy rain and wind caused a creek near Springfield, Nebraska, to overflow, doing considerable damage to town and farm property. The principal sufferers were, the Missouri Pacific and Rock Island railroads.

Numerous queries are being received by scientific bureaus as to the measurements of Mount McKinley, Alaska. The elevation of this mountain, as determined by the geological survey parties during the past field season, is 20,460 feet above mean sea level.

Over 21,000 persons of Swedish descent attended the midsummer festival of the Swedish National association at Laurelwood Park, Chicago. A programme of speeches and athletic exercises was carried out. A parade of floats representing old times in the fatherland attracted much attention.

Sidney O. Eastman of Chicago, referee in bankruptcy, who some weeks ago sent to all referees in the country a suggestion that a convention for revising the national bankruptcy act be held in Chicago about June 26, announces that the meeting will probably be held in the latter part of July.

A GLOOMY OUTLOOK

FOR THE SPEEDY ENDING OF THE WAR IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Method of Making Raids Into the Country and Then Withdrawing Has Tended to Alienate the Population—Two Opposite Views of the Situation Held by Well Posted People at Manila—With Present Methods the War May Continue Indefinitely—More Men Absolutely Necessary.

Manila, June 27, via Hongkong, July 1.—Two opposite views of the Philippine situation are held by those persons who have followed the American campaign with close attention.

First is the official military view. According to this, the situation is now well in hand, and the campaign has been as successful as possible. The natives are tired of insurrection and are more friendly toward the Americans than toward the insurgents. The insurgent army is made up almost entirely of brigands who can no longer be held together by their leaders. The war will soon be over, it is declared, if the wet season holds off. The force of troops now on hand is sufficient for the emergency. Business is picking up. The disorganized insurgents, deprived of their resources, are held together at present merely by the hope given the rebels through the anti-annexation movement in the United States and the American papers which reach here. The insurgent leaders are actuated solely by selfish personal ambitions.

The second view, which is held by military men in the field and leading thinkers, is that the ability of our troops to drive the insurgents at will is proved, the suppression of the insurrection depends upon the ability of the men in authority to cope with the situation and not upon muzzling the American press.

The outlook at present is more gloomy for a speedy ending of the war than ever before. The method of making raids into the country and then withdrawing, leaving the friendly natives at the mercy of the returning insurgents, has tended to alienate the population and not materially to weaken the insurgents. The organization of the insurgents is still good, and their resources are not greatly impaired. The failure this season to take the railroads running through the valley of the rice country about San Fernando leaves to the enemy immense resources and fails to protect the interests of foreign merchants.

With the present methods the war with the Filipinos may continue indefinitely. The only true method to pacify the country is to garrison all the important towns. To do this more than twice the number of troops already here are necessary, with several regiments of mounted cavalry. Four thousand men being in the hospital, 2,800 in the Southern islands and 16,000 in Manila, Cavite and small garrisons, this leaves only 8,00 men for active campaigning. This number is not sufficient, since the troops in the north are in bad condition, many soldiers having irritated hearts by reason of overexertion on account of the small number of troops available.

ANOTHER BATTLE SOON.

Insurgents Making Active Preparations—Americans Sleep on Their Arms.

Manila, July 1.—A collision between the two armies at San Fernando seems inevitable soon. The insurgents are active all around the town and can be seen working in the trenches to strengthen their position. Day and night forces are at work. It is estimated that 3,000 men were seen marching in the road north of the town yesterday morning. The Americans turned out and manned the defenses, expecting an attack. The soldiers slept in their clothes and breakfasted at 4 o'clock in the morning so as to be ready for another daybreak assault. The commission of three Spanish officers who entered the insurgent lines a fortnight ago to make a final attempt to arrange for the release of the Spanish prisoners have not returned. Their long absence has occasioned alarm. But reports come to Manila that they were received by Aguinaldo at Tarlac and entertained hospitably. It is said that Aguinaldo gave a banquet in their honor, all the leading families of the rebel leader's present cabinet attending, hence the Spaniards in Manila hope that the mission of the commissioners will be successful. Gen. Ovenshine is in the hospital suffering with fever. Gen. Grant is commanding his troops on the south line.

VINDICATES LEONHAEUSER.

Alger Approves the Findings of the Court of Inquiry.

Washington, July 1.—Secretary Alger has approved the findings of the court of inquiry in the case of Col. H. A. Leonhaeuser, formerly of the Fifteenth Minnesota regiment. The findings are a complete vindication of the colonel and exonerate him fully from any of the excoriating epithets applied by Brig. Gen. Young. It was shown by the findings that Col. Leonhaeuser was at Gen. Sumner's headquarters at the time of the trouble in the camp at Augusta last winter. None of the other officers are mentioned, their cases not being before the court. No further action will be taken in the matter. Capt. Barrows, of the Fifteenth, is here and expressed great satisfaction over Leonhaeuser's vindication. He says that Gen. Young was not at all warranted in making the charges he did in an official report.

Disturbances in China.

Peking, July 1.—The French consul at Meng-tzu, where anti-foreign disturbances recently occurred, reports that the situation is unchanged. Thirty-eight well-armed Europeans took refuge in the residence of the taotl after the pillaging of the consulate.

Hired by Hudson.

Hudson, Wis., July 1.—Christian Burkhardt has been awarded the contract to operate an electric light and pumping plant for the city at $200 per month.

WAR IN ILLINOIS.

Train Containing Colored Miners Fired Upon.

Murphysboro, Ill., July 1.—At 6 o'clock yesterday morning Conductor Bryan's train on the Johnson City branch of the Illinois Central bearing forty-seven negro miners from Pana, was shot into by a crowd of miners at Lawder, in Williamson county. One negro woman was killed by a bullet through her heart. The negroes were brought by Sam T. Bush, superintendent of the St. Louis and Big Muddy mines near Centerville, to work in his mine there, where there is now a strike. The miners, fifty in number, were armed with rifles and were hidden in grass behind the country depot. When the train stopped the leader, an Italian, got on the platform and commanded the negroes to get out. Conductor Bryan interfered, but was stopped with a revolver in his face. The train began to move and the miners poured in a withering fire. Conductor Bryan yelled to the negroes to throw themselves on the floor. All escaped serious wounds save the woman, who was killed instantly. Half a mile further on the negroes were unladen and placed in charge of guards. They were then marched to the mine. Intense excitement prevails in the Carterville coal fields and bloody riots are expected, as the feeling has been intense for weeks.

DENIED BY GEN. H. G. OTIS.

Not Under Consideration as Alger's Successor.

Kansas City, July 1.—The Journal prints a telegram from Brig. Gen. Harrison Gray Otis of Los Angeles, in which the Californian states positively that there is no truth in the report that he is on his way to Washington in connection with possible changes in the war department. In answer to a direct inquiry as to whether he had been called to Washington as a possible successor to Secretary Alger, Gen. Otis telegraphed from Chicago as follows: "I can dispose of that rumor in a few words. I am not on my way to Washington in connection with that matter, even remotely, and have never been an aspirant for that high honor; nor have I any information that my appointment to the secretaryship is being even considered by the president. I have been a soldier in three wars now and am about to leave the army to resume my private and journalistic pursuits.

STRIKE AT HOMESTEAD.

May Rival the Famous Battle of Seven Years Ago.

Pittsburg, July 1.—The Post says: A strike was inaugurated at the Homestead steel works which may rival the famous battle between capital and labor which was fought on that famous spot seven years ago. The discharge of fifteen men at the plant during the past three weeks is at the bottom of the trouble. These men were dismissed because of their affiliation with the newly formed lodge of the Amalgamated association. The strike, of whatever proportions it may be, was precipitated when a committee of nine men who sought the reinstatement of the discharged men were also discharged for the same reason. Supt. Corrin informed the men that no organized men would be retained though it became necessary to close down the entire plant. At a secret meeting of the men held on Thursday it was decided to stand by the organization, and in the event of the discharge of any of their men all would strike.

GENERAL TIE-UP PLANNED.

Discontented Stock Yards Employes Mean Business.

Chicago, July 1.—Leaders of the stock yards strike are organizing their forces, and if the attempt is successful a general tie-up of the packing houses will be brought about. A mass meeting of stock yards laborers will be held Sunday afternoon. The strikers say the whole success of their movement depends upon the mass meeting. If the demonstration is well attended and a large organization is perfected the strikers claim they can close every packing house in the district and force the proprietors to grant the desired increase in pay. Superintendents of the big packing companies are maintaining that the strike is having no material effect upon the workings of their plants and point to the fact that they are killing the usual amount of hogs.

COAL AND IRON COMBINE.

Big Deal Is Consummated in Alabama.

Montgomery, Ala., July 1.—The rumors of a big consolidation of Alabama coal and iron interests were confirmed in Anniston yesterday. A company with $5,000,000 capital composed of capitalists from Richmond, Baltimore, New York and Boston, have bought the Garden furnaces, two furnaces at Ironton, and 30,000 acres of iron land, 32,000 acres of coal land at Brookwood, and the Mary Pratt furnace and valuable properties in and near Birmingham. The new company will have a capacity of nearly 180,000 tons of iron annually and 2,000 tons of coal daily. Abram S. Hewitt, John E. Searles and Joshua Levering are among those interested.

AT THE HAGUE.

Non-Increase of Military Budgets Is Referred.

The Hague, July 1.—The first committee of the peace conference discussed the reports of the war and marine subcommittees on the Russian proposals not to increase the effectiveness of the military budgets. The subcommittee's recommendation that the proposals be referred for ulterior decision to the governments was adopted.

Factories Are Closed.

Elwood, Ind., July 1.—There was a general closing of factories in this city last night, and a careful estimate shows that 3,000 hands are out of employment. The plants will be closed from two to six weeks.

Short of Cash.

Davenport, Iowa, July 1.—The running out of the appropriations with the close of the government fiscal year, led to the discharge of 652 men, half the force of the Rock Island arsenal.

CRISIS IN BELGIUM.

UNHEARD OF SCENES IN THE QUIET LITTLE KINGDOM.

Free Fighting of Hourly Occurrence—Members Struggle Against Ushers to Get at and Molest the Premier—An Immoral and Dangerous Bill Being Urged by the Narrow Minded Premier—Temporary Calm Restored While the Country Was on the Brink of Insurrection.

Brussels, July 1.—The Belgian parliament and the streets of Brussels have been presenting the last few days, a spectacle unheard of in this peaceful little kingdom. Irish, even French obstructionists have been surpassed by the radical Socialist minority in the Belgian chamber of deputies, where free fighting has become an hourly occurrence, members struggling against the ushers to reach and molest Premier Vandenpeereboom. The streets every night are made a nightmare with shrieking, stone-throwing, firing revolvers and attempts at reviving the lost art of barricade making.

The reason for this extraordinary outbreak lies in the disappearance from parliament of the moderate Liberals or Conservatives, whom the new suffrage regime swept from the scene, leaving the political power to be fought for by the extreme fanatical Catholics and the most advanced Socialists. This was the regime established in 1893, which, while giving universal suffrage, sought to temper it by giving one or two extra votes to property and education.

Such a new departure in politics excited curiosity and sympathy throughout Europe; but, coupled with the very unequal and unjust distribution of seats, it worked so badly that all parties agreed upon altering it, although disagreeing absolutely as to the regime to be substituted.

The first act was to overthrow the cabinet of M. Beernaert, a Catholic statesman who governed for years with such moderation and wisdom as to reconcile even the Liberals. In M. Beernaert's place rose a bigoted, priest-ridden, reactionary, government, headed first by M. de Burlet and now by M. Vandenpeereboom. He is fighting against the opposition now. The necessity for a revision of the franchise has long been perceived by the king and I have reason to believe that his majesty is anxious for reform which, while reducing the present overwhelming power of the ultramontanes, would reopen parliament to the moderate Liberal party as a check to the Socialists.

But M. Vandenpeereboom, instead of fashioning a reform bill on such lines, has introduced one specially planned to still further increase his own majority. The bill is considered immoral and dangerous, not only by the Socialists and Christian Democrats, but also by some fair-minded and eminent Catholic statesmen.

There is no sign of ill will against the king so far. As Leopold II. is very clear-sighted, the belief is that he is about to interfere to that effect and preserve the country from bloodshed, which will certainly occur if the bill is maintained.

After some violent scenes in the chamber yesterday the premier suddenly asked the house to adjourn until Tuesday, promising to consider an amendment which was understood to employ the representations of minorities. The Socialists, who also claim "one man one vote," consented to suspend the agitation pending the negotiations on this point, and a temporary calm will therefore be restored at a moment when Belgium was on the brink of insurrection, which may now be avoided.

MILES WAS THEIR GUEST.

Pittsburg Turns Out to Honor the Commanding General.

Pittsburg, July 1.—Maj. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, who is in the city as the guest of "All organized labor," had a busy time yesterday sight-seeing, holding receptions and addressing meetings. In the morning the general was taken through the Homestead armor plate works and other mills; in the afternoon he held a public reception, and in the evening he addressed two large audiences in the Grand opera house and Avenue theater. Preceding the evening entertainment Gen. Miles was escorted through the principal streets by several of the local military organizations. The route of the parade was lined by thousands of people anxious to see and cheer the distinguished guest. Mrs. Miles was entertained by Mrs. Dr. Daly and other prominent ladies by a drive over the boulevards and through the parks, after which she was greeted by many visitors at the Schenley.

ORDERS ISSUED

For the Recruiting of Troops for the Philippines.

Washington, July 1.—The first orders were issued yesterday for recruiting the troops under the clause authorizing the enlistment of 35,000 men. The order contemplates enlisting men for the three skeleton regiments in the Philippines. Recruiting officers have been instructed to enlist men with this understanding.

Mrs. Southworth Dead.

Washington, July 1.—Mrs. Emma D. E. N. Southworth, the authoress, died at her residence here last night after an illness of several weeks. About a month ago she was prostrated by the heat, and owing to her advanced age, 79, she was unable to recuperate.

Brooklyn Strike.

New York, July 1.—Leaders in the movement to organize the street railway employes of Brooklyn assert that if the company does not accede to the demands of the men a strike on the entire system will be inaugurated.

Would-Be Lynchers Arrested.

Detroit, Mich., July 1.—Eleven well known citizens of Northville were arrested yesterday charged with attempt to lynch Thomas Evans, who was charged with improper conduct with his step-children.

Bank of St. Hilaire.

HANNAY & CO., Bankers.

Real Estate Loans.
Chattel Loans.
Foreign & Domestic Xchange
INSURANCE.
Collections a Specialty.

A General Banking Business Transacted.

St. Hilaire, Minn.

Livery and Feed Stable!

DAN PATERSON, Prop.

Dray in Connection.

The finest equipped turnouts in the northwest. Safe drivers and furnished at a moments notice at reasonable rates. Don't forget the place

BIG - RED - BARN

Located on the east side of Broadway nearly opposite Rapp & Post's Store

ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Says a modest exchange: There is a little matter which some of our subscribers have seemingly forgotten—some of them made us promises, but have not kept them. With us it is a very important matter—it's necessary in our business. We are very modest and don't like to speak about it.

GET YOUR PICTURE
TAKEN BY
D. COLLINS
THE
Photograper.
ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

Improved Farms.

K. O. GIGSTAD has a large list of Improved Farms for sale. Also agent for the best fire and cyclone insurance company. Sick and accident insurance Co., and hail insurance.

Money to loan on improved farms at low interest. All collections are promptly attended to.

NOTARY PUBLIC.

Office east of the city well.

ST. HILAIRE, - MINNESOTA.

DAY F. STACY, C. E.
DEPUTY
County Surveyor.
RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.
Drainage and Farm Surveys a Specialty

"Money to patent good ideas may be secured by our old address, The Patent Record Baltimore, Md." 37

FIRE INSURANCE

DO
YOU
NEED
SOME?

The Best is the Cheapest.

I have nine of the best companies doing business in the State

Call for rates.

H. E. IVES.

CUSTOM WORK.

JUST LOOK AT THESE PRICES:

Roll Carding—per pound .... 5 cts
Spinning Single Yarn—per pound ...... 15 c
Stocking Yarn—2 or 3 ply, per pound.... 20 c

LITCHFIELD WOOLEN MILLS.

LITCHFIELD, MINN.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

The Spectator.

IVES & SOLL, Publishers.
JOHN J. SOLL, Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at St. Hilaire, Minn; as second-class mail matter.

Published every Wednesday at St. Hilaire, Red Lake County, Minn.

TERMS:—$1.50 Per Year In Advance.

Subscribers should notify the publisher on or before expiration of subscription if discontinuance is desired. Otherwise paper will be continued.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 5, 1899.

He Was Kind, but She Was Clever.

She is a clever woman, a past master in the art of strategy. So agree all who rode down town on the street car the other morning.

She got on a south bound Clark street limits train at Belden avenue. Every seat was taken, and almost every strap had a man or woman suspended from it. She looked about hesitatingly for an instant, but every man was wonderfully interested in his paper. Then she took hold of a strap almost in front of a young man, a very young man, who was blushing guiltily as he pretended to read.

While the young man blushed and the woman thus hung her handkerchief fluttered, accidentally by all appearances, to the floor. The young man looked up just then and saw the white bit of cambric. The feeling of chivalry which he evidently was trying to stifle would not be stifled longer.

He arose and stooped for the handkerchief. This was the woman's opportunity. While his back was turned she gently slipped into his seat. When he turned about and saw what had occurred, he almost collapsed. But the woman did not. She took her handkerchief out of his hand, smiling innocently.

"Thank you," she said sweetly. "You are very kind."—Chicago Journal.

Might Destroy All Life.

In a signed article in The Electrical Review Nicola Tesla describes some of his experiments in the line of electrical currents of high voltage and gives details of the coil which he used. "The discharges of such a coil," he adds, "when of an electromotive force of a few millions of volts, excite powerful affinities in the atmospheric nitrogen, causing it to combine readily with the oxygen and other elements, particularly in the presence of aqueous vapor.

"So energetic are these actions and so strangely do such powerful discharges behave that I have often experienced a fear that the atmosphere might be ignited, a terrible possibility, which Sir William Crookes, with his piercing intellect, has already considered. Who knows but such a calamity is possible? And who can tell with certitude that periodical cessations of organic life on the globe might not be caused by ignition of the air and destruction of its life sustaining qualities, accidentally or as a consequence of some accumulative change? A lump of coal will lie for centuries unaffected in contact with oxygen, but, the combustion once started, the process continues as long as there are elements to combine."

Pretty Strong Proof.

"Well," said Deacon Stubbles, "they say your son Josh is gittin to be quite a man up to the city."

"Yes," Squire Sprogie assented, "it pears like he was. I didn't take no stock in the reports till yistady. Thought Josh was jist a-tootin his own horn. Always did like to talk about hisself a good deal, you know."

"Yes, Josh was never no hand to set around and wait for folks to find out about his good p'ints. But what happened yistady to make you think there was really somethin in the talk about gittin to be a great man? Was his photograph printed in some paper?"

"No, 'twan't that, but a reporter come down here to ast if Josh didn't used to be all fired lazy, or always runnin away from school, or if he wasn't a queer sort of a child that wanted to be away by hisself and not have nothin to do with other children. When they begin to try to find out whether a feller was any of them kinds of a boy, you kin make up your mind that he's gittin to be pretty considerable of a chap."—Chicago News.

It Was Supremely Funny.

"Haw, haw, haw," laughed the Englishman. "Funniest joke I ever heard."

"What is it?" asked the American.

"Why, a man got up one morning and couldn't find his alarm clock, so he asked his wife what had become of it, and she said it had disappeared at 6 o'clock."

"I don't see anything so very funny about that."

"Don't you? Why—why—neither do I now. Thought it was awful funny when I heard it too. I—Oh, yes, now I know. She said it went off at 6 o'clock. Haw, haw, haw!"—Chicago Post.

A Wonderful Drummer.

Probably the most remarkable drummer who ever lived was Jean Henri, the famous tambour major of the Emperor Napoleon. One of his feats was to play on 15 different toned drums at the same time in so soft and harmonious a manner that instead of the deafening uproar that might have been expected the effect was that of a novel and complete instrument. In playing he passed from one drum to the other with such wonderful quickness that the eyes of the spectators could hardly follow the movement of his hands and body.

Had That Right.

"I'm going to sing at the mothers' meeting tomorrow."

"I shouldn't think they would allow a little girl only 9 years old to attend a mothers' meeting."

"Well, I guess I have a right to go if I want to. Ma makes me take care of the baby nearly all the time."—Cleveland Leader.

Fair haired people are said to be becoming less numerous than formerly. The ancient Jews were a fair haired race; now they are, with few exceptions, dark. So it is, in a lesser degree, with the Irish, among whom 150 years ago a dark haired person was almost unknown.

The average life of a theater is 28 years. From 1801 to 1807, inclusive, 187 theaters were burned down, and 18 every year since has been about the average.

AN EXCITING BATTLE.

A WICKED ENCOUNTER BETWEEN A MAN AND A BEAR.

It Ended In a Clinch and a Roll Down a Snow Covered Mountain Side—A Close Call, In Which the Man Just Escaped With His Life.

To roll down a snow covered mountain side tightly clasped in the embrace of a grizzly bear is an experience few men pass through and live to tell. But that is what happened to Frank Lecky of Fresno, and when it was all over he had only a few scratches and bruises and a big bearskin to show as signs of his terrible encounter.

"It was the wickedest fight I ever got into," said Frank when telling of his experiences, "and I have been in a good many, going out hunting in the Sierras every winter, as I do.

"This big fight happened up in the Whitney country. It was just a few miles east of the Minarets and in the spot where a fellow is always pretty sure to find big game.

"It was pretty late in the afternoon, and I was all alone in camp, as the other boys had not returned from a deer hunt they started on in the morning.

"I had been dozing in the tent all day, but came out to have a look at the sky. As I glanced along the top of a bluff a few hundred feet from the camp I saw something dark moving about.

"That was enough for me. I got my rifle and started right after it. The kind of game I was going after didn't concern me at all, but I really didn't expect bear, at least such big cantankerous bear.

"Taking a roundabout way through the snow, I soon reached the top of the bluff and began to crawl along carefully in order to get a good resting shot and not come upon my game too suddenly.

"Finally I caught a close view of a big dark body moving behind a clump of bushes. It was so large that for a moment I thought I had been stalking a cow and was ready to kick myself. Then a long drawn sniff and a deep growl told me it was bear I was sighting. Instantly I was all excited with interest and strained every nerve to get the beast in line and so plant a bullet in the right spot. The bear, however had a mind to keep his eyes on me and kept moving about as he peered between the branches of the brush.

"Suddenly one of the horses down in the camp neighed loudly and attracted the bear's attention. As the bear turned and exposed his side I fired. Down went the bear like a bag of wheat, and I thought my rifle ball must have gone clean through its brain. Without stopping to consider whether my shot had really been fatal, I rushed forward. As I stooped down to see where the ball struck, the bear jumped up, and then I knew I had only 'creased' it—that is, just grazed its head or spinal cord and knocked it senseless for a moment.

"Before I could swing my rifle forward to get in a shot the bear had knocked it out of my hands and was right on top of me. Somehow I managed to draw my knife and get in a few jabs that did no damage. The bear hugged me tighter and tighter, and I kicked harder and harder and jabbed wildly with my knife. Then we both rolled on the ground, and the bear tried to bite my face, but I kept off his fast clawing blows by hugging tightly against him. I jabbed and jabbed as we rolled over and over, and the bear's face and claws were pretty badly cut and one of his eyes was put out of service. The snow all around was torn up and spattered with blood.

"Before I knew it we were just on the edge of the bluff, and an almost vertical wall of snow lay just below us for over a hundred feet to the bottom.

"This frightened me more than the bear, for I knew what it meant, but before I could think of doing anything we were over the edge and rolling down at lightning speed.

"It could not have taken more than a few seconds, but it seemed to me like years. Now I was on top of the bear, and now underneath. Snow filled my eyes and ears, and I was scratched and wounded and bumped until I thought my end had come.

"It seems to me that I kept striking at the bear as we rolled, or rather shot, downward, for we were going at the speed of a cannon ball. Then there was a sudden bump while I was on top, and the bear gave a moan of pain and let go of me.

"That gave me my chance, and I drove my knife into his heart.

"The skin measured over seven feet. I found out while we were cutting him up that when he struck the rock at the bottom of the hill he shattered his spine. It was just a piece of luck that the bear struck the rock and not myself."—San Francisco Call.

Short Sighted.

McLubberty—Owid Uncle Moike Daffy is out ov his moind intoirely!

Mrs. McLubberty—Phot makes yez say thot?

McLubberty—Phwoy, he's been afther makin his will an l'avin iveryt'ing he's got in dhe worruld to his heirs, not kapin back for himsilf as much as a quarter's wort' av anyt'ing. T'ink av ut, l'avin himsilf pinniless at his age, in case he should doie!—Harper's Bazar.

His Position.

"Now, how do you stand on this question?" asked the man who had indulged in a long dissertation.

"Exactly as I stood years ago, when it first came up," answered Senator Sorghum. "It's been so long that I forget just exactly how I stood, but I haven't changed my mind a bit, sir; not a bit."—Washington Star.

Some of the cod lines used in the fishing industry measure 7,000 fathoms long, or about eight ordinary miles, having 4,680 hooks, the whole costing, in some cases, £200 or £300.

The Army and Navy.

Have covered themselves with glory during the war. The Army and Navy vest pocket memorandum book published by the Northern Pacific is a compact digest of information relative to the navies and armies of Spain and the United States at the beginning of the war. It has a map of Cuba, illustrations of naval ships, glossary of navy and army terms, translation of Spanish words, etc. Send ten cents to Chas. S. Fee, general passenger agent, N. P. R., St. Paul, Minn., for a copy.

A FAMOUS PLATE.

The First Engraving Was Printed on a Laundress' Bundle.

Two groups of tourists were standing in the Pitti palace before the large plate of pure silver upon which Finiguerra, the great master of early engraving, had depicted his lovely "Madonna and Child" in a trellised arbor covered with roses. An Italian lady was telling her friends in an undertone the charming anecdote of Finiguerra and the laundress.

The artist, it seems, in mastering the new and difficult art of engraving upon metal, had acquired a singularly keen eye and delicate touch, and he also possessed a number of very fine and sharp instruments, which he used in his work.

Being a kindly man he sometimes placed both his sure hand and his fine tools at the service of his friends and neighbors in performing for them some of the simpler operations of surgery, until he acquired quite a reputation for his skill in doctoring their hurts.

One day a poor laundress who had been washing clothes, in wringing out a garment in which a needle had been carelessly left, ran it deeply into her hand. Worse yet, it broke off in the wound and a part remained imbedded in the flesh. She was in much pain, and on her way back from the stream where she had been washing she stopped at the house of the artist and was admitted.

Entering his studio she hastily set down her wet and heavy bundle and held out the injured hand, begging his assistance. Finiguerra left his work to help her, and after long and delicate manipulation extracted the broken needle. The woman thanked him and turned to go, lifting her bundle from its resting place.

Then he saw that she had set it upon one of his engravings. Like all others at that time, it was a plate of engraved metal, complete in itself, and regarded as a single and sufficient picture, exactly as if it had been a painting.

But as the damp bundle was raised the quick eye of Finiguerra saw that it had received an impression from the engraved picture beneath, and his quick mind seized at once the suggestion of the possibility of indefinite reproduction from a single original. So that from the kindness of a great artist to a poor washerwoman sprang the discovery which has placed the beautiful products of the engraver's art within the reach of all of us today!—Youth's Forest and Prairie Fire Notice.

Office of State Forest Commissioner.

'ST. PAUL, MINN., March 28th, 1899.

Chapter 196 of the General Laws of the State of Minnesota for 1895 (act of April 18th) constitutes Supervisors of towns, Mayors of cities and Presidents of village councils Fire Wardens, and it is made their duty to take precautions to prevent forest and prairie fires, and if they occur, to go and extinguish or control them; and in emergencies to call upon any able-bodied male person, over eighteen years of age, to assist. Fire Wardens must promptly report such fires to the chief fire warden. The forest commissioner is required to provide and sign an abstract (as herewith) of the penalties under said law, and, it is made the duty of the county commissioners of each county to cause said abstract to be published in at least three issues of the official paper in their respective counties each year between the 15th of April and 1st of November, and they are hereby instructed to publish this notice entire. Under said law.

The following are liable to a penalty not exceeding $500 or imprisonment in the state prison not over ten years, or both:

Any person who maliciously sets or causes to be set on fire any woods, prairie or other combustible material whereby the property of another is destroyed and life is sacrificed,

The following are liable to a penalty not exceeding $100 or imprisonment not exceeding three months:

Any person refusing, without cause, to assist fire wardens in extinguishing forest or prairie fires.

Any fire warden who neglects to perform his duties.

Any person who wilfully, negligently or carelessly sets on fire, or causes to be set on fire, any woods, prairies or other combustible material, thereby causing injury to another.

Any person who shall kindle a fire, on or dangerously near to forest or praire land and leave it unquenched, or who shall be a party thereto.

Any person who shall use other than incombustible fire wads for firearms or carry a naked torch, firebrand or other exposed light in or dangerously near to forest land.

Any person who shall wilfully or heedlessly deface, destroy or remove this or any other placard posted under the requirements of the above mentioned act.

Any railroad company wilfully neglecting to provide efficient spark arresters on its engines; or to keep its right of way to the width of 100 feet cleared of combustible material; or which shall fail to comply with other provisions of Section 12 of the above mentioned act.

The following are liable to a penalty of not less than $5 nor more than $50:

Any railroad employe who wilfully violates the provisions of Section 12 of the above mentioned act.

Any owner of threshing or other portable steam engine who neglects to have efficient spark arresters, or who shall deposit live coals or hot ashes without extinguishing the same.

R. C. DUNN (State Auditor,)
Forest Commissioner.
C. C. ANDREWS,
Chief Fire Warden.
(July 5, Sept. 20, Oct. 25.)

First Mortgage Loans.

I am prepared, for the next 60 days, to make loans at the

LOWEST

possible rates ever made in Red Lake county. If you want to make a loan or renew an old one call on

H. E. IVES.

Oh, Where Has He Gone?

LOST:—About six weeks ago a black and white English setter dog answers to the name of "Shy." A suitable reward will be given at this office when said dog is returned. Any information will thankfully be received.

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

Default having been made in the payment of the sum of ten hundred and fifteen ($1,015.) dollars, which is claimed to be due and is due at the date of this notice upon a certain mortgage, duly executed and delivered by Alphonse Boucher and Philomine Boucher his wife mortgagors, to The Western Security Co. mortgagee, bearing date the 27th day of July 1888, and, with a power of sale therein contained, duly recorded in the office of the register of deeds in and for the county of Polk, now Red Lake county, and State of Minnesota, on the 27th day of July 1888, at 10:20 o'clock A. M., in Book 37 of mortgages, on page 141.

Which said mortgage together with the debt secured thereby, was duly assigned by said The Western Security Co., mortgagee, to Joseph F. Dearborn, by written assignment, dated the 1st day of November 1888, and recorded in the office of said register of deeds, on the 6th day of November 1888, at 1:00 o'clock P. M., in Book 40 of mortgages on page 378;

And whereas, the said assignee of mortgagee, did on the 4th day of November 1897, pay to the Treasurer of Polk county, Minnesota, the sum of $18.85 for taxes due and delinquent on said premises for the year 1896; and the further sum of $35.96 paid by said mortgagee on the 1st day of November 1897 for taxes due and delinquent on said land for the year 1892, all of which taxes are still due and payable to said assignee of said mortgagee, and no action or proceeding having been instituted, at law or otherwise, to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, viz:

The south-east quarter of section twenty-one (21) township one hundred and fifty (150) range forty-one (41) containing one hundred and sixty (160) acres, more or less according to the United States government survey, in Red Lake county, formerly Polk county, and State of Minnesota, with the hereditaments and appurtenances; which sale will be made by the sheriff of said Red Lake county, at the front door of the Court House, in the village of Red Lake Falls in said county and State, on the 12th day of August 1899, at 2:00 o'clock P. M., of that day, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt of Ten Hundred and Fifteen Dollars, and interest, and the taxes, on said premises and fifty dollars, attorney's fees, as stipulated in and by said mortgage in case of foreclosure, and the disbursements allowed by law; subject to redemption at any time within one year from the day of sale, as provided by law.

Dated June 19th A. D., 1899.

ADELE C. M. CUMMINS,
Executrix of Joseph F. Dearborn, deceased,
Assignee of Mortgagee.
JOHN CROMB,
Attorney for Executrix of Assignee of Mortgagee.
Crookston, Minn. 46-2

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

Whereas, default has occurred in the conditions of a mortgage given by Carrie Crown and Edvard (mortgage signed "Edvard" but written in body of deed and in acknowledgment "Edward") Crown, her husband, mortgagors, to Dakota Investment Company, of Grand Forks, Dakota, mortgagee, dated May 20th A. D. 1889, which mortgage, together with the power of sale therein contained, was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in Polk county and state of Minnesota, May 24th A. D. 1889 at 8:00 o'clock, a. m., in book 43 of mortgages, on page 32 and subsequently transcribed into the records of Red Lake county and state of Minnesota in book 17 of mortgages on page 371 and assigned by said mortgagee to Elijah M. Topliff by an instrument in writing dated June 11th A. D. 1889 and filed for record in said office of the Register of Deeds for said Red Lake county, March 9th A. D. 1898 at 3:00 o'clock p. m. and recorded in book F of assignments on page 551.

And whereas the undersigned attorneys for said Elijah M. Topliff have been empowered by him to foreclose said mortgage by an instrument in writing, dated March 28th A. D. 1899 and filed for record in said office of the Register of Deeds for said Red Lake county, April 5th A. D. 1899 at 12 o'clock M. and was recorded in book A of power of attorneys on page 201

And whereas there is claimed to be due upon said mortgage at this date including taxes for the years 1889, 1890, 1892, 1893, 1894, 1895, 1896, 1897 and 1898 amounting to $136.64 the sum of four hundred, ninety-nine 01-100 dollars, and no action or proceeding having been instituted at law to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof;

Now, therefore, Notice is hereby given that said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale of the premises described in said mortgage, viz.: The south half of the north-west quarter (s½ of nw¼) of section ten (10) in township one hundred and fifty-two (152) of range forty-five (45) in said county, which sale will be made by the Sheriff of said county, at the front door of the Court House, in the city of Red Lake Falls in said county of Red Lake, August 12th A. D. 1899 at two o'clock p. m., at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt, interest and taxes on said premises, and $25.00 attorney's fees, and the disbursements allowed by law, subject to redemption as provided by law.

Dated at Minneapolis, Minn. June 10th 1899.

ELIJAH M. TOPLIFF,
Assignee of Mortgagee.
WEBSTER & TAYLOR,
Attorney's for assignee of Mortgagee.
47-52

UNCLE SAM Is not In the Shoe Business, And Neither Am I, But I can Interest You in CIGARS.

ALL THE BEST SMOKERS BUY THEM

J.B. Cigars.

ALL THE BEST DEALERS SELL THEM.

J. B. ARMSTRONG,
Manufacturer.
RED LAKE FALLS, MINNESOTA.

By special arrangement with the publishers we are enabled to give FARM, STOCK AND HOME one year and the ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR for $1.25.

F. C. CORSETS
MAKE
American Beauties.

F. C.

LATEST MODELS.

On Each Box.

KALAMAZOO CORSET CO.
SOLE MANUFACTURERS.
SOLD BY
St. Hilaire, Minn. E. M. HOFF.

WANTED-BRAINS

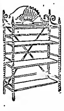
Can you think of something to patent? Protect your ideas: they may bring you wealth. Before applying for patent, get our liberal offers. Inventor's Assistant and handsome views of Washington sent Free on request. Be sure to write to-day

COPP & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C.

Summer Clothing

The Greatwestern own magnificent display of Men's summer suits, and Boys' choicest clothing is now ready, at a saving of fully 25 per cent.

Greatwestern Clothing House.



IF YOU INTEND TO
Buy Furniture

Come and look our assortment over. We carry everything in the Furniture line including picture frames and musical instruments. Prices reasonable.

Holmes Furniture Co.

BANK OF RED LAKE FALLS,

RED LAKE FALLS, MINNESOTA

GENERAL BANKING. FOREIGN XCHANGE

Real Estate, Farm Loans and Insurance.
Abstracts of Title.
Steamship Tickets.
Interest Paid on Time Deposits.
Collections of all Kinds Given Prompt Attention.

Owner of the Abstract Books formerly owned by Sortedahl & Storaasli the only set of Abstract Books in Red Lake County.

M. O. SORTEDAHL, President and Cashier.
G. P. SEVERTSON, Assistant Cashier.

UNCLE SAM'S MONOGRAM WHISKEY

Everybody Likes It

Sold by Druggists and Dealers.

Geo Benz & Sons, St. Paul.

List of Town Clerks.

Names	Township	Postoffice
Olof Larson	Numedal	Viking
C. E. Purdy	North	Thief River Falls
John E. Peterson	Bray	Bray
N. E. Anderson	Sanders	St. Hilaire
F. T. Satre	Rocksbury	T. R. Falls
O. T. Romness	Polk Centre	Wylie
P. A. Eckstrom	Black River	Wylie
A. S. Anderson	River Falls	St. Hilaire
Ole J. Johnson	Wyandotte
A. D. Berry	Louisville	Hunt
Eldadge Barll	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
Chas. E. Asp	Emardville	Lost
Edward Bralik	Equality	Grit
Moses Ducharme	Lake Pleasant	R. L. F.
Elenor Perusse	Terrebonne	Terrebonne
J. D. Herbert	Poplar River	Brooks
Louis Doucet	Lambert	Lambert
J. L. Johnson	St. Hilaire	St. Hilaire
Lars Backe	Thief River	T. R. F.
A. P. Tomplo	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
H. D. Iverson	Norden	T. R. Falls
Olof Fundo	Garnes	Garnes

FARMS LOANS ABSTRACTS

97 Farms for sale or rent in Red Lake County.

SWANSON & GRADY,
Official Abstractors.
RED LAKE FALLS. - - MINN.

A. O. LETVIG,
Tubular Well Contractor
A Good Supply of Water Guaranteed.
Repairing a Specialty.
WYLIE MINNESOTA.

UNION MEAT MARKET

P. O. MOSLETH, PROP.

Choicest line of Fresh and Salted meats in the city.

Highest market price paid for Stock, Poultry and Hides.

Why does the boy hate the beer?

He doesn't—he loves it because it is Hamm's delicious brew. It is the medicine his kind aunty has mixed in it that he dislikes. Never mind he is to have a drink of the pure article afterwards to take the bad taste away.

Hamm's St. Paul Beer

Drink a beer you know is pure.

Theo. Hamm Brewing Co.
Tel. 972 St. Paul, Minn.
Agents Everywhere.

Say?

If your wheel needs enameling, cleaning, new tires or any other repairing give us a trial. All work done promptly and satisfactory. Prices reasonable.

R. J. BULLAN & CO.
35 RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

STEVENS RIFLES AND PISTOLS

HAVE FOR MORE THAN 35 YEARS BEEN CELEBRATED FOR THEIR EXTREME ACCURACY

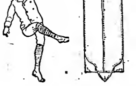
We make our "Diamond" Pistol with two lengths of barrel, 6 and 10 inches. Every one guaranteed. Price, Postpaid, $5.00 with 6-inch barrel; $7.50 with 10-inch barrel. We make a full line of rifles; Price, from $6.00 upwards. Every arm we turn out is warranted

SAFE, SOLID AND ACCURATE.

J. STEVENS ARMS & TOOL CO.,
Send Stamp for Catalogue. P. O. Box 698 CHICOPEE FALLS, MASS.

Cigars.

BRINK BROTHERS
DEALERS IN
Wines & Liquors
Minneapolis Beer.
Corner Broadway and 3rd St. St. Hilaire, Minnesota



Be Ready
For Summer.
It is Here Now.

A full line of summer merchandise just arrived. We invite inspection of these goods. A splendid line of Skirts and Waists, both in ready-made and patterns at prices which are right. I shall not attempt to describe the line; only urge you most cordially to see the goods before you buy.

E. M. HOFF.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

I. O. O. F. St. Hilaire Lodge No. 117.—Meets at their hall every Thursday evening, eight o'clock. Visiting members are cordially invited to attend.
E. M. Hoff, N. O.
J. H. Johnson, Secretary.

M. W. A. CAMP 3650.—Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every second and fourth Tuesday of every month. Visiting neighbors are cordially invited to attend.
Leonard Holmes, V. C.
Jas. M. Hall, Clerk.

R. N. A.—WILD ROSE CAMP.—No. 831 Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every Friday evening. Visiting members of the order are cordially invited to attend.
Mrs. L. N. Nolan, Oracle.
Miss T. Hughes, Recorder.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Auditor	Adam Zeh
Treasurer	O. T. Tandberg
Register of Deeds	Samuel Gibeau
Sheriff	Chas. Sampson
Attorney	Van R. Brown
Judge of Probate	J. T. Knight
Clerk of Court	Joe Perrault
Supt. of Schools	Frank Jeffers
Coroner	Joe Belaire
Court Commissioner	J. C. Mathews
Surveyor	P. O. Hagglund
Commissioner 1st Dist.	J. Suter
Commissioner 2nd Dist.	W. L. C. Demann
Commissioner 3rd Dist.	G. J. Johnsen
Commissioner 4th Dist.	Karl M. Hanson
Commissioner 5th Dist.	J. B. Herbert

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

E. J. Holmes	President
J. L. Johnson	Recorder
D. Patterson	Councilmen
J. C. Dahl
W. A. Sorsoleil
L. Holmes	Treasurer

Barber Shop
—AND—
BATH ROOMS.
—o—
Haircutting, Shaving, Shampooing.
Razors honed and put in first-class order.
J. H. PENNO, Prop.
ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Henry Francis, M. D, C. M.
Member College Physicians and Surgeons, Ontario. : : :
Thief River Falls, Minnesota.

"THE IDEAL" Lunch Room.
In the Paradis Building is noted for its Convenience.
FIRST-CLASS MEALS.
PROMPT SERVICE.
☞ Open until one o'clock a. m.
A. F. LANG, Prop.

DR. BLOMBURGH.
SCANDINAVIAN
Physician & Surgeon.
☞ Calls attended day or night. ☜
Teeth Extracted.
Office and residence opposite American Hotel. St. Hilaire, Minn.

2nd ☞ STORE
(Second Hand Store.)
Everything in this line now on hand. Special bargains given. If you have anything to dispose of give me a call. Repairing of harness also done.
C. A. SKEIE.
St. Hilaire, - - Minnesota

Blacksmith!
Horse-shoeing, repairing of all kinds of Farm Implements, Machinery, etc. All work promptly attended to and done in a satisfactory manner.
J. C. DAHL.
St. Hilaire, Minnesota

PATENTS
Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES. OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.
Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.
A PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,
C. A. SNOW & CO.
Opp. Patent Office, Washington, D. C.

Market Report.—To-Day.

Wheat No. 1	62	Oats	20
Wheat No. 2	58	Barley	24
Wheat No. 3	54	Flax	92
Eggs (per doz.)	12½	Butter (per lb)	10

LOCAL NEWS.

Wall paper and calcimine at the New Drug store.

A sister of Mrs. Dr. Blomburgh is here on a visit.

A car load of bronchos were shipped to this point last week.

Miss Dora Ostrom is here visiting St. Hilaire friends this week.

Try a lunch, a meal or a weeks board at the Ideal Lunch Room.

Will Eikhoff returned Thursday from a business trip at Crookston.

Wild strawberries are ripe and very plentiful in this immediate vicinity.

Another circus at Red Lake Falls two weeks from tomorrow—July 20th

Patronize home industry by buying your wall paper at the New Drug store.

W. C. Stranahan was here Monday interviewing our hardward merchants.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ballard of Crookston paid friends a visit here Saturdoy.

Chas. Fellman and John Halvorson were at the upper Falls the first of the week.

If you want to make a loan on your farm, or renew an old one, call on H. E. Ives.

Fred Fountain drove in from Thief River Falls just ahead of the storm Sunday.

The Crookston college is being remodeled and will be up-to-date in every respect.

Several parties from here took in Bond Bros. circus at Red Rake Falls last Saturday.

North Dakota law requiring school children to be vaccinated went into effect July 1st.

L. T. Bergh, the Deering collector, returned Monday to spend the Fourth at home with his family.

J. R. Rasmussen, general agent for Hamms brewing company in this district, was here last Friday.

The old reliable street commissioner —S. Harris—made a great many noticed improvements last week.

The Odd Fellows will install officers at their meeting tomorrow evening. All members are requested to be present.

The Minneapolis Journal Newsboys' Band furnished the Fourth of July music for Glenwood—Frank Eddy's town.

Friday July 14th is American Day at the Winnipeg great Industrial fair. Excursion trains will be run from the states.

A new ten foot side-walk was laid in front of the new drug store last week. A great many others should follow the same example.

Some farmers claim that to cut hay too early kills the grass, so that nothing but weeds grow the following year, and the hay is not as it would be if cut later.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Danielson, father and mother of Mrs. E. J. Holmes, after spending a pleasant two weeks vacation here left for their home at Cannon Falls Friday last.

The heaviest rain of the season dropped down Sunday afternoon accompanied by a strong northwest wind. Hicks, the weather prophet, is striking dates this year without fail.

Rev. H. Logan, wife and child returned Saturday from a three weeks visit at their old home at Battle Lake, Minn. While away Rev. Logan officiated at several June weddings.

Fifty-three tickets were sold yesterday to parties that wanted to see Ringling Bros. circus parade which takes place this forenoon. Quite a number will go down to-day and take in the evening entertainment.

Editor George of the Fertile Journal pitched a good game of ball here on the Fourth. Mr. George is captain of the Fertile nine and under his rulings—which are strict—he has the finest eggregation of ball players—everyone a gentleman—we have ever seen on or off the diamond. The best is none too good for the Fertile boys.

—Go to the New Drug Store for your Stationery and School supplies.

Consumption Cured.

—Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth, cures a cold in one day if taken in time. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

The Fourth Celebrated.

The morning of the Fourth opened rather cloudy, dampening the hopes of the celebration committee and the patriotic citizens who left no effort undone to have a rousing celebration. But as the day advanced, the clouds rolled away and every indication of a day of jollification was in evidence.

The cornet band went to the depot to welcome the Fertile ball team upon the arrival of the train. The line of procession moved up main street and circled in front of the jugglers stand where the crowd centered to witness the performances.

After dinner the ball game was looked forward to with great interest. T. Flaherty was the unanimous choice for umpire. The game was called at 1:30, Fertile to bat, but failed to score. St. Hilaire made two scores in the first. The playing was close up to the seventh inning when the score stood even. The eight inning St. Hilaire made five scores and the visitors two, making the score stand 9 to 12. The home team didn't go to bat the ninth inning, Fertile failing to tally. The best of feeling prevailed throughout the game, the Fertile boys made many pleasant remarks about the umpire, saying his decisions were just and spoke in high terms generally about how courteously they were treated by our citizens.

The various races had a number of entrees and all afforded much amusement no irregularities occuring until the fat mans race was called. When standing ready for the word "go" some failed to hear it and others thinking only of coming in first made the start and couldn't be called back. Then there was a fat man's mixup those having made the run feeling satisfied, and those standing at the starting point clamering for a run. The matter was compromised by letting them run. The judges couldn't award prizes so another run was agreed upon and the difficulty settled.

The last on the program was the free for all horse race, two best out of three heats, first prize won by Axel Rood and second by Johnnie Mitchell. The display of fireworks; and the dance given by the band boys which was largely attended, finished up the celebration. Much credit is due the committee for their efforts and having everything pass off successfully.

Geo. Afftrit, formerly of St. Hilaire, but now holding a good position with the Sarles Lumber Co., of Shelley, was here yesterday greeting his old friends.

J. K. Hannay, cashier of the Bank of St. Hilaire went to Red Lake Falls one day last week and while there turned over to the county $20,500.00 for the bonds purchased a few days previous to that.

Mrs. G. S. Torgerson of Rocksbury gave a very pleasant party last Saturday in honor of Miss Lula Dainard's birthday. A large number of Lula's friends from town went out an all report a jolly time.

Mrs. Lunde, wife of Rev A. M. Lunde of this village. who has been spending the past three months at San Antonio, Texas, for the benefit of her health returned Saturday very much improved we are pleased to state.

Married:—Gus Olson to Miss Minnie Fredrickson at the residence of K. Kruse last Saturday afternoon. K. O. Gigstad officiating. The Spectator joins with their many friends in wishing them much joy throughout married life.

The family of R. A. Engen are packing up their household goods preparatory to moving back to Minneapolis where they will make their future home. While residing here they have made many friends who regret their departure.

While working on his section Tuesday about two and a half miles east of here, Dan Sullivan saw what at first he thought was a big cow, but when the animal turned his face, Sullivan saw it was a big moose, weighing fully 1,500 pounds. It has been around with the Julius Zachgo's cattle for some days and is probably waiting for some sportsman to come along a with a gun.—Fisher Bulletin.

"A Pleasure Party, We 4," presented their vaudeville program to a packed house, Thursday evening. The company is first class in every respect and their program is so arranged that a "wait" is unknown. Truly every performer is an artist, and a gentleman which is a most distinct and pleasing feature. They deserve good patronage and should they return to St. Hilaire, a crowded house will greet them.

S. M. Dainard, while driving through the country east of here last Saturday passed by an exceptionally fine field of barley belonging to Gunder Torgerson and brought samples to town which can be seen at the front office of the Spectator. The stalk is over forty inches in length while the heads average about sixty kernels to the head. He also brought in samples of red clover which is equal to anything ever grown in the clover states.

Bert Mitchell, one of the day setters at the mill, departed on the train Monday for his home in Milaca. Rumor was rife and his most intimate friends gave out that he was going to get married. Saturday Mr. Mitchell returned accompanied by his bride, nee Cora Crandell. The ceremony was performed Thursday evening June 29th at the home of the groom's parents. Mr Mitchell, during his short residence in our village, has made many warm friends who join with the Spectator in wishing the happy couple a long and prosperous voyage in the matrimonial sear. A reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell at Hotel Markham in the evening in which a general good time was had and thoroughly enjoyed by the parties participating.

Some School Laws, 1899.

Chapter 15 restores the third Saturday in July as the time for holding the annual meeting in common school districts.

Chapter 98 imposes a fine of $100 for illegal voting at school meetings.

Chapter 225 is a very important law. It amends the compulsory education law by requiring the attendance of all children of school age for the entire time the school is in session, instead of 60 days, as heretofore. Truant officers may be appointed (this should be mandatory) to apprehend truants without warrant and take them to school. The law further provides for establishing ungraded schools for the instruction truants, vicious children and loafers of school age.

Dentist.

—Dr. J. H. Thomas, the Crookston dentist will be at Hotel Markham, St. Hilaire, July 19th and 20th prepared to do all kinds of up to date dental work in all branches. All work warranted. Remember the dates 19th and 20th.

Talking about "copperheads," what's the matter with classing in this category such staunch g. o. p. organs as the Minneapolis Tribune, the Chicago Times Herald, the Boston Journal, the New York Tribune, the Springfield Republican and the San Francisco Call, all of which are just now busily engaged in severely castigating the administration for its lack of judgment in the handling of the Philippine problem.—Sauk Rapids Free Press.

—Dr. W. A. Moore (dentist) from Red Lake Falls will be at the Hotel Markham, July 10th, 11th and 12th. Those wishing his services please call.

The recent session of the legislature enacted a provision regarding the cutting of weeds along the public roads. The law is No. 107 in the supplement. It makes it the duty of all road overseers and street commissioners to cut down the weeds on the public roads and streets. This job must be done not earlier than July 15th, nor later than September 1st, and road overseers are required to reserve enough work to do this job, and not call out all the road work earlier in the season and let the weed cutting go undone. They have the power to order farmers or others who have mowing machines or scythes to bring these implements for use in cutting the weeds, the same as they now have to order wagons, plows and other tools to be brought by those who are warned out to work the roads. Street commissioners are required to cut all weeds growing on the public street. This law is one that should be carried out in letter and spirit and we hope every road overseer and street commissioner in the county will see to it that the law is fully observed.—Fairmont Sentinel.

To cure a cough in one day take the Imperial cough syrup. Guaranteed to cure. For sale at the new Drug Store.

Seneca Root.

This article is used in this country and Europe very extensively. There is but a small quantity of Southern root produced. The large crop is in the Northwest. It is dug principally in northern Minnesota and the northern part of North Dakota, also in Manitoba. The way to handle it after digging is to wash it clean, remove the tops, and thoroughly dry it. It is worth, laid down in Minneapolis, 21½ cents for the poor root up to 22½ cents for the best roul. This nets nearly 20 cents at the farthest points of digging, and more than this at the nearer points where the freight is less. If there should be any change in price either way, prices will go higher, because it rarely ever sells for any length of time at less than the present prices. As there is a cash market for this root at all times and an unlimited demand, whatever money it sells for brings that much more money into the country that otherwise would not be received. There is quite a lot of this root growing in this immediate vicinity.

—Dr. Thomas is an up-to-date in all the different branches in his profession. Remember the dates, July 19th and 20th.

Council Proceedings.

Special meeting of the village council Thursday June 29th 1899.

All members present except Sorsoleil. Meeting called to order by President Holmes.

On motion Clara Peterson, P. G. Paradis, M. E. Bjerk, E. J. Brink and Markham Hotel Co. were each granted a license to sell intoxicating liquors for a period of one year from July 1st 1899 after each paying $250.00 to the treasurer of the village of St. Hilaire and $250.00 to the treasurer of School District No. 102 and giving a bond to be approved by the President of the village council.

On motion meeting adjourned.

Attest:— E. J. Holmes
J. L. Johnson, President.
Recorder.

Captain Hugh Thomason and his company of Rough Riders, which are the sensation of the day, who fought under three flags, will appear at every performance on the Hippodrome Track with the Walter L. Main Shows at Red Lake Falls July 20th and give the most novel and exciting exhibition that has ever been given to the public. They will be dressed as they were in Cuba, where they took part in the Battles of San Juan Hill, Daiquiri, Sibony and El Caney.

—For cuts and sores there is nothing better than the Imperial Carbolic salve.

—If you are troubled with rheumatism take the Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure. It will positively cure all diseases arising from impure blood, and is sold under an absolute guarantee to benefit or money refunded. Call for free sample at the New Drug Store.

WHERE WAS HE WEDDED?

The Records of His Marriage Leave Much to Conjecture.

"Although one of the most interesting events in Washington's private life, his wedding has been comparatively neglected by the majority of his biographers," writes William Perrins in the July Ladies' Home Journal. "It is generally agreed that the ceremony took place on the sixth of January (or the seventeenth of January, new style), 1759. But as to whether it was performed in St. Peter's Church, in New Kent County, or at the home of the bride, known as the 'White House,' there is a wide variance of opinion. The weight of local authority is against the belief that it occurred in the church nor is there any record in the church indicating that the couple were married there, although its rector, the Rev. Mr. Mossom who had been in the pulpit for forty years, solemnized the contract. On the other hand, those who insist that the clergyman officiated in the church point to accounts that Washington rode on horseback on the day of the wedding, and that the pair were attended by a bridal cavalcade, as evidence that there was a journey between the church and the home of the bride. This, however, is offset by the conjecture that the cavalcade was escorting the couple immediately after their marriage to Mrs. Custis' house in the town of Williamsburg, or to Mount Vernon, and that they were repairing thither to spend the honeymoon."

The Best Cough Remedy on Earth.

Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, Consumption Cure, cures a cold in 24 hours if taken in time and does not stop a cough in One Minute by paralyzing the throat, but it cures the disease and leaves the throat and lungs healthy and strong. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

From Farm, Stock and Home.

Good stacks, like good roads must have dry feet.

Make the noontimes a little longer and go to the fields a little stronger.

In hot weather the blinder is unusually annoying the cruel to the horse; take it off!

These are the days when the dwellers in groves, and the participants in ice houses vote tree planting and ice harvesting a success.

How beautiful to see the cattle comfortably ruminating in the shade you provided for them! As you look upon them you can truthfully say that you have not lived altogether in vain!

Mr. Carnagie retires from business with an income of $100,000 a week. He is a monumental example of what protective tariffs have done for at least one laboring man.

Ginger, molasses and water proportioned to suit the taste make an excellent hot weather drink in the field; and if some oat-meal is added it becomes victuals as well as drink.

A printing ink trust proposes to advance prices, but it should go that proposition one better and refuse to sell ink to papers that denounce trusts, then all other trusts will call that of printers ink blessed.

If the people of Cass Lake are compelled to leave their homes on account of being on the reservation—Mercer should be fired by the government and then horsewhipped by the residents of Cass Lake for not attending to his business at the proper time.

—To cure a cough or cold in one day take the Imperial Cough Syrup.

Misses Antionetta and Octova Lemay daughters of Mr. P. Lemay, who have been attending college at St. Louis, Mo, the past year are expected home to spend their summer vacation. They will return again the beginning of the term which is sometime in September.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

Eggs for Weak Stomachs.

Our cooking schools are teaching that eggs properly cooked are not only a most nourishing food, but what is of still more important to many, that they are very easily digested and assimilated. A number of instances are noted where persons simple starving to death because of indigestion, aggravated by taking many useless dyspepsia nostrum have been restored first to strength and then to health by simply confirming themselves wholly, or almost wholly, to a diet made up of raw or only slightly cooked eggs. Although in two cases these victims of indigestion and drugs where so far gone from downright starvation that their whole nervous system were shattered, and doctors were unable to build them up because there seemed absolutely no strength left upon which to build. They are simply taking a raw egg two or three times a day to begin with, soon able to take them slightly cooked and before long were sufficiently strong to grapple with and digest other food. Many unnecessary doctor bills could be saved and many a broken down constitution built up if more properly cooked eggs were used in place of the indigestible non-nutritious pies, cakes, etc., we now feed ourselves and our children.

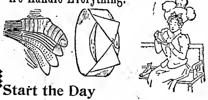
—A. H. Weagant, the hardware merchant, is now prepared to do all kinds of bicycle repairing in a satisfactory manner. If your bicycle is out of order brings it around to us.

Crookston College

Will open its 14th term September 11th 1899. The cheapest, best and most practical school in the northwest. Catalogue sent free. Address, Crookston College, Crookston, Minn.

—It is better than ready money because it cures rheumatism, constipation sick headache, indigestion. Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure.

We Handle Everything.



Start the Day Right

And everything will go smoothly. The proper way to start the day is by coming around to our store and ordering a supply of groceries for the day, such things as you may need. It will take you but a few minutes, and we feel sure you will not regret it.

Our Groceries

Are always fresh, and then the prices are as near right as we know how to make them. If you have not been in the habit of trading with us, drop in and see us anyway; you might get into the habit.

Hardware

We carry everything in the hardware line from cooking stoves down to tacks—all you have to do is to ask for what you want. If you want anything in the tin or copper line done drop into our tin shop and your wants will be attended to.

Yours very truly,
RAPP & POST
St. Hilaire, Minnesota.

M. A. HALL
DEALER IN DRY GOODS,
GROCERIES,
NOTIONS,
GENTS FURNISHING GOODS,
TOBACCO,
CIGARS,
CONFECTIONERY

A. H. WEAGANT
Having bought the business of Fred Eikhoff, I am now prepared to sell you anything in line of
HARDWARE AND TINWARE
CUTLERY, PAINTS & OILS,
Everything at Rock Bottom Prices. Come and see for yourself. Opposite Hotel Markham

LEONARD HOLMES,
—DEALER IN—
Agricultural Implements
WHEAT, FLAX OATS AND BARLEY.
Flour and Feed always on Hand.

Lumber! Lumber!
OF ALL KINDS.
We have a large and well assorted stock of Dry Lumber and are prepared to fill all orders on short notice. We also carry a complete assortment
—OF—
Sash, Doors, Paper
AND ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL
Which we buy in large quantities and are thereby enabled to sell at lowest market prices.
ST. HILAIRE LUMBER CO.

NEW MEAT MARKET.
L. M. ROLAND, Proprietor.
Fresh and Salted Meats.
Highest Market Price Paid for Hides.

L. K. KOLSTAD
DEALER IN
Boots and Shoes!
Repairing a Specialty.
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.

A Discouraged Outlook.

"Do you believe we ever shall have universal peace?"

"I'm afraid not"

"Why? Don't you think the nations can ever be got to agree to disarm?"

"Oh, I don't know. It may be possible to get them to do that, but men and women will probably keep on getting married."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Peace in the Philippines is bound to prove profitable. Warring conditions, whether in the Philippines or in the human stomach, are disastrous. If your stomach has rebelled, there is one authority that will subdue it. It is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and cures constipation, indigestion and dyspepsia. See that a private Revenue Stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

His Personal Opinion.

"Your sympathies are with Oom Paul?"

"They are," answered the Berlin citizen. "There's no use of Great Britain's coming around and telling me that a man who can drink a gallon of beer a day needs civilizing."—Washington Star.

Do Your Feet Ache and Burn?
Shake into your shoes, Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It makes tight and New Shoes feel Easy. Cures Corns, Bunions, Swollen, Hot and Sweating Feet. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

How They Managed It.

"And so you have finally succeeded in getting your husband to take the gold cure? I thought he always said he could quit drinking whenever he wanted to?"

"Yes, he did. We have just convinced him that he ought to take something to make him want to."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Binder Twine History.

The single strand binder twine, in general use today, was the original conception of Mr. William Deering of the Deering Harvester Co., Chicago. The value of the idea is apparent, since without it the modern twine binder would be impossible. The Deering Harvester Company is the largest manufacturer of binder twine in the world.

Such Grief.

(Overheard in "Commercial Road)—'Arriet—Would yer ha' bin sorry, Jim, if I'd kicked the bucket when I was took bad last month?

Jim—Sorry? Why, Lord luv yer, I'd sooner 'ad my grog stopped for a week!—London Fun.

Do Not Suffer!
Suffering is unnecessary. Cascarets Candy Cathartic kill disease germs, clean out the body, remove the first causes of suffering. All druggists 10c, 25c, 50c.

Fashionable.

"Is cannibalism common among you?" inquired the stranger, apprehensively.

"Common?" said the Pacific island belle, as she coyly dug her toe into the sand. "Not at all. We consider it very recherche."—Washington Star.

FITS Permanently Cured. No fits or nervousness after first day's use of Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. Send for FREE $2.00 trial bottle and treatise. Dr. R. H. Kline, Ltd., 931 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Dangerous.

Mrs. Stiles—I shall never invite Mr. Funniman to dinner again.

Mr. Stiles—Why not? He is a very entertaining chap.

Mrs. Stiles—That's just it. He tells such funny stories that he makes the butler laugh.—Harper's Bazar.

Hall's Catarrh Cure
Is a constitutional cure. Price, 75c.

More Than He Expected.

"Scribbler has a story accepted at last."

"Is it possible?"

"Yes; he went home last night with an awful yarn, and his wife believed it."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Scholarly.

He (in background)—Isn't that Mrs. Advanced Ideerze, the authoress? They say she is growing more scholarly and profound each year, that she has made wonderful advancement.

She (with the teacup)—Yes, indeed. Why, only three years ago she was quite agreeable.—Brooklyn Life.

Piso's Cure for Consumption has been a God-send to me.—Wm. B. McClellan, Chester, Florida, Sept. 17, 1895.

Burglar Wasn't Frightened.

Grimes—We had a burglar alarm put into our house, but it didn't work.

Willis—Didn't go off, you mean?

Grimes—Oh, it went off all right. But it didn't alarm the burglar in the least. It only frightened my wife half out of her senses.—Boston Transcript.

He Got Even.

She—I wouldn't marry you if you were the last man on earth.

He—You wouldn't have a chance. I'd surely have my pick then.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

Conditional.

Little Edgar—Pa, is the a in Colorado pronounced as in maiden or as in gladden?

Pa—It all depends upon whether you want to make Colorado rhyme with dado or shadow.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Bound to Be Good

Brown—Does that new restaurant get up a good meal?

Jones—Splendid—Even the proprietor dines there.—Ohio State Journal.

We never heard of husbands and wives quarreling about which loved the other most.

"He That Stays Does the Business."

All the world admires "staying power." On this quality success depends. The blood is the best friend the heart has. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best friend the blood ever had; cleanses it of everything, gives perfect health and strength.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

THOUSANDS KILLED.
Every Sheet
DUTCHERS' FLY KILLER
rids the house of thousands of Flies, thus affording peace while you eat and the comfort of a nap in the morning. Ask your Druggist or Grocer.
FRED'K DUTCHER DRUG CO., St. Albans, Vt.

WONDERFUL EXHIBITION

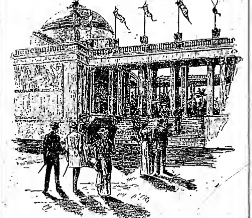
Some of the Great Features of the First Greater America Exposition.

THE SUPERB ELECTRICAL DISPLAY

From July 1 to November 1 the City of Omaha Will Welcome Visitors to a Magnificent Exhibition.

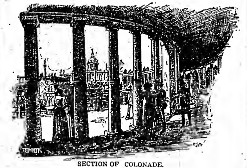
Since the institution of the first primitive fair for the exchange of wares among ancient tradesmen, it has been grander and more interesting than its immediate predecessors. The Greater America Exposition will be no exception to this rule. In the variety and novelty of its educational and amusement features it will without question surpass the exposition of 1898. Its exhibits are not only more numerous, but more novel and instructive than were those of a year ago. The amusement concessions, also more numerous, present many novelties and all are grander in design and proportions than those of any former exposition. The illuminations and pyrotechnical displays will be upon a scale of magnificence heretofore not atempted, and a line of special features and days is contemplated of almost sensational interest.

One of the crowning features of the exposition is the electrical illumination. The display of last year was conceded to be the most effective ever arranged, and that has been vastly improved upon. The exposition is grand and beautiful by day, but when darkness spreads its sable wings then a fairy city springs into existence, each outline defined, each tower and minaret clear cut and brilliant with myriad flashing stars of changing chimmering lights. Last year 30,000 electric lights were used in the illumination of the court of honor; this summer 5,400 lights flash and gleam from cornice and from arch, from balustrade to lofty spire, from pillared colonnade to guilded dome reared high in air.



ENTRANCE TO FINE ARTS BUILDING.

The splendid electrical fountain at the western end of the lagoon is a veritable rainbow of changing lights, now clearest green, and then from sprays and showers of crimson to all the colors of the rainbow mingled, shifting, changing, a dream of fleeting beauty. Around the court, gardens of tropical plants bloom by day and blossom yet more brilliant hues by night. Over 3,000 lights clustered and colored to represent the full-bloom flowers, lights the foliage and gives the effect of fairy gardens the like of which has never been equaled or approached. Concealed lights throw into bold relief each group and figure of statuary upon the buildings.



SECTION OF COLONADE.

The bluff tract has 3,000 more lights than last year and the horticultural building stands out in a blaze of radiant beauty. One hundred and eighty-seven additional arc lights have been placed about the grounds, some eighty of these around the now half-mile race track which has been built on the north tract and where races will be run at night. This is to be one of the novel features of the exposition.

Enough to say that the experience of last year has been utilized to the full, that the dark places have been touched as with the wand of a wizard, and that Electrical Superintendent Rustin has prepared a fairy scene brilliant and gorgeous beyond comparison.

In the mater of exhibits the First Greater America Colonial Exposition has been most fortunate. When the exposition was first talked of some doubt was expressed as to the possibility of securing a sufficient number of attractive exhibits to fill the immense buildings, but that doubt has been observed by the necessity of economizing space in order that all who applied might be accommodated. The United States government building contains a special exhibit. The entire contents of the famous Libby Prison War Museum are displayed. It is composed of the relics of the wars of this nation, and is of great historical importance and value. In one part of the building will be shown an immense collection of the relics and trophies of the late war with Spain; the campaign in Cuba and Porto Rico. From the Philippine islands will come four car loads of curious and interesting exhibits, relics of Dewey's famous victory, trophies of the war in and about Manila, and interesting objects collected from various parts of the islands. In addition to all this will be the regular government exhibit of life-saving apparatus, etc., and in a corner of the building the fisheries exhibit will be shown.

The display in all the principal buildings gives promise of far surpassing that of the Trans-Mississippi Exposition. Manufactures building is filled with a bewildering display, and there is demand for more space than can be found. In the way of live exhibits—that is, machinery in operation—it is probable that this exposition will surpass, in extent and variety, all previous efforts. Machinery Hall will be filled with this exhibit. Silk weaving from the beginning with the raw silk to the completion of the cloth; the manufacture of hats, from the raw material to the finished article; in short, a hundred different articles of commerce being made at the same time, and under one roof. In the electricity building will be seen all that is latest and most interesting in electrical apparatus and appliances; dynamos, telephone exchanges, exhibitions of lighting, heating and cooking. In brief, scores of interesting and curious things such as can only be found in a display of this kind, and which must be seen to be appreciated

The colonial exhibit will consist of many interesting articles of commerce, industry, and manufacture, from our foreign possessions. Implements of agriculture, arms, vehicles, native dress and ornaments, products, plants and fruits, are a few of the many interesting things now on the way from Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaiian Islands, and the far off Philippines. A large number of the natives of these several islands of the seas will be at the exposition, and will doubtless make one of the most interesting features of the great exhibition.

To those who are interested in the national question of imperialism the villages of the native islanders will be at once a revelation and a source of varied information. Whether the Filipino is capable of self-government or whether it is safe to offer his country a place in the sisterhood of states are questions best answered after a careful study of the man himself. In the native village he will live as in his island home. His dress, manners, customs, ceremonies and religious observances will not be added to nor detracted from, and the daily occupation by which he lives when at home will be faithfully adhered to. As he is across the sea so will he be in his village at the exposition, and those who earnestly seek enlightenment on a vexing question will as surely find it here as in those sea-girt islands of a tropic clime.

Every one who visited the World's Fair recalls the Streets of Cairo with its rich and elaborate architecture and furnishings. For the first time since the Columbian Exposition this amusement attraction will be shown this summer at the Greater America Exposition in Omaha with all of the features, furnishings and effects that marked its now famous presentation at Chicago.

PRESS BUILDING.

The Indian band from Tucson, Ariz., will be in attendance at the Exposition.

The Union Metallic Cartridge Co., of Bridgeport, Conn., will occupy 1,000 feet of space in Machinery and Electricity buildings with an elaborate exhibit in a monster glass and mahogany show case forty feet long, sixteen feet wide and about as high. This case is being made at a cost of $17,000 for the company's exhibit at Paris, but will be shown first at Omaha. The interior is divided into compartments by fine French plate mirrors and midway of its length the case is pierced by an arched passage way which is illuminated with many colored electric lights that project their rays over the exhibit.

BILIOUS-NESS

Do you get up with a headache?

Is there a bad taste in your mouth?

Then you have a poor appetite and a weak digestion. You are frequently dizzy, always feel dull and drowsy. You have cold hands and feet. You get but little benefit from your food. You have no ambition to work and the sharp pains of neuralgia dart through your body.

What is the cause of all this trouble?

Constipated bowels.

Ayer's PILLS

will give you prompt relief and certain cure.

Keep Your Blood Pure.

If you have neglected your case a long time, you had better take

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

also. It will remove all impurities that have been accumulating in your blood and will greatly strengthen your nerves.

Write the Doctor.

There may be something about your case you do not quite understand. Write the doctor freely: tell him how you are suffering. You will promptly receive the best medical advice. Address,

Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass.

A Suggestion.

I wonder why the iceman
Daily follows up his trail,
When he might with ease and comfort
Send the dainty bit by mail.
Philadelphia North American.

Manila Hemp Not Hemp at All.

One of the most valuable products of our new possessions, the Philippine Islands, is what is called Manila hemp, which is not hemp at all, but is obtained from a plant belonging to the plantain family. Trees of three years' growth yield only about two-thirds of a pound of fiber each; a bale of 270 pounds, therefore, represents the three years' production of about 400 trees. The Deering twine mills at Chicago consume an immense amount of this fiber, manufacturing one-third of all the binder twine used in America.

Undeniable.

"But," said the philosopher, "still water runs deep, you know."

"Well, what of it?" replied the pessimist. "I've seen rusty nails that did the same thing."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Uses Crude Oil.

The Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road is now using crude oil on its tracks, though not so extensively as lines which do not use crushed stone for ballast. There are many road crossings, stations, etc., where dust flies after the passage of fast trains, and these places are being heavily coated with oil. So far the results have been gratifying.

The Prisoner's Retort.

"I see villainy in your face," said a judge to a prisoner.

"May it please your honor," said the prisoner, "that is a personal reflection."—Metropolitan.

Are You Using Allen's Foot-Ease?
It is the only cure for Swollen, Smarting, Burning, Sweating Feet, Corns and Bunions. Ask for Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder to be shaken into the shoes. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Satan never gets tired of jollying people who imagine they are prize beauties.

Some tailors give customers fits, while others give them convulsions.

Two rooms just alike must be roommates.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N. Y.
For sale by all Druggists.—Price 50c. per bottle

ROYAL CONNOISSEURS

VICTORIA KNOWS THE HISTORY OF EVERY GEM.

Nothing That Has Belonged to Kings and Queens Is She Ignorant Of—Other Crowned Experts—One of the Peculiar Prerogatives of Royalty.

When the Queen gratifies a London dealer in precious stones by a command to attend at Windsor or Osborne he finds that he has to do with a shrewd, intelligent buyer. She has in her possession a wonderful collection of precious stones, among which is a marvelous green diamond of great value which has never been set. Her majesty has at her fingers' end the history of every famous stone which belongs to European royalty. Four beautiful and unrivaled sapphires, equal in size and luster to the one that glows in the crown of England, are the property of the Queen of Saxony. The Comtesse de Paris, too, possesses a magnificent parure of sapphires, coronet, necklace, bracelets, brooch and earrings. The stones are large and set with exquisite diamonds. The finest pearl necklace in the world belongs to the Countess Henckel, and is valued at more than 50,000 pounds. It is composed of three famous necklaces, each of great value in itself. One, known as the necklace of the Virgin of Atokha, was bought by the Countess from a Spanish grandee for 12,000 pounds. Another was once owned by Marie Sophie, ex-Queen of Naples, and the third was the Empress Eugenie's state necklace, which was sold for 20,000 pounds. The Queen of Italy also owns a superb necklace, consisting of several rows of pearls, which are so costly and so rare that her maids are obliged always to wear a part of the collection to aid her majesty in keeping the beautiful gems, pure, lustrous and healthy by constant contact with warm flesh. King Humbert buys the pearls for his wife, presenting her with one row each year, and he, like Queen Victoria, is an expert in jewels. These pearls are excelled only by those once in the possession of Queen Mary of Hanover, now the property of her daughter-in-law, the Duchess of Cumberland, which form a string more than six feet long. Every one of these lovely beads is an absolute match in shape and color. The late Empress of Austria possessed the best collection of black pearls in existence, as well as the biggest emerald, and a necklace of the same stones which is unrivaled. These emeralds are crown property, as are the pearls of Queen Margherita. The Empress of Russia wears, second to her royal grandmother, the largest diamond, and has also a collection of rubies of surpassing splendor, though the richest and most beautiful aggregation of precious stones is owned by the Russian church. All the Queens of Europe do not own jewels to half the value of those set in the statues, crosses altars and vestments at the Cathedrals of Moscow and St. Petersburg. The favorite wives of the Shah of Persia and the Sultan wear turquoises the like of which no Western Queen can boast. The Duchess of Westminster wears the largest and most perfect turquoise (being flawless) owned by any private person, and the Duchess of Sutherland is the happy possessor of the only complete necklace of black pearls.

VALUABLE JEWELS.

Worn in Curious Ways by Several Peculiar People.

Jewels set in teeth are occasionally heard of, but gold and precious stones set in the human body is a fad not extensively popular. A gentleman residing in Bombay wears a beautiful emerald, which, set in a rim of gold, is stitched by means of gold wire to the breast of the owner. Thus securely fastened, the green gem has rested under his shirt front for ten years. He considers it his lucky stone. Worn by a certain barrister is a ring that will not come off. It is a plain gold band of considerable thickness, a rivet of the previous metal piercing the ring and passing through the bone of the finger, is filed down on the opposite side. Nothing save amputation of the member would release him of the circlet. For sentimental reasons he wishes it to be his life-long and inseparable companion. Having a decayed part of his instep cut away, a wealthy invalid has had the crevice filled with gold. To appear ornamental the metal is shaped like a star, the center boasting a large diamond and a cluster of small rubies. Stitched to the skin of his waist is the gold chain belt sported by another extravagant being. The belt is two inches broad and eighteen stitches are necessary to secure it. In front a trio of fine chains dangle to the knees of the wearer, who is so proud of his decoration that he occasionally disrobes to reveal the permanent ornament to favored friends.—New York Journal.

To Be Trusted.

"Don't you think the American masses can be trusted to think out problems for themselves and arrive at sensible conclusions?" "There can't be any doubt of it," said the officeholder, "so far as the American masses in my own locality are concerned. They have been voting for me for years."—Washington Star.

What He Learned.

Father—Well, Johnny, what did you learn in school today?

Johnny (ruefully)—I found out that the teacher's got eyes in the back of her head.—The Rival.

Which One Governs.

"Now, then, government by conjunction——" You mean government by injunction." "No, I don't. I was thinking of matrimony." "Oh!"—Indianapolis Journal.

A Reason.

"Did that woman give any reason for attempting suicide?" "Yes, yer honor." "What was it?" "She says she wanted to kill herself."—Chicago Record.

A Cuban radish grown this year near Manacas weighed eight pounds.

BANANA CULTURE.

The Largest Bunches Contain Fruit of the Most Delicate Flavor.

When planted in new soil the banana does not require any plowing, but it does when the lands have been much used and have, of course, lost their natural state of porosity, says the States' Duty. When once the soil is ready, holes are made one yard in diameter, two or three yards distant from one another, and about one-half a yard deep. In rich lands and new lands no fertilizer is required, but otherwise a basketful of some kind is useful; a sprout is then planted, which in three months' time will grow to eight and ten feet high, and, nine months or a year after planting, according to the variety, will yield fruit in the form of a bunch, which will count as many sometimes as 200 bananas. In the first two years the weeds have to be removed, but afterward the shade will prevent their growth. In most places no water is required, but half a dozen irrigations a year will be enough in the driest lands. Once the plantation is in full growth and producing condition, it does not require more attention than the cleaning of the plants of their dry leaves and the keeping of all the detritus from the plants well gathered round the trunk to fertilize it, allowing plenty of space for the new sprouts to come out. Sometimes these come in such profusion that the expert laborer has to extirpate them and only allow a certain number to grow up. When the plantation is in full growth and production, the collecting of the fruit is constant, and every week the plantation can be gone through to collect the ripe bunches. As if nature had provided it, the largest bunches contain fruit of the most delicate flavor, with sweetness and fine pulp, and they also are those that keep the best, lasting for many days, thus giving sufficient time for transportation. The dry leaves and trunks of the plants are useful for paper manufacture. When the bunch of bananas is ripe the tree or stalk, often ten inches in diameter and twenty feet high, is cut down with a single stroke of the machete; the stump dies, but numerous sprouts are ready to take its place, and the plantation constantly renews itself. Many are in good production for half a century or more, and wherever there is suitable transportation for so heavy a crop it is very profitable. The trunks are cut in pieces and piled round the tree for fertilizing.

DOG STORIES.

Some Canines That Had a Mania for Burying Things.

A mongrel terrier, excessively devoted to his mistress, was very jealous of her love for the kitten. Often when the latter had been caressed by the lady the former would go off and scratch a hole in the garden, and then fetching the kitten, would bury it therein. To prevent the kitten forcing its way out, the terrier would post himself upon the grave, and so, unhappily for his purpose, would guide to the speedy rescue of the latter by its friends. Once he chose a pail of soot for the death tomb. At other times the dog and the kitten were good friends and playmates. Another dog this time a spaniel, resentful of the importation of a tortoise, which her master bad bought for his children and given the range of the lawn, determined to put her rival to death by the same method. Very shortly after its coming, both the dog and the tortoise could nowhere be found. Presently the dog returned with her paws covered with earth; not so the tortoise. Suspicious of the spaniel, her master coaxed her to come and look for it, when she guiltily drew off to the garden and stopped before a small mound of earth which, when removed with a stick, revealed the tortoise. He who hides can find. Perhaps I may add a story of a Skye. He, too, belonged to the owner of the terrier, the culprit of the first story. The Skye's favorite place was as it should be, at his mistress' feet. He was generally quite well behaved but would have lost his character one day had he been without excuse. The Skye was running in front of his mistress and her husband and suddenly surprised them by flying at a poor girl and holding her prisoner. When they came to her rescue they found her to be a child to whom had been given a pair of the Skye's mistress' shoes. To secure what he deemed to be a thief of his mistress' property, and the shoes that had so tenderly rubbed him was clearly his duty, and he did it.—London Spectator.

The Sale of Vailima.

Robert Louis Stevenson's house where he spent so many happy years of the latter part of his life, and which was pillaged by the Samoan warriors during the late trouble in the islands, has been sold. It was here also that the late king of Samoa, Malietoa Laupepa, died. Vailima is a most charming residence, situated at some little distance out of Apia, and just below the peak upon which is Stevenson's grave, up to which a right of way has been reserved. The buyer is a wealthy German speculator from Honolulu, and the price was £1,700. Conan Doyle was asked, it is said, by Stevenson to visit him at Samoa, and replied that he did not know the way. "Oh, said Stevenson, "you go to America, cross to San Francisco, and then take the second turning to the left."—The Sketch.

Enlarged Prerogatives.

From the Chicago Tribune: "Has the changing of the name of your girls' club to 'Bachelor Girls' Club' made any difference in your way of conducting it?"—"No, only we hold regular 'smokers' now."

Tissue Paper.

Tissue paper is so called from the use it was put to when it was originally made, which was to place between gold or silver tissue cloth to prevent its tarnishing when folded.

Mercenary.

"My face is my fortune, sir," she said. "But I prefer figures," said he, "instead."

What a Little Faith Did FOR MRS. ROCKWELL.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 69,551]

"I was a great sufferer from female weakness and had no strength. It was impossible for me to attend to my household duties. I had tried everything and many doctors, but found no relief.

"My sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did; before using all of one bottle I felt better. I kept on with it and to my great surprise I am cured. All who suffer from female complaints should give it a trial."—MRS. ROCKWELL, 1209 S. DIVISION ST., GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.

From a Grateful Newark Woman.

"When I wrote to you I was very sick, had not been well for two years. The doctors did not seem to help me, and one said I could not live three months. I had womb trouble, falling, ulcers, kidney and bladder trouble. There seemed to be such a drawing and burning pain in my bowels that I could not rest anywhere. After using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash and following your advice, I feel well again and stronger than ever. My bowels feel as if they had been made over new. With many thanks for your help, I remain, L. G., 74 ANN ST., NEWARK, N. J."

Had More Than One Reason.

Anxious Mother—Why don't you drive that bad boy away from your playground?

Good Little Boy—It wouldn't be right.

"Wouldn't it?"

"No, ma. You see that playground is public property."

"Oh, is it?"

"Yes, ma; an' it would be selfish an' dishonest to deprive any other boy of the right to go there."

"So it would, my angel. I didn't think of that."

"Yes, ma; and, besides, he can lick me."—Pearson's Weekly.

PATENTS.

List of Patents Issued Last Week to Northwestern Inventors.

Benson Hegletz, Brainerd, Minn., violin; Gustav O. Hoen, Maynard, Minn., water motor; Marshall B. Lloyd, Minneapolis, Minn., oil can cover; Andrew A. Nilson and J. J. Ven, Elk Point, S. D., three-row corn stalk cutter; Ernest Sorensen, Camden Place, Minn., perpetual calendar; William T. Saunders, St. Paul, Minn., controlled holding and locking device; Andrew F. Venn, Brainerd, Minn., bicycle fastener; Ellis J. Woolf, Minneapolis, Minn., air and gas engine.

Merwin, Lothrop & Johnson, Patent Attorneys, 910 Pioneer Press Bldg., St. Paul.

He Knew He Would.

Spacer—I believe that if Shakespeare were alive at the present time, and trying to live by his pen in London, the comic papers would reject many of his best jokes.

Humorist—I know it. I've tried 'em all.—Boston Traveler.

Self Precluded From Disparagement.

The attorney for the plaintiff, in an action for killing a dog, said: "Gentlemen of the jury, he was a good dog, a fine-appearing dog, a valuable dog, and it does not lie in the mouth of the defendant to say he was a worthless cur, because it is in evidence before you that on one occasion he offered $5 for one of his pups."—Case and Comment.

Kept His Vow.

The Lady—I don't believe you would work if you could.

Dismal Dawson—I'd do any kind of work that didn't interfere with my principles. I had a chanst to be a waiter onst, only I'd swore a solemn oath never to wear a spike-tail coat.—Indianapolis Journal.

Not meant for a drinking song—"Steady, Boys, Steady."

STOCK RAISERS
Will find it greatly to their advantage, if before purchasing a farm, they will look at the country along the line of the
Saint Paul & Duluth Railroad
DAIRY FARMERS
Who desire the best Clover and Timothy land, in a district which can boast of a fine climate, good pure water, rich soil, fine meadows, and near to the markets of St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth and Superior should apply immediately by letter or in person to
WM. P. TROWBRIDGE,
Asst. Land Commissioner,
St. Paul & Duluth R. R.
Box U—903 Globe Bldg., St. Paul Minn.

As Black as Your DYE Your Whiskers
A Natural Black with Buckingham's Dye.
50 cts. of druggists or R. P. Hall & Co., Nashua, N. H.

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
REGULATE THE LIVER

INVENTORS
Send to-day for our handsomely engraved 75th anniversary work on patents FREE.
MASON, FENWICK & LAWRENCE,
Patent Lawyers. Washington, D. C.

PENSION JOHN W. MORRIS, Washington, D. C.
Successfully Prosecutes Claims.
Late Principal Examiner U S Pension Bureau.
3 yrs in civil war, 15 adjudicating claims, atty since.

WANTED—Case of bad health that R I P A N S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimonials.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water.

When Answering Advertisements Kindly Mention This Paper.

PISO'S CURE FOR
CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS.
Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists.
CONSUMPTION

Minnesota Historical Society

MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR.

VOLUME XVIII. ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY, JULY 12, 1899. NUMBER 50

"PROSPERITY" TALK

IN CONNECTION WITH STATE AND NATIONAL POLITICS.

People Looking in Vain for the Real Article, and Very Greatly Disgusted With the Trust and Combine Sort. Trust Prices Versus Farm Products. The Real Situation—National Politics—Old Kaintuck Leads Off for Bryan—His Renomination by Acclamation—State Politics—Governor Lind's Sixteen-Inch Shot on the Railroad Bill Veto—State Capitol Notes—Twin City Politics. Mayor Gray's "Get There"—Return of William Henry Eustis' Guaranty Loan President—The Flour Mill Trust a Go After All—Note and Comment of the Week.

Reform Press Bureau.
St. Paul, July 6, 1899.

While the Fourth of July fireworks are either sputtering or leaving their "bad taste in the mouth," it is a good time to reflect on the political situation, and what the people are "going to do about it" nationally. But what a dampener it has been to the true spirit of patriotism, that while we celebrate the possession of liberty our brave soldiers in a far distant clime, are loyally obeying the commands of officers set over them, are destroying a people struggling for their own liberty which they had well nigh won from Spain when America stepped in and claimed them and theirs for our own.

What the people want to get at is the actual condition of things. Each person knows his individual situation, but not much about that of the community at large until he investigates. Each individual knows how much his salary has been increased or reduced, as the case may be, and each business man knows the increase or loss in his average profits. Everybody knows that there has been an immense arbitrary, if not artificial increase in the price of articles of manufacture, combine and trust controlled. This has stimulated the benefited concerns until they cry "prosperity." There has been much much stimulation of most lines by the enormous war expenditures of the last year, estimated to be $350,000,000 or less. Without both of these, what, let us ask, would be the condition of the country?

What has there been, besides these agencies, to improve general conditions? Only in the concerns possessing enormous special privileges or advantages, like the trusts, under tariff protection, street railways possessing their franchises, untaxed, as bonuses; lumber, specially protected, and the like, have labor and general employes had pay increased. Merchants, with raise after raise on their trust goods, and profits thus made less, have not been and will not be able to increase salaries, nor will farmers nor general employers of labor. Skilled labor is able by dint of the most rigid organization, which employers would break if they dared, or knew how, are able to a degree to maintain scales. They cannot long maintain them, however, when the increased cost of trust materials leaves no profit to those who employ them.

But our producers, almost without exception, are as deep in the slough as ever. Prices for what they sell are at a standstill, or going the other way, while all that they have to buy is up in trust price. The Government commission developed testimony that the productive industries of the South were never at so low state before, in their staples of cotton, corn, grain, tobacco, etc. Cotton is the lowest known, about 4 cents a pound. But why go to the South, or East, or the West, for what is the case with our own home producers? We find that the following have been the average prices realized for Minnesota products during the past six months at the home markets at an average interior distance: Wheat 56 cents, oats 17, corn 18, barley 23 to 25, flax 87, hogs $2.80 to $3.10, and until recently, butter 11 to 13, and eggs 7 to 9 cents.

State Senator Valentine Batz of Stearns county, who is a large country merchant, brought a car load of hogs to market, for which he paid farmers $3. He sold them fairly well, but had little profit after the heavy freight was paid. Speaking on this very subject Senator Batz said: "I have not been able to pay farmers any more, nor so much for their produce, but have had to raise, over and over again, the goods I sell them, because raised on me daily. I ordered a carload of lath, and it cost me $1.90 per M, when the last notice was $1.30. A carload of shingles that should have been $2.10 was $2.39. Barbed wire that used to be $1.75 was $3, and so on. More for everything you have to buy, and less for what you have to sell, and less and less margins on the business you do."

Senator Batz said that while he was not talking politics he found mighty few in his part of the state who are fascinated with the McKinley article of "prosperity."

A leading organ of latter-day Republicanism boastingly remarks that "all legislation hostile to trusts has originated with the Republican party; that no other political organization is entitled to even the slightest share in the credit for its enactment. Admitted. The character of legislation is always to be determined by its fruits; likewise the amount of credit or blame to be attached to its authors. The Republican party, therefore, is welcome to whatever glory can come from the anti-trust legislation of the past. Under this legislation the trusts have grown fat and arrogant. Nearly everything that money can buy or that the crushing power of ruinous competition can confiscate, has been brought under the ban of their domineering control. Even the Republican party, the author of all this supposedly hostile legislation, has been graciously adopted into the family circle and made to feel strong in its intimate relationship. Small enterprises have been paralyzed; healthful competition threatened with absolute extinction. The individual has been swallowed up in the whirlpool of combination.

For all this the allied forces cheerfully accord credit to those to whom it is due—the statesmen of the Republican party.

"Man first, property afterward." That was one of the principles upon which the Republicanism of Lincoln was grounded. "Property first, man afterward" threatens to be the rock upon which the party of Hanna will go to pieces.

Very great interest is felt, especially among old soldier Republicans, in the Hanna fight on Foraker in Ohio. The pension administration of McKinley has completely sickened the said old soldiers, and this onslaught on Foraker adds to their disgust. The Hannaites will marshall mighty few of them, in Minnesota, next year on the present outlook. Captain Van Sant should make a note of this.

And speaking of pension matters, Congressman Fletcher of Hennepin, who has always prided himself on his "pension pull," is said to have given up the fight, admitting that he is able to get no consideration at all from McKinley's pension Mikado, one Henry Clay Evans.

Kentucky leads off for Bryan, free coinage, anti-imperialism and anti-trusts, and with a Goebel-er as the candidate for Governor. This programme will undoubtedly Goebel the persimmons.

The shot that Governor Lind fired on Republican criticism of his veto of the railroad and warehouse bill has been almost sensational in its effects. There has been more g. o. p. mouthing over that veto than any of Mr. Lind's acts since he was installed as Governor. Senator Miller of the Luverne Herald, author of the vetoed bill, led the way, and what he did not originally suggest by way of charges and innuendo was rapidly supplied by his exchanges. Time after time this Bureau was jabbed at as to why it did not explain the veto, etc. This had been done in substance at the time and after, but in the meantime Governor Lind was simply giving his assailants "more rope." Then when time and opportunity presented he responded with the broadside which has been so widely published. Senator Miller retracted, and with the retraction which the governor so peremptorily demanded, makes the statement that he, the senator, was not the author of the bill, but that it was drawn by the Republican member of the grain and warehouse commission, Judge Mills. As Governor Lind shows that the measure is directly in the interests of the railroad companies themselves, and clearly a "woodchuck," it is in order for Judge Mills and Senator Miller, as Governor Lind demands of the latter, to explain where the thing came from anyhow. At any rate it is a good place to leave the bill, Senate File 24, between these two Republican state officials. And we will see them all later.

After all the McIntyre flour trust is a go in Minneapolis, McIntyre having secured several of the mills, enough for a nucleus, and the rest will come duly. Now watch Attorney General Douglass "go for 'em," under the Tawney law.

The retirement of Executive Clerk Hon. W. H. Angell from the state capitol is a change under Governor Lind concerning which only the most pleasant things are to be said. Mr. Angell has faithfully served through several administrations, and Governor Lind had no desire for any change, but Mr. Angell resigned to accept a Federal position in the Cherokee Nation with Commissioner Tams Bixby. All who know him, and the number in this state is legion, follow him with good wishes.

It is believed that Governor Lind has made an equally valuable selection in Mr. Angell's successor, Hon. Eugene Rice of Owatonna, but who has for some time resided in St. Paul.

From the moment of his return Menage held receptions to his friends in Mr. Lowry's Guaranty Loan building, which Menage built with other people's money. Joe Mannix, former private secretary to Director Eustis when the latter was Mayor of Minneapolis, writes in the Pioneer Press that Menage is back on account of representations of friends that there was little danger of prosecution, and Mr. Mannix says that there seems to be very little sentiment against the man; that to go into the case now would be unpleasant to prominent men formerly associated with Menage. In fact, it is dollars to doughnuts that he will never be tried at all, much less tried and given merited punishment.

The names of those attending the Menage receptions at Minneapolis do not seem to include such Guaranty Loan victims as Bank of Zumbrota depositors, Banker Scanlon of Lanesboro, Editor Wall of Ortonville, nor the Vermont colony? What's the matter. Were they not notified of the home coming of the financier.

Hooray for Guaranty Loan and other "sound money" of the Menage and Jayne "issue."

The McKinley administration proposes to wipe the promising town of Cass Lake from the face of the earth by the sweeping order (given without warning) for all whites to leave the reservation within 30 days. As the Sioux Falls Press observes whites are carried off lands in Minnesota while the Indians are ordered off in the Philippines. No doubt each and every Cass Laker has great and increasing respect for the administration of McKinley, Hanna and Alger.

G. S. C.

TO WIN THEM OVER

AMERICANS NEGOTIATING WITH PROMINENT FILIPINOS.

Negotiations Which Promised to Result in Bringing Over a Prominent General and Several Hundred of His Followers Result in Failure—Similar Negotiations Are Being Conducted With a Member of Aguinaldo's Cabinet—Money Consideration at the Bottom of It.

Manila, July 6, via Hongkong, July 10.—Friendly Filipinos in Manila have been the medium of communication between the American authorities and the military leaders of the insurrection in Cavite province, which for some time promised to result in bringing over a prominent general and several hundred of his followers with their arms. If the negotiations had succeeded the outcome would have had a great moral effect, for other defections doubtless would have followed. Were the general's name given it might lead in his case to a fate similar to that which has befallen other Filipinos suspected of friendliness toward the Americans. He had foreseen the failure of the insurrection and advised Aguinaldo to make terms, but it is understood that he has sent word to the Americans that, having sworn to support the insurrection, he must maintain loyal to the end. Similar negotiations are said, on good authority, to have been conducted with a member of the cabinet of the so-called Filipino government, who, himself, took the initiative. Some form of money consideration figured in the discussion with his friends.

RAINY SEASON ON.

Soldiers in the Philippines Suffering Great Discomfort.

Manila, July 10.—It has been raining and storming almost constantly for two days, and the country along the American south and bay lines is literally flooded. The soldiers are suffering great discomfort. The Thirteenth infantry regiment at Pasay is in the worst position, being practically surrounded by water. The bridges that were used for getting supplies have been washed away and some of the companies are now separated by streams six feet deep. In many cases the men are sleeping with three feet of water beneath their bunks, which are elevated on cracker boxes. The company cooks when preparing meals stand knee deep in water. Some of the roads leading to Pasay are simply impassable and the rice fields on all sides are one great lake. A high wind blew over several tents of the Second reserve hospital. Manila bay is impossible of navigation by either launches or canoes and no vessels are leaving the harbor. The United States transport Centennial is ready to sail for San Francisco with discharged soldiers, but the latter have to stand around the water front all day, drenched to the skin, waiting for a launch to take them to the steamer. The River Pasig and all other streams are swollen and the city at low points is covered with water.

NAMING THE OFFICERS.

War Department Preparing the List of Appointments for New Regiments.

Washington, July 10.—The war department officials are busily engaged in preparing the list of appointments of officers not already announced for the ten new regiments of infantry to be organized for service in the Philippines. Approximately there are nearly five hundred of these in all, including those of the line and staff. The colonels for nine of the regiments have already been made public, but the selection for the tenth, it is said, has not been definitely determined. All the officers for the regiments are to be from the regular army establishment and from among those who saw actual service in the Spanish war and whose records and capacity are known at the war department. A large proportion of them are expected to be announced during the early days of the week.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.

Young Lady Believed to Have Been Kidnaped.

Atlanta, Ga., July 10.—Miss Henrietta Cropp, the sixteen-year-old daughter of a prominent insurance man of this city, mysteriously disappeared from the home of H. O. Underwood, four miles from Atlanta, Saturday afternoon. A party of thirty men, assisted by Atlanta detectives, have failed to find the least trace of the missing girl. It is believed she has been kidnaped. It is reported that a carriage was seen near the Underwood home Saturday afternoon, but the disappearance could not have been an elopement as Miss Cropp was attired only in a house dress and slippers.

FRENCH ARE INCENSED

At the Change of Attitude of British Warships.

St. John's, N. F., July 10.—The mail steamer Grobt Lake, which arrived from the French shore reports that the French are thoroughly incensed at the change of attitude of the British warships which prevent any further oppression of the people living along the shore. The Newfoundland authorities have information that French vessels are trading along the coast from St. Pierre with forged American and Canadian registers. They deceive the revenue officials and escape seizure.

ANOTHER FEUD VICTIM.

Deputy Sheriff Stubblefield Dies From Wounds Inflicted by One of the Bakers.

London, Depot, Ky., July 10.—Deputy Sheriff James Stubblefield, who was shot by Mart Smith, died in Manchester. Smith continues at large, with the Whites after him. Stubblefield and Smith had bad reputations as fighters. The former belonged to the White-Howard faction and the latter is a Baker sympathizer.

BRITISH YACHTSMEN EXCITED.

They Say the Shamrock Will Take the Cup.

Southampton, July 10. — Yachting circles in the Solent were never more excited than now over the prospects in the forthcoming race for the America's cup between the Shamrock and the Columbia. Yesterday yachtmen could be seen in all directions, and in Southampton, Hythe, Calshot and Cowes the keenest lookout was kept for the challenger, which it was known would stretch her sails. Every movement was veiled with profoundest secrecy, and, owing to the rumors in circulation that her sails were unsatisfactory the interest was intensified. Newspaper men and photographers gathered in large numbers and would have given anything to know the programme, but nothing was given out. In Southampton water the Shamrock presented a magnificent sight. The slight breeze was just enough to fill her sails, but she glided speedily and as gracefully as a swan. A member of the crew said to the correspondent of the Associated Press: "The Shamrock will do what she is built for and will beat the Yankee. She sailed admirably, without a hitch, and answered her helm to perfection, which is one of the greatest considerations. We are going to win, but it is impossible yet to judge of the yacht's full capacity." Sir Thomas Lipton expressed himself as satisfied with the boat.

COLUMBIA BEATS DEFENDER.

The Superiority Is Now Certainly Established.

New York, July 10.—At last the big sloop yachts Columbia and Defender have met in a battle royal that has satisfied all concerned. In a strong and fairly steady breeze and smooth water they sailed over a course of about twenty-six miles, and in covering the distance Columbia fairly and squarely outsailed Defender by three minutes and fifteen seconds actual time. If Columbia, after measurement, is found to allow Defender two minutes she will still have beaten her by one minute and fifteen seconds. That means that she can beat her now over a full thirty-mile course by at least two minutes corrected time, and that when she is tuned up, say by the September races, she will easily beat her five minutes, which is all that is required of her.

RUNAWAY AUTOMOBILE.

Horseless Vehicle in Boston Has the Tantrums and Does Considerable Damage.

Boston, July 10.—For the first time in this city there was an automobile runaway. It took place on Dartmouth street. The driver, Arthur Cooper, was not as familiar with the machine as he might have been. He turned the carriage into Dartmouth street from Copley square all right, crossed to the right hand side of the street and ran smoothly over the railroad bridge. Then the carriage suddenly turned into the curb, striking a lamp post and leveling the post to the ground. Cooper was thrown off and somewhat bruised, and the battery that furnished power for the vehicle bestrewed the sidewalk. The vehicle was without a passenger.

PLATFORM FELL.

Serious Accident at a Cornerstone Laying.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 10. — During the laying of the corner stone of a Jewish synagogue at the corner of Woodland avenue and Jackson street a platform on which about thirty people were standing, fell, precipitating most of the people into a pit below, a distance of several feet. Nobody was killed. Rabbi S. Drechsler, Rabbi Hahn and Judge J. C. Bloch and son were quite seriously hurt and a boy named Cohen had his leg broken. The accident caused intense excitement. At first it was believed several persons had been killed.

Negro Lynched.

Alma, Kan., July 10.—Dick Williams, a negro charged with the murder to two white men, was lynched here yesterday afternoon by a mob of white men. The mob left the negro hanging to a telegraph pole and six minutes later he was cut down by the town marshal and taken back to the county jail, where he recovered consciousness. The negro is still alive, but cannot recover.

Short in His Accounts.

Philadelphia, July 10. — The disappearance last week of William Young, a real estate dealer of this city, has brought to light the fact that he is about $10,000 short in his accounts with his clients. A warrant for his arrest has been issued and the sheriff has seized his property to satisfy creditors.

D'Orleans Will Bow.

Paris, July 10. — Prince Henri d'Orleans writes as follows to the Matin: "I will bow before the decision of the Rennes court martial as I did before that of the court-martial of 1894. France, relieved of this abcess, will be able to resume her glorious role."

Crisis Has Passed.

Rome, July 10.—The pope has been in correspondence with President Kruger, appealing to him to avoid a rupture with Great Britain, and has received a dispatch stating that a settlement was still distant, but that the crisis was passed.

Anxious to Get Away.

Washington, July 10.—Gen. Wheeler sails for Manila from San Francisco on the 20th. He was at the war department Saturday, anxious to get away at the earliest possible moment. Gen. Wheeler called upon the president and bade him good by.

High Treason Charged.

Pretoria, July 10. — The Transvaal government has decided to prosecute, on a charge of high treason, the three principal defendants whose complicity, in the recent attempt to precipitate a rebellious rising at Johannesburg has been for several weeks under judicial investigation.

Maj. Wainright Dead.

Washington, July 10.—Maj. Samuel A. Wainwright, formerly of the United States army, died in this city. He was seventy-one years old.

ALASKAN BOUNDARY.

FAIRBANKS-FOSTER PARTY HAS INVESTIGATED.

They Have Firmly Set Ideas as to Where the Line Should Be Run—Canadians Hope to Get Concessions Which Will Give Them a Port of Entry Into the Klondike Gold Fields—Lynn Canal the Key to the Situation—Senator Foster Reviews the Situation.

Tacoma, Wash., July 10.—The Fairbanks-Foster Alaskan boundary party returned from the north yesterday and interviews with members of the party indicate that the water shed on White Pass, back of Skaguay and Dyea will be accepted as the international boundary line at that point. The White and Chilkoot passes constitute the storm center of the Alaskan boundary. At these points the Canadians hope to secure concessions that will enable them to anchor down a port of entry into the Klondike gold fields. All other parts of the country thereabouts where concessions are looked for are of little importance compared with the Lynn canal, which is the key to the situation. Senator Fairbanks, when interviewed, placed importance on the fact that he must sit with the joint high commission in August, but declined to state what lines of argument he would take up. He expressed great satisfaction with the trip. As to the boundary matter Senator Foster refused to speak.

"Personally," he said, "I am opposed to yielding an inch of territory. Investigation, however, shows that there may be a different interpretation placed upon treaties regarding channels, the character of lesser islands and the like. But in the main the United States is plainly given a strip of land north of the Portland canal or thereabouts, ten marine leagues inland, except where a well defined mountain range places the boundary nearer to the coast. This strip, running to Mount St. Elias and ending at the passes of the watershed back of Skaguay and Dyea, is the boundary line. Below this is the Lynn canal and the Klondike. Between these two points there is a chain of mountains, in the opinion of some bringing the boundary line some eighteen miles nearer the coast. This seems to be a fair expression of the American view of the boundary question. By this construction of the treaty it is held England will receive the benefit of every point that can be fairly granted. On the other hand, however, the Canadians and many of the English hold that the boundary should be drawn thirty miles, or ten marine leagues, inland from the headlands. By such a construction of course Lynn canal would be an inlet into Canadian territory and ten marine leagues inland from the headlands at the entrance would be many miles south of Skaguay and the headland, hence in Canada, and England would have the coveted port of entry without a question of doubt. As I look upon it, personally, Lynn canal is a part of the ocean, therefore it would be unfair to draw a line thirty miles inland from the entrance to bodies of water of that nature and call it the boundary under the treaty."

BIG INDIAN POW-WOW.

Redskins Holding Their Annual Festivities in Nebraska.

Decatur, Neb., July 10.—The annual Indian pow-wow opened at this place yesterday. This is the big event among the redskins in this part of the country, and there were a number on hand yesterday to enter upon the festivities which will last for two weeks. Delegations from the Omaha reservation and some from the South Dakota tribes have been coming in for several days, and there are not less than 200 aborigines present. They have brought their tents with them and these make quite a village perched out on the prairie. The big man is Yellow Smoke, a noted chief who resides on the Omaha reservation, and the ceremonies are being conducted near his lodge. Chiefs and squaws take part in the pow-wow and are having a great time with their incantations and dances. Thus far the Indians are peaceable and there is little probability of trouble.

INCREASES ITS CAPITALIZATION.

Wisconsin Central Adds $5,000,000 to Its Capital Stock.

Madison, Wis., July 10. — The reorganization committee, which purchased the entire Wisconsin Central system for $7,300,000 at Eau Claire Friday, filed with the secretary of state Saturday an amendment to the company's articles of incorporation increasing the capital stock from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000. Of this stock $12,500,000 is preferred and $17,500,000 common. The state receives $15,000 for recording the amendment.

Woman for Prison Chaplain.

Laramie, Wyo., July 10.—Mrs. May Preston Slosson, a graduate of Vassar and wife of one of the professors of the state university, has been appointed chaplain of the state penitentiary at this place. Mrs. Slosson is a member of the Presbyterian church.

Accident to a Circus.

Pierre, S. D., July 10.—One of the cars of the Main circus containing animal cages was overturned in the yards here, creating a great deal of excitement. Fortunately none of the cages broke open and the damage was only nominal.

Sounds Warlike.

London, July 10. — A special from Rome says that the German steamer Reichstag has sailed from Naples with 15,000 rifles, 500 tons of war material and 500 mules for the Transvaal. Another similar cargo will go July 14.

Town in Danger.

Milwaukee, July 10.—A special from Montello, Marquette county, says that town is threatened with destruction. Montello has about 900 inhabitants. Fire engines have been sent from Portage.

TO PROTECT THE FORESTS.

An Association With That Object Will Soon Be Formed.

Chicago, July 10.—The Times-Herald says: A national park or forestry reserve association for the governmental preservation of over 7,000,000 acres of land in Northern Minnesota will be formed in Chicago this month. The organization starts with the cordial indorsement of Gov. Roosevelt of New York; James J. Hill, of the Great Northern railroad; Col. James Cooper of this city and prominent congressmen and government officials interested in the immediate creation of great national reserves for the preservation of native forests and streams and the perpetuation of the game of the land. The protection of the forests is made double important as the friends and promoters of the reserve have also in view the placing under governmental charge all the lands surrounding the headwaters of the historic Mississippi river. The tract includes the Leech lake district and embraces the counties of Crow Wing, Aitken, Wadena, Hubbard, Beltrami and Itasca, containing over a thousand lakes.

VESSELS WENT ASHORE.

Gale on Lake Erie Imperils the Shipping.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 10.—Three vessels went ashore Saturday night during the gale on Lake Erie. They were the schooners George H. Warmington and Sophia Minch and the steamer Sequin. The Warmington and Minch were in tow of the steamer John N. Glidden. They left Ashtabula early in the evening on their way up the lake. Several miles west of Ashtabula the Glidden cut loose from the two schooners and they were permitted to drift ashore. It was after midnight before the life saving crew got to the wrecks. The crew of the Minch, consisting of six men and one woman, was taken off. The crew of the Warmington remained on board during the night. The Sequin tried to brave the storm, but her wheel broke and she drifted to the beach in the trough of the sea, her crew remaining on board. The three vessels are hard and fast aground, but it is believed the Sequin and Warmington can be saved without trouble, and possibly the Minch can be pulled off also.

SIX MEN KILLED.

Terrible Railroad Crossing Accident at Columbus.

Columbus, Ohio, July 10. — All but one of the seven members of the family of William Reinhard of this city were killed and the remaining one was badly injured by a Big Four passenger train. The accident occurred at the Woodward avenue crossing of the railroad. Mr. and Mrs. Reinhard and their five children were out for a drive. They arrived at the railroad crossing just as the west-bound passenger train was due. The carriage was struck by the train and knocked into splinters, and Mr. and Mrs. Reinhardt and Arthur and Karl were killed outright. Edward and William were so badly injured that they died shortly after. Clarence sustained severe injuries but it is believed he will recover. The horse was literally ground to pieces.

Collision With Strikers.

Pueblo, Colo., July 10.—Efforts have been made by the striking smeltermen to induce the men now working at the Eilers smelter, one of the trust plants, to quit. A collision occurred between the guards at the smelter and a crowd of strikers who tried to gain entrance to confer with the workmen. Several men were roughly handled but none seriously hurt. All is quiet now.

Famine in Jamaica.

Kingston, Jam., July 10.—The severe protracted drouth in Southern Jamaica is causing widespread distress and alarm. The failing water supply of Kingston necessitates a curtailment of the service to eighteen hours daily. The coffee, orange and corn crops are almost destroyed and the destruction of the natives' provision crop is causing a famine.

Reforms in the Transvaal.

Pretoria, July 10.—After an all-day secret session the volksraad appointed a committee of five to draft a franchise reform bill. The government proposals comprise a revision of the registration act and provides for Uitlanders obtaining the franchise by nine years' residence. They are to be allowed to exercise the right immediately.

Murder Traced to the Son.

Tuscumbia, Ala., July 10. — A. E. Weatherford, an engineer on the Southern railway, was assassinated while asleep in a passenger coach here early yesterday morning. Bloodhounds took the scent and traced it to the home of a son of the murdered man, who strongly denied having committed the crime. He was arrested.

A Lover Kills Himself.

Allentown, Pa., July 10. — Charles Knauss, aged eighteen, shot and seriously wounded Mrs. Edwin Dieffenderfer, aged twenty-three, and then shot and killed himself. The lady was trying to break up Knauss' infatuation for her and refused to elope with him, which made him desperate. She has a husband and two children.

Power From the Axle.

Trenton, N. J., July 10.—The Electric Axle Light and Power company, with an authorized capital of $25,000,000, has been incorporated. The company is formed for the purpose of lighting, heating, ventilating and refrigerating railroad cars by means of an electric current generated by the revolution of the car axle.

Peace Congress Plans.

London, July 10.—A telegram from St. Petersburg asserts that The Hague conference will adjourn at the end of July, the members agreeing to reassemble in the spring, and that in the interval the czar will visit the principal Eastern courts.

Prisoners Released.

Madrid, July 10. — An official dispatch from Manila says that thirty Spanish military prisoners and seventeen civilians held by the Filipinos have been released.

ALL UNDER WATER

THE TOWN OF ANGLETON, TEXAS, FLOODED.

Streets Are Under Two or Three Feet of Water—Losses of Live Stock and Crops Will Be Heavy—Cattle Drowned by the Thousands—Destruction in Oyster Valley Complete — Relief Work Thoroughly Systematized—20,000 Negroes Are Now Being Fed.

Angleton, Tex., July 10. — All the streets of this town are under two or three feet of water. Very few lives have been lost in this vicinity, but the losses of live stock and crops will be heavy. Cattle along the Bastrop have been drowned by the thousands. The destruction in Oyster Creek valley is absolutely complete. Negroes' cabins have been washed away by the dozens and the poor blacks are absolutely penniless, homeless and hungry. The Brazos now extends from Caney, in Matagorda county on the west, to Chocolate on the east, a distance of thirty-five miles, and has carried complete destruction and desolation with it. Absolutely nothing is left which was touched by the flood.

FLOOD SUFFERERS.

Work of Relief Is Thoroughly Systematized.

Galveston, Tex., July 10. — Relief work in the Brazos flooded district has been systematized, three relief trains leaving Houston, Galveston and San Antonio daily. Probably 20,000 negroes are now being fed and will need to be sustained for some time by the relief committees. The water is falling at all points except in Brazoria county. All sorts of estimates are made except as to the amount of the cotton loss. An estimate of 50 per cent is considered conservative. This would be a money loss of $5,000,000. The loss sustained by the destruction of other crops, houses, fencing, stock and bridges will be $2,500,000, while the loss to the railways is probably $1,000,000, making a total of $8,500,000. Owing to the exaggerated reports circulated as to the loss of life in the recent floods the News has made a special effort to secure the facts from each county. Reports from thirteen counties show a loss of thirty-seven lives from drowning. People supposed to have been drowned continue to appear and want to be fed.

THREATENED LYNCHING.

Excited Citizens Make It Warm for a Negro.

Pittsburg, July 10. — Glenwood, a suburb of this city, was thrown into excitement last night by the threatened lynching of a young negro named Daniel Scott. Scott, with two companions, went to a mill-workers' camp near Hays station, where a game of "craps" was started with several of the mill men. Scott lost his all on a throw, grabbed the money and ran, with the crowd at his heels. Patrick Murto caught up to him and demanded the money. Scott pulled his revolver and fired at Murto, the ball grazing his shoulder and knocking him to the ground without real injury. Scott fled, but was captured on the Glenwood bridge, where a crowd of several hundred men soon gathered. Murto's companions thinking he had been murdered, wanted to lynch the negro. Before the police arrived Scott had been used as a football by the crowd and was a sorry looking object when landed in the station house. Scott claims that his revolver was loaded with blank cartridges.

CURRENCY REFORM.

Senator Allison Says That He Expects an Early Agreement.

Narragansett Pier, R. I., July 10. — H. H. Hanna of Indianapolis arrived here to have a conference with the members of the senate subcommittee who are considering the question of currency reform. In the absence of a quorum nothing was accomplished. Senators Allison, Aldrich and Burrows met in informal conference. Senator Allison believes the committee will get down to actual work next week, and, unless some unforeseen obstacle looms up, he expects an early agreement.

DEPEW DENIES.

Rumored Combines of the New York Central and Pennsylvania Roads.

New York, July 10. — Chauncey M. Depew was quoted as saying that there was no truth in the rumored combine of the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads. He is reported to have said: "The Central has all it wants now that the Boston & Albany is secured. We have always held close connection with the Boston & Albany, as it does 40 per cent of our through business. We had to have it to prevent some other road choking us off."

Drowned at Rush City.

Rush City, Minn., July 10.—Gus Peterson, a young baker employed by A. C. Ogren, was drowned while bathing in Rush creek. Deceased had no relatives in this country and was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America.

A Mysterious Affair.

Brookings, S. D., July 10. — Billy Thomas, who was discovered south of this city with his throat cut, has since died. He says he fell off his horse and the horse kicked him. The story is not credited. It is thought to be suicide.

Electrical Exhibit Burned.

Como, Italy, July 10. — The Volta electrical exhibit was destroyed by fire. The firemen succeeded in saving a number of the personal effects of Volta, including the senatorial sword presented him by Napoleon, decorations, etc. The insurance is light.

Disaster in a Diamond Mine.

Cape Town, July 10.—A disaster has occurred at the new Jagersfontein diamond mine, where the fall of thousands of tons of earth has hurled many people.

Bank of St. Hilaire.

HANNAY & CO., Bankers.

Real Estate Loans.
Chattel Loans.
Foreign & Domestic Xchange
INSURANCE.
Collections a Specialty.

A General Banking Business Transacted.

St. Hilaire, Minn.

Livery and Feed Stable!

DAN PATERSON, Prop.

Dray in Connection.

The finest equipped turnouts in the northwest. Safe drivers and furnished at a moments notice at reasonable rates. Don't forget the place

BIG - RED - BARN

Located on the east side of Broadway nearly opposite Rapp & Post's Store

ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Says a modest exchange: There is a little matter which some of our Subscribers have seemingly forgotten—Some of them made us promises, but have not kept them. With us it is a very important matter—it's necessary in our business. We are very modest and don't like to speak about it.

GET YOUR PICTURE
TAKEN BY
D. COLLINS
THE
Photograper.
ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

Improved Farms.

K. O. GIGSTAD has a large list of Improved Farms for sale. Also agent for the best fire and cyclone insurance company. Sick and accident insurance Co., and hail insurance.

Money to loan on improved farms at low interest. All collections are promptly attended to.

NOTARY PUBLIC.

Office east of the city well.

ST. HILAIRE, - MINNESOTA.

DAY F. STACY, C. E.
DEPUTY
County Surveyor.
RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.
Drainage and Farm Surveys a Specialty

"Money to patent good ideas may be secured by our aid, address, The Patent Record Baltimore, Md." 37

FIRE
INSURANCE
DO
YOU
NEED
SOME?

The Best is the Cheapest.

I have nine of the best companies doing business in the State

Call for rates.

H. E. IVES.

CUSTOM WORK.

JUST LOOK AT THESE PRICES:

Roll Carding—per pound.......5 cts
Spinning Single Yarn—per pound.......15 c
Stocking Yarn—2 or 3 ply, per pound... 20 c

LITCHFIELD WOOLEN MILLS.

LITCHFIELD, MINN.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

The Spectator.

IVES & SOLL, Publishers.
JOHN J. SOLL, Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at St. Hilaire, Minn, as second-class mail matter.

Published every Wednesday at St. Hilaire, Red Lake County, Minn.

TERMS:—$1.50 Per Year in Advance.

Subscribers should notify the publisher on or before expiration of subscription if discontinuance is desired. Otherwise paper will be continued.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 12, 1899.

Could "Lick the Name."

"I don't know how it is here," said a visitor at one of the hotels, "but over in Georgia the phrase, 'lick the name,' is still quite current on the country-side. Lick the name is an innocent rural variation of the vendetta, and when a man proclaims his ability to do it he generally has quite a job on his hands. I was at a small interior village on court day recently and saw two farmers get into a debate over a horse trade. 'Yer a liar!' said one. 'Shuck yer coat, Bill Taylor,' retorted the other. 'I kin lick the name!'

"Mr. Taylor shucked his coat and got licked. It appeared, however, that his victor had just started in. Less than ten minutes afterward he was hailed by a husky young chap, who immediately inquired: 'Did y' say y' could lick we uns' name?' 'Who are y' anyhow?' asked the warrior. 'Ceph Taylor.' 'Who's yer pap?' 'Lige Taylor; lives on the branch down yonder.' 'Shuck yer coat!'

"They went at it, and Ceph was added to the vanquished, but he put up a hot fight for the honor of the tribe. In the course of the afternoon two other Taylors challenged the rash assertion, and the last disproved it. In so doing he lost a section of one ear and parted company with two teeth.

"I will not harrow your feelings by describing the other gentleman. I judged from the episode that it was very unwise to undertake to lick such a widely borne name as Taylor. When I start out to lick a name, it will be something like Cholmoldey or Zentiviatiskoff."—New Orleans Times Democrat.

An Impious Retort.

"William and Mary," says a correspondent of the Chicago Record, "is the oldest college in America, although Harvard graduated a class first. In 1085 the Rev. James Blair was sent over to Virginia to act as a sort of deputy for the bishop of London, who had ecclesiastical jurisdiction over the colonial churches. They called him a 'commissary.' In 1691 he returned to England to represent to the king and the bishop the necessity for an institution for higher education. He was kindly received by his sovereign and by the clergy, and in February, 1692, the king granted him a charter and gave him £2,000 in cash and the revenues of certain crown lands.

"Seymour, the attorney general, having received the royal command to draw up the documents, remonstrated. He saw no need of a college in Virginia. The patient Mr. Blair explained that it was needed to educate young men for the ministry and begged the honorable attorney general to remember that the colonists had souls to be saved as well as the people of England.

"'Blank your souls!' exclaimed the impious Seymour. 'Make tobacco!'"

A Memory of Boyhood.

The boy is there, a barefooted, freckled, backwoods lad, whose age might be anywhere from 8 to 12, fishing pole in hand. There are bramble scratches on his bare brown legs, like the marks of a wildcat's claws, while patches of sunburn show rosy red through the opening of his cotton shirt. A single suspender and a brim torn straw hat complete the tout ensemble, if we may except a yellow, switch tailed cur, with one ear slit and a sinister cast in an eye, sitting close at the fisher lad's back.

But sunburn, scratches and tatters, even the dog, are all forgotten as the boy watches breathlessly the wabbling cork that buoys his fishing line. A kingfisher utters its harsh, rasping protest against this invasion of its vested rights; a squirrel chatters hysterically just out of reach of the owner of the switch tail, who dares not resent the intrusion.—Outing.

Bathing an Elephant.

If there is one thing which an elephant enjoys above all things else, it is his bath. In India elephants are used to draw the great guns of the heavy batteries. They take their baths in the barracks, at the troughs where they drink, and they behave much better about it than many children. They have to lie down and be patient while they are washed by their attendants. They turn themselves about very promptly to suit their convenience. The attendant rubs the hide with a piece of stone instead of a sponge, and if the stone slips out of his hand the elephant politely picks it up with his trunk and hands it back. After they have been well scrubbed the elephants give themselves a shower bath, using their trunks to dash the water upon themselves, and they can hit any part of their bodies with ease.

Why?

One of the great Chicago department stores keeps a female hairdresser constantly at work on a dummy head that is adorned with flowing and most beautiful golden tresses. She is watched incessantly by large and interested crowds.

"Yes," said one woman absently the other day to her companion, "blond hair is very beautiful—that is, the real blond hair."

And at least half a dozen women flashed looks of indignation at the speaker. Why?

Local Prejudice.

"Benjamin Franklin sleeps in Philadelphia," remarked the reverent tourist.

"Well," answered the New York salesman with the plaid clothes, "what else is there for a man to do in Philadelphia?"—Washington Star.

The Impossible In Society.

"They are impossible persons!"

"Yes?"

"Yes, they have no ancestry whatever!"—Detroit Journal.

Well Framed.

"You're the very picture of health."

"Yes, and I'm in a contented frame of mind."—Chicago Tribune.

ASBESTUS.

Some of the Peculiarities of This Mysterious Substance.

Asbestus is a physical paradox, yet one of nature's most marvelous productions. It has been called a mineralogical vegetable; it is, both fibrous and crystalline, elastic, yet brittle; a floating stone, which can be readily carded, spun and woven into tissue. In Germany it is known as steinflachs (stone flax), and the miners of Quebec give it quite as expressive a name—pierre coton (cotton stone). The asbestus mines of Quebec are the most famous in the world, yielding 85 per cent of the entire output, Italy being the only competing country, and there the industry is declining. Although Charlemagne is said to have had a tablecloth of asbestus, which he cleansed by throwing into the fire, it was practically unknown until 1850.

The Italian mineral was then experimented with and some years later put on the market. In 1878 the first Canadian mine was opened, and the product steadily increased until 1860, when 9,860 tons, worth $1,260,000, were mined. There has since been a decline in value, the amount for 1866 being 13,200, worth only $430,000. Asbestus is flexible, noncombustible and a nonconductor of heat and electricity, and on these properties its increasing use depends. It is spun into yarn, from which cloth is woven for drop curtains in theaters, clothing for firemen, acid workers, etc. It is made into lamp wicks and gloves for stokers and ropes for fire escapes. It is felted into millboard to be used as an insulator in dynamos and as a fireproof lining for floors. It is used to insulate electric wires and as a covering to prevent loss of heat from steam pipes. Mixed with rubber it is used to pack steam joints.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

BATTLE WITH SHARKS.

A Desperate Encounter In Which Two Man Eaters Were Slain.

Probably the most desperate fight which has ever been witnessed between a couple of sharks and a human being took place at Havana some time ago.

Several fruit peddlers had boarded a large mailboat, and among them was a swarthy, bare legged young chap noted among his comrades as a clever swimmer. The purser of the vessel was standing by the gangway, holding his child in his arms, watching a couple of sharks that were hanging about the ship. Accidentally the child fell out of its father's grasp into the water. The father immediately jumped overboard and seized his child, and in a moment the sharks were making for the pair.

Seeing the predicament, the bare legged young buccaneer dropped his fruit basket and went over the rail like a flash.

As the first shark turned on its back—the invariable prelude to biting its victim—the young fruit seller rose to the surface, and, with a long, keen edged knife, fairly disemboweled it.

The other was not nearly so easily disposed of. The shark seemed to realize that in the fruit seller he had a dangerous foe and apparently sparred for an opening. Several men on board the vessel blazed away at the monster with revolvers, but the young fellow begged the men to desist, being unnerved by the firing. Fish and man dived alternately, and when the fish did make for its foe the plucky boy dived and pinned the knife in its side.

The water was crimson with blood when the three were hauled safe and sound to the deck of the vessel, and a handsome sum of money was collected for the victor.

Why You Yawn.

Have you ever observed at a theater or concert that the people who are most deeply interested appear between the acts to be quite weary of the whole thing, yawning half a dozen times in succession? The reason of this is a physiological one. When your attention is much absorbed in anything exciting or touching, you breathe in a very shallow manner and take into your lungs only half enough air. Consequently, when your attention is relaxed, you have to make up the deficiency. This you do by yawning, which, after all, is only breathing a very deep breath.

If you watch a man at a play and observe that he is greatly moved by some incident, you may feel sure that when the scene ends he will sigh and a moment or two later yawn repeatedly. Of course the yawning, so far from being a sign of weariness, is a proof of the liveliest appreciation.

Very often you will observe the same phenomenon in a girl reading a novel. And by her yawns you can tell when the end of some absorbing incident is reached.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

All About It.

"There's one thing about the north pole," asserted the returned explorer emphatically.

The crowd leaned eagerly forward to learn the result of his investigations.

"Yes," repeated the returned explorer, lighting his cigar with great deliberation.

"Er—what did we understand"—it was the man with the inquisitive nose who spoke—"you to say it is, professor?"

The returned explorer threw away his match.

"It is the ice," he explained kindly.

Not Listening.

She was a very little girl, but not so small that she did not recognize swearing as something very wrong or that if other people used bad language it was her place to close her ears to it. She was on the street with her mother, and as they passed a group of men talking in loud tones the passersby heard the small girl exclaim in shocked tones, "Oh, isn't that awful!" And then, as if suddenly remembering, "But I'm not listening."—New York Times.

The Army and Navy.

Have covered themselves with glory during the war. The Army and Navy vest pocket memorandum book published by the Northern Pacific is a compact digest of information relative to the navies and armies of Spain and the United States at the beginning of the war. It has a map of Cuba, illustrations of naval ships, glossary of navy and army terms, translation of Spanish words, etc. Send ten cents to Chas. S. Fee, general passenger agent, N. P. R., St. Paul, Minn., for a copy.

DAWN'S MASQUE.

Sleep no more, Criminal Night!
Stealthily in ghostly veiling
Fleeing, scattered in her flight
Whereso'er her mantle trailing,
Brushed and bent each grassy spear
Bounties of dew silver here.

Now in splendid pageant moves
Like a far sea phosphorescent,
Passing down the mountain groves,
Dawn to kiss the lake's blue crescent,
Golden arrows falling ever
From her loose rose belted quiver.

Silken strands of thistle down
(Woven by the pixie maiden)
Glitter, and the coral crown
Wherewith every hawthorn's laden,
E'en as if in ruby set,
Sparkles with the hoar frost wet.

Sleep no more, Criminal Nay,
Slumber hath out-till its limit
When the pomp of new-born day
Throstles see and rise to hymn it,
When, all loveliness, the sun
Setteth forth his course to run!

—Pall Mall Gazette.

HE DREADS A RAZOR.

And He Has Good Reason to After His Narrow Escape.

"There is a physician now stopping at this house," remarked the proprietor of one of the hotel barber shops, "who has a mortal dread of a razor in the hands of another. It originated in a remarkable experience. Some years ago he was in a town in Iowa and stepped into a barber shop to get shaved. All the chairs were filled, so he sat down to wait. In a few minutes one of the barbers called 'Next!' and he was getting up when a gentleman who had just entered addressed him.

"'I am in a great hurry to catch a train,' he said, 'and would be very grateful if you would allow me to take the chair ahead of you.'

"Such requests are not unusual, and the doctor, who is naturally obliging, told him to go ahead and resumed his seat. The other man had hardly climbed into position when the barber picked up a razor and cut his throat from ear to ear, killing him instantaneously.

"In spite of stories to the contrary, I think that is the only case of the kind that ever happened in the United States. The barber turned out to be insane, but the horror of the scene and the almost miraculous character of his own escape made such an impression on the mind of the doctor that he has never since allowed anybody to shave him.

"Only this morning I trimmed his hair, and in finishing the job I started, as is customary, to shape up the growth of his temples with the corner of my razor. The moment he caught sight of the blade he turned pale as death. 'Don't touch me with that!' he exclaimed. 'Do the best you can with the scissors and let the rest go!' He has known me a long time and I suppose has confidence in my sanity, but the reminiscence was too much for him, and, really, I don't wonder."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Grief of Parting.

The man leaned right into the railway carriage. There was positive anguish in his drawn face. The lady inside was very pretty and beautifully dressed. Her softnesses of complexion and hair, of lace and filmy material, triumphed in the searching glare of the electric light, which showed the rich luxury of every detail of her costume. She smiled with a pretty, regretful tenderness as she replied lightly to his earnest words. He looked at her as if he could never look long enough, as if her face held for him the whole meaning of life. As the train began to move, his fingers felt passionately on the ungloved hand resting on the window ledge; then instinctively he sprang back, raised his hat, and I caught in full light a glimpse of his white face.

Directly the train steamed out of the station the lady rose, carefully rolled up her veil, and, quite indifferent to my presence, proceeded before the mirror in the carriage to dust her face with a dainty pocket handkerchief, and to apply to forehead and nose the minutest layer of powder with a tiny puff. She patted and arranged her curls, drawing them with a hairpin into coquettish position and curve, and then, lowering her veil, she sank into the seat with a sigh of satisfaction.—Academy.

How Did Jim Know?

For several years my early morning walk lay through the first block of West Fifty-seventh street, where I used regularly to meet a milkman delivering milk. He would take from his wagon a rack containing several bottles and go from house to house, while his old gray horse walked sedately on alone.

One morning as I was passing the pair midway the block the man said to his horse:

"Go on, Jim, and turn at No. 7."

I watched with interest. Jim did go on until exactly opposite No. 7. Then he carefully turned and walked back to his master—or shall I say comrade? Yet some people think that the lower animals cannot reason.—Our Animal Friends.

Costly Health.

Blivens—My dear, I'm really alarmed about Tommy's health.

Mrs. Blivens—I suppose you mean you are alarmed about his ill health and future doctors' bills.

Blivens—I said health, and I meant it. I was thinking of butchers' bills.—Boston Transcript.

First
Mortgage
Loans.

I am prepared, for the next 60 days, to make loans at the

LOWEST

possible rates ever made in Red Lake county. If you want to make a loan or renew an old one call on

H. E. IVES.

Oh, Where Has He Gone?

LOST:—About six weeks ago a black and white English setter dog answers to the name of "Shy." A suitable reward will be given at this office when said dog is returned. Any information will thankfully be received.

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

Default having been made in the payment of the sum of ten hundred and fifteen ($1,015.) dollars, which is claimed to be due and is due at the date of this notice upon a certain mortgage, duly executed and delivered by Alphease Boucher and Philomina Boucher his wife mortgagors, to The Western Security Co. mortgagee, bearing date the 27th day of July 1888, and, with a power of sale therein contained, duly recorded in the office of the register of deeds in and for the county of Polk, now Red Lake county, and State of Minnesota, on the 27th day of July 1888, at 10:20 o'clock A. M., in Book 37 of mortgages, on page 144.

Which said mortgage together with the debt secured thereby, was duly assigned by said The Western Security Co., mortgagee, to Joseph P. Dearborn, by written assignment, dated the 1st day of November 1888, and recorded in the office of said register of deeds, on the 8th day of November 1888, at 1:00 o'clock P. M., in Book 40 of mortgages on page 378;

And whereas, the said assignee of mortgagee, did on the 4th day of November 1897, pay to the Treasurer of Polk county, Minnesota, the sum of $18.85 for taxes due and delinquent on said premises for the year 1896; and the further sum of $35.96 paid by said mortgagee on the 1st day of November 1897 for taxes due and delinquent on said land for the year 1892, all of which taxes are still due and payable to said assignee of said mortgagee, and no action or proceeding having been instituted, at law or otherwise, to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, viz:

The south-east quarter of section twenty-one (21) township one hundred and fifty (150) range forty-one (41) containing one hundred and sixty (160) acres, more or less according to the United States government survey, in Red Lake county, formerly Polk county, and State of Minnesota, with the hereditaments and appurtenances; which sale will be made by the sheriff of said Red Lake county, at the front door of the Court House, in the village of Red Lake Falls in said county and State, on the 12th day of August 1899, at 2:00 o'clock P. M., of that day, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt of Ten Hundred and Fifteen Dollars, and interest, and the taxes, on said premises and fifty dollars, attorney's fees, as stipulated in and by said mortgage in case of foreclosure, and the disbursements allowed by law; subject to redemption at any time within one year from the day of sale, as provided by law.

Dated June 19th A. D., 1899.

ADELA O. M. CURRIER,
Executrix of Joseph P. Dearborn, deceased,
Assignee of Mortgagee.

JOHN CROMB,
Attorney for Executrix of Assignee of Mortgagee.
Crookston, Minn. 48-2

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

Whereas, default has occurred in the conditions of a mortgage given by Carrie Crawn and Edward (mortgage signed "Edvard" but written in body of deed and in acknowledgment "Edward") Crawn, her husband, mortgagors, to Dakota Investment Company, of Grand Forks, Dakota, mortgagee, dated May 20th, A. D. 1889, which mortgage, together with the power of sale therein contained, was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in Polk county and state of Minnesota, May 21th A. D. 1889 at 8:30 o'clock, a. m., in book 43 of mortgages, on page 32 and subsequently transcribed into the records of Red Lake county and state of Minnesota in book 17 of mortgages on page 371 and assigned by said mortgagee to Elijah M. Topliff by an instrument in writing dated June 11th A. D. 1889 and filed for record in said office of the Register of Deeds for said Red Lake county, March 9th A. D. 1898 at 3:00 o'clock p. m. and recorded in book F of assignments on page 554.

And whereas the undersigned attorneys for said Elijah M. Topliff have been empowered by him to foreclose said mortgage by an instrument in writing, dated March 28th A. D. 1899 and filed for record in said office of the Register of Deeds for said Red Lake county, April 5th A. D. 1899 at 12 o'clock M. and was recorded in book A of power of attorneys on page 201

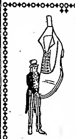
And whereas there is claimed to be due upon said mortgage at this date including taxes for the years 1889, 1890, 1892, 1893, 1894, 1895, 1896, 1897 and 1898 amounting to $138.64 the sum of four hundred, ninety-nine 04-100 dollars, and no action or proceeding having been instituted at law to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof;

Now, therefore, Notice is hereby given that said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale of the premises described in said mortgage, viz.: The south half of the north-west quarter (s½ of nw¼) of section ten (10) in township one hundred and fifty-two (152) of range forty-five (45) in said county, which sale will be made by the Sheriff of said county, at the front door of the Court House, in the city of Red Lake Falls in said county of Red Lake, August 12th A. D. 1899 at two o'clock p. m., at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt, interest and taxes on said premises, and $25.00 attorney's fees, and the disbursements allowed by law, subject to redemption as provided by law.

Dated at Minneapolis, Minn. June 10th 1899.

ELIJAH M. TOPLIFF,
Assignee of Mortgagee.

WEBSTER & TAYLOR,
Attorney's for assignee of Mortgagee.
47-52



UNCLE SAM Is not In the Shoe Business, And Neither Am I, But I can Interest You in CIGARS.

ALL THE BEST SMOKERS BUY THEM

J.B. Cigars.

ALL THE BEST DEALERS SELL THEM.

J. B. ARMSTRONG,
Manufacturer.

RED LAKE FALLS, MINNESOTA.

By special arrangement with the publishers we are enable to give FARM, STOCK AND HOME one year and the ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR for $1.25.

F.C. CORSETS
MAKE
American Beauties.
F. C.

LATEST MODELS.

On Each Box.

KALAMAZOO CORSET CO.
SOLE MANUFACTURERS.
SOLD BY
St. Hilaire, Minn. E. M. HOFF.

WANTED-BRAINS

Can you think of something to patent? Protect your ideas; they may bring you wealth. Before applying for patent, get our liberal offer. Inventor's Assistant and handsome views of Washington sent Free on request. Be sure to write to-day COPP & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C.

Summer Clothing

The Greatwestern own magnificent display of Men's summer suits, and Boys' choicest clothing is now ready, at a saving of fully 25 per cent.

Greatwestern Clothing House.

IF YOU INTEND TO Buy
Furniture

Come and look our assortment over. We carry everything in the Furniture line including picture frames and musical instruments. Prices reasonable.

Holmes Furniture Co.

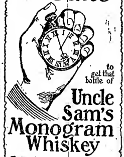
BANK OF RED LAKE FALLS,
RED LAKE FALLS, MINNESOTA

GENERAL BANKING. FOREIGN XCHANGE

Real Estate, Farm Loans and Insurance.
Abstracts of Title.
Steamship Tickets.
Interest Paid on Time Deposits.
Collections of all Kinds Given Prompt Attention.

Owner of the Abstract Books formerly owned by Sortedahl & Storaasli the only set of Abstract Books in Red Lake County.

M. O. SORTEDAHL, President and Cashier.
G. P. SEVERTSON, Assistant Cashier



It's Time to get that bottle of Uncle Sam's Monogram Whiskey

That you have been putting off buying from day to day This standard whiskey is sold by DRUGGISTS, etc. DEALERS AND

ST. PAUL BENZ & SONS MINNEAPOLIS

List of Town Clerks.

Names	Township	Postoffice
Olof Larson	Numedal	Viking
C. E. Purdy	North	Thief River Falls
John E. Peterson	Bray	Bray
N. K. Anderson	Sanders	St. Hilaire
P. T. Saire	Rocksbury	T. R. Falls
O. T. Romsos	Polk Centre	Wylie
P. A. Eckstrom	Black River	Wylie
A. S. Anderson	River Falls	St. Hilaire
Ole J. Johnson	Wyandotte	"
A. D. Berry	Louisville	Hunt
Hdalge Darli	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
Chas. E. Asp	Emardville	Lost
Edward Havik	Equality	Grit
Moses Ducharme	Lake Pleasant	R. L. F.
Edonor Perusse	Terrebonne	Terrebonne
J. B. Herbert	Poplar River	Brooks
Louis Doucet	Lambert	Lambert
J. L. Johnson	St. Hilaire	St. Hilaire
Lars Backe	Thief River F	T. R. F.
A. P. Toupin	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
H. D. Barryson	Norden	T. R. Falls
Olof Tande	Garnes	Garnes

FARMS
LOANS
ABSTRACTS

97 Farms for sale or rent in Red Lake County.

SWANSON & GRADY,
Official Abstractors.

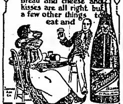
RED LAKE FALLS. - - - MINN.

A. O. LETVIG,
Tubular Well Contractor
A Good Supply of Water Guaranteed.
Repairing a Specialty.
WYLIE. MINNESOTA.

UNION MEAT MARKET
P. O. MOSLETH, PROP.

Choicest line of Fresh and Salted meats in the city.

Highest market price paid for Stock, Poultry and Hides.



Love in a Cottage
Bread and cheese and kisses are all right but a few other things to eat and

Hamm's St. Paul Beer

add a heap of comfort. Hamm's Beer is a pure delicious home brew. Won't you try it? ~ Agents everywhere.

Theo. Hamm Brewing Co.
Tel. 972 ~ St. Paul, Minn.

Say?

If your wheel needs enameling, cleaning, new tires or any other repairing give us a trial. All work done promptly and satisfactory. Prices reasonable.

R. J. BULLAN & CO.
35 RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

STEVENS RIFLES AND PISTOLS
HAVE FOR MORE THAN 35 YEARS BEEN CELEBRATED FOR THEIR EXTREME ACCURACY

We make our "Diamond" Pistol with two lengths of barrel, 6 and 10 inches. Every one guaranteed. Price, Postpaid, $5.00 with 6-inch barrel; $7.50 with 10-inch barrel. We make a full line of rifles; Price, from $6.00 upwards. Every arm we turn out is warranted

SAFE, SOLID AND ACCURATE.

J. STEVENS ARMS & TOOL CO.,
Send Stamp for Catalogue. P. O. Box 698 CHICOPEE FALLS, MASS.

Cigars.

BRINK BROTHERS
DEALERS IN
Wines & Liquors
Minneapolis Beer.

Corner Broadway and 3rd St. St. Hilaire, Minnesota

Be Ready For Summer. It is Here Now.

A full line of summer merchandise just arrived. We invite inspection of these goods. A splendid line of Skirts and Waists, both in ready-made and patterns at prices which are right. I shall not attempt to describe the line; only urge you most cordially to see the goods before you buy.

E. M. HOFF.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

I. O. O. F. ST. HILAIRE LODGE No. 147.—Meets at their hall every Thursday evening, eight o'clock. Visiting members are cordially invited to attend.
E. M. HOFF, N. G.
J. H. JOHNSON, Secretary.

M. W. A. CAMP 3650.—Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every second and fourth Tuesday of every month. Visiting neighbors are cordially invited to attend.
LEONARD HOLMES, V. C.
JAS. M. HALL, Clerk.

R. N. A.—WILD ROSE CAMP.—No. 834 Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every Friday evening. Visiting members of the order are cordially invited to attend.
MRS. L. N. NOLAN, Oracle.
MISS T. HUGHES, Recorder.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Auditor	Adam Zeh
Treasurer	O. T. Tandberg
Register of Deeds	Samuel Olbean
Sheriff	Chas. Sampson
Attorney	Van R. Brown
Judge of Probate	J. T. Knight
Clerk of Court	Joe Perrault
Supt. of Schools	Frank Jeffers
Coroner	Joe Belaire
Court Commissioner	J. C. Mathows
Surveyor	P. O. Hagglund
Commissioner 1st Dist.	J. Suler
Commissioner 2nd Dist.	W. L. C. Bemann
Commissioner 3rd Dist.	O. J. Johnsen
Commissioner 4th Dist.	Karl M. Hansen
Commissioner 5th Dist.	J. B. Herbert

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

E. J. Holmes	President
J. L. Johnson	Recorder
D. Patterson	Councilmen
J. C. Dahl
W. A. Sorselell
L. Holmes	Treasurer

Barber Shop

—AND—

BATH ROOMS.

Haircutting, Shaving, Shampooing.

Razors honed and put in first-class order.

J. H. PENNO, Prop.

ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Henry Francis, M. D, C. M.

Member College Physicians and Surgeons, Ontario. : : :

Thief River Falls, Minnesota.

"THE IDEAL" Lunch Room.

In the Paradis Building is noted for its Convenience.

FIRST-CLASS MEALS.

PROMPT SERVICE.

☞ OPEN UNTIL ONE O'CLOCK A. M.

A. F. LANG, Prop.

DR. BLOMBURGH.

SCANDINAVIAN

Physician & Surgeon.

☞ Calls attended day or night.

Teeth Extracted.

Office and residence opposite American Hotel. ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

2nd ☞ STORE

(SECOND HAND STORE.)

Everything in this line now on hand. Special bargains given. If you have anything to dispose of give me a call. Repairing of harness also done.

C. A. SKEIE.

ST. HILAIRE, - - MINNESOTA

Blacksmith!

Horse-shoeing, repairing of all kinds of Farm Implements, Machinery, etc. All work promptly attended to and done in a satisfactory manner.

J. C. DAHL.

ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA

PATENTS

Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES. OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.

Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured. A PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,

C. A. SNOW & CO.

OPP. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

Market Report.—To-Day.

Wheat No. 1	61	Oats	19
Wheat No. 2	57	Barley	24
Wheat No. 3	51	Flax	84
Eggs (per doz)	12½	Butter (per lb)	10

LOCAL NEWS.

Haying has commenced.

Club dance Saturday evening.

J. H. Johnson returned from Fisher Monday.

Wall paper and calcimine at the New Drug store.

H. E. Ives returned to-day from a trip at Cass Lake.

Mrs. Rosser and son of Crookston were here Saturday last.

BORN:—To Mr. and Mrs A. Elmquist July 6th 1899 a boy.

BORN:—To Mr. and Mrs. Henry Olson July 7th 1899 a boy.

Try a lunch, a meal or a weeks board at the Ideal Lunch Room.

Otto Sontshogea was in town Tuesday taking orders for goods.

L. C. Simmons, the Red Lake Falls banker was here Friday last.

Will Peters is giving the Norwegian Lutheran church a coat of paint.

George Williams of Thief River Falls was a caller in our village Monday.

Another circus at Red Lake Falls two weeks from tomorrow—July 20th

A. F. Bell has opened up a restaurant and cigar stand in his old location.

Patronize home industry by buying your wall paper at the New Drug store.

If you want to make a loan on your farm, or renew an old one, call on H. E. Ives.

Iko and Ole Helvorson left to-day for their pine claims in the Black Duck country.

May Buse of Red Lake Falls visited with her cousin Millie Strananhan over Sunday.

Chas. Alexander who is well and favorably known here, is now located at Vermillion, Mont.

Ole Johnson went to the county seat Monday to attend the meeting of the county commissioners.

Attorney Richardson of the upper Falls was here a short time Friday en-route home from Crookston.

FOUND:—On July 4th, a purse containing a small sum of money. Call at Mrs. C. Sandmoen's and get the same.

Halvor Haugen the man who bought the farm of John Peterson was up here last week to see how the crops looked.

It is understood now that the President will not come west this summer on account of Mrs. McKinley being sick.

Messrs. Markham, Williams, McKeen and Brenneman drove to the upper Falls Sunday and saw the Selects defeated.

The Willing Workers sewing society will meet with Miss Clara Lund next Thursday afternoon. All interested are invited to attend.

S. M. Dalnard left yesterday for Thief River Falls where he will remain for the rest of the season. He has a good position in the new saw mill.

Ed. Bridge, the trusty night engineer at the big mill, has completed arrangements to have a 24x24 cottage built on his lots adjoining the M. E. church.

One of the little boys of Mr. Harrington, the man who has rented Ole Lee's farm in town of River Falls, had the misfortune to break his leg Monday.

William Lennon came down from Thief River Falls Monday, reporting a break down in the saw mill at that place necessitating a delay of a few days.

Arno Mereen and J. B. O'Brien drove to Thief River Falls Sunday and witnessed the defeat of the Selects. They report encountering many bad places in the roads.

Mrs. W. A. Schraiter of Red Lake Falls and Misses Kretzchmar of Thief River Falls were over night visitors in our village Friday going to the upper Falls Saturday morning.

During the storm last Wednesday night, the horse used for hauling edgings on the elevated tramway to the furnace fell off and had his back broken. He died a few minutes afterwards.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that all Red Lake County warrants and orders registered on or before May 1st 1899 are now payable.

O. T. TANDBERG,
County Treasurer.

One Kind of a Circus.

About one hundred people of St. Hilaire went to Crookston last Wednesday to take in Ringling Bros. circus. On arriving at Crookston is was learned that it was impossible to get rooms for the night, so there was great hustling going on for some time. Securing rooms and supper they were soon on the show grounds taking in the menagerie and other side shows waiting for the big show to open. The performance had just nicely started when the rain came down in torrents necessitating many to change their seats. The gale struck the main tent about 8:10 on the northwest side. Here were located the reserved seats and about half the crowd of spectators. Instead of blowing over, these seats simply collapsed and let the people down in a heap. The tent, however, blew far enough over to leave these people uncovered, otherwise death instead of injures would have resulted in many instances during the struggle for freedom that ensued. The cries of the women and children appealed forcibly to the rescuers. The bulk of the remainder of the crowd were located directly across from the reserved seats on the other side of the tent. Many saw the tent falling and had presence of mind enough to watch for the big center poles and keep out of their way as they fell towards them. Many miraculous escapes are due to this. A large number of people extricated themselves by cutting the canvas away with pocket knives and crawling out of the debris. Had the accident occured seven minutes sooner when the big parade was in the tent, the result can hardly be imagined. It was bad enough as it was, and to have added fifty horses a dozen elephants, besides camels etc., to the mess, it would have been frightful. An elephant stampede would surely have resulted. As it was the keepers found it difficult to quiet the animals.

Carrie Sorenson, cook at the Hotel Markham, slight cut about the face.

Erick Berhman was the only one from here that was injured enough to be taken to the hospital. His leg was broken and right side badly bruised.

Milton, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Holmes caused his parents considerable anxiety as he was lost for over an hour, before found in safe hands.

WHAT WE HEARD.

Allice Holmes and Mamie Mousseau both losers of costly hats.

Everyone present had their experience of what it is going to a circus.

Mike Rosenberg took refuge in a red lemonade barrel and is still wearing fast colors.

H. E. Ives and M. E. Bjerk assisted Fred Fountain to town who had his ankle sprained.

Millie Stranahan went down with a dress adapted for a girl of her age and came home with one that made her look a foot or two taller.

Martin Bjerk kept his eye on the gasoline lamps until they blew down and then enjoyed himself under the tent until it quit raining.

Fred Clark, one of the actors, had his seven ton pressure boa-constrictor drowned but managed to save his two performing dogs "Jack and King."

Charley Brink acted the part of the good Samaritan—took off his coat and cared for little Annie Oldne, hiring a hack and taking her to Carman where she was stopping with friends. The gentlemanly (?) driver charging him three dollars for the trip.

Chas. Tedford returned to Cass Lake Monday to be present and take an active part in the townsite fight waging there at the present time. Chas. thinks the settlers will stay.

Percey Vibert left Monday for Red Lake to take charge of one of the crews that will gather up lost logs around the lake. He claims that it will take the two crews all summer to gather up the lost logs.

H. E. Ives left Saturday for Cass Lake. He will take a few snap shots of the town and Fort Libby, as according to Secretary Hitchcock's views, and a few others, the town will have to be taken off the reservation—at least notice have been posted to that effect.

L. F. Menage did not return to Minneapolis until he knew it was safe to do so. He stole a million or more and so many prominent men were mixed up with him that the machinery of the law has been put under their control. Menage will never be tried, and here is an example of justice.—Moorhead News.

Tom Oldne, who has been holding down the position of section foreman on the G. N. line at this place for the past twelve years asked for a change some time ago which was granted last week. Mr. Oldne will leave this week for Kalispel, Montana, to hold down a like position. His family will remain here this summer and should the climate prove satisfactory to Mr. Oldne's health he will have his family moved out there in the fall.

The long looked for grader for the village arrived last week and was put to test Monday in all kinds of soil. On account of it being an exceptionally warm day four teams were hitched to it and the full length of Water street was graded and completed in first-class shape. The machine is known as the Austin grader and wherever tried the best of satisfaction has been given. Black River, Wyandotte and River Falls have recently purchased the same make graders.

Consumption Cured.

—Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth, cures a cold in one day if taken in time. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

Grasshoppers.

An article in the St. Paul Pioneer Press of Friday says that Prof. Otto Lugger, state entomologist, prophesies for Minnesota during this summer an invasion of grasshoppers. Prof. Lugger has just returned from the Turtle mountains the vast rolling hills that begin in the northern part of North Dakota and extend into Manitoba, and says that from his investigation there he is pretty positive that the grasshopper pest will reach into Minnesota.

The Turtle mountains are the great hatching place for grasshoppers, and, according to Prof. Lugger, the Turtle mountains are just now in process of turning out a grasshopper trust, compared with which the sugar trust et al will be as an infant.

"I turned over a square foot of ground in the Turtle mountains," said Prof. Lugger, "and found tens of thousands of grasshopper eggs in the soil. They are just beginning to hatch, and in an incredible short time they will have started south and east in great armies to devastate the wheat fields of the Dakotas, Manitoba and very possible of Minnesota. The weather up there has been propitious for them, for while we have had lots of rain here, up there it has been dry."

Prof. Lugger, in this connection, offers a timely bit of advice to farmers. He urges them to prepare for the grasshoppers by fixing up hopper dozers, plans and specifications of which may be had by applying to him by letter at the state school of agriculture. The hopperdozer is something in shape like a mighty dustpan, and is pulled by horses. It has a tank containing crude kerosene oil, which is death to the festive grasshoppers. The moment a grasshopper strikes the oil he becomes paralyzed, then he shrivels up and passes away, and is no more. Lengthwise of the back part of the hopperdozer is stretched a piece of canvas to catch the grasshoppers that may have jumped over the tank of oil. The grasshoppers strike against the canvas and fall into the oil. Bushels of grasshoppers may be killed in a day in this manner, and Prof. Lugger says that their corpses are not a bad fertilizer. The hopperdozer is mounted on tiny wheels and it is said does but little harm to growing wheat and other grains in the course of being carried over them to catch the hoppers.

Another good plan, Prof. Lugger says, is to plow a furrow around fields of growing grain and saturate it with kerosene oil. So much do the grasshoppers detest and fear this, their great enemy, that they will not venture across the kerosene douched furrow.

To cure a cough in one day take the Imperial cough syrup. Guaranteed to cure. For sale at the new Drug Store.

—For cuts and sores there is nothing better than the Imperial Carbolic salve.

Council Proceedings.

Regular meeting of the village council Monday July 3rd 1899.

All members present.

Meeting called to order by President Holmes.

Minutes of last regular and special meetings read and approved.

On motion S. Harris was appointed street commissioner at $2.00 per day during the months of July and August.

On motion it was resolved to raise by taxation the sum of Two Thousand ($2000.00) dollars for current expenses for the ensuing year.

On motion the following bills were allowed.

St. Hilaire Lumber Co	lumber	18 37
"	"	16 10
"	hauling reduce	34 50
J L Johnson recorder salary etc.		31 60
C Hall 1 moth marshal salary		40 50
S Harris street work		12 00
C Hillberg "		11 25
Hosea Tway "		9 75
R If Almer "		28 00
J C Dahl blacksmith work etc.		3 55
D Patterson hauling lumber etc.		4 75
K O Gigstad assessing village		30 00
C E Johnson work on street		12 00
J J Soll printing as per bill		16 75
Ed Rushton work on sewer		6 75
Wm Haashaw work on sewer		6 00
E J Holmes 1 day on board of equalization		2 00
D Patterson 51 gal gasoline		8 87

On motion the bill of the St. Hilaire Lumber Co. for interest on village orders turned in on payment of taxes for $10.77 was laid on the table.

On motion meeting adjourned.

Attest:— E. J. HOLMES,
President.
J. L. JOHNSON,
Recorder.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

Potato Bugs.

The most expeditious way to get rid of a great many potato bugs is to watch for the first appearance of the old ones that lay the eggs from which the new crop is hatched. These appear early in the season and eat little, but they lay the eggs for the brood that destroy the crop. To kill one of these is to destroy a generation which will follow if they are not destroyed.

The quickest way to dispose of these old bugs is to hand-pick them from the vines and drop them into a vessel which contains water and kerosene oil. A small tin bucket or even an old tin can half full of water in which a few spoonfuls of kerosene has been poured, will very effectually quiet them and it is comparatively easy to get most of them the eggs that may have been deposited on the leaves are not hard to find and they may be given an oil bath also. Frequently a little work early in the season will so reduce the brood that it will be very easy to keep the potatoes free from bugs during the whole season.

—If you are troubled with rheumatism take the Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure. It will positively cure all diseases arising from impure blood, and is sold under an absolute guarantee to benefit or money refunded. Call for free sample at the New Drug Store.

BIG DAY.

The Annual Circus Event—Walter L. Main's Fine Show Coming to Red Lake Falls July 20th.

It comes highly recommended by the press of both the States and the Provinces. It is a square dealing show, and neither gambling or pilfering is permitted near it. The attaches are gentlemen, and will make it pleasant for all visitors. Every one connected with the show is proud of the big institution with which he is connected, and the public will be surprised at the enormity of the show, too, as well. It comes on its own special trains. The parade will embrace the principal streets and start at 10:00 a. m., from grounds. The parade will be novel and worth seeing. Many of the animal dens will be open to view. There are some very fine specimens of wild beast creations in the menagerie, in all over twenty-five dens. Our unprecedented novelty and curiosity is the baby elephant; he is so very small and has acquired an unsatisfiable appetite for the circus nut. There is a den containing three baby lions only six weeks old, another with a young kangaroo, and another having in it four baby monkeys. Some baby Arabian ponies are other features, also a big flock of ostriches and one baby chick ostrich among them. This great show has the finest lions, tigers and leopards on earth. The circus is excellent. It is one of the features and full of comedy. The aerialists, riders, acrobats, leapers, and general performers are the very best that money can procure. There are sixty-nine acts in the circus, the finest of their kind in the world. A free exhibition takes place at the grounds at 11 a. m. and 5:30 p. m. Band concert in circus tents one hour preceding each performance. Doors open at 1 and 7 p. m. Program commences at 2 and 8.

—Go to the New Drug Store for your Stationery and School supplies.

Arrow Shots.

A woman can always find a place to put a ribbon.

Some people seem to join churches just to cause trouble.

It is funny that we like onions and yet do not like strong ones.

It is surprising how few people know things worth knowing.

"Slow, but sure" is a good motto, but why not be quick and sure?

No young married woman ever forgets to write their name "Mrs."

There is no limit to the promises one gets out of people who wants favors.

There is a great deal of valuable time wasted whittling out fancy canes.

Nobody but a woman would put a pair of rubbers on over a pair of muddy shoes.

We do not see what advantage it is for a boy or a man to be a real good drummer.

We notice that as soon as a man goes to selling whiskey he wears better clothes.

A man who does not like rag-time coon songs must have something wrung with him.

No man could stand to do one hundreth part of the work required to take care of a baby.

A boy is not a real expert smoker until he can spit without taking the pipe out of his mouth.

A loud talking woman gives folks the impression that she must be coarse, whether she is or not.

"Rubbing up against the world" brightens up some people, but where does the world get any benefit?

A woman thinks when her husband goes away, the way to do her duty is to put a lot of useless things in his grip.

The first evidence that a man is making lots of money is when his wife begins to have her clothes made out of town.

A boy never forgets a teacher who serves him a mean trick. The wonder is that so few school teachers get killed.

Whenever everybody gets to wishing somebody would marry a certain girl the truth is the girl's chances are about gone.

The meanest thing we can think of is for a man to give away another who has done him a favor in a way a little out of his line of duty.—Fertile Journal.

The Best Cough Remedy on Earth.

Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, Consumption Cure, cures a cold in 24 hours if taken in time and does not stop a cough in ONE MINUTE by paralyzing the throat, but it cures the disease and leaves the throat and lungs healthy and strong. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

—Dr. Thomas is an up-to-date in all the different branches in his profession. Remember the dates, July 19th and 20th.

Grand Forks is making great preparations for their mid-summer Carnival and Band Tournament which takes place next Tuesday and Wednesday July 18th and 19th. Over two hundred players will take part in the band parade. All railroads make one fare for round trip.

—To cure a cough or cold in one day take the Imperial Cough Syrup.

Dentist.

—Dr. J. H. Thomas, the Crookston dentist will be at Hotel Markham, St. Hilaire, July 19th and 20th prepared to do all kinds of up to date dental work in all branches. All work warrented. Remember the dates 19th and 20th.

—A. H. Weagant, the hardware merchant, is now prepared to do all kinds of bicycle repairing in a satisfactory manner. If your bicycle is out of order bring it around to us.

Crookston College

Will open its 14th term September 11th 1899. The cheapest, best and most practical school in the northwest. Catalogue sent free. Address, Crookston College, Crookston, Minn.

—It is better than ready money because it cures rheumatism, constipation sick headache, indigestion. Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure.

We Handle Everything.

Start the Day Right

And everything will go smoothly. The proper way to start the day is by coming around to our store and ordering a supply of groceries for the day, such things as you may need. It will take you but a few minutes, and we feel sure you will not regret it.

Our Groceries

Are always fresh, and then the prices are as near right as we know how to make them. If you have not been in the habit of trading with us, drop in and see us anyway; you might get into the habit.

Hardware

We carry everything in the hardware line from cooking stoves down to tacks—all you have to do is to ask for what you want. If you want anything in the tin or copper line done drop into our tin shop and your wants will be attended to.

Yours very truly,

RAPP & POST

St. Hilaire, Minnesota.

M. A. HALL

DEALER IN

DRY GOODS,
GROCERIES,
NOTIONS,
GENTS FURNISHING GOODS,
TOBACCO,
CIGARS,
CONFECTIONERY

A. H. WEAGANT

Having bought the business of Fred Eikhoff, I am now prepared to sell you anything in line of

HARDWARE AND TINWARE

CUTLERY, PAINTS & OILS,

Everything at Rock Bottom Prices. Come and see for yourself. Opposite Hotel Markham

LEONARD HOLMES,

—DEALER IN—

Agricultural Implements

WHEAT, FLAX OATS AND BARLEY.

Flour and Feed always on Hand.

Lumber! Lumber!

OF ALL KINDS.

We have a large and well assorted stock of Dry Lumber and are prepared to fill all orders on short notice. We also carry a complete assortment

—OF—

Sash, Doors, Paper

AND ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL

Which we buy in large quantities and are thereby enabled to sell at lowest market prices.

ST. HILAIRE LUMBER CO.

NEW MEAT MARKET.

L. M. ROLAND, Proprietor.

Fresh and Salted Meats.

Highest Market Price Paid for Hides.

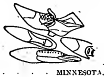
L. K. KOLSTAD

DEALER IN

Boots and Shoes!

Repairing a Specialty.

ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.



Pleased to Oblige.

Sailor—"Want to buy a parrot, lady?"

Lady—"Does he swear?"

Sailor—"No, lady, dis one don't; but if yer want to spy $2 more I kin get yer a very choice article wot cusses beautiful!"—Puck

Curious Custom.

In China guests at dinners run around between the courses. This is supposed to keep the digestion in good condition, but the hustling American needs something else, and there is nothing better than Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. If a man or woman is suffering with constipation, indigestion or any stomach trouble, it's their fault if they don't get well.

Badly Put.

Quizzek—"Why wouldn't Skinflint enlist?"

Guyer—The probably put it on the ground that it was a debt he owed the country.—Kansas City Independent.

"Do Not Grasp at the Shadow and Lose the Substance."

Many people are but shadows of their former selves, due to neglect of health. Look out for the blood, the fountain of life, the actual substance; keep that pure by regular use of Hood's Sarsaparilla and robust health will be the result. Be sure to get only Hood's, because

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Never Disappoints

An Important Personage.

"Did you ever hear of St. Dunstan?" asked the man who was chewing his lead pencil.

"St. Dunstan?" answered the friend. "Certainly. What was there so remarkable about him?"

"What was there remarkable about St. Dunstan? Why, Great Scott, man, don't you know that his name is the only one in the English language that furnishes a rhyme for 'Funston?'"—Washington Star.

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME.

We call attention of our readers to the advertisement of Notre Dame University, Notre Dame, Indiana, one of the great educational institutions of the West, which appears in another column of this paper. Those of our readers who may have occasion to look up a college for their sons during the coming year would do well to correspond with the President who will send them a catalogue free of charge, as well as all particulars regarding terms, courses of studies, etc.

There is a thorough preparatory school in connection with the University in which students of all grades will have every opportunity of preparing themselves for higher studies. The Commercial Course intended for young men preparing for business may be finished in one or two years according to the ability of the student. St. Edward's hall, for boys under thirteen, is an unique department of the institution. The higher courses are thorough in every respect, and students will find every opportunity of perfecting themselves in any line of work they may choose to select. Thoroughness in class-work, exactness in the care of students, and devotion to the best interests of all, are the distinguishing characteristics of Notre Dame University.

Fifty-five years of active work in the cause of education have made this institution famous all over the country.

Got to Do Something.

"Faugh! He is of ze canaille! I hate heem. Louce, hear-r-r me—I will smash hees hat!"

"No, Henri, do not do eet. Zey will send you to ze prisone for four-r-r years!"

"Ah! zen I will smash a hat zat is like hees!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

She Carried Him Off.

Huntley—Funny thing, that elopement of Miss Longwaite and young Snipper.

Author—Elopement? That was an abduction!—Philadelphia North American.

Are You Using Allen's Foot-Ease?

It is the only cure for Swollen, Smarting, Burning, Sweating Feet, Corns and Bunions. Ask for Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder to be shaken into the shoes. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

The Proper Classification.

She—What is the difference between white lies and black ones?

He—The former are the kind a woman thinks she tells a man, and the latter are the kind she thinks he tells her.—Chicago News.

Surprised.

"It was wonderful to see that young American lady 'leading the mob,'" said one Parisian.

"What was there wonderful about it?"

"Why, the fact that we could understand her French"—Washington Star.

Educate Your Bowels!

Your bowels can be trained as well as your muscles or your brain. Cascarets Candy Cathartic train your bowels to do right. All druggists, 10c, 25c, 50c

Choked Off.

"Now, on this question of the trust," said the frayed wayfarer with an interest in public affairs.

"No, sir," said the bartender, stolidly but significantly, "we don't trust."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

His Choice.

"My face is my fortune, sir," she said.

He married a bank account instead.—Cleveland Leader.

Wonderful Capacity.

"Old Oom Paul Kruger is a man of wonderful capacity."

"Yep. Two gallons of beer every blessed day."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Let loose in the yards—a Mother Hubbard dress.

SALVE FREE FOR PILES.

5 DROPS TRADE MARK

Kindly inform your readers that for the next thirty days we will send free of charge a sample box of our wonderful "5 Drops" Salve, which is a quick and positive cure for Piles, regardless of how severe or how long standing. It is the greatest specific known to the medical world to-day for this terrible malady. This is acknowledged by thousands of grateful individuals who have been completely cured by its use. Do not continue to suffer, write at once and secure a free sample box of "5 Drops" Salve. Price 25c and 50c per box, prepaid. Swanson Rheumatic Cure Company, 160-164 East Lake Street, Chicago, Ill.

A BUSINESS VENTURE.

A sign hanging above a little shop told the world of Hayside that Miss Jane Dody, milliner, had started in business.

Until this sign appeared Haysiders had been obliged to drive to Nesburg or send to the city for their millinery and having formed the habit it was a question whether they would break it and patronize the new establishment. Miss Jane did not know many town people, for she had lived in the country with an old aunt, who had lately died, leaving her a legacy of $300. It was a small capital, but being entirely dependent on her own exertions Miss Jane decided to start a millinery shop. She was old enough to decide for herself, being almost '40, but she was a timid woman and thought it better to ask Mr. Hope's advice first. Mr. Hope was president of the bank, an old friend of her aunt's and much admired and respected by herself. He was just entering his seventies, but many a man of 60 envied his vitality and youthfulness of feeling. He was a widower and lived alone in the "great house" of the village, where he dispensed hospitality and charity with an open hand. Rich, influential, and busy, he yet had time to listen to any tale of distress or give advice when requested. Mr. Hope had always liked little Miss Jane and was more than willing to listen to her plans and help her all he could. She was shown into his private office at the bank, blushing like one of the roses she held in her hands and making quite a pretty picture.

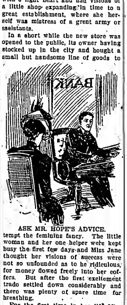
"I have $300, you know, Mr. Hope. Would you advise me to start a millinery shop with it or save it and go to the city to get employment?" she asked.

Mr. Hope knew how difficult it would be for a woman like Miss Jane, untrained and timid, to get work in the city, and quickly told her it would be best to try the shop and he was sure she would get on well.

"Bring on the best goods you can get and you will be sure to succeed. Everybody will buy from you. I don't wear bonnets myself," he added, laughing, "but I'll send all my friends to you."

At the close of this interview the prospective milliner left the banker with a light heart and had visions of a little shop expanding in time to a great establishment, where she herself was mistress of a great army or assistants.

In a short while the new store was opened to the public, its owner having stocked up in the city and bought a small but handsome line of goods to tempt the feminine fancy. The little woman and her one helper were kept busy the first few days and Miss Jane thought her visions of success were not so unfounded as to be ridiculous, for money flowed freely into her coffers. But after the first excitement trade settled down considerably and there was plenty of spare time for breathing.



ASK MR. HOPE'S ADVICE.

For the first time in her life Miss Jane learned what it cost to live. Having lived most of her life in the country, where things were had "for the raising," groceries gotten in exchange for country produce and no rent to pay, even the amount it took to run her little establishment was alarming to her. Anxieties would creep in occasionally. If the fall trade was not good how was she to get through the winter? Such thoughts worried her often through the week, but on Sabbaths, being a good Episcopalian, she dismissed them and, prayer book in hand, wended her way devoutly to the chapel.

Mr. Hope sat in the pew just in front of her and sometimes when his pew overflowed with his grandchildren or other guests he sat by Miss Jane and held her hymnbook while they both sang. At such times she felt a delightful thrill of excitement, but tried to repress it and say her responses reverently and place her thoughts on spiritual things. But she was always glad when Mr. Hope's pew overflowed.

Fall came on apace and the little milliner found it necessary to consult the banker again. This time she told him she had $100 in money, but not another penny. Would he advise her to turn this into flowers and feathers and other requisites of her trade, or would it be flying in the face of providence to use it?

"Use it by all means, Miss Jane. Times are looking up, business is going to revive, and I am sure your money will be more than doubled," he answered.

Again acting on his advice she bought the best her money would buy and began to prepare for her "fall opening." Her nimble fingers copied pattern hats and dainty bonnets until resting in her showcase and on the hat forms were as tasty and enticing a lot of head covering as had ever been seen by the town. The night before the opening she retired late, but woke up from a dream of being choked to find her room full of smoke. Almost stifled she threw on her wrapper and groping her way to the door ran out into the street crying "Fire!"

The house was a double one and the other side was already wrapped in flames when Miss Jane gave the alarm and the other tenants, whose carelessness had caused the fire, barely escaped with their lives.

Poor Miss Jane stood in the street wringing her hands in despair while the cruel flames devoured her pretty hats and bonnets, as if they were but a delicious morsel, until a kind neighbor came and led her home.

The "opening day" had arrived, the little millinery shop was open, in very truth, to the public, but there was nothing but ashes to gaze on. Black despair, starvation, even the poorhouse, stared Jane Dody in the face, as sitting by the neighbor's hearth she wept silently and dared not look into the future.

Early in the morning Mr. Hope heard the news.

He remembered it was by his advice that all the milliner's money was invested in that now ruined stock. Poor little woman! What could he do for her? He could not offer her money or a home. A home? Why not? He smiled at the thought and the little milliner's sweet face, sweet though no longer youthful, appeared to him with new charm. Hastily leaving his house he sought and found Miss Jane.

When he asked her to marry him she said "No" at first, for she felt sure it was only pity that moved his heart. But she looked so sweet and confused when she refused him that the dear old gentleman fell in love with her on the spot and succeeded in making himself, as well as her, believe that he had really loved her a long time and had only awaited a favorable opportunity of telling her. So, having no one to consult, they were married the very next day, in spite of the bride-elect's protests that the haste was unseemly.

Hayside had not recovered from the excitement caused by the fire when it had another shock. It occurred when the Weekly Local published the following item: "Married, Thursday, at 10 a. m., Mr. Richard Hope and Miss Jane Dody."

AN IRON FOUNDRY AT SEA.

The Usual Luxuries of Such Work Ashore Entirely Missing.

A foundry at sea had not been heard of before the cruise of the Vulcan, says the Engineering Magazine. Whatever other kind of naval repair work had been executed heretofore on board ship, that of making large brass and iron castings had not been attempted. In her facilities for this new line of work the Vulcan stands pre-eminent and alone. That the unique equipment for foundry work was successful is more than shown by the fact that thousands of pounds of iron and brass castings were made and finished for the ships of the fleet. The brass furnaces were kept in almost constant service sometimes running off two heats a day, and making it necessary to carry the work far into the night, much to the discomfort of the men, who were trying to get some sleep and rest before another day's work. In iron casting not more than one heat was run off in a day, and that usually about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. For after filling the molds and dropping bottom it was practically impossible to do much more in that part of the ship till the next morning. Kipling has sung for the Scotch engineer and stoker, but there was no heaven-born genius on board the Vulcan to treasure up the memories and scenes incident to dropping bottom. The usual luxuries of such ashore were entirely missing. Like the fiery furnace of old, the heat seemed seven times more intense than it was wont to be ashore.

UNCANNY FIGURES.

There is something uncanny about figures. They possess marvelous properties which, though perfectly well known, are nevertheless incomprehensible. Every one knows that if you multiply 37 by 3 or any multiple of 3 up to 27 the result is that all three digits are the same.

All these strange properties possessed by figures are recognized phenomena, which are to be accepted rather than explained. But when we get to the rather more involved mathematical calculations the uncanniness of figures is further involved. Take, for instance, the familiar puzzle, which is easily explained by the mathematician, but causes bewilderment to the tyro in figures.

Two men have 60 oranges each. The first sells half at two a penny and half at three a penny. Let us work out the sum. Thirty sold at two a penny bring him in 15 pence; 30 at three a penny fetch 10 pence; total, 25 pence. The second sells all his 60 at the rate of five for twopence. There are 12 sets of five in 60; hence he receives 12 twopence, or 24 pence.

Apparently both men sell at the same rate—they do not do so really—and one receives one penny more than the other. Verily, there is something extremely uncanny about figures.

A Solemn Declaration.

New York Tribune: Last week there was a marriage in the West Side by the Friends' ceremony, but the grave Quaker preacher thought it due to the friends of the couple to borrow a phrase or two from the Episcopal service, so at the end of the ceremony he made a prayer, woven out of bits of Prayerbook service, and then, after an impressive pause, he undertook to add the familiar declaration, saying with all gravity: "I hereby declare you to be man and woman." The old Friend pondered seriously upon the frivolity manifested by the tittering of the guests.

A Masculine Craze.

The latest masculine craze is for evening watch chains studded with jewels. The chief point about these chains is that they are much more slender than those for day wear. It used to be the fashion to wear no chain at all in the evening, but a special watch was worn which was extremely flat and did not cause the dress vest to bulge out in the least. Men are still wearing these evening dress watches, but with them now goes the delicate chain.

Offenses Against a Kaiser.

Offenses against Kaiser Wilhelm's dignity in the one year, 1898, were punished, taken altogether, with 2,000 years of imprisonment, according to the Nuremberger Zeitung.

The man who is honest merely from policy is practically dishonest.

Only Thirty and Gray

How is this?

Perhaps sleepless nights caused it, or grief, or sickness, or perhaps it was care.

No matter what the cause, you cannot wish to look old at thirty.

Gray hair is starved hair.

The hair bulbs have been deprived of proper food or proper nerve force.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

increases the circulation in the scalp, gives more power to the nerves, supplies missing elements to the hair bulbs.

Used according to directions, gray hair begins to show color in a few days. Soon it has all the softness and richness of youth and the color of early life returns.

Would you like our book on the Hair? We will gladly send it to you.

Write us!

If you do not obtain all the benefits you expected from the Vigor, write the doctor about it. He may be able to suggest something of value to you. Address, Dr. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Smuggled.

Chapple had just returned from a visit to England.

"Now, my dear boy," said his friend, who met him on the pier, "keep your mouth shut. Don't say a word to the custom house officials."

"Fawney, now!" said Chapple; "and why, my deah, fellah?"

"Because they'll make you pay duty on that new English accent of yours."

"Quite so!" said Chapple.

And he smuggled it in.—Harper's Bazar.

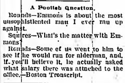
A Foolish Question.

Rounds—Emmons is about the most unsophisticated man I ever ran up against.

Squires—What's the matter with Emmons?

Rounds—Some of us went to him to see if he would run for alderman, and, if you'll believe it, he actually asked what salary there was attached to the office.—Boston Transcript.

EDUCATIONAL.



THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME,
NOTRE DAME, INDIANA.

Classics, Letters, Economics and History, Journalism, Art, Science, Pharmacy, Law, Civil, Mechanical and Electrical Engineering, Architecture.

Thorough Preparatory and Commercial Courses. Ecclesiastical students at special rates.

Rooms Free. Junior or Senior Year, Collegiate Courses. Rooms to Rent, moderate charge.

St. Edward's Hall, for boys under 13.

The 56th Year will open September 5th, 1899. Catalogue Free. Address,

REV. A. MORRISSEY, C. S. C., President.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY

Notre Dame P. O., Indiana.

(One mile West of the University of Notre Dame.)

The 89th Academic Term will open Monday, September 4, 1899. All the branches of

A Thorough English and Classical Education,

including Greek, Latin, Spanish, French and German are taught by a Faculty of competent teachers. On completing the full course of studies students receive the Regular Collegiate Degrees of Litt. B. or A. B.

The Conservatory of Music is conducted on the plan of the best Classical Conservatories of Europe.

The Art Department is modelled after the best Art Schools in Europe.

Preparatory and Minim Departments.—Pupils who need primary training, and those of tender age, are here carefully prepared for the Academic Course and Advanced Course.

For catalogue containing full information, address, DIRECTRESS OF THE ACADEMY, St. Mary's Academy, Notre Dame P. O., Ind.

THE JUDGES OF

CARTER'S INK

are the users. More users of it than any other. Why? THE BEST!

Costs YOU no more than the poorest!

CANDY CATHARTIC

Cascarets

REGULATE THE LIVER

WANTED—Case of bad health that R-I-P-A-N-S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimonials.

When Answering Advertisements Kindly Mention This Paper.

PISO'S CURE FOR

CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS.

Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists.

CONSUMPTION

KEYSTONE WONDERS.

ODD THINGS AMONG MAN AND BEAST.

Snake with One Body, Two Heads and Two Tails—Then There's a Bear That Lugs Off a Big Pork Barrel, and a Negro Who's Turning White.

Orin Carrington, a New Milford (Pa) farmer, recently succeeded in capturing a snake, or pair of snakes, hitched together like the Siamese twins. The reptile has two heads and two tails. All the rest of the body is like that of a single snake, with the exception of a slight depression above and below extending the entire length. The bodies join about six inches from the head. Each tail is almost a foot long. The length of the joined body is two feet nine inches. The twins were discovered last summer by a little son of Carrington, who told his father about them and showed him the track across the road. Carrington ran across it a few days ago when blasting a rock and succeeded in taking it alive. The twin snakes are jet black, with a yellow ring just behind the head. Both mouths take food.

A Callicoon (Pa.) farmer bought a barrel to pack some beef in, and left it in the barnyard one night recently. Next morning it was gone, to his great vexation, as pork barrels are not plentiful in that neighborhood. There was no one in the neighborhood whom the farmer suspected of stealing it, and the disappearance was a mystery that he tried to solve for a long time in vain. The other day the secret came out. Passing along a scrub-oak ridge near a brook he saw his missing barrel in a hollow. He went to the barrel, and as he laid his hand on it there was a great rumbling inside and out popped a bear, which gave a startled look and shuffled away rapidly into the bush. There was no explanation of the presence of the barrel in that spot except on the theory that the bear had stolen it in the night and rolled it all the way to the ridge, where the barrel had lodged, for a snug resting place for himself.

In slavery days, Susquehanna and Wayne counties had many stations of the "underground railroad" for slaves escaping from the South to Canada. Among the slaves to escape was Tom Harris, who was owned by Col. Harris of Culpepper, Va. As soon as war was declared, Tom returned from Canada to Wayne county, where he has since lived, doing odd jobs on farms. When Tom came to Wayne county he was as black as the "ace of spades," but for the last three years white spots have appeared upon his person, and today he is more than two-thirds white. Each succeeding white spot is larger and whiter than the one preceding, and their coming is accompanied by intense pain and itching. Tom's hair, once twisted and "kinky," is gradually straightening, and he expresses the belief that, before long, he will be "as white as any man in Wayne county." Tom's singular transformation is interesting the scientists of the state.—Susquehanna Cor. New York Press.

MALAYAN TRAITS.

Points of Character Seen in the Philippine Islanders.

The Malay race is impassive, reserved and even bashful, so that, until one knows the race better, one can scarcely credit his blood-thirsty reputation, says the Cincinnati Enquirer. The Malay is entirely undemonstrative. If he has any feelings of surprise he never shows them. Perhaps he experiences none, no matter how wonderful the sight which meets his gaze. He is slow and deliberate in speech, and circumlocutory in introducing a subject to be discussed. Even the children and women are timid, and scream at the sight of a European, while in the presence of the men they are silent and taciturn. Even when alone the Malay neither talks nor sings, in this respect differing much from the Papuan, who has all the negro traits for chattering and singing to himself for company. Overpay a Malay for some trifle and his countenance betrays no sign of emotion; a Papuan will be grave for a moment out of perfect astonishment at the mistake made, and then burst into peals of grinning laughter, while he bends in two, and finally rolls on the ground in ecstasies of merriment. The Malays, when in company in a canoe, chant a plaintive, monotonous song; at other times they are silent. The Malay is cautious of giving offense to any one, and accordingly will hesitate to quarrel about money matters, and rather abandon a just debt due to him than run the risk of a feud with his equals. In his ordinary life he is as impassive as the typical Scot and as fond of the nil admirari line of conduct as the American Indian, though, unlike him, the Malay does not dissemble his feelings or play a part. He has really little, if any, appreciation of humor and does not understand a practical jest. To all breaches of etiquette he is very sensitive and equally jealous of any interference with his own or any one man's liberty. To such an extent does he carry this idea that a Malay servant will hesitate to waken another, even his own master, though told to do so. The higher classes are exceedingly polite, possessing all the repose and quiet dignity of the best-bred Europeans. There is, however, another side to the character of the Malay. He is reckless, cruel and careless of human life, possesses but a poor intellect and has neither taste for knowledge nor any indigenous civilization.

Unkind.

Candidate (who is not making a favorable impression on the meeting)—And now, gentlemen, I ask myself one question——

Voice (from the hall)—And a d——d silly answer you'll get!—Life.

First Electric Road Was in Ireland.

The first electric railway in the world was built in Ireland from Bushmills to Giant's causeway.

There are about 800,000 houses in Ireland.

His Memory.

"I tell you," Mr. Billus was saying, "there is nothing like a bunch of keys to develop one's memory. Now, I have twenty-seven keys on this ring, and I add a new one every few days, yet I am never at a moment's loss to select the right one when I have occasion to use it."

"What have you got that brass button strung on there for?"

"Um—that was put there by my wife a day or two ago to remind me of some trifling thing I was to get for her, but I've forgotten what it was."—Chicago Tribune.

PATENTS.

List of Patents Issued Last Week to Northwestern Inventors.

Day, Henry L., Minneapolis, Minn., separator. Goetze, Max, Sturgis, S. D., lamp extinguisher. Hopkins, Albert N., Duluth, Minn., grain car door. Lebcher, Chester B., Plains, Mont., continuous contact trolley. Schiebtl, Joseph, Le Sueur, Minn., folding stock or poultry rack. Vetlesen, Peter J., Minneapolis, Minn., wash stand; (design.)

Merwin, Lothrop & Johnson, Patent Attorneys, 910 Pioneer Press Bldg., St. Paul.

Sorry He Was Well.

Mrs. Bargane—Haven't you got a toothache, John?

Mr. Bargane—No, my dear; why?

Mrs. Bargane—I'm sorry that you have not. I bought a new toothache cure to-day at a bargain, and I wanted you to try it.—Baltimore Jewish-American.

The Place for Your Daughters.

St. Mary's Academy at Notre Dame, Indiana, ranks first among the educational institutions for girls. Young women from all parts of the United States are found in its classes. The faculty have just issued a catalogue that contains much valuable data. Parents desirous of sending their daughters to the best institution should send for this catalogue before deciding on sending them elsewhere. It is under the supervision of the Sisters of the Holy Cross and is located at Notre Dame, far from the excitement of even village life, and right among the beautiful scenes of the Creator's handiwork.

Storage.

"What becomes of the sea serpent in winter time?" asked the amateur scientist.

"I don't know," answered the skeptic. "But I should think as good a plan as any would be for the landlord to get a base reel and keep him in a dry cellar."—Washington Star.

Wisdom.

"Why do you say that you'll marry only a widow?"

"Well, I think it is a part of wisdom to get some one who has already discovered that men are not angels."—Chicago Post.

Do Your Feet Ache and Burn?

Shake into your shoes, Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It makes tight and New Shoes feel Easy. Cures Corns, Bunions, Swollen, Hot and Sweating Feet. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

"Yes," said the dentist's wife, "my husband is as irritable as a cross baby; but there's some excuse for it—he's teething."

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

We never realize what jewels some people are until they are laid away in their caskets.

I believe my prompt use of Piso's Cure prevented quick consumption.—Mrs. Lucy Wallace, Marquette, Kan., Dec. 12, '95.

The barber with a tonic to sell certainly does relate some hair-raising stories.

Miss Lockheart's
LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 67,101]

"I cannot express my gratitude to you for the good that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I have taken five bottles of the Compound and two boxes of Liver Pills and feel better in every respect. I had suffered for years with dropsy; the veins in my limbs burst, caused from the pressure of the water. I had the worst kind of kidney trouble, fainting spells, and I could not stand long at a time. I also had female weakness and the doctor said there was a tumor in my left side. The pains I had to stand were something dreadful. A friend handed me a little book of yours, so I got your medicine and it has saved my life. I felt better from the first bottle. The bloating and the tumor have all gone and I do not suffer any pain. I am still using the Vegetable Compound and hope others may find relief as I have done from its use."—Miss N. J. Lockheart, Box 16, Elizabeth, Pa.

Only the women who have suffered with female troubles can fully appreciate the gratitude of those who have been restored to health.

Mrs. Pinkham responds quickly and without charge to all letters from suffering women. Her address is Lynn, Mass.

CRITICAL PERIODS

In Woman's Life Are Made Dangerous by Pelvic Catarrh.

Mrs. Mathilde Richter, Doniphan, Neb., says:

"I suffered from catarrh for many years, but since I have been taking Pe-ru-na I feel strong and well. I would advise all people to try Pe-ru-na. As I used Pe-ru-na and Man-a-lin while I was passing through the change of life, I am positively convinced your beneficial remedies have relieved me from all my ills."

Mrs. Mathilde Richter.

Pe-ru-na has raised more women from beds of sickness and set them to work again than any other remedy. Pelvic catarrh is the bane of womankind. Pe-ru-na is the bane of catarrh in all forms and stages. Mrs. Col Hamilton, Columbus, O., says: "I recommend Pe-ru-na to women, believing it to be especially beneficial to them."

Send for a free book written by Dr. Hartman, entitled "Health and Beauty." Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

Remember that cholera morbus, cholera infantum, summer complaint, bilious colic, diarrhoea and dysentery are each and all catarrh of the bowels. Catarrh is the only correct name for these affections. Pe-ru-na is an absolute specific for these ailments, which are so common in summer. Dr. Hartman, in a practice of over forty years, never lost a single case of cholera infantum, dysentary, diarrhoea, or cholera morbus, and his only remedy was Pe-ru-na. Those desiring further particulars should send for a free copy of "Summer Catarrh." Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O.

These Rapid Days

City Editor—Well?

Reporter—Can I have fifteen minutes off this afternoon?

City Editor (frowning)—For what?

Reporter—I'm going to be married.

City Editor—Well, hurry up. And (absently) get the name of the bride, and all that, and if there's anything sensational, enlarge upon it. I shall expect half a column. Get a hustle on!—St. Louis Republican.

General Manager Underwood, of the Baltimore & Ohio road, has a plan to unify and simplify the titles of officials. Several of the officers have duties to perform which are not shown by their official designation, and on July 1 the following changes were made:

Harvey Middleton, now general superintendent of motive power, will be mechanical superintendent in charge of all shops, and the construction of and repairs to locomotives and cars.

David Lee, engineer maintenance of way, lines west of Ohio river, will be superintendent maintenance of way, Trans-Ohio division, and D. A. Williams will be superintendent of stores.

The Tendency

"Some of those old-time writers," said the man that admires nothing that is not archaic, "can always be depended upon to call a spade a spade."

"Indeed?" rejoined Miss Cayenne. "My impression was that they would not think of being so delicate. They would be sure to find something suggestive of impropriety even about a spade."—Washington Star.

Read the Advertisements.

You will enjoy this publication much better if you will get into the habit of reading the advertisements; they will afford a most amusing study, and will put you in the way of getting some excellent bargains. Our advertisers are reliable; they send what they advertise.

Selfish.

Granger—Yes, Tom's wife is a pretty good sort of a woman, as women go; but she is supremely selfish.

Ransom—Oh, no; that's too bad.

Granger—It's the truth, all the same. She isn't willing that he should love any other woman.—Boston Transcript.

Hall's Catarrh Cure

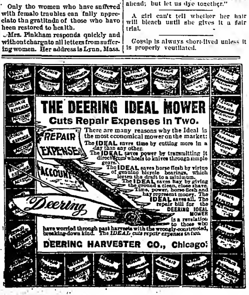
Is taken internally. Price, 75c.

In this desert of toil some men are enough like camels to go a long time without water.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

"Yes," said the light-colored coat and vest to the trousers, "all looks black ahead; but let us dye together."

A girl can't tell whether her hair will bleach until she gives it a fair trial.

Gossip is always short-lived unless it is properly ventilated.



REPAIR EXPENSE ACCOUNT
Deering

THE DEERING IDEAL MOWER

Cuts Repair Expenses in Two.

There are many reasons why the Ideal is the most economical mower on the market: The IDEAL saves time by cutting more in a day than any other. The IDEAL saves power by transmitting it direct from wheels to knives through simple gears. The IDEAL saves horse flesh by virtue of genuine bicycle bearings, which lessen the draft to a minimum. The IDEAL saves hay by giving the ground a clean, close shave. Time, power, horse flesh and hay represent money. The IDEAL saves all. The repair bill for the DEERING IDEAL MOWER is a revelation to those who have worried through past harvests with the wrongly-constructed, breaking-down kind. The IDEAL cuts repair expenses in two.

DEERING HARVESTER CO., Chicago.

Minnesota Historical Society

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR.

VOLUME XVIII. ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY JULY 19, 1899. NUMBER 51

KNOCKOUT BLOW

DELIVERED BY GOVERNOR LIND IN THE MILLER CONTROVERSY.

Senator Miller Completes His Retraction—His Further but Weakling Attempts to Bolster Up His Case—Quotations Which Do Not Quote, and References That Do Not Refer—A Case for "Dinkelspiel"—Now, Here's a Chance for the "Fire Eaters"—The Filipino Who Didn't Know the Countersign. The Declaration of Independence Dropped on the Fourth—More of Gold Standard Trust Prosperity—Wheat and Silver Neck and Neck for Low Points. State and Twin City Politics—Cass Lake Delendum Est—Good Words for the State Administration—Governor Lind Will Meet the Thirteenth—Note and Comment of the Week.

Reform Press Bureau.
St. Paul, July 10, 1899.

No event of the administration of Governor Lind to this point has perhaps been of so great interest as the action taken by the governor regarding the Miller warfare on him for the veto of Senate File 24, the bill making proceedings before the grain and warehouse commissions court records in cases of appeal. No party, or faction of one, was ever driven into so ridiculous a situation as the Republican party, or such elements of it as were misled into attack on the governor in that case.

As stated last week, Senator Miller in the Rock County Herald retracted the base charges he had made against Governor Lind, on receipt of the governor's demand therefor, and the senator, as promised, published the governor's letter in full. The senator in doing so made a show of defending his position as to the operation of the measure, but his statements were specious and without effect, and in most cases where he quoted authorities or opinions they were without name or identity, which weakened or nullified his effort.

Wide publication has been given Governor Lind's communication, it having been published by the state press generally, regardless of politics, a sign of fairness that is not usual. Few papers have been rabid enough to refuse this courtesy to the governor, in a matter of so much concern. Numerous Republican papers have borne down hard on Senator Miller for, as they charge, misleading them both as to the facts and the effect of the action for which Governor Lind was criticised.

As it was the charges of unworthy motives that led Governor Lind to depart from his usual course and give attention to the case, we herewith give the terms in which Senator Miller made his full and explicit retraction, as follows:

In his issue of June 23, upon receipt of the governor's demand, Senator Miller said:

"The statement made in these columns June 9 respecting the Great Northern Railroad company, and any other statements which have appeared in previous or subsequent issues of this paper to the effect that the action of Governor Lind in omitting to sign Senate File No. 24 was in any way influenced by that company or any of its officers is hereby retracted."

In his next issue, publishing the governor's letter, he said:

"Senate File No. 24.

"After reading the letter of Governor Lind, published elsewhere in this issue, The Herald is convinced that the governor vetoed Senate File No. 24 under an honest mistake as to the legal effect of the bill. Being so convinced The Herald makes an absolute and unequivocal retraction of every statement in any issue of this paper which directly or indirectly charges or insinuates that Governor Lind acted corruptly or was actuated by improper motives or that he was influenced by any individual or corporation in omitting to sign Senate File No. 24."

The responsibility of the Luverne Herald in leading its Republican brethren astray is thus expressed by Senator Miller's contemporary, the Luverne Journal, Republican, of which W. H. Workman is the editor. The Journal says:

"If there was any one in the Republican party in position to know the truth or falsity of the statements published, it was Senator Miller, hence the article in question was taken as the truth by the Republicans and many Democrats throughout the state, and it was published by Republican papers and generally circulated as a fact that the Great Northern Railroad company influenced the Governor's action in the matter. In fact one paper dubbed him the 'Great Northern Governor.' It must be very humiliating to those who have circulated the report to find out that it was not true and had no foundation in fact."

Such efforts to bring the Governor into disrepute are a disgrace to respectable journalism and should not be countenanced for one minute by members of the Republican party.

There has been no end of comment on Senator Miller's concealment of the "authorities" cited, but no where located, and in some cases it is asserted, by Republicans, too, that the "blind" authority must be the same as was behind the bill when up in the senate, which no one could definitely locate, hence the impression gaining ground that if the truth is ever ascertained, it will be found that the railways were directing the action from first to last. At any rate it is a clear case for Diederick Dinkenspiel to discover the "Man Behindt der Horizon," already yet.

The President's forced determination to raise a few more men to go against Aguinaldo, revives interest in the Twin City recruiting stations, and they will be watched to see how the patriots who want to hang their betters for criticizing the policy which has plunged us into a war of foreign conquest rush to enlist. Heretofore Uncle Sam has enlisted several men a week when rushing the business, but that was before the local "fire-eaters" got themselves aroused. Probably the discrimination against the Northwest in wiping Fort Snelling from the list of official stations will not help the business here. Besides, if the stories of Trust prosperity are half true men are so well employed and making so much money that they will hesitate to enlist in so unpopular a war as this is. But we shall see.

"Advance and give the countersign," sang out the American sentinel. The poor, barefoot Filipino crept forward with bowed head and muttered: "All men are born free and equal."

But as this declaration was not the proper password, and because it conveyed a meaning decidedly revolutionary and antagonistic to revised Americanism, the sentinel, after a preliminary discharge, cut the twenty-sixth notch on the stock of his rifle.

Not only the Filipino stumbled on the countersign, but the reading of the Declaration of Independence was numerously dispensed with this Fourth. It couldn't gibe with imperialism.

W. J. Bryan, in his recent sermon in the New York Journal: "What is the attitude of the Christian toward the trust? (The money trust.) Can he be a monometalist? Can he run a corner in loaves and fishes without breaking the Golden rule? Will the Standard Oil and the Water of Life mix?"

During the week wheat has crept back to about as low a point as it has been for several months, the average price at interior Minnesota points being under 60 cents. Silver is close to the same figure, low wheat going along with low silver, the same as par silver would give us dollar wheat and better.

And speaking of gold trust prosperity it seems that the Winona Savings bank celebrates it by reducing interest on deposits to 2 per cent, provided they stand for six months. This is an indication of the condition of banking business where it is conducted without special benefits such as the national banks receive. In fact, if there is a line of business not receiving special favors in some manner, due directly or indirectly to legislation or administration, that is profitable or more profitable than it has been, will some gold standard advocates please point it out?

The Savings Bank of St. Paul, having basked in the same kind of prosperity, has been closed by Examiner Pope. It appears that the bank has not earned a penny's profit for a long time, although it bravely forced dividends to keep up appearances. Examiner Pope, having exercised his utmost leniency for some months, finally refused to let the depositors and the public be further jeopardized. With resources of over $1,600,000 the bank had on hand at closing only $33,097 in cash and some $50,000 otherwise available, with which to pay over $1,000,000 deposits. The bank's money is largely in mortgages and real estate whose values have been squeezed to death under the gold standard. Examiner Pope, painful as his duty may be, unflinchingly discharges it in protecting the people.

Congressman Morris, as a crowning act of his second and last term, will see the town of Cass Lake destroyed, the people who have settled there in good faith under the Nelson law driven into beggary, perhaps, and settlement of a vast region of the state retarded, all that the dignity of one of McKinley's departments shall be preserved. Yes, Cass Lake must go. Cass Lake delendum est!

A specimen of the efficiency and ability of the departments of the Lind administration is the successful encampment of the State National Guard under Adjutant General George G. Lambert. Says the Globe's Lake City correspondent:

"Congratulations are being extended to Adjutant General Lambert, of St. Paul, on every hand for the efficient manner in which he is performing the duties called for by his commission. No former officer holding this rank has ever performed the duties as well and as economically as has the present incumbent. He is winning the admiration of all the members of the national guard for the manner in which he looks after the interests and comforts of the men.

And the Minneapolis Times says:

"Adjutant General Lambert is exciting universal admiration, not to say surprise, by the manner in which he is conducting the affairs of the national guard encampment this year. At no time during the course of the encampments of years gone by has an adjutant general shown such a deep personal interest in the affairs of the various commands as the present incumbent of that office. He has made it a practice to be upon the grounds as much as possible and to extend his personal supervision over all work and improvements that are under way."

Free coinage is dead, about as abolition was dead when the great interests behind the institution of slavery wanted to believe it dead. The country wants emancipation from the money power, which is the only way to knock off the shackles put on them by the trusts and combines. As Lincoln said: "This country cannot exists half slave and half free."

The official announcement that the Thirteenth will sail for home next, is cheering news to the loved ones who anxiously await the returning veterans. Plans for their reception are not yet matured, further than that Governor Lind will give the regiment a personal and official reception in San Francisco.

G. S. C.

BIG STRIKE IS ON

BROOKLYN STREET CAR MEN QUIT WORK.

No Telling How Long or Far Reaching the Strike May Become—Passenger Traffic Was Greatly Congested in Consequence—Disturbances Occur, but Without Serious Effect — Men Complain That the Company Did Not Live Up to the Ten-Hour Law.

New York, July 17.—Another trolley strike is on in Brooklyn. So far it has not been as effective as the strike of 1895, but there is no telling how long or far-reaching it may become. For some weeks past the employes of the several lines controlled by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company have been complaining that the management did not live up to the ten-hour law. The men demand a revision of the time tables at the different barns, and also claim that they should be paid 20 cents an hour for over time, which is equivalent to $2 a day, the price which they set for a working day of ten hours. Meetings have been held daily and nightly for the last week, and it was inferred from the reports given out by the employes and their advisers since Thursday last that, while a strike was imminent, it would not occur for some time to come.

General Master Workman Parsons and District Master Workman Pines had charge of the men's affairs and a strike was called at 4:30 yesterday morning. At that hour most of the motormen and conductors on the Brooklyn Traction company's lines had completed their night trips and the leaders decided that this was the most opportune moment to begin what was expected to be a stubborn fight with the traction company. A heavy rain storm was in progress at this time and there was very little passenger traffic. The Smith street, Franklin avenue and Hamilton Ferry lines, which are controlled by the Coney Island Railroad company, having maintained the regular terms with their employes, were not impeded in the least, but on all other roads transportation was stopped for awhile and a great deal of congestion occurred in consequence.

The heavy storm of the early morning was dissipated about 10 o'clock, and from that hour until well on into the afternoon the Sunday traffic, which is usually very heavy, to North Beach, Bergen Beach and Coney Island filled the cars, but the dread of trouble or disturbance kept hundreds of people away from these seaside resorts. Shortly before noon President Rossiter's private car Ampore started from the city hall and made a round trip or the Traction's lines. Coming back from Coney Island the president's car traveled over the Fifth avenue route, and as it neared Twenty-third street and Fifth avenue those on board found their further progress impeded by a stalled car near the Fifth avenue barn. Here a crowd of 500 people, many of them women and children, had congregated, and the motorman of the Amport, Howard Jackson, was attacked by several men who were strikers or in sympathy with them. The motorman received some nasty bruises on the head and legs. Detectives rushed to the man's assistance and he was finally rescued from the mob. Six arrests were made and the track was soon cleared. Throughout the afternoon boulders and large pieces of granite were taken from a near-by yard and placed on the tracks in the vicinity of Greenwood cemetery, and as cars came along at intervals of twenty and thirty minutes their further progress was considerably delayed until these obstructions were removed. No sooner did the cars pass than the boulders were laid on the tracks again and the police were unable to stop the efforts of the obstructionists. During the day additional police were sent over from New York and a close watch was kept all along Brooklyn bridge to see that no person interfered with the trolley wires. Several arrests were made during the day among the ranks of the strikers and their sympathizers. President Rossiter said last night that the Brooklyn Rapid Transit officials would not arbitrate the strike difficulty with their striking employes.

Claim Against the Transvaal.

Victoria, B. C., July 17. — United States Consul Smith of this city is said to have forwarded to the American government a memorial from R. E. L. Brown, an American mining engineer, requesting the government's intervention to secure Brown's claim against the Transvaal government for damages rising out of the well known Wilfontein case in which Brown secured a judgment for $1,812,000.

Hop Tea Don't Go.

Guthrie, Okla., July 17.—Operators of hop tea joints in the Indian Territory must quit the sale of that beverage or suffer the penalty of the law. Judge Clayton, of the territorial supreme court, has rendered a decision to the effect that hop tea is sufficiently intoxicating to make its sale come under the prohibition law of the territory. All of the joints are now to be closed.

Death From Barbed Wire.

Dumont, Iowa, July 17.—While Herman Greenawalt and Herman Sanders were driving about a mile west of town the team became frightened and ran away, throwing Greenawalt out of the wagon. He fell between the wheel and a wire fence and was dragged for some distance along the wires, cutting him seriously about the legs and body. He will die. Sanders cannot be found.

Fell in a Well.

Lake Crystal, Minn., July 17.—Henry E. Jones, eighteen years old, and a prominent young man of this place, was accidentally killed by falling into a well on his father's farm. He is a second son to die by accident in two years.

Owned in La Crosse.

New Orleans, July 17. — One of the yards of the New Orleans Cypress company, containing nearly 3,000,000 feet of cypress, was burned. The mill is principally owned in La Crosse, Wis. Loss, $120,000; insurance, $75,000.

MAN OR BEAST?

Circus Man Charged With Killing a "What Is It."

Bonesteel, S. D., July 17.—Upon the question whether his victim was brute or human depends Archie H. Brower's guilt or innocence of the crime of murder. Brower was one of the owners of a small tent show which came here for an exhibition. Among their attractions was a creature of seemingly higher form of animal life than a monkey and lower than a man. Brower and Thorodyke called the animal the "missing link," and laid great stress on the alleged fact that no one was able to say whether it belonged to the human or the brute creation. Brower now avers that the freak was a monkey. In a scuffle with it the showman became angry and, seizing a club dealt his antagonist a hard blow over the ear, from the effects of which it died in a few hours. The local authorities immediately placed Brower under arrest on a charge of murder. At the preliminary hearing his lawyers set up the defense that their client did not take the life of a human being, but the magistrate bound him over to the grand jury.

NORTH DAKOTA HAIL.

Severe Storm Which Devastates the Grain Fields.

Grand Forks, N. D., July 17.—A destructive hailstorm passed through the country west and south of here, doing great damage. The storm appears to have started some distance north of Devils Lake, traveled southeast, passing twelve miles north of Lakota, striking Michigan City and the country near Northwood. It crossed the Great Northern main line diagonally at Reynolds, reaching from Thompson to Buxton. Accounts say that the storm was a severe one and the loss must be very great. At Reynolds at least a dozen farmers have suffered a total loss and similar reports come from other towns. The storm averaged two miles in width. Two hours earlier a lighter storm struck Inkster and Mecklnock, but did no damage.

BOXELL MAY NOT RECOVER.

Man Charged With Murder in a Critical Condition.

Buffalo, Minn., July 17.—Joe Boxell, who has been on trial on a charge of murder, may never see the completion of the case, as he is dangerously ill, and the doctors are of the opinion that he will not recover. F. E. Latham of Buffalo, who is defending Boxell on the murder charge, in discussing the affair of his client, said Boxell began to fail in health some time ago. Friday night his condition was so critical that three physicians were called in consultation. In spite of all that has been done for the sick man he has steadily grown worse.

NOW AT PINE RIDGE.

Five Indians Wanted for Violating Game Laws Are Located.

Deadwood, S. D., July 17. — Maj. Clapp, agent at Pine Ridge agency, wired that the five Indians who shot and killed some antelope across the line in Wyoming and resisted arrest, had arrived at the agency. They are not Crow Indians, as suspected, but either belong to the Pine Ridge or Rosebud agencies. The agent is investigating the case, and if they belong to Pine Ridge they will be arrested immediately. The posse has also arrived from Wyoming and Edgemont.

WORSE THAN GRASSHOPPERS.

Unidentified Bug Destroys 110 Acres of Wheat in South Dakota.

Sioux Falls, S. D., July 17.—Patrick Carney, a Clark county farmer, reports that a strange insect is doing some damage to wheat in his locality. He had 110 acres entirely destroyed, while a few other farmers also suffered losses. The insect seems to sap the life out of the plant, causing it to fall over and wilt. No one seems to know the name of the pest, which has thus far confined itself to a limited area.

COMING TO MINNESOTA.

President McKinley, Cleveland and Roosevelt.

Grand Rapids, Minn., July 17.—D. M. Gunn, of the Hotel Pokegama, has received word from Chicago that in October next a delegation of prominent men interested in the new park reserve will visit Grand Rapids and spend some time here investigating the country. Among the visitors President McKinley, ex-President Cleveland, Gov. Roosevelt and other governors, congressmen and statesmen are listed.

Sheep Raising Increasing.

Sioux Falls, S. D., July 17.—During the past few years there has been a wonderful increase in the number of sheep on the lands between the Missouri river and the Black Hills. The sheep raising industry has reached such proportions that the owners of sheep have decided that it will be well for them to form an association similar to the associations formed and maintained by the cattlemen, and accordingly a meeting has been called for Oct. 2 next at Fort Pierre, when the sheepmen's association will be organized.

Shot While Playing Soldier.

Grand Forks, N. D., July 17.—While playing soldier at Towner Sydney Erickson was shot in the side by a companion and it is feared he will not recover. The boys were using toy guns and cartridges from which the bullets had been extracted. One bullet had been overlooked, however.

It Looks Suspicious.

London, July 17.—A magistrate ordered fourteen tons of rotten fruit seized in the boiling room of Sir Thomas Lipton's jam factory.

Seven Were Drowned.

Seattle, Wash., July 17.—The schooner Gen. Siglin, from Cook's Inlet, Alaska, brings news of the drowning of seven men at Turnagain Arm early in June. They were crossing the Arm in a small boat which was overturned by a big tidal wave.

Victim of Lightning.

Moorhead, Minn., July 17. — Matt Simoaltsch was struck by lightning and was unconscious for several hours. He is resting easily, and the doctors think he will recover.

BIG RIOTS IN CHINA

PEASANTS RESIST THE GERMAN INFANTRY.

Rose by Preconcerted Signal and Attacked the Railway Which Is Being Built by Germans—Brigands Kill Two Russian Officers and Ten Cossacks—China Worrying Over Italian Naval Maneuvers—Terrible Fire Sweeps a Town—Horrible Mine Accident.

Tacoma, Wash, July 17.—Steamship Olympia, of the Northern Pacific line, arrived yesterday from China and Japan with three thousand tons of the new crop of tea. She began discharging immediately and will hasten back with freight that importers are attempting to rush into Japan before the new duties become effective. Several cars of tobacco await shipment here. The officers of the Olympia bring word that the City of Peking is quarantined at Nagasaki and the American Maru at Yokohama, both of San Francisco Oriental lines, with cases of bubonic plague aboard. There have been two deaths aboard the American Maru.

The Olympia brings the following mail advices:

Serious riots occurred near Kiaochou June 26. Thousands of armed peasants rose by preconcerted signal and attacked the railway now being actively pushed in the vicinity. The rioters offered determined resistance to the German infantry and nine were killed. It is expected the military will be able to restore order without further bloodshed.

Two Prussian engineers and ten Cossacks have been killed by brigands near Kirin.

Much damage was done by the recent floods in the Kobe prefecture. Losses are roughly estimated at over 150,000 yen.

The Italian squadron is maneuvering on the Yellow sea and the Chinese authorities express anxiety as to its intentions. The representatives of the powers do not believe Italy will take any decisive action against China.

The recent fire at Onomiche, in the province of Echizen, destroyed 724 houses, 56 go-downs, 3 Buddhist temples, a police office, a post and telegraph office, etc. Four persons were burned to death, five severely wounded and fifty slightly injured. The place was the scene of a conflagration twelve years ago, when 1,031 houses and 222 go-downs were destroyed.

The British and American residents of Kinning district have been advised by their consuls to leave Foo Chow in order to escape further attacks.

One case of cholera has appeared at Nagasaki.

June 14 a great quantity of gunpowder exploded in a go-down of the military division at Shiakel Yel, Japan, and over three hundred houses surrounding the place were destroyed and thirty lives lost.

A coal mine in Takawai Gori became filled with poisonous gas and about 100 miners were suffocated.

The American, Russian and German ministers are engaged in negotiations regarding the construction of the Seoul Wousan railway.

June 14 at Seoul explosives were thrown at the residence of Sin Kwison, premier, Pak Chong Yang and Pak Hwi Yang, wounding one person severely. The court was thrown into a great panic. The emperor has removed to the newly built library, but the Russian and American legations are closely guarded. Some thirty persons were arrested. They are suspected of being connected with conspirators in Japan.

Army Property Destroyed.

Price, Utah, July 17. — The second fire within a week occurred at Fort Duchesne, when the quartermaster stables and contents were entirely consumed. Nineteen mules were burned to death. The loss also includes twenty wagons, besides a number of ambulances, light spring wagons, buckboards, pack saddles, harness and hay and oats. The loss is placed at $20,000.

Lone Navigator Picked Up.

Liverpool, July 17. — The British steamer Holbein picked up Capt. William M. Andrews, known as the "lone navigator," who left Atlantic City on June 18 in a little craft named the Doree, barely twelve feet in length, to attempt to cross the Atlantic. Capt. Andrews was found exhausted on July 12 about 700 miles from the Irish coast. His boat was left adrift.

The Wrong Bottle.

Omaha, July 17—By mistaking a bottle containing carbolic acid for a bottle of peppermint John E. Prendergast, aged twenty-two, a blacksmith, drank a poisonous potion which resulted in almost immediate death. The young man had returned after a night of dissipation and searched the pantry in the dark for the peppermint.

Bicycle Combine Not Abandoned.

New York, July 17.—The report that the proposed combine of bicycle manufacturers throughout the United States had fallen through, recently published, is denied by several of the most prominent manufacturers in this city. There will probably be a meeting of the manufacturers this week to complete the organization.

Jurist Dead.

Boston, July 17. — Walbridge Abner Field, chief justice of the supreme court of Massachusetts, died at his home in this city, aged sixty-six years.

Steal or a Fake?

Madrid, July 17. — El Liberal announces the discovery of a deficit of 2,550,000 pesetas in the accounts of the Northern Railway company due to embezzlements. The evening papers publish contradiction of the report.

Drowned While Bathing.

Park Rapids, Minn., July 17. — The daughter of Robert Grout, while bathing in the river, got beyond her depth and was drowned before assistance could reach her. She was fourteen years of age.

INDIANS ARE DACING.

In Spite of the Efforts of the Government to Prevent It.

Guthrie, Okla., July 17.—The Indians of the territory are largely engaged in dancing in spite of the efforts of the government to prevent the practice. At Greyhorse the Big Hill band of Osages have been holding a smoke dance for a week in honor of their guests, the Pawhuska band, and during that time have presented them with nearly $5,000 worth of presents, including many ponies and saddles, a thousand yards of red calico and fifty nickel watches. On the Otoe and Missouri reservations the members of these two tribes are holding a six days' ghost dance, participated in by 2,000 Indians, including many Okawas and Pawnees, who have come long distances to join in the dance. The green corn dance of the Cheyennes and Arapahoes is in progress twenty miles west of Weatherford, fully 3,000 Indians participating, and the weird ceremonies led by the medicine men are kept up day and night.

FMAILY QUARREL.

Resulting in Two Deaths and the Wounding of One Person.

Libertyville, Ill., July 17.—Following a family quarrel Mrs. George Trelder shot and killed her mother, Mrs. Foss, wounded her husband and killed herself. Hot words were exchanged during the morning between Mrs. Foss and her daughter and Trelder also became involved in the dissension. After dinner the trouble broke out afresh. Mrs. Trelder stepped into the bed room and, appearing immediately with a revolver, opened fire on her mother. The first shot was fatal, and the husband, springing forward to disarm his wife, received three wounds that sent him from the house in retreat. After leaving the house he heard two more shots, the ones that killed his wife. Mrs. Trelder leaves two children. She was thirty-three and her mother eighty years of age.

DIVINE HEALER ARRESTED.

August Schrader Held for Violating the Laws of Iowa.

Ottumwa, Iowa, July 17. — August Schrader, alleged divine healer, has been arrested in this city after a most successful day's operation. Two complaints were filed against him by the chief of police, one under the city ordinance and the other under the statute of Iowa, which prohibits practicing of itinerant physicians without a license. Schrader pleaded not guilty to violating the city ordinance and was fined $50, but in the other case he waived preliminary examination and was held to the grand jury in bonds of $300, his manager, N. E. Chambers, qualifying on his bond. It is estimated that over 500 people visited Schrader during his one day's stay in the city, but not a single cure has been reported.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

Marconi's System Will Be Given a Test Among the Islands of Hawaii.

Victoria, B. C., July 17. — Marconi's system of wireless telegraphy is to be put in operation in Hawaii as a means of communication between the different islands of the group. An organization has been formed, capital has been subscribed for the project and some of the material for the system is already on the way. There is only one channel between islands in the group that is wider than the English channel. That is the one between Oahu and Kauai, and to the minds of the promoters of the enterprise communication across this is the only part of their plan which is problematical.

SHOT TO DEATH IN JAIL.

Georgia Mob Takes Cowardly Advantage of a Prisoner.

Gainesville, Ga., July 17.—Si Smith, the Habersham county farmer who killed William Bell, the commercial traveler from Atlanta several months ago, was shot in jail here yesterday morning. About midnight Sheriff Munday was awakened by a man who represented himself as the sheriff of Gilmer county with a prisoner. In the dark Sheriff Munday could see nothing but three or four men outside the building. He admitted the pseudo sheriff and his deputies. Munday was pinioned and the crowd shot Smith to death in his cell.

LYNCHING WAS TALKED OF

But the Young Man's Own Efforts Proved Successful.

Mason City, Ill., July 17.—Roy Sutton, the young man who murdered Leona Elmore near the cemetery at Mason City Friday night and then shot himself, died yesterday. Sutton steadfastly refused to make any statement concerning the murder of his sweetheart except that he had agreed with the girl that they should die together. During the night people congregated on the streets and lynching was freely talked among the men. When the news of the young man's death came the crowd dispersed.

Storm in Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, July 17.—A heavy wind storm passed over this city last evening, accompanied by lightning and rain. The front of the Minneapolis & St. Louis ticket office was blown in, many trees were broken short off or torn up and awnings and signs scattered in all directions. The storm did not last over five minutes and is believed to have been local, as no reports of damage elsewhere have been reported.

Murderer Was Caught.

Huntington, W. Va., July 17. — Will McNeale of Monroe county, Pa., was murdered at Thacker, Mingo county, by P. R. Hamm. Hamm is under arrest.

Domestic Troubles the Cause.

Peoria, Ill., July 17.—Allt Van Boening, state grand master of the Knights and Ladies of Honor, aged forty-six years, committed suicide by throwing himself from the steamer Bald Eagle. Domestic troubles were the cause.

Many Buildings Destroyed.

Bainbridge, Ga., July 17. — Twenty-seven business houses, the pumping station of the water works, the fire engine house and the city jail were destroyed by fire here. Loss, $60,000; insurance $25,000.

NEW ERA FOR JAPAN

NOW RECOGNIZED AS AN EQUAL AMONG NATIONS.

The United States and Nearly All the Countries of Europe Enter Into New Treaty Relations With Japan —Marks a Turning Point in the Diplomatic History of Not Only Japan, but of All the Oriental Countries — First Time the Full Sovereignty of an Oriental State Has Been Recognized.

Washington, July 17. — The new treaty between the United States and Japan goes into effect to-day, at which time also new treaties between Japan and nearly all of the countries of Europe and some of the South American republics go into effect. It is an event of far-reaching importance in the relations between Japan and the United States, as it does away with the treaty methods which have been in vogue for nearly fifty years and substitutes an entirely new method of procedure. The same is true in the relations of Japan with other countries. Taken as a whole the many new treaties which go into effect to-day place Japan on an entirely new footing with the world at large, as she is recognized for the first time as an equal in every respect. The treaty with this country was made November 22, 1894, in Washington, between Secretary Gresham and Minister Kurino, who then represented Japan here. The changes it made were so far-reaching that it was determined that the treaty should not go into operation until July 17, 1899. Mr. Jutaro Komura, the present Japanese minister in Washington, was seen at the Japanese legation and gave an interesting outline of the more important features of this agreement. He said:

"The 17th of July marks the turning point in the diplomatic history not only of Japan, but of the Oriental countries in general. It will be the first instance in which the Western powers have recognized the full sovereignty of an Oriental state. To understand the change it is necessary to look at the system under the old treaties. This was essentially based on two principles: First, that foreign residents in Japan shall enjoy the privileges of extra territoriality, that is, they should be amenable to the laws and jurisdiction of the consul of their own country and not to Japanese jurisdiction; and, second, that foreign residents in Japan shall be confined to certain ports, outside of which foreigners could not reside, own property or engage in trade. All this has now disappeared and foreigners have the same privileges as well as the same obligations as the Japanese citizens, no more and no less. The first step in the new system is to put an end to the old fiction of extra territoriality, by which foreign citizens were judged by different standards from Japanese. The second essential thing is the opening of the entire interior of Japan to foreign residents and trade. In bringing about the new system of treaties Japan naturally feels most friendly toward the United States because she always has shown a most sympathetic interest in Japan's desire to adopt modern methods and to deal on even terms with the rest of the world."

NAVAL DEMONSTRATION.

Nine British Warships Are Gathering at St. Johns.

St. John's N. F., July 17.—The British warships are gathering for a naval demonstration here next week. The cruisers Comus and Columbine are already here, the Alert and Buzzard are due from the French shore to-day and Admiral Bedford with five ships will arrive to-morrow, making nine warships in all. The colonial government has summoned here Inspector O'Reilly, in charge of the anti-French bait service, for a conference with the admiral.

COUNTER MOVE.

Nine Thousand Uitlanders Deny the Boer Government Is Tyrannical.

Washington, July 17.—The Boer government has transmitted to the United States a copy of a petition addressed to it by 9,000 Uitlanders denying that the present government in the Transvaal is tyrannical, as declared by the Uitlanders, supported by Great Britain. The petition was circulated in May and addressed to the Boer government and a copy of it has been received by the state department.

Wheeler Is Waiting.

San Francisco, July 17.—Gen. Joseph Wheeler spent a quiet Sunday with his daughter, Miss Annie Wheeler. He was busy most of the day attending to his correspondence, but found time to take a drive through Golden Gate Park. Several officers paid their respects to the old soldier, among them Gen. Babcock and Capt. Green. In the afternoon Congressman Devries also made a call. The general will leave for the Philippines on the transport Tartar about the end of the week.

Sailors With a Kick.

Seattle, Wash., July 17.—Twelve discharged sailors of the battleship Iowa who have started for Brooklyn, N. Y., say they will lay before Secretary Long a complaint regarding the rations issued aboard the Iowa. They claim it is inferior to the one intended by the navy department to be issued. It is stated the men have deserted on account of the rations.

Becker Sentenced to Death.

Chicago, July 17. — Albert August Becker, the wife murderer, was sentenced to be hanged Oct. 13.

Killed While Racing.

Royalton, Minn., July 17. — Mike Young, a well known German farmer living in this vicinity, was killed by being thrown from his buggy against a tree. He was racing with a companion when the accident occurred. He was thirty years of age and a widower. He leaves one child.

Boat Capsized.

Waverly, N. Y., July 17. — Daniel Casterline and Veroe Diddino were thrown into the Chemung river and drowned by the capsizing of a boat.

Bank of St. Hilaire.

HANNAY & CO., Bankers.

Real Estate Loans.
Chattel Loans.
Foreign & Domestic Xchange
INSURANCE.
Collections a Specialty.

A General Banking Business Transacted.

St. Hilaire, Minn.

Livery and Feed Stable!

DAN PATERSON, Prop.

Dray in Connection.

The finest equipped turnouts in the northwest. ☞ Safe drivers and furnished at a moments notice at reasonable rates. Don't forget the place

BIG - RED - BARN

Located on the east side of Broadway nearly opposite Rapp & Post's Store

ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Says a modest exchange: There is a little matter which some of our Subscribers have seemingly forgotten—Some of them made us promises, but have not kept them. With us it is a very important matter—it's necessary in our business. We are very modest and don't like to speak about it.

GET YOUR PICTURE TAKEN BY

D. COLLINS

THE

Photograper.

ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

Improved Farms.

K. O. GIGSTAD has a large list of improved Farms for sale. Also agent for the best fire and cyclone insurance company. Sick and accident insurance Co., and hail insurance.

Money to loan on improved farms at low interest. All collections are promptly attended to.

NOTARY PUBLIC.

Office east of the city well.

ST. HILAIRE, - MINNESOTA.

DAY F. STACY, C. E.

DEPUTY

County Surveyor.

RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

Drainage and Farm Surveys a Specialty

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.
Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

FIRE INSURANCE

DO
YOU
NEED
SOME?

The Best is the Cheapest.

I have nine of the best companies doing business in the State

Call for rates.

H. E. IVES.

CUSTOM WORK.

JUST LOOK AT THESE PRICES:

Roll Carding—per pound.........5 cts
Spinning Single Yarn—per pound.........15 c
Stocking Yarn—2 or 3 ply, per pound.... 20 c

LITCHFIELD WOOLEN MILLS.

LITCHFIELD, MINN.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

The Spectator.

IVES & SOLL, Publishers.
JOHN J. SOLL, Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at St. Hilaire, Minn., as second-class mail matter.

Published every Wednesday at St. Hilaire, Red Lake County, Minn.

TERMS:—$1.50 Per Year In Advance.

Subscribers should notify the publisher on or before expiration of subscription if discontinuance is desired. Otherwise paper will be continued.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 10, 1899.

The Montana Brand of Poker.

A Montana man, speaking of how poker was played in the state in the old days, said: "Senator Clark used to sit in a little game in the Silver Bow club, in Butte. He generally played with Marcus Daly, Haggin, Hearst or some one of those big fellows, and they enjoyed themselves. On one occasion a New York drummer dropped into the club while the game was on. He had a card with a two weeks' run on the club. Well, he see Daly, Haggin, Clark and another fellow sitting in the game, and he sashays up, pertlike, and says:

" 'Well, gentlemen, any objection to my taking a hand?'

" 'No,' says the players, cheerful-like, and then this drummer he pulls out a thick roll and peels off a $100 bill and chucks it on the table. 'Gimme chips for that,' says he, and looks around, puffed up like. He gets end hangs up his coat, and when he comes back and sits down there lays that bill.

" 'What's the matter, gentlemen?' he says, huffy like. 'Ain't my money good?'

" 'Why, yes, to be sure,' says Marcus Daly. 'Clark, give the gentleman one white chip.'

"Well, that gentleman from the effete east he nearly drops dead, he does, and he goes out to get some of the mounting air."

His Draft.

A Methodist minister visited the Queen lane pumping station the other day. When he reached the engine room, the engineer said: "What I'm proudest of here is my draft. Here she is. Look at her."

He raised a trapdoor in the floor, discovering a black hole about a foot square, and the minister looked in eagerly. Nothing whatever was to be seen, but a tremendous draft sucked in his silk hat.

"Ha, ha, ha!" shouted the engineer. Then he continued excitedly: "Now you are performing an interesting experiment! Nothing could demonstrate better the excellence of this draft. Just watch that skyscraper of a stack there."

He pointed to the lofty stack, and even as he spoke the silk hat shot straight up out of it for 50 feet or so, and then, like a large black bird, sailed slowly away down the wind.

"Goodby, my friend," said the minister. "This has been, indeed, a grand experiment, and I thank you for it. My property, let us hope, will prove undamaged." He then scaled a high barbed wire fence and ran lightly over the fields in the direction which his hat had taken.—Philadelphia Record.

One Thing They Didn't Have.

E. H. Sothern tells a good story of his father, the famous Dundreary. Whenever the elder Sothern arrived at a town, one of his first means of diversion was to stroll about the streets and have fun with the natives. He was in Chicago during its earliest days, and one day he saw a sign over an undertaker's establishment which read:

"Everything Furnished For First Class Funerals."

Going inside, he inquired, "Do you furnish everything for funerals?"

"Yes, sir," replied the clerk.

"Then I want a coffin."

"Do you want carriages too?"

"Yes; have five carriages ready."

"Certainly, sir. Anything else?"

"Three dozen chairs."

"Anything else?"

"You might have a hearse ready. And now I would like to look at a corpse."

The clerk was amazed.

"Now," said Sothern, "you advertise to furnish everything for funerals. If you can't do the thing thoroughly, I shall have to patronize another store."

And, wishing the clerk good day, the comedian departed.

A Sight For Sackcloth and Ashes.

If there is one thing that America has to be ashamed of, it is the neglected state of her shipping, says H. Phelps Whitemarsh in The Atlantic. It is a disgrace to the nation. No wonder the foreigner opens his eyes in amazement; no wonder the ancient mariners of the capes foam at the mouth when they speak of it. The sight of gray old Salem, with its empty harbor, its deserted, rotting wharfs and not a deep water ship to its name. The sight of this historic port alone is enough to make any patriotic American go out into the highway in sackcloth and ashes.

Poor Papa!

The father of a family, becoming annoyed at the fault finding of his children over their food, exclaimed in a rage one day at dinner: "You children are intolerable! You turn up your noses at everything. When I was a boy, I was often glad enough to get dry bread to eat."

"Poor papa!" said Rose, the pet of the family. "I am so glad you are having such nice times now, living with mamma and us."—What to Eat.

Escapes on a Technicality.

The Blakely (Ga.) Reporter says there is a man in Early county who has been relieved of road duty for years on a "technicality." It is customary to summons a man to work the road nearest to where he sleeps and has his clothing washed. As this man has never been seen with so much as a clean shirt on, the supposition is that he has no washing done, and he is relieved of road duty. We know of no better reason.—Savannah News.

An Ancient Building.

The oldest Christian structure in Ireland is a remarkable building, evidently very ancient, but wonderfully well preserved, at Dingle, in County Kerry. It is popularly known as the "Oratory of Gallerus." Who Gallerus was history does not say, but, as the oratory has stood practically uninjured for more than 1,000 years, he was probably one of the converts of St. Patrick.

An Original Suicide.

Whether it was Voltaire or some other observing, meditative Frenchman who said, "All Frenchmen are actors, and the worst are usually on the stage," does not particularly matter for the subject in hand. While we have reason to be sure of the correctness of the final part of the aphorism, we have not time to show why we do not agree with the last. It is not a scene at the assizes that we are going to describe, although scenes worthy of the Opera Comique are constantly presented there. It is a suicide.

A well dressed gentleman descended the Quai des Tuileries and, seating himself beside a man who was fishing, lit a cigar. He then offered one to his neighbor and plunged into the river, cigar, cane, silk hat and all. The fisherman, who was quick to recover from his astonishment, plunged after him, but the first struck out and swam away. The other regained the bank in disgust.

The former shortly returned and, while treading water before his temporary acquaintance, tossed him a handful of goldpieces. At the approach of a number of persons the strange man produced another handful of coins, which he swallowed and, diving under the water, did not reappear. His body was found five hours later, and, as there was nothing discovered by which to establish his identity, it was taken to the morgue.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Stenographer's Feat.

Concerning the stenographic prowess of the late Thomas Allen Reed a correspondent sends a curious anecdote. The late shorthand writer was once on professional business in Liverpool and staid in the same hotel as Charles Mathews, the actor. The latter had appeared in "My Awful Dad," and after the performance he strolled into the smoking room. Having heard of Mr. Reed's expertness as a note taker, Mathews challenged the reporter to jot down certain passages from the character of Puff in Richard Brinsley Sheridan's "Critic."

Reed expressed his willingness to have a try. Mathews, who was one of the best "patter" speakers on the stage, began to gabble the lines with startling rapidity, and the other strained every nerve to follow him. When the test was finished, Reed, whose notes, despite the terrific speed at which he had been writing, were of neat and eligible outlins, merely inserted a vowel mark or two and handed them to an assistant who was called into the room, and who transcribed the characters with but few mistakes, backward! "I should hardly have thought it possible, Mr Reed!" was the astonished Charles Mathews' comment.—London Telegraph.

Time He Was Married.

A recent wedding in a western town was so much interrupted that the friends of the wedded pair found special reason to congratulate them when the ceremony was at last over. All went merrily until the bridegroom was called upon to produce the wedding ring. In vain he felt in his trousers pocket for the indispensable article. Nothing could be found except a hole through which the ring had evidently fallen into the high boot which the young man wore. What was to be done?

"Take your boot off," said the parson.

The suspense and silence were painful.

The organist, at the priest's bidding, struck up a "voluntary."

The young man removed his boot; the ring was found; also a hole in his stocking, and the worthy minister remarked, evidently with more than the delay of the ceremony in mind:

"Young man, it is time you were married."

Proud to Know Him.

"The other night," said the fat boarder, "I slept in a room with a generous gentleman. I snore horribly—in fact, I'm a snorer from way back. We retired. In the morning when we arose this gentleman handed me a silver half dollar.

" 'What's that for?' said I.

" 'Oh, take it,' he replied. 'You have won it. You deserve it.'

" 'But what for?' said I.

" 'Oh, take the money and go and buy yourself several first class drinks. I like you. You are the best one I ever saw. You are the only man I ever saw who could snore louder than I can holler.' "—Atlanta Constitution.

His Nice Way Out.

"And is this the first time you have experienced the sensation of love?" she asked.

"It is," he replied.

"Am I the first girl you ever told you loved?" she persisted.

He hesitated. What might not have come to her ears? "You must remember," he said at last, "how easy it is for the ignorant and uninitiated to accept a base imitation for the real thing."—Chicago Post.

Do You Play the Clarinet?

Thousands of people are learning to play the piano. There is no demand for piano players; indeed, in some places they are prohibited. But there is a demand for clarinet players. A good clarinet player is always in demand and makes good wages. Why don't some of the foolish people take clarinet lessons?—Atchison Globe.

A Young Diplomat.

"What are you laughing at?" exclaimed the schoolmaster.

"Please, sir," said the boy, "I'm laughing at how funny it would be if one of the boys put a bent pin on your chair and you discovered it before—before—in time, sir, and then whipped him."—Philadelphia North American.

In East Indian schools mental arithmetic is a vastly more serious matter than it is in the schools of this country. Catch questions are numerous, and pupils of 10 years are taught to carry the multiplication table up to 40 times 40.

The Army and Navy.

Have covered themselves with glory during the war. The Army and Navy vest pocket memorandum book published by the Northern Pacific is a compact digest of information relative to the navies and armies of Spain and the United States at the beginning of the war. It has a map of Cuba, illustrations of naval ships, glossary of navy and army terms, translation of Spanish words, etc. Send ten cents to Chas. S. Fee, general passenger agent, N. P. R., St. Paul, Minn., for a copy.

What the Bishop Thought.

Sometimes profanity is profane, and then there are deliverances of that sort that do not sound profane. It depends a good deal upon the lips whence the words flow. Not long ago a bishop of the Episcopal church from a northern state—a cleric with a well developed sense of humor—made a flying visit to Washington, stopping at the home here of a gentleman who used to be one of his parishioners. This gentleman is addicted to sulphuric speech. He has prayerfully resisted for many years his natural impulse to wither up the air upon the slightest occasion, but cuss he will, and he can't help it. One day, while the bishop was at his house, the host found that something had gone wrong in his stable, and he let out on the coachman in his customary lurid style. After he had singed the atmosphere in the neighborhood of the stable for five minutes he started back for the house, and he was somewhat chagrined to see the bishop standing in the yard, looking at some flower beds. The gentleman knew that the bishop had heard him.

"I know it isn't right," he explained to the bishop, "but you know me, and you know that I call a spade a spade."

"Do you?" inquired the bishop, with a quizzical smile. "Now, I should have thought that you'd call it a —— shovel."—Washington Post.

A Modern Mrs. Malaprop.

An interesting volume, "With a Palette In Eastern Palaces," by E. M. Merrick, tells amusing stories of many climes. Of the western world was a modern Mrs. Malaprop, pretty, amiable and rich, who sat to the author for her portrait. "She told me," he says, "that her husband 'hobnobbed' with everybody and told such 'cotton wool' (cock and bull) stories; that a girl she knew was training to be an 'archdeacon' (deaconess); that she was obliged to part with her coachman because he was such a 'gay Othello;' that she had india rubber 'tiles' put on the wheels of her carriage; that a man she knew was a regular 'marmoset' (martinet) in his own house, and a certain title always descended from uncle to nephew, as they invariably died 'childish.' "

Among the numerous celebrities whom Miss Merrick met in India was Lord Roberts, whose antipathy to cats gave rise to a little story of metempsychosis. On one of his homeward voyages Lord Roberts "asked to have the cat removed when he came on board ship, and a stranger, not knowing who he was, said to Lady Roberts, 'Don't you think that little gentleman over there must have been a mouse in a former state?' "—Household Words.

In the Boarding House.

Gazing dreamily at the "God Bless Our Home" pastel on the wall, the boarder with the freckles on his nose continued, "Yes, it really gives me great pleasure to notice that the butter is convalescing!"

The man with the barb wire beard looked unhappy, and an expression of contempt, not unmixed, however, with curiosity, flitted across the face of the landlady.

"Convalescing!" she replied. "What do you mean?"

The man with the yellow whiskers smiled expectantly.

The man with the freckles on his nose nerved himself for the ordeal and replied, "Because it grows stronger every day!"

During the excitement that followed the man with the double chin helped himself to the last slice of bread on the table.—Baltimore American.

Financial Poetry.

An unusual album was presented to Willis Clark, brother of Lewis Gaylard Clark, the poet, on one occasion, with a request for "some rhymes."

Mr. Clark was at the house of a farmer, and the man's daughter had turned an old account book into an autograph album in which were inscribed the names of her various friends and relatives below appropriate sentiments.

Mr. Clark saw his opportunity, and after turning over the leaves for a moment or two he took a pen and wrote the following verse:

	£	s.	d.
This world's a scene as dark as Styx
Where hope is scarce worth		2	8
Our joys are born so fleeting hence
That they are dear at			18
And yet to stay here many are willing
Although they may not have		t

A Sinking Sensation.

"I understand that you were in that elevator which fell ten stories the other day. How did you feel as it was going down?"

"Just as I feel when I get within sight of my home at night ten minutes late and suddenly remember that my wife wanted me to hustle out early as she had arranged for a dinner party."—Chicago News.

A Satisfactory Result.

They met at the crossroads and pulled up their teams for a talk.

"Well, Josh," said the first farmer, as he took a wisp of straw from between his teeth, "I hear some eastern chaps have been diggin fer gold on your place. What do you git out of it?"

"I git," said the second farmer, "a darn good well."—Wall Street Topics.

First Mortgage Loans.

I am prepared, for the next 60 days, to make loans at the

LOWEST

possible rates ever made in Red Lake county. If you want to make a loan or renew an old one call on

H. E. IVES.

By special arrangement with the publishers we are enabled to give FARM, STOCK AND HOME one year and the ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR for $1.25.

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

Default having been made in the payment of the sum of ten hundred and fifteen ($1,015.) dollars, which is claimed to be due and is due at the date of this notice upon a certain mortgage, duly executed and delivered by Alphonse Boucher and Philomine Boucher his wife mortgagors, to The Western Security Co. mortgagee, bearing date the 27th day of July 1888, and, with a power of sale therein contained, duly recorded in the office of the register of deeds in and for the county of Polk, now Red Lake county, and State of Minnesota, on the 27th day of July 1888, at 10:20 o'clock A. M., in Book 37 of mortgages, on page 144.

Which said mortgage together with the debt secured thereby, was duly assigned by said The Western Security Co., mortgagee, to Joseph F. Dearborn, by written assignment, dated the 1st day of November 1888, and recorded in the office of said register of deeds, on the 8th day of November 1888, at 1:00 o'clock P. M., in Book 40 of mortgages on page 378;

And whereas, the said assignee of mortgagee, did on the 4th day of November 1897, pay to the Treasurer of Polk county, Minnesota, the sum of $18.85 for taxes due and delinquent on said premises for the year 1896; and the further sum of $35.96 paid by said mortgagee on the 1st day of November 1897 for taxes due and delinquent on said land for the year 1892, all of which taxes are still due and payable to said assignee of said mortgagee, and no action or proceeding having been instituted, at law or otherwise, to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, viz:

The south-east quarter of section twenty-one (21) township one hundred and fifty (150) range forty-one (41) containing one hundred and sixty (160) acres, more or less according to the United States government survey, in Red Lake county, formerly Polk county, and State of Minnesota, with the hereditaments and appurtenances; which sale will be made by the sheriff of said Red Lake county, at the front door of the Court House, in the village of Red Lake Falls in said county and State, on the 12th day of August 1899, at 2:00 o'clock P. M., of that day, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt of Ten Hundred and Fifteen Dollars, and interest, and the taxes, on said premises and fifty dollars, attorney's fees, as stipulated in and by said mortgage in case of foreclosure, and the disbursements allowed by law; subject to redemption at any time within one year from the day of sale, as provided by law.

Dated June 19th A. D., 1899.

ADELE C. M. CUESTES,
Executrix of Joseph F. Dearborn, deceased,
Assignee of Mortgagee.

JOHN COOME,
Attorney for Executrix of Assignee of Mortgagee.
Crookston, Minn.

48-2

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

Whereas, default has occurred in the conditions of a mortgage given by Carrie Crown and Edvard (mortgage signed "Edvard" but written in body of deed and in acknowledgment "Edward") Crown, her husband, mortgagors, to Dakota Investment Company, of Grand Forks, Dakota, mortgagee, dated May 20th A. D. 1889, which mortgage, together with the power of sale therein contained, was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in Polk county and state of Minnesota, May 24th A. D. 1889 at 8:30 o'clock, a. m., in book 43 of mortgages, on page 32 and subsequently transcribed into the records of Red Lake county and state of Minnesota in book 17 of mortgages on page 371 and assigned by said mortgagee to Elijah M. Topliff by an instrument in writing dated June 14th A. D. 1889 and filed for record in said office of the Register of Deeds for said Red Lake county, March 9th A. D. 1893 at 3:00 o'clock p. m. and recorded in book F of assignments on page 554.

And whereas the undersigned attorneys for said Elijah M. Topliff have been empowered by him to foreclose said mortgage by an instrument in writing, dated March 28th A. D. 1899 and filed for record in said office of the Register of Deeds for said Red Lake county, April 5th A. D. 1899 at 12 o'clock M. and was recorded in book A of power of attorneys on page 201

And whereas there is claimed to be due upon said mortgage at this date including taxes for the years 1889, 1890, 1892, 1893, 1894, 1895, 1896, 1897 and 1898 amounting to $136.54 the sum of four hundred, ninety-nine 04-100 dollars, and no action or proceeding having been instituted at law to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof;

Now, therefore, Notice is hereby given that said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale of the premises described in said mortgage, viz.: The south half of the north-west quarter (s½ of nw¼) of section ten (10) in township one hundred and fifty-two (152) of range forty-five (45), in said county, which sale will be made by the Sheriff of said county, at the front door of the Court House, in the city of Red Lake Falls in said county of Red Lake, August 12th A. D. 1899 at two o'clock p. m., at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt, interest and taxes on said premises, and $25.00 attorney's fees, and the disbursements allowed by law, subject to redemption as provided by law.

Dated at Minneapolis, Minn. June 10th 1899.

ELIJAH M. TOPLIFF,
Assignee of Mortgagee.

WEBSTER & TAYLOR,
Attorney's for assignee of Mortgagee.

47-52

—The SPECTATOR is for sale—at one dollar a year—strictly in advance.

CONTEST NOTICE.

Doc. No. 875.

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, Crookston, Minnesota, July 13th 1899.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by P. O. Kjonikson, contestant, against Homestead entry No. 14971, made July 12th 1892 for the W½ NE¼, Section 33, Township 152 N of range 43W, by Carl J. Johnson contestee in which it is alleged that the said Carl J. Johnson has wholly abandoned said tract since date of entry to the present time; that he has wholly failed to reside upon and cultivate said tract as by law required; that said alleged absence from the said land was not due to his employment in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States as a private soldier officer seaman or marine during the war with Spain, or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged; said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on September 1st, 1899 before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Crookston, Minnesota.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed July 13th, 1899, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice is given by due and proper publication.

SYLVESTER PETERSON,
Register.

51-3

Oh, Where Has He Gone?

LOST:—About six weeks ago a black and white English setter dog answers to the name of "Shy." A suitable reward will be given at this office when said dog is returned. Any information will thankfully be received.

UNCLE SAM Is not In the Shoe Business, And Neither Am I, But I can Interest You in CIGARS.

ALL THE BEST SMOKERS BUY THEM

J.B. Cigars.

ALL THE BEST DEALERS SELL THEM.

J. B. ARMSTRONG,
Manufacturer.

RED LAKE FALLS, MINNESOTA.

WANTED-BRAINS

Can you think of something to patent? Protect your ideas: they may bring you wealth. Before applying for patent, get our liberal offer. Inventor's Assistant and handsome views of Washington sent Free on request. Be sure to write to-day

COPP & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C.

Summer Clothing

The Greatwestern own magnificent display of Men's summer suits, and Boys' choicest clothing is now ready, at a saving of fully 25 per cent.

Greatwestern Clothing House.

IF YOU INTEND TO

Buy Furniture

Come and look our assortment over. We carry everything in the Furniture line including picture frames and musical instruments. Prices reasonable.

Holmes Furniture Co.

BANK OF RED LAKE FALLS,

RED LAKE FALLS, MINNESOTA

GENERAL BANKING. FOREIGN XCHANGE

Real Estate, Farm Loans and Insurance.
Abstracts of Title.
Steamship Tickets.
Interest Paid on Time Deposits.
Collections of all Kinds Given Prompt Attention.

Owner of the Abstract Books formerly owned by Sortedahl & Storaash the only set of Abstract Books in Red Lake County.

M. O. SORTEDAHL, President and Cashier.
G. P. SEVERTSON, Assistant Cashier

The Standard

UNCLE SAM'S MONOGRAM WHISKEY

Pure, Palatable, Old.

For Medicinal and General Use.

Sold by Druggists, Dealers and

SAINT PAUL GEO. BENZ & SONS. MINNEAPOLIS

List of Town Clerks.

Names	Township	Postoffice
Olof Larson	Numedal	Viking
C. E. Purdy	North	Thief River Falls
John E. Peterson	Bray	Bray
N. K. Anderson	Sanders	St. Hilaire
F. T. Saire	Rocksbury	T. R. Falls
O. T. Romsos	Polk Centre	[illegible]
P. A. Eckstrom	Black River	[illegible]
A. S. Anderson	River Falls	St. Hilaire
Ole J. Johnson	Wyandotte	[illegible]
A. D. Berry	Louisville	[illegible]
Hidalge Baril	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
Chas. E. Asp	Emardville	[illegible]
Edward Havik	Equality	[illegible]
Moses Ducharme	Lake Pleasant	R. L. F.
Edoser Perusse	Terrebonne	Terrebonne
J. B. Herbert	Poplar River	[illegible]
Louis Doucet	Lambert	Lambert
J. L. Johnson	St. Hilaire	St. Hilaire
Lars Backe	Thief River F	T. R. F.
A. P. Toupin	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
H. H. Baaryson	Norden	T. R. Falls
Olof Tande	Garnes	Garnes

FARMS
LOANS
ABSTRACTS

97 Farms for sale or rent in Red Lake County.

SWANSON & GRADY,
Official Abstractors.

RED LAKE FALLS. - - - MINN.

A. O. LETVIG,

Tubular Well Contractor

A Good Supply of Water Guaranteed, Repairing a Specialty.

WYLIE. MINNESOTA.

Hamm's St. Paul Beer

There's Honest Blood, Bone and Sinew in this Strengthening brew!

Agents everywhere

Theo. Hamm Brewing Company.
Tel. 972
St. Paul, Minn.

UNION MEAT MARKET

P. O. MOSLETH, PROP.

Choicest line of Fresh and Salted meats in the city.

Highest market price paid for Stock, Poultry and Hides.

Say?

If your wheel needs enameling, cleaning, new tires or any other repairing give us a trial. All work done promptly and satisfactory. Prices reasonable.

R. J. BULLAN & CO.

35 RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

STEVENS RIFLES AND PISTOLS

HAVE FOR MORE THAN 35 YEARS BEEN CELEBRATED FOR THEIR EXTREME ACCURACY

We make our "Diamond" Pistol with two lengths of barrel, 6 and 10 inches. Every one guaranteed. Price, Postpaid, $5.00 with 6-inch barrel; $7.50 with 10-inch barrel.

We make a full line of rifles; Price, from $6.00 upwards. Every arm we turn out is warranted

SAFE, SOLID AND ACCURATE.

J. STEVENS ARMS & TOOL CO.,

Send Stamp for Catalogue. P. O. Box 698 CHICOPEE FALLS, MASS.

Cigars.

BRINK BROTHERS

DEALERS IN

Wines & Liquors

Minneapolis Beer.

Corner Broadway and 3rd St. St. Hilaire, Minnesota

F.C. CORSETS
MAKE
American Beauties.

LATEST
MODELS.

On Each Box.

KALAMAZOO CORSET CO.
SOLE MANUFACTURERS.
SOLD BY

E. M. HOFF.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

I. O. O. F. ST. HILAIRE LODGE No. 147.—Meets at their hall every Thursday evening, eight o'clock. Visiting members are cordially invited to attend.
E. M. HOFF, N. G.
J. H. JOHNSON, Secretary.

M. W. A. CAMP 3650.—Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every second and fourth Tuesday of every month. Visiting neighbors are cordially invited to attend.
LEONARD HOLMES, V. C.
JAS. M. HALL, Clerk.

R. N. G.—WILD ROSE CAMP.—No. 834 Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every Friday evening. Visiting members of the order are cordially invited to attend.
MRS. L. N. NOLAN, Oracle.
MISS T. HUGHES, Recorder.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Auditor	Adam Zeh
Treasurer	O. T. Tandberg
Register of Deeds	Samuel Olbean
Sheriff	Chas. Sampson
Attorney	Van R. Brown
Judge of Probate	J. T. Knight
Clerk of Court	Joe Porrault
Supt. of Schools	Frank Jeffers
Coroner	Joe Belaire
Court Commissioner	J. C. Mathews
Surveyor	P. O. Hagglund
Commissioner 1st Dist.	J. Suter
Commissioner 2nd Dist.	W. L. C. Demann
Commissioner 3rd Dist.	O. J. Johnsen
Commissioner 4th Dist.	Karl M. Hanson
Commissioner 5th Dist.	J. B. Horbert

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

E. J. Holmes	President
J. L. Johnson	Recorder
D. Patterson	Councilmen
J. C. Dahl	Councilmen
W. A. Sorsoleil	Councilmen
L. Holmes	Treasurer

Barber Shop
—AND—
BATH ROOMS.
—o—
Haircutting, Shaving, Shampooing.
Razors honed and put in first-class order.
J. H. PENNO, Prop.
ST. HILAIRE - - MINNESOTA

Henry Francis, M.D., C.M.
Member College Physicians and Surgeons, Ontario. : : :
Thief River Falls, Minnesota.

"THE IDEAL" Lunch Room.
In the Paradis Building is noted for its Convenience.
FIRST-CLASS MEALS.
PROMPT SERVICE.
☞ OPEN UNTIL ONE O'CLOCK A. M.
A. F. LANG, Prop.

DR. BLOMBURGH.
SCANDINAVIAN
Physician & Surgeon.
☞ Calls attended day or night. ☜
Teeth Extracted.
Office and residence opposite American Hotel. ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

2nd ☞ STORE
(SECOND HAND STORE.)
Everything in this line now on hand. Special bargains given. If you have anything to dispose of give me a call. Repairing of harness also done.
C. A. SKEIE.
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA

Blacksmith!
Horse-shoeing, repairing of all kinds of Farm Implements, Machinery, etc. All work promptly attended to and done in a satisfactory manner.
J. C. DAHL.
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA

PATENTS
Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES.
OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.
Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.
A PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,
C. A. SNOW & CO.
OPP. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

Market Report.—To-Day.

Wheat No. 1	58	Oats	18
Wheat No. 2	54	Barley	24
Wheat No. 3	48	Flax	83
Eggs (per doz.)	12½	Butter (per lb)	10

LOCAL NEWS.

Base ball dance Saturday night.

Haying is general throughout the country.

Wall paper and calcimine at the New Drug store.

Go to Bell's for your ice cream or milk shake.

The new grader is doing good work on the side streets.

J. L. Johnson made a trip to the county seat yesterday.

Try a lunch, a meal or a weeks board at the Ideal Lunch Room.

Supt. Ballard of the Crookston Lumber Co., was here last Saturday.

Mike Rosenberg left Wednesday for a two weeks visit at Minneapolis.

A. F. Bell will leave tomorrow on a business trip to Thompson N. Dak.

D. Collins was a visitor at Polk county's metropolis a few days last week.

The new saw mill at East Grand Forks expects to start sawing Sept. 1st.

Sheriff Sampson was in town yesterday. He drove up from the county seat.

If you want to make a loan on your farm, or renew an old one, call on H. E. Ives.

Marcus Johnson of St. Paul was here yesterday looking after his business interests.

E. M. Hoff was elected a member of the school board at its meeting held Saturday.

Dr. Watson of Red Lake Falls was in town a short time yesterday on professional business.

Frank Rutledge came up from Crookston yesterday and will hold down a position at the mill.

Mrs. John Burkee of Thief River Falls was an over Sunday visitor with the E. M. Hoff family.

Tom Everson the man who bought the Kling farm last fall came up last Friday to put up hay.

Mrs. W. Peterson and son Harold left for Crookston Monday on an extended visit with relatives.

A great many people from here will go to Red Lake Falls tomorrow to take in the Walter L. Main circus.

Ole Strand of Cummings N. D. drove up here last week looking over the country and may locate here.

Several thousand logs belonging to the Red Lake Falls Lumber Co., were sluiced through here last week.

Sander Engebretson has sold the farm he had in town of Bray to Erick Lee from Iowa. Consideration $1,050.

FOUND:—On July 4th, a purse containing a small sum of money. Call at Mrs. C. Sandmoen's and get the same.

—Dr. Thomas is an up-to-date in all the different branches in his profession. Remember the dates, July 19th and 20th.

Mrs. C. Gillette of Crookston was here last week visiting with the Fellman family. She returned home Monday.

This is the year of all years for white clover. It can be found growing most everywhere and as thick as it can possibly stand.

Editor Kaufer and family of Red Lake Falls returned last week from a pleasant five weeks trip in the State of Washington.

Wm. Lemay, deputy register of deeds and wife, of Red Lake Falls were visitors over Sunday at the Lemay farm south of town.

Will Bramsness had his left foot badly squeezed by the dump cart last Saturday and as a consequence is now using a crutch.

A raspberry and ice cream sociable will be given by the ladies of the M. E. church on the evening of July 26th. Everybody come.

I. C. Richardson the eloquent attorney of Thief River Falls was in town a short time yesterday on his way home from the county seat.

Get a license for your dog if he is of any value to you. This is the time of the year that a dog without a license is going to be a dead dog.

Ole K. Rodseth of Warren was here a few days last week looking over the town with a view of purchasing one of the many boarding houses.

—To cure a cough or cold in one day take the Imperial Cough Syrup.

It is claimed that diphtheria is caused by bad ventilation. Open up your windows and let the fresh air circulate through the rooms of your house.

Mrs. Leonard Holmes and son Harold left yesterday for a two months visit at St. Paul. Mr. Holmes accompanied them to Crookston to see them safely off.

The mill company is doing a good job protecting the banks of the river below the first dam. Anglers appreciate the fact as it makes an elegant place for fishing.

Every resident in town should see to it that their yards are cleaned up at once and have all refuse removed. This must be done or the law will strictly be enforced.

H. T. Murray, our popular conductor is again on this branch after a thirty days absence relieving Jimmy O'Neil on the main line, who was in the east spending his vacation.

Poles for the long distance telephone have been strung along this line the past week. We understand that we will be in shape to say hello to the outside world sometime next month.

Considerable trouble is being experienced in keeping the track clear in the cuts near Red Lake Falls. The soil is of such a nature that it keeps continually caving in and covers the track.

T. Torkelson one of the proprietors of the new drug store, with wife and child left Saturday for their old home at Evansville where they will remain for some time visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. E. J. Holmes and sons Milton and Alvin departed yesterday for Cannon Falls where they will remain the balance of the summer visiting relatives. Mr. Holmes accompanied them as far as Crookston.

Will Eikhoff commenced Monday cutting his eighty-five acre field of mixed timothy and red clover. It is the thickest stand we have ever seen and no doubt but what Mr. Eikhoff will have tame hay to sell or give away.

Fred Carlstrom, formerly of St. Hilaire, but now of Crookston passed through here Monday enroute to Red Lake Falls. From there he will proceed to the farm of Louis Fountain where he has a contract of building a large dwelling house.

Prof. J. B. O'Brien left Monday for Red Lake Falls where he will remain a week or ten days visiting with friends and relatives. He will visit St. Paul and points in the southern part of the state before he returns, which will be the latter part of August.

Guest (attempting to carve): "What kind of a chicken is this, anyhow?" Waiter: "Dat's a genuine Plymouth Rock, sah." Guest (throwing up both hands): "That explains it. I knew she was an old-timer, but I had no idea she dated back to the Mayflower."

No man living knows all the "laws" of this country or can ever learn them if he tries all the days of his life. In the last congress 10,463 bills were introduced and 1,457 of them became laws. A large per cent of these are the "white mans burden.—McIntosh Times.

Miss Tessie Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. McAndress and their little daughter Eva, were the only ones from here that took in "American Day" at Winnipeg last Friday. They report having a nice time regardless of the intense heat during the day. They brought home many souvenirs.

Will Sorsoleil informed us yesterday that he had a thirty acre field filled with grasshoppers that were just hatching out. As yet they are doing but little damage, but no telling what they will do in the next three or four weeks. The eggs were laid in an old field that had been cultivated for years.

The reports that have been circulated at Crookston and other town to the effect that black diphtheria is spreading at St. Hilaire has no foundation whatever. There are four cases in town of the mild form of diphtheria but not of the black kind. Both houses have been quarantined and every precaution taken for spreading of the disease.

J. J. Hill, who probably keeps as close watch on the spring wheat as any man in the United States, and has the best facilities for estimating yields, estimates that the wheat crop of the Dakotas and Minnesota will be twenty million less this year than last He expects the yield per acre to equal if not exceed that of '98, but the acreage is considerably less.

Patronize home industry by buying your wall paper at the New Drug store.

Gov. Lind has appointed Alex. McKinnon of Crookston a member on the Board of Appeal for the grain department. This board was created under a law passed during the last session of the legislature. There are three members and their work is to investigate all complaints between the sellers and buyers of grain. The compensation for the members of this board is to be paid out of the fees collected, and the governor is authorized to fix the amount of the salaries.

Notice.

All parents are requested to keep their children at home as much as possible in order to prevent the spread of diphtheria which is in our midst. At present there are four cases and confined only to two houses. It is deemed necessary to take this precaution.

J. L. JOHNSON,
Acting Health Officer.

—Go to the New Drug Store for your Stationery and School supplies.

—It is better than ready money because it cures rheumatism, constipation sick headache, indigestion. Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure.

The "Selects" Won Both Games.

The base ball tournament held here Sunday was a grand success judging from the number of people that arrived on the special train to witness the ball games. The St. Hilaire cornet band was at the station to meet the large delegation sent from Crookston and Wylie who arrived at 10:30. The next train from Thief River Falls arrived at 11:30 and the one from Red Lake Falls at 1:20. Over a thousand people from outside town took advantage of the fine day to see the national game played. Two games were played but neither one was a first class exhibition of ball playing—sorry to say, as no doubt a great many were sadly disappointed. The Thief River Falls team failed to appear on account of their battery being disabled, so it was arranged for Red Lake Falls and St. Hilaire play the first game and the winners play the Crookston nine. We have here what is considered a pretty strong team, but from the very start the team was not itself and allowed the "Selects" to have their own way to the tune of 1 to 21 in a seven inning game. St. Hilaire being distanced Crookston took her place in a five inning game. Starting out the game was quite spirited and running very evenly, but finely they found the pitcher of the "Jolly Rovers" and at the end of the fifth the game stood 4 to 11 in favor of Red Lake Falls A great many errors were made in both games but the audience rather appreciated them as it left an opening for the "rooters" which was never overlooked. It took three hours and fifteen minutes to play the two games. It is to be hoped better ball will be played in the future.

NOTES.

The Selects as a rule are good batters and especially so with Lachapelle.

It was decidedly an off day for the home nine as none of them played ball.

Red Lake Falls had the Fertile battery and its 2nd baseman. They played good ball.

The grand stand was filled in less than ten minutes. It should have been built four times as large.

A Great many spectators were perched on the wire fence around the grounds and remained there until the weight got too heavy and broke down.

Dr. Fountain and his aggregation of specialists passed through here yesterday enroute to Crookston where they will show the next two weeks.

A Poet Let Loose.

Rice Lake Times: A maiden fair with sun-kissed hair came tripping down the street: with face serene—her age sixteen—gee-whiz! but she was sweet! On a banana peel slick she came down with a jolt that shook her curls; but the words she used must be excused, for she's one of the nicest girls. The naughty young chap who saw the mishap, and smiled with fiendish delight, will regret the same when he finds his name is "pants" next Saturday night.

A North Dakota newspaper, which appears to have received its information direct from the postoffice department, asserts that an order will soon be issued requiring all postmasters to wear a uniform. The uniform will be light blue trousers, with stripes down the legs, white skull cap with a star in front. If this be true, will the department make exceptions in cases where the postmaster is a female?—Mandan Pioneer.

—For cuts and sores there is nothing better than the Imperial Carbolic salve.

Insects in the Garden.

It is the neglected garden that is eaten up by insects. This seems a very natural proposition, but the point we want to make is that insects are kept in subjection more easily when the garden is kept clean than they can be when weeds and grass are allowed to grow to furnish harbors and hiding places for them. As a rule insects do not like to travel over a soil that is kept cultivated until it is as fine as dust. They prefer to work where they have a solid foundation such as a soil the surface of which is beaten hard and smooth by rain.

Where the garden is kept stirred and turned over by constant cultivation the insects that happen that way are disturbed too much for their comfort and they seek some quieter spot.

For this season the best helper to keep the garden free from insect pests is frequent and thorough cultivation.

To cure a cough in one day take the Imperial cough syrup. Guaranteed to cure. For sale at the new Drug Store.

Teachers' Examination.

Notice is hereby given that the first teachers' examination under the new law will be held in Red Lake Falls, Monday and Tuesday, August 7th and 8th. All persons intending to teach in this county the coming year, whose certificate expires this fall, must take this examination. All second grade papers will be forwarded to the State Department for marking, third grade papers will be marked by the undersigned. This will be the only examination held in the county this fall and it will be necessary for all applicants to be present at 9 o'clock on the morning of the first day as no questions can be furnished after the examination begins.

FRANK JEFFERS,
County Superintendent.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

—If you are troubled with rheumatism take the Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure. It will positively cure all diseases arising from impure blood, and is sold under an absolute guarantee to benefit or money refunded. Call for free sample at the New Drug Store.

From Farm, Stock and Home.

Prolong the life of the old harvester another year if possible.

The people are doing the talking, but the trusts are sawing wood.

The barn should be thoroughly cleaned out before putting in new crops.

Carry the news to Boston; the acreage of beans is unusually large this year!

It pays at this season to be mindful of our own health and the comfort of our working animals.

Dark clean stables, well ventilated, is the stock's best refuge in fly time, after it has eaten its fill.

Every weed killed before it has matured seed is killing its posterity down to the millionth generation!

This is season to rejoice that the fruit garden and the ice house have become parts of the farm's outfit.

A team with a rapid walking gait is of more value to the average farmer than one with a speedy trotting gait.

Owls, toads, harmless snakes and bumble bees are friends of agriculture that no farmer can afford to kill.

Failure to clean and ventilate cellars and milk houses at this season may bring a doctors bill some other season.

A stream of cold water on the arteries of the wrist, on a hot day, will often have a better effect than drinking the water.

If the farmer isn't living like a lord these days it is because of neglect in the fruit and vegetable garden, in the poultry yard, and with the flock of sheep or the baby beefer, for from these sources come the living that no lord can surpass.

Watering Horses.—Horses often suffer more for want of water than for feed. Camels, sows and sheep may drink sufficient water to last them a day or more from the large capacity they have for both water and feed; but as the horse's stomach will only contain about three to three and one-half gallons, he must be fed and watered quite often for the best results. The horse should always be watered before feeding, and it is better to give the water at least half an hour before the grain ration is fed. During the hot weather horses should be given water frequently in small quantities, especially when they perspire freely. If the horse sweats copiously the waste must be supplied and the horse is never too hot to be given a little water, especially when he is kept moving. When horses sweating and are kept at work in very hot weather is when the injury is done.

The prospect now is that we will have a very heavy harvest on horses as there is a heavy growth of straw, and indications are that the ground will be soft, consequently every precaution should be taken to see that the horse have plenty of water and at such intervals as will not put them out of condition when their services are so important. The harvest hands demand some drinking water in the field and so would the horses if they could make their wants known; then why should we not look to the welfare of our patient, enduring, mute friends as well as those who can make their demands known by a vigorous "kick" when not complied with? Then let us treat our horses with the requisite amount of water that their systems require and in proportion to their ability to take it to the best advantage and they will do more and better work with less liability to suffer or get sick on our hands when most needed. Regularity in feeding and watering should be the watchword all through the hot weather and during days of rest or idleness give about half rations and avoid that dread disease, azoturia.

Regulate Your Watch

At Johnson's drug store and if it don't keep time, leave it and we will repair it and warrant it to keep time for one year. New watches, clocks chains and jewelry for sale at the lowest prices. I will be at Johnson's drug store the 10th, 11th and 12th, also the 25th and 26th of every month. All work left at the store has my personal attention. When you come to Red Lake Falls make the Palace Jewelry Store your headquarters.

I am yours truly
PROF. J. Q. ADAMS,
Watchmaker and Optician.

The Best Cough Remedy on Earth.

Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, Consumption Cure, cures a cold in 24 hours if taken in time and does not stop a cough in ONE MINUTE by paralyzing the throat, but it cures the disease and leaves the throat and lungs healthy and strong. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

Dentist.

—Dr. J. H. Thomas, the Crookston dentist will be at Hotel Markham, St. Hilaire, July 19th and 20th prepared to do all kinds of up to date dental work in all branches. All work warranted. Remember the dates 19th and 20th.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that all Red Lake county orders registered on or before July 1st 1899 are payable.

O. T. TANDBERG,
County Treasurer.

—A. H. Weagant, the hardware merchant, is now prepared to do all kinds of bicycle repairing in a satisfactory manner. If your bicycle is out of order bring it around to us.

Crookston College

Will open its 14th term September 11th 1899. The cheapest, best and most practical school in the northwest. Catalogue sent free. Address, Crookston College, Crookston, Minn.

Consumption Cured.

—Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth, cures a cold in one day if taken in time. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

We Handle Everything.

Start the Day Right
And everything will go smoothly. The proper way to start the day is by coming around to our store and ordering a supply of groceries for the day, such things as you may need. It will take you but a few minutes, and we feel sure you will not regret it.

Our Groceries
Are always fresh, and then the prices are as near right as we know how to make them. If you have not been in the habit of trading with us, drop in and see us anyway; you might get into the habit.

Hardware
We carry everything in the hardware line from cooking stoves down to tacks—all you have to do is to ask for what you want. If you want anything in the tin or copper line done drop into our tin shop and your wants will be attended to.

Yours very truly,
RAPP & POST
St. Hilaire, Minnesota.

M. A. HALL
DEALER IN DRY GOODS,
GROCERIES,
NOTIONS,
GENTS FURNISHING GOODS,
TOBACCO,
CIGARS,
CONFECTIONERY

A. H. WEAGANT
Having bought the business of Fred Eikhoff, I am now prepared to sell you anything in line of
HARDWARE AND TINWARE
CUTLERY, PAINTS & OILS,
Everything at Rock Bottom Prices. Come and see for yourself. Opposite Hotel Markham

LEONARD HOLMES,
—DEALER IN—
DEERING BINDERS.
" MOWERS.
" HAY RAKES.
" PLOWS.
TWINE. TWINE. TWINE

Lumber! Lumber!
OF ALL KINDS.
We have a large and well assorted stock of Dry Lumber and are prepared to fill all orders on short notice. We also carry a complete assortment
—OF—
Sash, Doors, Paper
AND ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL
Which we buy in large quantities and are thereby enabled to sell at lowest market prices.
ST. HILAIRE LUMBER CO.

NEW MEAT MARKET.
L. M. ROLAND, Proprietor.
Fresh and Salted Meats.
Highest Market Price Paid for Hides.

L. K. KOLSTAD,
DEALER IN
Boots and Shoes!
Repairing a Specialty.
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.

An old bachelor says there is but one thing sweeter than love's young dream, and that is to wake up and find yourself still single.—Chicago News.

Beautiful Women

Should have beauty, and vigor of health. A strong stomach is the first essential to beauty. Nine-tenths of the sickness comes from weak digestion. Thousands of people have tried Hostetter's Stomach Bitters and regained their health. There is nothing like it. See that a private Revenue Stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

How easy it is for some people to make a lot of money, and how hard for others to make a little.

Do Your Feet Ache and Burn?

Shake into your shoes, Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It makes tight and New Shoes feel Easy. Cures Corns, Bunions, Swollen, Hot, and Sweating Feet. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Probably the happiest day in the average farmer's life is when his best pig takes a $3 prize at the county fair.

Hall's Catarrh Cure

Is a constitutional cure. Price, 75c.

Is there a more absolutely helpless feeling than to be without a timepiece of any sort?

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

Have you ever noticed how much easier it is to tell a lie than to listen to one?

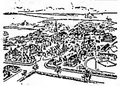
Two bottles of Piso's Cure for Consumption cured me of a bad lung trouble.—Mrs. J. Nichols, Princeton, Ind., Mar. 26, 1895.

"Uneasy Lies the Head
That Wears a Crown."

But such are not the only uneasy heads. Overworked, harrassed, anxious people of all ages and both sexes are uneasy with aches, pains, impure blood, disordered stomachs, deranged kidneys and liver. For all such, Hood's Sarsaparilla is the effective and faultless cure. It infuses fresh life through purified blood.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

EDUCATIONAL.



THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME,
NOTRE DAME, INDIANA.
Classics, Letters, Economics and History, Journalism, Art, Science, Pharmacy, Law, Civil, Mechanical and Electrical Engineering, Architecture.
Thorough Preparatory and Commercial Courses. Ecclesiastical students at special rates. Rooms Free. Junior or Senior Year Collegiate Course. Rooms to Rent, moderate charge.
St. Edward's Hall, for boys under 13.
The 56th Year will open September 5th, 1899. Catalogue Free. Address,
REV. A. MORRISSEY, C. S. C., President.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY
Notre Dame P. O., Indiana.
(One mile West of the University of Notre Dame.)
The 89th Academic Term will open Monday, September 4, 1899. All the branches of A Thorough English and Classical Education,
including Greek, Latin, Spanish, French and German are taught by a Faculty of competent teachers. On completing the full course of studies students receive the Regular Collegiate Degrees of Litt. B. or A. B.
The Conservatory of Music is conducted on the plan of the best Classical Conservatories of Europe.
The Art Department is modelled after the best Art Schools in Europe.
Preparatory and Minim Departments.—Pupils who need primary training, and those of tender age are here carefully prepared for the Academic Course and Advanced Course.
For catalogue containing full information, address, DIRECTRESS OF THE ACADEMY, St. Mary's Academy, Notre Dame P. O., Ind.

STOCK RAISERS
Will find it greatly to their advantage, if before purchasing a farm, they will look at the country along the line of the
Saint Paul & Duluth Railroad.
DAIRY FARMERS
Who desire the best Clover and Timothy land, in a district which can boast of a fine climate, good pure water, rich soil, fine meadows, and near to the markets of St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth and Superior should apply immediately by letter or in person to
WM. P. TROWBRIDGE,
Asst. Land Commissioner,
St. Paul & Duluth R. R.
Box U—003 Globe Bldg., St. Paul, Minn.

Whiskers Dyed
A Natural Black by
Buckingham's Dye.
Price 50 cents of all druggists, or R. P. Hall & Co., Nashua, N. H.

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
REGULATE THE LIVER

INVENTORS
Send to-day for our handsomely engraved 35th anniversary work on patents. FREE.
MASON, FENWICK & LAWRENCE,
Patent Lawyers. Washington, D. C.

PENSION JOHN W. MORRIS, Washington, D.C.
Successfully Prosecutes Claims.
Late Principal Examiner U.S. Pension Bureau. 3 yrs in civil war, 15 adjudicating claims, atty since.

WANTED—Case of bad health that R-I-P-A-N-S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimonials.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water.

TO —

'Twas at a ball. In vain I tried
To feel less like a social martyr,
When, lying on the floor, I spied
A think of yellow silk—a——!

I put a dash there, for 'tis said
To write it plainly out amiss is;
Yet England's motto may be read
Upon just such a thing as this is.

I stooped, and hid it in my hand,
And wondered who might be the loser;
She could not ask me for the band!
How such a question would confuse her!

Returning with it to my place,
I wondered if my cheek were flushing;
In turn I scanned each lovely face,
Until I saw how you were blushing!

My own perception I had wronged,
To think that I would not have known her
To whom this dainty band belonged—
No one but you could be the owner.

So thus I send it back to you,
Around this bunch of blushing roses!
One found it whom you never knew;
Whose name no hint of mine discloses.

I would not have you guess 'twas I,
For that might put constraint upon you;
Perhaps you'll know me by and by;
Perhaps you'll love me! When I've won you.

I'll whisper that 'twas I who found
This clinging silken band of yellow.
We're strangers still I will be bound,
You, and no other, have its fellow!

And now may my respect for you
Plead pardon for these rhyming fancies!
For never motto was more true
Than "Honi soit qui mal y pense" is.

OUR DISCOVERY.

I had just graduated as a student, from the Long Island Medical College, in Brooklyn, and as I needed some recreation after my long course of study in that institution, I determined to take a trip across the Western plains, my ultimate destination being San Francisco.

To my bosom friend Godfrey Dennin, a young lawyer, I described the prospective pleasures of such a trip, and he at length consented to become my traveling companion.

About three weeks later, after various unimportant experiences, Dennin and I found ourselves in a small town which I shall call Lathrop, about one hundred and thirty miles west of Denver.

We had just registered at the chief "hotel" of which the place boasted—a rude two-story frame structure, and were at once keenly eyed by the loungers and guests, who evidently considered us very stupid specimens of the "tenderfoot" variety.

The most important servant of the house was a stalwart, full-bearded man of thirty-five, whose garb denoted him to be a miner, and whom everybody addressed as "Ike."

He assisted the cook, acted as bellboy, officiated as chambermaid, and sometimes showed his skill as bartender when Pete Burroughs, the landlord, withdrew for a little respite from his labors as a decoctor of delectable beverages.

It was Ike who first served us in that hotel; and the "whisky sour" he compounded for me seemed to run down to the pit of my stomach like a streak of lightning, leaving a trail of fire in its course.

I coughed and spluttered, while Dennin vigorously whacked me on the back, thinking I was choking.

I glared with a look of hatred at Ike as the author of my discomfiture; but he merely smiled, and winked merrily at me, and if he and I were partners in a good practical joke.

His repeated winking annoyed me; but it was not long until I learned that this habit was merely the manifestation of a nervous complaint which he could not control.

When he read my name on the register, and saw that it had "M. D." attached to it, he winked more vigorously than ever and frequently glanced at me with a very meaning look.

It was just dark when we signified our intention to visit the apartment assigned to us, and Ike was deputed to escort us thither.

Taking up a lighted tallow candle, which Pete had placed on the bar, Ike gave me a wink and started for a side door, with Dennin and myself at his heels.

Ascending a dark flight of stairs, he led us into a passage at the end of which was our room, a medium sized, carpetless apartment, containing two small cots, a couple of dilapitated chairs, a washstand and a little round table, upon which he placed the candle, saying to me, in a low, mysterious tone, his impudent manner changed suddenly to one of a certain respect:

"We looked for you two days ago, doctor—you and your friend here—and had begun to get pretty skeery when we found you didn't 'show up. Everything's all right so far; there's no suspicion. You've got what you need in them things there"—pointing to our valises— "and you'll not set to work till the house's all quiet, for walls have ears. Pete'll close up to-night extra early on purpose to give you more time to do the job. You'll find it in there," he concluded, indicating with a jerk of his thumb a side door in the room, and at the same time backing suddenly to the entrance with an expression of fear in his ugly face, while his owlish eyes kept constantly winking.

Utterly amazed, I tried to speak, tried to find voice to ask him what he was driving at. Indeed, Dennin's tongue seemed tied, too, and the fellow had already backed out of the room, and shut the door quickly, and we heard him go bounding down the dark stairs as if a ghost was after him, before either of us could open our mouths to articulate a sound.

"Well," said I finally, turning to Dennin, who appeared to be coming out of a stupor, "what do you make out of this experience?"

"I make out of it," he replied, with an effort, "that we are in for some strange adventure. What did he mean by it? 'Setting to work'—'doing the job'—to say nothing of what else he said."

"Evidently we shall find that out by opening that side door which he indicated. And he called me doctor. All this looks like a real mystery, Dennin. Shall we follow it up?"

"I'm with you," said Dennin, starting toward the side door.

I caught him by the arm.

"Go slow, my boy. Remember his warning about the walls having ears and not going to work until the house was quiet. Let's wait and ask no questions lest we betray ourselves. The more I think of it the more I am convinced that he has in some unaccountable way mistaken us for other people. Who? What sort? Of course I cannot conjecture. But certain it is, we are not supposed to be here for any good purpose. Didn't you notice how frightened he looked when he spoke of it?"

"Yes," said Dennin, "and that leads me to believe we are on the point of making some important discovery—I cannot imagine what—but which will bring that villain, and perhaps the landlord himself into trouble."

Having delivered himself of this sage conclusion, Dennin washed himself and after I had done likewise we went below to see about supper, exerting ourselves to the utmost to appear as unconcerned as possible.

Ike was not visible, and the landlord, who was waiting on some new customers, directed us to the dining room slyly handing me, as he did so, something wrapped in paper, which felt like a key.

On sitting down to supper I opened the paper, and, sure enough, I found it contained a door key, while on the paper were scrawled several lines, which I made out to read as follows:

"This Key fits the Dore between the rooms—don't kum to the Bar agin tonite, and luk out for people in Room on t'other side of Partition—you will find Bags in Closet of Room."

"Aha!" said Dennin, when he had deciphered the scrawl in his turn, "the mystery deepens! What on earth are the bags for? Really, Joe, I'm beginning to think we'll get our fingers burnt if we atempt to handle this thing. Let's get out of this infernal hole before it is too late."

"What, you are not going to back out?" I said, my curiosity being so fully roused by the strange note, so I was determined to fathom the mystery.

"Not, if you are determined to stick to it, my old chum."

After supper we went directly to our room, taking with us a large lamp which had been lighted for our use.

It was then eleven o'clock.

Through the partition on the right, opposite the door opening into the other room, we heard voices, and listened. It was some miners, judging from their talk, discussing business matters. These were doubtless the people against whom the note had warned us. They did not separate till midnight, and I can assure the reader it was a long wait for us—for Dennin and me.

Soon after we heard them go out; the house became as still as death. Then, with a strange feeling creeping over me, I bade Dennin take up the lamp, and, going on tiptoe to the side door, I unlocked it, very carefully, so as not to make the slightest noise, and slowly opened it.

A damp, chilly air struck our faces, and the light flared up. The windows of the room were raised, but the shutters were closed tight.

We entered. There was no carpet on the floor, and no furniture save a long deal table in the middle of the room. To the right, in the farther corner, was a cot, with a blanket thrown over it; to the left a closet.

"Well," I was on the point of saying, "I see no mystery in this," when Dennin, who was between me and the farther corner, holding the lamp, started back, suddenly and clutched my arm.

"Heavens, Joe," he said, in a hoarse whisper, "there's something covered up on the cot!"

The hand with which he held the lamp shook so that, fearing he would drop it, I took it from him, and, in breathless suspense, we went on tiptoe to the cot.

Yes; there was certainly something under the blanket. Something that looked like the top of a human head peeped out.

I pulled down the blanket a little, and a ghastly face, framed by long, brown hair, stared up at us with glassy eyes.

Horrified, I recoiled and set the lamp upon the table, while Dennin staggered back against the wall, murmuring:

"For God's sake, Joe, what does this mean?"

"It means," I replied, mastering my emotion, "it means that we stand face to face with the victim of a crime—a murdered woman. Choked to death!"

"Choked!" gasped Dennin. "How do you know that?"

"It is very evident," I made answer, approaching the cot again. "See for yourself," and I showed Dennin, at the throat, several dark marks, like the imprints of fingers. "There," I said, gravely, "are the irrefutable proofs. To the medical eye they are crying witnesses."

"Cover it up again, Joe. The sight is too horrible!" moaned Dennin. "We must not disturb it—it must be left as we found it," and seizing the blanket with a shudder he pulled it over the staring face.

"And now what's to be done?" he continued. "Our first step is undoubtedly to go and lodge a complaint against this Ike and Pete Burroughs, the landlords. We must do so at once."

"Not so fast, my boy. Do you imagine we would be allowed to leave this house by stealth at this hour? No, indeed, we are supposed to be——"

"What?" asked Dennin, impatiently, as I paused.

"Cutting the body up, of course, so that they can conveniently dispose of it—bury the pieces separately, no doubt. Isn't the matter clear to you now? The rascals, having foully murdered this poor woman here, have not dared to carry the body away as it is, and have not had the courage to cut it up. Some oneone, for a round sum of money, has agreed to furnish them a villainous doctor and an assistant, who would do the job for them. Don't you remember that Ike said to me, when he cautioned me in the other room, 'We looked for you two days ago, doctor?' And what he meant by 'You've got what you need in them things,' pointing to our valises, were the surgical instruments necessary for the operation."

I, opening a valise, took out two loaded revolvers, and going up to Dennin, said, in a whisper:

"Take this revolver and keep your wits about you. Certain it is that either Ike or the landlord will be here before daylight to see whether we have done the job. Whoever comes, we must be prepared for him. It's a matter of life or death with us."

Then, seating myself by the little table, I waited anxiously for the next act in the frightful drama.

It was drawing near to three in the morning when I heard soft footsteps, in the passage, approaching the door, and presently there came a light knock. I motioned to Dennin, and when I opened the door, in walked Ike and Pete, the landlords, but to find themselves confronted suddenly with two revolvers aimed straight at their breasts. At the same time I cried out:

"Hands up!"

"Don't shoot!" the two worthies stammered, simultaneously, throwing up their hands. "No harm was meant!"

"What! No harm, you villains! It was a cold-blooded murder!" I said, vehemently.

Ike burst out laughing, winking furiously, while from every part of the house seemed to come an explosion of shouts, and into the room rushed a score of miners.

"The fact is, pard," said Ike, suppressing his mirth, "we've been pretty hard on you and your friend. But that is the initiation we generally give to all new tenderfeet—a pretty good skeer, that's all. And really, in the fust place, it was intended for two tenderfoot friends of our'n we expected two days ago. But when they didn't come, and we seen youse comin' up the street, so innocent-like, we couldn't resist the temptation to play the joke off on you," an' with several rapid winks, Ike walked to the door of the adjoining room, one of the miners following him with the lamp, and unlocking it with another key, threw it open, walked to the cot, and, amid a roar of laughter, jerked out from under the blanket, by the hair, the wax head of a woman.

RISE OF THE STEAMSHIP

Impossible to Guess What Speed May Not Be reached Hereafter.

Twenty years ago it was thought by many that the limit as to size, speed and economy had been reached. At water at the harbors, and the cost, are the limits that will prevent further development on present lines. With different material for construction, with liquid fuel, and other improvements or inventions, it is possible that twenty years from now one may look back at the Lucania with her 21.6 knots as we now look back on the Germanic and Britannic of 1874 with their 16 knots.

Piston speed in 1838 was about 200 feet per minute, 400 feet in 1860, and to-day it is from 800 to 1,000 feet. On the Minneapolis, on her trial trip, the piston speed was about 920 feet. The steam pressure on ocean steamers up to 1850 did not exceed 20 pounds. With the earlier vessels, with only 5 to 10 pounds of steam, it was possible to stop a leak in a boiler "by pushing a rag in the hole." As late as 1846 a prominent firm of engine builders in England stated that from 10 to 12 pounds was what they used for merchant vessels, and they strongly recommended that for the navy the pressure should not be more than 10 pounds. By 1880 pressures had increased to from 60 to 90 pounds, and on the introduction of steel for boilers, pressures went up to about 100 pounds by 1885, and now boilers are being built, for large steamers, to carry 200 pounds. Special types of boilers for torpedo boats and other uses carry much higher pressure.

The Ericsson's machinery weighs only 56 pounds per horse power. This last is for torpedo boats and high pressure boats, and cannot yet be approached for large vessels. On the trial trip the Minneapolis developed 20,812 horse-power, and the total weight of all the machinery, with the water in the boilers, was 1961 tons, so that the weight of machinery for each horse-power was about 210 pounds. Had the Minneapolis machinery been of the same relative weight as that of the Powhatan it would have weighed over 8,400 tons, or 1,000 tons more than the weight of the Minneapolis herself weighed on her trial trip.—Chautauquan.

FANGS OF THE RATTLER

What an Anatomist Found in a Carefully Dissected Specimen.

The reptile was nearly four feet long, had thirteen rattles and when opened was found to have dined not long before on three young rabbits, which were lying snugly in its very long stomach, lengthwise, one after the other, as they were swallowed. The tail at the junction of the rattles is formed of a bundle of fibers much like those of a tarred rope, one-third of an inch in diameter, twisted in the same manner and crossed, so as to give a great force to the end of the tail, on which the loose rattles are arranged.

But the other end of the reptile is of the most interest, because the examination completely upsets all the popular notions so far held about the fangs. There were four of these on each jaw. One was over half an inch in length. This is the needle, but not the conveyor of the poison. This is a triple fang, or three separate fangs, very loosely attached to the moving muscles, so that they are very easily drawn out, and they are almost invisible on account of their clear, translucent color, so that they might easily escape notice in a wound made by the real fang. These poison fangs are hollow and are directly attached to the sac in which the poison is contained.

The tongue is a thin, slender fiber attached by slender muscles—not forked, as popularly supposed, but appearing to be so by its rapid vibration when the reptile is disturbed and shows its hostility to the intruder by giving some of its very sharp tongue. It is very clear under these circumstances that the most apparent fang is the puncturing instrument, and when it has done its work, the deadly true fangs, which are tubular, enter the wound and discharge their loads of poison. These are plainly seen to be tubes, and are made exactly like the horns of a cow. Under the microscope the substance of them looks like pearl, and has a delicate polish and finish. No surgical instrument is made so delicately.

SAVED HIS BURNING SHIP.

An American Captain's Novel Plan for Saving Vessel and Cargo.

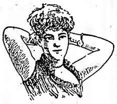
One of the most brilliant pieces of ocean-wrecking seamanship on record, whereby the vessel, far out on the Atlantic with her cargo on fire, was saved and brought safely to port, was performed on board the American ship John Jay, commanded by Capt. Samuel Jackson, says Harper's Young People. When two weeks out the cargo was discovered to be on fire. The captain determined upon his course of action. He had the carpenter lowered over the rail and instructed him to bore several holes low down by the water line. The vessel was then put on the other tack so that she would be healed over on the side where the holes had been made. The water shot through these openings, and after the vessel had been allowed to sink almost to the level of the deck she was put around on the other tack again, so that the holes came within two or three feet of the top of the water. Several of the sailors, with lines made fast under their arms and holding long wooden pegs and hammers, slid down along the side, steadying themselves by ropes that had been passed under the vessel and hauled taut, so that they came alongside of the holes. The tapering pins were thrust into the openings and knocked tight, then the vessel was put before the wind to get on an even keel, and the crew turned to and pumped her out.

HAVE PERFECT ARMS.

THE AMERICAN WOMEN FAR IN THE LEAD.

Miss Matson, of Brooklyn, Chosen by Parisian Artists for a High Honor, Discusses the Good and Bad Points of Feminine Shape—Defects of Foreigners.

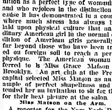
The athletic American girl has superseded in interest the athletic American young man, and anything concerning her, when delicately discussed, is certain to be of interest and it is likely to be productive of good results. The physique of the girl should no more be neglected or ignored than the physique of the college graduate, and, happily, the tendency of the present is to regard this culture with a more sensible and a more rational concern than heretofore. The American girl at this moment is a grander type of nature in her carriage, her health, her self-reliance, her ability, her physique, than is the girl of any other nation on earth. And this condition is gaining recognition more and more every day. Our papers and our magazines are showing us in almost every issue the distinctive feature and characteristics of the real American woman, while she herself in flesh and blood is forcing the same truth upon our cousins across the sea. It is, therefore, not untimely to hear the testimony of one American woman who has had the pleasure of a foreign recognition as a perfect type of womanhood and who rejoices in the distinction because it has demonstrated in a country where much stress has always been laid upon physical culture that an ordinary American girl in the normal condition of American girls generally is far beyond those who have been trained on foreign soil to reach a perfect physique. The American woman referred to is Miss Grace Matson of Brooklyn. An art club at the French capital selected Miss Matson as an example of perfect shapeliness and extended her an invitation to sit for them for their next picture at the salon.



American Arms.

Miss Matson on the Arm.

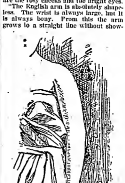
A reporter for the New York Press called upon Miss Matson the other day and asked for her views upon the subject of arms, concerning which she must be stocked with interesting and unusual information.



A French Arm.

"I certainly think," said Miss Matson, "that the arm is one of the most beautiful attributes of womankind, and as fashion and polite, refined society has decreed that it may be displayed without forfeiting the modesty woman should never permit to grow dulled, I think it is a subject that may be approached with the same freedom as a discussion on eyes or hair. I want to begin by saying that the American woman has the most beautiful of all arms, and I will try to point out to you why this is. The American arm is small at the wrist and tapers gradually to the shoulder; it is usually white and almost invariably the flesh is soft and fine. The wrist of the Irish girl, regardless of her station in life, whether it be the highest or lowest, is always too large to be artistic or even to be pretty. It is also too long and extends too far up the arm itself. I have never seen an Irish arm that has been free from this defect, nor have I ever seen an Irish arm, although on a woman in whom the Irish blood has been strained through several generations of marriage with other nationalities, that had rid itself of this peculiarity. It is exactly as distinctive of the race as are the rosy cheeks and the bright eyes.

"The English arm is absolutely shapeless. The wrist is always large, but it is always bony. From this the arm grows in a straight line without showing any curves until more than half way up to the elbow, when there suddenly appears a bunch of fat that is confined to the one spot and does not last until the elbow is reached. It disappears as suddenly as it appears, and we find another stretch of straight flesh to the shoulder. It is no unusual sight to see on English woman's arm smaller in diameter and circumference between the elbow and the shoulder than is the elbow itself. The effect of this, as may be imagined, is to make the arm unsightly and awkward and give the idea of undue length which does not always exist.



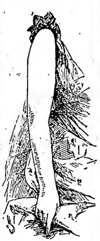
German Arm.

Proper Artistic Proportions.

"A truly artistic arm should not be the same measurement in inches at any two spots along its entire length; it should be a constantly changing curve from elbow to the body, and from the elbow to the wrist the line of beauty should be more pronounced and the swell of the flesh greater. If any muscles show themselves they, of course, destroy the beauty at once and entirely. Muscles are pleasant to look at when in their proper place, but they do not belong on a female arm. They indicate power, which, while a woman may possess it, she should never permit it to become apparent. A shapely shoulder is where it slopes quickly from the throat to the arm, not the slope that is called coffin shape, but the happy medium between that and the squareness of the man. The English shoulder is not objectionably square, but it is terribly sparse of flesh; the small bones of the throat and the larger bones of the shoulder blade are so glaringly in evidence as to rob the display of attraction.

The shoulder of the French woman is a trifle too square, and that of the German just a little too stocky. The superiority of the American in this respect can be studied by any one in the theatrical companies that come to this country from abroad.

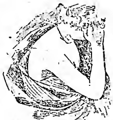
"Personally I have never taken any physical training and never in any way tried to improve the shape I came naturally by from generous nature. It may be that had I done differently and gone to the gymnasium, I might have created a figure for myself that would have been as perfect throughout as are my limbs, but it is too late to try it now, and I doubt whether training will make any improvement in the actual shape itself. It doubtless will strengthen and solidify the flesh, but my impression is that a woman is born with a good or a bad form, as the case may be, and an effort to improve it is apt to prove futile.



An Irish Arm.

Miss Matson's Own Arm.

"A small wrist and a large arm do not necessarily suggest perfection, for it may be that the wrist will be too small for the balance of the arm, and thus appear altogether inadequate to sustain the strain that comes on it. An appearance of weakness is as bad as an appearance of grossness, so far as the artistic result is concerned. Such an arm might be compared to the delicate furniture popular to some extent where the supports of the chairs and sofas are too frail to hold the weight they will be subjected to. My own wrist is six inches in circumference, my forearm, just below the elbow, ten inches, and the arm just above the elbow is thirteen inches. That, I have been told, is the correct proportion. I wear a No. 5 glove and a No. 3 shoe.



An English Arm.

"The European woman wears a much larger glove than we do, and even the children have hands large enough to belong to our men here. In London a year ago I went out to buy a pair of shoes, and tried to find a pair ready made that would fit me. After traveling about through all the stores of Regent street, and finally of Oxford street, I was compelled to order a pair made, because I could find nothing smaller than No. 5. I wanted the shoes rather high, and after the shoe dealer had measured me and promised the shoes for a certain date I was satisfied.

"Two days later, and when I should have had the shoes, in fact, the shoemaker called upon me and said that he came to take my measure over again, as the manufacturer declined to accept the measure already made for the reason that he did not believe any full-grown woman had a foot that would go into a No. 3 shoe and at the same time required so large a top to the shoe as the measurements indicated that I did. This episode is the best illustration I can give of the prevailing shapes. That shoemaker was accustomed to large feet and small limbs, rather than small, comparatively, feet and large limbs.

"The result of my observations during several years residence abroad is that American women are the most beautifully formed of all the women who populate this globe."

Showing His Wisdom.

Housekeeper—I wish to get some borax.

New Boy—Powdered?

"I hardly know. I saw in the paper that roaches could be killed with borax.

"Guess you'd better take the other kind, ma'am. It's most as hard as rocks. Have you a little boy?"

"Y-e-s."

"Well, if I were you, I'd let him do the throwing."—Good News.

Are You Ever Depressed?

And is it not due to nervous exhaustion? Things always look so much brighter when we are in good health. How can you have courage when suffering with headache, nervous prostration and great physical weakness?

Would you not like to be rid of this depression of spirits?

How? By removing the cause. By taking

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

It gives activity to all parts that carry away useless and poisonous materials from your body. It removes the cause of your suffering, because it removes all impurities from your blood. Send for our book on Nervousness.

To keep in good health you must have perfect action of the bowels. Ayer's Pills cure constipation and biliousness.

Write to our Doctors.
Perhaps you would like to consult some eminent physicians about your condition. Then write us freely all the particulars in your case. You will receive a prompt reply, without cost.
Address, DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

Diplomacy in the Home.

Jepson—How did your wife fancy your new suit?

Harveys—She disliked it so much that I had to tell her I got it at a bargain sale.—Brooklyn Life.

PATENTS.

List of Patents Issued Last Week to Northwestern Inventors.

Walter C. Cunningham, St. Paul, Minn., tobacco pipe; Edward Groven, Bagley, Minn., straw stacker; Robert Hearns, St. Paul, Minn., detachable car fender; Peter O. Lunnes, Wahpeton, N. D., windmill; Oscar E. Newquist, Carlton, Minn., fence post; Adam Reis, Georgetown, Minn., weed seed destroyer; August Schuch, Hector, Minn., vehicle wheel; Eugene Stougn, Sioux Falls, S. D., mold for composition rollers; Warren S. Wilde, Scoville, N. D., body for buggies or carriages.

Merwin, Lothrop & Johnson, Patent Attorneys, 910 Pioneer Press Bldg., St. Paul.

After a whole day down town, it's no wonder if a woman looks somewhat shopworn.

Are You Using Allen's Foot-Ease?

It is the only cure for Swollen, Smarting, Burning, Sweating Feet, Corns and Bunions. Ask for Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder to be shaken into the shoes. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

In order to mount the ladder of fame an orator must win round after round of applause.

Perfect System Cleaners.

Keep clean inside as well as outside and you'll be nearer godliness. Cascarets Candy Cathartic cleanse and purify your body inside. All druggists 10c 25c 50c.

A man ought not to take his watch out anywhere until he is sure its face and hands are clean.

FITS Permanently Cured. No fits or nervousness after first day's use of Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. Send for FREE $2.00 trial bottle and treatise. Dr. R. H. Kline, Ltd., 931 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Horse races are run as a matter of course.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N. Y.
For sale by all Druggists.—Price 50c. per bottle.

PISO'S CURE FOR
CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS.
Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists.
CONSUMPTION

Minnesota Historical Society

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR.

VOLUME XVIII. ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY JULY 26, 1899. NUMBER 52

EXPANSION TALK

HOW IT STRIKES THE BOYS—NELSON AND THE TRUSTS.

How the Senator Weakened at a Critical Time—Vale, Alger!—General Pope, Who Works; the Press, Which Talks. The Lumber Trust "Prosperity"—The Coming Harmonious Democratic Convention.

Reform Press Bureau.
St. Paul, July 24, 1899.

The facts are slowly coming to the surface. In spite of censorship, in spite of concerted misrepresentation here at home, in spite of studied deceit on the part of those in authority, the truth as to the Philippine trouble and the wishes of the volunteers is becoming known. The newspaper correspondents at Manila shocked the expansionists with their plain, blunt statements as to Otis and the failure of his campaign. Now comes one prominent authority after another denouncing as false the statements so oft reiterated, by the president as well as by his followers, that the volunteers were willing to remain in the Philippines and fight the liberty-loving natives as long as the government deemed their services necessary. Captain Auldid of the North Dakota regiment is especially emphatic. He says that when the president told Senator Pettigrew that the volunteers did not want to come home, the president was telling a fairy tale; that if the volunteers don't want to come home he never saw anyone who did.

Nicholas Hanson, one of our own boys—a wounded member of the honored Thirteenth—is another witness. Writing to F. H. Russell of Eyota, under date of June 3, he thus describes the wishes of the boys, and somewhat earnestly pays his respects to those who ridicule the efforts made to have the men brought home:

"I hardly need tell you that the entire volunteer army is cheering over the prospect of a speedy return. Some of the expansion papers have intimated that the volunteers might like to stay until the fighting should cease. How those fellows prate about fighting when they are at a distance of 10,000 miles from the scene of the conflict! I sometimes wish that these intensely belligerent newspaper men would be organized into a brigade and sent over here to do the fighting. They talk about 'our soldierly honor' as if they ever had any; about 'quitting under fire,' as if they had ever been under fire; about 'shedding glory upon American arms'—all of which big sounding phrases they are willing to support most zealously by the artillery of their own mouths, but not by one drop of their own blood.

"The letter of Governor Lee of South Dakota to the president represents the sentiments of the volunteers pretty well. They feel that the purpose they enlisted for has been attained, and that if the United States decides upon an aggressive policy regulars should be secured as soon as practicable to support that policy. If we were still fighting Spain nothing would be said. As it is now, I doubt if enough men to form a single battalion can be induced to re-enlist and remain here."

Now what will the expansionist press have to say to this. Heretofore the "copperheads" have been confined, apparently, to those at home, but now we have the Funstons, the Auldids and even the crack Thirteenth marching right into the column of "imperialistic traitors."

During the extra session of the senate in 1898, the junior member from Minnesota, Mr. Nelson, offered an amendment to the tariff bill providing that all articles, the manufacture and sale of which should become subject to the control of a trust, be admitted "duty free." Such a clause would unquestionably be the means of destroying the trusts, and when the senator introduced it he was no doubt actuated by the same independence that led to his vote for the Mills bill when a member of the house some years before. But, alas, for the courage of would-be statesmen! At the critical moment, when strict and manly adherence to his own resolution would have made him the idol of his constituents today, he weakened. Whipped into line by the strong arm of the trusts and their pliant tools, the republican leaders of the senate, he not only withdrew his amendment, but actually voted against a similar one—the resolution of Senator Pettigrew of Dakota. He did more. He apologized for his undue haste in tackling this giant evil and even went so far as to deliver a speech, denouncing as dangerous that which today is universally admitted, by leading Republican journals as well as by Democrats, as the people's only protection for the growing power of combinations. The opportunity was his to show his loyalty to the people's cause, but instead of availing himself of it he lined up on the other side; chose the side of the strong against the weak, of the wealthy few against the struggling many. Had he it to do over, it is safe to say he would gladly recall his former action, now that the people are aroused, but the record is made up and by that he must be judged.

Vale, Alger! The imperialistic press and the scared disciples of Hanna have yielded to the voice of the people, apparently, by making their scapegoat of Alger and forcing his resignation.

This is mere palliation. The people demanded a cure. They wanted the scandal-cancer that is eating away the heart of national honor removed by the roots. Surface applications may deceive the eye, but the voter-surgeon, who is just now making a most careful diagnosis, will skillfully remove the tentacled monster, and to cure will bandage the necessary incisions with spotless '56-spun, well-medicated linen of the weave "Constitution."

Talk about calamity howlers! Just hearken to the jingo daily press wail because Minnesota has a "bank examiner who examines." General Pope should take into consideration the feelings of the men who are the power behind the press and otherwise behind "prosperity" which smiles so complacently above the closed and curtained doors of looted banks. General Pope should move more deliberately; in other words, should wait until a few favored depositors assist the managers in making away with the strong (?) box before letting the public into the "private" affairs of these gentlemen, and allowing said public to draw unto itself the small fraction of its deposits still "touchable." The bank examiner is a puzzle to "these gentlemen." He goes right ahead with his work and pauses not to assure the astute newspaper man that he "will explain" things. It must be that he intends to allow his actions to explain themselves before the just tribunal of public judgment.

The next national convention of the reformed Democracy will be a glorious ratification of the one held in Chicago three years ago—a sort of anniversary celebration of the greatest day in the history of the party, a day when old leaders and bosses were dethroned and the people themselves, the rank and file of the party, asserted their rights. It was not so much the triumph of silver that made that convention memorable; it was rather the triumph of the people over the elements which had dictated platforms and dominated conventions in the past. Silver happened to be the question uppermost in the popular mind. Next year the money problem may again be the chief point of contention and it may not. Trusts, expansion or the un-American tendencies of the present Republican administration—any one or all of these may take its place. But whatever the issue, whether it is silver or not, the politicians of the Republican persuasion may rest assured that it will involve questions in which the people are most deeply interested and upon which they will be prepared to take as determined and aggressive a stand as they did for silver in 1896. Furthermore, the issue will be made up, not by a clique of individuals, but by the great masses of the party, earnest in their convictions and loyal to the fundamental principles of a true Democracy.

The Minneapolis Journal recently remarked that the continual increase in the price of lumber was "causing some uneasiness." We met one one of the largest lumbermen of the Flour City the other morning and asked him how business was. "Booming, simply booming," was the reply, and the millionaire dealer in pine gleefully rubbed the palms of a man who seemed to be enjoying the situation immensely. And well he might. At a meeting of lumbermen held only a few minutes before it had been decided that Sept. 1 must mark an additional boost in the price of $1, and as the combine has already succeeded in bringing about an arbitrary advance of $2, the lumberman in question had every reason to feel a trifle elated. Add to this $3 raise, brought about solely by combination, the $2 provided for by the tariff and we have an artificial arbitrary boost of $5, or more than it actually costs to buy the logs and manufacture them into the finished lumber. In other words, the people simply make the lumbermen a present of all the stock they have on hand, and as a result of their folly go without houses and buildings themselves.

The Republican editors who are filling their papers week after week with groundless abuse of Governor Lind, would do well to take heed of the humiliating experience of Senator Miller. The senator, before making his charges of dishonesty, undoubtedly reasoned, as do all others who take so easily to slander, that high public officials, as a rule, find neither the time nor the inclination to take notice of newspaper criticism, that the chief executive of a state could hardly afford to enter into a controversy with the editor of a little country newspaper, and that charges of corruption could, therefore be made with little danger of having their character questioned or their author held to a strict accounting for the falsity of his assertions. But for once the editor-ex-senator was mistaken in his man. John Lind has behind him a record for honesty in private and public life, capable of withstanding the closest investigation, and it is not in the character of the man to have that record besmirched at will by every narrow minded politician who thinks he sees in abuse and vilification a chance for partisan advantage. Some men there are who hold their public acts as sacred as their private deeds, and to the people of the state it will be a source of great satisfaction to know that their present chief executive is one of them.

J. Adam Bede has declared himself in the Sixth district. Bede is a very able man and in some respects perfectly competent to hold down a seat in congress, but sore disappointment is in store for his ambitions. In the end he will find how doubly ungrateful are those with whom he so recently cast his political lot. The Republicans have been willing to use him, just as they were willing to use the gold Democrats throughout the Union in order to accomplish the election of McKinley, but they stand ready to drop Bede and all the rest without a pang as soon as their party needs are over. Scarcely anywhere in the country has one of this stripe of Democrats been recognized or rewarded, and it is hardly to be expected that Bede will prove an exception.

Commendation of the selections made by Governor Lind for members of the board of grain appeals is universal. The list includes some of the best equipped and most conscientious grain men in the state.
G. S. C.

ALGER STEPS OUT

SECRETARY OF WAR HANDS IN HIS RESIGNATION.

Will Go Into Effect Aug. 1, Though It Was Tendered "at the Pleasure of the President"—Though Not Unexpected, the Resignation Came In the Nature of a Surprise—Neither Mr. Alger Nor the President Would Make Any Comment—Speculative Comment as to His Successor.

Washington, July 21.—Secretary Alger yesterday tendered to the president his resignation of the war portfolio. The resignation will become effective Aug. 1, though it was tendered "at the pleasure of the president."

Gossip has begun already as to his successor, but is entirely speculative, for, notwithstanding the reports that Mr. Alger would not long continue at the head of the war department, his actual resignation came suddenly and unexpectedly. That it would come by the end of the year was generally believed, but so little was it expected at this time that some of the cabinet officers, when the news first became public, were inclined to regard the announcement as premature, the announcement that it was actually in hand coming to them in the nature of a surprise. Formal acceptance of the resignation had not been made by the president up to a late hour last night, but will be in a letter to be written in a day or two. No official statement as to the cause of the resignation was procurable either from the president nor from Secretary Alger, neither of whom would talk on the subject. Nor was the letter of resignation obtainable at this time. For the present nothing will be made known officially concerning the severance of the official relations between the president and his war minister, but later on the official correspondence closing the latter's career as chief of the war department doubtlessly will be given to the press. The belief has prevailed in Washington for some time that Secretary Alger would resign from the cabinet, but the date generally set for it was toward the end of the year, after he had submitted his annual report in which he intended to sum up what had been accomplished during his brief but eventful direction of the war department. Its tender then had been regarded as almost

A Foregone Conclusion

In view of Mr. Alger's announcement about a month ago that he had concluded to enter into competition for the vacancy in the United States senate to be caused by the expiration of the term of Senator McMillan, a strong supporter of the administration, and that he had enlisted in his active support Gov. Pingree, who had repeatedly made free criticisms of what was supposed to be cherished by the president toward the Filipinos. There have been many explanations and denials of the facts in that case, but in the end the impression was conveyed that the result of the Michigan visit of the secretary had been to change the relations between the president and himself to such a degree as to make a restoration of their former status impossible and to render the connection of the two as part of the same official family undesirable. At one time since then there was ground for the belief that a rupture might be avoided, but this belief ceased to be held when the news spread that Vice President Hobart and Secretary Alger were in conference at Normanhurst. It was largely at least as a result of this conference that Secretary Alger decided to leave the cabinet at this time. There has been no disclosure of what passed by the seaside, but it is significant that the return of the secretary to Washington was followed by prompt action. He arrived in Washington Tuesday night too late to make any official calls. Almost before the executive departments were opened for business yesterday morning he called at the White House, and, visiting the president in his office, announced that he had concluded to resign his office. What passed on that point between himself and the president is only a matter of surmise, for neither have anything to say on this point.

Who Will Succeed Him?

Among the names which have been mentioned from time to time in the discussion when talk of Secretary Alger's forthcoming resignation has been rife have been those of Gen. Horace Porter of New York, now ambassador to France; Gov. Roosevelt of New York; Gen. Harrison Gray Otis, and Assistant Secretary Meiklejohn. The name of Gen. Corbin has been mentioned in connection with an ad interim appointment pending the selection of a permanent occupant of the office. As to the report that Gen. Corbin would be secretary ad interim, an officer close to the general, said there was no basis for the report; that the president had never contemplated naming Gen. Corbin ad interim, and that if such an appointment were tendered it would not be accepted. There was some talk also that Gen. Corbin might be given the portfolio permanently, although this was regarded as improbable even among Gen. Corbin's friends.

Gored to Death.

Wausaukee, Wis., July 21.—Ike Wasson, a farm hand employed on Holmes' farm, was gored to death by a mad bull. His head was nearly severed from his body and otherwise badly mutilated.

Bicycle Record Smashed.

Washington, July 21.—Harry Elkes of Glen Falls, N. Y., the middle distance champion bicycle rider of America, covered a mile in 1:31 flat, thus lowering the record for that distance held by Eddie McDuffie of Boston.

News of a Rich Strike.

Seattle, Wash., July 21.—The steamer Dirgo has arrived from Skaguay with news of a rich strike on Big Salmon river. The Dirgo had a number of passengers from Dawson who brought $250,000 in gold dust.

PRIEST CAUSES TROUBLE.

Recent Actions Increase the Feeling Between Filipinos and Church.

Manila, July 24.—A Filipino priest named Gregorio Agripay, with the insurgents, is trying to lead a movement for the independence of the church in the Philippines from the Spanish priesthood. He has issued a proclamation declaring himself vicar general of all the Filipino priests in all the districts outside of American control on the Island of Luzon, and inciting the priests to disobey the regulations of the church and brotherhoods. The archbishop of the district has issued a bull excommunicating Agripay, and this action has increased the feeling between the Filipinos and the church.

The archbishop threatened to excommunicate the owners of Spanish papers publishing announcements of Protestant and Masonic meetings, whereupon an American paper warned him that he might be bundled out of the island like any disturber of the peace if he should incite religious animosity.

The Dominican friars have begun the publication of a newspaper under the title of The Libertas for the purpose of defending the brotherhood.

The United States transport Zealandia, which sailed from San Francisco June 24 with four companies of the Twenty-fourth United States infantry, 150 recruits and a large amount of provisions and supplies for the navy on board, has arrived here.

GREATER THAN REPORTED.

Victory Over the Robber Bands in Negros.

Washington, July 24.—The war department yesterday received from Gen. Otis another dispatch giving additional particulars of the fight between Capt. B. A. Byrne, with seventy men of the Sixth infantry, and robber bands in the Island of Negros. It shows that the victory of the soldiers was greater than that reported in Gen. Otis' dispatch of July 21, and that the loss suffered by the robbers was considerably larger than before stated. Much satisfaction is felt by Gen. Otis over the results of this preliminary effort in dealing with this disturbing element in the island, and he reports it as having already had a salutary effect on other bands infesting the locality.

ARBITRATION OR WAR.

Strong Talk on the Alaskan Boundary Dispute in the Canadian Parliament.

Toronto, Ont., July 24.—A special from Ottawa says: A violent criticism of the American position concerning the Alaskan boundary question by Sir Charles Tupper at Saturday's sitting of the house brought forth a statement from Sir Wilfred Laurier. "It is clear that," said he, "there are only two ways by which the difficulty may now be settled, arbitration or war. I have no hope at this moment that we can settle the question by compromise. No one wants a war. We must exhaust every means of removing the difficulty by peaceful methods. I have not given up hope that it is possible to agree to arbitration. Negotiations are still going on. We must find some means of bringing about a peaceful settlement."

WAR OVER RIGHT OF WAY.

Fight Between the M. & St. L. and the Milwaukee Assumes a Serious Phase.

Storm Lake, Iowa, July 24.—Startling developments are highly probable in the big railway fight between the Minneapolis & St. Louis and the Milwaukee here, where the Milwaukee is now in forcible possession of the right of way of the Minneapolis & St. Louis across which it has laid its tracks in the face of an injunction. All day the sheriff of Buena Vista county, with a posse, remained in possession of the tracks, not permitting interference from either force. The Milwaukee men have been reinforced and each side is watching the other. An attempt is to be made to-day to arrest the Milwaukee workmen for contempt of court. They say they will resist, and serious trouble is feared.

CUBAN AFFAIRS.

Gen. Garcia Calls on the President to Urge Self-Government.

Washington, July 24.—Gen. Carlos Garcia, a son of Gen. Calixto Garcia, saw the president for a few minutes by appointment. Gen. Garcia represents the Cuban Republican league, and his mission to Washington is to explain to the president the aspirations and purposes of the league. The league desires the complete political independence of the island at the earliest possible moment. Its aim, however, at present, is to secure authority for holding conventions and elections for municipal officers and by demonstrating their capacity for holding elections and for local self-government by preparing the way for complete control of the island. They desire the authority for the municipal elections early this fall.

NEGROES LYNCHED.

Summary Justice Dealt Out to Rape Fiends.

Bainbridge, Ga., July 24.—A negro captured near Iron City was brought to Saffold and identified as one of the assailants of Mrs. Ogletree last Thursday night. He was lynched at daybreak near Saffold. Two other dead negroes were found alongside the railway track two miles west of Bainbridge.

The names of none of the negroes are known. It is believed by some that the dead negroes discovered by the railway track were the men arrested at Troy, Ala., on suspicion of being implicated in the Ogletree outrage, and who were being brought to Saffold for identification.

Drill on the Olympia.

Trieste, July 24.—Admiral Dewey, accompanied by Flag Lieut. Brumby, took Addison O. Harris, U. S. minister to Austria, and his staff in a steam launch to the Chateau Miramar. In the evening a drill was given on board the Olympia in honor of Mr. Harris.

Milwaukee Wants Diaz.

Milwaukee, July 24.—The mayor and common council will extend an invitation to President Diaz of Mexico to visit this city in the fall at the time President McKinley expects to be here.

RIOTING STRIKERS

SERIOUS OUTBREAKS OF VIOLENCE AT CLEVELAND.

Car Loaded With Passengers Is Wrecked by an Explosion of Nitro Glycerine and Four Persons Badly Injured—Sticks and Stones Are Freely Used by Strikers Who in Large Mobs Attack Cars in Various Parts of the City—Police Have Their Hands Full—Many Arrests Are Made.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 24.—The rioting which continued throughout Saturday night was renewed yesterday and there were several serious outbreaks of violence, but no clashes between the mobs and the troops. Cars were started running as usual in the morning on all but one or two lines. The mobs were astir early. Soon after 10 o'clock a thousand or more persons gathered on Burton street on the South side and proceeded to obstruct the track. When a car came along with two policeman on board it was attacked with a shower of stones. In spite of the policemen the non-union motorman and conductor were roughly handled. One of them, named McDermott, had two ribs broken and the other was badly bruised. One of the policemen fired at the mob, the bullet striking a man named Wennick. The mob assaulted the officers, both of whom were struck repeatedly with stones, and but for the intervention of a priest of the Catholic church near at hand the officers might have been lynched. By this time the cars had been mixed up in the melee and a patrol wagon load of police arriving, the rioters dispersed and the cars were taken back to the barns. There was a serious disturbance on the Broadway line at the corner of Petrie street, where a mob of 3,000 assembled in the forenoon and obstructed the track. Finally a car came along from the Wilson avenue barn, having on board Sergt. Burrows and a private of militia and Detective Kelso. The officer ordered the men to disperse when the motorman attempted to remove the obstruction from the track, but the rioters showed fight. Then Sergt. Burrows and the one soldier, with fixed bayonets, faced the mob and attempted to clear the way. There was a sharp fight for a few minutes, during which a perfect shower of stones fell about the detective and soldiers, smashing the car windows. No one was seriously hurt, and after arresting two of the rioters and placing them on the car it was returned to the barn. The police afterward charged the mob, making several arrests.

In the afternoon a mob of 1,000 conceived the idea of blocking the track on Exchange street by placing a big boulder in the middle of the street and building a fire around it. The plan worked successfully and cars were delayed for nearly an hour when the police drove the mob away, put out the fire and gave the street railway men a chance to move the stone. Three men were sent to the hospital with wounds made by policemen's clubs at the end of this riot. As the result of the shooting of a driver of a grocery delivery wagon in South Brooklyn by a non-union conductor the mayor of that place issued an order to the marshal to arrest all non-union men who carried weapons. Cars were stopped and each conductor found with a revolver was arrested. They were subsequently bailed out by the company. A small riot was started at the corner of Pearl street and Franklin avenue, when a young woman who struck a man who asked her to board a non-union conductor. A crowd of strike sympathizers stoned the cars and a squad of police finally cleared the street. The company sent a note to the state board of arbitration declining to arbitrate the differences. A Euclid avenue car loaded with passengers was wrecked by an explosion of nitro-glycerine or gun cotton shortly before 11 o'clock last night. Four persons were badly hurt. The explosion tore out the front end of the car, smashed all the windows and destroyed the brake. After considerable difficulty the car was stopped and a call for ambulances was sent out. The motorman, William Draggers, who came from Cincinnati, was dazed by the shock, but the conductor, Frank Schroeder of St. Louis, escaped injury. The force of the explosion was so great that it shook all the houses in the neighborhood and was heard for a distance of two or three miles.

Want More Money.

Boston, July 24.—The men employed in the Boston freight sheds of the Boston, New Haven & Hartford met and decided to ask for an increase in wages and presented the petition to General Manager Chamberlain. The six hundred men employed in the sheds, while making no threat to strike, instructed the committee appointed to wait upon Mr. Chamberlain to press for a definite answer within a reasonable time. The men at the New York terminals struck last week.

Brought Gold From Alaska.

Vancouver, B. C., July 24.—The steamer Rosalia arrived from Skaguay with 200 passengers and $110,000 in gold dust aboard. William Braid, a local merchant, brought $50,000, and Seattle men owned the remainder of the gold. Braid, who is conversant with government affairs, said that nearly $1,000,000 had been collected in royalties, and he placed the total output of the country at $20,000,000. El Dorado, Dominion and Bonanza Creek were supplying nearly all of the gold.

To Invite Diaz to Chicago.

Chicago, July 24.—President Diaz of Mexico and his cabinet will be formally invited to attend the ceremonies of the laying of the corner stone of the new federal building in Chicago on Oct. 9 by a committee who leave Aug. 5 for Mexico City.

Reception to Alger.

Detroit, July 24.—At a largely attended non-partisan meeting of leading citizens, held in the mayor's office a reception was planned in honor of Gen. Alger's return home.

BIG STRIKE THREATENED.

Clothing Workers Want an Increase In Wages.

New York, July 24.—About 2,500 clothing workers in three branches of that industry struck yesterday and a member of Tailors' Progressive Union No. 11 said that 14,000 would be out within twenty-four hours. Twenty-five thousand may be on strike within two weeks.

One thousand members of Tailors' Progressive Union No. 11, in sixty-two shops, struck for 25 per cent increase in wages. They have been earning $8 a week and they want $10. Six hundred coat pressers went on strike in the afternoon. Seven hundred more will go on strike to-day. They have been getting 7 cents a piece on coats and want 2 cents more. The pressers press on an average twenty coats a day. Eight hundred basters held a meeting yesterday and about three hundred men went out on strike. The basters have been working fourteen and sixteen hours a day. They want the workday shortened to ten hours. Twelve thousand men connected with the United Brotherhood of Cloakmakers will hold five hundred shop meetings within the next two weeks for the purpose of formulating new wage lists. It is believed that it will be necessary to order strikes to enforce the new schedule.

GOV. TANNER IN TROUBLE.

He Violates the Game Laws of Colorado.

Debeque, Colo., July 21.—Gov. Tanner of Illinois is safely out of the state despite efforts on the part of game wardens to detain him for violation of the game law in killing out of season one four-pronged buck. Not satisfied with the pelt of a mountain lion for his parlor, the executive official slew a young deer and the incident promises to make trouble between Colorado and Illinois.

The open season begins Aug. 15, and one caught with deer in his possession before that time may be committed to jail for a period of from ten days to six months, or may be made to pay a fine of from $10 to $500, or both.

There was no concealment in Gov. Tanner's offense, and the news was promptly wired to the chief game warden at Denver, with a request for instructions. The local wardens did not care to arrest a visiting governor, and therefore took no action on the premises. It is said that Gov. Tanner will return this way from California, for which state he boarded a train at Glenwood Springs, and that on crossing the Utah line coming east he will be served with a summons to appear before Justice Hedden at Glenwood Springs.

ELIHU ROOT ACCEPTS OFFICE.

He Succeeds Gen. Alger as Secretary of War.

Washington, July 24.—Elihu Root of New York accepted the war portfolio in President McKinley's cabinet. The tender of the war portfolio was made to Mr. Root Saturday night after the conference at the White House.

The announcement of Mr. Root's appointment was made at the war department. It was stated that Senator Platt came to Washington armed with authority from Mr. Root to accept it in his name. It is not expected that the acceptance will make any change in the plans of Secretary Alger, and he will remain on duty here until the end of the present month, being assisted by Mr. Meiklejohn. Secretary Alger had confidently expected the appointment of Mr. Root and was very much pleased at the president's choice.

Mr. Root has telegraphed the president that he will be here to-day. Mr. Root desires to have a conference with the president respecting the duties of his new office before the former leaves for Lake Champlain.

STRIKE PRACTICALLY ENDED.

Cars in Greater New York Are Running Without Interruption.

New York, July 24.—The trolley car strikes both in Manhattan and Brooklyn seem to be practically at an end. General Master Workman Parsons says they are not, and has launched a scheme for a new union labor political party and at the same time urged upon the delegates of the various trades unions in Greater New York the expediency of contributing to a fund to aid the strikers, and the delegates promised their final support. This is probably what causes General Master Workman Parsons and District Master Workman Pines to predict important developments in the strike situation this week. It is a fact, however, that both Saturday and Sunday the cars were being run under almost normal head on all the lines except the Nassau throughout Brooklyn, even to the various beaches, and carrying large numbers of passengers.

France Wants a Reduction.

Paris, July 24.—The Temps believes the United States will grant France a reduction of 20 per cent in the existing duties under the favored nation treatment, and says:

"If this is so, France will be able to compete on equal terms in America with other foreign states." With reference to the fears expressed by French agriculturists, the Temps says that French agriculturists will also have cause to rejoice, "for we remind our readers that we sold to the United States in 1889 10,000,000 francs worth of wines."

A Crisis In Sight.

London, July 24.—The Times' Pretoria correspondent says the Uitlanders have been given to understand that no abatement of the demands made by Sir Alfred Milner, governor of Cape Colony and British high commissioner for South Africa, will be acceptable to the imperial authorities. A crisis, therefore, is now held to be in sight.

Paymaster Appointed.

Washington, July 24.—The president has appointed Charles Newbald paymaster with the rank of major, regular army. This appointment was made to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Maj. Murphy.

Killed by a Locomotive.

Cass Lake, Minn., July 24.—Ed Martin, an Eastern Minnesota conductor, was instantly killed by being run over by an engine while switching in the yards here. He lived at West Superior.

BIG LOSS BY FIRE

LARGE GRAIN ELEVATOR COMPLETELY DESTROYED.

The Loss on Building and Contents Will Reach About One Million Dollars—900,000 Bushels of Wheat Were Stored in the Elevator—Half an Hour After the Fire Was Discovered the Enormous Building Was a Mass of Ruins—The Watchman Has a Narrow Escape.

Toledo, Ohio, July 21.—The C., H. & D. elevator, located in East Toledo, was totally destroyed by fire last night and the loss on building and contents will figure nearly a million dollars. It is not known how much insurance is on the grain, amounting to 900,000 bushels of wheat but the building carries $185,000 insurance. The elevator has been unusually busy for the past two weeks and was working night and day to store the 150 cars of wheat which are received daily at the place. The fact that it was Sunday prevented the fatalities which might have followed, for the forty men employed had quit work early and had been out of the place about two hours.

The watchman had made once the rounds of the building and had found everything safe and was on his way up to the top on his second trip. He was not aware that there was a fire, but observers noticed a small blaze in the cupola. An alarm was immediately turned in, but before the fire department arrived a terrific explosion took place. A mass of flames shot up into the air hundreds of feet. The building was almost immediately enveloped and within ten minutes another explosion occurred which tore out the entire side of the building near the river. This explosion hurled the watchman, W. E. Welch out of the flames and saved his life. He was only slightly injured. The enormous building was a mass of ruins half an hour after the first blaze was noticed. The work of the fire department was futile, most of their energies being directed toward saving adjoining property.

HORRIBLE DOUBT.

Family of a Dead California Volunteer Fear That They Buried the Body of a Filipino Instead of Him.

San Francisco, July 21.—The Chronicle says: A casket supposed to contain the remains of Private Francis Deckelman, Company L, First California volunteers, was lowered in May last into a grave in the Deckman family plat at Odd Fellows' cemetery. On the 11th of the present month, on the suspicion that a mistake had been made, the casket was disinterred at the request of the boy's father and the suspicion verified. Decomposition had set in to such an extent that identification was impossible, but it was plain to the bereaved father that a dead Filipino had been given the resting place intended for his son. S. Rehard of this city, who disinterred the remains at Manila, states, however, that they are the remains of young Deckelman.

LAKE SUPERIOR TIDAL WAVE.

It Raises the Water Three Feet on the South Shore.

Ashland, Wis., July 24.—A tidal wave raised the water in Chequamegon bay and the north shore of Lake Superior three feet Saturday afternoon. It was the highest rise of water that has been reported for several years. It came nearly to the top of some of the docks, flooded roads and backed up so high that several saw mills were obliged to shut down. The water ran over many of the lumber docks and into the boiler rooms of the mills. The strange thing about it is that the wind was from off shore. Vessel captains report the same phenomenon on the Apostle Islands. The water backed up in streams flowing into the bay, flooding and destroying crops.

GOLD GALORE.

Director of the Mint Robert Says There Will Be a Big Supply.

New York, July 24.—George E. Roberts, director of the mint, called at the local assay office recently. In discussing the output of gold from the Klondike country, Mr. Roberts said: "We have already received $11,050,000 in gold from the Klondike this calendar year. That is as much as last year's entire receipts from that region amounted to, and from information received from leading buyers of bullion I believe that this year's total yield will reach $18,000,000 or $20,000,000. We shall have all the gold we need in these parts this year, and in addition to that we shall no doubt be able to supply the metal to any one else who desires to purchase it."

Was Once Lincoln's Sweetheart.

Lexington, Ky., July 24.—Mrs. Mary Love Lawless died here in the eighty-second year of her age. She was a sweetheart of Abraham Lincoln and a reigning belle of her day. Her maiden name was Joplin and her home was at Mount Vernon, Ky. Her husband is James R. Lawless, a Mexican war veteran, who survives her. She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Mary L. Scott, widow of Lieut. John Scott, of the United States army.

Bubonic Plague Spreads.

London, July 21.—The colonial office announces that the bubonic plague has spread from Hongkong and Mauritius to Reunion. There were 38 cases at Mauritius during the week of which 29 resulted fatally.

Clemency for Mrs. Maybrick.

London, July 24.—A question will be issued in the house of commons to-day with regard to Mrs. Maybrick, seeing whether, her conduct being uniformly good, the home secretary will not recommend the exercise of royal clemency in her case.

Fatally Burned.

Verndale, Minn., July 21.—The six-year-old daughter of Ole Thomson was fatally burned at her home north of town. She was playing with matches and set fire to her clothing.

An old bachelor says there is but one thing sweeter than love's young dream, and that is to wake up and find yourself still single.—Chicago News.

Beautiful Women

Should have beauty and vigor of health. A strong stomach is the first essential to beauty. Nine-tenths of the sickness comes from weak digestion. Thousands of people have tried Hostetter's Stomach Bitters and regained their health. There is nothing like it. See that a private Revenue Stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

How easy it is for some people to make a lot of money, and how hard for others to make a little.

Do Your Feet Ache and Burn?

Shake into your shoes, Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It makes tight and New Shoes feel Easy. Cures Corns, Bunions, Swollen, Hot and Sweating Feet. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Probably the happiest day in the average farmer's life is when his best pig takes a $3 prize at the county fair.

Hall's Catarrh Cure

Is a constitutional cure. Price, 75c.

Is there a more absolutely helpless feeling than to be without a timepiece of any sort?

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

Have you ever noticed how much easier it is to tell a lie than to listen to one?

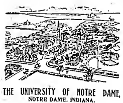
Two bottles of Piso's Cure for Consumption cured me of a bad lung trouble.—Mrs. J. Nichols, Princeton, Ind., Mar. 26, 1895.

"Uneasy Lies the Head
That Wears a Crown."

But such are not the only uneasy heads. Overworked, harrassed, anxious people of all ages and both sexes are uneasy with aches, pains, impure blood, disordered stomachs, deranged kidneys and liver. For all such, Hood's Sarsaparilla is the effective and faultless cure. It infuses fresh life through purified blood.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

EDUCATIONAL.



THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME,
NOTRE DAME, INDIANA.

Classics, Letters, Economics and History, Journalism, Art, Science, Pharmacy, Law, Civil, Mechanical and Electrical Engineering, Architecture.
Thorough Preparatory and Commercial Courses. Ecclesiastical students at special rates.
Rooms Free, Junior or Senior Year, Collegiate Course. Rooms to Rent, moderate charge.
St. Edward's Hall, for boys under 13.
The 56th Year will open September 5th, 1899.
Catalogue Free. Address,
REV. A. MORRISSEY, C. S. C., President.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY
Notre Dame P. O., Indiana.
(One mile West of the University of Notre Dame.)

The 45th Academic Term will open Monday, September 4, 1899. All the branches of A Thorough English and Classical Education, including Greek, Latin, Spanish, French and German are taught by a Faculty of competent teachers. On completing the full course of studies students receive the Regular Collegiate Degrees of Litt.B. or A.B. The Conservatory of Music is conducted on the plan of the best Classical Conservatories of Europe.
The Art Department is modelled after the best Art Schools in Europe.
Preparatory and Minim Departments—Pupils who need primary training, and those of tender age are here carefully prepared for the Academic Course and Advanced Course.
For catalogue containing full information, address, DIRECTRESS OF THE ACADEMY,
St. Mary's Academy, Notre Dame P. O., Ind.

STOCK RAISERS
Will find it greatly to their advantage, if before purchasing a farm, they will look at the country along the line of the Saint Paul & Duluth Railroad.

DAIRY FARMERS
Who desire the best Clover and Timothy land, in a district which can boast of a fine climate, good pure water, rich soil, fine meadows, and near to the markets of St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth and Superior should apply immediately by letter or in person to

WM. P. TROWBRIDGE,
Asst. Land Commissioner,
St. Paul & Duluth R. R.
Box U—603 Globe Bldg., St. Paul, Minn.

Whiskers Dyed
A Natural Black by
Buckingham's Dye.
Price 50 cents of all druggists or R. P. Hall & Co., Nashua, N. H.

CANDY CATHARTIC
Cascarets
REGULATE THE LIVER

INVENTORS
Send to-day for our handsomely engraved 25th anniversary work on patents. FREE.
MASON, FENWICK & LAWRENCE,
Patent Lawyers. Washington, D. C.

PENSION JOHN W. MORRIS, Washington, D. C.
Successfully Prosecutes Claims.
Late Principal Examiner U.S. Pension Bureau.
3 yrs in civil war, 15 adjudicating claims, atty since.

WANTED—Case of bad health that R-I-P-A-N-S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimonials.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water.

TO ——

'Twas at a ball. In vain I tried
To feel less like a social martyr,
When, lying on the floor, I spied
A thing of yellow silk—a——!

I put a dash there, for 'tis said
To write it plainly out amiss is;
Yet England's motto may be read
Upon just such a thing as this is.

I stooped, and hid it in my hand,
And wondered who might be the loser;
She could not ask me for the band!
How such a question would confuse her!

Returning with it to my place,
I wondered if my cheek were flushing;
In turn I scanned each lovely face,
Until I saw how you were blushing!

My own perception I had wronged,
To think that I would not have known her
To whom this dainty band belonged—
No one but you could be the owner.

So thus I send it back to you,
Around this bunch of blushing roses!
One found it whom you never knew;
Whose name no hint of mine discloses.

I would not have you guess 'twas I,
For that might put constraint upon you;
Perhaps you'll know me by and by;
Perhaps you'll love me! When I've won you.

I'll whisper that 'twas I who found
This clinging silken band of yellow.
We're strangers still! I will be bound,
You, and no other, have its fellow!

And now may my respect for you
Plead pardon for these rhyming fancies!
For never motto was more true
Than "Honi soit qui mal y pense" is.

OUR DISCOVERY.

I had just graduated as a student, from the Long Island Medical College, in Brooklyn, and as I needed some recreation after my long course of study in that institution, I determined to take a trip across the Western plains, my ultimate destination being San Francisco.

To my bosom friend Godfrey Dennin, a young lawyer, I described the prospective pleasures of such a trip, and he at length consented to become my traveling companion.

About three weeks later, after various unimportant experiences, Dennin and I found ourselves in a small town which I shall call Lathrop, about one hundred and thirty miles west of Denver.

We had just registered at the chief "hotel" of which the place boasted—a rude two-story frame structure, and were at once keenly eyed by the loungers and guests, who evidently considered us very stupid specimens of the "tenderfoot" variety.

The most important servant of the house was a stalwart, full-bearded man of thirty-five, whose garb denoted him to be a miner, and whom everybody addressed as "Ike."

He assisted the cook, acted as bell-boy, officiated as chambermaid, and sometimes showed his skill as bartender when Pete Burroughs, the landlord, withdrew for a little respite from his labors as a decoctor of delectable beverages.

It was Ike who first served us in that hotel, and the "whisky sour" he compounded for me seemed to run down to the pit of my stomach like a streak of lightning, leaving a trail of fire in its course.

I coughed and spluttered, while Dennin vigorously whacked me on the back, thinking I was choking.

I glared with a look of hatred at Ike as the author of my discomfiture; but he merely smiled, and winked merrily at me, as if he and I were partners in a good practical joke.

His repeated winking annoyed me; but it was not long until I learned that this habit was merely the manifestation of a nervous complaint which he could not control.

When he read my name on the register, and saw that it had "M. D." attached to it, he winked more vigorously than ever and frequently glanced at me with a very meaning look.

It was just dark when we signified our intention to visit the apartment assigned to us, and Ike was deputed to escort us thither.

Taking up a lighted tallow candle, which Pete had placed on the bar, Ike gave me a wink and started for a side door, with Dennin and myself at his heels.

Ascending a dark flight of stairs, he led us into a passage at the end of which was our room, a medium sized, carpetless apartment, containing two small cots, a couple of dilapidated chairs, a washstand and a little round table, upon which he placed the candle, saying to me in a low, mysterious tone, his impudent manner changed suddenly to one of a certain respect:

"We looked for you two days ago, doctor—you and your friend here—and had begun to get pretty skeery when we found you didn't show up. Everything's all right so far; there's no suspicion. You've got what you need in them things there"—pointing to our valises—"and you'll not set to work till the house's all quiet, for walls have ears. Pete'll close up to-night extra early on purpose to give you more time to do the job. You'll find it in there," he concluded, indicating with a jerk of his thumb a side door in the room, and at the same time backing suddenly to the entrance with an expression of fear in his ugly face, while his owlish eyes kept constantly winking.

Utterly amazed, I tried to speak, tried to find voice to ask him what he was driving at. Indeed, Dennin's tongue seemed tied, too, and the fellow had already backed out of the room, and shut the door quickly, and we heard him go bounding down the dark stairs as if a ghost was after him, before either of us could open our mouths to articulate a sound.

"Well," said I finally, turning to Dennin, who appeared to be coming out of a stupor, "what do you make out of this experience?"

"I make out of it," he replied, with an effort, "that we are in for some strange adventure. What did he mean by it? 'Setting to work'—'doing the job'—to say nothing of what else he said."

"Evidently we shall find that out by opening that side door which he indicated. And he called me doctor. All this looks like a real mystery, Dennin. Shall we follow it up?"

"I'm with you," said Dennin, starting toward the side door.

I caught him by the arm.

"Go slow, my boy. Remember his warning about the walls having ears and not going to work until the house was quiet. Let's wait and ask no questions lest we betray ourselves. The more I think of it the more I am convinced that he has in some unaccountable way mistaken us for other people. Who? What sort? Of course I cannot conjecture. But certain it is, we are not supposed to be here for any good purpose. Didn't you notice how frightened he looked when he spoke of it?"

"Yes," said Dennin, "and that leads me to believe we are on the point of making some important discovery—I cannot imagine what—but which will bring that villain, and perhaps the landlord himself into trouble."

Having delivered himself of this sage conclusion, Dennin washed himself and after I had done likewise we went below to see about supper, exerting ourselves to the utmost to appear as unconcerned as possible.

Ike was not visible, and the landlord, who was waiting on some new customers, directed us to the dining room slyly handing me, as he did so, something wrapped in paper, which like a key.

On sitting down to supper I opened the paper, and, sure enough, I found it contained a door key, while on the paper were scrawled several lines, which I made out to read as follows:

"This Key fits the Dore between the rooms—don't Kum to the Bar agin tl alte, and lok out for people in Room on t'other side of Partition—you will find Bags in Closet of Room."

"Aha!" said Dennin, when he had deciphered the scrawl in his turn, "the mystery deepens! What on earth are the bags for? Really, Joe, I'm beginning to think we'll get our fingers burnt if we attempt to handle this thing. Let's get out of this infernal hole before it is too late."

"What, you are not going to back out?" I said, my curiosity being so fully roused by the strange note, so I was determined to fathom the mystery.

"Not, if you are determined to stick to it, my old chum."

After supper we went directly to our room, taking with us a large lamp which had been lighted for our use.

It was then eleven o'clock.

Through the partition on the right, opposite the door opening into the other room, we heard voices, and listened. It was some miners, judging from their talk, discussing business matters. These were doubtless the people against whom the note had warned us. They did not separate till midnight, and I can assure the reader it was a long wait for us—for Dennin and me.

Soon after we heard them go out; the house became as still as death. Then, with a strange feeling creeping over me, I bade Dennin take up the lamp, and, going on tiptoe to the side door, I unlocked it, very carefully, so as not to make the slightest noise, and slowly opened it.

A damp, chilly air struck our faces, and the light flared up. The windows of the room were raised, but the shutters were closed tight.

We entered. There was no carpet on the floor, and no furniture save a long deal table in the middle of the room. To the right, in the farther corner, was a cot, with a blanket thrown over it; to the left a closet.

"Well," I was on the point of saying, "I see no mystery in this," when Dennin, who was between me and the farther corner, holding the lamp, started back, suddenly and clutched my arm.

"Heavens, Joe!" he said, in a hoarse whisper, "there's something covered up on the cot!"

The hand with which he held the lamp shook so that, fearing he would drop it, I took it from him, and, in breathless suspense, we went on tiptoe to the cot.

Yes; there was certainly something under the blanket. Something that looked like the top of a human head peeped out.

I pulled down the blanket a little, and a ghastly face, framed by long, brown hair, stared up at us with glassy eyes.

Horrified, I recoiled and set the lamp upon the table, while Dennin staggered back against the wall, murmuring:

"For God's sake, Joe, what does this mean?"

"It means," I replied, mastering my emotion, "it means that we stand face to face with the victim of a crime—a murdered woman. Choked to death!"

"Choked!" gasped Dennin. "How do you know that?"

"It is very evident," I made answer, approaching the cot again. "See for yourself," and I showed Dennin, at the throat, several dark marks, like the imprints of fingers. "There," I said, gravely, "are the irrefutable proofs. To the medical eye they are crying witnesses."

"Cover it up again, Joe. The sight is too horrible!" moaned Dennin. "We must not disturb it—it must be left as we found it," and seizing the blanket with a shudder he pulled it over the staring face.

"And now what's to be done?" he continued. "Our first step is undoubtedly to go and lodge a complaint against this Ike and Pete Burroughs, the landlords. We must do so at once."

"Not so fast, my boy. Do you imagine we would be allowed to leave this house by stealth at this hour? No, indeed, we are supposed to be——"

"What?" asked Dennin, impatiently, as I paused.

"Cutting the body up, of course, so that they can conveniently dispose of it—bury the pieces separately, no doubt. Isn't the matter clear to you now? The rascals, having foully murdered this poor woman here, have not dared to carry the body away as it is, and have not had the courage to cut it up. Some one, for a round sum of money, has agreed to furnish them a villainous doctor and an assistant, who would do the job for them. Don't you remember that Ike said to me, when he cautioned me in the other room, 'We looked for you two days ago, doctor?' And what he meant by 'You've got what you need in them things,' pointing to our valises, were the surgical instruments necessary for the operation."

I, opening a valise, took out two loaded revolvers, and going up to Dennin, said, in a whisper:

"Take this revolver and keep your wits about you. Certain it is that either Ike or the landlord will be here before daylight to see whether we have done the job. Whoever comes, we must be prepared for him. It's a matter of life or death with us."

Then, seating myself by the little table, I waited anxiously for the next act in the frightful drama.

It was drawing near to three in the morning when I heard soft footsteps, in the passage, approaching the door, and presently there came a light knock. I motioned to Dennin, and when I opened the door, in walked Ike and Pete, the landlords, but to find themselves confronted suddenly with two revolvers aimed straight at their breasts. At the same time I cried out:

"Hands up!"

"Don't shoot!" the two worthies stammered, simultaneously, throwing up their hands. "No harm was meant!"

"What! No harm, you villains! It was a cold-blooded murder!" I said, vehemently.

Ike burst out laughing, winking furiously, while from every part of the house seemed to come an explosion of shouts, and into the room rushed a score of miners.

"The fact is, pard," said Ike, suppressing his mirth, "we've been pretty hard on you and your friend. But that is the initiation we generally give to all new tenderfeet—a pretty good skeer, that's all. And really, in the fust place, it was intended for two tenderfoot friends of our'n we expected two days ago. But when they didn't come, and we seen youse comin' up the street, so innocent-like, we couldn't resist the temptation to play the joke off on you." And with several rapid winks, Ike walked to the door of the adjoining room, one of the miners following him with the lamp, and unlocking it with another key, threw it open, walked to the cot, and, amid a roar of laughter, jerked out from under the blanket, by the hair, the wax head of a woman.

RISE OF THE STEAMSHIP

Impossible to Guess What Speed May Not Be Reached Hereafter.

Twenty years ago it was thought by many that the limit as to size, speed and economy had been reached. At water at the harbors, and the cost, are the limits that will prevent further development on present lines. With different material for construction, with liquid fuel, and other improvements or inventions, it is possible that twenty years from now one may look back at the Lucania with her 21.6 knots as we now look back on the Germanic and Britannic of 1874 with their 16 knots.

Piston speed in 1838 was about 200 feet per minute, 400 feet in 1860, and to-day it is from 800 to 1,000 feet. On the Minneapolis, on her trial trip, the piston speed was about 920 feet. The steam pressure on ocean steamers up to 1850 did not exceed 20 pounds. With the earlier vessels, with only 5 to 10 pounds of steam, it was possible to stop a leak in a boiler "by pushing a rag in the hole." As late as 1848 a prominent firm of engine builders in England stated that from 10 to 12 pounds was what they used for merchant vessels, and they strongly recommended that for the navy the pressure should not be more than 10 pounds. By 1880 pressures had increased to from 60 to 90 pounds, and on the introduction of steel for boilers, pressures went up to about 100 pounds by 1885, and now boilers are being built, for large steamers, to carry 200 pounds. Special types of boilers for torpedo boats and other uses carry much higher pressure.

The Ericsson's machinery weighs only 56 pounds per horse power. This last is for torpedo boats and high pressure boats, and cannot yet be approached for large vessels. On the trial trip the Minneapolis developed 20,812 horse-power, and the total weight of all the machinery, with the water in the boilers, was 1981 tons, so that the weight of machinery for each horse-power was about 210 pounds. Had the Minneapolis machinery been of the same relative weight as that of the Powhatan it would have weighed over 8,400 tons, or 1,000 tons more than that of the Minneapolis herself weighed on her trial trip.—Chautauquan.

FANGS OF THE RATTLER

What an Anatomist Found in a Carefully Dissected Specimen.

The reptile was nearly four feet long, had thirteen rattles and when opened was found to have dined not long before on three young rabbits, which were lying snugly in its very long stomach, lengthwise, one after the other, as they were swallowed. The tail at the junction of the rattles is formed of a bundle of fibers much like those of a tarred rope, one-third of an inch in diameter, twisted in the same manner and crossed, so as to give a great force to the end of the tail, on which the loose rattles are arranged.

But the other end of the reptile is of the most interest, because the examination completely upsets all the popular notions so far held about the fangs. There were four of these on each jaw. One was over half an inch in length. This is the needle, but not the conveyor of the poison. This is a triple fang, or three separate fangs, very loosely attached to the moving muscles, so that they are very easily drawn out, and they are almost invisible on account of their clear, translucent color, so that they might easily escape notice in a wound made by the real fang. These poison fangs are hollow and are directly attached to the sac in which the poison is contained.

The tongue is a thin, slender fiber attached by slender muscles—not forked, as popularly supposed, but appearing to be so by its rapid vibration when the reptile is disturbed and shows its hostility to the intruder by giving some of its very sharp tongue. It is very clear under these circumstances that the most apparent fang is the puncturing instrument, and when it has done its work, the deadly true fangs, which are tubular, enter the wound and discharge their loads of poison. These are plainly seen to be tubes, and are made exactly like the horns of a cow. Under the microscope the substance of them looks like pearl, and has a delicate polish and finish. No surgical instrument is made so delicately.

SAVED HIS BURNING SHIP.

An American Captain's Novel Plan for Saving Vessel and Cargo.

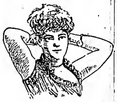
One of the most brilliant pieces of ocean-wrecking seamanship on record, whereby the vessel, far out on the Atlantic with her cargo on fire, was saved and brought safely to port, was performed on board the American ship John Jay, commanded by Capt. Samuel Jackson, says Harper's Young People. When two weeks out the cargo was discovered to be on fire. The captain determined upon his course of action. He had the carpenter lowered over the rail and instructed him to bore several holes low down by the water line. The vessel was then put on the other tack so that she would be heeled over on the side where the holes had been made. The water shot through these openings, and after the vessel had been allowed to sink almost to the level of the deck she was put around on the other tack again, so that the holes came within two or three feet of the top of the water. Several of the sailors, with lines made fast under their arms and holding long wooden pegs and hammers, slid down along the side, steadying themselves by ropes that had been passed under the vessel and hauled taut, so that they came alongside of the holes. The tapering pins were thrust into the openings and knocked tight, then the vessel was put before the wind to get on an even keel, and the crew turned to and pumped her out.

HAVE PERFECT ARMS.

THE AMERICAN WOMEN FAR IN THE LEAD.

Miss Matson, of Brooklyn, Chosen by Parisian Artists for a High Honor, Discusses the Good and Bad Points of Feminine Shape—Defects of Foreigners.

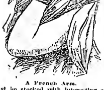
The athletic American girl has superseded in interest the athletic American young man, and anything concerning her, when delicately discussed, is certain to be of interest and it is likely to be productive of good results. The physique of the girl should no more be neglected or ignored than the physique of the college graduate, and, happily, the tendency of the present is to regard this culture with a more sensible and a more rational concern than heretofore. The American girl at this moment is a grander type of nature in her carriage, her health, her self-reliance, her ability, her physique, than is the girl of any other nation on earth. And this condition is gaining recognition more and more every day. Our papers and our magazines are showing us in almost every issue the distinctive feature and characteristics of the real American woman, while she herself in flesh and blood is forcing the same truth upon our cousins across the sea. It is, therefore, not unlikely to hear the testimony of one American woman who has had the pleasure of a foreign recognition as a perfect type of womanhood and who rejoices in the distinction because it has demonstrated in a country where much stress has always been laid upon physical culture that an ordinary American girl in the normal condition of American girls generally is far beyond those who have been trained on foreign soil to reach a perfect physique. The American woman referred to is Miss Grace Matson of Brooklyn. An art club at the French capital selected Miss Matson as an example of perfect shapeliness and extended her an invitation to sit for them for their next picture at the salon.



American Arms.

Miss Matson on the Arm.

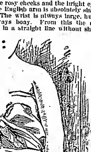
A reporter for the New York Press called upon Miss Matson the other day and asked for her views upon the subject of arms, concerning which she must be stocked with interesting and unusual information.



A French Arm.

"I certainly think," said Miss Matson, "that the arm is one of the most beautiful attributes of womankind, and as fashion and polite, refined society has decreed that it may be displayed without forfeiting the modesty woman should never permit to grow dulled, I think it is a subject that may be approached with the same freedom as a discussion on eyes or hair. I want to begin by saying that the American woman has the most beautiful of all arms, and I will try to point out to you why this is. The American arm is small at the wrist and tapers gradually to the shoulder; it is usually white and almost invariably the flesh is soft and fine. The wrist of the Irish girl, regardless of her station in life, whether it be the highest or lowest, is always too large to be artistic or even to be pretty. It is also too long and extends too far up the arm itself. I have never seen an Irish arm that has been free from this defect, nor have I ever seen an Irish arm, although in a woman in whom the Irish blood has been strained through several generations of marriage with other nationalities, that had rid itself of this peculiarity. It is exactly as distinctive of the race as are the rosy cheeks and the bright eyes.

"The English arm is absolutely shapeless. The wrist is always large, but it is always bony. From this the arm grows in a straight line without showing any curves until more than half way up to the elbow, when there suddenly appears a bunch of fat that is confined to the one spot and does not last until the elbow is reached. It disappears as suddenly as it appears, and we find another stretch of straight flesh to the shoulder. It is no unusual sight to see an English woman's arm smaller in diameter and circumference between the elbow and the shoulder than is the elbow itself. The effect of this, as may be imagined, is to make the arm unsightly and awkward and give the idea of undue length which does not always exist.



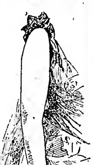
German Arm.

Proper Artistic Proportions.

"A truly artistic arm should not be the same measurement in inches at any two spots along its entire length; it should be a constantly changing curve from elbow to the body, and from the elbow to the wrist the line of beauty should be more pronounced and the swell of the flesh greater. If any muscles show themselves they, of course, destroy the beauty at once and entirely. Muscles are pleasant to look at when in their proper place, but they do not belong on a female arm. They indicate power, which, while a woman may possess it, she should never permit it to become apparent. A shapely shoulder is where it slopes quickly from the throat to the arm, not the slope that is called coffin shape, but the happy medium between that and the squareness of the man. The English shoulder is not objectionably square, but it is terribly sparse of flesh; the small bones of the throat and the larger bones of the shoulder blade are so glaringly in evidence as to rob the display of attraction.

The shoulder of the French woman is a trifle too square, and that of the German just a little too stocky. The superiority of the American in this respect can be studied by any one in the theatrical companies that come to this country from abroad.

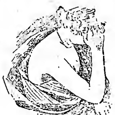
"Personally I have never taken any physical training and never in any way tried to improve the shape I came naturally by from generous nature. It may be that had I done differently and gone to the gymnasium, I might have created a figure for myself that would have been as perfect throughout as are my limbs, but it is too late to try it now, and I doubt whether training will make any improvement in the actual shape itself. It doubtless will strengthen and solidify the flesh, but my impression is that a woman is born with a good or a bad form, as the case may be, and an effort to improve it is apt to prove futile.



An Irish Arm.

Miss Matson's Own Arm.

"A small wrist and a large arm do not necessarily suggest perfection, for it may be that the wrist will be too small for the balance of the arm, and thus appear altogether inadequate to sustain the strain that comes on it. An appearance of weakness is as bad as an appearance of grossness, so far as the artistic result is concerned. Such an arm might be compared to the delicate furniture popular to some extent where the supports of the chairs and sofas are too frail to hold the weight they will be subjected to. My own wrist is six inches in circumference, my forearm, just below the elbow, ten inches, and the arm just above the elbow is thirteen inches. This, I have been told, is the correct proportion. I wear a No. 5 glove and a No. 3 shoe.



An English Arm.

"The European woman wears a much larger glove than we do, and even the children have hands large enough to belong to our men here. In London a year ago I went out to buy a pair of shoes, and tried to find a pair ready made that would fit me. After traveling about through all the stores of Regent street, and finally of Oxford street, I was compelled to order a pair made, because I could find nothing smaller than No. 3. I wanted the shoes rather high, and after the shoe dealer had measured me and promised the shoes for a certain date I was satisfied.

"Two days later, and when I should have had the shoes, in fact, the shoemaker called upon me and said that he came to take my measure over again, as the manufacturer declined to accept the measure already made for the reason that he did not believe any full-grown woman had a foot that would go into a No. 3 shoe and at the same time required so large a top to the shoe as the measurements indicated that I did. This episode is the best illustration I can give of the prevailing shapes. That shoemaker was accustomed to large feet and small limbs, rather than small, comparatively, feet and large limbs.

"The result of my observations during several years residence abroad is that American women are the most beautifully formed of all the women who populate this globe."

Showing His Wisdom.

Housekeeper—I wish to get some borax.

New Boy—Powdered?

"I hardly know. I saw in the paper that roaches could be killed with borax."

"Guess you'd better take the other kind, ma'am. It's most as hard as rocks. Have you a little boy?"

"Y-e-s."

"Well, if I were you, I'd let him do the throwing."—Good News.

Are You Ever Depressed?

And is it not due to nervous exhaustion? Things always look so much brighter when we are in good health. How can you have courage when suffering with headache, nervous prostration and great physical weakness?

Would you not like to be rid of this depression of spirits?

How? By removing the cause. By taking

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

It gives activity to all parts that carry away useless and poisonous materials from your body. It removes the cause of your suffering, because it removes all impurities from your blood. Send for our book on Nervousness.

To keep in good health you must have perfect action of the bowels. Ayer's Pills cure constipation and biliousness.

Write to our Doctors.

Perhaps you would like to consult some eminent physicians about your condition. Then write us freely all the particulars in your case. You will receive a prompt reply without cost.
Address, DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

Diplomacy in the Home

Jepson—How did your wife fancy your new suit?

Harveys—She disliked it so much that I had to tell her I got it at a bargain sale.—Brooklyn Life.

PATENTS.

List of Patents Issued Last Week to Northwestern Inventors.

Walter C. Cunningham, St. Paul, Minn., tobacco pipe; Edward Greven, Bagley, Minn., straw stacker; Robert Hearns, St. Paul, Minn., detachable car fender; Peter D. Lannes, Wahpeton, N. D., windmill; Oscar E. Newquist, Carlton, Minn., fence post; Adam Reis, Georgetown, Minn., weed seed destroyer; August Schacht, Hector, Minn., vehicle wheel; Eugene Sturgis, Sioux Falls, S. D., mold for composition rollers; Warren S. Wilde, Seaville, N. D., body for buggies or carriages.

Merwin, Lothrop & Johnson, Patent Attorneys, 910 Pioneer Press Bldg., St. Paul.

After a whole day down town, it's no wonder if a woman looks somewhat shopworn.

Are You Using Allen's Foot-Ease?

It is the only cure for Swollen, Smarting, Burning, Sweating Feet, Corns and Bunions. Ask for Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder to be shaken into the shoes. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

In order to mount the ladder of fame an orator must win round after round of applause.

Perfect System Cleaners.

Keep clean inside as well as outside and you'll be nearer godliness. Cascarets Candy Cathartic cleanse and purify your body inside. All druggists 10c, 25c, 50c.

A man ought not to take his watch out anywhere until he is sure its face and hands are clean.

FITS Permanently Cured. No fits or nervousness after first day's use of Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. Send for FREE $2.00 trial bottle and treatise. Dr. R. H. Kline, Ltd., 931 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Horse races are run as a matter of course.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N. Y.
For sale by all Druggists.—Price 50c. per bottle.

N W N U —No. 20.— 1899.

PISO'S CURE FOR
CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS.
Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists.
CONSUMPTION

Minnesota Historical Society

ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR.

VOLUME XVIII. ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY JULY 26, 1899. NUMBER 52

EXPANSION TALK

HOW IT STRIKES THE BOYS—NELSON AND THE TRUSTS.

How the Senator Weakened at a Critical Time—Vale, Alger!—General Pope, Who Works; the Press, Which Talks. The Lumber Trust "Prosperity"—The Coming Harmonious Democratic Convention.

Reform Press Bureau.
St. Paul, July 24, 1899.

The facts are slowly coming to the surface. In spite of censorship, in spite of concerted misrepresentation here at home, in spite of studied deceit on the part of those in authority, the truth as to the Philippine trouble and the wishes of the volunteers is becoming known. The newspaper correspondents at Manila shocked the expansionists with their plain, blunt statements as to Otis and the failure of his campaign. Now comes one prominent authority after another denouncing as false the statements so oft reiterated, by the president as well as by his followers, that the volunteers were willing to remain in the Philippines and fight the liberty-loving natives as long as the government deemed their services necessary. Captain Auldid of the North Dakota regiment is especially emphatic. He says that when the president told Senator Pettigrew that the volunteers did not want to come home, the president was telling a fairy tale; that if the volunteers don't want to come home he never saw anyone who did.

Nicholas Hanson, one of our own boys—a wounded member of the honored Thirteenth—is another witness. Writing to F. H. Russell of Eyota, under date of June 3, he thus describes the wishes of the boys, and somewhat earnestly pays his respects to those who ridicule the efforts made to have the men brought home:

"I hardly need tell you that the entire volunteer army is cheering over the prospect of a speedy return. Some of the expansion papers have intimated that the volunteers might like to stay until the fighting should cease. How those fellows prate about fighting when they are at a distance of 10,000 miles from the scene of the conflict! I sometimes wish that these intensely belligerent newspaper men would be organized into a brigade and sent over here to do the fighting. They talk about 'our soldierly honor' as if they ever had any; about 'quitting under fire,' as if they had ever been under fire; about 'shedding glory upon American arms'—all of which big sounding phrases they are willing to support most zealously by the artillery of their own mouths, but not by one drop of their own blood.

"The letter of Governor Lee of South Dakota to the president represents the sentiments of the volunteers pretty well. They feel that the purpose they enlisted for has been attained, and that if the United States decides upon an aggressive policy regulars should be secured as soon as practicable to support that policy. If we were still fighting Spain nothing would be said. As it is now, I doubt if enough men to form a single battalion can be induced to re-enlist and remain here."

Now what will the expansionist press have to say to this. Heretofore the "copperheads" have been confined, apparently, to those at home, but now we have the Funstons, the Auldids and even the crack Thirteenth marching right into the column of "imperialistic traitors."

During the extra session of the senate in 1898, the junior member from Minnesota, Mr. Nelson, offered an amendment to the tariff bill providing that all articles, the manufacture and sale of which should become subject to the control of a trust, be admitted "duty free." Such a clause would unquestionably be the means of destroying the trusts, and when the senator introduced it he was no doubt actuated by the same independence that led to his vote for the Mills bill when a member of the house some years before. But, alas, for the courage of would-be statesman! At the critical moment, when strict and manly adherence to his own resolution would have made him the idol of his constituents today, he weakened. Whipped into line by the strong arm of the trusts and their pliant tools, the republican leaders of the senate, he not only withdrew his amendment, but actually voted against a similar one—the resolution of Senator Pettigrew of Dakota. He did more. He apologized for his undue haste in tackling this giant evil and even went so far as to deliver a speech, denouncing as dangerous that which today is universally admitted by leading Republican journals as well as by Democrats, as the people's only protection for the growing power of combinations. The opportunity was his to show his loyalty to the people's cause, but instead of availing himself of it he lined up on the other side; chose the side of the strong against the weak, of the wealthy few against the struggling many. Had he it to do over, it is safe to say he would gladly recall his former action, now that the people are aroused, but the record is made up and by that he must be judged.

Vale, Alger! The imperialistic press and the scared disciples of Hanna have yielded to the voice of the people, apparently, by making their scapegoat of Alger and forcing his resignation.

This is mere palliation. The people demanded a cure. They wanted the scandal-cancer that is eating away the heart of national honor removed by the roots. Surface applications may deceive the eye, but the voter-surgeon, who is just now making a most careful diagnosis, will skillfully remove the tentacled monster, and to cure will bandage the necessary incisions with spotless '76-spun, well-medicated linen of the weave "Constitution."

Talk about calamity howlers! Just hearken to the jingo daily press wail because Minnesota has a "bank examiner who examines." General Pope should take into consideration the feelings of the men who are the power behind the press and otherwise behind "prosperity" which smiles so complacently above the closed and curtained doors of looted banks. General Pope should move more deliberately; in other words, should wait until a few favored depositors assist the managers in making away with the strong (?) box before letting the public into the "private" affairs of these gentlemen, and allowing said public to draw unto itself the small fraction of its deposits still "touchable." The bank examiner is a puzzle to "these gentlemen." He goes right ahead with his work and pauses not to assure the astute newspaper man that he "will explain" things. It must be that he intends to allow his actions to explain themselves before the just tribunal of public judgment.

The next national convention of the reformed Democracy will be a glorious ratification of the one held in Chicago three years ago—a sort of anniversary celebration of the greatest day in the history of the party, a day when old leaders and bosses were dethroned and the people themselves, the rank and file of the party, asserted their rights. It was not so much the triumph of silver that made that convention memorable; it was rather the triumph of the people over the elements which had dictated platforms and dominated conventions in the past. Silver happened to be the question uppermost in the popular mind. Next year the money problem may again be the chief point of contention and it may not. Trusts, expansion or the anti-American tendencies of the present Republican administration—any one or all of these may take its place. But whatever the issue, whether it is silver or not, the politicians of the Republican persuasion may rest assured that it will involve questions in which the people are most deeply interested and upon which they will be prepared to take as determined and aggressive a stand as they did for silver in 1896. Furthermore, the issue will be made up, not be a clique of individuals, but by the great masses of the party, earnest in their convictions and loyal to the fundamental principles of a true Democracy.

The Minneapolis Journal recently remarked that the continual increase in the price of lumber was "causing some uneasiness." We met one one of the largest lumbermen of the Flour City the other morning and asked him how business was. "Booming, simply booming," was the reply, and the millionaire dealer in pine gleefully rubbed the palms of a man who seemed to be enjoying the situation immensely. And well he might. At a meeting of lumbermen held only a few minutes before it had been decided that Sept. 1 must mark an additional boost in the price of $1, and as the combine has already succeeded in bringing about an arbitrary advance of $2, the lumberman in question had every reason to feel a trifle elated. Add to this $3 raise, brought about solely by combination, the $2 provided for by the tariff and we have an artificial arbitrary boost of $5, or more than it actually costs to buy the logs and manufacture them into the finished lumber. In other words, the people simply make the lumbermen a present of all the stock they have on hand, and as a result of their folly go without houses and buildings themselves.

The Republican editors who are filling their papers week after week with groundless abuse of Governor Lind, would do well to take heed of the humiliating experience of Senator Miller. The senator, before making his charges of dishonesty, undoubtedly reasoned, as do all others who take so easily to slander, that high public officials, as a rule, find neither the time nor the inclination to take notice of newspaper criticism, that the chief executive of a state could hardly afford to enter into a controversy with the editor of a little country newspaper, and that charges of corruption could therefore be made with little danger of having their character questioned or their author held to a strict accounting for the falsity of his assertions. But for once the editorial-senator was mistaken in his man. John Lind has behind him a record for honesty in private and public life, capable of withstanding the closest investigation, and it is not in the character of the man to have that record besmirched at will by every narrow minded politician who thinks he sees in abuse and vilification a chance for partisan advantage. Some men there are who hold their public acts as sacred as their private deeds, and to the people of the state it will be a source of great satisfaction to know that their present chief executive is one of them.

J. Adam Bede has declared himself in the Sixth district. Bede is a very able man and in some respects perfectly competent to hold down a seat in congress, but sore disappointment is in store for his ambitions. In the end he will find how doubly ungrateful are those with whom he so recently cast his political lot. The Republicans have been willing to use him, just as they were willing to use the gold Democrats throughout the Union in order to accomplish the election of McKinley, but they stand ready to drop Bede and all the rest without a pang as soon as their party needs are over. Scarcely anywhere in the country has one of this stripe of Democrats been recognized or rewarded, and it is hardly to be expected that Bede will prove an exception.

Commendation of the selections made by Governor Lind for members of the board of grain appeals is universal. The list includes some of the best equipped and most conscientious grain men in the state.

G. S. C.

ALGER STEPS OUT

SECRETARY OF WAR HANDS IN HIS RESIGNATION.

Will Go Into Effect Aug. 1, Though It Was Tendered "at the Pleasure of the President"—Though Not Unexpected, the Resignation Came In the Nature of a Surprise—Neither Mr. Alger Nor the President Would Make Any Comment—Speculative Comment as to His Successor.

Washington, July 24.—Secretary Alger yesterday tendered to the president his resignation of the war portfolio. The resignation will become effective Aug. 1, though it was tendered "at the pleasure of the president."

Gossip has begun already as to his successor, but is entirely speculative, for, notwithstanding the reports that Mr. Alger would not long continue at the head of the war department, his actual resignation came suddenly and unexpectedly. That it would come by the end of the year was generally believed, but so little was it expected at this time that some of the cabinet officers, when the news first became public, were inclined to regard the announcement as premature, the announcement that it was actually in hand coming to them in the nature of a surprise. Formal acceptance of the resignation had not been made by the president up to a late hour last night, but will be in a letter to be written in a day or two. No official statement as to the cause of the resignation was procurable either from the president nor from Secretary Alger, neither of whom would talk on the subject. Nor was the letter of resignation obtainable at this time. For the present nothing will be made known officially concerning the severance of the official relations between the president and his war minister, but later on the official correspondence closing the latter's career as chief of the war department doubtlessly will be given to the press. The belief has prevailed in Washington for some time that Secretary Alger would resign from the cabinet, but the date generally set for it was toward the end of the year, after he had submitted his annual report in which he intended to sum up what had been accomplished during his brief but eventful direction of the war department. Its tender then had been regarded as almost in view of Mr. Alger's announcement about a month ago that he had concluded to enter into competition for the vacancy in the United States senate to be caused by the expiration of the term of Senator McMillan, a strong supporter of the administration, and that he had enlisted in his active support Gov. Pingree, who had repeatedly made free criticisms of what was supposed to be cherished by the president toward the Filipinos. There have been many explanations and denials of the facts in that case, but in the end the impression was conveyed that the result of the Michigan visit of the secretary had been to change the relations between the president and himself to such a degree as to make a restoration of their former status impossible and to render the connection of the two as part of the same official family undesirable. At one time since then there was ground for the belief that a rupture might be avoided, but this belief ceased to be held when the news spread that Vice President Hobart and Secretary Alger were in conference at Normanhurst. It was largely at least as a result of this conference that Secretary Alger decided to leave the cabinet at this time. There has been no disclosure of what passed by the seaside, but it is significant that the return of the secretary to Washington was followed by prompt action. He arrived in Washington Tuesday night too late to make any official calls. Almost before the executive departments were opened for business yesterday morning he called at the White House, and, visiting the president in his office, announced that he had concluded to resign his office. What passed on that point between himself and the president is only a matter of surmise, for neither have anything to say on this point.

A Foregone Conclusion

Who Will Succeed Him?

Among the names which have been mentioned from time to time in the discussion when talk of Secretary Alger's forthcoming resignation has been rife have been those of Gen. Horace Porter of New York, now ambassador to France; Gov. Roosevelt of New York; Gen. Harrison Gray Otis, and Assistant Secretary Meiklejohn. The name of Gen. Corbin has been mentioned in connection with an ad interim appointment pending the selection of a permanent occupant of the office. As to the report that Gen. Corbin would be secretary ad interim, an officer close to the general said there was no basis for the report; that the president had never contemplated naming Gen. Corbin ad interim, and that if such an appointment were tendered it would not be accepted. There was some talk also that Gen. Corbin might be given the portfolio permanently, although this was regarded as improbable even among Gen. Corbin's friends.

Gored to Death.

Wausaukee, Wis., July 24.—Ike Wassen, a farm hand employed on Holmes' farm, was gored to death by a mad bull. His head was nearly severed from his body and otherwise badly mutilated.

Bicycle Record Smashed.

Washington, July 24.—Harry Elkes of Glen Falls, N. Y., the middle distance champion bicycle rider of America, covered a mile in 1:31 flat, thus lowering the record for that distance held by Eddie McDuffie of Boston.

News of a Rich Strike.

Seattle, Wash., July 24.—The steamer Dirgo has arrived from Skaguay with news of a rich strike on Big Salmon river. The Dirgo had a number of passengers from Dawson who brought $250,000 in gold dust.

PRIEST CAUSES TROUBLE.

Recent Actions Increase the Feeling Between Filipinos and Church.

Manila, July 24.—A Filipino priest named Gregorio Agripay, with the insurgents, is trying to lead a movement for the independence of the church in the Philippines from the Spanish priesthood. He has issued a proclamation declaring himself vicar general of all the Filipino priests in all the districts outside of American control on the island of Luzon, and inciting the priests to disobey the regulations of the church and brotherhoods. The archbishop of the district has issued a bull excommunicating Agripay, and this action has increased the feeling between the Filipinos and the church.

The archbishop threatened to excommunicate the owners of Spanish papers publishing announcements of Protestant and Masonic meetings, whereupon an American paper warned him that he might be bundled out of the island like any disturber of the peace if he should incite religious animosity.

The Dominican friars have begun the publication of a newspaper under the title of The Libertas for the purpose of defending the brotherhood.

The United States transport Zealandia, which sailed from San Francisco June 24 with four companies of the Twenty-fourth United States infantry, 150 recruits and a large amount of provisions and supplies for the navy on board, has arrived here.

GREATER THAN REPORTED.

Victory Over the Robber Bands in Negros.

Washington, July 24.—The war department yesterday received from Gen. Otis another dispatch giving additional particulars of the fight between Capt. B. A. Byrne, with seventy men of the Sixth infantry, and robber bands in the island of Negros. It shows that the victory of the soldiers was greater than that reported in Gen. Otis' dispatch of July 21, and that the loss suffered by the robbers was considerably larger than before stated. Much satisfaction is felt by Gen. Otis over the results of this preliminary effort in dealing with this disturbing element in the island, and he reports it as having already had a salutary effect on other bands infecting the locality.

ARBITRATION OR WAR.

Strong Talk on the Alaskan Boundary Dispute in the Canadian Parliament.

Toronto, Ont., July 24.—A special from Ottawa says: A violent criticism of the American position concerning the Alaskan boundary question by Sir Charles Tupper at Saturday's sitting of the house brought forth a statement from Sir Wilfred Laurier. "It is clear that," said he, "there are only two ways by which the difficulty may now be settled, arbitration or war. I have no hope at this moment that we can settle the question by compromise. No one wants a war. We must exhaust every means of removing the difficulty by peaceful methods. I have not given up hope that it is possible to agree to arbitration. Negotiations are still going on. We must find some means of bringing about a peaceful settlement."

WAR OVER RIGHT OF WAY.

Fight Between the M. & St. L. and the Milwaukee Assumes a Serious Phase.

Storm Lake, Iowa, July 24.—Startling developments are highly probable in the big railway fight between the Minneapolis & St. Louis and the Milwaukee here, where the Milwaukee is now in forcible possession of the right of way of the Minneapolis & St. Louis across which it has laid its tracks in the face of an injunction. All day the sheriff of Buena Vista county, with a posse, remained in possession of the tracks, not permitting interference from either force. The Milwaukee men have been reinforced and each side is watching the other. An attempt is to be made to-day to arrest the Milwaukee workmen for contempt of court. They say they will resist, and serious trouble is feared.

CUBAN AFFAIRS.

Gen. Garcia Calls on the President to Urge Self-Government.

Washington, July 24.—Gen. Carlos Garcia, a son of Gen. Calixto Garcia, saw the president for a few minutes by appointment. Gen. Garcia represents the Cuban Republican league, and his mission to Washington is to explain to the president the aspirations and purposes of the league. The league desires the complete political independence of the island at the earliest possible moment. Its aim, however, at present, is to secure authority for holding conventions and elections for municipal officers and by demonstrating their capacity for holding elections and for local self-government by preparing the way for complete control of the island. They desire the authority for the municipal elections early this fall.

NEGROES LYNCHED.

Summary Justice Dealt Out to Rape Fiends.

Bainbridge, Ga., July 24.—A negro captured near Iron City was brought to Saffold and identified as one of the assailants of Mrs. Ogletree last Thursday night. He was lynched at daybreak near Saffold. Two other dead negroes were found alongside the railway track two miles west of Bainbridge.

The names of none of the negroes are known. It is believed by some that the dead negroes discovered by the railway track were the men arrested at Troy, Ala., on suspicion of being implicated in the Ogletree outrage, and who were being brought to Saffold for identification.

Drill on the Olympia.

Trieste, July 24.—Admiral Dewey, accompanied by Flag Lieut. Brumby, took Addison O. Harris, U. S. minister to Austria, and his staff in a steam launch to the Chateau Miramar. In the evening a drill was given on board the Olympia in honor of Mr. Harris.

Milwaukee Wants Diaz.

Milwaukee, July 24.—The mayor and common council will extend an invitation to President Diaz of Mexico to visit this city in the fall at the time President McKinley expects to be here.

RIOTING STRIKERS

SERIOUS OUTBREAKS OF VIOLENCE AT CLEVELAND.

Car Loaded With Passengers Is Wrecked by an Explosion of Nitro Glycerine and Four Persons Badly Injured—Sticks and Stones Are Freely Used by Strikers Who in Large Mobs Attack Cars in Various Parts of the City—Police Have Their Hands Full—Many Arrests Are Made.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 24.—The rioting which continued throughout Saturday night was renewed yesterday and there were several serious outbreaks of violence, but no clashes between the mobs and the troops. Cars were started running as usual in the morning on all but one or two lines. The mobs were astir early. Soon after 10 o'clock a thousand or more persons gathered on Burton street on the South side and proceeded to obstruct the track. When a car came along with two policemen on board it was attacked with a shower of stones. In spite of the policemen the non-union motorman and conductor were roughly handled. One of them, named McDermott, had two ribs broken and the other was badly bruised. One of the policemen fired at the mob, the bullet striking a man named Wennick. The mob assaulted the officers, both of whom were struck repeatedly with stones, and but for the intervention of a priest of the Catholic church near at hand the officers might have been lynched. By this time the cars had been mixed up in the melee and a patrol wagon load of police arriving, the rioters dispersed and the cars were taken back to the barns. There was a serious disturbance on the Broadway line at the corner of Petrie street, where a mob of 3,000 assembled in the forenoon and obstructed the track. Finally a car came along from the Wilson avenue barn, having on board Sergt. Burrows and a private of militia and Detective Kelso. The officer ordered the men to disperse when the motorman attempted to remove the obstruction from the track, but the rioters showed fight. Then Sergt. Burrows and the one soldier, with fixed bayonets, faced the mob and attempted to clear the way. There was a sharp fight for a few minutes, during which a perfect shower of stones fell about the detective and soldiers, smashing the car windows. No one was seriously hurt, and after arresting two of the rioters and placing them on the car it was returned to the barn. The police afterwad charged the mob, making several arrests.

In the afternoon a mob of 1,000 conceived the idea of blocking the track on Exchange street by placing a big boulder in the middle of the street and building a fire around it. The plan worked successfully and cars were delayed for nearly an hour when the police drove the mob away, put out the fire and gave the street railway men a chance to move the stone. Three men were sent to the hospital with wounds made by policemen's clubs at the end of this riot. As the result of the shooting of a driver of a grocery delivery wagon in South Brooklyn by a non-union conductor the mayor of that place issued an order to the marshal to arrest all non-union men who carried weapons. Cars were stopped and each conductor found with a revolver was arrested. They were subsequently bailed out by the company. A small riot was started at the corner of Pearl street and Franklin avenue, when a young woman who struck a man who asked her to board a non-union conductor. A crowd of strike sympathizers stoned the cars and a squad of police finally cleared the street. The company sent a note to the state board of arbitration declining to arbitrate the differences. A Euclid avenue car loaded with passengers was wrecked by an explosion of nitro-glycerine or gun-cotton shortly before 11 o'clock last night. Four persons were badly hurt. The explosion tore out the front end of the car, smashed all the windows and destroyed the brake. After considerable difficulty the car was stopped and a call for ambulances was sent out. The motorman, William Draggers, who came from Cincinnati, was dazed by the shock, but the conductor, Frank Schroeder of St. Louis, escaped injury. The force of the explosion was so great that it shook all the houses in the neighborhood and was heard for a distance of two or three miles.

Want More Money.

Boston, July 24.—The men employed in the Boston freight sheds of the Boston, New Haven & Hartford met and decided to ask for an increase in wages and presented the petition to General Manager Chamberlain. The six hundred men employed in the sheds, while making no threat to strike, instructed the committee appointed to wait upon Mr. Chamberlain to press for a definite answer within a reasonable time. The men at the New York terminals struck last week.

Brought Gold From Alaska.

Vancouver, B. C., July 24.—The steamer Rosalie arrived from Skaguay with 200 passengers and $110,000 in gold dust aboard. William Braid, a local merchant, brought $50,000, and Seattle men owned the remainder of the gold. Braid, who is conversant with government affairs, said that nearly $1,000,000 had been collected in royalties, and he placed the total output of the country at $20,000,000. El Dorado, Dominion and Bonanza Creek were supplying nearly all of the gold.

To Invite Diaz to Chicago.

Chicago, July 24.—President Diaz of Mexico and his cabinet will be formally invited to attend the ceremonies of the laying of the corner stone of the new federal building in Chicago on Oct. 9 by a committee who leave Aug. 5 for Mexico City.

Reception to Alger.

Detroit, July 24.—At a largely attended non-partisan meeting of leading citizens, held in the mayor's office a reception was planned in honor of Gen. Alger's return home.

BIG STRIKE THREATENED.

Clothing Workers Want an Increase in Wages.

New York, July 24.—About 2,500 clothing workers in three branches of that industry struck yesterday and a member of Tailors' Progressive Union No. 11 said that 14,000 would be out within twenty-four hours. Twenty-five thousand may be on strike within two weeks.

One thousand members of Tailors' Progressive Union No. 11, in sixty-two shops, struck for 25 per cent increase in wages. They have been earning $8 a week and they want $10. Six hundred coat pressers went on strike in the afternoon. Seven hundred more will go on strike to-day. They have been getting 7 cents a piece on coats and want 2 cents more. The pressers press on an average twenty coats a day. Eight hundred basters held a meeting yesterday and about three hundred men went out on strike. The basters have been working fourteen and sixteen hours a day. They want the workday shortened to ten hours. Twelve thousand men connected with the United Brotherhood of Cloakmakers will hold five hundred shop meetings within the next two weeks for the purpose of formulating new wage lists. It is believed that it will be necessar yto order strikes to enforce the new schedule.

GOV. TANNER IN TROUBLE.

He Violates the Game Laws of Colorado.

Debeque, Colo., July 24.—Gov. Tanner of Illinois is safely out of the state despite efforts on the part of game wardens to detain him for violation of the game law in killing out of season one four-pronged buck. Not satisfied with the pelt of a mountain lion for his parlor, the executive official slew a young deer and the incident promises to make trouble between Colorado and Illinois.

The open season begins Aug. 15, and one caught with deer in his possession before that time may be committed to jail for a period of from ten days to six months, or may be made to pay a fine of from $10 to $300, or both.

There was no concealment in Gov. Tanner's offense, and the news was promptly wired to the chief game warden at Denver, with a request for instructions. The local wardens did not care to arrest a visiting governor, and therefore took no action on the premises. It is said that Gov. Tanner will return this way from California, for which state he boarded a train at Glenwood Springs, and that on crossing the Utah line coming east he will be served with a summons to appear before Justice Hedden at Glenwood Springs.

ELIHU ROOT ACCEPTS OFFICE.

He Succeeds Gen. Alger as Secretary of War.

Washington, July 24.—Elihu Root of New York accepted the war portfolio in President McKinley's cabinet. The tender of the war portfolio was made to Mr. Root Saturday night after the conference at the White House.

The announcement of Mr. Root's appointment was made at the war department. It was stated that Senator Platt came to Washington armed with authority from Mr. Root to accept it in his name. It is not expected that the acceptance will make any change in the plans of Secretary Alger, and he will remain on duty here until the end of the present month, being assisted by Mr. Meiklejohn. Secretary Alger had confidently expected the appointment of Mr. Root and was very much pleased at the president's choice.

Mr. Root has telegraphed the president that he will be here to-day. Mr. Root desires to have a conference with the president respecting the duties of his new office before the former leaves for Lake Champlain.

STRIKE PRACTICALLY ENDED.

Cars in Greater New York Are Running Without Interruption.

New York, July 24.—The trolley car strikes both in Manhattan and Brooklyn seem to be practically at an end. General Master Workman Parsons says they are not, and has launched a scheme for a new union labor political party and at the same time urged upon the delegates of the various trades unions in Greater New York the expediency of contributing to a fund to aid the strikers, and the delegates promised their final support. This is probably what causes General Master Workman Parsons and District Master Workman Pines to predict important developments in the strike situation this week. It is a fact, however, that both Saturday and Sunday the cars were being run under almost normal head on all the lines except the Nassau throughout Brooklyn, even to the various beaches, and carrying large numbers of passengers.

France Wants a Reduction.

Paris, July 24.—The Temps believes the United States will grant France a reduction of 20 per cent in the existing duties under the favored nation treatment, and says:

"If this is so, France will be able to compete on equal terms in America with other foreign states." With reference to the fears expressed by French agriculturists, the Temps says that French agriculturists will also have cause to rejoice, "for we remind our readers that we sold to the United States in 1889 10,000,000 francs worth of wines."

A Crisis in Sight.

London, July 24.—The Times' Pretoria correspondent says the Uitlanders have been given to understand that no abatement of the demands made by Sir Alfred Milner, governor of Cape Colony and British high commissioner for South Africa, will be acceptable to the imperial authorities. A crisis, therefore, is now held to be in sight.

Paymaster Appointed.

Washington, July 24.—The president has appointed Charles Newbald paymaster with the rank of major, regular army. This appointment was made to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Maj. Murphy.

Killed by a Locomotive.

Cass Lake, Minn., July 24.—Ed Martin, an Eastern Minnesota conductor, was instantly killed by being run over by an engine while switching in the yards here. He lived at West Superior.

BIG LOSS BY FIRE

LARGE GRAIN ELEVATOR COMPLETELY DESTROYED.

The Loss on Building and Contents Will Reach About One Million Dollars—900,000 Bushels of Wheat Were Stored in the Elevator—Half an Hour After the Fire Was Discovered the Enormous Building Was a Mass of Ruins—The Watchman Has a Narrow Escape.

Toledo, Ohio, July 24.—The C., H. & D. elevator, located in East Toledo, was totally destroyed by fire last night and the loss on building and contents will figure nearly a million dollars. It is not known how much insurance is on the grain, amounting to 900,000 bushels of wheat, but the building carries $185,000 insurance. The elevator has been unusually busy for the past two weeks and was working night and day to store the 150 cars of wheat which are received daily at the place. The fact that it was Sunday prevented the fatalities which might have followed, for the forty men employed had quit work early and had been out of the place about two hours.

The watchman had made one round of the building and had found everything safe and was on his way up to the top on his second trip. He was not aware that there was a fire, but observers noticed a small blaze in the cupola. An alarm was immediately turned in, but before the fire department arrived a terrific explosion took place. A mass of flames shot up into the air hundreds of feet. The building was almost immediately enveloped and within ten minutes another explosion occurred which tore out the entire side of the building near the river. This explosion hurled the watchman, W. E. Welch out of the flames and saved his life. He was only slightly injured. The enormous building was a mass of ruins half an hour after the first blaze was noticed. The work of the fire department was futile, most of their energies being directed toward saving adjoining property.

HORRIBLE DOUBT.

Family of a Dead California Volunteer Fear That They Buried the Body of a Filipino Instead of Him.

San Francisco, July 24.—The Chronicle says: A casket supposed to contain the remains of Private Francis Deckelman, Company L, First California volunteers, was lowered in May last into a grave in the Deckman family plot at Odd Fellows' cemetery. On the 11th of the present month, on the suspicion that a mistake had been made, the casket was disinterred at the request of the boy's father and the suspicion verified. Decomposition had set in to such an extent that identification was impossible, but it was plain to the bereaved father that a dead Filipino had been given the resting place intended for his son. S. Reinard of this city, who disinterred the remains at Manila, states, however, that they are the remains of young Deckelman.

LAKE SUPERIOR TIDAL WAVE.

It Raises the Water Three Feet on the South Shore.

Ashland, Wis., July 24.—A tidal wave raised the water in Chequamegon bay and the north shore of Lake Superior three feet Saturday afternoon. It was the highest rise of water that has been reported for several years. It came nearly to the top of some of the docks, flooded roads and backed up so high that several saw mills were obliged to shut down. The water ran over many of the lumber docks and into the boiler rooms of the mills. The strange thing about it is that the wind was from off shore. Vessel captains report the same phenomenon on the Apostle islands. The water backed up in streams flowing into the bay, flooding and destroying crops.

GOLD GALORE.

Director of the Mint Roberts Says There Will Be a Big Supply.

New York, July 24.—George E. Roberts, director of the mint, called at the local assay office recently. In discussing the output of gold from the Klondike country, Mr. Roberts said: "We have already received $11,000,000 in gold from the Klondike this calendar year. That is as much as last year's entire receipts from that region amounted to, and from information received from leading buyers of bullion I believe that this year's total yield will reach $18,000,000 or $20,000,000. We shall have all the gold we need in these parts this year, and in addition to that we shall no doubt be able to supply the metal to any one else who desires to purchase it."

Was Once Lincoln's Sweetheart.

Lexington, Ky., July 24.—Mrs. Mary Love Lawless died here in the eighty-second year of her age. She was a sweetheart of Abraham Lincoln and a reigning belle of her day. Her maiden name was Jojdin and her home was at Mount eVrnon, Ky. Her husband is James R. Lawless, a Mexican war veteran, who survives her. She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Mary L. Scott, widow of Lieut. John Scott, of the United States army.

Bubonic Plague Spreads.

London, July 24.—The colonial office announces that the bubonic plague has spread from Hongkong and Mauritius to Reunion. There were 36 cases at Mauritius during the week, of which 29 resulted fatally.

Clemency for Mrs. Maybrick.

London, July 24.—A question will be issued in the house of commons today with regard to Mrs. Maybrick, saying whether, her conduct being uniformly good, the home secretary will not recommend the exercise of royal clemency in her case.

Fatally Burned.

Verndale, Minn., July 24.—The six-year-old daughter of Ole Thomson was fatally burned at her home north of town. She was playing with matches and set fire to her clothing.

Bank of St. Hilaire.

HANNAY & CO., Bankers.

Real Estate Loans.
Chattel Loans.
Foreign & Domestic Xchange
INSURANCE.
Collections a Specialty.

A General Banking Business Transacted.

St. Hilaire, Minn.

Livery and Feed Stable!

DAN PATERSON, Prop.

Dray in Connection.

The finest equipped turnouts in the northwest. Safe drivers and furnished at a moments notice at reasonable rates. Don't forget the place

BIG - RED - BARN

Located on the east side of Broadway nearly opposite Rapp & Post's Store
ST. HILAIRE - - - MINNESOTA

Says a modest exchange: There is a little matter which some of our Subscribers have seemingly forgotten—Some of them made us promises, but have not kept them. With us it is a very important matter—it's necessary in our business. We are very modest and don't like to speak about it.

GET YOUR PICTURE
TAKEN BY
D. COLLINS
THE
Photograper.
ST. HILAIRE, MINN.

Improved Farms.

K. O. GIGSTAD has a large list of Improved Farms for sale. Also agent for the best fire and cyclone insurance company. Sick and accident insurance Co., and hail insurance.

Money to loan on improved farms at low interest. All collections are promptly attended to.

NOTARY PUBLIC.

Office east of the city well.
ST. HILAIRE, - MINNESOTA.

DAY F. STACY, C. E.
DEPUTY
County Surveyor.
RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.
Drainage and Farm Surveys a Specialty

MONEY To PATENT Good Ideas may be secured by our aid. Address, THE PATENT RECORD, Baltimore, Md.
Subscriptions to The Patent Record $1.00 per annum.

FIRE
INSURANCE
DO
YOU
NEED
SOME?

The Best is the Cheapest.

I have nine of the best companies doing business in the State
Call for rates.

H. E. IVES.

CUSTOM WORK.

JUST LOOK AT THESE PRICES:

Roll Carding—per pound.........5 cts
Spinning Single Yarn—per pound.........15 c
Stocking Yarn—2 or 3 ply, per pound.........20 c

LITCHFIELD WOOLEN MILLS.
LITCHFIELD, MINN.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.
MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

The Spectator.

IVES & SOLL, Publishers.
JOHN J. SOLL, Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at St. Hilaire, Minn., as second-class mail matter.

Published every Wednesday at St. Hilaire, Red Lake County, Minn.

TERMS:—$1.50 Per Year in Advance.

Subscribers should notify the publisher on or before expiration of subscription if discontinuance is desired. Otherwise paper will be continued.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 26, 1899.

The Sagacious Rat.

One day a well fed and sagacious rat came across an object made of wire, whose sole occupation seemed to be to take care of a liberal piece of cheese. Having had several years' experience with men and their machinations, the rat looked the ground over with great care, and he was still engaged in this occupation when a mouse appeared and wanted to know what was up.

"Why, the fact is," replied the rat, "I have more cheese here than I can possibly eat at one meal, and as cheese quickly spoils in this climate I was waiting for some one to come along and accept a portion."

"You are generous," said the mouse.

"Don't mention it. Just step inside and pass the cheese out, will you?"

The mouse had no sooner nibbled at the bait than there was a crash, and he found himself trapped.

"Ah; that's the way it works, is it?" queried the rat. "I couldn't just make it out. Um! I see. Spring there somewhere. Good idea."

"But I'm caught," exclaimed the mouse in great agitation.

"So I observe."

"And what's to be done?"

"Well, I leave that for you to decide. I let you in on the ground floor, and my responsibility ceased there. Fine day. Hope we shall have a good harvest."

Moral.—Experience acquired at the expense of others is soothing as well as valuable.—Boston Journal.

A Fortune In a Kiss.

It was a kiss which made the fame and fortune of one of the leading artists in France today.

When he was a young student in the Quartier Latin, Paris, he came to the end of the slight resources left by his parents and was almost on the verge of starving.

In a moment of hilarity he stole a kiss from a pretty pair of lips he met in the street and was quickly called to account by the offended girl.

When he made his appearance in court, the presiding judge asked if he was a relative of Maitre C——, a famous French advocate of the sixties.

"I am his son," the culprit answered. After inflicting a small fine the judge asked the young man to call on him in the evening.

It transpired that the young artist's father had been the judge's dearest friend and adviser many years earlier, and the judge, who was a bachelor, was delighted to be in a position to assist his son. He bought many of the artist's pictures and introduced him to several wealthy art patrons, so that fame and fortune came quickly.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

One of Millions.

Once upon a time there lived a man who wanted only a few things that everybody wants. He wanted plenty to eat and drink, leisure and the woman he loved. But he found that to have time to himself to make it possible to live pleasantly with his sweetheart and give her all he wanted and to take care of the children that they might have—to do all this he must have a great deal of money. So he went to work and built up a great business, a very complicated machinery. To this money producing machinery he was forced to give most of his energy. It gave him no time for leisure, no energy for enjoying the sunshine, his wife and children. But he began to enjoy the machinery of his business.

When he had made a large fortune, the only thing he enjoyed was the machinery by which he could make more money. He had lost his interest in the things for which he began his business. Perhaps he still had interest in food, his wife and all the naive physical and sentimental pleasures, but it was a blunted, dull interest. The only live interest he had was his business.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Washington and General Howe's Dog.

While the British occupied Philadelphia and the American force lay in winter quarters at Valley Forge, one day, as Washington and his staff were dining, a fine hunting dog, which was evidently lost, came to seek something to eat. On its collar was the name, "General Howe."

Washington ordered that the dog should be fed, and then he sent it to Philadelphia under a flag of truce, with a letter reading: "General Washington's compliments to General Howe. He does himself the pleasure to return to him a dog which accidentally fell into his hands and by the inscription on the collar appears to belong to General Howe."

The British commander, in reply, sent a cordial letter conveying his warm thanks for this act of courtesy of his enemy.—Paul Leicester Ford in Ladies' Home Journal.

A Famous Milestone.

One of the oldest milestones is to be seen in the museum at Leicester, England. It is a cylindrical block of sandstone, roughly inscribed with an abbreviated statement to the effect that it was erected during the emperorship of Cæsar Hadrian, son of Trajan, conqueror of Parthia. It also says, "To Leicester, Two Miles." The Hadrian milestone was discovered over a century ago beside the ancient Fosse way and narrowly escaped being converted into a lawn roller by the unromantic and practical finder.

Proof Positive.

Tommy Brown—Is your big sister engaged to Mr. Whitn?

Susie Green—No, an I guess she don't want to be.

Tommy Brown—Did she say so?

Susie Green—No, but she knowed he was comin tonight, an she eat onions at supper.—Catholic Standard and Times.

Infidelity a Tragedy.

No two kinds of birds fly alike. The style of flight depends on the structure and form of the feathers, the wings and the tail.

A COLD, STONY GAZE.

HOW EMMA JUCH FROZE AN INDISCREET REPORTER.

An Interview In Which the Sympathetic Newspaper Man Got an Invitation to Retire and the Mendacious One Got the Story.

I never heard the critics accuse Emma Juch of lacking sympathy or fire in her art, but there must be scores of interviewers in this country ready to swear that she was reared on lemon ice. Upon occasions Mme. Juch appeared the personification of joyousness, the very goddess of mirth, but these occur usually when guarantees look bona fide and when there happens to be no other lady soloist on the bill.

Unluckily I encountered the famous songstress at a time when she had lost $500 by the rascality, as she expressed it, of a St. Paul manager; also, as it happened, Mlle. Clementine de Vere was on the programme, strong in her possession of a fresh young voice that thrilled audiences in aria or ballad and won applause of the spontaneous sort that critics call ovation. Mme. Juch received the applause, but not the ovation, and, per consequence, was unhappy.

Hearing that the fair warbler had sustained a financial reverse, the editor of the Minneapolis Journal naturally wanted to know all about it for publication, and I happened to be detailed for the interview. Mme. Juch was at the West hotel. I sent up my card, and despite the somewhat unseasonable hour—it was scarcely half past 10 in the morning—received an invitation to visit the prima donna.

Just as I was about to enter the elevator a reporter for another afternoon newspaper stepped up. He was a rather new man, an excellent fellow, but, as it seemed to me, somewhat lacking in finesse.

"I'm going up to see Emma," he said. "Where are you going?"

"Same errand," I replied. "We'd better tackle her one at a time, hadn't we?"

"Lord, no!" he responded. "We'll both go in at once. You do the talking, and I'll take notes."

The plan didn't suit me very well, but there seemed no help for it. As we entered the apartment, Mme. Juch rose from her lounging chair and took a step forward. She was attired in some sort of loose, white morning gown, with a dash of color here and there that made the thing look as if it cost $1,000. My companion gasped and subsided on a horsehair settee near the door.

Mme. Juch appeared majestic, statuesque, magnificent, if you will, but cold—very cold. She bade me be seated in a refrigerated tone and asked to what she was indebted for the honor, etc. Heaven defend me from the notable who opens an interview that way!

A queer noise reached me from the direction of the settee, and I supposed the other fellow was swinging his arms to keep warm, but I dared not look around.

In as few words as possible I explained the object of the call, threw in a few mild remarks indicative of my belief that the St. Paul manager was a soulless scoundrel, who ought to be lynched, and then I waited.

It is entirely unnecessary to recapitulate the interview. Mme. Juch went over the conditions of her contract and described the treatment to which she had been subjected with some little approach to warmth of expression. She really seemed to be thawing when that unregenerate wretch over on the horsehair settee chipped in. The singer's recital of her financial woes had excited his ire against the man who had defrauded her, and he blurted out, referring to the recreant manager:

"He's a big stiff; that's what he is—a big stiff!"

I shall never forget the expression of acute nausea that enshrouded the usually immobile countenance of the great artiste as she turned, with a cold, stony gaze—a gaze that would freeze liquid air—in the direction of the voice and carefully focused the other man with her lorgnette. I saw the other man shrink fearfully. He looked just about a tight fit for a bantam's egg when the lorgnette landed.

"Good gracious!" said Mme. Juch in a pained way. "Do you—er—know that person?"

"Never saw him before in my life," I replied. "It was a mean thing to do, but the paper wanted an interview; and I hadn't half finished."

"Would you—er—mind leaving the room," said lovely Emma, addressing the other fellow. "Perhaps a detective sort of a person, don't you think?" she added as the other fellow escaped.

I indorsed the opinion and went on with the interview, which lasted another 15 minutes. Then I bowed myself out and hunted the other man, intending to placate him, but he wouldn't speak to me and hasn't since. That chap doesn't appreciate the exigencies of the profession.—Minneapolis Journal.

A Loud Interruption.

"I declare, Maria, this is too irritating to be endured! I told you I didn't want to be disturbed, and here somebody has suddenly sprung a most infernal clatter on me. What does it mean?"

"There wasn't any clatter, my dear."

"What was it, then?"

"Why, I just happened to pass through the room in my new red and yellow shirt waist; that's all."

"Well, don't do it again."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Will Soon Strike Terra Firma.

The Inexperienced—He says he can hardly restrain himself from falling down and worshiping her.

The Rejected—Tell him not to get nervous; she'll throw him down soon enough.—Pittsburg Press.

The Army and Navy.

Have covered themselves with glory during the war. The Army and Navy vest pocket memorandum book published by the Northern Pacific is a compact digest of information relative to the navies and armies of Spain and the United States at the beginning of the war. It has a map of Cuba, illustrations of naval ships, glossary of navy and army terms, translation of Spanish words, etc. Send ten cents to Chas. S. Fee, general passenger agent, N. P. R., St. Paul, Minn., for a copy.

Too Much Hired Man.

They were telling political stories in a down town office the other day, and somebody recalled the tale of the Hon. Alfonso Hart, at one time lieutenant governor of Ohio.

Hart was on the stump for Foraker and was putting in his best licks in the rural districts. One afternoon he tackled a lot of Medina county farmers and opened upon them in his usual way.

"Friends," he said, "I know you are a sensible, hard headed lot of honest toilers. You are not to be moved by sophistry or foolish deceptions. I have only to look around me to assure myself that you know a good thing when you see it. Now, let us suppose one of you farmers has a hired man. You may feel a little doubt of him at the outset, but you give him a fair trial. You like him so well that you keep him another year. And he serves you in a way that insures his re-engagement for still another year and then another. Isn't that a good business principle?"

Mr. Hart paused and smiled down at his listeners. Before he could resume, however, a shrill voice from the middle of the crowd interrupted him.

"Say," said the voice, "how is it when the hired man gets to thinkin he owns the hull darned farm?"

It took the wind all out of Mr. Hart, as he himself afterward admitted.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Making Steel Pens.

Briefly described, steel pens are made as follows: First the steel is rolled into big sheets and then cut into strips about three inches in width. The strips are heated to a bright red and are then allowed to cool gradually, which tempers them. They are next rolled to the necessary thinness and are cut into blank flat pens, and the pens, while flat, are usually stamped with the brand or the name of the manufacturer. To shape the pens is the next process. The rounding makes them hold the ink and distribute it more evenly than could be done if they were flat. To harden them they are heated to a cherry red and then suddenly cooled. This not only hardens them, but makes them elastic. The polishing, pointing and finishing come next, and then they are ready for use. The little holes in the pens at the end of the slits serve to make them more elastic and to facilitate the flow of the ink.

It is said that more steel is now used in the manufacture of pens than in that of swords. It is even claimed that the metal annually used in their manufacture weighs more than all the metal used in the manufacture of war implements.—Detroit Free Press.

What He Did Object To.

The author of "Kings of the Hunting Field" says that at a certain English church many years ago, while the clergyman was reading prayers, a man walked in, shouted "I've got 'un!" and immediately withdrew. He had sounded a well known call. Every farmer and laborer who possessed a gun soon followed him and in an hour or two brought to the village inn the fox they had shot.

Spirituality was in those days at a very low ebb, and some clergymen cared more for sport than for the example they set to their flocks. Bishops tried to discountenance hunting as a clerical pastime, but the law did not enable them to remove the offenders from their livings. Dr. Phillpotts, bishop of Exeter, who called to account several sporting clergymen in his diocese, met one of them at a friend's house.

"I am told, my lord, that you object to my hunting," said the clergyman.

"Dear me, who could have told you so?" answered the bishop. "What I object to is that you should ever do anything else."

Two Points of View.

An old Scotchwoman was walking to church with her family. The Auld Kirk minister rode past at a tremendous rate, and the old lady said to her children: "Sicean a wey to be ridin, and this the Sawbath day. Aweel, aweel, a gude man is marcifu' to his beast!"

Shortly afterward her own minister rode past just as furiously, and the worthy old wifie cried: "Ah, there he goes! The Lord bless him, puir maul His heart's in his wark, an he's eager to be at it."

Origin of "Pall Mall."

"Pall Mall" (pronounced pel mel) comes from palle maile, an ancient game supposed to have been played on the present site of Pall Mall by Norman monks, by whom it was introduced into England.

The observant Pepys, in his famous diary, makes mention of it thus:

"April 2, 1661. Into St. James' park, where I saw the Duke of York playing at Pelemele, the first time that ever I saw the sport."—Pall Mall Bulletin.

The Trouble.

Hicks—Why is it you are so hard on Wellington? He never did you a bad turn or ever spoke ill of you.

Wicks—I know that, but the fact is the first time I saw Wellington I thought he was somebody out of the ordinary, and I was as polite to him as I knew how to be. I never shall be able to forgive him for that mistake.—Boston Transcript.

First
Mortgage
Loans.

I am prepared, for the next 60 days, to make loans at the

LOWEST

possible rates ever made in Red Lake county. If you want to make a loan or renew an old one, call on

H. E. IVES.

By special arrangement with the publishers we are enable to give FARM, STOCK AND HOME one year and the ST. HILAIRE SPECTATOR for $1.25.

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

Default having been made in the payment of the sum of ten hundred and fifteen ($1,015.) dollars, which is claimed to be due and is due at the date of this notice upon a certain mortgage, duly executed and delivered by Alphonse Bancher and Philomine Boucher his wife mortgagors, to The Western Security Co. mortgagee, bearing date the 27th day of July 1888, and, with a power of sale therein contained, duly recorded in the office of the register of deeds in and for the county of Polk, now Red Lake county, and State of Minnesota, on the 27th day of July 1888, at 10:20 o'clock A. M., in Book 37 of mortgages, on page 141.

Which said mortgage together with the debt secured thereby, was duly assigned by said The Western Security Co., mortgagee, to Joseph F. Dearborn, by written assignment, dated the 1st day of November 1888, and recorded in the office of said register of deeds, on the 6th day of November 1888, at 1:00 o'clock P. M., in Book 40 of mortgages on page 378;

And whereas, the said assignee of mortgagee, did on the 4th day of November 1897, pay to the Treasurer of Polk county, Minnesota, the sum of $18.85 for taxes due and delinquent on said premises for the year 1895, and the further sum of $35.96 paid by said mortgagee on the 1st day of November 1897 for taxes due and delinquent on said land for the year 1892, all of which taxes are still due and payable to said assignee of said mortgagee, and no action or proceeding having been instituted, at law or otherwise, to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed by said mortgage, viz:

The south-east quarter of section twenty-one (21) township one hundred and fifty (150) range forty-one (41) containing one hundred and sixty (160) acres, more or less according to the United States government survey, in Red Lake county, formerly Polk county, and State of Minnesota, with the hereditaments and appurtenances; which sale will be made by the sheriff of said Red Lake county, at the front door of the Court House, in the village of Red Lake Falls in said county and State, on the 12th day of August 1899, at 2:00 o'clock P. M. of that day, at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt of Ten Hundred and Fifteen Dollars, and interest, and the taxes, on said premises and fifty dollars, attorney's fees, as stipulated in and by said mortgage in case of foreclosure, and the disbursements allowed by law; subject to redemption at any time within one year from the day of sale, as provided by law.

Dated June 19th A. D., 1899.

ADELE C. M. CUNNEA,
Executrix of Joseph F. Dearborn, deceased, Assignee of Mortgagee.

JOHN CROWN,
Attorney for Executrix of Assignee of Mortgagee.
Crookston, Minn. 48-2

Mortgage Foreclosure Sale.

Whereas, default has occurred in the conditions of a mortgage given by Carrie Crown and Edvard (mortgage signed "Edvard" but written in body of deed and in acknowledgment "Edward") Crown, her husband, mortgagors, to Dakota Investment Company, of Grand Forks, Dakota, mortgagee, dated May 20th A. D. 1889, which mortgage, together with the power of sale therein contained, was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in Polk county and state of Minnesota, May 21th A. D. 1889 at 8:30 o'clock, a. m., in book 43 of mortgages, on page 32 and subsequently transcribed into the records of Red Lake county and state of Minnesota in book 17 of mortgages on page 371 and assigned by said mortgagee to Elijah M. Topliff by an instrument in writing dated June 14th A. D. 1889 and filed for record in said office of the Register of Deeds for said Red Lake county, March 9th A. D. 1898 at 3:00 o'clock p. m. and recorded in book F of assignments on page 554;

And whereas the undersigned attorneys for said Elijah M. Topliff have been empowered by him to foreclose said mortgage by an instrument in writing, dated March 28th A. D. 1899 and filed for record in said office of the Register of Deeds for said Red Lake county, April 5th A. D. 1899 at 12 o'clock M. and was recorded in book A of power of attorneys on page 204

And whereas there is claimed to be due upon said mortgage at this date including taxes for the years 1889, 1890, 1892, 1893, 1894, 1895, 1896, 1897 and 1898 amounting to $134.61 the sum of four hundred, ninety-nine 01-100 dollars, and no action or proceeding having been instituted at law to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof;

Now, therefore, Notice is hereby given that said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale of the premises described in said mortgage; viz.: The south half of the north-west quarter (s½ of nw¼) of section ten (10) in township one hundred and fifty-two (152) of range forty-five (45) in said county, which sale will be made by the Sheriff of said county, at the front door of the Court House, in the city of Red Lake Falls in said county of Red Lake, August 12th A. D. 1899 at two o'clock p. m., at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, to pay said debt, interest and taxes on said premises, and $25.00 attorney's fees, and the disbursements allowed by law, subject to redemption as provided by law.

Dated at Minneapolis, Minn. June 10th 1899.

ELIJAH M. TOPLIFF,
Assignee of Mortgagee.

WEBSTER & TAYLOR,
Attorney's for assignee of Mortgagee.
47-52

—The SPECTATOR is for sale—at one dollar a year—strictly in advance.

CONTEST NOTICE.

Doc. No. 675.

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, Crookston, Minnesota, July 13th 1899.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by P. O. Kjonikson, contestant, against Homestead entry No. 11971, made July 12th 1892 for the W½ NE¼, Section 33, Township 152 N of range 43W, by Carl J. Johnson contestee in which it is alleged that the said Carl J. Johnson has wholly abandoned said tract since date of entry to the present time; that he has wholly failed to reside upon and cultivate said tract as by law required; that said alleged absence from the said land was not due to his employment in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States as a private soldier officer seaman or marine during the war with Spain, or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged; said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on September 1st, 1899 before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Crookston, Minnesota.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed July 13th, 1899, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice is given by due and proper publication.

SYLVESTER PETERSON,
Register.
51-3

Oh, Where Has He Gone?

LOST:—About six weeks ago a black and white English setter dog answers to the name of "Shy." A suitable reward will be given at this office when said dog is returned. Any information will thankfully be received.

UNCLE SAM
Is not
In the Shoe
Business,
And Neither
Am I,
But I can
Interest
You in
CIGARS.

ALL THE BEST
SMOKERS BUY THEM

J. B. Cigars.

ALL THE BEST
DEALERS SELL THEM.

J. B. ARMSTRONG,
Manufacturer.
RED LAKE FALLS, MINNESOTA.

WANTED-BRAINS

Can you think of something to patent? Protect your ideas; they may bring you wealth. Before applying for patent, get our liberal offer. "Inventor's Assistant and handsome views of Washington sent Free on request. Be sure to write to-day
COPP & CO., Patent Attorneys, Washington, D. C.

Summer
Clothing

The Greatwestern own magnificent display of Men's summer suits, and Boys' choicest clothing is now ready, at a saving of fully 25 per cent.

Greatwestern Clothing House.

IF YOU INTEND TO Buy
Furniture

Come and look our assortment over. We carry everything in the Furniture line including picture frames and musical instruments. Prices reasonable.

Holmes Furniture Co.

BANK OF RED LAKE FALLS,
RED LAKE FALLS, MINNESOTA
GENERAL BANKING. FOREIGN XCHANGE

Real Estate, Farm Loans and Insurance.
Abstracts of Title.
Steamship Tickets.
Interest Paid on Time Deposits.
Collections of all Kinds Given Prompt Attention.

Owner of the Abstract Books formerly owned by Sortedahl & Storaasli the only set of Abstract Books in Red Lake County.

M. O. SORTEDAHL, President and Cashier.
G. P. SEVERTSON, Assistant Cashier

Appetine Bitters

A Comfort for the Home

Cures Stomach and bowel troubles. An excellent tonic.

Sold by Druggists, Dealers or, GEO. BENZ & SONS, St. Paul and Minneapolis

List of Town Clerks.

Names	Township	Postoffice
Olaf Larson	Numedal	Viking
C. E. Purdy	North	Thief River Falls
John E. Peterson	Bray	Bray
N. K. Anderson	Sanders	St. Hilaire
F. T. Satre	Rocksbury	T. R. Falls
O. T. Romsos	Polk Centre	Wylie
P. A. Eckstrom	Black River	Wylie
A. S. Anderson	River Falls	St. Hilaire
Ole J. Johnson	Wyandotte	"
A. D. Berry	Louisville	Huot
Ildaige Baril	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
Chas. E. Asp	Emardville	Lost
Edward Havik	Equality	Gelt
Moses Ducharme	Lake Pleasant	R. L. F.
Edonor Perusse	Terrebonne	Terrebonne
J. B. Herbert	Poplar River	Brooks
Louis Doucet	Lambert	Lambert
J. L. Johnson	St. Hilaire	St. Hilaire
Lars Backe	Thief River F	T. R. F.
A. P. Toupin	Red Lake Falls	R. L. F.
H. D. Baaryson	Norden	T. R. Falls
Olof Tande	Garnes	Garnes

FARMS
LOANS
ABSTRACTS

97 Farms for sale or rent in Red Lake County.

SWANSON & GRADY,
Official Abstractors.
RED LAKE FALLS. - - - MINN.

A. O. LETVIG,
Tubular Well Contractor
A Good Supply of Water Guaranteed. Repairing a Specialty.
WYLIE. MINNESOTA

"Won't You Try
Hamm's
Delicious
Beer?
It has a flavor all its own!"
The Hamm Brewing Co.
Telephone 972.
St. Paul, Minn.

UNION MEAT MARKET
LEON DEMERS, PROP.

Choicest line of Fresh and Salted meats in the city.
Highest market price paid for Stock, Poultry and Hides.

Say?

If your wheel needs enameling, cleaning, new tires or any other repairing give us a trial. All work done promptly and satisfactory. Prices reasonable.

R. I. BULLAN & CO.
35 RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.

STEVENS RIFLES AND PISTOLS
HAVE FOR MORE THAN 35 YEARS BEEN CELEBRATED FOR THEIR EXTREME ACCURACY

We make our "Diamond" Pistol with two lengths of barrel, 6 and 10 inches. Every one guaranteed. Price, Postpaid, $5.00 with 6-inch barrel; $7.50 with 10-inch barrel. We make a full line of rifles; Price, from $6.00 upwards. Every arm we turn out is warranted

SAFE, SOLID AND ACCURATE.

J. STEVENS ARMS & TOOL CO.,
Send Stamp for Catalogue. P. O. Box 696 CHICOPEE FALLS, MASS.

Cigars.
BRINK BROTHERS
DEALERS IN
Wines & Liquors
Minneapolis Beer.
Corner Broadway and 3rd St. St. Hilaire, Minnesota

Supplement to St. Hilaire Spectator.

ST. HILAIRE, MINN., JULY 26, 1899.

The County Board.

(OFFICIAL)

Red Lake Falls, Minn., June 26th, 1899.

2 o'clock p. m.

Pursuant to call dated June 6th. 1899, the board of county commissioners of Red Lake county. Minn., met in extra session this day. Meeting called to order by the chairman.

All members present.

Motion made by Hebert seconded by Hansen to open up bids for bonds.

Motion carried unanimously.

Bids were then opened as follows.

Trowbridge McDonald & Niver Co.	$ 20000 00
T. B. Potter	20187 00
Mason Lewis & Co.	20327 65
W. J. Hayes & Sons	20225 00
Bank of St. Hilaire	20500 00
N. W. Harris & Co	20204 40

Stoddard Nye & Co., $20,600.00, for 4½ per cent. 20 year bonds.

At a special meeting of the board of County commissioners of Red Lake county, Minnesota, held on the 26th day of June, A. D. 1899, at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day at the office of the county auditor of said Red Lake county, at the county seat of said county. Present Commissioners Demann, Hebert, Johnson, Hansen and Sutor. Also the county auditor of said county, the following proceedings were had:

Whereas, heretofore, to-wit on the 24 day of May, A. D. 1899, the said board of county commissioners resolved to issue and sell to the highest and best bidder, the bonds of said county of Red Lake in the sum of twenty thousand dollars, under and by virtue of an act of the legislature of the state of Minnesota, entitled, "An act to enable and authorize the board of county commissioners of the several counties of the state of Minnesota to issue bonds to fund the floating indebtedness of said counties existing on the first day of May, A. D. 1899, and to levy taxes for the payment thereof," Approved April 18th. 1899

And Whereas, The county auditor of said county was directed to advertise for bids for said bonds in the St. Hilaire Spectator a newspaper, also in the St Paul Globe, a newspaper.

And it appearing that notice of the proposed sale of said bonds, has been duly published by the county auditor in pursuance of the terms of said resolution, and that certain bids for the purchase of said bonds have been submitted. That after considering said bids commissioner Hebert offered the following resolution, which was seconded by Commissioner Johnson:

Resolved that the bid of Hanney & Company, of St. Hilaire, in the sum of twenty thousand five hundred dollars for the entire issue of said funding bonds shall be accepted, and that the following described bonds shall be issued, viz:

Twenty bonds of said county of the sum of one thousand dollars each, with interest coupons attached to each of said bonds. Said bonds shall respectively bear interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum, and both principal and interest be payable at the office of the county Treasurer, of said county of Red Lake.

Said interest coupons shall be payable on the thirtieth, (30th), day of June in each year until the maturity of said bonds. The principal of said bonds to become due on the 30th day of June, A. D. 1914.

That said bonds and coupons shall bear date the 30th day of June, A. D. 1899, and shall be payable to said Hanney & Company. Said bonds and interest coupons shall be signed by the Chairman of the said board of county commissioners, and attested by the auditor of said county and sealed with the official seal of said county.

That upon payment to the county treasurer, of Red Lake county, of the sum of twenty thousand five hundred dollars, of lawful money of the United States, by the said Hanney & Company, the said chairman of the board of county commissioners and the county auditor are hereby directed to deliver the said twenty bonds of one thousand dollars each, with the said interest coupons so attached to the said Hanney & Co.

That the said sum of twenty thousand five hundred dollars shall be set apart in a special fund and shall be at once applied by the county treasurer in liquidating, cancelling and paying off the floating indebtedness of said county heretofore existing on the first (1st) day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety nine, and shall be used for no other purpose.

That the county auditor shall keep a record of said bonds so issued, which record shall show the date, number and amount of each bond, and the rate of interest, the time when due, the place where payable and the name of the party to whom issued.

That the county attorney is hereby directed forthwith, to procure printed or lithographed forms for the issue of said bonds.

That there shall be annually levied a tax upon the taxable property of said Red Lake county in addition to all other taxes levied, a sufficient tax to pay the interest accruing yearly upon the said bonds. And there shall be levied and collected from the said taxable property of said county, in addition to the other taxes so to be levied, a sufficient sum to pay the principal of said bonds when they shall fall due on the 30th day of June, 1914.

Which foregoing resolutions were then declared carried upon the following vote:

Yeas,

Commissioners Johnson, Hebert, Hansen, Sutor, and Demann.

No,

None.

On motion carried unanimously a recess was taken to 9 o'clock a. m., June 27th, 1899.

June 27th, 1899, 9 o'clock a. m.

Board reconvened.

Meeting called to order by the chairman.

All members present.

Commissioner Hebert offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

> Resolved that the county auditor be and is hereby instructed to draw his warrant on the bond and interest fund in the sum of $300.00 to pay interest due July 1st on Red Lake county funding bonds of April 12th, 1897.

Which resolution was seconded by Commissioner Hansen and on motion carried unanimously was adopted.

Commissioner Johnson offered the following resolution and moved its adoption.

> Resolved that the resolution adopted by this board May 24, 1899, authorizing and directing the county auditor to draw his warrant, or order, on county revenue fund in favor of the chairman be and the same is hereby reconsidered, and all parties having claims against the county for services rendered in such settlement be and are hereby requested to make and file properly verified accounts of such service.

Which resolution was seconded by Commissioner Hebert and on motion carried unanimously was adopted.

On motion carried unanimously a recess was taken until 1 o'clock p. m.

One o'clock p. m.

Board reconvened.

Meeting called to order by the chairman.

All members present.

Petition of Benjamin Dalocck and others asking for an appropriation to construct a bridge across the Red Lake river in the town of Louisville at the Huot crossing was on motion laid on the table until next meeting.

On motion carried unanimously bills were allowed as follows:

COUNTY POOR FUND.

Dr J Lemieux medical services to Mrs Beault	$ 6 25
E E Havik board of G. Quale by M P Boraas month of June	5 00
St Gabriel's hospital, board and care of Mary Demers from March 25 to June 25	15 00
Ernest Buse, rent of house for Mrs Morchildon from May 5 to June 5	4 00

COUNTY ROAD AND BRIDGE FUND.

St Hilaire Lumber company lumber for culverts in town of Wyandotte	15 12

COUNTY REVENUE FUND.

Pioneer Press Co. blanks for county auditor	11 90
Pioneer Press Co blanks for register of deeds	1 40
Free Press Printing Co book private redemption	8 50
Geo D Barnard & Co 1 register of births and deaths	3 50
Geo D Barnard & Co 2 registers of births and deaths	7 00
Geo D Barnard and Co blanks for county auditor	5 70
" Pens, rubber bands and supplies for county officers	7 75
" 2 self inking stamps and dates	3 20
" blanks for Judge of Probate	2 21
" Numbering ink register of deeds	30
" book blanks county auditor	2 10
" book treasurer's checks	15 50
" 1 deed record	20 50
" 1 book cert tax judgment and 1 book state assignments	18 00
" blanks	75
" tax list for 1899	64 15
Frank Anderson book case for judge of probate	5 00
Adam Zeh 1 day board of audit and money paid for duplicate stamps and pads	7 70
J E Ford 6 days work on transfer books	11 00
Theo Gareau service and expense in matter of settlement with Polk county	73 95
K M Hansen services and expense in matter of settlement with Polk county	102 35
K M Hansen, two days' services county commissioner and mileage	10 00
Ole J Johnson, two days services county commissioner and mileage	10 00
J B Hebert, two days services county commissioner and mileage	10 00
Wm C L Demann, two days services county commissioner and mileage	7 40
James Sutor, two days' services county commissioner and one day on committee and mileage	13 00

Motion made by Hebert, seconded by Sutor, to reject bill of J. E. Ford for work in treasurer's office. Motion carried unanimously

Bill of Pioneer Press Co. for balance on astray record was on motion carried unanimously rejected.

On motion carried unanimously meeting adjourned.

Wm. C. L. Demann,
Chairman.

Attest:
Adam Zeh.
County Auditor.

Regular meeting of Commissioner July 10th, 1899.

2 o'clock p. m.

Board of county commissioners of Red Lake county, Minn., met in regular session this day.

Meeting called to order by chairman Demann.

Members all present.

Hearing was then had on school petition of Fred Coe and others asking for the formation of a new school district to be composed of the following lands, to-wit:

All of sections No. 21. 20. 19, town 152, range 45; all of sections 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, and all of 33 except the e ½ of s e ¼, twp 152, range 45; also the north ½ of sections 4, 5, 6, of twp. 151, range 45.

Motion made by Sutor seconded by Hebert that the same be granted.

Motion carried unanimously and the following order was made:

Order of County Commissioners for Formation of New School District.—Law of '91.

In the matter of the formation of school district No. seventeen, Red Lake county.

Whereas, the board of county commissioners of Red Lake county, state of Minnesota, was duly petitioned by a majority of the freeholders residing within the territory hereinafter described to form and erect the same into a new school district; and

Whereas, a hearing upon said petition was duly ordered by said board of county commissioners, and had upon due and proper notice:

Now, Therefore, It appearing to said board of county commissioners that the prayer of said petitioners should be granted. it is hereby ordered and directed that the following named territory be, and the same is hereby formed into a new school district number seventeen, to-wit:

Sections No. 21, 20, 19, town 152, range 45: all of sections 28, 29, 30, 31, 32 and all of 33 except the e ½ of s e ¼, twp 152, range 45, w.: also the north ½ of sections No. 4, 5, and 6, twp 151, range 45.

Wm. C. L. Demann.
Chairman board of county commissioners, Red Lake county, Minn.

Attest:
Adam Zeh.
County auditor and ex-officio clerk of board.
[seal.]

Hearing was then had on school petition of Nels K. Anderson and others asking for the formation of a new school district to be composed of the following lands, to-wit:

Sections No. 18, 19, and north half of section No. 30 in township No. 153 range 44, also sections No. 1, 2, 11, 12, 13, and e ½ of section No. 14 and east ½ of section No 24, twp No. 153, range 45.

Motion made by Hansen, seconded by Johnson to lay same on table.

Motion carried unanimously.

Petition of Thos Rogney asking to be set off with his lands from school district No. 135 to school district No. 219 was read.

Motion made by Hebert seconded by Sutor to reject the same.

Motion carried unanimously.

Petitions for bridge across Red Lake river in town of Louisville were read and on motion duly carried were laid on the table.

On motion carried unanimously a recess was taken until 9 o'clock, a. m. July 11th.

July 11th, 1899, 9 o'clock, a. m.

Board re-convened.

Meeting called to order by the chairman.

All members present.

Motion made by Hebert seconded by Sutor that the auditor be and is hereby directed to correct assessment of Joseph Benoit on lot 16, block 5, Buse & Bottineau's add. to Red Lake Falls.

Motion carried unanimously.

Motion made by Hansen seconded by Hebert to lay communication of John Gleason, auditor of Polk county, in regard to settlement between Polk and Red Lake counties, on table.

Motion carried unanimously.

Commissioner Sutor offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

> Resolved that commissioner Hansen is hereby authorized to issue a county relief order in the sum of $45 00 or as much thereof as is necessary to furnish Fredrick Lind, of the town of Sanders, with appliances for the treatment of his leg.

Which resolution was seconded by Commissioner Johnson, and on motion carried unanimously was adopted.

On motion carried unanimously a recess was taken to 1 o'clock, p. m.

1 o'clock, p. m., July 11th.

Board reconvened.

Meeting called to order by the chairman.

All members present.

On motion carried unanimously the personal property taxes delinquent March 1st, 1899, were cancelled as follows:

Joseph Rolean & Co, Thief River Falls	$ 5 67
Morrell, K. B., Thief River Falls	17 17
Monroe, Hugh L. Thief River Falls	4 81
Holmwood, J. L., Thief River Falls	5 16
Peterson, August, St. Hilaire	6 66
Myron, Davis, Emardville	6 90
Margaret, Ford, Black River	2 82
Baker, A. H., Black River	2 30
Kent, C. A., Polk Centre	1 86
Nelson, Adolph, Bray	4 91
Isace Orvick, Numedal	3 79
Scharboneau, Eadman, Numedal	2 24
Bergeron, Xavier, Lambert	6 39
Grenier, George, Poplar River	4 35

Citations ordered to be issued as follows:

Atwood Drug Co., Red Lake Falls	87 24
Red River Roller Mills, Thief River Falls	18 25

Commissioner Sutor offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Resolved that following sums and taxes be levied as a basis of taxation for the year 1899 for the county of Red Lake, viz:

County Revenue	$17000 00
" Poor	4000 00
" Road & Bridge	3000 00
" Bond & Interest	2500 00
" School, Fund.
" Court House & Jail	1000 00

Which resolution was seconded by Commissioner Hansen and on motion carried unanimously was adopted.

Commissioner Hebert offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Resolved that the board now proceed to make a list of 72 names from which to draw Petit Jury for October term of court, 1899.

Which resolution was seconded by Commissioner Sutor and on motion carried unanimously was adopted.

Certified list of 72 names was then made and filed with the clerk of court.

On motion carried unanimously a recess was taken until 9 o'clock a. m.

9 o'clock, a. m., July 12th, 1899.

Board reconvened,

Meeting called to order by the chairman.

All members present.

Commissioner Sutor offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Resolved that the sum of $75 00 be and the same is hereby transferred from county revenue fund to the Incidental Expense fund.

Which resolution was seconded by commissioner Hebert and on motion carried unanimously the same was adopted.

Board then proceeded to audit bills.

On motion carried unanimously a recess was taken to 1 o'clock, p. m.

One o'clock, p. m., July 12th.

Board reconvened,

Meeting called to order by the chairman.

All members present.

On motion carried unanimously bills were allowed as follows:

County Poor Fund.

Dr A F Blomberg amputating arm and subsequent treatment of Ole Wold, town of Bray	$ 40 00
Dr W O Tessier, attendance and medicines for Theo Carl	12 00
Ernest Buse, rent of house for Mrs Marchildon from June 5th to July 5th	4 00
John Beaudry, 2 months board for F Morrisette, to July 1st	16 00
M P Bornas, board of G Quale month of June	5 00
Ed Gareeau, one months board of Joseph Dyon by Octave Laconclere	10 00

County Revenue Fund.

St Hilaire Spectator, publishing two notices of hearing on school petition	3 00
St Hilaire Spectator, publishing notice of sale of county bonds	7 50
St Hilaire Spectator, publishing part of commissioners' proceedings of June 20th	9 75
St Hilaire Spectator, publishing commissioners proceedings of May	30 00
St Paul Globe, publishing notice of sale of county bonds	32 40
Brown, Treacy & Co, printing County bonds	17 50
Courier Pub Co printing postal cards and envelopes for treasurer	4 70
Pioneer Press Co. auditor and treasurer's daily register of collections and payments	34 00
Joseph Perrault, clerk of court fees in filing and recording town officers bonds, etc	20 75
Peter C Wold, for assessing district No. 1	5 00
O H. Olson, for assessing Dist. No 2	5 00
W A Schrater, mdse, oil, etc., for court house	14 29
E A Lawrence & Co., to binding book of plats $37.50 allowed at	31 50
C E Boughton, to drafting bill for proposed amendment to Co. division law	15 00
C E Boughton, services, railway fare and expense in matter of adjusting settlement Red Lake vs Polk Co, $150 80 allowed at	139 48
N M Watson, services, railroad fare and expenses in matter of adjusting settlement Red Lake vs Polk Co. $137.52, allowed at	126 00

On motion carried unanimously meeting adjourned to 9 o'clock a. m., July 21, 1899.

Wm. C. L. Demann,
Chairman.

Attest:
Adam Zeh,
County Auditor.

FOOD

NOT MADE BY THE TRUST.

prepared with

Calumet Baking Powder

is free from Rochelle Salts, Alum, or any injurious substance. The highest grade baking powder made, or sold at a

PERFECT IN QUALITY. MODERATE PRICE

MODERATE PRICE.

The Kind of Shells

to use: The NEW VICTOR is the best that can be produced for the money Color bright green

PETERS
12
G
NEW VICTOR
THE QUICKEST ON EARTH
NEW VICTORS
LOADED WITH KING'S SMOKELESS
PETERS
12
REFEREE
REFEREE
LOADED WITH SEMI-SMOKELESS
P.C.C.
12
LEAGUE
LEAGUE
LOADED SHELLS

The REFEREE is the next best shell upon the market Color, purple.

If you insist upon using black powder loads, the LEAGUE is the best black powder shell made. Color, cream.

All above are the Celebrated PETERS SHELLS loaded with King's famous Powder.

Specify these shells in ordering of dealers

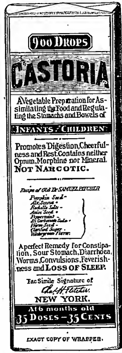
Send for Hints Booklet to

THE PETERS CARTRIDGE CO.,

230 MAIN ST., CINCINNATI O

HOOD'S PILLS

Rouse the torpid liver, and cure biliousness, sick headache, jaundice, nausea, indigestion, etc. They are invaluable to prevent a cold or break up a fever. Mild, gentle, certain, they are worthy your confidence. Purely vegetable, they can be taken by children or delicate women. Price, 25c. at all medicine dealers or by mail of C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.



900 DROPS

CASTORIA

A Vegetable Preparation for Assimilating the Food and Regulating the Stomachs and Bowels of

INFANTS & CHILDREN

Promotes Digestion, Cheerfulness and Rest. Contains neither Opium, Morphine nor Mineral. NOT NARCOTIC.

Recipe of Old Dr SAMUEL PITCHER

Pumpkin Seed
Alx. Senna
Rochelle Salts
Anise Seed
Peppermint
Bi Carbonate Soda
Worm Seed
Clarified Sugar
Wintergreen Flavor

A perfect Remedy for Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Worms, Convulsions, Feverishness and LOSS OF SLEEP.

Fac Simile Signature of
Chas. H. Fletcher.
NEW YORK.

At 6 months old
35 DOSES – 35 CENTS

EXACT COPY OF WRAPPER.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher.

The Kind You Have Always Bought.

CASTORIA

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

CASTORIA.

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. The Kind You Have Always Bought

CASTORIA.

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. The Kind You Have Always Bought

F. C. CORSETS
MAKE
American Beauties.

F. C.
On Each Box.

LATEST MODELS.

KALAMAZOO CORSET CO.
SOLE MANUFACTURERS.
SOLD BY
E. M. HOFF.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

I. O. O. F. St. Hilaire Lodge No. 147.—Meets at their hall every Thursday evening, eight o'clock. Visiting members are cordially invited to attend.
E. M. Hoff, N. G.
J. H Johnson, Secretary.

M. W. A. CAMP 3650.—Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every second and fourth Tuesday of every month. Visiting neighbors are cordially invited to attend.
Leonard Holmes, V. C.
Jas. M. Hall, Clerk.

R. N. A.—WILD ROSE CAMP.—No. 831 Meets at Odd Fellows Hall every Friday evening. Visiting members of the order are cordially invited to attend.
Mrs. L. N. Nolan, Oracle.
Miss T. Hughes, Recorder.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

Auditor	Adam Zeh
Treasurer	O. T. Tandberg
Register of Deeds	Samuel Gibeau
Sheriff	Chas. Sampson
Attorney	Van R. Brown
Judge of Probate	J. T. Knight
Clerk of Court	Joe Perrault
Supt. of Schools	Frank Jeffers
Coroner	Joe Belaire
Court Commissioner	J. C. Mathews
Surveyor	P. O. Hegglund
Commissioner 1st Dist.	J. Suter
Commissioner 2nd Dist.	W. L. C. Demann
Commissioner 3rd Dist.	O. J. Johnsen
Commissioner 4th Dist.	Karl M. Hanson
Commissioner 5th Dist.	J. D. Herbert

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

E. J. Holmes	President
J. L. Johnson	Recorder
D. Patterson	Councilmen
J. C. Dahl
W. A. Sorsdell
L. Holmes	Treasurer

Barber Shop
—AND—
BATH ROOMS.
—o—
Haircutting, Shaving, Shampooing.
Razors honed and put in first-class order.
J. H. PENNO, Prop.
ST. HILAIRE - - - - MINNESOTA

Henry Francis, M. D, C. M.
Member College Physicians and Surgeons, Ontario. : :
Thief River Falls, Minnesota.

"THE IDEAL" Lunch Room.
In the Paradis Building is noted for its Convenience.
FIRST-CLASS MEALS.
PROMPT SERVICE.
OPEN UNTIL ONE O'CLOCK A. M.
A. F. LANG, Prop.

DR. BLOMBURGH.
SCANDINAVIAN
Physician & Surgeon.
Calls attended day or night.
Teeth Extracted.
Office and residence opposite American Hotel. St. Hilaire, Minn.

2nd STORE
(Second Hand Store.)
Everything in this line now on hand. Special bargains given. If you have anything to dispose of give me a call. Repairing of harness also done.
C. A. SKEIE.
St. Hilaire, - - Minnesota

Blacksmith!
Horse shoeing, repairing of all kinds of Farm Implements, Machinery, etc. All work promptly attended to and done in a satisfactory manner.
J. C. DAHL.
St. Hilaire, Minnesota

PATENTS
Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained and all Patent business conducted for Moderate Fees. Our Office is opposite U. S. Patent Office and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.
Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured. A Pamphlet, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address,
C. A. SNOW & CO.
Opp. Patent Office, Washington, D. C.

Market Report.—To-Day.

Wheat No. 1	58	Oats	18
Wheat No. 2	54	Barley	24
Wheat No. 3	48	Flax	83
Eggs (per doz.)	12½	Butter (per lb)	10

LOCAL NEWS.

Yesterday was pay day at the saw mill.

Wall paper and calcimine at the New Drug store.

Go to Bell's for your ice cream or milk shake.

Preaching Sunday evening at 8 in the M. E. church.

Board by the day, week or month at Bell's restaurant.

Leonard Holmes received a car load of twine last week.

H. E. Ives returned from a trip to Crookston yesterday.

Prof. J. Q. Adams, the optician and jeweler is in the village.

Try a lunch, a meal or a weeks board at the Ideal Lunch Room.

—To cure a cough or cold in one day take the Imperial Cough Syrup.

Twenty-one car loads of lumber was shipped from this point Saturday.

Mrs. Rosser of the Riverside hospital Crookston is here to-day on business.

Dr. Francis of the upper Falls was here yesterday on professional business.

Mike Willmes of Red Lake Falls was a visitor in the village the first of the week.

Ed. Bridge will have the interior of his cottage completed some time next week.

Mike Rosenberg arrived yesterday from a two weeks absense in the twin cities.

W. W. Tousley, representing the St. Paul Dispatch was an over Sunday visitor.

If you want to make a loan on your farm, or renew an old one, call on H. E. Ives.

E. M. Hoff made a business trip to Crookston Monday returning the following day.

On account of the scarcity of logs the night crew of the mill were layed off Monday night.

Commissioner Harris did an excellent piece of work in building the new side walks on Water streets.

Oney Oidne leaves to-day for Thief River Falls to accept a position in the drug store of J. B. Stebbins.

The St. Hilaire Lumber Company sent up a crew of men to bring down another drive of logs Saturday.

Hermen Nelson went to Thief River Falls to-day to interview the new company in regard to a log contract.

Mrs. L. K. Kolstad is having an addition built on the west side of her residence. Likewise J. A. Dalnard.

H. J. Freeman was one of the many that went up to the upper Falls Monday to look over the new saw mill.

A. E. Bell left Saturday for Reynolds N. Dak., where he will remain for some time looking after his business interests.

A great many of the night crew at the mill went to Thief River yesterday with a view of getting work in their new mill.

As a rule the crops are looking excellent. Three or four weeks of this weather and the farmers will reap a good harvest.

Secretary of war Alger has resigned and its now up to Gen. Otis who claims he has the situation of the Phillipines "well in hand."

Miss Corrie Hoff who has been visiting relatives in the southern part of the state the past four months returned home yesterday.

Dr. Engstad of Grand Forks was a guest of Dr. Blomburgh Monday while enroute home from a professional trip at Thief River Falls.

Solomon Swanson, who has been an invalid since January last was taken to the Riverside hospital at Crookston Friday for treatment.

President Shevlin of the St. Hilaire Lumber Company came up Monday to look over his interests here. He is very much pleased the way everything is run here.

M. McAndress made a deal with J. H. Johnson Monday whereby he becomes the owner of his beautiful residence on Water street. Consideration $1,100.00.

Miss Bertie Hunstock of Minneapolis arrived last week and will spend her vacation with her dear friend Miss Nellie Hanney.

Leon Demers the new proprietor of the Union meat market has an advertisement in this issue. Look it up and see what he has to say.

The railroad trains in the Red River Valley are so infested with pickpockets that it is dangerous for anyone but editors to ride on them. Editors are immunes.—Ex.

Commissioner Hansen and Johnson were here Saturday enroute home from a meeting of the county board. Their next meeting will be held the first week in September.

Mrs. L. P. Stranahan and Miss May and Nellie Buse of Red Lake Falls were here Monday and took the train for the upper Falls where they will remain on a visit for a short time.

Married:—At Red Lake Falls, Sunday July 23rd, Mr. Wm Olson to Miss Annie Aveison, before Justice Toupon. The Spectator joins in wishing the newly married couple much joy.

We are requested not to say anything by a certain young gentleman, but to-morrow he will be one of the principals in a marriage ceremony. Cupid hit St. Hilaire hard during the month of July.

H. D. Pettibone, formerly superintendent of the St. Hilaire Lumber Co., but now on the road for the Shevlin-Carpenter Co., of Minneapolis, came up Monday and will remain here three or four weeks.

Billy Warner, captain of the St. Hilaire base ball team left to-day for the upper Falls where he has accepted a position in the new mill. This is equivalent to breaking up the ball games for the rest of the season.

In Norway it is proposed to pass a law forbidding girls to marry who do not know how to cook, wash and do general housework. Such a law might work in Norway but the statesman who proposed it in this country could never secure a re-election—Harvey Herald.

Its almost impossible for one train a day on this line to take care of the traffic. The lumber shipped from St. Hilaire alone is almost enough to warrant an extra train. When the upper Falls mill gets running in good shape we expect to see a morning and afternoon train service.

If your face begins to swell and gets to be about twice its normal size you may rest assured that you have been bitten by a kissing bug. This is a new bug and it is said the bite is very poisonous. The first case was discovered near the gulf of Mexico and the last at LaCrosse, Wis.

The marriage of Miss Anna M. Swanson to H. C. Sorenson took place at 2 o'clock to-day at the residence of the brides parents in the town of Excel. Miss Swanson has been a resident of St. Hilaire for the past year and is well and favorably known. The Spectator wishes them much joy throughout married life.

The grain commission firm of the John Miller Company of Duluth, Minn are urging their customers and shippers of grain generally to take greater care in cleaning the same before shipment. They estimate that North Dakota farmers paid $250,000 as freight on foul seed and dirt shipped to Duluth alone during last year.

P. O. Mosleth of the Union meat market made a deal with Leon Demers disposing of all of his interests in the meat market business. Mr. Demers will retain shop tender Kirkhus, so apparently there will not appear to be any change. Mr. Mosleth has decided to remain in the village and will be employed by P. G. Paradis.

The Northwestern Telephone Company's crew of men, about thirty, pitched their tents in this village Saturday. They expect to have the line completed to Thief River Falls by the latter part of next week. They experienced a great deal of trouble between here and Red Lake Falls in placing the poles on account of the quick-sand.

Using Flour Sacks.

The value of old flour sacks in every household is well appreciated. They make excellent towels and various other essential articles. The printed letters and trade-marks on most sacks are an eyesore to the careful housewife. It may not be generally known that these disfigurements can be removed by soaking the sacks in buttermilk over night before they are put in the washtub. Washing them first sets the ink, and care should be taken to soak them in the buttermilk first.

—Go to the New Drug Store for your Stationery and School supplies.

Ventilating the House in Summer.

Admit sunlight at least a part of the day in as many of the rooms as possible, especially in the sitting room, dining room and kitchen. Every room should be aired daily and given the benefit of the sunlight, if not the sunshine directly. Should you close the house or a part of it during the day do not do it so completely as to shut out the moving air, but invite it in through the open windows at the bottom, and after its mission of purification is accomplished give it free egress through the windows opened at the top. The dust may find its way in also, but better some dust and some air than no dust and no air. Bear in mind that a cool room in summer is not desirable nor healthful if the coolness has been purchased at the expense of fresh air and sunshine. Do not fail to have every window of every living room lowered from the top if only a few inches.—Ladies' Home Journal.

Patronize home industry by buying your wall paper at the New Drug store.

Anti-Trust League.

"The trusts must go" is the keystone of an organization which though comparatively new, already claims members in every state and territory. It is known as the American Anti-Trust League. The executive committee of the league held a meeting in Washington this week. The league, which has a full set of national officers, thus sets forth its object: "The purpose of the American Anti-Trust League is to arouse the only power on earth that is stronger that the power of money in public life. The power is the patriotic impulses of the people. The little finger of that power, when awakened, is stronger ten thousand times than the influence of all the billions of all the trusts and combines of the land. The memories of the many sacrifices of the fathers call us to action. If these trust combinations are allowed to go on they can plunder each of us into poverty. No man knows how soon the fear of hunger for his wife and family will make him a coward. It behooves us to strike while the fire of liberty yet burns. The American Anti-Trust League is non-partisan. We call all American freemen to council. If a democrat or a populist or a republican public man has shown himself to be a subservient tool of this great corporate power, then all the united power of the men of the American Anti-Trust League will be used to crush him and drive him from public life. We will adopt the tactics of our enemy until we have created a legislative, judicial and executive power in sympathy with the public welfare. And we call upon every American citizen who loves his country and the great principals of popular government better than he does his party to join us in the work of reestablishing the equal rights of our American citizenship."

—For cuts and sores there is nothing better than the Imperial Carbolic salve.

Farm and Poultry.

It costs the farmer less to produce eggs than it does one living in the suburbs of a town or village, as the hen on the farm can pick up about one-third of her food. A bushel of wheat or corn for a hen one year should be sufficient, provided she has opportunities for securing grass, seeds, insects, etc. She will lay, under fair conditions, ten dozen eggs a year. As to how much profit to expect, it will depend on the cost of the wheat and the price of eggs. The bushel of wheat will cost the Eastern farmer about one dollar, but in some portions of the West the cost may not be over 50 cents. At the same prices for eggs the Western farmer has the advantage of cheaper cost, but, as the eastern farmer has the advantage of prices, his opportunities are better. Each section possess advantages, and when the farmer sells his eggs he should be prepared to know exactly how much expense was incurred.—Fanciers' Journal.

—Dr. Thomas is an up-to-date in all the different branches in his profession. Remember the dates, Aug. 23th and 24th.

Council Proceedings.

Special meeting of the village council Tuesday July 11th 1899.

All members present.

Meeting called to order by President Holmes.

On motion the president and the recorder were instructed to sign a village order for $225.00 in favor of the Austin & Western Co. Limited for one Austin Road machine.

On motion meeting adjourned.

Emil J. Holmes, Pres.
J. L. Johnson, Recorder.

Special meeting of the village council.

All members present.

Meeting called to order by President Holmes.

On motion the council recommended the abatement of taxes desired by the St. Hilaire Lumber Co.

On motion the marshal was instructed to see that all saloons are closed at 11 o'clock p. m. and on Sundays.

On motion the recorder was authorized to issue an order for lumber for a bridge on the town line near Eikhoff's farm.

On motion meeting adjourned.

Attest:— E. J. Holmes
J. L. Johnson, President.
Recorder.

—It is better than ready money because it cures rheumatism, constipation sick headache, indigestion. Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure.

To cure a cough in one day take the Imperial cough syrup. Guaranteed to cure. For sale at the new Drug Store.

Teachers' Examination.

Notice is hereby given that the first teachers' examination under the new law will be held in Red Lake Falls, Monday and Tuesday, August 7th and 8th. All persons intending to teach in this county the coming year, whose certificate expire this fall, must take this examination. All second grade papers will be forwarded to the State Department for marking, third grade papers will be marked by the undersigned. This will be the only examination held in the county this fall and it will be necessary for all applicants, to be present at 9 o'clock on the morning of the first day as no questions can be furnished after the examination begins.

Frank Jeffers,
County Superintendent.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

—If you are troubled with rheumatism take the Imperial Blood and Rheumatism cure. It will positively cure all diseases arising from impure blood, and is sold under an absolute guarantee to benefit or money refunded. Call for free sample at the New Drug Store.

North Dakota Regiment's Record Earned by Good Service.

In a letter to the Forum Sergt. Billy Edwards, of the North Dakota regiment, recites some interesting incidents, among them these.

Once the commander of the Twenty second Infantry was powerless to move his command. Gen. Lawton heard of this, and ordered the North Dakotans to the front. They went, passed the Twenty-second laying in the grass, crossed a river, several members of Co. B nearly drowning. Capt. Gearey was the first to step into the river, and he went over his head; Hathaway and Charley Hughes did the same—the latter having a hard time to get out. Bradley walked down all the way, and was wet only to his knees; others farther down the skirmish line crossed on dry stones. Seven men lost their guns in the deep hole, and Jim Miller had to strip and dive three times before he found his; this was all under fire, and the boys marched up the bank, flanked the googoos, and drove them off. Now the Twenty-second are mad, and call us Gen. Lawton's pets, and other vile names.

The regulars did things by the book while the volunteers were practical and used sense, according to the requirements, and the volunteers always came out on top.

On the march the men lived on canned corned beef and hard tack—they saw no bread for thirty-five days. There was always plenty of sugar, as great warehouses of it were passed on the road; also rice was had when there was a chance to cook it. Mangoes, a most delicious native fruit, which grows by the thousands on great shade trees, were plenty; in taste this is a cross between a banana and a very sweet musk melon; they have the form of a potato, and the best will weigh a pound. Chickens and small pigs were known to disappear along the route as well.

One night as the column went into camp at Aligat, in a rice field, it commenced to rain. The boys obtained straw and pitched their big tents. By 10 o'clock there was from six to ten inches of water in the tents, and of course everbody was wet. Some one sang out: "Throw out the life line." Others began to quack. Then all began to sing and laugh, and they kept it up all night. Not even a Luzon rain can down Yankee humor.

I notice an editorial in the Argus of March 24th, in regard to the Thirteenth Minnesota, which is in very bad taste, to say the least. The Thirteenth Minnesota have had the worst of it from start to finish, and because there were a few round-heads in it who talked too much the regiment as a whole has had to suffer. Who will say that it was [illegible] more trying and harder to stay in the city during the battle with the insurgents than it was out on the line? The Thirteenth have made a record since joining the line. They are all right, and have lots of friends among the North Dakotans, and in fact with all who have met them or who know the facts.

Cut Your Weeds.

In the general statutes of the state of Minnesota is a law which says very emphatically that: "It is the duty of any one owning or controlling lands bordering on the highway to destroy on any such highway all Russian, Canadian, or other thistles, burdocks, white or oxeyed daisies, wild mustard, snap dragon, or two flax, cockleburr, sow thistle, sour dock, yellow dock and all other noxious weeds at such time and in such manner as to prevent their bearing seed. It is the duty of the overseer, commissioner or officers having charge of the highway to inquire in regard to the existence of weeds on the highways and public places, and if upon notice the owner or occupant fails so to do, to properly destroy them and the expense thereof may be extended as a tax against the property on which the weeds are so destroyed.

Regulate Your Watch.

At Johnson's drug store and if it don't keep time, leave it and we will repair it and warrant it to keep time for one year. New watches, clocks chains and jewelry for sale at the lowest prices. I will be at Johnson's drug store the 10th, 11th and 12th, also the 25th and 26th of every month. All work left at the store has my personal attention. When you come to Red Lake Falls, make the Palace Jewelry Store your headquarters.

I am yours truly
Prof. J. Q. Adams,
Watchmaker and Optician.

The Best Cough Remedy on Earth.

Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, Consumption Cure, cures a cold in 24 hours if taken in time and does not stop a cough in One Minute by paralyzing the throat, but it cures the disease and leaves the throat and lungs healthy and strong. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

Dentist.

—Dr. J. H. Thomas, the Crookston dentist will be at Hotel Markham, St. Hilaire, Aug. 23th and 24th prepared to do all kinds of up to date dental work in all branches. All work warranted. Remember the dates 23th and 24th.

—A. H. Weagant, the hardware merchant, is now prepared to do all kinds of bicycle repairing in a satisfactory manner. If your bicycle is out of order bring it around to us.

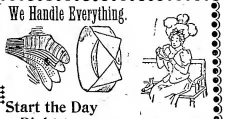
Crookston College

Will open its 14th term September 11th 1899. The cheapest, best and most practical school in the northwest. Catalogue sent free. Address, Crookston College, Crookston, Minn.

Consumption Cured.

—Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup, the best cough remedy on earth, cures a cold in one day if taken in time. 25 and 50 cts. For sale by the Imperial Drug Co., St. Hilaire.

We Handle Everything.



Start the Day Right

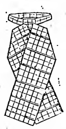
And everything will go smoothly. The proper way to start the day is by coming around to our store and ordering a supply of groceries for the day, such things as you may need. It will take you but a few minutes, and we feel sure you will not regret it.

Our Groceries

Are always fresh, and then the prices are as near right as we know how to make them. If you have not been in the habit of trading with us, drop in and see us anyway; you might get into the habit.

Hardware

We carry everything in the hardware line from cooking stoves down to tacks—all you have to do is to ask for what you want. If you want anything in the tin or copper line done drop into our tin shop and your wants will be attended to.



Yours very truly,
RAPP & POST
St. Hilaire, Minnesota.

M. A. HALL
DEALER IN DRY GOODS,
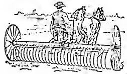
GROCERIES,
NOTIONS,
GENTS FURNISHING GOODS,
TOBACCO,
CIGARS,
CONFECTIONERY

A. H. WEAGANT
Having bought the business of Fred Eikhoff, I am now prepared to sell you anything in line of
HARDWARE AND TINWARE
CUTLERY, PAINTS & OILS,
Everything at Rock Bottom Prices. Come and see for yourself. Opposite Hotel Markham

LEONARD HOLMES,
—DEALER IN—
DEERING BINDERS.
" MOWERS.
" HAY RAKES.
" PLOWS.
TWINE. TWINE. TWINE



Lumber! Lumber!
OF ALL KINDS.
We have a large and well assorted stock of Dry Lumber and are prepared to fill all orders on short notice. We also carry a complete assortment
—OF—
Sash, Doors, Paper
AND ALL KINDS OF BUILDING MATERIAL
Which we buy in large quantities and are thereby enabled to sell at lowest market prices.
ST. HILAIRE LUMBER CO.

NEW MEAT MARKET.
L. M. ROLAND, Proprietor.
Fresh and Salted Meats.
Highest Market Price Paid for Hides.

L. K. KOLSTAD
DEALER IN
Boots and Shoes!
Repairing a Specialty.
ST. HILAIRE, MINNESOTA.

Guessing at It.

Little Jamie—Papa, what is the true poetic fire?

Papa—I guess that must be the fire the poet gets when the editor happens to be in a savage mood.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Still More Counterfeiting.

The Secret Service has just unearthed another band of counterfeiters, and secured a quantity of bogus bills, which were very cleverly executed. Things of great value are always selected for imitation, notably Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which has many imitators but no equals for disorders like indigestion, dyspepsia and constipation.

Well, Not Exactly.

Brown—I hear you married a very charming young widow since I last saw you!

Green—That's what I thought the day we were married.

Brown—Well, didn't you?

Green—No; she married me.—Chicago News.

"A Good Name
At Home

Is a Tower of Strength Abroad." In Lowell, Mass., where Hood's Sarsaparilla is made, it still has a larger sale than all other blood purifiers. Its fame and cures and sales have spread abroad, and it is universally recognized as the best blood medicine money can buy. Remember

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

A Good Judge.

"Have you met Mr. Wolly, the Western millionaire?" asked the sharp-faced young lady.

"Oh, yes," replied the plump one. "He took me in to dinner at Mrs. Hytone's last night. He was quite gallant, and remarked upon my bird-like appetite."

"Indeed, dear. Well, he's a good judge. You know he runs an ostrich farm in California."—Catholic Standard and Truth.

The Financial Question.

"Some folks do say that time is money," remarked the village storekeeper, "but I don't take much stock in it."

"You don't, eh?" queried the loafer.

"No, I don't," replied the storekeeper, "and I wish you'd spend a little more money here and a little less time."—Chicago News.

The Strong Arm.

Denny—O'Grady sez his bye wur brought up by th' strong arm av the law.

Larry—Thin it's a reformatory he wuz in?

Denny—Divil a wan. He fell down a well an' a cop pulled him out.—Chicago News.

How It Began.

"I hear that Dr. Drytalk has had a row with his wife."

"Yes; Deacon Brown's wife put a button in the collection that matched those on Dr. Drytalk's coat."—St. Louis Star.

A Natural Deduction.

"The world is mine!" exclaimed Monte Cristo just before the curtain fell.

"Say!" yelled a Spaniard from the gallery, "are you the feller they call 'Uncle Sam?'"

A Distinction.

"Is your mama sick, Benny?"

"Nope, she's ill; pop's sick—he has to do the cookin'."—Judge.

Whenever a girl begins to lecture a young man on financial economy, he can safely ask her to name the happy day.

Paradoxical though it may seem, the word "trust" excites a good deal of suspicion.

Theatrical stars are often, as the word implies—Ippish.

REGISTER OF TREASURY.

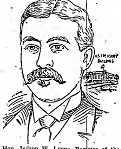
Hon Judson W. Lyons, Register of the United States Treasury, in a letter from Washington, D. C., says:

April 23, 1899.

Pe-ru-na Drug Mfg. Co., Columbus, O.:

Gentlemen—I find Pe-ru-na to be an excellent remedy for the catarrhal affections of spring and summer, and those who suffer from depression from the heat of the summer will find no remedy the equal of Pe-ru-na.

Judson W. Lyons.



Hon. Judson W. Lyons, Register of the Treasury.

No man is better known to the financial world than Judson W. Lyons. His name on every piece of money of recent date makes his signature one of the most familiar ones in the United States. Hon. Lyons address is Augusta, Ga. He is a member of the National Republican committee, and is a prominent and influential politician. He is a particular friend of President McKinley.

Remember that cholera morbus, cholera infantum, summer complaint, bilious colic, diarrhoea and dysentery are each and all catarrh of the bowels. Catarrh is the only correct name for these affections. Pe-ru-na is an absolute specific for these ailments, which are so common in summer. Dr. Hartman, in a practice of over forty years, never lost a single case of cholera infantum, dysentery, diarrhoea, or cholera morbus, and his only remedy was Pe-ru-na. Those desiring further particulars should send for a free copy of "Summer Catarrh." Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O.

KILL THEM

Those peace destroyers, the household Flies.

Dutcher's Fly Killer

not only kills the parent fly, but prevents reproduction. A sheet will kill a quart.

Ask your Druggist or Grocer.

FRED. DUTCHER DRUG CO. St. Albans, Vt.

SCIENTIFIC TOPICS.

CURRENT NOTES OF DISCOVERY AND INVENTION.

How an Inventive Woman Makes Use of Old Bedsprings—A Copying Press Saturator That Takes the Place of the Brush—New Idea in Folding Boats

Use for an Old Bedspring.

The inventive mind of man usually turns itself to the construction of some new article of use or ornament, some addition to the earth's treasures evolved by patient study and thought. Not so the inventive mind of woman; that is usually employed in devising ways of utilizing the useless; of turning to some secondary purpose that which was intended for some entirely different metier.

In Brooklyn, where annexation to New York has not destroyed the distinctive features, and where people still own patches of garden where flowers and fruit are carefully tended through the trying seasons of youth, a bright woman with the inventive mind aforesaid has taken two old spring beds which have done duty in their intended roles until old age has broken their wires and reduced their slats to a pitiable stage of decrepitude, fastened them against her back fence, and already trained vines are beginning to creep about their unsightliness and peep through the slats with a promise of blossoms later on which shall turn the old spring beds into a glory of crimson and gold; and it is safe to say that when the time comes no one who is not initiated into the secret will be able to tell the foundation of the trailing vines.

Who can say that the inventive mind that turns the spring bed into such a blessing to the eye does not rank with the mind that first conceived the bed itself?

The Persian Carpenter.

In accordance with the invariable custom of all eastern artisans, the carpenter sits upon the ground while at work. Instead of a bench a strong stake is driven down before him, leaving about ten inches above ground, and upon this he rests his work and keeps it steady with his feet. The facility with which the work is executed in this position has always been a matter of surprise to European workmen. In the royal arsenals English tools are used and a better system of working has been introduced under the superintendence of British officers, but in the native workshops the workmen are still to be seen squatting on the ground, and, being used to this position from infancy, and their tools being formed to work with more efficiency when used in this way, any alteration is scarcely to be expected. Their principal tools are the frame saw, adze, planes, hammers, nails and a few smaller tools.—Southern Lumberman.

Temperature of Diamonds.

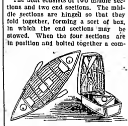
A good diamond is a good deal colder than an imitation and the lapidaries say that the best way to detect this difference is to touch the stones to the tongue. Sapphires, emeralds, rubies, garnets and other precious stones may be tested in the same way; the real stone is invariably colder than the imitation. The lapidaries do not give a reason for the difference, but it may be found, perhaps, in the greater density of the real stones, which makes them better conductors of heat.

A New Folding Boat.

A western man has invented an improved form of folding boat, which should prove very successful as an aid to inland fishermen and sojourners in the forests of Maine and New Hampshire during the summer and fall fishing season.

Any one who has "toted" a heavy boat across a Maine "carry" has sighed for something that would come apart when desired, and yet would be sufficiently stable to withstand the shocks and bumps incident to a trip up or down the average New England inland stream.

The boat consists of two middle sections and two end sections. The middle sections are hinged so that they fold together, forming a sort of box, in which the end sections may be stowed. When the four sections are in position and bolted together a complete boat is formed, having pointed ends, constituting buoyant air chambers.



(Made to break down into sections, and thus readily transported.)

A New Golf Club.

One of the latest devices of the faddist in golf clubs is the single-piece driver, which is said to possess distinct merits over the ordinary implement. The idea emanates from the other side, where most of the innovations of this kind have their origin, and those who are responsible for its introduction claim that the club is the longest driving implement that has yet been produced. As its name implies, it is made all of one piece, the shaft being bent at the neck to allow the head of the club the proper angle, and in this way the grain runs continuously from tip to toe.

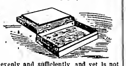
The distinct merit which the club is supposed to possess is a greater suppleness of shaft, the absence of binding at the point where the head and shaft are usually joined making this possible.

Fish-Eating Spiders.

There are certain large sea spiders (two feet from toe to toe), collossendela gigas, that live in the water and feed entirely upon molluscs and worms. The carniverous wolf spider, an amphibious inhabitant of the tropical regions of South America, is said to prefer a fish diet, although it is not averse to eating mice, young birds, and even snakes, resembling in this respect the theraphosidae, or bird-catching spiders of India and Queensland, some of which equal a cat in size. The collossendeis is the most formidable specimen of the spider family, measuring six inches round the body and possessing twelve long, hairy legs with which it grips its finny prey. It attacks fish several times larger than itself, and, after biting them through the back and stinging them to death, gluts itself by sucking the juices from the bodies of its victims.

New Office Device.

A new piece of office furniture is the copying press bath which was designed to take the place of the brush generally used for that purpose. It consists of a box of sufficient size to accommodate a sheet of the paper generally used. The bottom consists of a padding filled with particles of sponge. The lid of the box is hinged and carries on its inside a spring-actuated plate, which forces the paper against the saturated padding of the bottom. Thus the paper is moistened evenly and sufficiently, and yet is not soaked to such an extent that it is torn in manipulation. This apparatus has been patented.



New Method of Galvanizing.

Formerly the deposition of a zinc coating to preserve iron from rusting was only effected by the aid of heat, but within two years past a cold process of galvanizing by electrolysis has been put into practice. It is averred that the new process overcomes many defects of the old, such as lack of uniformity in the thickness of the zinc film and roughness of the surface. As formerly practiced, galvanizing often necessitated the recutting of screw threads on account of the uneven deposit, but with the electrolytic method no such difficulty arises. It is also claimed that the zinc coating adheres more firmly when deposited by the new process, while the cost is diminished.

Oyster Culture.

One of the divisions of the United States fish commission has investigated a number of problems connected with oysters and their culture, and has reported on the origin of the color of green oysters. This variety is due to vegetable matter used by the oysters for food, and in no way injures the edible qualities of the bivalve. Red oysters have been occasionally noted, but there has as yet been no opportunity for their investigation.

Stone and Oil.

D. C. French, the sculptor, says that there is more chance for young Americans in sculpture than in painting. "I believe," he adds, "that our natural character is more adapted to working in stone than in oil." Mark Twain, hearing this, replied: "Well, give me the oil well, and the French can take the quarry every time."

A New Ending.

Merritt—I had an awfully embarrassing thing happen to me this afternoon. I was walking with a girl, when a sudden gust of wind blew off my hat and sent it kiting up the middle of the street.

Giles—You surely weren't fool enough to run after it? You know there is always sure to be some obliging stranger who will chase it for you.

Merritt—So I'd always heard. But the girl began laughing at my predicament, and said I'd have to do some scorching to beat the wind.

Giles—Well, of course, she was a girl, and didn't know that some other fellow would do the sprinting for you.

Merritt—In the meantime a man had been chasing it up the block, and when the hat scurried around the first corner I knew he would catch it, for he was running like a Spaniard.

Giles—Just as I told you.

Merritt—I continued very leisurely, and when I got to the corner——

Giles—There was the obliging man with your hat.

Merritt—No. Both the man and the hat had disappeared.

A Parliamentary Wooing.

"I move," said the young congressman, "that we now resolve ourselves into a committee of the whole to consider the advisability of immediate annexation."

"I—I object," said the maiden, shyly.

"I move the previous question, said the young man, slyly.

This was beyond her, and she said nothing.

"We will now put it to a vote," said he. "Any opposition to the motion may be manifested by a simple 'no.'"

She looked at him a trifle bewildered, and he hastily continued:

"Your speaking eyes being the only signs I note, it is plainly evident that the ayes have it and the previous question is carried. Now, as this vote must be considered a test of strength, it can no longer be doubted that annexation is favored by an overwhelming majority, in consequence of which you might as well name the day when the union shall be completed."

The maiden gasped.

"I—I ob——" she began.

But with the able assistance of a luxuriant mustache he succeeded in shutting off debate. And the fight was won.

Could Remember Some Things.

Traveling Missionary—And how many children have you, Mr. Burdock?

Farmer Burdock (doubtfully)—Well, now, I dunno. There's Dick and John and Kate—wife, how many children are there around here?

His wife—Nine; five boys and four girls.

Traveling Missionary—A fine family and a fine farm, Mr. Burdock. You keep stock, I presume?

Farmer Burdock—Oh, yes; I've got 173 head of Jersey cattle, 589 sheep and 91 hogs.

It Developed.

"What's become of that little Tommy Traddles? That bush-headed boy with the wonderful talent for music? Did his taste develop into anything practical?"

"Yes, indeed. I saw him in the city a few days ago. He was ringing a big bell in front of an auction store."—Indianapolis Journal.

PATENTS.

List of Patents Issued Last Week to Northwestern Inventors.

William Bell, Dodge Center, Minn., manure loader; John A. Elliot, Butte, Mont., electrical hot-air heater; Joseph Frudenfield, Madison, S. D., account book; Elbridge and J. Haskins, Detroit, Minn., clothes conveyer for washing machines; Robert R. Lea, Dwight, N. D., harrow.

Merwin, Lothrop & Johnson, Patent Attorneys, 910 Pioneer Press Bldg., St. Paul.

The Car Window Again.

Fuddy—You know how loving Tom and Miss Kumfurt were? Well, she has thrown him over.

Duddy—How did it happen?

Fuddy—Charley Titler, who also has an eye on Miss Kumfurt, saw her and Tom sitting in the car as happy as two turtle doves. He got a woman in the next seat to ask Tom if he would please open the window. Of course Tom tried to comply, and of course he failed miserably. That was too much for Miss Kumfurt. A woman can't be expected to respect a man who has made himself ridiculous in public.—Boston Transcript.

Read the Advertisements.

You will enjoy this publication much better if you will get into the habit of reading the advertisements; they will afford a most amusing study, and will put you in the way of getting some excellent bargains. Our advertisers are reliable; they send what they advertise.

He Knew the Breed.

"Call a messenger boy, quick!" cried the business man.

The model office boy paled perceptibly. He feared to lose his situation, but then—there was his conscience. The mental struggle was fierce but brief.

"No; I cannot do it," he said, simply, for I have never yet spoken an untruth."—Standard and Catholic Times.

Two Souls With But a Single Thought

Algy Staylate—I sometimes wish, don't ye know, that I had been born a rajah—don't ye know, over in India, don't ye know?

Belle Britely (wearily)—Why, Mr. Staylate, how strange! I was just wishing that very same thing myself!—Puck.

Do Your Feet Ache and Burn?

Shake into your shoes, Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It makes tight and New Shoes feel Easy. Cures Corns, Bunions, Swollen, Hot and Sweating Feet. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Her Gentle Hint.

Tramp—Can I get a bite to eat?

Lady of the House—You can get a bite, but Tige will do the eating.—Chicago Record.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
For children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 25c a bottle.

The wise man seeks a woman with an independent fortune rather than a fortune with an independent woman attached.

Hall's Catarrh Cure
Is taken internally. Price, 75c.

A woman's thoughts of matrimony before and after taking are seldom the same.

Piles of Pain.
Many kinds of piles—itching, bleeding—all painful, terrible tortures, but all are quickly cured by Cascarets Candy Cathartic. All druggists, 10c, 25c, 50

A dog kennel should be built of wood with the bark on and lighted by a bay window.

We will forfeit $1,000 if any of our published testimonials are proven to be not genuine. The Piso Co., Warren, Pa.

Kindness in ourselves is the honey that blunts the sting of unkindness in another.—Landor.

Did you ever See a Snow Storm in Summer?

We never did; but we have seen the clothing at this time of the year so covered with dandruff that it looked as if it had been out in a regular snowstorm.

No need of this snowstorm.

As the summer sun would melt the falling snow so will

Ayer's Hair Vigor

melt these flakes of dandruff in the scalp. It goes further than this: it prevents their formation.

It has still other properties: it will restore color to gray hair in just ten times out of every ten cases.

And it does even more: it feeds and nourishes the roots of the hair. Thin hair becomes thick hair; and short hair becomes long hair.

We have a book on the Hair and Scalp. It is yours, for the asking.

If you do not obtain all the benefits you expected from the use of the Vigor, write the doctor about it. Probably there is some difficulty with your general system which may be easily removed. Address,
DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

A BOOTBLACK TRUST

PROTECTIVE LEAGUE STARTED IN NEW YORK.

Must Be Over Sixteen—Regular Scale of Prices to Be Fixed and Free Shines of Shoe Stores to Be Opposed—The President Talks.

That presumably down-trodden yet cheerful toiler, the bootblack, has determined to assert himself and struggle for his rights. Individually, he says, he has many grievances which he hopes to have rectified collectively. In the near future the bootblacks of Greater New York hope to become a power for their own good.

The "Bootblacks' Protective league" has already been organized in that city and, according to the statement of G. P. Caggiano, its president, is already in a flourishing condition. The membership, he said, is now 500. It is hoped to make it ten times that number in a short time, and to put on a firm basis a proposed scale of prices for various kinds of "shines."

If the organization can accomplish its purpose the days of the small boy bootblack, who polishes shoes for from 2 to 5 cents, is numbered. The union men are going to try and drive him out of business. They want no one who is not 16 years old in the trade. Circulars containing a set of resolutions adopted by the league have been printed in English and Italian. They will be sent to every bootblack in the city with an invitation to join the league.

President Caggiano and six members of the law committee met last night at 140 Mott street. They resolved to draw up a bill which they will submit to the league for approval. It will then be sent to the legislature. Just what its scope will be has not been determined. It will contain many provisions that the bootblacks hope to have made law.

"I think it is time that the bootblack trade should be recognized," said Caggiano. "It is our purpose to organize a branch of our league in every assembly district of Greater New York. We want to have uniform prices established throughout the city and the practice of free 'shines' and 'polishes' in shoe stores stopped. In most all of the large shoe stores a free bootblack stand is placed. That helps take the bread and butter out of our mouths. We want these free stands prohibited and also we want all stands licensed whether on the streets or inside of barber shops, ferries, stations, clubs, shops and steamboats. The present license of $5 for a street bootblack stand is too high and we want it reduced. It is not the intention of the league to hurt the wandering bootblack of the street. He must, however, be an 'artist' and charge at least 5 cents for a 'shine' and 10 cents for a polish. Boys under 16 years old are to be debarred from membership in the league. We mean to make ourselves felt politically, if necessary," said one member of the law committee at a recent meeting.

FROM THE FROG.

One May Get Some Valuable Lessons in Swimming.

Washington Star: "A swimmer, no matter whether he is a beginner or an expert, cannot improve upon the advice of his great-grandfather, which is to go to a brook or swamp and study the manner and methods of the frog," remarked an ex-champion of the New York Athletic club to a writer for the Star recently. "The most expert swimmers in the world are tyros compared to the laziest bullfrogs. The difficulty with all swimmers is that they spoil the effect of the stroke by the recovery. When a frog starts off he draws his legs carefully and slowly up under him until he is in the position of a man sitting on his haunches. Then he suddenly gives a mighty spring in the water, kicking his legs out, behind him, but almost directly crosswise. After the kicks his legs are slowly drawn together by his motion through the water until they hang out behind him in a perfectly rigid form. Every toe of his web feet is held out as straight as an arrow and then nothing retards his motion through the water. Then again he slowly and carefully draws his legs in and repeats the performance. You will notice that in drawing the legs up to his body for a second kick the frog recedes a little. This is owing to the action of the upper leg on the water, and it corresponds exactly with the similar movement on the part of a man. The first thing a frog does is to give his body a good start through the water, and he holds himself in such a way that he gets the whole value of the stroke. A man starts out with just such a kick, but after he has gone two or three feet he will begin to swing his hands forward or draw up his legs in such a fashion that they offset the whole value of his work. He stops his own body half way before the effect of the stroke has spent itself."

No Birthplace.

A remark made by a 6-year-old boy on a certain occasion was the natural result of confusion in his small mind, but it caused amusement to the bystanders. The house in which he had first seen the light of day had been torn down to make room for a wider street, and the little boy, holding fast to his father's hand, viewed the ruins with grief and amazement. "Why, papa!" he cried, sorrowfully. "Why, papa, I wasn't born anywhere now, was I?"

Boon Companions.

The Kennebec Journal tells of a man who has a fox and a hound that are boon companions. When both animals were in the pup stage they were placed together, and have now enjoyed a year of each other's society in peace and harmony. They sleep together and play with each other much after the manner of two frolicsome pups.

Licenses for Horseshoers.

An enactment in Washington requires horseshoers to pass an examination and to be licensed.

BOGUS ANCIENT MANUSCRIPT.

The Alleged Treasures Were "Faked" in Central Asia.

Orientalists will do well to be on their guard in connection with Central Asian manuscripts, which have of late provided them with such an endless subject of discussion, says the Scotsman. It was Capt. Bower who first discovered the existence of some extremely ancient manuscripts during his great journey across central Asia, and Dr. Sven Hedin brought back a rich collection for the edification and mystification of orientalists. Since then the supply of ancient manuscripts has been very great, but it is stated that the gravest suspicion is now cast upon the authenticity of a very large proportion of these so-called relics of antiquity.

An English officer who is now engaged in some exploring work in Central Asia has discovered that there exists in Khotan a regular manufactory of the manuscript relics, and so large is the output that he believes that at least 95 per cent of the manuscripts which have reached Europe from central Asia during recent years are spurious. The process of manufacture has been explained to him, and so impressed is he with the difficulty of distinguishing between the genuine and the counterfeit that he has himself adopted a rule of never under any circumstances buying any ancient book offered to him for sale. Meanwhile there is much searching of hearts among the owners of the manuscripts which have already found their way into European collections.

LONE LEMON.

That Was Slandered When It Did Not Deserve to Be.

